SHAREHOLDERS

- Green Bay Packers, Inc., has been a publicly owned, nonprofit corporation since Aug. 18, 1923, when original articles of incorporation were filed with Wisconsin's secretary of state.
- A total of 4,750,937 shares is owned by 112,158 stockholders none of whom receives any dividend on the initial investment.
- The corporation is governed by a board of directors and a sevenmember executive committee.
- One of the more remarkable business stories in American history, the team is kept viable by its shareholders — its unselfish fans. Even more incredible, the Packers have survived during the current era, permeated by free agency and the NFL salary cap. And, thanks in large part to Brown County's passage of the 2000 Lambeau Field referendum, the club will remain solvent and highly competitive well into the future due to its redeveloped stadium.
- Fans have come to the team's financial rescue on several occasions, including four previous stock sales: 1923, 1935, 1950 and 1997.
- To protect against someone taking control of the team, the articles of incorporation prohibit any person from owning more than 200,000 shares.

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Green Bay Packers organization is dedicated to enriching the lives of Wisconsin and Upper Michigan residents by donating time and talents, along with providing diverse community out-reach programs. Our programs are designed to assist nonprofit organizations, mentor youth, encourage volunteerism and gain an awareness of the unique needs of our communities. We are committed to taking an active role in leading by example to encourage, inspire and build unity within the communities that have consistently supported us for more than 90 years.

The history of the Green Bay Packers is rich with on-field accomplishments and a special bond with the community that has supported the organization throughout its 91-year history. As the legend of the Green Bay Packers has grown through time, so has the Packers' responsibility to the community.

Nonprofit organizations throughout Wisconsin and Upper Michigan look to the Green Bay Packers for both tangible and intangible assistance for their beneficiaries – help that comes in the form of money, food, clothing, autographs, or simply from smiles brought about by the visit of someone's sports hero. The Green Bay Packers organization, along with its players and coaches, willingly accepts this responsibility. Five full-time employees and two part-time employees spend every working day organizing charitable involvement that comes about through the commitment of the players, coaches and staff.

Community outreach takes many forms. The Packers sponsor special fundraising events, make donations of cash and memorabilia to many charitable organizations, make personal appearances, and serve on various community boards and commissions.

While it's impossible to list every donation or event, the Green Bay Packers Community Outreach Report provides an overview of the organization's many contributions.

GOLF CLASSIC

The Brown County Golf Course was the site of the sixth annual Brown County Children's Charity Golf Classic, sponsored in part by the Green Bay Packers, Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy was joined by other members of the Green Bay Packers administrative staff at the event, which raised approximately $40,000. The proceeds were used to help create the first Child Advocacy Center (CAC) in Brown County. The CAC is a place where all community agencies involved in child-abuse cases can work together in a single location to focus on the needs of the child victim and his or her family.

APPEARANCES

The special bond between the Green Bay Packers and the community is never more apparent than when the players and coaches volunteer their time at schools, hospitals, fundraisers and other community events and programs. During 2009, players and coaches made over 500 special appearances.

COMMITMENT TO THE COMMUNITY

DONATIONS

The Green Bay Packers' reach is unmistakable and provides many opportunities for charities to benefit from the team's success. Donating merchandise to nonprofit groups is another Packers tradition. The team's unmatched following creates a great demand for autographed memorabilia, which is demonstrated by the fact that signed items fulfilling 8,000 requests raised approximately $2.2 million in 2009. The events supported by Packers donations included benefits, charity auctions and raffles, in addition to school and community fundraisers.

In addition to grants from the Green Bay Packers Foundation, separate cash donations to local charities and fundraisers have topped $1.4 million over the past year. This includes donations of over $550,000 to NFL charities and youth football.

JERRY PARINS CRUISE FOR CANCER

In its sixth year, the Jerry Parins Cruise for Cancer was again a great success as more than 700 bikers, Packers players and staff members hit area roads for a worthy cause. Parins, Senior Security Advisor for the Green Bay Packers and a motorcycle enthusiast from an early age, coordinated the first annual Cruise just 16 months after being diagnosed with cancer. The 60-mile motorcycle ride has raised more than $300,000 for various cancer-related organizations, many of which he encountered during his treatment at St. Vincent Hospital in Green Bay.

MILITARY SUPPORT

The Green Bay Packers recognize the impact sports can make on individuals away from home who are serving their country. The Packers have made a commitment to respond to the hundreds of letters and e-mails received from deployed soldiers and their families by sending countless military care packages and messages of support. Many requests ask for the team's help to provide a distraction from the rigors of military life, while others request special recognition of soldiers at a turning point in their military careers.

HUNTING DOWN HUNGER CAP CAMPAIGN

During the 2009 season and into 2010, the Packers Pro Shop sold more than 21,000 orange and camouflage hats, all bearing the Packers "G" logo and the words "Hunting Down Hunger." The campaign raised $105,000, which in turn was distributed to 27 statewide nonprofit organizations with hunger-relief programs. Including this program, the Packers and their fans have now raised nearly $2 million for charity through four cap campaigns.

WELCOME BACK PACKERS LUNCHEON

Hosted by the Green Bay Area Chamber of Commerce, the Welcome Back Packers Luncheon is held each year to welcome the players and coaching staff back to the area for the upcoming football season. During the luncheon in 2009, the Green Bay Area Chamber of Commerce recognized Daryn Colledge for the exceptional impact he has made in the community and awarded him the 2009 Community Service Award.

LAMBEAU FIELD CONCESSION STANDS

At Lambeau Field, volunteers staff the concession stands on game days with proceeds going to community groups throughout the area. Through this cooperative effort between the Packers and Levy Restaurants, more than $750,000 was generated for the 67 community organizations that participated in 2009.

MIDWEST SHRINE GAME

For 60 years, the Packers have designated one preseason game as the Midwest Shrine Game. Each year at the game, the Packers make a donation to the Shrine Tripoli Temple, which operates Shriner's Hospitals for Children. The facilities provide specialized medical services to children at absolutely no cost. Designated proceeds from the game were donated to the Shriner's Children's Hospital in Chicago, a facility specializing in helping children with orthopedic needs where kids from Wisconsin are often sent for treatment. To date, the donations have totaled more than $3.1 million.

BISHOP'S CHARITIES GAME

Since 1961, the Packers have designated one preseason game at Lambeau Field as the Bishop's Charities Game. Over the years from this game, the Packers have given in excess of $3.4 million to the Catholic Diocese of Green Bay.

INTERNSHIPS

As an organization, the Packers employ 180 people full-time and more than 300 people part-time. The Packers also offer internships to young adults in several areas of the organization. The accounting, information technology, marketing, public relations, ticketing, training, and fields departments all provide interns with valuable experience to add to their college class work or professional training. Coaching also offers a minority internship.

PRO SHOP OUTREACH

The Packers Pro Shop encourages high-school students to become valued employees by developing a strong work ethic and learning the importance of responsibility. Involvement spans several areas in the Green Bay community. Each year the Pro Shop hires two students from local high schools to be part of the work experience program. The program is designed to increase community-based work experience opportunities for students. One student is placed at the retail store, and one at the mail-order and warehouse location.

The Pro Shop also works in conjunction with local high schools and hires co-op and DECA students to develop their retail and marketing skills to enhance the curriculum set for them in their business classes. The student's grade is incorporated with their work experience.

Two $750 scholarships are offered to graduating seniors through Scholarships Inc., a local volunteer organization designed to help students afford a college education. One is designated to a student who will be attending a two-year school and the other for a student attending a four-year school. In 2009, Jordan LeClaire of Green Bay West High School and Branden Tachick of Bay Port High School were chosen as scholarship recipients.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

JOIN THE TEAM

Volunteerism has long been a hallmark of the NFL's commitment to public service, a commitment shared by the entire Green Bay Packers organization. In 2003, the NFL adopted a new public service campaign. This campaign, called "Join the Team," is the NFL's call to action to its fans and to all Americans. The league's message: Everyone can make a difference in their community through volunteering, outreach, and involvement.

FIT KIDS

Several years ago, the Green Bay Packers, WFRV CBS-5, Karma Group and the Green Bay Area Public School District teamed up to fight childhood obesity through the creation of a program called Fit Kids. Fit Kids is a fourth-grade curriculum that focuses on the physical, nutritional and social health of children. Each month, physical-education teachers and classroom teachers incorporate various elements of the program into their lessons. Players are featured in monthly themed videos and posters. Themes include 'Get Together,' 'Get Out,' 'Get Fueled,' 'Get Cooking,' 'Get Moving,' 'Get Bendy,' 'Get Happy' and 'Get Fit.' In its sixth year, all public school districts in Wisconsin were encouraged to take part in the program, bringing the participation level to more than 300 school districts.

PLAY 60 CHALLENGE

The NFL, the Green Bay Packers and the American Heart Association have come together to offer the "Play 60 Challenge" to middle schools throughout Wisconsin. The program challenges youth to be active for at least 60 minutes every day. In 2009, fifth- through eighth-grade students from 10 Wisconsin schools participated in the six-week physical fitness challenge. Students were encouraged to track their daily amount of physical activity on their classroom scoreboards. The top three schools received gift certificates for new physical education equipment. The school with the overall highest scores received an all-expenses-paid trip to Lambeau Field. The visit included Packers Hall of Fame passes, a tour of the stadium, and a chance to meet a Green Bay Packers football player.

Packers players Al Harris, T.J. Lang, Evan Dietrich-Smith, Breno Giacomini, James Jones, John Kuhn and Nick Barnett took part in the 11th annual Hometown Huddle, featuring the Green Bay Packers teaming up with the City of Green Bay to provide a new playground for the city's Nicolet Elementary School Park. The annual event, which also supported Play 60, is funded by a grant from the NFL, the Green Bay Packers and the United Way of Brown County.

COATS FOR KIDS

Lambeau Field has traditionally been a collection point for the Salvation Army's Coats for Kids campaign during one regular-season game. Fans attending the Packers game against the Chicago Bears donated more than 250 coats, bringing the Coats for Kids collection totals for the last 10 years to approximately 2,275 coats. Nearly $11,000 also was collected at the game.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

The Lambeau Field Atrium has given the Green Bay Packers a unique venue to periodically host events throughout the year that are open to the community to enjoy at no cost.

- PROJECT LEAP! Curing cabin fever was the goal of Project LEAP! (Lambeau's Exercise & Activity Playground). This event, offered for the seventh consecutive year, gave kids the opportunity to run, bounce, climb and tumble like never before. The Lambeau Field Atrium floor was transformed into an indoor playground as a variety of inflatables and obstacle courses were made available for kids. Add to that list some climbing walls, tumbling performances and workshops, in addition to face painting, and there was something for kids of all ages.
- SHINDIG AT 1265 Shindig at 1265 provided families the opportunity to spend some time enjoying a variety of activities together at Lambeau Field. This event provided opportunities for young and old alike to participate in crafts, cookie decorating and flower potting. Other activities included bungee trampolines, airbrush tattoos and a petting zoo. Several stage and roving entertainers, varied in their talents, kept the atmosphere lively.
- SPOCKTACULAR FUN AT LAMBEAU FIELD The seventh annual Spooktacular Fun at Lambeau Field event offered the community an opportunity to come to the Atrium to enjoy the thrills and chills of Halloween. Various performers amused guests through interactive and entertaining activities, including singing, dancing, magic and pumpkin carving. Costumed still walkers roamed the Atrium, while children awaited their turn to have their faces painted and create a masterpiece in the crafts area. In its fourth annual run, the Haunted Concourse offered scenes of high-tech shocks and horrors to those guests brave enough to enter.
- ECUMENICAL THANKSGIVING DAY DINNER For the seventh consecutive year, Christian Outreach hosted its annual Thanksgiving Day prayer service and dinner in the Lambeau Field Atrium. More than 500 volunteers joined together to prepare and serve a sitdown dinner to more than 850 local, needy people. An additional 850 meals were prepared and delivered to those who were unable to leave their home to attend the dinner. During the meal, guests were able to watch the Packers take on the Lions in the annual Thanksgiving Day game, and were treated to a Green and Gold victory. No one left the Atrium empty-handed, as goodie bags were presented to everyone attending the dinner.

COMMUNITY EVENTS GRANT

In 2009, the Green Bay Packers made four grants available to nonprofit organizations servicing Brown County who were interested in holding an event in the Lambeau Field Atrium or Legends Club. These grants, which waive the facility-rental fee, are awarded on an annual basis. The Packers awarded the Community Events Grant to: Options for Independent Living; American Heart Association; Children's Hospital and Health System Foundation; and Hand-N-Hand of Northeastern Wisconsin.

COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK AWARD

A community is defined in large part by the volunteer efforts of its residents. It is that volunteer spirit that the Green Bay Packers recognize through the Community Quarterback Award. Established in 2000, the program recognizes volunteers who demostrate leadership and dedication to bettering their hometowns. Twenty individuals received $1,000 grants in 2009 for their work.

MAKE-A-WISH FOUNDATION

For 30 years, the Make-A-Wish Foundation has enriched the lives of children with life-threatening illnesses through its wishgranting network. For some kids, their wish is to visit Disney World, meet a movie star or be a fireman for a day. Others wish to meet a Green Bay Packers player or pay a visit to historic Lambeau Field – wishes that the Packers organization works diligently to fulfill.

In 2009, two youngsters had their dreams answered by the Green Bay Packers through the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

The guests start with a tour of Lambeau Field. After a tour of the team's locker room, the youngsters spend time with the players and coaches at training camp or during practice, then join the team for lunch.

SCHOOL VISITS

Going back to school is not something coaches and players take lightly. Maybe they read a story, talked to the kids about respect or answered questions. Regardless of the reason they were invited to the school, the coaches and players are very aware of the impressions they leave behind. Throughout the year, players and coaches visited 11 area schools and their students.

The "NFL Take a Player to School" program in 2009 brought A.J. Hawk to Valley View Elementary School in Ashwaubenon as a guest of fifth-grader Mya Whiters. After the pair's arrival in a limousine, A.J. had the opportunity to visit with Mya's classmates and speak to the students about the importance of education and health. At the end of the visit, Hawk led kids in a fitness activity, as part of NFL's Play 60 campaign, helping youth get 60 minutes of exercise a day.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Green Bay Packers have supported various non-profit organizations through public service announcements. Players, along with local television stations, work together to raise awareness of important issues that affect the community.

65 ROSES CELEBRITY GOLF TOURNAMENT

For nearly 20 years, the head coach of the Green Bay Packers has served as the honorary chairman of the 65 Roses Celebrity Golf Tournament. Coach Mike McCarthy, along with other Packers coaches, players and staff, have teamed up with Humana to raise more than $500,000 for the fight against cystic fibrosis through the annual golf tourney. Proceeds from the tournament and silent auction are donated to St. Vincent Hospital's Cystic Fibrosis Center and the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation of Wisconsin.

EDGAR BENNETT CELEBRITY BOWL-A-THON

The Green Bay Packers traded in their cleats for bowling shoes as they took to the lanes to have some fun while raising money for The Angel Fund for Children with Cancer Inc. during the Edgar Bennett Celebrity Bowl-A-Thon. The Angel Fund is dedicated to giving financial and social support to families residing in Brown County whose children are receiving treatment for cancer or bone marrow failure. The event, which featured Bennett, a former Packers running back and now the team's running backs coach, along with more than 70 other current Packers players, coaches and staff, raised more than $54,000 for The Angel Fund.

GREEN AND GOLD GALA

The Packers organization has been a strong supporter of the Green and Gold Gala, an annual event that aids Family Services of Northeast Wisconsin, which offers diverse services to families in crisis and in need. In addition, players, coaches and staff members have made personal appearances to show their support.

CAMPBELL'S CHUNKY SOUP "CLICK FOR CANS"

As part of the Campbell's Chunky soup "Click for Cans" online program, fans were invited to vote for their favorite NFL team to help food banks in their community. The competition, which ran for 20 weeks, gave the Green Bay Packers an unprecedented eighth consecutive win in the online program aimed at raising awareness of America's hunger crisis. As a result of the support of the fans, and an additional contribution from Associated Bank, more than 28,000 cans of soup were donated to 30 food banks across Wisconsin.

CEREBRAL PALSY TELETHON

For 56 years, WBAY-TV 2 has played host of the local CP Telethon, benefiting the CP Center located in Green Bay. During the 15-hour broadcast, donors pledged more than $1 million. Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy was on hand to participate in a question-and-answer session during the program.

TAILGATE TOUR

Members of the Green Bay Packers hit the road during the fifth annual "Tailgate Tour," a four-day, four-city bus trip designed for the team to literally reach out across the state and thank fans in person for their enduring and enthusiastic support of the club through the years. The motor coach, carrying President/CEO Mark Murphy, and players Nick Collins, James Jones, John Kuhn and Chad Clifton made planned and surprise stops en route to each day's final destination, a tailgate party hosted by and benefiting a local non-profit organization. Over the course of the four days, nearly $100,000 was raised for the nonprofit groups.

SALVATION ARMY BELL RINGING

In what has turned into an annual holiday occurrence, members of the Green Bay Packers participated in the Salvation Army's bellringing kettle collection. More than a dozen players, including the entire wide-receiver corps, donned the red apron and rang the bell in support of the Salvation Army, signing autographs in exchange for donations

TOYS FOR TOTS

Each year, Lambeau Field serves as a collection point for the Toys for Tots campaign. Members of the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves collect new, unwrapped toys, which are given to children in need during the holiday season. Monetary donations collected are used to purchase toys for a specific age group that may not have received an ample supply through donations. The goal of the program is to deliver a message of hope to a needy youngster through a new toy. In 2009, nearly $8,000 and approximately 1,000 toys were collected at the Packers-49ers game and distributed to area children.

FAMILIES OF CHILDREN WITH CANCER HOLIDAY PARTY

The sights and sounds of the holidays were present as the Green Bay Packers and the Families of Children with Cancer program teamed up for the eighth consecutive year to host an early holiday party for patients and their families. The children had a chance to interact with 13 Packers players in attendance. The players and the kids enjoyed visiting and playing a variety of games. As the evening came to a close, the players gathered, and with the help of the children, sang some holiday favorites.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

NFL GRASSROOTS

The NFL Youth Football Fund Grassroots Program is a partnership of the NFL YFF and LISC to provide nonprofit, neighborhoodbased organizations, middle schools and high schools with financing and technical assistance to improve the quality, safety, and accessibility of local football fields.

Including the NFL Club Matching Youth Football Field/Stadium Grant Program, the Packers have helped secure nine grants worth a combined $1.025 million since 1998 for Wisconsin organizations working on new or renovated athletic fields and stadiums, including a grant for Wrightstown High School in 2009.

NFL PLAYER-COACH HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL GRANTS

Through the NFL Player-Coach High School Football Grant Program, former NFL players who currently serve as registered head or assistant high school football coaches may apply to the Youth Football Fund for grants ranging from $2,500-$10,000 to help support their high school football teams. Grant awards must be earmarked for non-salary/non-personnel-related costs.

Former Packers players Doug Lloyd, assistant coach at N.E.W. Lutheran High School, and Bryce Paup, head coach at Green Bay Southwest High School, received a total of $14,000 in 2009 in support of their high school football programs.

The program also has a, NFL Player Matching Youth/High School Football Grant Program, through which current or former NFL players are able to make financial contributions to approved youth and/or high school football programs. The Youth Football Fund matches financial contributions up to $5,000. Players can help young football players continue their academic, social and individual development with the game and give back to their alma maters as well as underserved football programs in the state of Wisconsin. Five matching grants totaling $56,000 were awarded in 2009 to members of the Green Bay Packers for youth and high school football programs across the country.

NFL PUNT, PASS & KICK: 7-ON-7

Each year, the Green Bay Packers host the annual Punt, Pass & Kick Competition prior to a regular-season game at Lambeau Field. Thirty-four youngsters, ages 8-15, advanced from across the state for the opportunity to compete for the title of Green Bay Packers PPK Team Champion and the chance to move on to the

Also, the Packers hosted a one-day 7-on-7 tournament held inside the Green Bay Packers Don Hutson Center. The tournament was intended to offer area high schools the opportunity to compete in a non-contact passing tournament.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL COACH OF THE WEEK

Each week during the football season, the Packers honor a Wisconsin high school football coach. The Coach of the Week Program recognizes coaches for demonstrating outstanding leadership on and off the field. Each winner receives $1,000 to be used for the school's football program. One coach is also named the Coach of the Year and recognized at Lambeau Field during a game.

USA FOOTBALL COACHING SCHOOL

USA Football and the Green Bay Packers joined forces to host a coaching clinic designed exclusively for youth and middle school football coaches. Coaches learned effective ways to develop and organize their team, teach the proper fundamentals, implement drills and communicate with players, parents and other coaches. The one-day school is taught by successful area high school and youth coaches.

PACKERS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

The Packers Women's Association (PWA) members teamed up with the community to share their time, talents and resources. PWA, an arm of the Green Bay Packers organization, is a nonprofit organization whose main focus is to support the community through various outreach programs. Membership in the PWA is comprised of players', coaches', and male staff members' significant others, in addition to full-time female Packers employees.

PAUL'S PANTRY FOOD DRIVE

PWA celebrated its 23rd year of collecting food and monetary donations by partnering with Festival Foods. During the annual PWA Food Drive for Paul's Pantry, which was held prior to a Packers home game, more than $11,600 and 22,400 nonperishable food items were collected from generous fans. An additional 30,000 food items were donated to the cause, courtesy of Festival Foods and SuperValu, a food supplier to Festival Foods.

In 23 years of conducting the food drive, the PWA has collected approximately 633,200 nonperishable food items and more than $226,000 for Paul's Pantry, a supplementary food distribution program for the needy in the greater Green Bay area.

Along with the food drive held at Lambeau Field, PWA held an inschool food drive competition in which 20 area schools participated. Three schools (the top two collectors and a third randomly selected) were rewarded with a visit from Packers players. The students from all schools generously brought in an additional 16,284 pounds of nonperishable food items.

FOOTBALL 101

Each year, PWA enjoys spending time with female Packers fans from throughout the state as the basics of football are taught during the Packers' Football 101 Clinic. The hands-on workshop for women teaches the technical side of the game, while giving participants insight into the NFL and the lives of NFL coaches' and players' families.

SALVATION ARMY'S ADOPT-A-FAMILY

The members of PWA were happy to once again support the Salvation Army's Adopt-A-Family Program. PWA spreads cheer and joy to less fortunate families by fulfilling the families' holiday wish lists. PWA members adopted 18 families, all of whom received gifts and necessities. PWA and Festival Foods also teamed up to provide each family with a complete holiday dinner. Over the years, PWA has adopted nearly 300 families for the holidays.

SCHOOL MENTORING PROGRAM

PWA volunteered their time to mentor the voungsters at one of the area's oldest schools in Green Bay. PWA members guided students and worked with them on improving their reading and arithmetic skills at the at-risk school.

PWA CARE FOR KIDS PROJECT

PWA members began a new project in 2009 to support pediatric patients at three local hospitals. Over a thousand arts and crafts items, games and movies were donated to the hospitals for distribution to the young patients during their hospital stays

GREEN BAY PACKERS FOUNDATION

The Green Bay Packers organization has enjoyed tremendous fan support through its long and storied history. The community supported the team in times of need by 'passing the hat" at games and by buying stock in 1923, 1950 and 1997, among other ways. To give back to the community, the team created the Green Bay Packers Foundation in December 1986. The Foundation assists in a wide variety of activities and programs that benefit education, civic affairs, health services, human services and youth-related programs.

Last year, in its annual distribution of funds, the foundation awarded $176,534 to 62 civic and charitable groups throughout the state of Wisconsin, Casey Cuene, chairman of the Foundation committee, announced Feb. 22, 2010. With these disbursements, the Foundation has distributed $2,122,450 for charitable purposes since it was established in 1986 by Judge Robert J. Parins, then president of the Packers Corporation, "as a vehicle to assure continued contributions to charity."

The financial breakdown of the Foundation's contributions discloses that 24 grants — aggregating $104,423 — were awarded to Brown County organizations.

Additional grants, totaling $72,111, were made to 38 other groups around the state.

Under the Packers Scholarship Program, established in 2002, an additional $15,000 is being awarded — $7,500 to Scholarships, Inc., for distribution to students in four-year colleges and $7,500 to Northeast Wisconsin Technical College (NWTC) for distribution to students in two-year associate degree or apprenticeship trades programs. The scholarship funds come from National Football League Properties which, at the Packers' request, returns to the Foundation royalty fees paid for using the Packers logo on Wisconsin automobile license plates.

In the past year, the Packers Foundation also has distributed an additional $57,375 on behalf of National Football League Charities — $20,000 in Community Quarterback awards to civic leaders for contributions to the community, $12,375 in the NFL's Coach of the Week program which honors successful Wisconsin high school coaches on a weekly basis throughout the season, $20,000 through the Hometown Huddle/Youth Fitness Zone program, and $5,000 to the Play 60 Challenge to encourage healthy lifestyles among young people.

ADMINISTRATION & COACHES

Mark Murphy, possessor of extensive experience in professional football and sports administration, is in his third year as the Packers' President and CEO.

Under Murphy's guidance, the organization continues to realize success both on and off the field. The Packers returned to the playoffs in 2009 on the strength of an 11-5 season. The club's business operations strongly support the football team, and the fan experience at Lambeau Field is consistently ranked among the best in sports.

It was a direction both Murphy and the organization envisioned when Murphy was elected by the Packers Board of Directors as the franchise's 10th Chief Executive Officer Dec. 3, 2007. He began his work with the organization as president-elect Jan. 1, 2008, and then formally took over Jan. 28, 2008.

"I am honored to have been selected and very appreciative of this tremendous opportunity," Murphy said the day of his election. "The Packers are one of the great franchises in all of professional sports, with a rich history and incredible fan support. These are successful times for the Packers. On the field they're performing well, and off the field, they're in great shape, too. I look forward to being a part of that continued success."

Murphy, who holds a law degree and an M.B.A. in finance, brought a unique and highly qualified background to his role as head of one of the NFL's flagship franchises, first drawing from a deep understanding and appreciation of the game that comes from an eight-year playing career with the Washington Redskins. Later, he served a combined 16 years as director of athletics at Colgate University and Northwestern University, as well as an assistant executive director of the NFL Players Association and a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice.

In addition to his playing career and work with the NFL Players Association, Murphy had maintained his ties to the NFL through his work on the Commissioner's Player Advisory Committee (1994-2002) as well as the NFL Youth Football Committee (2002-present).

NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, recognizing the unique experience and skills Murphy brought to the NFL as the Packers' CEO, in 2008 appointed him to the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee, the NFL owners' committee whose responsibility is to serve as the bargaining team during negotiations with the NFL Players Association for a new Collective Bargaining Agreement. The position will allow Murphy to increase his involvement and contributions at the league level, ensuring the organization has a voice in league matters.

"Mark's rare blend of experiences makes him integral to the future of the Packers and the NFL," said Goodell. "His accomplishments as an NFL player, his work with the NFLPA, and now his leadership of the Packers, provide a unique perspective to the league and also to the players. He's very effective in discussions with NFLPA executives. Mark is a bright and thoughtful individual who understands what needs to get done to create a system that benefits all sides for years to come. He is very reasonable and wants what's best for fans, the game and players, as we all do."

Mark Murphy at a glance...

- ► Named Packers President/CEO Dec. 3, 2007, by Packers Board of Directors; formally assumed position Jan. 28, 2008.
- Serves on the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee.
- ► Served a combined 16 years as director of athletics at Northwestern University (2003-07) and Colgate University (1992-2003) prior to joining Packers.
- ► Enjoyed an eight-year NFL playing career with the Washington Redskins (1977-84); served as co-captain from 1980-84, including Super Bowl championship team of 1982. Earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 1983.
- Served as Redskins' player representative to the NFL Players Association from 1980-84, including position of vice president of players union (1983-84).
- ► Holds law degree from Georgetown University (1988) and M.B.A. in finance from American University (1983).
- Served as assistant executive director of the NFL Players Association (1985-88) and as a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice (1989-92).
- Served on NFL Commissioner's Player Advisory Committee (1994-2002) and currently serves on the NFL Youth Football Committee (2002-present).
- While a player with the Redskins, participated in the highest-scoring game in Monday Night Football and Green Bay Packers history, a 48-47 defeat to the Packers on Oct. 17, 1983, at Lambeau Field.

In his first year in Green Bay, Murphy broadened his knowledge of the franchise, its operations and its standing in the community by meeting with employees, shareholders, fans and members of the Board of Directors, as well as many community groups.

Among his first initiatives was to update the organization's strategic plan, a process involving all the leadership positions of the organization, including the Executive Committee and football operations. The process created core objectives to serve as a backdrop for all key business decisions. In a move to enhance those objectives, Murphy restructured the management of the organization, which included creating a new senior-leadership staff consisting of vice-president positions overseeing administration, finance, football operations, marketing and sales, and organizational/staff development, with the latter two positions new to the organization. The new structure reflects the growth the organization has experienced in recent years and gives broader coverage across all operations with more people involved on a senior-management level.

Murphy also is directing the organization's master plan involving Lambeau Field, the Lambeau Field Atrium, the practice facilities and property the team owns adjacent to the stadium. The most recent project was the development of the new Ray Nitschke Field, the practice field on the east side of the Don Hutson Center. The new facility, completed for 2009 training camp, features many improvements over previous fields, including a permanent seating structure for approximately 1,500 fans, a natural grass field, a heated portion of the playing field and permanent lighting for night practices. The new facility greatly enhanced the fans' experience at training camp and opened to rave reviews from both fans and players.

Among the other initiatives Murphy has directed is the enhancement of the organization's retail operations, including the purchase of a new warehouse for the Packers Pro Shop and the establishment of a customer relationship management (CRM) program, with both efforts upgrading customer service to Packers fans. Also in the fan experience realm, the team is increasing its social media offerings, with team news and event information now available on Facebook and Twitter.

Murphy also has worked to increase the number of outside events utilizing Lambeau Field, including LZ Lambeau in May 2010, a welcome back for Wisconsin Vietnam Veterans produced in conjunction with Wisconsin Public Television, expansion of the Green Bay Marathon to two days running around the field, and "Kids Day," an event held in June with Green Bay's mayor to celebrate Green Bay's kids.

Inside the organization, Murphy continues to grow and develop the team's human resources, with new programs for employees such as leadership development.

The 55-year-old Murphy joined the Packers after 4½ years (2003-07) as director of athletics at Northwestern University. At the Big Ten Conference school, Murphy oversaw a 19-sport program with a $40 million budget and 160 full-time employees. During his tenure, the school won eight individual national championships and three NCAA team titles. Additionally, the university won nine conference team championships and 34 individual Big Ten titles. A total of 49 Wildcats earned first-team All-America distinction. On the football field, the Wildcats participated in two bowl games during Murphy's tenure after playing in just four previous such contests in the program's history. In 2006-07, Northwestern finished 30th in the U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup standings with a school-best 626.5 points. The Wildcats ranked among the top 30 in the standings for the last three years of Murphy's tenure and in 2007 finished sixth among Big Ten schools for the third straight year after previously not placing higher than ninth.

The school's athletic success under Murphy was achieved while its student-athletes continued to excel off the field. The NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) data released in October 2007 reported Northwestern's rate at 98 percent, tying it with Notre Dame and Navy for tops in the nation.

Prior to his tenure at Northwestern, Murphy served as director of athletics at Colgate University in Hamilton, N.Y. (1992-2003), the school from which he graduated in 1977. During his 11 years at the helm, the university experienced a renaissance of its football program, going from 0-11 in 1995 to three consecutive appearances in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. In 2003, the year after Murphy's departure to Northwestern, the team made it to the championship game; the achievement of that squad — a non-scholarship program — remains one of Murphy's proudest moments.

"The accomplishment of that team, to go from winless to eventually the championship game, was outstanding," recalls Murphy. "We had to fight to just get teams from the Patriot League in the I-AA playoffs, as well as convince certain people at the NCAA that we fielded legitimate football teams — there was a belief that the non-scholarship teams were on a different tier. When our club advanced to that game, it was a great source of pride for our school, the community, and all the schools in the Patriot League."

NO. 1 ACROSS ALL OF SPORTS: Each year since 2003, ESPN The Magazine has ranked all 122 franchises in the four major sports based on eight major categories: bang for the buck, ownership, stadium experience, on-field leadership, fan relations, affordability, players' effort and likability, and championships won/expected to win. The Packers finished first in the inaugural rankings in 2003 and also placed in the top 10 in 2004 (third), '05 (eighth) and '08 (fourth). Lambeau Field has ranked as the top NFL venue in each of the seven rankings and landed in the top overall spot across all sports four times, including each of the last two years (2008-09).

LAMBEAU FIELD RANKED NO. 1 GAME DAY EXPERIENCE: In a November 2007 Sports Illustrated poll on SI.com rating the game-day atmosphere for each NFL team, the experience of seeing the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field ranked first.

Lambeau Field topped the rankings for a second consecutive season in 2008, according to the SI.com poll. It was the only stadium to achieve a top-five ranking in each of the five categories: affordability & food, tailgating, team quality, atmosphere and accessibility.

"For all the glitz and money the NFL exudes nowadays," the poll summarized, "football's heart is still on that 'frozen tundra,' where tough guys grapple with each other while fans warm themselves on cold bleachers with hot chocolate and full-throated cheering. And that is still the essence of Lambeau."

Colgate's other teams experienced success as well, with men's basketball, women's soccer, women's volley-ball, women's softball and men's ice hockey teams making NCAA Tournament appearances. The school also achieved graduation rates among the highest for student-athletes in Division I during Murphy's tenure.

A former Alf-Pro safety for the Washington Redskins, Murphy enjoyed an eight-year (1977-84) career after originally signing with the team as a non-drafted free agent in 1977. He was a co-captain from 1980-84, a period that included two Super Bowl teams (1982-83). He enjoyed his finest season in 1983, leading the NFL with nine interceptions and earning consensus All-Pro honors as well as a trip to the Pro Bowl. Murphy was named as one of the Redskins' "70 Greatest Players" and also is a member of the club's "50th Anniversary Team."

Joe Gibbs, the Hall of Fame former coach of the Redstins who led the team during Murphy's 1981-84 seasons, was appreciative of the player's contributions and lauded the Packers' hiring of Murphy.

"Mark meant a lot to the Redskins organization the years he was here and played," Gibbs said. "He was a great person along with being one of the brightest and most competitive people we've had here at the Redskins."

Gibbs had an influence on Murphy as well, as the Packers CEO attributes much of his leadership style to what he learned from the successful Redskins coach.

"He had many leadership traits that I admired and tried to incorporate into my own leadership style," said Murphy. "He had a very natural way about him with the way he related to people, and he tried to be accessible. He was a very effective communicator, too, as most great leaders are. And when he worked with you, he was very fair and sincere. All those skills and traits fueled his awesome ability to motivate his teams."

A natural leader among his teammates, Murphy served as the Redskins' player representative to the NFL Players Association from 1980-84, including the position of vice president of the players union (1983-84). While a representative, he served on the players' bargaining committee during the 1982 players' strike. Those experiences have served him well in his role on the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee.

During his days with the Redskins, Murphy earned an M.B.A. in finance from American University in Washington, D.C., attending classes full-time in the offseason and evening classes in-season. Upon completion of his playing career in 1985, he joined the NFL Players Association as assistant executive director. While with the NFLPA, Murphy served on the bargaining team, including during the 1987 players' strike, developed the agent-certification system and strengthened the PA's degree-completion and career-counseling programs.

While with the NFLPA, he started work on a law degree from Georgetown University and ultimately finished his studies full-time after leaving the Players Association. Upon receiving his law degree in 1988, he worked at a Washington D.C. law firm (Bredhoff and Kaiser) before becoming a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice in 1989.

During a four-year career with the Department of Justice, he primarily represented government agencies in trials. Then, in 1992, his alma mater called and he returned to the sports realm.

At ease in public settings and with the media, Murphy enjoyed hosting a weekly radio show during his playing days and later became a sports commentator for National Public Radio (1983-92) and the Anheuser-Busch Radio Network (1986-88), offering his insights into football and sports-related legal issues in general.

Born July 13, 1955, in Fulton, N.Y., Murphy spent some of his formative years in the Houston area before moving back to the Buffalo-area community of Clarence. He was a three-sport star (football, baseball and basketball) at Clarence Central High School and was named the best all-around athlete in Western New York during his senior year. His baseball talents drew attention from Major League scouts. In 2002, he was inducted into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his achievements both on and off the field.

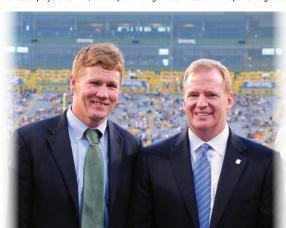

Murphy and his wife, Laurie, who also is a Colgate graduate, have been involved in the communities in which they've lived. Over the years the couple has donated their time to numerous organizations, including local schools, the United Methodist Church in Hamilton, N.Y., and the First Congregational Church of Evanston, III. Also while in Chicago, Murphy served on the bid committee for the 2016 Olympics which eventually was awarded to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. While at Colgate University, Murphy formed the Hamilton Youth Basketball League and served as its commissioner. Heavily involved in the community while with the Redskins, Murphy was named the team's "Miller Man of the Year" in 1984 in honor of his work off the field.

Since moving to Green Bay, Murphy has engaged in a busy schedule of meeting with fans and shareholders, as well as speaking to a variety of business and community groups, all in the process of learning about the area in which he now lives. He also has given his time to several community organizations in the area to help their causes, including Big Brothers Big Sisters. Additionally, he serves on the board of directors of the Positive Coaching Alliance, an organization created to transform the culture of youth sports to give all young athletes the opportunity for a positive, character-building experience. Mark and Laurie are also active supporters of foster-care services in Brown County.

Mark and Laurie have four children: Katie, 27, a graduate of Harvard who played basketball for the Crimson and now works at Credit Suisse in New York City, Emily, 25, a 2008 graduate of Middlebury (Vt.) College who now works in New York City at Blue State Digital, an Internet strategy and technology firm, after working on then-Senator Barack Obama's presidential campaign; Brian, 21, a senior at Amherst (Mass.) College and wide receiver for the school's football team (2009 conference champions) undefeated season); and Anna, 19, a sophomore at Northwestern University.

Away from work, he enjoys playing golf, fishing and participating in various forms of exercise, including bicycling, cross-country skiing and jogging.

TED THOMPSON

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, GENERAL MANAGER & DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Ted Thompson firmly believes that the best way to build a successful team is through the draft, with free agency playing a complementary role in adding the types of players to a roster that may otherwise be difficult to find.

Now five-plus years into Thompson's tenure as Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations, the current Green Bay Packers directly reflect that philosophy.

In 2009, the Packers not only went 11-5 and qualified for the playoffs for the second time under Thompson, but they also featured four Pro Bowl selections.

Three of those Pro Bowlers – QB Aaron Rodgers, S Nick Collins and LB Clay Matthews – were draft picks of Thompson's, with Rodgers and Collins being his first two selections upon becoming Green Bay's GM in 2005.

Meanwhile, the fourth was CB Charles Woodson, Thompson's most notable free-agent signing who also won NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors last season, his fourth year in Green Bay after joining the Packers in 2006 when many other NFL GMs thought he was past his prime.

The list of standout performers brought in by Thompson doesn't stop there, either. WR Greg Jennings and TE Jermichael Finley are draft choices who have played at or near a Pro Bowl level at times, while NT Ryan Pickett, who like Woodson was a free-agent acquisition in 2006, anchored the league's top-rated run defense a year ago.

That's how Thompson has built, and will continue to build, the Packers as they strive to bring another championship to Green Bay. The draft is responsible for the core of the team, and free agency, though used selectively, can be employed to address specific needs.

But the makeup of the current team shows that every step of player acquisition is made by Thompson with the big picture and the long term in mind, and the approach is intended to keep the Packers in the hunt for that championship on an annual basis.

since taking over as GM in 2005, Thompson has focused on rebuilding and improving the bulk of the roster, mostly through the draft.

In his first four drafts from 2005-08, Thompson utilized 14 trades, all but one of them down, to turn 31 picks into 43 selections, plus an extra choice in 2009. Heading into organized team activities (OTAs) in mid-May, 23 of those draft choices were on the Packers' 80-man offseason roster that will form part of the foundation for the 2010 team.

In the last two drafts, however, Thompson's trades have gone in the other direction as the improved roster core has allowed him to focus less on the overall quantity of picks. In 2009 and 2010, Thompson has traded up for specific players he had targeted in certain rounds.

Last year, after selecting Boston College NT B.J. Raji with the No. 9 overall selection in the first round, Thompson traded a second-round pick and two third-round selections – Nos. 41, 73 and 83 overall – to New England to get another crack at a first-round talent. He moved up 15 spots to No. 26 overall and nabbed Matthews out of USC, while also receiving a fifth-round pick in return from the Patriots.

Just like that, not only did Thompson give the Packers two first-round draft choices for the first time in 16 years, he added highly touted prospects at the two linchpin positions in the 3-4 – a middle anchor and outside pass rusher.

In addition to Matthews earning a Pro Bowl bid, both he and Raji made the prestigious Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie team. That brought Thompson's total of draftees, during his time in both Green Bay and Seattle (2000-04), to have earned All-Pro, Pro Bowl or All-Rookie honors to 15.

The hope is that the 2010 class can add to that number as well. With the selection of lowa OT Bryan Bulaga in the first round at No. 23 overall, the Packers hope to have found an heir apparent to Chad Clifton at the all-important left tackle position.

Thompson also traded up in the third round, surrendering a fourth-round choice to Philadelphia to move up 15 spots to No. 71 overall and take S Morgan Burnett of Georgia Tech, who could compete for a starting spot as a rookie alongside Pro Bowler Collins.

Thompson followed in the footsteps of his mentor, Ron Wolf, in becoming Green Bay's GM, and in 2008 he joined Wolf in becoming only the second person in the history of the organization to be recognized as the best in his field.

Honored in March 2008 in a vote of his peers as the 'George Young NFL Executive of the Year' by Sporting News, Thompson left an undeniable stamp on the Packers' successful 2007 season. In just his third campaign as GM, he assembled a roster that was the youngest yet one of the most talented in the NFL, and the Packers went 13-3, won the NFC North Division title, and advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the first time in a decade.

"I'm honored to receive this award on behalf of the Green Bay Packers," the humble Thompson said. "We view this as a team honor and feel the coaches, players and staff should all be very proud of the job they've done in helping this franchise succeed."

A glance at the roster for the 2007 NFC Championship indicates a team truly built by Thompson. Twelve of 22 starters, 32 of 45 gameday actives, and 40 of 53 players on the full roster that day were acquired by Thompson via the draft, free agency, trades or the waiver wire in his first three years here.

One of the biggest additions to the playoff-bound team came from a key trade. Thompson acquired RB Ryan Grant from the New York Giants at the end of training camp for a sixth-round draft choice, adding the former Notre Dame standout to a crowded but banged-up backfield.

Grant eventually took over as the feature back midway through the season and proceeded to rush for nearly 1,000 yards, adding 201 yards and three TDs in the NFC Divisional playoff victory over Seattle, both Green Bay postseason records. He has since added back-to-back 1,200-yard seasons.

The prestigious award acknowledged Thompson for his diligence and success as the team came within an overtime field goal of advancing to the Super Bowl. But it also served as recognition for Thompson's overall body of work since taking his current position in 2005.

Surprising many with the hiring of Mike McCarthy as Head Coach in January 2006, Thompson embarked on turning around a 4-12 team beset by injuries and salary-cap concerns in his first season. The improvement to an 8-8 mark in 2006, followed by the playoff run in 2007, netted McCarthy the 'Motorola NFL Coach of the Year' award and placed both Thompson and his chief hire at the top of their professions.

Thompson's career as a football executive came full circle on Jan. 14, 2005. That day, former Green Bay Packers CEO Bob Harlan gave him full authority over all aspects of football operations for the storied franchise.

In becoming the 10th general manager in club history, Thompson rejoined the team with which he received his start under Wolf in 1992. After working for the legendary general manager through the 1999 season, Thompson spent five years as vice president of football operations for the Seattle Seahawks.

"It's almost a dream come true-type job," Thompson said. "You think about, when you're a young kid, some of the things you'd like to do when you grow up and you think maybe manager of the New York Yankees or maybe the general manager of the Green Bay Packers. So it's a thrill, it's an honor."

For Harlan, the selection of Thompson to lead Green Bay's football fortunes was an easy choice, and Thompson has validated that confidence in his selection by successfully remaking the roster into one he and the organization believe is built for long-term success.

"I feel Ted is a perfect fit for the Packers," Harlan said, introducing Thompson in 2005. "He is a respected National Football League veteran who is a proven talent evaluator and an efficient administrator. He knows the people in our personnel department and he is familiar with how we run our football operation. He embraces the Packers' championship tradition, and he was very anxious to have the opportunity to return to Green Bay."

Now in his 29th NFL season, including 10 years as a player, Thompson knows and respects the position the Packers hold in the hearts of the fans, and around the league.

"The history and tradition of this place is unrivaled in professional sports," Thompson said. "I understand the passion the people here have for their team. Ron (Wolf) told me this is the best job in the National Football League. I never forgot that."

The 57-year-old Thompson not only joined an organization with which he was familiar, but also oversees a respected staff that includes Reggie McKenzie, who holds the title of director-football operations, and John Dorsey, director of college scouting, each of whom worked under Thompson during his first tenure in Green Bay.

Almost immediately upon taking over, Thompson made a crucial choice for the long-term benefit of the club. In the 2005 NFL Draft, Rodgers had been projected as high as the No. 1 overall pick, but he wasn't taken there and ended up sliding all the way down to the Packers at No. 24. One year later, Thompson handed Rodgers to an accomplished quarterback mentor in McCarthy to mold him into the team's signal caller of the future.

Over the last two years, following the retirement and subsequent trade of Brett Favre, Rodgers became the first quarterback in league history to eclipse 4,000 yards passing in each of his first two seasons as a starter.

Although Thompson prefers to shift the spotlight in another direction, his fingerprints were all over the Seahawks' road to Super Bowl XL during the 2005 season. NFL MVP Shaun Alexander, Thompson's first draft pick in Seattle, in 2000, captured the 2005 league rushing title and established a then-NFL single-season record with 28 touchdowns. Nine of Seattle's Super Bowl starters, as well as K Josh Brown, were drafted by Thompson. That list includes G Steve Hutchinson, a Pro Bowler in eight of his nine NFL seasons.

Seattle could've gone in another direction in the 2000 draft. With perenial 1,000-yard rusher Ricky Watters on the roster, the club didn't need a running back in the first round. But with the Seahawks on the clock holding the 19th overall choice, Alexander was the best player available. One year later, in the 2001 draft, Thompson wanted Hutchinson in a similar situation.

"You have to do what you think is best for the organization," Thompson said before the 2006 draft, when he chose LB A.J. Hawk with the fifth overall selection. "A draft is an investment in a player that's going to be here for a number of years."

Thompson's philosophy on building a successful team relies heavily on drafted players as a foundation. In today's NFL, teams can't win consistently with free agency as their primary tool. And in building through the draft, the Packers place a premium on character.

But despite how much value he places on the draft, Thompson also will use the free-agent market as another tool to build the roster. In Green Bay, he has brought in players like Woodson, Pickett and LB Brandon Chillar, among others, to either take over starting jobs or provide valuable, experienced depth at their positions.

"I think free agency is a very interesting tool to use to help you patch some holes and do some things," said Thompson, who signed five unrestricted free agents in 2006, the Packers' most since 1998. "There's no reluctance on our part. We do try to make certain that what we do is not just fantasy football. We're investing in a player that's got to come in and play a particular role. If we don't think that player can perform to that contract, then it doesn't make sense for us to do it just to say, 'Look what we've spent."

In Green Bay annals, Thompson is only the fourth general manager to serve exclusively from the front office, joining Verne Lewellen (1954-58), Vince Lombardi (1968) and Wolf (1992-2001).

The low-profile Thompson has a proven track record as an evaluator. Overseeing Seattle's draft board from 2000 through '04, Thompson provided the Seahawks a solid foundation which they used to make three straight playoff appearances (2003-05). His 2003 draft saw Thompson land three players – Brown, CB Marcus Trufant and S Ken Hamlin – who not only made immediate front-line contributions as rookies, but who also became cornerstone players for years to come.

Just one year later, those three were instrumental in Seattle's 2004 NFC West championship. In the Seahawks' playoff game that year, 11 of 22 starters were acquired through Thompson's drafts.

In his first two Green Bay drafts, Thompson selected Collins in 2005 and Hawk, Jennings and G Daryn Colledge in 2006. All four were named to the PFW All-Rookie Team. In 2007, he also drafted K Mason Crosby, whose 397 points are the most by a player in NFL history in his first three seasons.

Prior to 2009, Thompson selected 43 players in his first four drafts as GM, signaling the rebuilding of the roster core that had seen only 27 draft picks in the four years (2001-04) before Thompson returned to Green Bay.

As a result, offseason competition for positions on

Green Bay's 53-man roster has been fierce since Thompson took over, and should only become more intense in training camp in 2010. The goal is to improve the team's play through competition, just as it was when Bum Phillips annually brought in younger talent to try to take Thompson's job during the former linebacker's 10-year playing career with the Houston Oilers.

A former Oilers teammate, Mike Reinfeldt, helped to launch Thompson's second football career. In 1992, Reinfeldt, then the Packers' vice president of administration, recommended that Wolf take a look at Thompson as a potential pro scout for his staff.

Wolf subsequently brought Thompson in to audition as a personnel evaluator, and Thompson always has felt he learned a lot from Wolf.

"He taught me passion, he taught me work ethic, he taught me believing in yourself, to have confidence, to write down what you see, not what other people see, and to trust yourself."

During his first tenure in Green Bay, Thompson was instrumental in providing talent that produced an 83-45 record, six straight playoff berths, two Super Bowl appearances and the 1996 world championship. With his help, the team acquired free agents Reggie White, Sean Jones, Don Beebe, Santana Dotson and Desmond Howard.

Through the draft, Green Bay added Darren Sharper, Vonnie Holliday and Donald Driver, one of the franchise's lowest-drafted Pro Bowlers.

A possessor of strong football credentials and keen knowledge of the game gleaned from his decade-long playing career, Thompson credits Wolf with deepening his understanding of the scouting process and cites his experience in Seattle working with Mike Holmgren as very valuable in terms of his growth as a football person, running an organization and making decisions that affect the team in the present and in the future.

A versatile linebacker during his 10-year NFL playing career with the Oilers (1975-84), Thompson also was one of the most durable players in team annals, missing just one of 147 contests due to injury. He started eight games over the course of his career and also played in seven post-season contests (1978-80), with the Oilers going 4-3 in those games, losing the AFC Championship to the Steelers in both 1978 and '79. He originally was signed by Phillips as a non-drafted free agent.

Thompson's Oilers teammates included Pro Football Hall of Famers Earl Campbell, Mike Munchak, Elvin Bethea, Warren Moon and Bruce Matthews, current Packer Clay's uncle. He also served as a reserve kicker and converted all four PATs he attempted in an emergency situation vs. the New York Jets in a 1981 contest.

Collegiately, Thompson was a three-year starter (1972-74) at linebacker and team captain ('74) for SMU. As a sophomore, he played under head coach Hayden Fry, and Phillips, his eventual pro coach, was defensive coordinator. He also served as the team's placekicker as a senior. Following his football career, in the spring of '75, he lettered as an outfielder for the Mustangs' baseball team. He gained Academic All-Southwest Conference honors and graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration

Born Jan. 17, 1953, in Atlanta, Texas, Thompson was an all-region player at the city's high school, lining up at running back, linebacker and placekicker. He also lettered in basketball, baseball, track and golf. He is single and enjoys an occasional round of golf in times of leisure.

Russ Ball, entering his 22nd season in the NFL, begins his third season in Green Bay as the organization's vice president of football administration/player finance.

Named to the position Feb. 13, 2008, Ball brings a vast array of experience to the Packers' front office and is highly involved in all team decisions both on and off the playing field. He is responsible for negotiating player contracts and managing the salary cap, in addition to the daily supervision of football-administration departments including athletic training, equipment, video, corporate travel, player development and family programs.

"The first thing that needs to be said is that Russ Ball is a good man," said Ted Thompson, Packers Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations. "He is a tremendous help to all of us here with the Packers, and his influence is felt throughout the organization. He does a lot of valuable work that often goes unnoticed by many. Russ is also a steady hand and a valued friend that we all come to for advice. He represents the Packers proudly, and we are fortunate to have him with us."

Before coming to Green Bay, Ball spent six seasons (2002-07) with the New Orleans Saints, the final two as vice president of football administration and the first four as senior football administrator. His responsibilities with the Saints included monitoring the salary cap, contract negotiations and roster management, as well as maintaining the team's compliance with NFL and Management Council regulations. Ball also coordinated different areas of the football operations, and was involved in several other administrative functions with the club. During his time in New Orleans, he also served in a similar capacity with the New Orleans VooDoo of the Arena Football League from 2004-07. Ball was selected by the Saints to attend the 2005 NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business.

Ball, 51, spent the 2001 season as director of football administration for the Washington Redskins, where his duties included managing the salary cap as well as team operations, as he oversaw the video, athletic training, equipment, strength and conditioning and player development departments.

He began working in the NFL with the Kansas City Chiefs and spent 10 seasons (1989-98) there, the final two in football operations as administrative assistant to then-head coach Marty Schottenheimer. Ball began his career with the Chiefs as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

A 1981 graduate of the University of Central Missouri, Ball was a four-year letterman at center for the Mules. He served as head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Missouri from 1982-89 and earned his master's degree in human performance from Missouri in 1990.

Born Aug. 28, 1959, in Moberly, Mo., Ball and his wife, Diana, reside in Green Bay and have two children, Joe, 24, and Andrea, 12. Away from work, he enjoys spending time with his family.

SHOVELING SNOW AT LAMBEAU

In a gesture symbolic of a community-owned team, the Packers for more than 40 years have asked citizens to shovel snow off the Lambeau Field bleachers.

Today, if the team needs help, it will issue a press release alerting the locals, reminding fans not to forget to bring their own shovels

During the 2009 season, the Packers activated the plan four times to clear off bleachers in advance of a home game.

Citizens at least 15 years old who arrive early enough often shovel for several hours. Each participant receives $8/hour at the end of the day.

Paul Baniel in 2010 is in his second year as the Packers' vice president of finance.

Named to his position July

30, 2009, Baniel's main responsibilities involve leading the day-to-day financial operations of the club. He supervises the finance, facility operations, information technology and ticket departments, and works on NFL economic issues and strategic initiatives of the organization. A certified public accountant, Baniel oversees the audit process and works closely with the organization's treasurer, the Board of Directors' audit and investment committees, and the stadium district.

"Paul has been a great addition to the Packers and is a valuable member of our senior staff," said Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy. "His experience in professional sports has been an important asset to the organization as both the team and the league work through some challenging economic times. We count on his continued strong leadership for the Packers and the impact he has on team and league financial matters."

Baniel (pronounced BAN-yel) moved to Green Bay from Milwaukee, where he had spent more than six years (2003-09) as the chief financial officer of Potawatomi Bingo Casino. At Potawatomi, he played a significant role in the planning and construction of a $240 million expansion of the facility, which opened in 2008.

Prior to that, Baniel worked 16 years for the Milwaukee Brewers from 1986 through 2002. He served as the team's vice president of finance as well as treasurer and secretary for the final seven years of his tenure (1995-2002), coordinating the financing for the construction of Miller Park.

Baniel, 48, also worked for three years (1983-86) as senior/staff auditor for the Milwaukee office of Price Waterhouse, a national public accounting firm, before joining the Brewers.

TIM CONNOLLY
VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES AND MARKETING

Tim Connolly, possessor of significant experience in sales and marketing, including a combined 16 years with three NFL teams, is in his first year as the Packers' vice president of sales and marketing.

Connolly, who began his duties May 10, 2010, will provide strategic leadership for the organization's overall marketing efforts and spearhead the Packers' revenue-generating operations that include marketing and sponsorships, retail operations, restaurants, concessions, and premium sales and quest services.

"We're very excited to welcome Tim to the Packers family," said Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy in announcing Connolly's hiring. "He brings a wealth of knowledge of the NFL with his vast experience and understanding of the league's marketing operations, and is highly respected within the league.

"Tim has a great understanding of the rich history of the organization and what the Packers' unique brand represents to our fans and to our partners. We look forward to his immediate contributions to the Packers' continued success and enhancing our fans' experiences with the team."

Connolly comes to the Packers from the Jacksonville Jaguars, where he spent seven years (2003-10), serving the past six years as senior vice president for business development, a position that saw him direct the club's marketing operations, including ticket sales, customer service, and special events, in addition to developing and sustaining new branding and business opportunities. He initially joined the club as vice president of development in 2003 and was responsible for the Jaguars' Super Bowl XXXIX project, an effort to help fund the capital improvements to Jacksonville Municipal Stadium for the 2005 Super Bowl.

Prior to his work in Jacksonville, Connolly's other NFL experience includes two years with the Minnesota Vikings (1998-99, executive vice president and general manager) and seven years with the Kansas City Chiefs (1989-95,

THE GREEN BAY PACKERS BRAND

Created in 2007, the Turnkey Team Brand Index serves as the first-ever brand report card of all professional sports teams throughout the four major sports.

It aims to better understand team brands, including their strengths and weaknesses as well as the attributes most closely associated with the team. Results are based upon fan polls in a team's home market.

After finishing 10th in 2007, the Green Bay Packers took the top overall spot in the 2008 standings, finishing ahead of the Boston Red Sox (second) and Pittsburgh Steelers (third). The Packers finished second in the out-of-market rankings behind the New York Yankees, indicating the strength of the Packers brand across the country.

BETSY MITCHELL

VICE PRESIDENT OF ORGANIZATIONAL / STAFF DEVELOPMENT

Betsy Mitchell, an 18-year member of the Green Bay Packers, in 2010 begins her third year as the organization's vice president of organizational/staff development.

Named to the then-newly created position by Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy July 23, 2008, Mitchell is responsible for all employee relations, professional development, strategic planning and deployment, leadership and management development, as well as the human resource department. The bulk of her previous experience with the Packers was as the staff/player development consultant.

"Betsy has served the Packers very well through the years and I have been impressed with her work since I joined the organization," Murphy said. "She continues to be a great resource and leader for everyone in the organization. I look forward to her ongoing contributions."

Mitchell has a master's degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and is a state-licensed mental health professional with more than 25 years of experience in private practice

In her first role with the team as the staff/player development consultant which began in 1993, Mitchell utilized her counseling and leadership-development skills to better the organization by providing players, coaches, other Packers staff and their families with consultation services on issues of performance, life circumstances and leadership. She worked to develop optimal relationships between members of the team and the organization.

Through her career with the Packers and prior experience in private practice, she has had the opportunity to present for and consult with the NFL on all areas of player development, conduct policies and leadership initiatives. In addition to her work with the NFL, Mitchell's seminar and presentation experience includes the American Medical Association, American Psychological Association, Wisconsin Clerk of Circuit Court Judges Association, Wisconsin Bureau of Training and Standards, American Nurses Association, Wisconsin Nurses Association, Wisconsin Nurses Association, Police Association.

She previously owned Mitchell Management Consulting, which specialized in performance and organizational development, program design and performance enhancement for small businesses. She also designed and developed behavioral medicine programs and previously owned and managed a private behavioral care practice.

PACKERS SPRING MINI-CAMP HISTORY

Dan Devine coached collegiately for 16 years before Green Bay hired him in 1971. Shortly after his arrival, he implemented a college tradition: spring practice. That April, Devine took his new players to the University of Texas at Arlington and the Packers' first minicamp, where he got his first look at No. 1 draft choice John Brockington. In 1977, the Packers' revolutionary indoor facility allowed spring practice in Green Bay. However, the team migrated to Arizona in '94, so the Don Hutson Center could be finished.

Jason Wied, the Packers' corporate counsel since 2001, in 2010 begins his fourth year as the organization's vice president of administration/general counsel.

Named to the position April 3, 2007, Wied's responsibilities include representing the Packers at NFL meetings, as well as the day-to-day management of the team's administrative operations, community outreach, public relations and security. He continues to oversee the team's legal department and work closely with the Board of Directors and Executive Committee.

"Jason is a very valuable member of our organization and has contributed greatly to its success," said Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy. "His knowledge and insight of the Packers, and the NFL, has been extremely beneficial to the organization. We know Jason will continue to provide valuable leadership on many key issues for the Packers."

Wied (pronounced WEED) joined the Packers Sept. 18, 2000, as staff counsel after practicing civil litigation and business law for two years (1998-2000) at the law firm of Liebmann, Conway, Olejniczak & Jerry, S.C., in Green Bay. He was promoted to corporate counsel a year later.

A Green Bay native, Wied, 38, graduated from Green Bay Premontre High School (1990), where he played football and hockey. He then graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison (1995, B.A. psychology) and from Marquette University Law School (1998).

His early work with the team included coordination of the construction and lease negotiations involving the redevelopment of Lambeau Field as well as the team's successful application for the NFL's G-3 stadium funding. In addition to managing the team's corporate legal matters, he also guided strategic media and sponsorship agreements associated with the redeveloped stadium.

Continuing his professional development, Wied has participated in the NFL's business development program at Stanford University's Graduate School of Business.

Away from work, he coaches youth hockey and baseball, and also enjoys reading and playing golf, hockey and racquetball, as well as spending time with his family.

NAMES ON THE FACADE

The names gracing the east and west facades, one of the more awe-inspiring features of Lambeau Field's bowl, are often misidentified as the Green Bay "Ring of Fame" or "Ring of Honor."

It's an honest mistake. Most franchises induct former players, coaches and contributors into an exclusive club, usually called a Ring of Honor and containing on average 15-20 individuals. In Green Bay, though, the equivalent to that group is the Packers Hall of Fame, which this summer inducted three more members (Mark Chmura, Marv Fleming and Greg Koch).

And unlike most other stadiums that display names on their facade, most of the Packers' individuals (13) actually played/coached on the field in front of them.

The bowl also lists the years of the Packers' NFL-record 12 world championships and, since 2003, the team's five retired numbers. Plus, in 2006, the Packers honored the architect of the Super Bowl XXXI champions, former Executive Vice President & General Manager Ron Wolf, adding the retired executive's name to the northeast corner.

John Dorsey, now in his 20th year in NFL player personnel, this season enjoys his 11th year as the Packers' director of college scouting — his third tenure in Green

An effective player for the Packers during the 1980s, Dorsey oversees the college side of Green Bay's scouting operations, and also is actively involved in the area of pro personnel.

Brought back to the team as director of college scouting on May 8, 2000, by then-Executive Vice President/ General Manager Ron Wolf, Dorsey earlier had been a key component in Green Bay's personnel operations for nine highly successful years. First hired as a college scout in May 1991 with a focus on linebackers, he was retained by Wolf the following year and, ultimately, was promoted to head up the Packers' college scouting department on Feb. 27, 1997, succeeding John Math, who retired.

Hired as director of player personnel for the Seattle Seahawks on Jan. 26, 1999, as he followed former Packers coach Mike Holmgren to the West Coast, Dorsey resigned that position just over a year later, leaving shortly after the 2000 NFL Draft.

The 50-year-old Dorsey earlier had scouted the Midlands and Southwest territories for Green Bay before focusing on the all-important Southeast region in the final years of his second Packers tenure.

Selected by Green Bay in the fourth round of the 1984 draft, beginning his initial Packers employment, Dorsey played five seasons for the team (1984-88) at linebacker and on special teams before spending a final year on injured reserve in 1989. He totaled 130 tackles as a pro, in addition to two fumble recoveries and one pass defensed. Dorsey led Green Bay's special teams in solo tackles in three of his first four seasons, a level of play which helped earn him selection as the Packers' special teams captain. His 35 special teams tackles in 1984 are still a club record. Possessor of a streak of 76 consecutive non-strike games played, Dorsey saw that string end when he suffered a freak knee injury in pre-game warmups of the team's '89 season opener.

A four-year starter at the University of Connecticut (1980-83), Dorsey was named 'Defensive Player of the Year' in the Yankee Conference during each of his final two collegiate seasons, also earning Division I-AA All-America recognition as a senior. In 1998, he was selected to the school's 100th Anniversary All-Time Football Team. In 2002, he was inducted into the Anne Arundel (Md.) County Sports Hall of Fame. He graduated with bachelor's degrees in economics and political science.

Heavily involved in the community throughout his playing career, especially with the Wisconsin Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Dorsey currently serves on the board of '65 Roses.' He was voted as the Packers' 'Man of the Year' in 1987 for his civic contributions. At the professional level, Dorsey is on the board of directors for National Football Scouting and is a former member of the NFL College Advisory Committee. He is also a member of the NFL Scouting Combine selection committee, and is a voting member of the Collegiate Butkus Award (given to the nation's top linebacker). Dorsey also is one of two NFL voting members of the Harris Interactive College Football Poll.

Born Aug. 30, 1960, in Leonardtown, Md., Dorsey and his wife, Patricia A. Sexton-Dorsey, reside in De Pere, Wis. He also is the father of two sons, Bryant, 23, and Austin, 19, and an infant daughter, Catherine.

In his spare time, Dorsey enjoys waterskiing, reading and running – having completed two marathons.

NFL'S 75TH ANNIVERSARY TEAM

The National Football League included six players who played for Green Bay on its 75th Anniversary Team, announced in 1994: Offensive tackle Forrest Greeg, linebacker Ray Nitschke, linebacker Ted Hendricks, end Don Hutson, placekicker Jan Stenerud and defensive end Reggie White. In 1994, the league also named three Packers players — Hutson, back Clarke Hinkle and tackle Cal Hubbard — to its all-time Two-Way Team.

REGGIE McKENZIE

DIRECTOR - FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Reggie McKenzie enters his 24th year in the NFL and his 17th season as a member of the Packers' personnel department.

Since he joined the team's front office in 1994, Green Bay's 160 regular-season wins over that period rank tied for second most with Indianapolis and Pittsburgh, trailing only New England (166). Also in McKenzie's tenure, the Packers have captured seven division titles, two conference championships and Super Bow XXXI.

A former player, coach and now personnel executive, McKenzie oversees Green Bay's scouting efforts of all professional football leagues, including the NFL, CFL, and Arena Football League, as well as all other pro leagues and international players. He also plays an integral role in judging the Packers' current players and evaluating potential free agents across the league. McKenzie is heavily involved in all of the team's moves on a daily basis, including all tryouts and transactions.

During the season, McKenzie provides advance scouting reports on upcoming opponents, working closely with Head Coach Mike McCarthy and his staff. He also contributes to the scouting of college prospects, making school visits in both the fall and spring, and works in conjunction with General Manager Ted Thompson in preparation for the annual draft.

He was promoted to director – football operations in 2008 after serving 10 years as the Packers' director of pro personnel. A former NFL linebacker for seven seasons (1985-90, 1992), the 47-year-old McKenzie had been promoted to director of pro personnel by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf in May 1997 after originally joining the Packers as a pro personnel assistant in 1994

Chosen by Wolf as a 10th-round selection out of the University of Tennessee in 1985 by the then-Los Angeles Raiders, McKenzie became an immediate starter on defense and went on to win all-rookie honors. After four years (1985-88) with the Raiders, McKenzie spent two seasons (1989-90) with the then-Phoenix Cardinals and one year (1992) with the San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to signing with the 49ers, he played with the World League's Montreal Machine in the spring of 1992.

While out of football in 1991, McKenzie spent a season as a defensive coach for Dorsey High School in south central Los Angeles

In 1993, McKenzie returned to Tennessee and served as an assistant under head coach Philip Fulmer. That year, the Volunteers appeared in the Florida Citrus Bowl and landed one of the nation's top recruiting classes, highlighted by QB Peyton Manning. While back in Knoxville, McKenzie also pursued a master's degree in education administration

Born in Knoxville, Tenn., on Feb. 8, 1963, McKenzie earned a bachelor's degree in business administration with an emphasis in personnel management at Tennessee. A two-way football star at Austin East High School in Knoxville, McKenzie was valedictorian of his 1981 graduating class. His twin brother, Raleigh, also attended Tennessee and enjoyed a 16-year NFL career, including two seasons with Green Bay (1999-2000), before he retired in 2001.

McKenzie and his wife, June, a Green Bay attorney, have two daughters, Jasmin, 18, and Mahkayla, 17, and two sons, Reginald Kahlil, 13, and Jalen Elijah, 11. In his spare time, McKenzie enjoys spending time with his family and assisting with youth sports in the Green Bay area.

GREEN BAY PACKERS, INC.

Now in their 92nd season of professional football (their 90th in the National Football League), the Green Bay Packers are a team and an organization unique in both structure and accomplishment. They represent – from an organizational standpoint – the only publicly owned franchise in the 32-team NFL. On the field, they have won more world championships – 12 – than any other team in the league's history.

Green Bay Packers, Inc., was founded as a nonprofit corporation in 1922 under the leadership of A.B. Turnbull, then publisher of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, who became the organization's first president. There are 4,750,937 shares of stock owned by 112,158 stockholders. The corporation is governed by a seven-member Executive Committee, elected from a board of directors. The committee directs corporate management, approves major capital expenditures, establishes broad policy and monitors management's performance in conducting the business and affairs of the corporation.

MIKE McCARTHY

18th NFL Season Sixth Packers Season Fifth as Head Coach

Upon becoming Head Coach of the Green Bay Packers in 2006, Mike McCarthy was known in NFL circles for his innovative offensive mind and his ability to develop young quarterbacks.

Four seasons into his tenure in Green Bay, that reputation has become firmly entrenched, if not enhanced, by the Packers' offensive prowess before and during the transition to Aaron Rodgers as the team's starting quarterback.

McCarthy's four Packers teams all have ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total yardage – coming in at ninth in 2006, second in '07, eighth in '08 and sixth in '09 – one of only two teams along with New Orleans to finish in the top 10 each of the last four years. In his first two seasons, McCarthy simultaneously oversaw a mini-renaissance to future Hall of Fame quarterback Brett Favre's career and the development of Rodgers as his backup, and since then, the reins have been turned over to Rodgers.

The former Cal standout hasn't disappointed his primary tutor or his team, becoming the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in each of his first two seasons as a starter. The Packers also have become the first team in league history to produce a 4,000-yard passer, two 1,000-yard receivers (Greg Jennings, Donald Driver), and a 1,200-yard rusher (Ryan Grant) in two consecutive years.

The 2009 unit was particularly prolific, compiling a franchise-record 461 points and gaining 6,065 total net yards, the No. 3 mark in team history. The '09 offense also led the league in average time of possession (33:03) and in fewest turnovers (16), both franchise bests. All the offensive firepower, combined with a revamped defense, got the Packers back into the playoffs last season, McCarthy's second postseason appearance in three years.

MAJOR CHANGE

McCarthy embarked upon the first major alterations to his coaching staff since his arrival, hiring Dom Capers to be his new defensive coordinator and change the unit from a 4-3 base alignment to the 3-4 scheme that has been the staple of Capers' career.

The results were incredibly impactful. The defense improved from 20th in total yards allowed in '08 to second in '09, and from 20th in run defense to the top spot, becoming the first Green Bay defense to lead the league against the run and setting a franchise record by allowing just 83.3 yards rushing per contest. The defense also led the league in interceptions (30) and total takeaways (40).

The '09 season was not a smooth road back to playoff contention, however. Back-to-back losses in early November to division rival Minnesota and previously winless Tampa Bay dropped the Packers to 4-4, and a promising season suddenly appeared in doubt.

But McCarthy kept building on the identity that was forming – a team that could attack with multiple threats offensively, stop the run defensively and win the turnover battle – and led the Packers out of the adverse stretch to three straight victories in 12 days, culminating on Thanksgiving at Detroit. The winning streak was stretched to five games and included home triumphs over eventual playoff teams Dallas and Baltimore.

The team also overcame considerable adversity, in the form of season-ending injuries to defensive starters Al Harris and Aaron Kampman, to ultimately go 7-1 over the second half of the schedule. Meanwhile, Rodgers earned Mike McCarthy at a glance...

- ▶ Named the Packers' 14th head coach on Jan. 12, 2006.
- ► Has led the Packers to a top-10 ranking in total offense each of his four seasons, joining New Orleans as the only teams to accomplish that from 2006-09.
- ► Has coached two of the four highest-scoring teams in franchise history (2007, 2009).
- ► Has been on Green Bay's coaching staff four of the nine times in team history (1999, 2007-09) the offense has produced a 4,000-yard passer.
- ► Honored as 2007 'NFL Coach of the Year' by Motorola and NFL Alumni.
- Became the first Packers coach since Vince Lombardi to lead the team to a championship game in his second season, and tied Mike Sherman for the most regular-season wins by a Packers coach in his first two years (21).
- Has worked with a stable of quarterbacks that has combined for 36 Pro Bowl selections, nine Super Bowl starts, and six Most Valuable Player awards.
- ▶ Prior to Green Bay, had never been a head coach at any level, breaking into the NFL as a quality-control assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1993, his first of 13 years as an NFL assistant, which included six seasons as an offensive coordinator calling plays in New Orleans (2000-04) and San Francisco (2005).
- Was inducted into the Baker University athletic hall of fame in October 2007.
- Born and raised in Pittsburgh, one of five children. His father, Joe, was a longtime firefighter and police officer.

his first Pro Bowl berth, nearly breaking the franchise's single-season record for passing yards, and veteran cornerback Charles Woodson was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

Unfortunately, the late-season surge ended abruptly with a sudden-death overtime loss at Arizona in the NFC Wild Card game. But without question, McCarthy has gotten the Packers back on track toward the goal that hasn't changed since the day he was hired, and that's to bring a world championship back to Green Bay.

ON THE BRINK

McCarthy brought the Packers to the brink of accomplishing that goal in just two years. Coming off an 8-8 rookie season that ended with a momentum-building, four-game winning streak, McCarthy led the Packers to a 13-3 mark in 2007 that was groundbreaking in many respects.

The Packers tied the franchise record for victories in the regular season and won the club's first NFC North Division title since 2004. They also captured an NFC playoff bye and advanced to the conference championship game for the first time in a decade. It all earned McCarthy 2007 'NFL Coach of the Year' awards from Motorola and NFL Alumni as well as a new five-year contract that runs through 2012.

JSI

McCarthy also was runner-up in The Associated Press coach of the year voting.

The championship he had set as the goal was within reach, as the Packers hosted the New York Giants in the NFC title game on a frigid January day at Lambeau Field. The hard-fought, 23-20 overtime defeat was an opportunity missed, but one McCarthy vowed his team would learn from.

Leading the youngest team in the NFL in each of his first four seasons, McCarthy proved in 2007 that youth was no obstacle to success. Part of the team's 10-1 start included late-fourth-quarter or overtime scores to defeat two playoff participants from the previous year (Philadelphia, San Diego) and to win back-to-back AFC West road games (Denver, Kansas City) within a six-day span.

On its way to 13-3, Green Bay secured the team's first playoff bye since 1997, and McCarthy tied Mike Sherman for the most wins by a Green Bay coach in his first two seasons with 21.

Behind Favre's superb final year in Green Bay and the emergence of Grant as the feature back, the Packers with McCarthy as the play-caller finished with the league's second-ranked offense, their highest ranking since 1983. They also compiled season totals in points (435) and net yards (5.931) that rank fourth on the franchise's all-time list.

The postseason began in startling fashion, with Grant fumbling twice in the first minute of the game, setting up two Seattle scores for a 14-0 Seahawks lead in the NFC Divisional playoff. But, drawing on a steadfastness that served the team well during some rough spots the previous year, McCarthy and the Packers never panicked and rallied for a dominant 42-20 victory in the snowy 'winter wonderland' of Lambeau.

In advancing to the NFC Championship Game, McCarthy became the first Packers coach since Vince Lombardi to lead the team to a title game in his second season at the helm.

Though the quest for that championship came up short, McCarthy had returned the Packers to playoff prominence just two years after the 4-12 season that preceded his arrival.

A LEADER OF QUARTERBACKS

The Packers quarterbacks coach in 1999, McCarthy spent his first two years renewing his relationship with Favre, and the reunion helped rejuvenate the future Hall of Famer's play.

Charged with learning McCarthy's version of the West Coast offense and given more latitude in making decisions at the line of scrimmage, Favre concluded his brilliant Green Bay career with a 95.7 passer rating in 2007, his best in 11 years and fourth best in his career, while completing a (then) career-high 66.5 percent of his passes.

Buying into McCarthy's aggressive but controlled approach, Favre's interceptions dropped from 29 in 2005 to 18 in 2006 to 15 in 2007. He finished second in the voting for what then would have been an unprecedented fourth NFL MVP award, and he subsequently passed the torch to Rodgers, his understudy for his final three years in Green Bay and McCarthy's prime pupil for the last two.

Rodgers has continued the trend of keeping turnovers to a minimum, as in 2008 the Packers tied the 1995 team for the third fewest in club history with just 21, and the '09 team set the new franchise mark with just 16. Rodgers also twice has topped 4,000 yards passing, which in '08, combined with Favre's total in '07, marked the first time in league history a team had two different quarterbacks throw for 4,000 yards in consecutive years.

The past three years have marked the first time in franchise history the Packers have had a 4,000-yard passer three straight seasons. In fact, four of the nine times in team history the Packers have had a 4,000-yard passer (1999, 2007-09), McCarthy has been on the coaching staff.

The team also has finished in the top five in the league in scoring three consecutive years, and the Packers are now 23-2 in McCarthy's four seasons (24-3 including playoffs) when scoring at least 30 points.

TOP 10 AGAIN

For the fourth consecutive season under McCarthy, the offensive play-caller, the Green Bay offense ranked in the NFL's top 10. New Orleans, which enlists head coach Sean Payton as its offensive play-caller, is the only other club to finish in the top 10 in overall offense each of the last four seasons.

In 2009.

Averaging over 379 yards per game, the highest total in McCarthy's four seasons, the Packers' offense finished the year No. 6.

- ► Green Bay scored 461 points, marking a new franchise record.
- For the third time in franchise history, the club surpassed 6,000 total net yards, finishing No. 3 in team annals with 6,065.
- ▶ Green Bay became the first team in NFL history to have a 4,000-yard passer, 1,200-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in back-to-back seasons.
- ► The Packers established another franchise record with just 16 giveaways, fewest in the NFL.
- ▶ QB Aaron Rodgers threw for 4,434 yards, finishing just shy of Lynn Dickey's team record (4,458, 1983). RB Ryan Grant also had a career-high 1,253 yards, sixth most in team history.

In 2008.

The Packers finished the season ranked No. 8 in the NFL in total offense, averaging over 351 yards per contest.

- ► Green Bay's 419 points was the fifth-highest total in the league.

 For the first time in franchise history, the club had a 4.000-yard
- ► For the first time in franchise history, the club had a 4,000-yard passer (Rodgers), 1,200-yard rusher (Grant), and two 1,000-yard receivers (Donald Driver and Greg Jennings).
- Some players etched their names among the greats in Packers history, establishing some of the top single-season marks in passing yards (Rodgers, 4,038, ninth), rushing yards (Grant, 1,203, eighth) and receiving yards (Jennings, 1,292, 10th) in team history
- ➤ The Packers had just 21 giveaways, tying the '95 team for the third fewest in club history.

In 2007...

The Packers had their highest finish since 1983, ranking as the No. 2 offense in the NFL. The unit produced over 370 yards per name.

- ► Green Bay scored 435 points in 2007, fourth on the Packers' all-time single-season list. The total ranked fourth in the NFL.
- The Packers produced 5,931 total net yards (1,597 rushing, 4,334 passing), which also ranked fourth in club history.
- McCarthy designed an offense to highlight his receivers' ability after the catch. The league's No. 2 passing offense amassed 2,294 yards after the catch, tops in the league. The NFL average in 2007 was 1,596 yards.
- ▶ The Packers finished with 67 plays of 20 yards or more, second only to Dallas (68). Fifteen of those big plays came on the ground, and 52 were through the air.

In 2006...

Green Bay finished No. 9 in total offense, averaging over 341 yards per contest.

- ▶ The Packers were 4-0 when reaching 30 points in 2006. They were 9-0 when reaching 30 points in '07, 4-1 in '08 and 6-1 in '09, making the club 23-2 in regular-season games under McCarthy when reaching the 30-point mark.
- ▶ In its first year in McCarthy's West Coast offense, Green Bay began to show some of its big-strike capability. Its skill players produced 2,161 yards after the catch, second most in the NFL.
- ► The Packers had just 77 negative plays all season, the third fewest in the NFL and the least under McCarthy.

dynamic in his maiden season that helped the team battle back from a slow start.

McCarthy stuck to his plan and his vision as his team stood 1-4 at the bye week and 4-8 with one-quarter of the season to play. By turning the team's fortunes around to finish 8-8, he had laid the foundation for the success to come.

McCarthy got his team to bounce back from tough circumstances to remain in the NFC playoff hunt until the final week. The .500 record tied for third best among the seven rookie coaches in the NFL in 2006.

Close losses early to eventual NFC runner-up New Orleans and St. Louis put the Packers at 1-4. But the team used the bye week for extra preparation as well as rest, traveling to Miami to beat the Dolphins in oppressive South Florida heat and, three weeks later, post another impressive road win at Minnesota's Metrodome to improve to 4-5.

Three straight losses to eventual playoff qualifiers dropped the Packers to 4-8, but again McCarthy used a long road trip to get the team back on track. This one was to San Francisco, where McCarthy had served as offensive coordinator the previous year, and a big win that coincided with a key personnel change provided the springboard to a strong final month.

McCarthy moved defensive tackle Cullen Jenkins to end early in the 49ers game, and the defense quickly improved. The Packers' run defense got a boost on early downs and allowed for a better situational pass rush, and the defense climbed to 12th overall by season's end.

The strong defensive play and Favre's veteran leadership fueled a season-ending, four-game winning streak, the final three wins coming over NFC North opponents. A 26-7 win at Chicago in the season finale over the eventual NFC champion Bears put the Packers at 5-1 in the division and barely out of the playoffs, losing a tiebreaker with the Giants, who also finished 8-8.

That impressive early showing within the division was a sign of things to come for McCarthy, who is now 17-7 in four seasons against NFC North foes, which is tied for the best division record among NFC teams over that span (Arizona is also 17-7). McCarthy's mark includes a 13-3 record against Minnesota and Detroit, two teams that also hired new coaches in 2006.

THE RIGHT FIT

With a personality to match his blue-collar hometown, McCarthy landed his first NFL head-coaching job in his kind of place.

A Pittsburgh native, Mc-Carthy was named the 14th Head Coach of the Green Bay Packers on Jan. 12, 2006, the only step left to take after 13 years as an NFL assistant.

But while he previously had traveled through NFL cities such as Kansas City, New Orleans and San Francisco, it may be Green Bay that most resembles his native Pittsburgh. And if there was one word used to describe McCarthy's hiring in his first days with the Packers, it was that he was the right "fit", both for a town and a team looking to turn around a disappointing 4-12 season in 2005.

The way McCarthy fits

Green Bay, however, goes beyond the toughness in his personality, down-to-earth demeanor, and pride in his upbringing.

He not only spent one of those 13 previous years in the NFL with Green Bay, but he took over the Packers already well versed in the West Coast offense with a reputation for developing offensive talent, particularly at the quarterback position.

McCarthy is known for taking a hands-on teaching approach with young players and has been well respected around the league, in part because he had called plays for six seasons as an offensive coordinator before becoming a head coach. Plus, he has tutored an impressive roster of NFL guarterbacks.

While two of the biggest names he has worked with, Favre in Green Bay and Joe Montana in Kansas City, were at or beyond their peak years at the time, McCarthy has played at least a part in the development of signal callers Aaron Brooks, Jake Delhomme, Matt Hasselbeck, Marc Bulger, Rich Gannon and Elvis Grbac.

The entire stable of quarterbacks that McCarthy has worked with, which also includes Jeff Blake, Steve Bono, and Dave Krieg, has combined for 36 career Pro Bowl selections, nine Super Bowl starts, and six Most Valuable Player awards.

McCarthy's newest protégé to rise to a starting role is Rodgers, who was drafted in the first round in 2005. General Manager Ted Thompson heavily weighed McCarthy's track record with quarterbacks when he hired him the following year, knowing that since the post-Favre era was inevitable, the right tutelage at the game's most important position would be key to a smooth and successful transition.

PAYING HIS DUES

Much like those players he worked with who rose to prominence, McCarthy paid plenty of dues along the way to his first head-coaching job.

He learned a disciplined and no-nonsense approach to life at an early age. His father, Joe, was a longtime firefighter and police officer who also owned a bar near a Pittsburgh steel mill. McCarthy worked odd jobs at the bar as a teen. It was interacting with the hard-working tavern clientele while also watching a father in uniform dedicated to public service that helped make McCarthy proud of where he came from.

After his playing career as a tight end at Baker University (Kan.) ended, his 23-year coaching career began as a linebackers coach at Fort Hays State (Kan.) in 1987. He cracked the Division I ranks two years later as a volunteer assistant at the University of Pittsburgh.

It was there he displayed the will and determination to make it in the coaching profession, working for free on the football field by day and collecting tolls along the Pennsylvania turnpike during the graveyard shift to make ends meet.

He soon moved into a paid position at Pitt assisting with the quarterbacks, and then coaching the wide receivers, before Panthers head coach Paul Hackett recommended him to the Kansas City Chiefs when they hired Hackett as offensive coordinator in 1993. McCarthy joined Hackett on the Chiefs' staff as a quality-control assistant.

McCarthy considers Hackett the biggest influence in his coaching career, having learned the West Coast offense from him and then installing it himself as offensive coordinator in New Orleans.

It was under Hackett's wing that McCarthy developed the attention to detail, scouting and game-planning skills that would help him move up the NFL ranks.

The third-youngest head coach in the NFL when he was hired at age 42 (the Saints' Sean Payton was seven weeks younger and the Jets' Eric Mangini was 35), McCarthy took over a team coming off its first losing season since 1991, before Favre arrived as quarterback.

Thompson made it clear when he hired McCarthy he wasn't looking for just an X's and O's guy. He was looking for someone who would impress him with a variety of qualities, including leadership ability, toughness, football knowledge, and an awareness of the Green Bay organization and the team's unique place within the NFL and the local community.

McCarthy, who had interviewed for the Cleveland Browns head coaching job five years earlier but admits he wasn't necessarily ready then, fit the bill. In his introductory news conference, he spoke of how taking over the Packers was like buying his "dream house," with the foundation, tradition and resources to help him make the team a championship contender once again.

McCarthy emphasized he didn't feel the Packers were in a rebuilding mode at all, but there was work to be done right away.

He wasted no time constructing the environment he wanted for his team, implementing free weights as the foundation for the players' strength and conditioning.

He also installed an offseason workout program, and a then-record attendance at those sessions spoke volumes about the level of respect he quickly commanded as a head coach.

CAREER AS NFL ASSISTANT

McCarthy broke into the NFL as a quality-control assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1993. It was then he worked with Montana before moving up to quarterbacks coach from 1995-98, working with starters Gannon, Grbac and Bono. The trio's total of 52 interceptions marked the lowest total in the AFC over that four-year span.

After working with McCarthy from 1995-98, Gannon went on to earn all four of his Pro Bowl selections, the 2002 league MVP award and a start in Super Bowl XXXVII with the Raiders. Gannon credits McCarthy with helping him take the quarterback's game to a higher level.

"He's the guy that really helped catapult my career," Gannon said. "He was the guy who really taught me the West Coast system of football. He really taught me how to prepare for a game, taught me how to watch film, how to break down an opponent, how to study. It was really those things I took with me to Oakland.

"There was never a doubt in my mind he'd be a head coach. He's a great play-caller, great working with the quarterbacks. He's a tough guy, a guy willing to do the work, and he's a leader."

When Gannon left the Chiefs for Oakland in 1999, McCarthy departed Kansas City to become Green Bay's quarterbacks coach. That year, the Packers ranked seventh in the NFL in passing and ninth in total offense. Favre threw for 4,091 yards, then the third-highest total in his career.

The following year, McCarthy began a successful five-year stint as the offensive coordinator of the New Orleans Saints. It became the most prolific offensive era to that point in the team's four decades, as the Saints set 10 offensive team records and 25 individual marks.

Among the more notable accomplishments, the Saints led the NFC with 432 points and 49 touchdowns in 2002, both team records at the time. In his first season in 2000, McCarthy was chosen NFC Assistant Coach of the Year by

That year the Saints produced their first 1,000-yard receiver in eight years in Joe Horn, and their first 1,000-yard rusher in 10 years in Ricky Williams. After that decade-long drought of 1,000-yard rushers, the Saints had one (either Williams or Deuce McAllister) in each of McCarthy's five seasons running the offense.

In 2005, McCarthy served as offensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers.

COLLEGE COACHING & PLAYING CAREER

McCarthy began his six-year collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Fort Hays State in Hays, Kan., in 1987, just after completing his playing career at nearby Baker University in Baldwin City, Kan.

At Baker, McCarthy earned a degree in business administration and was an all-conference tight end and senior captain in 1986, helping lead the Wildcats to an NAIA Division II national runner-up finish. He was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in October 2007.

At Fort Hays under head coach John Vincent, McCarthy coached linebackers for two years while earning a master's degree in sports administration.

The return to his hometown came in 1989 under Pittsburgh head coach Mike Gottfried, now an ESPN college football analyst, followed by three years under Hackett with the Panthers. As quarterbacks coach, McCarthy worked with Alex Van Pelt as he topped the school's career and single-season records for passing yards established by Dan Marino.

PERSONAL

Born Michael John McCarthy on Nov. 10, 1963, in Pittsburgh, he grew up one of five children in the Irish-Catholic family of father Joe and mother Ellen in Greenfield, a Pittsburgh neighborhood just a couple of miles from downtown. He graduated from Bishop Boyle High School in Homestead, Pa.

McCarthy's family includes daughters Alexandra and Gabrielle, wife Jessica and two boys, Jack and George.

In Green Bay, McCarthy has immersed himself in several community events, including the Mike McCarthy Celebrity Golf Open, a fundraiser for local and statewide cystic fibrosis organizations that has had a longstanding relationship with the Packers. This past June, he also started the Mike & Jessica McCarthy Golf Tournament to benefit American Family Children's Hospital in Madison, and he and Jessica were the featured guests at the "Teaming Up For Kids" event, a kickoff ceremony for the organization's new pediatric center in Watertown.

In addition, McCarthy has served as honorary chairperson for the local Cerebral Palsy Telethon and worked with the American Heart Association on its Red Cap campaign to recognize heart disease and stroke survivors and to raise awareness of those conditions.

On an annual basis, he visits cancer patients at Aurora St. Luke's Medical Center in Milwaukee, participates in the Lombardi Award of Excellence Dinner Ball, which supports the Vince Lombardi Charitable Funds in the fight against cancer, and serves as host of the Green & Gold Gala, a fundraiser for Family Services of Northeast Wisconsin.

In 2009, McCarthy partnered with the Packers to make donations of $100,000 each to the Autism Society of Northeast Wisconsin, Baker University's football program and a group of organizations (St. Rosalia Academy, the Greenfield Baseball Association and the Greenfield Organization) in his native Greenfield Neighborhood of Pittsburgh. McCarthy and the Packers teamed up to make $100,000 donations to the Boys & Girls Club of Green Bay, Baker's football program and the same group of organizations in the Greenfield Neighborhood in 2008.

Among several other events, McCarthy has participated in Jerry Parins' Cure for Cancer Motorcycle Ride, the team's regular Make-A-Wish Foundation practice and game visits, and various local Get Motivated seminars.

McCarthy also was honored with the Distinguished Service award at the Lee Remmel Sports Awards Banquet in April 2008, and then in the fall as the 2008 Person of the Year from his native Greenfield Neighborhood.

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / INSIDE LINEBACKERS

12th NFL Season Fifth Packers Season

Entering his 23rd season in the NFL and fifth with the Packers, Winston Moss begins his third year in the role of assistant head coach with inside linebacker responsibilities for the second season.

Named to the current post by Head Coach Mike Mc-Carthy on Jan. 15, 2007, Moss impressed McCarthy with his leadership skills when the two worked together for five seasons in New Orleans and again in 2006 in Green Bay. The 44-year-old Moss continues to coach the linebackers as well, his original duty upon joining the Packers. His position responsibility was modified to inside linebackers in '09 with the switch to a 3-4 defense and the addition of outside linebackers coach Kevin Greene to the staff.

Last season Moss was part of a staff that guided the Packers defense to a No. 2 overall ranking in the league, the highest ranking since the '96 team finished as the No. 1 defense. Green Bay led the NFL in rushing defense for the first time in franchise history, and the average of 83.3 rushing yards allowed per game set a team record for any season.

Under Moss' guidance, veteran Nick Barnett returned from a serious knee injury to start all 16 games at 'Mack' LB and lead the team in tackles with 122 in '09, a franchise-record fifth time in his career that he led the team in tackles. Barnett also registered a career-high four sacks and led the linebackers with eight passes defensed.

A.J. Hawk started 14 games at the other inside-linebacker spot, the 'Buck' position, and finished second on the team to Barnett with 87 tackles. Hawk was one of only linebackers in the league to record at least 85 tackles, two interceptions and a sack in '09, and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate.

In 2008, with the addition of free-agent signee Brandon Chillar and the continued development of Desmond Bishop, Moss had his deepest linebacking corps in Green Bay to date, and it was needed when Barnett was lost for the season to a torn ACL in Week 10. Hawk made a rather seamless transition to middle linebacker to fill Barnett's spot, while Bishop and Chillar both contributed at Hawk's former weak-side position.

The previous year, Moss helped Barnett continue his progression from steady performer to true team leader with a Pro Bowl-caliber year. Barnett was named second-team All-Pro after leading the Packers in tackles for the fourth time in five seasons and posting a (then) careerhigh 3½ sacks along with two interceptions and numerous big plays late in games.

Moss spent a total of six seasons with the Saints, where he also coached linebackers. Originally hired by the Saints in 2000 as defensive assistant/quality control, he was promoted to linebackers coach near the end of that season to replace John Bunting, who departed to become head coach at the University of North Carolina.

Moss began his coaching career in 1998 as a defensive quality-control assistant for the Seattle Seahawks, the club for whom he played his final NFL season.

A veteran of 11 seasons and 155 NFL games (146 starts), the former linebacker played for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-90) and the Los Angeles Raiders (1991-94), in addition to the Seahawks (1995-97). Over the course of his career, Moss recorded 768 tackles, 20½ sacks and six interceptions, and recovered one fumble for a TD.

In 1993, when he led the Raiders in tackles on a team that advanced to the AFC Divisional playoffs, he earned the Ed Block Courage Award after a vote of his teammates. Moss also was a three-time defensive captain and received the 1996 NFL Players Association Unsung Hero Award while with the Seahawks.

A four-time letterman at the University of Miami (Fla.), he and current Packers scout Alonzo Highsmith helped the Hurricanes to the national championship after the 1983 season under Howard Schnellenberger.

As a prep, Moss attended Miami (Fla.) Southridge High School and was an all-state linebacker.

Born Dec. 24, 1965, in Miami, Fla., Winston and his wife, Zoila, have three sons, Winston Jr., 16, Robert, 11, and Marcus, 8, and two daughters, Victoria, 15, and Isabella, 2. In his spare time, Moss enjoys spending time with his family and playing golf.

DOM CAPERS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

25th NFL Season Second Packers Season

Named to his position on Jan. 19, 2009, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, Capers is one of the most experienced coaches in the league, spending time with seven different franchises before coming to Green Bay.

In his first season running the defense in '09, Capers led one of the biggest statistical turnarounds in franchise history as the Packers improved to a No. 2 overall defensive ranking and No. 1 ranking against the run after finishing No. 20 and No. 26 in those respective categories in 2008.

Guiding the defense as it transitioned to the 3-4 scheme, Capers helped the Packers lead the NFL in rushing defense for the first time in franchise history, and the average of 83.3 rushing yards per game set a team record for any season.

The Packers defense led the league with 40 takeaways and also led the NFL with 30 interceptions, the first time Green Bay led the league in INTs since 1965. The Packers also posted 141 points off of takeaways, tied for the No. 1 ranking in the league with the Super Bowl champion New Orleans Saints.

Under Capers' tutelage, veteran CB Charles Woodson posted perhaps his finest all-around season as he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press and was selected to virtually every All-Pro team. It was the third time in Capers' career as a defensive coordinator that one of his players earned the top defensive honor from AP, as Woodson joined Miami DE Jason Taylor (2006) and Pittsburgh CB Rod Woodson (1993).

Capers was honored with an award of his own in '09 as he was named "Coordinator of the Year" by Sporting News in a vote conducted by 53 current NFL head coaches and league executives.

Capers joined the Packers after one season with the New England Patriots as special assistant – secondary. Prior to that, Capers had defensive coordinator responsibilities for two seasons with the Miami Dolphins, holding the titles of special assistant to the head coach (2006) and defensive coordinator (2007). After inheriting a defense that had allowed 317 total yards per game (No. 18) in 2005, Capers made an immediate impact as Miami finished fourth in overall defense in '06.

Capers served as the head coach of the expansion Houston Texans for the first five seasons of the franchise's history. He was hired in January 2001, more than a year before Houston's inaugural season in 2002.

From 1999-2000, Čapers was the defensive coordinator in Jacksonville, where under his guidance the Jaguars improved from 25th in the NFL in total defense in 1998 to fourth in 1999. Jacksonville also allowed the fewest points (217) in the NFL in '99, and Capers was named NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA and USA Todav.

Capers served as a head coach for the first time in his career from 1995-98 with the expansion Carolina Panthers, guiding that team from its origin to the NFC title game in just two seasons. In 1996, Carolina won its last seven games en route to a 12-4 record and the NFC West title. The Panthers defeated the defending Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys in the divisional playoffs before falling to the Packers at Lambeau Field in the NFC Championship. Capers was honored with all of the major Coach of the Year awards in '96, including The Associated Press' honor.

Prior to taking over in Carolina, Capers served as a defensive coordinator for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1992-94, the first time in his coaching career that he ran a defense. His unit ranked third in the NFL in total defense in '93, second in '94, and the Steelers won the AFC Central in 1992 and 1994.

Capers' first NFL coaching stop came with the New Orleans Saints, where he served as the defensive backs coach for six seasons (1986-91). He helped the Saints earn their first three playoff berths in franchise history, and he worked under head coach Jim Mora, whose staff he coached on with the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL from 1984-85 as the Stars won the league title both seasons.

Capers began his coaching career by spending 12 seasons at the collegiate level, beginning with a three-year stint as a graduate assistant at Kent State (1972-74). He went on to coach defensive backs at Hawaii (1975-76), San Jose State (1977), California (1978-79), Tennessee (1980-81) and Ohio State (1982-83).

Capers played safety and linebacker for Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio, from 1968-71, and graduated with a degree in physical education and a minor in psychology. He also earned his master's degree in administration from Kent State.

Capers grew up in Buffalo, Ohio, where he was a star athlete at Meadowbrook High School. He still hosts an annual charity golf tournament in the area to raise money for the Southeastern Ohio Regional Medical Center's cardiac rehab unit, and for a college scholarship in the name of Dale Dixon, Capers' former high school football coach who died of a heart attack.

Born Aug. 7, 1950, in Cambridge, Ohio, Capers and his wife, Karen, live in Green Bay.

Mark Lovat is now in his 12th year with the Packers but is taking over the club's strength and conditioning program for the first time as coordinator. Promoted to his new position on Feb. 15, 2010, Lovat is swapping roles with Dave Redding, for whom he served as an assistant in 2009.

Since joining the team full-time on Jan. 25, 1999, Lovat has worked under three Green Bay strength and conditioning coordinators — Barry Rubin (1999-2005), Rock Gullickson (2006-08) and Redding. Lovat also previously had served two summer internships (1994, 1998) in the club's weight room

An accomplished athlete himself, Lovat earned a Division I baseball scholarship to Butler University in Indianapolis, starting three seasons at shortstop and second base for the Bulldogs. He also received the 'Helen Tewksbury Award' for academic and athletic leadership during the course of his playing career.

After graduating cum laude and with high honors from Butler in 1992 with a B.A. degree in Spanish and international studies, Lovat spent 6½ years at Lake Havasu City (Ariz.) High School, teaching Spanish as well as coaching football and baseball.

The son of former Green Bay offensive line coach Tom Lovat (1980, 1992-98), Mark earlier had graduated from Carmel (Ind.) High School, where he was a member of a state championship football team (1986) and captain of the baseball team (1988). A member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), Lovat became a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) in April 2000 and was nominated in 2004 by the association for the 'Sports Medicine/Rehabilitation Specialist of the Year Award' for his work in the successful rehabilitation of injuries to Packers tackles Chad Clifton and Mark Tauscher.

In 2005, Lovat completed his master's degree in exercise science and performance enhancement from California University of Pennsylvania, and also has earned certifications as a performance enhancement specialist (PES) and as a corrective exercise specialist (CES) from the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM). Additionally, he achieved in 2002 a Level 1 certification through USA Weightlifting, the governing body of the U.S. Olympic weightlifting team.

In his eighth year, both with the Packers and in the NFL,

Joe Philbin in 2010 begins his fourth season as Green Bay's offensive coordinator.

Named to his current position by Head Coach Mike Mc-Carthy on Jan. 15, 2007, he continued a rapid ascent up the professional coaching ladder. Philbin originally joined the Packers on Feb. 10, 2003, as assistant offensive line coach, then spent 2004 and '05 as tight ends/assistant offensive line coach, and was promoted to offensive line coach on Jan. 17, 2006.

In his three seasons at the offensive helm, Philbin has directed both a productive and sound unit. The team's 1.315 points from 2007-09 are the most in franchise history over a three-year period, while the 61 turnovers are the fewest in a three-year span.

League-wide, the offense has ranked in the top eight in total yards and the top five in total points each year, the only team in the NFL to accomplish that feat. The point total is third in the league over that span, trailing only New England (1,426) and New Orleans (1,352).

Over the past two years, the Packers became the first team in league history to have a 4,000-yard passer (Aaron Rodgers), a 1,200-yard rusher (Ryan Grant) and two 1,000yard receivers (Greg Jennings, Donald Driver) in backto-back seasons. The 2009 unit was particularly prolific, compiling a franchise-record 461 points and gaining 6,065 total net yards, the No. 3 mark in team history. The '09 offense also led the league in time of possession (33:03) and in fewest turnovers (16), both franchise bests.

In 2007, behind Brett Favre's MVP-caliber season, the offense ranked second in the NFL in total yards. That ranking was Green Bay's highest since 1983, while the 5,931 net yards and 435 total points both rank fourth on the franchise's single-season list. Favre's 4,155 yards passing that vear combined with Rodgers' 4,038 yards in 2008 marked the first time in league history a team had different 4,000vard passers in consecutive years.

While McCarthy generally calls the plays, for the 2008 Pro Bowl he turned that duty over to Philbin, who directed the NFC offense to six touchdowns in a 42-30 victory over Philbin's move from offensive line coach to offensive coordinator helped maintain continuity with the young offensive linemen and zone-blocking scheme. In 2006, Philbin oversaw a line that had three rookies - Daryn Colledge, Jason Spitz and Tony Moll - combine for 38 starts. Melding the new scheme with young, unproven talent, Philbin used his strengths as a teacher to develop a foundation up front. Despite injuries that led to five different starting combinations, the Packers allowed only 24 sacks and improved their run production by a half-yard per carry.

In 2005, Philbin's tight ends contributed to a passing game hampered by injuries. Green Bay joined Tennessee as one of only two NFL teams to have three tight ends record at least 25 receptions each, as Philbin effectively blended Donald Lee into the offense despite the tight end's late-preseason arrival.

Philbin's group in 2004 contributed to an offense that racked up more total yards (6,357) and passing yards (4,449) than any Packers team in the franchise's previous 83 NFL seasons. As proved in 2003, the line played an integral role in the NFL's third-ranked offense, including team marks for first downs (354), completions (382) and fewest sacks (14). In 2003, Philbin's teaching played a role in a rushing offense that improved from 12th the year before to third in the NFL, proving to be one of the best lines in team history.

Looking at Philbin's collective seven years with the Packers, he has coached on the offensive staff for four of the five top units in team history in total offense and three of the top four in total points, including two in each category as offensive coordinator.

With 26 years of experience, including 19 in the college ranks, Philbin came to Green Bay after four seasons as offensive line coach at Iowa (1999-2002).

Under Philbin's stewardship, Iowa fielded one of college football's finest offensive lines in 2002, helping the Hawkeyes finish second in the Big Ten Conference in rushing (214.2 yards per game). Philbin pupils Eric Steinbach, Robert Gallery and Bruce Nelson earned three of the five first-team All-Big Ten linemen spots, while Steinbach earned consensus All-America honors. Over the next two years, all three were selected in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft.

Prior to Iowa. Philbin served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Harvard (1997-98). Under his direction in 1997, the Crimson established 15 offensive records, including marks for total offense (4,236 yards) and first downs (217). Five members of his offensive squad earned All-Ivy League honors, including Matt Birk, a 1998 draft choice and six-time Pro Bowl selection for the Minnesota Vikings who now plays for the Baltimore Ravens.

Earlier, Philbin was offensive line coach at Ohio University (1994) and offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Northeastern University (1995-96). He also spent four seasons (1990-93) at Allegheny College, where the Gators earned three postseason berths in four years, including two undefeated regular seasons and an NCAA Division III national championship in 1990.

Philbin is a 1984 graduate of Washington & Jefferson College (Pa.), where he played tight end (1980). He also possesses a master's degree in education from Tulane University (1986).

Born July 2, 1961, in Springfield, Mass., Philbin and his wife, Diane, live in Green Bay and have six children: sons, Matthew, 22, Michael, 19, John, 17, Kevin, 16, and Timothy, 14, and a daughter, Colleen, 9.

Entering his fifth year in the NFL, Shawn Slocum begins his second season as the Green Bay Packers' special teams coordinator after joining the club in 2006 as assistant special teams coach. Elevated to his current position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Feb. 3, 2009, following the retirement of Mike Stock, Slocum brings a total of 19 years of coaching experience to his post, the first 15 at the college level.

Having originally joined the Packers on Feb. 6, 2006, the 45-year-old Slocum's background in the college ranks has proven valuable in working with young players at the

In Slocum's first year as coordinator, third-year LB Desmond Bishop emerged as the team's leading tackler on special teams after two straight years ranking third in the category. Meanwhile, S Derrick Martin, a newcomer in 2009, and TE Spencer Havner, a late-season signee in 2008, grew into reliable coverage players, finishing second and third on the team, respectively. Each of the three recorded at least 20 special teams stops, the first Green Bay trio to accomplish that since 1984. In addition, kicker Mason Crosby executed two successful onside kicks, one during the NFC Wild Card playoff contest at Arizona.

In his three seasons as Green Bay's special teams assistant, Slocum helped mold young cornerbacks Will Blackmon, Jarrett Bush and Tramon Williams into specialteams assets in their early NFL years. Blackmon already has tied the franchise record with three punt returns for touchdowns, accomplishing that over a two-year span (2007-08)

The continued development of those young special teamers, many of whom were in their second year in Green Bay's system in 2007, helped produce a rise from the bottom to seventh in the Dallas Morning News' annual special teams rankings for that season.

Along with his special teams duties, Slocum also previously assisted Winston Moss in coaching the linebackers.

Slocum joined the Packers from the University of Mississippi, where he served one year as assistant head coach and linebackers coach. Under Slocum's tutelage, LB Patrick Willis led the nation by averaging nine solo tackles per game as a junior; Willis also ranked fifth in the country by averaging 12.8 total tackles per contest, garnered first-team All-America honors from CollegeFootballNews. com and The Associated Press, and was a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award, given annually to the nation's outstanding defensive player. One year later, Willis was drafted in the first round, 11th overall, by the San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to Ole Miss, Slocum took a two-year hiatus from coaching, as owner and president of Slocum Development Group, Inc., a custom home building and commercial development company in Texas.

Slocum was the special teams coordinator and secondary coach at Texas A&M (2000-02) in his third stint with the Aggies. Slocum's units contributed to a team that appeared in two bowl games during that time.

Before returning to his alma mater, Slocum spent two seasons (1998-99) with the University of Southern California as the special teams coordinator and linebackers coach. During his tenure, Slocum worked with future NFL players Chris Claiborne, David Gibson, Marcus Steele and Zeke Moreno. In 1998, Claiborne earned both All-America recognition and the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker in leading the Trojans to the Sun Bowl.

Earlier, Slocum spent seven seasons at Texas A&M (1991-97), and assisted the Aggies to five bowl games, including four Cotton Bowl appearances. During that sevenyear term, in which the school was 94-28-2, he coached 14 players who subsequently played in the NFL. The 94 wins were sixth in the country and marked the most wins by any Texas Division I school in any decade.

While at Texas A&M as special teams and tight ends coach (1991-93), he helped the Aggies to three straight Southwest Conference championships. The following year, he transitioned from coaching tight ends to linebackers while maintaining his special teams responsibilities. In that role (1994-97), he recruited and coached All-American LB, Lombardi Award winner and future Dallas Cowboy Dat Nguven. On special teams, Slocum helped mold eventual Pro Bowl punter Shane Lechler, a two-time All-American and three-time All-Big 12 selection in college. Along with numerous school and conference records, Lechler finished his A&M career with NCAA marks for career punting average (44.7) and career games averaging at least 40 yards (37). Texas A&M won the Big 12 South Division in 1997.

Slocum began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Texas A&M in 1989. He moved on to the University of Pittsburgh the following season (1990) as a graduate assistant defensive coach, serving on a Paul Hackett staff that included McCarthy, then a graduate assistant helping with the Panthers' quarterbacks.

A linebacker in college, Slocum earned one letter from Texas A&M in 1984 and was a member of the 12th Man kickoff squad from 1983-84. He earned a B.S. degree in construction management from the school in 1988.

Born Feb. 21, 1965, in Bryan, Texas, Slocum has four children: daughters Tayler, 17, Jordyn, 15, and Haley, 12, and son Jaxon, 7. His father, R.C., is the winningest head coach in Texas A&M history, having guided the program for 14 years (1989-2002). In his spare time, Slocum enjoys playing golf, hunting, fishing and spending time with his family.

EDGAR BENNET

Sixth Season as NFL Coach 10th Packers Season

Edgar Bennett begins his 18th NFL season in 2010, his 16th in Green Bay and sixth as the Packers' running backs coach.

Named to his position Jan. 17, 2006, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, Bennett originally was promoted to his current role Jan. 28, 2005. He continues his "third" Green Bay tour after initially rejoining the club to head player development (2001-04) and, earlier, a tenure as one of the most productive running backs in Green Bay history (1992-96).

Over the past two years, Bennett has overseen the continued development of Ryan Grant, who became just the third running back in team history to eclipse 1,200 yards in back-to-back seasons.

Grant had rapidly developed in 2007, his first with the Packers, upon coming to the team in a trade at the end of training camp. Quickly brought up to speed under Bennett's tutelage. Grant emerged from a backfield-bycommittee to become the starter at midseason, went on to rush for nearly 1,000 yards (including five 100-yard performances), and then set Green Bay postseason records with 201 yards and three touchdowns in a playoff victory over Seattle.

Bennett also has helped develop a young ascending player in Brandon Jackson, a 2007 draft choice who has a 100-yard rushing game to his credit and has become the team's most reliable pass protector out of the backfield. This past season, Bennett also managed three fullbacks on the roster, as veterans Korey Hall and John Kuhn were joined by rookie Quinn Johnson, a fifth-round draft pick whose raw skills project significant promise.

In 2006, Bennett oversaw the strong recovery from a torn quadriceps tendon by Ahman Green, whose sixth 1,000-yard season set a franchise record.

In his first season as a full-time coach in 2005, Bennett saw the team start five halfbacks and feature six after season-ending injuries claimed Green and Najeh Davenport (ankle). A rib injury also sidelined No. 3 back Tony Fisher for two games.

Faced with steep adversity, Bennett took a non-drafted player fresh off the practice squad, Samkon Gado, and guided him to the second-most productive season by a rookie running back in franchise history. Gado, who had started only two games at Liberty University, ran for 582 yards, including three 100-yard games.

Initially joining the club as its director of player development April 10, 2001, Bennett for four years helped players become acclimated to their roles as Green Bay Packers, both on and off the field, especially in terms of their expected contributions to their teammates, the community and team chemistry. Bennett's efforts in this area were recognized in 2003 as the Packers' player development department was named the best in the NFC.

Green Bay's fourth-round draft selection in 1992, Bennett is the 10th-ranked rusher in Packers history. The former Florida State athlete gained 3,353 yards over his five seasons in green and gold (1992-96). In 1995, he became only the fifth player in team annals to rush for 1,000 yards in a season (1,067), the first since Terdell Middleton in 1978. He also continues to hold the club single-season record for receptions by a running back with 78, set in 1994. His accomplishments were appropriately honored in 2005 upon his induction into the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame.

After a torn Achilles' heel suffered in the Packers' 1997 preseason opener ended his season, a successfully rehabbed Bennett signed with Chicago as an unrestricted free agent in 1998 and led the Bears in rushing that season with 611 yards. After one more season with Chicago, Bennett retired from football in 2000.

A four-year starter at fullback for Florida State (1987, 1989-91), Bennett holds a bachelor's degree in social science, with a primary emphasis in political science and a secondary emphasis in sociology. Previously, he was a first-team all-state back at Robert E. Lee High School in Jacksonville, where he played with former Packers safety LeRoy Butler, who later also would be his teammate at FSU and in Green Bay. Bennett was inducted into the Florida State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005.

Bennett and his wife, Mindy, have a son, Edgar IV, 15, and a daughter, Elyse Morgan, 10, and live in Green Bay. In 2003, he created the Edgar Bennett Celebrity Bowl-A-Thon. an event that brings together Packers players, coaches and staff. In recent years, the event has supported Families of Children with Cancer, a foundation that gives financial and social support to local families whose children are receiving treatments for cancer or bone marrow failure. The '06 competition, which raised $58,500, saw a local sponsor roll a perfect game. In its initial year, the Bowl-A-Thon supported the March of Dimes. In May 2006, Bennett received the "Nice Guy Award" at the Doug Jirschele Sports Awards Banquet in Clintonville, Wis.

JAMES CAMPEN

Seventh Season as NFL Coach Seventh Packers Season

James Campen begins his seventh campaign as a Packers coach, his 12th overall with the organization.

Promoted to offensive line coach Jan. 15, 2007, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, Campen moved up from his position as assistant offensive line coach in McCarthy's first season at the helm. Prior to that, Campen filled the role of assistant offensive line/quality control coach for two seasons following nine years in the high school ranks.

A natural teacher, Campen has frequently taken young linemen and prepared them to be significant contributors in the early stages of their careers. Third-year man Josh Sitton started every game at RG this past season, while second-year pro T.J. Lang played three different positions over the course of his rookie year and started games at both tackle spots when needed.

In the first two years at his current post, Campen also worked hands-on in the development of three linemen -Daryn Colledge, Jason Spitz and Tony Moll - who ended up starting a combined 103 games from 2006-08.

Perhaps most impressively, none of the young and developing linemen - a group that also includes fourth-year pro Allen Barbre and third-year man Breno Giacomini were first-round draft picks, and all but Colledge and Spitz were drafted in the fourth round or later.

The Packers have rotated through several different line combinations the past three years, but Campen helped keep on track a unit that has paved the way for more than 3,000 rushing yards from Ryan Grant in roughly 21/2 seasons as a feature back. In 2007, the unit allowed only 19 sacks all season, and veteran LT Chad Clifton earned his first Pro Bowl appearance.

Campen made the transition from assistant offensive line coach smoothly, having worked extensively with Colledge, Spitz and Moll when all three were rookie draft choices in 2006. Alongside Joe Philbin, now the offensive coordinator, Campen helped teach the zone-blocking scheme to the youngsters and the veterans, who all relate well to him as a former player.

In 2005, Campen made his mark tutoring young linemen as Scott Wells, then in just his second year, filled in at center for an injured Mike Flanagan on several occasions and for eight games at guard after coaches altered the lineup. He also helped Clifton be named an alternate for the Pro Bowl, while seventh-round draft pick William Whitticker started 14 games at guard and became the team's lowest-drafted rookie to start the season opener since 1972.

Campen's direction in 2004 helped the Packers' trench men set a team record for fewest sacks allowed (14) and block for a 1,000-yard rusher for a sixth consecutive season, a franchise record. His assistance helped Marco Rivera to be voted to the Pro Bowl, the first Green Bay O-lineman in 33 years to make three straight all-star appearances.

Formerly a player with the Packers, Campen was a Plan B free agency addition from the New Orleans Saints in 1989. He played in 15 games for Green Bay that season, then took over as the starter at center in 1990, starting all 16 games and grading out as the most consistent member of the offensive line. He also was named to the USA Today All-Pro team following his '90 campaign. The 46-year-old Campen went on to play in 13 games in both 1991 and '92, missing three contests in '91 because of a calf injury and three others in '92 with a strained knee.

Green Bay's starting center Sept. 27, 1992, vs. Pittsburgh, Campen literally launched Brett Favre's 285-game starting streak, an NFL record among quarterbacks. His playing career came to an end in 1993 when he suffered a torn hamstring in Week 4 at Dallas (Oct. 3) and later underwent season-ending surgery. Campen played in 61 games overall with the Packers, making 42 of 48 starts from 1990-92

Campen broke into the NFL by talking his way into a free-agent contract with the New Orleans Saints in 1986 after going undrafted. Waived during training camp, he made the New Orleans roster in 1987 on his second try and started three games for the Saints. He subsequently was active for 12 games in 1988, playing in three.

A two-year starter at Tulane (1984-85), Campen as a senior received the school's 'Dr. Eamon Kelley Award,' honoring the class' top student-athlete who bettered the campus and community. He was the first football player to serve as a resident advisor in the dormitory. Philbin was a graduate assistant coach for the Green Wave during Campen's two years at Tulane. Campen earlier had begun his collegiate career at Sacramento (Calif.) City Junior College (1982-83).

Campen began his coaching career as defensive coordinator at his prep alma mater, Ponderosa High School in Shingle Springs, Calif. After four seasons, he was named head coach and went 29-20-1 over the next five years, competing in the Sierra Valley Conference, one of the most competitive high school leagues in the state. As a Ponderosa student-athlete, he earned two letters in football and three in wrestling.

Possessor of a B.A. degree in social science with an emphasis in criminal justice, Campen served as a reserve deputy sheriff in New Orleans and volunteered with the Green Bay Police Department in a similar capacity while a Packers player.

Born June 11, 1964, in Sacramento, Calif., Campen and his family make their home in Suamico, Wis. Campen also takes time to be involved in the community, giving talks to local groups.

TOM CLEMENTS

QUARTERBACKS

14th Season as NFL Coach Fifth Packers Season

Tom Clements, entering his 18th season in the coaching profession, is in his fifth year as Green Bay's quarterbacks coach.

Now in his 14th overall NFL season, Clements was named to his position Jan. 29, 2006, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy. Familiar with the role, Clements also served as quarterbacks coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers (2001-03), Kansas City Chiefs (2000) and New Orleans Saints (1997-99).

In Green Bay, Clements' extensive tutelage of Aaron Rodgers has paid dividends, as Rodgers has become the first QB in league history to throw for at least 4,000 yards in each of his first two seasons as a starter.

Rodgers' 4,434 passing yards in 2009 fell just 25 yards short of topping Lynn Dickey's 1983 franchise record and ranked fourth in the league. He also ranked fourth in the NFL in TD passes (30) and passer rating (103.2), and first in interception percentage (1.29) in earning his first Pro Bowl bid. The passer rating also sits second in franchise history to Bart Starr's 105.0 mark in 1966.

Meanwhile, Rodgers' first 4,000-yard season in 2008 gave the Packers 4,000-yard passers in consecutive seasons for just the second time in team history, and for the first time in league history those back-to-back 4,000-yard passers were different QBs.

The previous two seasons, in addition to tutoring Rodgers as the backup and heir apparent, Clements oversaw a mini-renaissance of Brett Favre's career. In 2006, Favre reduced his interceptions from a career-high 29 the year before to just 18, setting the stage for a near-MVP season in 2007, when Favre surpassed 4,000 yards passing for the fifth time. He also posted a career-best completion percentage of 66.5 and a QB rating of 95.7 that was his third best in leading the Packers back to the playoffs.

Before coming to Green Bay, Clements spent two seasons (2004-05) as offensive coordinator for the Bufalo Bills. In 2004, the Bills' offense increased its scoring output by 152 and reduced its number of sacks allowed from 51 to 38, fewest by a Bills team since 1999. The unit was highlighted by RB Willis McGahee, who became the fifth running back in Bills history to register back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons, covering each year of Clements' tenure. In addition, QB Kelly Holcomb set a club record in 2005 with a 67.39 completion percentage, surpassing Jim Kellv's 1991 mark. 64.14 percent.

Prior to joining the Bills, Clements served as Pittsburgh's quarterbacks coach for three seasons (2001-03) under Bill Cowher. In 2002, his second season with the Steelers, he helped Tommy Maddox earn The Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year award, as Pittsburgh's passing offense ranked seventh in the NFL, its highest finish since 1980 with Terry Bradshaw under center.

Clements also worked with Pittsburgh's Kordell Stewart (2001) and Kansas City's Elvis Grbac (2000) during each quarterback's best season, both culminating in Pro Bowl berths. Mike Ditka gave Clements his first NFL coaching job, hiring him to coach the Saints' quarterbacks (1997-99), which included Jake Delhomme and Kerry Collins.

Prior to his post with the Saints, Clements served under Lou Holtz as quarterbacks coach (1992-94) and wide receivers/assistant head coach (1995) at his alma mater, Notre Dame. While with the Fighting Irish, Clements coached eventual 1993 NFL Rookie of the Year QB Rick Mirer, and WR Derrick Mayes, the Packers' second-round draft pick in 1996. In addition, he tutored QB Ron Powlus, Notre Dame's career passing leader in attempts, completions, yardage and touchdowns at the time of his graduation.

Inducted into the Canadian Football League's Hall of Fame in 1994, Clements played quarterback for Ottawa (1975-78), Saskatchewan/Hamilton (1979), Hamilton (1981-82) and Winnipeg (1983-87) during a 12-year career in the CFL. Selected seven times as a divisional All-Star, Clements guided two teams, Ottawa (1976) and Winnipeg (1984), to Grey Cup Championships, earning the Outstanding Offensive Player award in each game. The league's Rookie of the Year in 1975 and Most Valuable Player in 1987, Clements completed 2,807 of 4,657 passes (60.3 percent) for 39,041 yards and 252 touchdowns during his CFL career.

Clements also spent one season, 1980, as a quarterback for Marv Levy's Kansas City Chiefs.

A three-year starter at Notre Dame (1972-74) under Ara Parseghian, Clements led the Irish to a 29-5 record, including an unblemished national championship season in 1973. An All-American in 1974, he finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting when Archie Griffin earned the award. Clements received his degree in economics from Notre Dame in 1975.

A licensed attorney, Clements worked from 1988-92 for Bell, Boyd & Lloyd, a Chicago-based law firm. He pursued his law degree during his CFL playing career, graduating magna cum laude from Notre Dame's School of Law in 1986. In 1994, while on the Notre Dame coaching staff, Clements was an Adjunct Associate Professor of Law at the university's law school, where he taught "Sports and the Law."

Born June 18, 1953, in McKees Rocks, Pa., Clements and his wife, Kathe, live in Green Bay. The couple has two grown children: daughter, Stevie, and son, Tom.

JERRY FONTENOT

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Fifth Season as NFL Coach Fifth Packers Season

Jerry Fontenot begins his fifth season in the coaching profession and his fifth season with the Packers in 2010.

Promoted to assistant offensive line coach by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Jan. 15, 2007, Fontenot moved up from his prior role, when he began as a coaching intern over the summer and was then retained for the duration of the season as an offensive assistant.

Over the past four seasons, Fontenot has assisted in the development of the Packers' sizable corps of young linemen. Third-year pro Josh Sitton started every game at RG this past season, while second-year man T.J. Lang played three different positions at times and started games at both tackle spots when needed.

Previously, the 2006 draft trio of Daryn Colledge, Jason Spitz and Tony Moll combined for 103 starts in their first three seasons.

A starting center for the New Orleans Saints during McCarthy's five-year tenure there as offensive coordinator, Fontenot made an indelible impression on McCarthy with his leadership, intelligence, and the respect he commanded in the locker room, qualities he displayed in his first foray into coaching.

Not far removed from his playing days, which concluded after 16 seasons in 2004, Fontenot quickly showed he could relate well to players, prompting McCarthy to retain Fontenot in a full-time capacity in 2007 with the promotion of Joe Philbin to offensive coordinator and James Campen to offensive line coach.

A longtime center, Fontenot played 239 NFL games with the Bears, Saints and Bengals from 1989 through 2004, proving to be extremely durable as a player. Originally a third-round draft choice by Chicago in 1989, Fontenot began a starting streak of 106 games in 1991 with the Bears that continued through his first one-plus seasons with the Saints, whom he joined in 1997 as an unrestricted free agent.

That streak ended with a season-ending knee injury in October 1998. Returning at the start of the 1999 season, Fontenot then started 80 consecutive games for the Saints through the end of the 2003 season before finishing his career with the Bengals in 2004. Fontenot was named a USA Today "All-Joe Team" selection in 2002 for his excellence without fanfare and his enduring leadership qualities.

In all, Fontenot played on four playoff teams, three with the Bears (1990, '91, '94) and one with the Saints (2000). He spent his first year out of football in 2005 working in broadcasting in the Chicago area, handling various football assignments with both WGN and ESPN, before deciding to give coaching a try, which he feels provides more fuel for his passion for the game.

A standout at Texas A&M and a sociology major, Fontenot played every position on the offensive line in college and helped lead the Aggies to three consecutive Southwest Conference titles from 1985 through 1987. He earned all-conference honors three times and was an honorable mention All-American as a junior and senior.

Born Nov. 21, 1966, in Lafayette, La., the 43-year-old Fontenot was a four-sport star at Lafayette High School, earning all-state honors twice in football, finishing as state runner-up twice in the discus, and winning a state championship in baseball.

He and his wife, Stephanie, have three daughters – Gabrielle, Madeleine and Camille.

KEVIN GREENE OUTSIDE LINEBACKER

Second Season as NFL Coach Second Packers Season

Kevin Greene enters his second season with the Packers in 2010 as outside linebackers coach, his first full-time NFL coaching job after 15 years as a standout player.

Named to his position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Feb. 3, 2009, Greene brings a wealth of experience at the outside linebacker spot and played a key role in teaching that position in the Packers' new 3-4 defensive scheme last season.

In his first season as a coach, Greene was part of a staff that guided the Packers defense to a No. 2 overall ranking in the league, the highest ranking since the '96 team finished as the No. 1 defense. Green Bay's defense led the NFL in rushing for the first time in franchise annals, and the average of 83.3 yards rushing per game set a team record for any season.

Under Greene's guidance, rookie ROLB Clay Matthews registered 10 sacks, the most by a Packers rookie since the statistic became official in 1982. Matthews was selected to the Pro Bowl, the first Green Bay rookie to earn that honor since WR James Lofton in 1978, and also led all NFL rookies with three forced fumbles.

Veteran Aaron Kampman made the transition from DE to LOLB under Greene, and recorded 3½ sacks and 28 QB hits (second on the team) in nine games before sustaining a season-ending knee injury in Week 11. Greene tutored another rookie, Brad Jones, as he was inserted into Kampman's starting spot for the rest of the season. Jones posted four sacks, all in the final month of the season, to give the Packers their first rookie tandem with four-plus sacks in franchise history.

As a 3-4 outside linebacker, Greene posted 160 career sacks for four different teams, ranking him third on the NFL's all-time list behind Bruce Smith and Reggie White and first all-time among linebackers. In 15 seasons (1985-99), he was a five-time Pro Bowl selection and two-time first-team All-Pro pick by The Associated Press. He reached double digits in sacks 10 times, which ranks third in league history behind Smith and White. Greene led his team in sacks 11 times and the league twice, and played in six conference championship games and one Super Bowl (XXX). He has been a semifinalist in the Pro Football Hall of Fame balloting each of the past three years.

Greene's pro career began in 1985 with the Los Angeles Rams, where he played his first eight seasons, six under future Packers defensive coordinator Fritz Shurmur (1985-90). He posted back-to-back seasons with a career-best 16½ sacks in 1988 and 1989. The latter year, he made his first Pro Bowl and was an AP second-team All-Pro choice.

In 1993, Greene went to the Pittsburgh Steelers, where he played for current Packers defensive coordinator Dom Capers the first two of his three seasons there. He was named first-team All-Pro and went to the Pro Bowl in 1994 with 14 sacks, tops in the league. In 1995, he went to his third Pro Bowl and helped lead the Steelers to an appearance in Super Bowl XXX.

In 1996, Greene reunited with Capers, who was then the head coach for the Carolina Panthers. He led the league in sacks for the second time, with 14½, and posted five consecutive multi-sack games. He was a first-team All-Pro for the second time and a Pro Bowler for the third straight year and fourth overall in helping the Panthers, a second-year expansion team, reach the NFC Championship Game against Green Bay.

Kevin Greene at a glance...

- ▶ Joined Packers Feb. 3, 2009.
- ➤ Tutored two rookies in '09, Clay Matthews (10 sacks) and Brad Jones (four sacks), as they became the first rookie tandem in franchise annals to each record four-plus sacks in the same season.
- Finished a 15-year playing career (1985-99) ranked third alltime in sacks and first among linebackers with 160.
- ➤ Was a five-time Pro Bowler (1989, '94, '95, '96, '98) and two-time first-team All-Pro selection ('94, '96), leading the league in sacks both of those years.
- ► Played for current Green Bay defensive coordinator Dom Capers with two teams, Pittsburgh and Carolina.
- ► Served as a captain in a 16-year career in the Army Reserve.

COACHING BACKGROUND

Greene then spent one season with the San Francisco 49ers (1997) before returning to Carolina for his final two years (1998-99). In 1998, Greene tallied 15 sacks and a career-best two interceptions, earning his fifth Pro Bowl nod.

In addition to the 160 sacks, Greene finished his career with 26 fumble recoveries, tied for fourth all-time, and five interceptions. He had three returns for touchdowns (two fumbles, one INT) and also scored three safeties.

A walk-on at Auburn, Greene played two seasons (1983-84) for the Tigers and led the Southeastern Conference in sacks as a senior with 11. He was selected in both the NFL Draft, by the Rams in the fifth round (113th overall), and in the USFL territorial draft, by the Birmingham Stallions.

While earning a degree in criminal justice at Auburn, Greene also completed ROTC training and served as a captain in a 16-year career in the Army Reserve. He served his military commitments during the offseasons while playing in the NFL.

Greene was a two-year starter and honorable mention all-conference selection as a senior at Granite City South High (III.). He also played basketball and was a high jumper for the track team.

Since his playing career ended, Greene has worked in real estate and as a summer NFL coaching intern with five different clubs, including one in 2006 with Miami, where Capers was the Dolphins' defensive coordinator. His most recent coaching internship was in 2008 with the eventual Super Bowl champion Steelers.

Born July 31, 1962, in Schenectady, N.Y., Greene and his wife, Tara, have a son, Gavin, and a daughter, Gabrielle.

Ben McAdoo begins his fifth season with the Packers as season overall in the NFL Named to his position Jan. 17, 2006, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, the 33-year-old McAdoo is an up-andcoming member of the coaching profession. He replaced current offensive coordinator Joe Philbin, who had been promoted to offensive line coach at the time. In each of McAdoo's previous two NFL tenures, he has worked with McCarthy.

This past season, McAdoo oversaw one of the most productive seasons in team history by the tight ends. With the emergence of youngsters Jermichael Finley and Spencer Havner, along with another year of steady production from veteran Donald Lee, Packers' tight ends posted a collective 99 receptions for 1,048 yards, franchise records in both categories

That reception total ranked tied for third in the league in 2009 (with San Francisco), behind only Indianapolis (121) and Dallas (116), while the yardage total ranked sixth.

Finley (55 receptions) and Lee (37) became the first tight-end duo in franchise history to each post 35-plus receptions in the same season, and they were one of only two tandems in the league to do so in 2009, along with New Orleans' Jeremy Shockey and David Thomas. Meanwhile, with Finley (five TDs) and Havner (four), the Packers were the only team in the NFL to have two tight ends catch at least four touchdown passes apiece.

The emergence of Finley, a third-round draft choice in 2008, was not a surprise after seeing the marked improvement he made in his first season. McAdoo helped Finley steadily learn the pro game as a rookie, and Finley flashed his tremendous potential over the final two games of the season, posting three receptions for 64 yards and his first NFL touchdown.

In 2007, it was former backup Lee enjoying a breakout year as he moved into a starting role. Lee posted career highs with 48 catches for 575 yards and six touchdowns, and he followed that up with consistent production the past two years to become the first Packers tight end since Paul Coffman (1981-83) to catch at least 35 passes in three consecutive seasons.

Upon arriving in Green Bay in 2006, McAdoo helped the Packers' tight ends adapt successfully to additional blocking and pass-protection duties they hadn't previously been assigned. The added assistance helped a young offensive line, with as many as three rookie starters at times, allow just 24 sacks all season.

McAdoo came to Green Bay from the San Francisco 49ers, where he served in 2005 as assistant offensive line/ quality control coach. In that role, he assisted the offensive line and tight ends.

Prior to joining the 49ers, he had a brief stint at Stanford University as tackles and tight ends coach. He resigned after the '05 recruiting season to take the 49ers position and reunite with McCarthy, then the San Francisco offensive coordinator, with whom he worked in New Orleans the previous season.

McAdoo, pronounced (MACK-ah-dew), entered the NFL coaching ranks in 2004 with the New Orleans Saints as an offensive assistant/quality control. He worked directly with McCarthy and assisted the offensive line and tight ends.

Prior to working in the NFL. McAdoo spent 2003 as an offensive assistant at the University of Pittsburgh, helping the Panthers earn a trip to the Continental Tire Bowl after an 8-5 season. At season's end, the University of Akron hired him as an assistant coach, but he stayed only through the '04 recruiting period before joining the Saints staff.

Earlier, he served as offensive line/tight ends coach at Fairfield (Conn.) University in 2002. After that campaign, the head coach left the team and McAdoo was appointed assistant head coach before the program was disbanded.

He began his college coaching career at Michigan State (2001) as a special teams/offensive assistant, on the heels of coaching four years at the high school level. He spent two years in the Homer Center school district in Pennsylvania and two years in the Indiana area.

McAdoo attended Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP) and earned a degree in health and physical education. Later, he received his master's degree in kinesiology from Michigan State.

Born July 9, 1977, in Homer City, Pa., McAdoo lives with his family in De Pere.

CHAD MORTON

SPECIAL TEAMS ASSISTANT

First Season as NFL Coach Second Packers Season

Chad Morton, a seven-year NFL veteran as a player, begins his second season with the Packers but first as a full-time on-field coach, moving into the role of special teams assistant for 2010. He was named to his new position on Feb. 15.

Morton originally joined the Packers as the team's coaching administrator last year and then swapped roles with special teams assistant Curtis Fuller following the 2009 season. Part of Morton's duties then included assisting with the defensive and special teams units.

Morton, 33, was a running back and kick/punt returner who began his career with New Orleans in 2000 as a fifth-round draft pick. Packers Head Coach Mike McCarthy served as the Saints' offensive coordinator at that time. Morton went on to play two seasons with the New York Jets (2001-02), two with Washington (2003-04) and two with the New York Giants (2005-06).

Serving primarily as a returner as a pro, Morton tallied 5,401 career kickoff return yards and three kick return scores, as well as 1,431 career punt return yards and one score, in 93 career games. He was named a Pro Bowl alternate returner in '02 and '05.

While with the Jets in 2002, Morton returned two kickoffs for touchdowns in a contest at Buffalo, making him the fifth player in NFL history to return two kickoffs for scores in the same game. The feat also established him as the first player ever to return a kickoff for a touchdown in regulation and in overtime. In 2000 with the Saints, Morton tied the NFL single-game playoff record with 13 receptions, against the Minnesota Vikings.

Morton was an All-Pac-10 selection at Southern California, where he served as the team's primary running back

DARREN PER

Ninth Season as NFL Coach Second Packers Season

Darren Perry begins his second season with the Packers in 2010 as secondary - safeties coach, his ninth season coaching in the NFL.

Named to his position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Feb. 3, 2009. Perry has coached defensive backs in the NFL for the past eight years and has tutored a Pro Bowl player in five of the last six seasons.

In 2009, free safety Nick Collins was selected to the Pro Bowl for the second straight season and also earned second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press after finishing third among NFL safeties with six interceptions. Strong safety Atari Bigby picked off four passes in '09 despite missing three games due to injury, giving the Packers their first safety tandem with four-plus interceptions each since 2002 (Darren Sharper, Margues Anderson).

Collins and Bigby were part of a secondary that helped the Packers lead the NFL in both takeaways (40) and interceptions (30), the first time that Green Bay led the league in interceptions since 1965. Perry was a member of a staff that guided the Packers defense to a No. 2 overall ranking in the league, the highest ranking since the '96 team finished as the No. 1 defense.

Perry came to Green Bay from Oakland, where he coached the Raiders' defensive backs for two seasons (2007-08). Cornerback Nnamdi Asomugha earned his second Pro Bowl selection and All-Pro honors from The Associated Press under Perry's tutelage, as the Raiders ranked in the top 10 each of those years in passing yards allowed. In 2008, Oakland allowed opponents to complete only 56.5 percent of their passes, tied for fourth best in the league.

Perry spent the previous four seasons coaching defensive backs in Pittsburgh under Bill Cowher, the team and coach for whom he played the majority of his career. Perry was the Steelers' assistant defensive backs coach in 2003 and was promoted to defensive backs coach in 2004, when the Steelers finished fourth in the league in both passing yards allowed (177.2 per game) and opponents' completion percentage (55.6). In 2005, Pittsburgh won Super Bowl XL.

Perry was credited for helping the rapid development of Pittsburgh safety Troy Polamalu, who earned the first of five straight Pro Bowl selections in 2004, just his second season. The versatile Polamalu also was an AP All-Pro pick twice (2004, 2005) with Perry as his position coach.

Perry broke into the NFL coaching ranks in 2002, coaching safeties for the Cincinnati Bengals under head coach Dick LeBeau, one of the most respected defensive minds in the game who also coached defensive backs for the Packers for four seasons (1976-79).

Drafted by the Steelers in the eighth round (203rd overall) of the 1992 NFL Draft - the team's first draft under Cowher - Perry became an immediate starter at free safety for current Packers defensive coordinator Dom Capers. Paired with Pro Bowler Rod Woodson much of his time there, Perry played seven seasons in Pittsburgh (1992-98) and started the first 110 games of his career, including postseason. He missed only two of a possible 123 games with the Steelers, both in 1998 due to a groin injury.

Perry went on to sign with the San Diego Chargers in 1999 but did not play due to a neck injury, and he concluded his playing career as the starting free safety for the New Orleans Saints in 2000, McCarthy's first season as the offensive coordinator there. Playing in all 16 games plus two postseason contests, he had three interceptions that season, giving him 35 for his career.

A standout in college at Penn State, Perry intercepted 15 passes in his career, tying him for second in school history. He returned three interceptions for touchdowns and compiled 299 return yards, both school records. As a junior in 1990, Perry intercepted seven passes and returned one for a TD. His senior year, he had six interceptions and two scores

Perry was an all-district and second-team all-state selection at quarterback for Deep Creek (Va.) High, where he threw for 2.790 yards and 23 touchdowns in his career. and rushed for 1,167 yards and 14 scores. He was a team captain for the football, basketball and tennis teams.

Born Dec. 29, 1968, in Norfolk, Va., Perry lives in Green Bay with his wife, Errika, and their four children: Danielle, Dominique, Dedriana, and Devan. He also enjoys playing golf and bass guitar, and he is on the board of directors of the Chesapeake Care Free Clinic in Virginia, which provides health care to individuals without insurance or the necessary resources. Through the clinic, Perry sponsors the Intercept for Care program, which raises donations based on the number of interceptions recorded by Perry's team in a given season.

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

24th NFL Season Second Packers Season

Dave Redding begins his 24th season in the NFL in 2010, his second with the Green Bay Packers and first under former assistant Mark Lovat. Redding joined the team last year as strength and conditioning coordinator and swapped roles with Lovat for this season.

Originally named to the coordinator position on Feb. 3, 2009, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, Redding returned to the NFL after a two-year hiatus as a private nutritional and fitness consultant with Ascential Bioscience. He has worked as a strength and conditioning coach for four other NFL teams – the San Diego Chargers (2002-06), the Washington Redskins (2001), the Kansas City Chiefs (1989-97) and the Cleveland Browns (1982-88).

After Redding initially worked under Sam Rutigliano with the Browns, the head coach at each of the four previous stops was Marty Schottenheimer, who had both Redding and McCarthy on his staff with the Chiefs in the mid-1990s. Redding's assistant strength and conditioning coach on those Kansas City teams was Russ Ball, the Packers' current vice president of football administration and player finance.

At his most recent previous NFL stop, San Diego, the 58-year-old Redding was named the NFL's strength and conditioning coach of the year in 2006 following the Chargers' 14-2 season. Also that year, he was inducted into the USA Strength and Conditioning Coaches Hall of Fame.

From 1998-2000, during his other brief absence from the NFL, Redding worked as the national sports director for AdvoCare, a Dallas-based nutrition company.

When Redding broke into the NFL with the Browns in 1982, he became that team's first-ever strength coach. Prior to entering the NFL ranks, Redding served as the University of Missouri's first-ever strength coach from 1978-81, where Ball was also the first assistant coach he ever hired.

In 1977, Redding became the first-ever strength coach at Washington State, where he also coached defensive ends, after beginning his coaching career in 1976 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Nebraska, where he earned a degree in physical education.

During Redding's playing career with the Cornhuskers, he was a three-year letterman (1973-75) as a defensive end under legendary coaches Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne. Redding's senior season of 1975 produced the first of Osborne's 13 Big Eight/Big 12 Conference titles.

Born June 14, 1952, in Holdenville, Okla., Redding is engaged to J. Denise Miller and has a daughter, Taylor Reta. He enjoys hunting, fishing and playing golf.

DON HUTSON'S FIRST NFL RECEPTION, 1935

On the day's first play, vs. the Bears Sept. 22, 1935, at City Stadium, Don Hutson caught an 83-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber.

Bears safety Beattie Feathers bought Herber's fake to Johnny (Blood) McNally, springing Hutson, who was making his first NFL start after his debut the previous week.

True Sport said Herber's pass covered 66 yards in the air. Green Bay won, 7-0.

JIMMY ROBINSON

21st Season as NFL Coach Fifth Packers Season

A possessor of 25 years of coaching experience, Jimmy Robinson begins his fifth season as the Green Bay Packers' wide receivers coach.

Named to his position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy Jan. 17, 2006, Robinson brings a wealth of experience to the wide receiver corps. A proven and established tutor of some of the NFL's top receivers, Robinson worked with McCarthy while with New Orleans in 2004 when McCarthy was the Saints' offensive coordinator. Robinson is the 19th wide receivers coach in Packers history, joining a group that includes Tom Coughlin (1986-87) and Jon Gruden (1993-94), plus Hall of Famer Don Hutson (1944-48).

Entering his 27th season in the National Football League as a player or coach, Robinson's dedication to the fundamentals and focus on the "little things" has helped mold a mixture of veterans and younger players into a productive group over the past four years.

While veteran Donald Driver followed up two Pro Bowl campaigns in 2006 and 2007 (including career highs of 92 catches and 1,295 yards in '06) with two more 1,000yard seasons in 2008 and 2009, Robinson also has been instrumental in the rapid ascension of youngsters Greg Jennings, James Jones, and Jordy Nelson.

Jennings, who went from a second-round draft choice in 2006 to a Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie selection, enjoyed a 12-touchdown season in his second year, and now like Driver has posted back-to-back 1.000-vard seasons the last two years, with his 1,292 yards in 2008 ranking sixth in the NFL. The Packers have had two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season just five times in franchise history, and twice now under Robinson.

Meanwhile, Jones, a third-round pick in 2007, and Nelson, a second-round pick in 2008, made seamless transitions to the pro game that mirrored Jennings'. Jones caught 47 passes for 676 vards and two TDs in his rookie year, while Nelson had 33 receptions for 366 yards and two TDs as a rookie in 2008. Each's numbers fell in the same ballpark as those of Jennings' first year in 2006 (45 catches, 632 yards, three TDs), and after an injury-plagued second season, Jones rebounded with a career-best five TD catches in 2009.

Robinson spent two years (2004-05) with the Saints before coming to the Packers. In New Orleans, he built a group of receivers that became the most consistent members of the offense. In 2005, a season of significant adversity, Robinson helped elevate Donté Stallworth to career highs in receptions (70) and vards (945), along with seven TDs.

In his first year in New Orleans, 2004, Robinson guided Joe Horn, who tied a career best and matched the NFC lead with 94 receptions. Horn also established career highs and club records with 1,399 receiving yards and 11 TD catches. With eight 100-yard performances between them in '04, Horn and Stallworth combined to set a single-season record for the most times reaching that mark by a pair of Saints targets.

Prior to his time in New Orleans, Robinson spent six seasons (1998-2003) as the wide receivers coach for the New York Giants and steered that unit to the most successful seasons in club history. Under Robinson, Amani Toomer emerged to capture the Giants' franchise record for career receiving yards. Toomer also posted single-season team marks with 82 catches and 1,387 yards in 2002. Toomer became the first player in Giants history to catch at least 70 passes in four straight years (1999-2002) and have five straight 1,000-yard seasons (1999-2003).

In 2001, Robinson's unit caught a team-record 186 passes for 2,680 yards and 15 touchdowns. Earlier, in 1999, Toomer and Ike Hilliard became the first pair of Giants receivers to combine to surpass 2,000 yards.

Robinson joined the Giants after four seasons (1994-97) heading up the Indianapolis receivers. In 1996 with the Colts, Robinson helped launch the career of Marvin Harrison, who became only the third rookie in club history to lead the team in receiving.

While coaching in a similar capacity with the Atlanta Falcons (1990-93), Robinson guided some of the league's most exciting receivers during the early 1990s. In 1991, when the Falcons drafted Brett Favre, Robinson assisted Andre Rison and Michael Haynes to the top of the NFL's touchdown receptions list for a tandem. One year later, Rison and Mike Pritchard led the league again in the category.

The 57-year-old Robinson first entered the professional coaching ranks in 1984, when he joined then-rookie Reggie White as members of the United States Football League's Memphis Showboats. Robinson spent two seasons (1984-85) as the team's wide receivers/tight ends coach, beginning his career in the league's second year of operation.

Robinson returned to his alma mater, Georgia Tech, as wide receivers coach from 1987-89.

Originally selected by the Falcons in the 15th round of the 1975 NFL Draft, Robinson played 58 games during a sixyear career with the New York Giants (1976-79), San Francisco 49ers (1980) and Denver Broncos (1981). He caught 85 career passes for 1,437 yards (16.9-yard avg.) and six touchdowns, and also returned 27 kickoffs and 59 punts.

His stint with New York was perhaps his most productive as a player. He led the club in receptions twice (1977-78) and scored the first touchdown in Giants Stadium on a 30-yard pass from Craig Morton against the Dallas Cowboys, Oct. 10, 1976.

A standout wide receiver as a collegian at Georgia Tech from 1971-74, Robinson recorded 101 catches for 1.633 yards and 13 touchdowns. The school inducted him into its hall of fame in 1981 and named him to the Yellow Jackets' all-time team in 1992. He earned a degree in industrial management from Georgia Tech in 1975.

Born Jan. 3, 1953, in New York City, Robinson and his wife, Karen, have four children - Jamie, Jessica, Jim and Katie – and a granddaughter, Avery. He enjoys watching movies, playing golf and traveling.

2009 REVIEW

MISC

John Rushing begins his second season as the Packers' offensive quality control coach in 2010, continuing his first venture into the NFL after 13 years in the college coaching ranks.

Named to his position on Feb. 3, 2009, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, Rushing spent the 2008 training camp with the Packers through the NFL's Minority Coaching Internship Program.

He came to Green Bay from Utah State, where he spent six seasons (2003-08) coaching defensive backs. During his tenure there, Rushing coached current Packers defensive back and special teamer Jarrett Bush, who ranked sixth in the NCAA in passes defensed in 2005 with 1.36 per game.

Additionally, Rushing coached the Aggies' punt return unit. In 2007, Kevin Robinson led the nation with an 18.9-yard average on punt returns, and he was selected in the sixth round (182nd overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. Robinson, who is Rushing's younger brother, returned 19 kickoffs for 420 yards (22.1 avg.) and 11 punts for 94 yards (8.5 avg.) in eight games played for the Chiefs in '08.

Prior to his time at Utah State, Rushing coached the secondary at Montana State for three seasons (2000-02), where he worked with Joey Thomas, a third-round draft choice of the Packers in 2004.

Rushing's first Division I job was as a graduate assistant coach for the secondary at Boise State for two years (1998-99), where he coached current Philadelphia Eagles S Quintin Mikell, who was named to the Pro Bowl in 2009. He began his coaching career at Merced Union High School in California in 1995, his alma mater, before moving on to the college game at Willamette University in Salem, Ore., for two years (1996-97). He coached the secondary there and was a part of Willamette's Division III national runner-up squad in 1997.

As a player, Rushing started all four years as a defensive back at Washington State (1991-94) and set a school record by starting 46 games. His freshman and sophomore seasons, he earned honorable mention All-Pac-10 Conference honors, and in 1991, he also was named to the Sporting News Freshman All-America team.

During his senior season of 1994, Washington State ranked second in the NCAA in both total defense (229 yards per game) and scoring defense (12.1 points per game).

As a prep, Rushing was a two-sport standout at Merced Union. He started at running back and safety on a 14-0 section championship team that was nationally ranked in USA Today. In track and field, he also qualified for the state championships in the 100- and 200-meter dashes.

Rushing earned his degree in sociology from Washington State in 1995 and a master's degree in education from Boise State in 2005.

Born Feb. 26, 1972, in Merced, Calif., Rushing and his wife, Angela, have three daughters, Nataya, Tatiana and Kamiah. He enjoys bowling and playing golf.

16th NFL Season Third Packers Season

Mike Trgovac (pronounced TER-guh-vack) begins his third season with the Packers, his second stint with the team, and his 16th season overall in the NFL.

Named to his position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Feb. 3, 2009, Trgovac was the Packers' defensive line coach in 1999, the same year McCarthy was the team's quarterbacks coach.

In 2009, Trgovac tutored a line that made the transition to the 3-4 defense and helped the Packers lead the NFL in rushing defense for the first time in franchise history. The average of 83.3 rushing yards allowed per game set a team record for any season, and the defense also set a team record by holding opponents to under 90 net yards rushing in 12 games. The Packers moved up 25 spots in the league rushing defense rankings from '08, the biggest one-year improvement in the history of the franchise.

DE Johnny Jolly set a team record for defensive linemen with 11 passes defensed, the most since the statistic began to be recorded in 1980. Fellow DE Cullen Jenkins posted career highs in both tackles (50) and forced fumbles (three). The pair each posted interceptions on the season to become the first defensive-line duo since 2002 (Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila and Vonnie Holliday) to each register an INT in the same season.

Trgovac came to Green Bay from Carolina, where he was the Panthers' defensive coordinator for six seasons. In that time, Trgovac directed a defense that produced 10 Pro Bowl selections and ranked in the NFL's top 10 in both yards and points allowed three times.

The 2005 campaign was statistically the Panthers' best under Trgovac, as they ranked third in yards (282.6), fifth in points (259) and first in takeaways (a team-record 42) in helping Carolina advance to its second NFC Championship Game in three seasons.

Playing perhaps their best defense in the postseason that year, the Panthers became the first road team in more than 25 years to post a playoff shutout, when they held the New York Giants to 132 yards in a 23-0 victory in the Wild Card round en route to the conference title game.

The unit's ability to create turnovers had begun to show up in the second half of 2004, when the Panthers had 29 takeaways in the season's final eight games after recording just nine in the first eight. The 38 total takeaways ranked second in the league and tied the club record at the time, and the defense's 26 interceptions were a league high and team record.

Trgovac's inaugural season as a defensive coordinator featured his first top-10 unit. After promoting him from his post as the Panthers' defensive line coach, Carolina ranked eighth in the league in yards allowed (295.3) and 10th in points (304) in 2003, and held top-10 rankings in a handful of other categories, including sacks per pass play, first downs per game, and third-down efficiency.

That defense also forced four turnovers and held the Eagles to a field goal in Carolina's 14-3 victory in the NFC Championship Game at Philadelphia, earning the Panthers their first Super Bowl berth.

As defensive line coach in 2002, Trgovac oversaw a dramatic improvement in the Panthers' front four that made a strong case for taking over as coordinator. Carolina's defensive line ranked third in the league with 39 sacks and was first in the league in rushing yards per attempt. Under Trgovac's tutelage, DE Julius Peppers was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, while DT Kris Jenkins (older brother of Green Bay's Jenkins) earned first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press.

Prior to his tenure in Carolina, Trgovac coached the defensive line of the Washington Redskins for two seasons (2000-01). Ends Marco Coleman (12) and Hall of Famer Bruce Smith (10) both reached double digits in sacks in 2000, with Coleman being selected to the Pro Bowl.

His first stop in Green Bay, in 1999, was the Packers' first season in seven years without Reggie White leading the defensive line. That year, DE Keith McKenzie matched his career high in sacks with eight in a part-time specialist role.

Trgovac broke into the NFL as the defensive line coach of the Philadelphia Eagles for four seasons (1995-98). In '95, the Eagles' line led the NFL in sacks with 42.5 (of the team's 48 sacks). DE William Fuller topped the squad with 13 and made the Pro Bowl for the first of two straight years

Trgovac's career working with defensive linemen in the college coaching ranks spanned 11 seasons and five schools, beginning with his alma mater, Michigan, as a graduate assistant in 1984. After two seasons there, he moved on to Ball State (1986-88), Navy (1989), Colorado State (1990-91) and Notre Dame (1992-94).

With the Fighting Irish under Lou Holtz, Trgovac saw two of his protégés become early selections in the 1994 NFL Draft, as the San Francisco 49ers took Bryant Young seventh overall and the Chicago Bears picked Jim Flanigan in the third round.

Trgovac's playing career at Michigan from 1977-80 under Bo Schembechler featured three seasons as a starter at middle guard on the defensive line. He was a two-time All-Big Ten honoree and a second-team All-America selection as a senior. He played in three Rose Bowls for the Wolverines and received his degree in education from Michigan in 1982.

An all-state football player and wrestler at Fitch High School in Austintown, Ohio, Trgovac was named Ohio's "Defensive Lineman of the Year" and also captured the state heavyweight wrestling title as a senior.

Born Feb. 27, 1959, in Youngstown, Ohio, Trgovac and his wife, Angela, have two children, daughter Jordan, 16, and son Michael, 11. He enjoys spending time with his family and boating.

Entering his fourth season in the NFL, Joe Whitt Jr., begins his third with the Green Bay Packers and second in his position of secondary - cornerbacks coach.

Originally named defensive quality control coach on March 7, 2008, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, the 32-year-old Whitt was promoted to cornerbacks coach on Feb. 3, 2009.

He came to Green Bay after one year with the Atlanta Falcons as assistant defensive backs coach. Whitt coached the previous five years in the college ranks, beginning with the 2002 season as wide receivers coach at The Citadel, followed by a four-year stint as cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator at Louisville.

In 2009, Whitt was part of a staff that guided the Packers defense to a No. 2 overall ranking in the league, the highest ranking since the '96 team finished as the No. 1 defense. Green Bay led the league with 40 takeaways and 30 interceptions, the first time the Packers led the league in interceptions since 1965 (tied with Washington that season with 27).

One of Whitt's pupils, veteran CB Charles Woodson, posted a career-high nine interceptions as part of perhaps his finest all-around season on his way to earning NFL Defensive Player of the Year Honors from The Associated Press as well as All-Pro honors from virtually every publication. The 33-year-old Woodson became just the fifth cornerback (since award's inception in 1971) to earn the honor, and was the oldest defensive back to win the award.

Tramon Williams, who took over as the starting RCB after veteran Al Harris suffered a season-ending knee injury in Week 11, posted a career-high and team-leading 22 passes defensed along with four interceptions under Whit's tutelage.

In Whitt's first season with the Packers, his duties included breaking down opponent game film and analyzing their offensive tendencies while also assisting with the defensive backs and special teams.

In 2006 with Atlanta, Whitt worked alongside veteran coach and former Packers defensive coordinator Emmitt Thomas in tutoring the Falcons' defensive backs. CB DeAngelo Hall earned his second Pro Bowl berth that season.

During his time in Louisville, Whitt's work in recruiting helped bring the program into national prominence as the Cardinals went 41-9 over that four-year stretch. After joining the staff in 2003, Whitt worked diligently to improve the Cardinals' recruiting efforts, and the program landed its first top-25 recruiting class in 2005.

On the field, he coached All-Big East first-team selection William Gay, who led the team with six interceptions and was a fifth-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2007. Whitt also had a hand in S Kerry Rhodes, currently with the Arizona Cardinals, and S Antoine Harris, currently with the Atlanta Falcons, making it to the NFL.

Whitt broke into the collegiate coaching ranks in 2002 as wide receivers coach at The Citadel. In his only season there, the Bulldogs saw their passing attack increase by 81.3 yards per game over 2001, averaging 219.8 yards in 2002. Under Whitt's guidance, all of the team's receivers produced career highs in 2002, most notably Scooter Johnson, who improved on his six catches for 104 yards as a junior to bring in 69 passes for 950 yards and seven touchdowns to earn first-team All-Southern Conference honors as a senior.

A native of Auburn, Ala., and a walk-on as a player at Auburn University, Whitt eventually earned a scholarship and played for a coaching staff that included his father, Joe Sr., an Auburn assistant since 1981 who at one time as defensive line coach tutored current Packers outside linebackers coach Kevin Greene.

Whitt worked his way into Auburn's rotation at wide receiver and contributed on special teams, battling several injuries along the way. After three shoulder surgeries and reconstructive knee surgery, he was granted a medical hardship waiver and became a student assistant at Auburn for two seasons, coaching alongside his dad.

Whitt graduated from Auburn in 2001 with a degree in communications. Born July 19, 1978, Whitt and his wife, Ericka, have two children, a son, Joseph Barrington, and a daughter. Ava Jeneé.

LOMBARDI'S PUPILS

Vince Lombardi hired 11 assistant coaches during his nine years (1959-67) as Packers head coach. Of those assistants, five became NFL head coaches: Bill Austin (Pittsburgh, Washington), Phil Bengtson (Green Bay), Jerry Burns (Minnesota), Tom Fears (New Orleans) and Norb Hecker (Atlanta).

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Tim Terry, a former NFL linebacker, enters his sixth season with the Packers' pro personnel department after joining the team on Oct. 11, 2004. Terry's primary duties are scouting professional prospects in the NFL, CFL and Arena Football League, working under Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations Ted Thompson. He also is involved with in-season advance scouting of upcoming Packers opponents.

In 2008, Terry was named assistant director of pro personnel, after serving as a pro personnel assistant the previous three years. During the 2007 season, he continued to work in the personnel department while also serving as the director of player development, helping to maintain lockerroom cohesiveness and assisting players in acclimating to their roles, both on and off the field. Former Packers long snapper Rob Davis took over that position in 2008.

The 36-year-old Terry originally entered the NFL as a non-drafted free agent out of Temple with the Cincinnati Bengals in 1997. As a rookie, he saw action in five games, logging three stops and five special teams tackles. Terry spent the 1998 season on the team's practice squad.

In 1999, he went to camp with the Kansas City Chiefs, but was released and subsequently signed with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the CFL, helping that club to a Grey Cup championship.

Terry joined the Seattle Seahawks' practice squad in early 2000 before being elevated to the active roster on Nov. 10, and finished the season by playing in six games, collecting two special teams stops and forcing a fumble on a kickoff return.

Terry saw action in all 16 Seahawks games each of the following two seasons (2001-02), with his best professional campaign coming in 2002, when he took over as a starter for the final eight games after LB Chad Brown (broken foot) was lost to injury. That year, he posted a career-high 42 tackles, including one sack, plus one pass defensed. one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

He was released by the Seahawks during training camp in 2003. His NFL career included 43 games played (eight starts), 55 tackles, including 3½ sacks, plus 19 special teams stops.

Collegiately, Terry saw action in all 44 games (43 starts) during his four seasons at Temple, playing as a defensive lineman and finishing his career with 208 tackles. As a senior, he started all 11 games despite a groin pull, and made 56 tackles with five sacks and a team-high 11 QB pressures.

Terry holds a B.S. degree in political science with a minor in African-American studies; he is currently working on a master's degree in management at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay.

An all-state selection at Hempstead (N.Y.) High School, he also lettered in track, basketball and lacrosse.

Born July 26, 1974, in Long Island, N.Y., Terry resides in Green Bay. He has a daughter, Zoe, 9, and two sons, Timothy II, 6, and Jayden, 2. In his spare time, he enjoys playing pool, golf and basketball.

ELIOT WOLF

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Eliot Wolf in 2010 enters his seventh season with the Packers and third as assistant director of pro personnel, spending his first four years with the Packers as pro personnel assistant. He works primarily at Lambeau Field under Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations Ted Thompson. Wolf originally joined the Packers on Feb. 26, 2004.

His primary duties include scouting teams in the NFL and in-season advance scouting of upcoming Packers opponents. Wolf also assists with college scouting during the offseason and makes several college visits in the fall.

The son of former Packers general manager Ron Wolf, Eliot's scouting career unofficially began at age 10, when he joined his father in film sessions at Lambeau Field.

He's also worked 18 consecutive Packers drafts (since 1993), and nine NFL scouting internships — five with the Packers, three with the Atlanta Falcons and one with the Seattle Seahawks. Wolf has attended 18 consecutive NFL Scouting Combines.

Those internships and prior "unofficial" experiences have provided significant knowledge. Wolf, for example, is familiar with the history of nearly every NFL player, having prepared Packers' details for every draft since 1993.

The 28-year-old Wolf filed his first report at age 14 for the Falcons, and has provided valuable information for the Packers' pro personnel department during previous internships.

Wolf owns a B.A. degree in creative writing from the University of Miami (Fla.), graduating in December 2003 after just 3½ years in order to begin his NFL career before the 2004 NFL Draft. At Miami, he volunteered in the football office's recruiting department. Wolf is a 2000 high school graduate of Green Bay's Notre Dame Academy.

Born March 21, 1982, in Oakland, Calif., Wolf is single and resides in De Pere, Wis. He enjoys traveling and spending time with friends and family.

Shaun Herock, the Packers' longest-tenured college scout in terms of continuous service, begins his 18th season with Green Bay and his 10th year as the team's assistant director of college scouting.

Herock, who became a full-time scout for the Packers in 1994, was named to his current position on May 14, 2001, taking on additional duties in the management of the club's college scouting operations.

Continuing to serve as the Packers' Midwest region scout, Herock this season embarks upon his 22nd year overall in scouting. Earlier, as a youth, Herock worked summers as a ball boy for both the then-Los Angeles Raiders and the Atlanta Falcons.

The 40-year-old Herock began his NFL scouting career by serving four consecutive internships in the Falcons' scouting department during college (1989-92). He followed that up by working as an intern for the Packers in the summer and fall of 1993, joining Green Bay's scouting staff on a full-time basis on Jan. 1, 1994. His scouting work this season will be in preparation for his 18th college draft.

A four-time letterman (1990-93) who started for 3½ years on the offensive line at the University of Richmond, Herock played center his first two seasons and offensive tackle during his junior and senior years. He graduated from the school in 1993 with a degree in sociology.

Herock began his prep career at Tarpon Springs (Fla.) High School, where he played two seasons (1986-87) on the offensive and defensive lines. After transferring to Milton High School in Atlanta in 1988 for his junior year, Herock participated in both football and track. During 1988 and '89, Herock played center and offensive tackle, in addition to competing in the shot put during the spring.

Born July 5, 1970, in Pittsburgh, Herock and his wife, Mia, live in De Pere, Wis., with their three sons, Shaun, 12, Anthony, 8, and Christopher, 6. In his spare time, Herock enjoys fishing, hunting and spending time with his family.

DANNY MOCK

COLLEGE SCOUTING COORDINATOR

Now enjoying his 14th season with the Packers and 31st in the NFL, Danny Mock is responsible for a variety of scouting services as the team's college scouting coordinator. Mock's duties include tracking Green Bay's scouts who scour the country looking for players, assigning scouting visits to colleges and heading up the computer operations for the team's annual draft preparations.

Mock gained his first NFL experience as a member of the Atlanta Falcons' grounds crew from 1980-85. In addition to his duties on the field, Mock served as a film assistant from 1983-86. Following three seasons in the film department, the NFL moved to video and Mock was promoted to assistant video director by the Falcons in 1986.

After serving two years in that capacity, Mock turned to the player personnel side of football. For the following nine seasons (1988-96), he acted as the administrative assistant in the Falcons' player personnel department.

Having lived in the South his entire life, Mock headed north when he was named the Packers' college scouting coordinator by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf on June 28, 1997.

The 49-year-old Mock attended Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College (1981-82) in Tifton, Ga., majoring in turf management and business. Mock had earlier attended Gilbert (Ariz.) High School while growing up in the Phoenix area. He graduated from Duluth (Ga.) High School, where he lettered three times for the basketball team. During his sophomore basketball season, Mock was a teammate of 1980 Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers, who later would go on to star in football at the University of South Carolina. He also was elected team captain in basketball for his senior season, leading the school to the state quarterfinals.

Mock is a member of the National Football Foundation and the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association, acting as the Packers' liaison to the latter organization. In 2008, he was awarded the Dave McClain Distinguished Service Award by the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association for his outstanding service to football in Wisconsin. He also serves as the video cameraman for the De Pere High School football team and has coached a youth girls summer basketball team in his spare time.

Mock is a fan of local sports teams, including the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay's women's and men's basketball teams, and the Milwaukee Brewers. He also follows the Atlanta Braves.

Born May 16, 1961, in Statesville, N.C., Mock has two daughters, Elizabeth, 20, and Sarah, 17, and resides in De Pere, Wis.

Now in his 10th season as a college scout in the Northeast region, Lee Gissendaner begins his 13th season overall with the Green Bay Packers.

Named to his current position on May 15, 2001, Gissendaner originally joined the Packers in 1998 as the team's representative in the National Scouting Service and authored preliminary evaluations of all prospective seniors in upcoming NFL drafts during his initial three seasons with the club.

The 38-year-old Gissendaner began his post-football career by serving as a graduate assistant coach for Kent State University (1997) while working toward his master's degree. He subsequently was named to a scouting position with the Packers on July 8, 1998, by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf.

A four-year letterman (1990-93) and three-year starter at wide receiver for Northwestern University, Gissendaner led the NCAA in punt return average (21.8 yards) in 1992. That year, he also was named 'Most Valuable Player' in the Big Ten Conference, was a first-team All-Big Ten selection and was voted as Northwestern's team MVP. Gissendaner was named to the Big Ten's 100-Year Anniversary Team during the conference's centennial celebration in 1995.

Gissendaner graduated from Northwestern in 1994 with a degree in organizational management, and earned his master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1998.

Originally chosen in the sixth round of the 1994 NFL Draft by the then-Houston Oilers, Gissendaner was released that year at the conclusion of training camp. He then spent the 1995 season with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL and the summer of 1996 with the Scottish Claymores of the then-World League.

EE GISSENDANER

In the fall of 1996, Gissendaner returned to the U.S. and reported to training camp with the Vikings, eventually spending parts of the '96 NFL season on Minnesota's practice squad.

A four-year letterman at Stow (Ohio) Monroe Falls High School, Gissendaner was selected All-Summit County, all-metro area and team MVP at wide receiver during his senior season. A two-time all-metro pole vaulter, Gissendaner earned three additional varsity letters in track. He was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2002.

In 1999, Gissendaner's accomplishments and community efforts were recognized as he was inducted into the City of Akron/Summit County Sports Hall of Fame.

Born Oct. 25, 1971, in Akron, Ohio, Gissendaner and his wife, Jamie, reside in Wilmington, Del., with their daughter, Leah, 2. His hobbies include traveling, drawing, listening to music and reading — mainly biographies and other nonfiction. Gissendaner also works as a motivational speaker for youth, focusing on the importance of setting goals.

BRIAN GUTEKUNST

COLLEGE SCOUT (SOUTHEAST)

Enjoying his 12th season as a college scout with the Green Bay Packers, Brian Gutekunst enters his 10th year scouring the all-important Southeast region. Previously a scout for the East Coast region for two years (1999-2000), Gutekunst was assigned his current responsibilities on May 15, 2001.

Possessor of prior professional scouting and college coaching experience upon joining Green Bay on a full-time basis late in 1998, Gutekunst gained his first NFL experience in the summer of 1995, when he assisted the coaching staff of the New Orleans Saints with the offensive line during training camp. Gutekunst's initial exposure to the Packers came in the summer of 1997, when he worked as an intern in the team's scouting department.

His first full-time appointment in professional scouting was in 1998 as a scouting assistant for the Kansas City Chiefs. After one year with the Chiefs, Gutekunst returned to the Packers when he was named as a college scout for the East Coast on Dec. 30, 1998, by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf.

The 37-year-old Gutekunst earlier had played two years of college football for the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. He then became an assistant coach for the team during his final two years at the school (1995-96), after a shoulder injury cut short his playing career. Serving as a linebackers coach during the 1995 season, he helped the school to the Division III national championship as the Eagles finished with an unblemished record of 14-0. Gutekunst majored in sports management.

Gutekunst prepped at Robbinsdale Armstrong High School in Plymouth, Minn., where he lettered four years for the football team as a quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back. An all-region and all-conference performer in football during his junior and senior seasons, he also earned two letters as a guard for the basketball team.

His father, John, is a coaching veteran, having last coached as the defensive coordinator at Duke University during the 2007 season. The elder Gutekunst previously was the head coach at the University of Minnesota from 1985-92, taking over the reins of the Golden Gophers program when Lou Holtz left to assume the head coaching position at Notre Dame.

Born July 19, 1973, in Raleigh, N.C., Gutekunst and his wife, Jen, reside in Raleigh with their daughters, Marley, 5, and Joie, 4, and son, Michael, 1. In his spare time, Gutekunst enjoys playing golf, reading and spending time at the beach

ALONZO HIGHSMITH

An NFL player for seven seasons, Alonzo Highsmith is now in his 12th year on the Green Bay Packers' college scouting staff, maintaining primary responsibility for the Southwest region.

Named to his current position by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf on Feb. 1, 1999, Highsmith originally had entered the professional ranks as the third overall pick in the 1987 NFL Draft by the then-Houston Oilers, behind only college teammate Vinny Testaverde (Tampa Bay) and Cornelius Bennett (Indianapolis).

The 45-year-old Highsmith began his pro career by playing three seasons in Houston (1987-89), starting 40 straight games with the Oilers. Following offseason knee surgery, he was traded to the Dallas Cowboys prior to the 1990 season.

He was with Dallas for a season-and-a-half before being waived by the Cowboys on Oct. 4, 1991. Claimed by Tampa Bay, Highsmith spent the remainder of his pro career with the Buccaneers. Due to a series of knee injuries, he retired from the NFL at the end of the 1992 season.

Highsmith's NFL totals include 65 games played, 283 rushing attempts for 1,195 yards (4.2 avg.) and seven touchdowns. He also made 42 receptions for 428 yards (10.2 avg.) and three TDs during the course of his procareer. After the conclusion of Highsmith's NFL career in 1992, he turned his sights to boxing. As a professional boxer, he competed as a heavyweight across the country, compiling a 27-1-1 career record over a four-year period.

Earlier a four-time letterman (1983-86) for the University of Miami (Fla.), Highsmith was a member of the 1983 Hurricanes squad that captured the collegiate national championship with a 31-30 triumph over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl. As a sophomore in 1984, he led Miami in rushing — 906 yards on 146 carries (6.2 avg.) — and repeated that feat during his senior season, gaining 442 yards on 105 attempts (4.2 avg.). Highsmith graduated in 1987 with a degree in business administration.

Highsmith was the 1982 Florida high school 'Defensive Player of the Year' as a linebacker at Christopher Columbus High School in Miami, where he was a teammate of former Alabama head coach and current Jacksonville Jaguars quarterbacks coach Mike Shula. A three-time letterwinner for the school's basketball team as a guard, Highsmith also competed in the 100- and 200-meter races in track for three years.

Born Feb. 26, 1965, in Bartow, Fla., Highsmith and his wife, Denise, are the parents of three children, Alonzo, 20, A.J., 19, and Jordan, 16. Highsmith has two other children, Jasmine, 24, and Brandon, 22. Brandon (Thermilus) is a senior running back at the University of Buffalo, and A.J. is a sophomore quarterback at the University of Miami. Highsmith resides in Missouri City, Texas, and enjoys playing golf in his spare time.

Sam Seale, a 10-year NFL veteran as a player, heads into his 15th season scouting college players for the Packers, his first post in player personnel. Hired on July 22, 1995, he maintains primary focus on the West Coast region.

The 47-year-old Seale began his NFL playing career after being picked in the eighth round of the 1984 draft by the then-Los Angeles Raiders. After one year as a wide receiver (1984) and three seasons as a defensive back/kick returner (1985-87) for the Silver and Black, Seale headed south to play for the San Diego Chargers for the next four seasons (1988-91).

After becoming a full-time starter (at cornerback) for the first time in his pro career in 1989, Seale appeared in all 16 games for San Diego in both 1990 and '91. He then returned to the Los Angeles area in 1992 to play one additional season for the Raiders and his final year in the NFL (1993) with the then-Los Angeles Rams.

In 121 career games, he recorded 11 interceptions, returning one for a touchdown in 1985. He also scored once on a fumble recovery (in 1988 with San Diego).

A four-time letterman (1980-83) as a running back for Western State College (Colo.), Seale averaged 5.3 yards per carry as a collegian while leading the team twice each in rushing and receiving. He also earned NAIA All-America honors in track, competing in the 60-, 100- and 200-meter events. The political science major also was an All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference pick two seasons in football and four times in track. He was inducted into the Western State College Hall of Fame in 2002.

While attending Orange (N.J.) High School, Seale was an all-state performer in football his senior year and in track as a junior and senior. He earned four letters as a running back/defensive back for the football team while also lettering twice in track as a sprinter.

Born Oct. 6, 1962, on the island of Barbados in the West Indies, Seale and his wife, Elizabeth, have two sons, Ricky (Sam Jr.), 18, and Samir, 16, and a daughter, Shi-Ann, 11. Ricky is the all-time leading rusher in San Diego prep history and has committed to play at Stanford this fall.

Seale resides in San Diego, and enjoys reading, bowling, playing golf and participating in a variety of other sports.

JON-ERIC SULLIVAN

COLLEGE SCOUT (MIDLANDS)

Jon-Eric Sullivan in 2010 begins his seventh season as a college scout for the Packers, and his third as an area scout.

Sullivan previously served as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine and authored evaluations of all prospective seniors in the Southwest region, a role since filled by Richmond Williams.

Sullivan joined the team's football operations department on July 12, 2004, having previously served as a scouting intern during the team's 2003 training camp.

The 34-year-old Sullivan played his junior and senior seasons (1998-99) as a wide receiver at Gardner-Webb University in Boiling Springs, N.C. As a senior, he was named to the all-conference team after leading the Bulldogs with 43 receptions. Previously, he played at the University of South Carolina from 1995-97, before transferring to Gardner-Webb.

Sullivan attended high school at Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy, the same institution from which Packers director of college scouting John Dorsey matriculated. Sullivan was an all-state defensive back his junior year, pacing state players with nine interceptions, and then an all-state receiver as a senior. Sullivan lettered twice in football, while also receiving two letters each in indoor and outdoor track. As a senior, he was all-state in track as a member of the state champion 400-meter relay team.

Following his college football career, Sullivan served as a student-assistant receivers coach at Gardner-Webb for one season. Though officially listed as a student-assistant, he actually served as the primary position coach for the receivers

Sullivan obtained a B.A. degree in social science from Gardner-Webb in December 2000, and then worked three years (2001-04) for GMAC's sales and credit administration departments before joining the Packers' staff.

His father, Jerry Sullivan, is the San Francisco 49ers' wide receivers coach/senior assistant, and a 19-year NFL coaching veteran.

Born Aug. 10, 1976, in Columbia, S.C., Sullivan married the former Jennifer Hoener in June 2006. The couple resides in Austin, Texas. His hobbies include traveling and working out.

RICHMOND WILLIAMS

COLLEGE SCOUTING (NATIONAL FOOTBALL SCOUTING)

Richmond Williams in 2010 enters his third year with the Packers. Williams serves as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine and authors evaluations of all prospective seniors in the Southwest region. He spent the 2007 training camp as a scouting intern with the Packers.

Also in 2007, Williams volunteered as an assistant in the football office at his alma mater, the University of Iowa. His duties included helping coaches plan their recruiting trips and breaking down defensive game film.

Prior to working in the football office, the 26-year-old Williams lettered two years as a cornerback for lowa. He earned the lowa 'Team Leader' award all four years of his career, given by the coaching staff to the player who made high contributions on scout and special teams during weekly preparation. Williams was teammates with current Seahawks/former Packers DT Colin Cole, as well as several other NFL players, including S Bob Sanders (Indianapolis) and G Robert Gallery (Oakland). In 2006, Williams earned a B.A. in economics, as well as a certificate of entrepreneurship.

Williams is the brother-in-law of Cole, and is the director of football operations for the Cole Group, an organization formed by Colin and his wife, Kay, that provides consultation services to high school student-athletes. Williams' duties include designing football camps and making preparations for seminars.

Born Nov. 11, 1983, in Aiken, S.C., Williams was a twosport athlete in football and track and field at North Augusta (S.C.) High School. He played cornerback and wide receiver, and was a state-champion long jumper as a senior, also participating in the 4x100-meter relay. Williams was named to the Who's Who in Scholar Student-Athletes in 2001, and was named North Augusta's Star Student-Athlete of the Week.

Williams has stayed active in the community by coaching a Little League football team, reading to elementary school students, and working at a literacy summer camp.

Nicknamed 'Richey,' Williams is single and resides in Dallas, Texas. He enjoys playing basketball and watching movies

Chad Brinker joins the Packers as a scouting assistant for his first full season with the team, having spent the summer of 2009 as an intern in the team's pro personnel department. He was named to his new position on Jan. 31, 2010.

In his role, Brinker assists player personnel in various areas, including scouting and evaluating college and professional players. His other duties include assisting with college pro-day scouting, advance scouting, and team tryouts.

Brinker was a four-year starter (1999-2002) at running back at Ohio University. As a senior, he ran for a team-leading 1,099 yards and earned first-team All-Mid-American Conference honors. He missed all but the first four games of his junior season after having an arachnoid cyst removed from his skull. As a sophomore, he finished second on the team with 734 yards and 10 touchdowns. Brinker remains Ohio's fourth-leading all-time rusher with 2,826 career yards, and his 30 total touchdowns rank second in school history. Brinker also participated in track, running the 60-meter indoor and 100-meter outdoor, as well as taking the role of leadoff man for the 4x100-meter relay team. He holds a Bachelor of Specialized Studies degree in exercise science.

In 2003, Brinker signed with the New York Jets as a non-drafted free agent. He scored two touchdowns in pre-season play before being waived in the team's final roster reduction. He was re-signed by the Jets following the 2003 season and was allocated to NFL Europe. He played in two games as a teammate of Packers defensive end Cullen Jenkins with the Cologne Centurions during the 2004 season, averaging 5.7 yards per carry, before suffering a concussion in his third contest. He was placed on injured reserve and was later released by the Jets.

Following his football career, the 30-year-old Brinker began a career in medical-device sales. From 2006 to 2008, he served as the radio color analyst for Ohio University football. During the 2009 season, he was an assistant football coach at Westerville Central High School in Columbus, Ohio, coaching running backs and defensive backs, as well as assisting with the strength and conditioning program.

A four-year letterman at Martins Ferry (Ohio) High School, Brinker rushed for over 3,900 yards in his career, still a school record. He ran for 2,074 yards and 29 touch-downs as a senior, and won the team MVP award. He was a finalist for the Mr. Ohio Football Award as a senior and was twice named all-state, all-district and all-conference. He also lettered multiple times in basketball, baseball and track.

Born Nov. 5, 1979, in Wheeling, W.Va., Brinker and his wife, Rachelle, reside in De Pere, Wis. He enjoys strength training, reading, writing, snowboarding, traveling and hiking

A veteran in his area of expertise, Gordon 'Red' Batty is in his 17th season as equipment manager of the Green Bay Packers.

Batty is responsible for properly outfitting players with the safest and most advanced equipment, as well as ordering and maintaining all of the team's equipment and sideline apparel. Immediately prior to joining the Packers, he had spent 13 seasons (1981-93) in the same position with the then-Houston Oilers.

Long regarded as one of the best in the business, Batty was voted the NFL's "Equipment Manager of the Year" by his peers in 2002 at their annual meetings.

A 51-year-old native of Montreal, Batty remarkably is in his 38th season in the equipment field. He began his career in 1973 at age 14, as a ball boy for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League. Six years later, he was elevated to the position of equipment manager for the Alouettes. During Batty's tenure in Montreal, the Alouettes won two Grey Cups (1974 and '77).

Batty subsequently joined the Oilers in June 1981, in the process becoming the NFL's youngest equipment manager at age 22. He also purports to be the first nativeborn Canadian to garner both a Grev Cup and Super Bowl ring, the latter distinction earned when the Packers culminated the 1996 campaign by capturing Super Bowl XXXI. Batty has also worked two Pro Bowls, most recently the 2008 Pro Bowl.

Upon being named to the Packers' staff on Jan. 24, 1994, Batty became only the fifth person in club history to hold the title of equipment manager. Born Nov. 18, 1958, in Montreal, Batty (pronounced BATT-ee) and his wife, Joanne, have a daughter, Chelsei, 19, and a son, Cameron, 14.

Since 1994, Batty has served as the equipment coordinator for what is now known as the NFL Players Rookie Premiere preseason event. Batty is given the duty of communicating with each rookie invitee's team equipment manager to secure equipment and jerseys utilized for trading-card photo shoots.

A devout hockey fan, Batty has worked many NHL events over the years. He continues to play hockey himself.

ATHLETIC TRAINER

season as the club's head trainer, his 34th in the NFL overall. Overseer of the team's medical care on a daily basis, Burruss, a certified athletic trainer and physical therapist, joined Green Bay in 1993 following 16 seasons with the New York Jets as an assistant athletic trainer.

The 56-year-old Burruss was hired by the Jets in 1977 after receiving his B.S. degree in physical therapy from Northwestern University Medical School. One year earlier, he had graduated with honors from Purdue University, where he earned a B.A. degree in health and safety education. At Purdue, Burruss was fortunate to be a student trainer working under a legend in the field, the late William 'Pinky' Newell.

The Jets' training staff twice was honored during his stint with the team. In 1985, the unit was the first-ever recipient of the 'NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year', an award given by peers. The staff was honored again at the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) clinical symposium in 1994 by former Jets defensive Inneman Dennis Byrd, who credited the team's emergency care as a contributing factor in his miraculous recovery from quadriplegia. Byrd had suffered a fractured neck after an on-field collision in a 1992 game against Kansas City at the Meadowlands.

More recently, and closer to home, the Packers' medical staff received the second-highest approval rating from its players among all NFL teams in a 2000 survey conducted by the NFL Players' Association, finishing behind only the Giants.

Professionally, Burruss has served two terms on the executive committee of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS), first as an AFC assistant trainer representative, then as the NFC head trainer representative. In 2010, he was appointed as the PFATS representative to the NFL Subcommittee on Concussions.

In 2007, he was one of two NFL athletic trainers appointed to join a distinguished group of physicians serving on the NFL Cervical Spine Committee. Their goal was to review current research and recommend state-of-the-art cervical spine emergency-response procedures in the NFL arena.

A product of Wappingers Falls, N.Y., where he attended Ketcham High School, he was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2000.

Born Thomas Pepper Burruss on April 15, 1954, in Beacon, N.Y., he and his wife, Nancy, have a son, Shane, 22, and a daughter, Christina, 17. Also a medical practitioner, Nancy is an Associate Professor at the Bellin College of Nursing in Green Bay and the director for the B.S. in Nursing program.

Burruss currently serves on the corporate board of Curative Rehabilitation Center in Green Bay and is active in the Packers' annual "Rebuilding Together" (formerly "Christmas in May") house renovation project, serving as a house co-captain.

Rob Davis, a 12-year NFL veteran, enters his third year as the team's director of player development. Before being named to his new position, he had spent the previous 11 seasons as the Packers' long snapper, before retiring in March of '08. He was named director of player development on March 26, 2008, by Ted Thompson, Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations.

As the director of player development, Davis is vital in maintaining locker-room cohesiveness and overall player health. He assists players in acclimating to their roles, both on and off the field and in the Green Bay community.

Davis also oversees the Packers' wide range of programs designed to meet the needs of players and their families in today's NFL. The department provides a framework of assistance within which players and their immediate family members can address the pressures created by daily life and complicated by the demands of playing professional football. The program is also set up to get players prepared for life after football, and helps players seek educational and vocational opportunities. Davis is working on a new program called 'Transition After the Game,' designed to help current players acquire skills and contacts needed for post-football job placement. He is also developing a mentorship program, aimed to join Packers players with professional mentors in the community.

Davis served as the Packers' long snapper for 11 seasons and played in 167 straight games in a Green Bay uniform, the third-longest streak in team history. Only Brett Favre (255) and Forrest Gregg (187) played in more consecutive games for the Packers than Davis.

He worked three years for an opportunity to play in the NFL, spending two training camps with the N.Y. Jets (1993-94), a year with the CFL's Baltimore Stallions (1995) and a preseason with Kansas City (1996). In 1996, Davis signed with Chicago and played all 16 games as the team's long snapper. Released by the Bears near the end of the '97 training camp, he signed with Green Bay in November and handled all long-snapping duties the last seven regular-season games, as well as all three playoff contests, including Super Bowl XXXII.

The 41-year-old Davis was named the Packers' player representative in 2005, which entails being a liaison between the players and the union and relaying proper information to the players including rights and benefits. Prior to 2005, he was an alternate player representative for five seasons.

Davis became the first player ever from Shippensburg (Pa.) University to play in the NFL and was named to the school's athletic hall of fame in October 2003. Accompanying his induction, he also became the first player to have his jersey retired by Shippensburg in any sport.

In his spare time, Davis enjoys boating and reading. In 2005, he received his Wisconsin real estate license.

Born Dec. 10, 1968, in Washington, D.C., Rob and wife Tara live in De Pere; the couple has a daughter, Marlee, 6, and son, Kahli, 3.

Named to the newly created position within the Packers' organizational structure on March 9, 2001, Eayrs had spent the previous 16 seasons on the football staff of the Minnesota Vikings.

Now enjoying his 10th year in Green Bay, Mike Eayrs is the Packers' director of re-

Eayrs manages databases and develops research reports for coaches, player personnel and management based on the analysis of statistical and tactical trends.

Having developed computer applications within football for 30 years, Eayrs (pronounced A-ers) is in his 26th season working in the NFL, having spent the first 16 as director of research and development for the Vikings. During his Minnesota tenure, the club tallied 201 victories and appeared in three NFC Championship games (1987, '98 and 2000).

Also a 13-year coaching veteran, including 11 seasons at the college level, Eayrs earned a bachelor's degree in social studies and physical education from Augsburg College in Minneapolis, where he participated in football.

The 59-year-old Eayrs began his coaching career in Winnebago, Minn., before two years later becoming an assistant coach at the University of South Dakota in 1974. He subsequently coached at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse (1975-80), Mankato State University (1981-83) and Luther College (1984) before joining the Vikings. During his 11 seasons in the college ranks, Eayrs' teams won five conference championships and he received four teaching excellence awards.

Born Jan. 30, 1951, in West Concord, Minn., Eayrs also holds a master's degree in physical education from the University of South Dakota and an education doctorate in physical education and recreation management from the University of Oregon.

Eayrs and his wife, Mary Jo, reside in Green Bay and have three children: Matthew, 32, Elizabeth, 30, and Brian, 28; the couple has a granddaughter, Ashlyn, 2. In his spare time, Eayrs is an avid reader and enjoys fitness.

Now in his 10th season as Green Bay's video director, Bob Eckberg is enjoying his 29th year with the Packers overall.

In 2001, Eckberg became only the second full-time video director in franchise history.

Having served as Green Bay's assistant video director since 1982, he had taken over for the retired Al Treml, who since 1967 had headed up the club's filming/taping operations

In his position, Eckberg oversees the production and editing of all game and practice tapes for the coaching and personnel staffs, as well as the regular exchange of video with other teams. In addition, he is in charge of the purchase and maintenance of the team's vast array of video equipment.

The 59-year-old Eckberg also directs the video department's taping of all workouts on prospective players and maintains a video library of all games for the previous three years. Additionally, the video staff compiles college player profile tapes for use during NFL Draft preparation. Eckberg also attends and shoots video of prospective players at the NFL Scouting Combine, held every February in Indianapolis.

Eckberg began his career with the Packers in the early 1970s while working in the photo department of WBAY-TV in Green Bay. While employed at the station, Eckberg helped process all of the Packers' game film and in 1976 started shooting end-zone angle coaching film for home games played in Green Bay and Milwaukee. In the early 1980s, videotape technology became standard in the television industry, and in 1982 the Packers purchased the film-lab setup from WBAY and hired Eckberg as assistant video director.

In addition to almost three decades of NFL games, Eckberg also has shot numerous postseason games, including the 1987 Hula Bowl, the 1982, 1987 and 2001 Senior Bowls, the 2005 Cactus Bowl, the 2008 Pro Bowl, and Super Bowls XXXI and XXXII. In addition, he served the NFL video directors during the 2000 season as a member of the quality control committee.

Born Oct. 10, 1950, in Green Bay, Eckberg is a 1969 graduate of the city's Premontre High School. He and his wife, Terri, also a Green Bay native, enjoy spending time with their children and grandchildren at their family cabin in northern Wisconsin.

CURTIS FULLER

COACHING ADMINISTRATOR

Curtis Fuller, a former Green Bay Packers safety in 2003-04, enters his second year as a member of the coaching staff, and his first in his new role of coaching administrator. He initially rejoined the team on Jan. 15, 2009, as a special teams assistant coach.

In his current position, Fuller's responsibilities include assisting in the preparation of the team's weekly game plan, preparing game film, and compiling player statistics and grades. Shifting his on-field responsibilities to the defensive side of the ball, he will now assist in coaching the secondary.

The 32-year-old Fuller spent the 2008 training camp with the Packers through the NFL's Minority Coaching Internship Program. His first full-time NFL coaching position was in Oakland, where he was a special teams quality control assistant for the Raiders in 2007. Following the 2008 training camp in Green Bay, he worked as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach for Plano East (Texas) Senior High

Prior to his year in Oakland, Fuller worked in the scouting department for the Dallas Cowboys, and he began his coaching career at his two alma maters, as a volunteer coach on defense at Texas Christian University and as the defensive coordinator at Fort Worth Christian High, where Fuller as a prep helped lead his team to an 11-3 record and second-place finish in the state polls in 1995.

A fourth-round draft choice of the Seattle Seahawks in 2001, Fuller played two seasons there before joining the Packers in 2003. In the 2003-04 seasons, he played 10 games in Green Bay as a reserve defensive back and special teamer before finishing his playing career in 2004 with the Carolina Panthers. He played a total of 42 games in his career, posting 52 tackles (39 solo). He also had one interception, with Seattle in 2002.

Fuller was a two-time All-Western Athletic Conference selection at TCU, where he was a key figure on a defense that led the nation in his senior season of 2000 by allowing only 245 yards and 9.6 points per game.

Fuller started 32 of 33 career games at TCU from 1998-2000 after transferring from Tyler (Texas) Junior College. He had three career interceptions for the Horned Frogs after posting nine during his one season (1997) at Tyler.

A conference all-academic pick at TCU, Fuller earned a bachelor's degree in psychology and a master's in liberal arts by the time he was drafted in 2001. He worked several years as an intern for Frito-Lay. During his college and pro playing career, Fuller also traveled multiple times to Mexico with high school youth groups to help construct churches and homes in small villages.

Born July 5, 1978, in Tyler, Texas, Fuller and his wife, Rachel, reside in Green Bay, and have two children, Carolina, 4, and Anthony, 1. In his spare time he enjoys playing golf.

Hired on Jan. 31, 2010. as strength and conditioning assistant, Thadeus Jackson enters his first year with the Packers. His primary duties include designing, organizing and executing strength and conditioning procedures, as well as assisting with practice and assisting the defensive staff on game days.

Prior to coming to the Packers, Jackson spent 2009 as the head strength and conditioning coach at Hinds Community College (Raymond, Miss.), the same school where he started his career. He developed all strength and conditioning and speed programs for the football team, and also assisted with the on-field coaching of the wide receivers.

Jackson started his career in sports at Hinds as a student athletic trainer from 2000-2001, working with the football, baseball, track and field and basketball teams. He also assisted with the strength and conditioning program, specifically offseason workouts. During his first stint at Hinds, he worked with future Iowa quarterback and 2002 Heisman Trophy runner-up Brad Banks.

Following the completion of his associate's degree at Hinds, Jackson moved on to the University of Alabama. and served as a student athletic trainer from 2002-05. In 2005, he was hired as a strength and conditioning assistant at Alabama, spending the majority of his time with the football program. During his time at the school Jackson worked with numerous future NFL players, including De-Meco Ryans (Houston), Brodie Croyle (Kansas City), Glen Coffee (San Francisco) and Packers safety Charlie Peprah.

While still working at Alabama, Jackson got his first NFL experience, serving as an athletic training intern for the New England Patriots during the team's 2003 training camp

Jackson left Alabama in 2007 to serve as a manager and training coordinator at Young Champions Academy in Waco, Texas. He developed and coordinated programs designed to teach children basic coordination, movement, and sports-specific skills. He also made staff schedules, gave tours and assisted in marketing and advertising for

The 30-year-old Jackson holds a B.S. in science from the University of Alabama and is currently working toward his M.S. in strength and conditioning, which he started at Jackson State University (Jackson, Miss.).

Jackson attended New Hope High School in Columbus, Miss., starting three years and earning two letters as a defensive back. He was named captain of his team as a Born Sept. 1, 1980, in Columbus, Miss., Jackson is single and resides in De Pere, Wis. In his spare time, he enjoys cooking, hunting, fishing, traveling and working out. He is also an avid reader and enjoys books about leadership, health, and strength and conditioning.

FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION COORDINATOR

ministration coordinator by Head Coach Mike McCarthy in January 2006, Klein previously served as assistant director of football administration.

Responsible for coordinating all facets of the team's daily operations, including the coaching staff's schedule, Klein serves as a point of communication in administering every Packers practice and team function, including offseason mini-camps, organized team activities and the annual training camp. He also arranges team travel for the club's away games; Klein's duties include coordinating air and ground transportation, and securing hotel accommodations for the team, coaching staff and traveling supportstaff members.

Klein, 34, originally joined the Packers as administrative assistant/football in 1999, when he first worked with McCarthy, then Green Bay's quarterbacks coach. After six seasons in that capacity, Klein was promoted to assistant director of football administration prior to the 2005 campaign.

Born Aug. 29, 1976, in Clintonville, Wis., Klein spent five seasons working with Barry Alvarez's football staff at the University of Wisconsin. He contributed to a program that earned berths in four bowls, including a victory in the Rose Bowl after the '98 season.

Klein left school early to accept a position with the Packers in 1999. He completed his coursework at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay and earned his bachelor's degree in marketing, with a minor in economics.

A football letterman at Clintonville High School, Klein played fullback and linebacker. He also lettered in golf.

Klein and his wife, Leah, live in Green Bay with their two sons, Nathan, 8, and Owen, 5.

A friend of fellow Wisconsin native Matt Kenseth, a topranked Sprint Cup competitor, Klein enjoys closely following NASCAR. He also devotes much of his spare time to reading and spending time with his family.

TITLETOWN: GREEN BAY, WIS.

Jack Yuenger first dubbed Green Bay "Titletown" after the team's 1961 NFL championship, a 37-0 triumph over the New York Giants. Yuenger, Green Bay Press-Gazette advertising manager, printed the city's new nickname on celebratory signs for fan distribution. The '61 title, the Packers' sixth of an NFL-record 12 world championships — and first under Vince Lombardi — was earned in Green Bay, the first championship game ever played in the city.

GREEN BAY'S UNIQUE TRAINING-CAMP EXPERIENCE

The Packers are one of a growing number of teams who do not leave their regular-season practice facility during training camp.

But beyond practice and meetings, the team does use a college setting to sleep, bunking at St. Norbert College in De Pere, a 10-minute drive from Lambeau Field.

The Packers' 53-year training-camp relationship with St. Norbert, launched in 1958 by head coach Scooter McLean, is the longest in league history. The Vikings (Minnesota State-Mankato, 46 years) and Steelers (St. Vincent College, Latrobe, Pa., 43 years) are the only other teams with comparable training-camp tenures. The Packers' full list of training-camp sites, since Curly Lambeau launched the tradition in 1946:

2009 REVIEW FREE

PRO CAREER: Fourth-year lineman facing a key juncture in his career... Won starting right tackle position in 2009 training camp and started season's first seven games, but lost job at midseason and was inactive down the stretch... Will look to compete at tackle again or possibly back up one of the guard spots, having received limited playing time at left guard in his first two NFL seasons... Made the jump from raw Division II prospect to the NFL... Was moved immediately to guard upon being drafted in the fourth round in 2007 despite playing his entire college career at tackle...Was a four-year starter at Missouri Southern, moving into a starting role midway through his freshman season and starting 36 of 38 career games, all but one of the starts at left tackle.

2009 SEASON: Won RT job in training camp over Breno Giacomini and started first seven games of the season there...Played in 10 contests overall...Was inactive for two games in November due to ankle injury and then was inactive for four of final five regular-season games, plus the Wild Card contest... Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Started first game of career, opening at RT...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Blocked for RB Ryan Grant's 99 yards on 26 carries, 50 coming in fourth quarter, and was part of line that did not allow a sack of QB Aaron Rodgers in final three quarters... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Helped block for Packers' 435 yards of total offense and protected Rodgers on his way to 358 passing yards, giving him back-to-back games with 350-plus yards for first time in his career... At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Part of a line that did not allow a sack of Rodgers all afternoon; blocked for Grant's season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5 avg.) and team's season-best 202 rushing yards...At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Didn't start, but saw time at RT in first half as part of rotation with Mark Tauscher, taking over there for most of second half after Tauscher left game with knee injury on opening drive. Helped block for Packers' 170 rushing yards on 32 carries (5.3 avg.), the team's second-best yardage output on season...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Came in for Tauscher (rest) and played entire fourth guarter at RT.

2008: Seeing time primarily on special teams with some spot duty at LG, played in eight games, inactive for seven, and active but did not play once....At Detroit (Sept. 14): Played two series at LG and saw time on special teams... Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Came in midway through third quarter at LG when Daryn Colledge moved over to LT in place of an injured Chad Clifton, where he played the remainder of the game...At Chicago (Dec. 22): Played on special teams and returned second-quarter kickoff 17 yards...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Entered game at LG late in first quarter after C Scott Wells sustained ankle injury and Jason Spitz shifted to C. Suffered ankle injury of his own in third quarter and did not return. Contributed to offense rushing for a season-high 211 yards before leaving game.

2007: Played in seven games and inactive for nine... Played in both postseason contests...Vs. San Diego (Sept. 23): Saw first career action, playing on special reams...At Denver (Oct. 29): Resumed special-teams duties and was also inserted at LG in short-yardage situations (Colledge shifted to RG)...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Played final two series of game at LG (Colledge shifted to RT), after Tauscher left with ankle injury...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Played second half at LG, helping team rush for 217 yards, including 113 from Brandon Jackson, his first 100-yard rushing performance of the season. On Jackson's third-quarter, 46-yard run, pushed LB Paris Lenon back several yards to create running room...2007 Draft: Selected in fourth round (119th overall), a selection acquired from Pittsburgh along with sixth-round choice (192) for Green Bay's fourth-round pick (112). Was 17th offensive lineman selected. Became first player from his school invited to Scouting Combine and first player from Missouri Southern State drafted by the Packers.

COLLEGE: A four-year starter, moving into a starting role midway through freshman season and opening 36 of 38 career games, all but one of the starts at LT. Dominant at the Division II level, was credited with 254 knockdown blocks and 10 career tackles (nine solo) on special teams...A consensus Division II All-American firstteam selection, became his school's first All-American in four years and first one to make first team in a decade... Majored in criminal justice...Senior season (2006): Was consensus División II All-America first-team selectión by The NFL Draft Report, The Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association and D2football.com... Became school's first All-American since Josh Chapman in 2002, ninth overall, first to be named first-team since Richard Jordan in 1996, and fifth offensive lineman to be named first-team, joining Terron Jackson (1972), Willie Williams (1976), Joel Tupper (1982) and Yancy McNight (1995)...Finished with career-high 94 knockdowns at LT and excelled as gunner on punt coverage, making seven solo tackles...Was lone offensive player to be unanimous All-Mid-American Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) first-team pick...Helped lead offensive line that saw QB Adam Hinspeter become just second passer in school history to throw for 2,000 yards twice in a career... Junior season (2005): Earned first-team All-MIAA and third-team All-Southwest Region honors and was named league's Offensive Lineman of the Week five times...Won team's Dudley Stegge Award as Lions' Offensive Lineman of the Year...Only one-half of the 31 sacks allowed by offensive line were charged to LT...Got rare chance to score

MORE ABOUT THE FROZEN TUNDRA

The Lambeau Field playing surface underwent an offseason makeover prior to the 2007 season that brought the latest technology to the hallowed ground and made future in-season re-sodding unnecessary.

- ▶ In a project that took several months to complete, DD GrassMaster, a natural grass surface reinforced with manmade fibers developed by Desso DLW Sports Systems, was installed on top of a completely new drainage and heating system. The new surface and underlying systems represent the latest developments in field management.
- ► The new grass surface wasn't entirely new for the players, though, It was identical to the surface on the team's Clarke Hinkle Field. That surface, installed prior to 2005 training camp, had garnered rave reviews from the players. The team again used the surface in 2009 for the new Nitschke Field.
- According to the Packers' field manager, Allen Johnson, the Packers had been following the evolution of the relatively new system for several years, going back to its development on European soccer fields.
- DD GrassMaster's advantage mainly is attributed to the sand-based soil, which allows superior drainage and softer, more consistent footing over the previous clay-based field. Because a sand-based root zone has less stability, the system employs millions of strands of polyethylene and polypropylene materials eight inches below the surface with one inch exposed on the top. This gives the field firm footing and eliminates clumps of sod tearing from the surface. Even after a full season's wear late in the year, the footing remains excellent due to the soil-strengthening strands.
- ► In addition to the success the Packers have experienced with Hinkle, the team can look to the Denver Broncos, Philadelphia Eagles and Pittsburgh Steelers for endorsement of the product as each of those clubs uses the surface in its stadiums. Also using the surface are some of Europe's top soccer clubs, including Arsenal, Liverpool and Real Madrid.

- Due to the enhanced drainage capabilities, fans at Lambeau no longer notice a perceptible crown on the field. A slight slope exists, about a half-degree decline, to assist with water and snow removal when the field is covered with a tarp.
- ▶ Also included in the '07 project was a new service path encircling the field. Cement was replaced with a rubberized surface, similar to the one adjacent to the Hutson Center on the side of Hinkle Field. The rubberized path still allows for equipment use, but is safer for players that run far out of bounds.

PRO CAREER: Athletic inside linebacker returned to his high-impact ways after suffering the first significant injury of his career the previous season... Tore the ACL in his right knee in 2008 in Week 10 at Minnesota and had surgery shortly thereafter, but came back in 2009 to start every contest... Made the transition to the 'Mack' inside linebacker spot in Dom Capers' 3-4 scheme, leading the team in tackles with 122 while also posting a career-best four sacks...Ranks third in franchise annals (stat kept since 1975) with 986 career tackles, trailing only John Anderson (1,020) and Johnnie Gray (1,001)...Has led the team in tackles five times in his career, breaking the mark of four set by Brian Noble and Bernardo Harris (stat began in 1975)...Has surpassed the 120-tackle total in every season besides 2008, when he missed the final seven games, and has averaged just under 10 tackles per contest despite carrying the label "undersized" for his position since coming into the league... At Denver (Oct. 29): Had a team-high nine tackles (six solo) and one fumble recovery, pouncing on QB Jay Cutler's bobbled snap at the Green Bay 1-yard line at the start of the second quarter... At St. Louis (Dec. 16): Made 18 tackles (12 solo), tied for the second-highest total of his career (posted career-high 21 tackles Oct. 3, 2005, at Carolina and had 18 tackles Sept. 25, 2004, vs. Tampa Bay). His 18 total and 12 solo tackles were both a team and season high. Also had a single-game career-high two sacks, plus one pass defensed and a tackle for loss... Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Had a team-high and playoff career-high 14 tackles (six solo).

2006: Voted a Pro Bowl alternate...Started each of his 15 games and was inactive for one contest with a broken hand — the first game he missed in exactly three years... Finished second on the team with 141 tackles (88 solo). with two sacks, two INTs, one fumble recovery and nine passes defensed (his most since he also had nine as a 2003 rookie)...Played the season's final five games (and every practice during the stretch) with a 'club' cast, which required about 20 minutes to apply and 10-15 minutes to remove each day...Prior to the Week 11 hand injury, had averaged 8.7 stops per game, but in five contests with the cast, averaged 10.8 tackles...Was in on 950 defensive plays, or 91.0 percent...At Miami (Oct. 22): Intercepted a Joey Harrington pass that deflected off the hands of TE Randy McMichael and returned the pick 3 yards — one of his career-high three passes defensed on the day... Vs. Arizona (Oct. 29): Sacked Matt Leinart on a third down, and teamed with Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila to sack Leinart for his first career multi-sack game...Vs. New England (Nov. 19): Broke his hand late in game and sat out the next game at Seattle (Nov. 27), only the second game he missed during his NFL career, his first since Nov. 27, 2003, at Detroit (ankle), ending a streak of 46 straight starts... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 17): Led team with season-high 15 tackles (12 solo), including No. 600 career.

2005: Started all 16 games at 'Mike' LB for the second consecutive season...Set the single-season franchise record with 194 tackles (128 solo), breaking Douglass' 1981 mark of 180...His 194 total stops ranked third in the NFL, trailing only the Browns' Andra Davis (199) and Tampa Bay's Shelton Quarles (196)...His 128 solo tackles ranked second in the league, behind the Jets' Jonathan Vilma (143)...Also recorded one INT among three passes defensed, forced one fumble, recovered three others and scored his first NFL TD...Finished first among LBs and tied for second on the defense in snaps played, having been on the field for 97.4 percent of defensive plays...At Carolina (Oct. 3): Totaled a team- and career-high 21 tackles (12 solo)... Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 9): Had a team-high 11 tackles (seven solo), two QB pressures and returned an INT for his first career TD to punctuate 52-3 win. Midway through the fourth quarter, picked off a point-blank Todd Bouman pass in the middle of the field and returned it 95 yards for a TD, the third-longest INT return in Packers history, tied for second-longest in Lambeau Field history (Houston Oilers' Willie Alexander, Sept. 25, 1977), and longest in the NFL during the '05 season...At Cincinnati (Oct. 30): Made a team-best 18 tackles (15 solo, a career high), with two for losses. Made four significant secondhalf plays to keep the Packers in the Bengals contest, tackling WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh for a 3-yard loss, then teaming with Aaron Kampman to stop RB Rudi Johnson for a 2-yard loss, and finally dropping Johnson twice more for no gain... At Atlanta (Nov. 13): Sacked Michael Vick and recovered a career-best two fumbles, adding to his team-high 11 tackles (eight solo), one for loss. Pounced on a Vick fumble in the third quarter (forced by Kenny Peterson), then, on the Falcons' next series, sacked Vick for a 5-yard loss, forcing a punt. Stuffed TE Alge Crumpler for minus-1 yard on a third-and-6 pass in the fourth quarter, and later essentially iced the game by picking up a Roddy White fumble (forced by Ahmad Carroll) and returning it to the Atlanta 2; RB Samkon Gado scored on the next play, extending the lead to 33-17 in eventual 33-25 win.

2004: Started all 16 regular-season games, plus one playoff contest, and again paced the team in tackles with 162 (116 solo), including three sacks, plus one INT, one fumble recovery and eight passes defensed...At Carolina (Sept. 13): Earned 'NFC Defensive Player of the Week' honors with team-leading 11 tackles (eight solo), plus an 11-yard sack and INT of QB Jake Delhomme in

24-14 triumph over defending NFC champion...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 3): Amassed a season-high 17 total tackles (nine solo)...At Philadelphia (Dec. 5): In an emotional contest, notched a season-best 14 solo stops, including four for loss, and added one pass defensed; had learned that morning his father had passed away after a battle with cancer...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 12): The following week, again played with deep emotion as he dedicated contest to his late father and led the team with 16 tackles (12 solo), including a sack of Harrington.

2003: Started 15 games in the middle as a rookie, plus two playoff games; was inactive for the other contest (Nov. 27 at Detroit) after spraining his right ankle four days earlier against San Francisco...Led the team in both total (134) and solo (95) tackles, including two sacks; his 134 stops were the most by an NFL rookie in 2003 and third most by a rookie in team history...Also posted three INTs, nine passes defensed, one fumble recovery and four special teams stops... Vs. Detroit (Sept. 14): Earned Pepsi 'NFL Rookie of the Week' with 14 tackles (12 solo) and his first NFL INT - a third-quarter Harrington pass that had gone off the hands of TE Mikhael Ricks to give Green Bay possession at the Lions' 19-yard line; the Packers scored a TD three plays later in an eventual 31-6 victory... At Seattle (Oct. 5): Captured his second rookie of the week award with 11 stops and a sack of Hasselbeck, his second sack in two weeks after getting his first career sack against the Bears' Kordell Stewart six days prior...Vs. Kansas City (Oct. 12): Received rookie of the week recognition for the third and final time with 14 tackles...At Tampa Bay (Nov. 16): Received even more prestigious NFL 'Defensive Player of the Week' honor for helping Green Bay to its first win there since 1997 with 10 tackles and a seasonbest two passes defensed. Intercepted Brad Johnson just before halftime, after recovering a Johnson fumble at the Bucs' 22-yard line (forced by Gbaja-Biamila) to set up a field goal in 20-13 victory... At Philadelphia (NFC Divisional, Jan. 11): Recovered a Donovan McNabb fumble (forced by Mike McKenzie) at the Eagles' 40-yard line midway through the first quarter, leading to the game's first points, a 40-yard TD pass from Brett Favre to Robert Ferguson on the very next play...2003 Draft: Selected in the first round (29th overall). The first LB drafted in the opening round by the Packers since Clemson's Wayne Simmons in 1993, was the first LB chosen overall in the 2003 draft. Became the first Oregon State product to be drafted in the first round since quarterback Terry Baker was taken with the first overall selection in 1963 by the then-Los Angeles Rams, and just the fourth Beaver overall to be chosen in the first round (Ken Carpenter, 1950, Cleveland Browns; Joe Gray, 1938, Chicago Bears). Also became the eighth Oregon State player drafted by Green Bay.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterwinner (1999-2002) at Oregon State, he started his last three seasons...Played in 48 games overall, with 29 starts, racking up 249 tackles (143 solo), eight sacks, 30 tackles for loss, one INT, 12 passes defensed, one blocked kick, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries...Majored in business administration and communications...Senior season (2002): A first-team All-Pacific-10 Conference selection, he led the conference in tackles with 121 (62 solo)...Also named first-team All-Pac-10 by Sporting News, in addition to being selected to play in the East-West Shrine game...Was a preseason candidate for the Butkus Award, given annually to the nation's top college LB...One of four team captains, led a Beaver defense that ranked among the conference's top three in several defensive categories, including total defense (second), rushing defense (third), passing defense (first) and red-zone defense (first); nationally, the Beavers ranked 11th in total defense...Started all 13 games at strong-side LB, notching six sacks, 21 tackles for loss, two forced fumbles, seven passes defensed and one blocked kick...Posted double-digit tackle totals in eight of 13 games and registered a sack or half-sack in seven contests... Established a season high with 12 tackles (five solo) vs. UCLA (Oct. 5) and added a blocked FG attempt that teammate Dennis Weathersby returned 83 yards for a TD...Equaled his season high with 12 tackles at Washington (Nov. 9)...Set a career high with four tackles for loss in victory over in-state rival Oregon (Nov. 23) in final home game as a Beaver...Finished college career with nine tackles, one sack and one tackle for loss in Insight.com Bowl vs. Pittsburgh (Dec. 26)...Junior season (2001): Started all 11 games, earning honorable mention All-Pac-10... Registered 73 tackles (41 solo), good for second on the team and 15th in the conference...Authored outstanding day in win vs. Cal (Oct. 27), registering a collegiate-high 18 tackles (including a career-best 11 solo), plus four QB pressures...Sophomore season (2000): Moved back to LB after one season at SS...Injuries to the LB corps forced two moves: first from backup strong-side to backup weak-side linebacker, and then eventually to the starting lineup...Finished season with 44 tackles (34 solo)... Freshman season (1999): Started out in the Beavers' preseason camp as a LB, but was moved to SS and earned regular playing time, mostly on special teams, with some spot action on defense...Played in all 12 games, finishing the season with 11 tackles (six solo).

PERSONAL: Given name Nicholas Alexander Barnett...Nicknamed 'Nick Beats,' a moniker stemming from his favorite hobby: mixing music and performing as a deejay...Born in Fontana, Calif. ...Married the former Amanda Langston in 2008; the couple has two sons, Kaden Nicholas, 3, and Kruz Benjamin, 1... High school: A secondteam All-Citrus Belt selection as a senior LB at A.B. Miller High School in Fontana, Calif., missed the season's final four contests with an injury...Also earned second-team all-league honors at TE as a senior...Earned first-team all-league honors as a safety following his junior season; also played WR...A three-year letterwinner in football, also lettered twice in track (as a junior and senior), winning the league 300-meter intermediate hurdle title (39.6 seconds) and placing second in the 110-meter high hurdles (15.4) as a junior; also competed in the discus (130-0), shot put (47-5) and decathlon, capturing the title in the event at the Mount SAC Relays as a senior...Lettered his freshman and sophomore years as a CF on the baseball team...Possessor of a 3.8 GPA as a prep, was a member of the California Scholastic Federation...Community involvement: In 2009, participated in NFL Hometown Huddle event as he helped construct a new playground and paint existing playground equipment at Nicolet Elementary School in Green Bay...Last offseason, participated in an autograph signing in Missoula, Mont., as a fundraiser for the local Ronald McDonald House...In 2007, traveled with the second annual Green Bay Packers Tailgate Tour, visiting communities throughout Wisconsin and making both scheduled and surprise visits with state residents...In 2006, was selected by a Door County elementary school student for the NFL's

LONGEST OPPONENT WINNING STREAKS BROKEN BY PACKERS

On Jan. 1, 2006, Green Bay ended Seattle's 11-game winning streak. Previously, the longest streak Green Bay had ever halted was a 10-game run by the Lions, at Detroit on Nov. 25, 1934, a 3-0 final. Prior to that Seattle contest, the longest streak snapped at Lambeau Field was Denver's nine-game run in 1996.

Take-A-Player-To-School program, for which he picked up the student, escorted him to school and then spoke to groups of students about the importance of education, plus offered some football tips...Served as an organizer and instructor for the 'William Henderson & Nick Barnett Football Camp' in July 2006, a five-day youth football camp at St. Norbert College in De Pere, Wis. ... Has interacted with participants at the annual Jerry Parins Cruise for Cancer, an annual motorcycle ride benefiting cancer patients and families throughout Northeastern Wisconsin... During the 2004 season, he and former teammate Javon Walker conducted the 'Jam Tour,' visiting 16 Wisconsin schools and giving motivational speeches to students... Donated $56 to the American Cancer Society of Wisconsin for each tackle he registered during the 2004 season... Has participated multiple times in the annual 'Brown County Breakfast on the Farm,' serving breakfast, ice cream and milk to attendees...Participated in the Edgar Bennett Celebrity Bowl-A-Thon multiple times, benefiting the March of Dimes and the Angel Fund for Children with Cancer, respectively, and in the Vince Lombardi Golf Classic to benefit the Vince Lombardi charitable fund...Also taped a public service announcement in the spring of 2008 for the UW Health System to promote the importance of organ donation...Has played in the Brett Favre and Donald Driver Celebrity Softball Games...In 2005, honored with the Professional Achievement Award at the eighth annual Lee Remmel Sports Awards Banquet... Hobbies/interests: Has a record company, Clarity Records, specializing in hip-hop and rap, pop and blues, and also started his own production company, Traxx Squad...One of the artists on his label, Bee, has music available on iTunes...His mixing and deejay work is more than a hobby; has worked as a deejay at dance clubs as well as at a handful of dances that were organized and promoted with college teammate Shamon Jamerson...Preferred tools of his trade are turntables and vinyl (his personal collection boasts nearly 1,000 albums)...Also hosted an offseason hip-hop show on the campus radio station each of his four years in college; served as hip-hop director his senior year...Installed a professional recording studio in his Green Bay home to further his interests and new record label...Interest in mixing music dates back to neighborhood parties he had while growing up in Fontana, Calif. ... He also enjoys watching movies, being out on the water boating, jet skiing and reading (noting Tony Dungy's book Quiet Strength as a favorite)...Is a fan of the Los Angeles Lakers and attends several games every offseason...Is interested in a possible sports-broadcasting career after football...Took an offseason vacation to Maui...Residence: Newport Beach, Calif.

Third NFL Season Second Packers Season

Born: January 8, 1985 NFL Gm. Played/Started: 13/5 Acquired: FA-09

PRO CAREER: Late-season acquisition in 2009 will look to compete for time at cornerback and on special teams this season...Signed with the Packers as a free agent on Nov. 24, 2009, taking the roster spot of cornerback Al Harris, who was lost for the rest of the season to a knee injury the previous game...Played in four games in '09, seeing time on special teams in each one while also getting action as dime back in final three contests...Went to training camp with Denver in 2009 before sustaining a knee injury in the preseason finale and getting released... Played in nine games for the Broncos as a rookie in 2008, starting five in place of an injured Champ Bailey, and recorded 43 tackles (36 solo) and four passes defensed... Originally signed as a non-drafted free agent out of Baylor by San Diego in May 2008 but was waived at the end of training camp and signed to Denver's practice squad in Week 4... Was then signed to the Broncos' active roster four weeks later, in late October.

2009 SEASON: Played in four games and one playoff contest with Green Bay after signing with the team as a free agent on Nov. 24...Saw action on special teams in each of those games as well as time as dime back in final three contests, posting four special teams tackles and two stops on defense...Inactive at Detroit (Nov. 26) and vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7)... At Chicago (Dec. 13): Made Packers debut, seeing time on special teams...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Saw first action of season on defense, playing dime back in second half ... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Saw time as dime back again and registered one solo tackle along with a stop on special teams...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Led the team with a career-high three special teams tackles, including a stop of WR Steve Breaston at the Arizona 2 on a second-quarter punt return; the tackle helped set up a Packers safety three plays later... At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Saw time on special teams.

2008: Played in nine games as a rookie, starting five in place of an injured Bailey...Totaled 43 tackles (36 solo) and four passes defensed...Originally joined the Broncos' practice squad in Week 4 after failing to make San Diego's roster out of training camp...Was signed to Denver's active roster four weeks later...Vs. Miami (Nov. 2): Made NFL

Appeared in four games for the Packers after signing as a free agent on Nov. 24 when starting cornerback Al Harris was placed on injured reserve with a seasonending knee injury.

Played nine games for Denver in 2008, with five starts in place of an injured Champ Bailey.

 an injured Champ Bailey.
 A non-drafted free agent out of Baylor, originally signed with San Diego but was released following training camp and joined Denver's practice squad in Week 4 of 2008.

debut in a reserve role and recorded his first pro tackle... At Atlanta (Nov. 16): Started the first of five straight games in place of Bailey and immediately established a career high with nine tackles (seven solo)... At N.Y. - same season.

 Led team in interceptions with five in 2007, his first year as a starter, and named NFC Defensive Player of the Month in December, when he had four of his five INTs.
- Ranked third on the team with 121 tackles in 2007, the most by a Packers defensive back since safety Mark Murphy recorded 128 in 1990.
- ► "Atari" is Japanese for a form of the word "attack."
- Attended Miami (Fla.) Senior High School with several future professional athletes, including former Green Bay safety Marquand Manuel and Miami Heat forward Udonis Haslem.

tackles (two solo), but left the game midway through the fourth quarter after sustaining a knee injury when he collided with CB AI Harris as they broke up a deep pass intended for WR Earl Bennett ... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Returned from knee injury and posted first INT since Week 1 of 2008 when he picked off Drew Stanton's pass intended for WR John Standeford in the middle of the end zone midway through the fourth quarter; the INT helped preserve the Packers' first shutout since '07. Also led the team with two passes defensed. Didn't start as team opened up in 'Big Okie' package...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Recorded season-high eight tackles (seven solo), which tied for the team lead. In the third guarter with Packers trailing 14-13, stopped RB Kahlil Bell along with LB Nick Barnett for no gain on third-and-1 carry at the Green Bay 45 to force a punt...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Posted seven tackles (all solo) and tied for the team lead with two passes defensed... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Matched his career high with two INTs, the second multi-INT game of his career (at St. Louis, Dec. 16, 2007). First INT came on third-and-6 at Green Bay's 8 early in the second quarter when he stepped in front of WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh to pick off QB Matt Hasselbeck's pass that was tipped at the line by DE Johnny Jolly. Picked off Hasselbeck again in the third quarter as his deep pass over the middle sailed over the head of WR Deion Branch. Finished afternoon with career-high four passes defensed and seven tackles (six solo)...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Posted four tackles (all solo) and an INT. Picked off Matt Leinart's deep pass down the middle that went over the head of WR Early Doucet; intercepted pass at the Arizona 2 and returned the pick 14 yards... At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started and registered four tackles (two solo), but injured hamstring as he chased after RB Beanie Wells on long run late in the third quarter and did not return.

2008: Played in seven games with six starts at SS, and posted 31 tackles (20 solo) and an INT...Was bothered all year by a left ankle injury originally suffered in preseason game at Denver (Aug. 22), and then pulled a hamstring

PRO CAREER: Aggressive, hard-hitting safety bounced back from injury-plagued 2008 campaign to post four interceptions and 54 tackles in '09 as part of a defense that ranked No. 2 in the league...Played in 13 games with 10 starts after appearing in only seven contests the previous season...Took on more responsibilities as a signal caller in Dom Capers' 3-4 scheme...Along with teammate Nick Collins, became first Packers safety tandem since Darren Sharper and Marques Anderson (2002) to each post four or more interceptions in the same season...Now has 206 career tackles (159 solo) with 10 interceptions and 28 passes defensed in his career...Battled ankle, hamstring and shoulder injuries at different times throughout the 2008 season, eventually landing on injured reserve in the final month...Sustained an ankle injury during training camp and then pulled a hamstring at Detroit in Week 2, forcing him to miss five games...Returned to the lineup but was less than full strength and eventually injured his shoulder in Week 13 vs. Carolina, ending his season...In his first season as a starter in '07, led the team with five interceptions and 13 passes defensed, tied for the team lead with three forced fumbles, and ranked third with 121 tackles (95 solo)...His tackle total was the highest by any Packers defensive back since safety Mark Murphy recorded 128 in 1990...Beat out incumbent starter Marquand Manuel midway through training camp in 2007 with a series of big plays in the second preseason game vs. Seattle (Aug. 18) and never relinquished the job, playing 94.9 percent of the defensive snaps in 2007, tops on the team... Enjoyed the chance to show what he could do in training camp after missing much of it in 2006 with a broken hand suffered in the annual 'Family Night' scrimmage... Began that season on the practice squad with a cast, but eventually had it removed and showed how much he benefited from his NFL Europe experience the previous spring...Earned a midseason promotion to the active roster, playing in five games and contributing consistently on special teams with five tackles...Made his NFL debut on Christmas Day 2005 vs. Chicago, playing in one game after being signed from the practice squad, and then was allocated to NFL Europe in spring 2006...Started all 10 games for the Amsterdam Admirals, who earned a berth in the World Bowl...Played with former Packers teammate Tory Humphrey and led the team with 61 tackles, solidifying his reputation as a hard hitter...At Central Florida, registered 296 tackles, three interceptions and one sack during four letterman seasons.. As a prep player at Miami (Fla.) Senior High School, played every position on the field other than lineman...Attended high school with Manuel, not to mention other professional athletes, such as Miami Heat forward Udonis Haslem... Originally entered the league as a non-drafted free agent signed by the Dolphins in 2005...Spent most of '05 training camp with the Jets and was waived in the final preseason roster reduction, before the Packers signed him to their practice squad two months later.

2009 SEASON: Played in 13 games with 11 starts at SS, and registered 54 tackles (44 solo), four INTs, and 12 passes defensed...Also played in team's playoff contest...Inactive for three games – vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20), at St. Louis (Sept. 27) and at Minnesota (Oct. 5) – with injured knee...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Posted five in Week 2 at Detroit, forcing him to miss five games... Sustained a shoulder injury in Week 13 vs. Carolina and was placed on injured reserve Dec. 18...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Intercepted a Tarvaris Jackson pass with just over a minute remaining to seal the 24-19 win...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Left game late in first half after straining a hamstring trying to break up a pass in the end zone, and missed the next five contests...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Returned to starting lineup and registered seven tackles, which tied him for the lead in the secondary...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Led secondary with season-high eight tackles, including a tackle for loss when he stopped TE Visanthe Shiancoe on a reception for a 3-yard loss in the second quarter...Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Tied for lead in secondary with six tackles and broke up Kyle Orton's deep pass intended for WR Marty Booker late in the first half...Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Did not start after being on injury report all week with ankle injury and saw very limited time in the first half before leaving the game with a sprained shoulder, which ended his season.

2007: Started all 16 games in his first year as the starter (plus both playoff games), winning the job with an impressive run of big plays during preseason games...Playing a team-best 94.9 percent of the defensive snaps, ranked third on the team with 121 tackles (95 solo), tied for a team high with three forced fumbles, and led the team with five INTs and 13 passes defensed...Recorded double-digit tackles in five games, and his season total was the highest by any Packers DB since Murphy recorded 128 in 1990... Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Month for December, picking off four passes in a span of four games...His five INTs ranked ninth in the NFL and fourth in the NFC...Vs. San Diego (Sept. 23): Posted a team- and career-high 14 tackles (11 solo)...At Minnesota (Sept. 30): In the first quarter, stripped the ball from FB Jeff Dugan (recovered by Jolly); Brett Favre threw his record-setting 421st career TD pass to Greg Jennings on the following drive to give Green Bay a 7-0 lead. Made his first career INT in the fourth quarter, diving for a tipped pass with 1:06 left, sealing the Packers' 23-16 victory. Also recorded five solo tackles... Vs. Oakland (Dec. 9): In the third quarter, intercepted a deep pass and returned it 22 yards; actually ran the pick back 70 yards for a TD, but the score was negated by an unnecessary-roughness penalty... At St. Louis (Dec. 16): Had a career-high two INTs, plus four solo tackles, and was named 'GMC Defensive Player of the Week.' In the second quarter, picked off a long Marc Bulger throw and made an 18-yard return. In the third quarter, caught a tipped pass on a Rams' thirdand-4 and returned it 8 yards; Green Bay converted a FG on the ensuing drive... Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Led the team with seven tackles (six solo), with one forced fumble and one pass defensed. Stopped RB Shaun Alexander for a 1-yard loss in the first quarter and then, on the Seahawks' first play of the second quarter, forced TE Marcus Pollard to fumble (recovered by Aaron Kampman); Green Bay scored three plays later on a 2-yard Jennings TD catch and took a 21-14 lead.

DESMOND BISHOP

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 238 Fourth NFL Season Fourth Packers Season

at a glance...

Born: July 24, 1984 NFL Gm. Played/Started: 41/1 Acquired: D6b-07

PRO CAREER: Sixth-round pick in 2007 has become a core member of the Packers' special teams, posting 49 tackles in 41 career games...Led the team with a careerhigh 22 tackles on special teams in 2009, and his 49 stops from 2007-09 were the most by a Packer over that span... Saw limited action on the inside as a backup at 'Buck' linebacker last season, but also got time as the fifth linebacker when the team employed its 'Psycho' package...Started to see more extensive action in 2008 as his duties expanded from strictly middle linebacker to include some work at the weak-side spot as well...Got one start at WLB in Week 14 vs. Houston and posted career highs with 12 tackles, including eight solo, and two forced fumbles, along with his first career sack...Led the Packers with three forced fumbles in 2008...After battling an Achilles injury during training camp in '08, came on strong in the final two preseason games to keep his roster spot and stayed relatively healthy in his second season, unlike his first when he missed four games because of a shoulder injury...Began coming into his own late in his rookie year, making four special teams tackles in one game at St. Louis (Dec. 16, 2007)...Had a notable rookie preseason, leading the team with 18 tackles and starting once in the middle for Nick Barnett (coach's decision)...Productivity was evident in college at Cal, leading the team in tackles both his seasons there...Also led the Pacific-10 Conference in 2006 with 126 tackles, the most tackles recorded by a Cal player since Jerrott Willard in 1993 and the first player to lead the conference in tackles since then...Most likely fell to the sixth round in the draft because of less-than-ideal speed for his position, but makes up for that with instincts and strength...Did 33 reps of 225 pounds on the bench press at the Combine...Started all 25 games he appeared in at Cal (after transferring from junior college), collecting 215 tackles (125 solo), 21 stops for loss, three sacks, three interceptions, four passes defensed, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries...Ninth player from Cal drafted by the Packers and second in three-year period, joining QB Aaron Rodgers (D1-05).

2009 SEASON: Played in all 16 games for the first time in his career and led the team with a career-high 22 tackles on special teams...Also played in team's playoff game...On the field for more than 76 percent of team's special-teams plays, second most on the team...Recorded 14 tackles (11 solo) in limited time on defense, backing up A.J. Hawk at 'Buck' LB and seeing limited action as fifth LB in 'Psycho' package...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Tied for ► Led the team with a career-high 22 special teams tackles in 2009, and his 49 tackles on special teams from 2007-09 lead the team over that span.

- ► Posted team-leading three forced fumbles in 2008.
- ► Led the Pacific-10 in tackles in 2006 with 126, the first Cal player to lead the conference in 13 years.
- Physically strong and powerful, having bench-pressed 225 pounds 33 times at the NFL Scouting Combine.
- ► Father, Dennis, played football collegiately at Illinois and professionally in the USFL.

team lead with two special teams tackles... Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Led the team with three stops on special teams...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Saw first action of season on defense and recorded a season-high four tackles (three solo). Brought down FB Mike Karney for a 2-yard loss on a pass early in the fourth quarter. Added two stops on special teams... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Filled in for an injured Brandon Chillar (hand) in nickel for the rest of the game after Chillar left late in the first half. Posted three tackles (all solo) and a pass defensed. Tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles. Forced a fumble by DE Brian Robison, who was returning a squib kick on third-quarter kickoff; S Nick Collins recovered fumble at the Minnesota 41 to set up a Spencer Havner 16-yard TD catch...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Tied for team lead and matched career high with four special teams tackles... At Chicago (Dec. 13): Got a few snaps on defense in team's five-LB 'Psycho' package and recorded two tackles (one solo)...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Saw limited time on defense and posted two tackles (one solo). Added two stops on special teams, including a big hit on RB LaRod Stephens-Howling at Arizona's 13 on first-quarter kickoff return...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Registered a tackle on special teams and saw limited action on defense in 'Psycho' package.

2008: Played in 15 games with one start and made 27 tackles on defense (18 solo) with one sack, taking on work at weak-side LB in addition to his customary duties backing up the middle...Led team with three forced fumbles...Finished third on the team with 15 special teams tackles...On the field for over 71 percent of team's special teams plays, second most on the team... Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): On Will Blackmon's 76-yard punt return for a score, took out a Vikings player on the sideline to allow Blackmon to cut back across the field... Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Took some snaps on defense when Barnett left game briefly late in first quarter with elbow injury...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Saw action at WLB when Hawk went out with groin injury, and posted three tackles... Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Tied for team lead with two special teams tackles, including one stop of WR Pierre Garçon on a kickoff return at the Indianapolis 14... At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Saw extensive action in second half at MLB after Barnett left on the first series of the second half with a knee injury, and recorded nine tackles. Forced RB Adrian Peterson to fumble on a fourth-and-1 run in the fourth quarter that the Vikings recovered, but gave the Packers possession on downs at the Minnesota 41 to set up a Mason Crosby FG. Added a season-high three special teams tackles and made a key block on Nick Collins' 59-yard INT return for a TD to allow him to cut across the field...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Started first career game, opening up at WLB in place of an injured Chillar (groin), and posted a careerhigh 12 tackles and a career-best two forced fumbles. Registered his first career sack when he brought down Matt Schaub for a 6-yard loss in the second quarter, broke into the backfield to stop FB Cecil Sapp for a 3-yard loss on a third-and-1 in the first quarter, forced a fumble early in the second quarter by TE Owen Daniels at the Green Bay 1 that CB Tramon Williams recovered at the 3, and forced another fumble by Daniels in the fourth quarter that went out of bounds... At Chicago (Dec. 22): Matched his season high with three special teams tackles and made one stop in limited action on defense.

2007: Served as the backup MLB and made an impact as a special-teams regular after earning a roster spot with a productive preseason that included a team-high 18 tackles...Played in 10 games and was inactive for the other six, mostly due to a shoulder injury...Posted 12 special teams tackles and six on defense (four solo)...At Detroit (Nov. 22): Saw his first career action on defense, playing one snap...At St. Louis (Dec. 16): Registered a teamand career-high four special teams tackles...Vs. Detroit

(Dec. 30): Saw his most extensive action of the season on defense, entering the game for Barnett in the second quarter and tallying six tackles (four solo), the first tackles from scrimmage of his career...Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Made two special teams tackles...2007 Draft: Selected in the sixth round with the 192nd overall pick, the 27th LB chosen. Was the second of three consecutive choices the Packers had in the round.
Selected with pick acquired from Pittsburgh along with the Steelers' fourth-round choice (No. 119) for Green Bay's fourth-round pick (No. 112). First defensive player drafted by the Packers out of California since DB Jerry Scattini in 1962 (19th round).

COLLEGE: After transferring from junior college, started all 25 games he appeared in at Cal, collecting 215 tackles (125 solo), 21 stops for loss, three sacks, three INTs, four passes defensed, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries...Led Cal in tackles both his seasons there...Majored in interdisciplinary studies...Senior season (2006): Led the Pac-10 with 126 tackles (63 solo), the most tackles recorded by a Cal player since Willard in 1993 and the first player to lead the conference in tackles since then...A third-team All-American choice by Rivals.com, earned honorable mention from The NFL Draft Report and garnered All-Pac-10 first-team accolades...In 13 games, also had three sacks, a team-high 15 stops for loss (fourth in Pac-10), two pass break-ups, three INTs, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries...Ranked 14th nationally, averaging 9.69 tackles per game...Had at least seven tackles in 11 of 13 contests, and was in double digits five times...In perhaps his best collegiate performance, posted a career-high 16 tackles (seven solo), with 31/2 tackles for loss, a forced fumble, and a game-clinching INT vs. Washington (Oct. 21) that he returned 79 yards in overtime to seal 31-24 win...Junior season (2005): Immediately won a starting job at Cal upon his arrival and picked up second-team All-Pac-10 honors...Started all 12 games at MLB and led the team with 89 tackles (62 solo), with six stops for loss, one QB

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 210 Fifth NFL Season Fifth Packers Season

Born: October 27, 1984 NFL Gm. Played/Started: 32/2 Acquired: D4b-06

PRO CAREER: Dynamic athletic talent will look to return to his play-making ways as a return man in 2010 after sustaining a season-ending knee injury in '09, and will compete for time at safety after switching from cornerback...Was limited to just three games last season after tearing the ACL in his left knee in Week 4 at Minnesota... Became a special-teams standout in 2008 as both a return specialist and coverage player, running back two punts for TDs – only the fourth player in franchise history to accomplish that in one season - and leading the team with 18 special teams tackles, all of which landed him a spot on USA Today's All-Joe Team, which recognizes productive players who get little fanfare...Ranked fourth in the NFC and ninth in the NFL with an 11.1-yard average on punt returns in '08 while also handling kickoff-return duties...His combined 1,555 punt and kick return yards in 2008 ranks as the second-highest single-season total in franchise history...Also made an impact as a nickel and dime cornerback, posting 17 tackles and forcing two fumbles, by far his most extensive action on defense... In 32 career games, has 30 special teams tackles and four touchdowns, all on special teams...His three career punt returns for touchdowns tie him for the franchise record with Desmond Howard...Had landed kickoff and punt return job with big runbacks in the second preseason game in 2007 vs. Seattle (Aug. 18), but suffered a thumb injury in the next game and began the regular season with a cast on his hand, relegating him to reserve corner duty...Then broke his foot Oct. 3, the same foot he broke as a rookie in mini-camp, and missed seven games...Resumed puntreturn duties when healthy and scored his first two NFL touchdowns in the same game, returning a punt 57 yards for a score and recovering a fumble in the end zone to mark the first time a Packers player scored two special teams TDs in the same game in 38 years, but re-aggravated the foot injury in '07 regular-season finale and missed both playoff games...Impressed early in mini-camps as a rookie before breaking his foot on one of the last plays of the final May camp...Suffered a setback in his rehab, in addition to a subsequent rib injury in Week 10, that limited him to just four games in 2006... Ability to make things happen with the ball is no surprise, having made the switch to wide receiver as a college senior to shore up a depleted receiving corps at Boston College...Prior to the 2006 NFL Draft, worked out with future teammate Greg Jennings and childhood hero Deion Sanders...A fourth-round selection in 2006, was the 14th BC player to be drafted by the Pack-

► With three career punt returns for TDs, is tied with Desmond Howard for the franchise record

► In 2008, became only the fourth player in team history to return multiple punts for TDs in the same season. Also led the team in special teams tackles with 18. ► Scored his first two NFL TDs in the same game in 2007, returning a punt 57 yards and recovering a fumble on a punt return vs. Oakland (Dec. 9) to earn 'NFC Special Teams Player of the Week.' Marked first time a Packers player scored two special teams TDs in the same game in 38 years.

- ➤ A versatile athlete, lined up at cornerback (2002-04) and wide receiver (2005) at Boston College in addition to serving as the team's return specialist.
- Registered 2,700 career kickoff return yards at BC, 222 yards shy of the Division I-A all-time mark, and earned all-conference honors in his final three seasons (Big East − 2003-04; ACC − 2005).
- ▶ Participated in the 2002 U.S. Army All-American game as a senior at Bishop Hendricken High School (R.I.) along with 10 other 2006 NFL Draft picks.
- Wears No. 27, his Pop Warner and high school number, after wearing No. 1 in college.

ers, the first since QB Matt Hasselbeck in 1998, and one of two defensive backs chosen by Green Bay in 2006...Born Oct. 27, 1984, was the youngest player on the league's youngest team in 2006.

2009 SEASON: Played in just three games before sustaining season-ending left knee injury in Week 4... Returned 10 kickoffs for 233 yards (23.3 avg.) and three punts for 11 yards (3.7 avg.)...Added one stop on special teams...Inactive for season opener vs. Chicago (Sept. 13) due to quad injury sustained in preseason contest vs. Buffalo (Aug. 22)...Placed on injured reserve on Oct. 12 with knee injury and had surgery on Oct. 29...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Made season debut, returning five kickoffs for 113 yards (22.6 avg.)...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Recovered Josh Brown FG attempt blocked by DE Johnny Jolly in the first quarter, catching the ball in mid-air at the Green Bay 25-yard line and returning it 18 yards down the left sideline to help set up a Packers FG. Returned two kickoffs for 49 yards (24.5 avg.), two punts for 11 yards

PACKERS IN DALLAS MORNING NEWS SPECIAL TEAMS RANKINGS

Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News produces an annual NFL special teams poll, which objectively grades teams by their rankings in 22 kicking-game categories. Gosselin suggests that quality special teams give clubs an edge in a parity-driven league.

A closer look at the Packers' history in the standings:

(5.5 avg.), and posted a stop on special teams...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Returned three kickoffs for 71 yards (23.7 avg.), but sustained season-ending ACL injury to left knee on return with just under five minutes remaining in the second quarter.

2008: Played in every game with one start...Ranked fourth in the NFC and ninth the NFL with a 11.1-yard avg. on 36 punt returns...One of only five players in the NFL to return two or more punts for TDs in 2008, and one of only four in Packers history, joining Howard (three in 1996), Billy Grimes (two in 1950) and Willie Wood (two in 1961)... Also had a 21.0-yard avg. on 55 kickoff returns...His 398 punt return yards tied for the third-highest single-season total in team history, his 1,157 kickoff return yards rank fourth, and his combined return yardage total of 1,555 is second in franchise annals...Recorded 17 tackles (16 solo), two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery on defense, seeing time as nickel and dime back, and led the team with a career-high 18 special teams stops... Was on the field for 326 of the team's 472 special-teams plays (69.1 percent), which ranked third on the team, and landed a spot as a returner on USA Today's All-Joe Team, which recognizes productive players who receive little fanfare... Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Earned 'NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors' for the second time in his career as he returned a punt 76 vards for a TD in the third quarter, a career long. Fielded the low kick from Chris Kluwe at the 24, started down the left sideline, just keeping his feet in bounds, before cutting across the field and running down the right sideline for the score... Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Saw time at nickel back after CB Al Harris left game in second guarter with spleen injury. Forced a fumble on a Marion Barber run in the fourth quarter and recovered the ball. Led team with three special teams tackles... Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Posted career-long 45-yard kickoff return in second quarter. Registered two tackles as nickel back and an additional stop on special teams... Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Started first game of season as team opened up in nickel package, matching up with WR Marvin Harrison much of the afternoon and holding him to just two receptions for 11 yards, his lowest yardage output of the season. Also recorded season-high four tackles...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Returned Kluwe's punt 65 yards for a TD with just over three minutes remaining in the third quarter to give the Packers their first lead of the game at 24-21. The TD was his second of the season and he became the first NFL player since Cowboys WR Wane Mc-Garity (vs. Arizona, 2000) to post a punt return for a score against the same team in two different games in a season. Also had a 31-yard kickoff return out to the Green Bay 41 late in the fourth quarter... At New Orleans (Nov. 24): Returned three punts for 50 yards, including a game-long 27-yard return down to the New Orleans 37 to set up Green Bay's first TD of the contest. Had season-high eight kickoff returns for 159 yards (19.9 avg.) and led team with two special teams tackles... Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Served as nickel back with Williams starting and Charles Woodson at SS, and matched season high with four tackles. Tied for team lead with three special teams tackles and had 99-yard kick return for TD in the second quarter nullified by holding penalty...At Jacksonville (Dec. 14): Saw limited action as nickel back and forced a fumble on a run by QB David Garrard in the fourth quarter that Garrard recovered at the Green Bay 2...At Chicago (Dec. 22): Led team with a career-high four tackles on special teams and posted two 32-yard kickoff returns, including one out to midfield late in the fourth quarter with score tied at 17.

2007: Played in nine games with one start and listed as inactive for the other seven contests plus both playoff games...On defense, had three solo tackles and two passes defensed, plus eight tackles on special teams and two TDs, both in the same game...Returned eight punts for 106 yards (13.3 avg.) and a TD...After winning return job with big preseason showing vs. Seattle (Aug. 18), suffered a thumb injury in the next preseason contest vs. Jacksonville (Aug. 23) and began the season with a cast on his hand, unable to perform in return role...Saw action in the first four games, broke his foot during Oct. 3 practice and missed seven contests, returned for final five games of regular season, but aggravated foot injury and missed postseason...At Minnesota (Sept. 30): Filled in at nickel for Jarrett Bush when Harris went out for several plays with a hand injury, coming away with his first pass defensed of the season and his first career solo tackle; PBU was nearly an INT, but cast prevented him from catching the ball. In the third quarter, downed a 54-yard Jon Ryan punt at the Minnesota 7-yard line... Vs. Oakland (Dec. 9): Earned 'NFC Special Teams Player of the Week' for his two-touchdown outing. Fielded a second-quarter punt on the run, and returned it 57 yards for his first career TD. On a third-quarter Packers punt, Jason Hunter forced PR Tim Dwight to fumble, and the ball was inadvertently kicked. Eventually landed on it in the end zone for his second score. It was the first time the same Packers player recorded two special teams TDs in a game since Travis Williams at Pittsburgh on Nov. 2, 1969... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Made his first career start, filling in for Woodson (coach's decision), recording one solo tackle. Left the game in the second quarter after aggravating his prior foot injury and was inactive for both playoff games.

2006: Spent the first 11 weeks on the 53-man roster, playing in four games while inactive for seven before being placed on injured reserve Nov. 25...Saw most of the action during his rookie season in nickel and dime packages, in addition to special-teams duty...Was in on 11 snaps and posted one pass defensed, in addition to three special teams stops...Missed all of training camp after breaking his right foot during a May 21 mini-camp practice and was unable to practice until Sept. 4, three days after the preseason finale...Suffered additional setback in Week 2 practice and remained inactive until returning to practice Oct. 10 during bye week... At Miami (Oct. 22): Made pro debut, seeing action mostly on special teams with 10 snaps at LCB, posting one pass defensed and one special teams tackle...At Minnesota (Nov. 12): Played exclusively on special teams, tallying two special teams tackles, but suffered a rib injury and ultimately landed on injured

SUCCESS IN DECEMBER

Green Bay finished 4-1 in the season's final month in 2009, typical of the success it has once the weather turns. Head Coach Mike McCarthy has continued the tradition of December success in Green Bay, compiling a 12-6 mark in the regular season's final month.

• Over the past decade (2000-09), Green Bay owns the league's third-best record Dec. 1 and later (including January):

PRO CAREER: Former non-drafted free agent and waiver-wire pickup played in all 16 games for the second straight season, opening a career-high three contests at nickel back in 2009...Continued to be a core member of the special-teams coverage units, posting 10 tackles on the season, his fourth straight campaign with double-digit tackles...Became the first Packer to accomplish that feat since FB William Henderson (2002-05)...His 38 special teams tackles over the past three seasons rank second on the team over that span behind only Desmond Bishop's 49...Primarily worked as dime back and backup safety during the first half of the season, but was pressed into nickel role when veteran starter Al Harris went down with a season-ending knee injury in Week 11...Tramon Williams moved into Harris' starting spot with Bush sliding into Williams' nickel position...Posted career-high 26 tackles (22 solo), an interception and seven passes defensed... Expanded his versatility in 2008, working as a backup safety in addition to his backup cornerback duties...His career-high 17 special teams tackles in '08 ranked second on the team behind Will Blackmon (18)...Began 2007 as the team's nickel corner and recorded 23 tackles (18 solo) and career-best eight passes defensed...Played in all 16 games in rookie 2006 season despite joining Green Bay just a week prior to the season opener...One of four Packers rookies to play in every game (Daryn Colledge, A.J. Hawk and Tony Moll were the others)...Initially made his mark on special teams, totaling 13 tackles in '06, good for third on the team...Claimed off waivers by Green Bay from Carolina on Sept. 3, 2006...Ranked among the NCAA leaders in passes defensed as a senior at Utah State in 2005... Originally signed with Carolina as a non-drafted free agent on May 5, 2006... As a restricted free agent last offseason, was signed by Tennessee to an offer sheet that Green Bay 2009 SEASON: Played in all 16 games for the second straight season, starting a career-best three contests...Also played in playoff game...Worked primarily as dime back and backup safety during the first half of the season, but saw significant action down the stretch as nickel back after veteran starter Harris was lost to a knee injury in Week 11...Williams moved into the starting RCB spot with Bush moving into Williams' nickel role...Posted career-best 26 tackles (22 solo), an INT and seven passes defensed...Added 10 tackles on special teams...On the field for 76.6 percent of the team's special-teams plays, a team high... Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Saw significant time at FS in place of Nick Collins, who left midway through the second quarter with a chest injury and did not return. Posted three tackles (two solo) and added a stop on special teams... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Worked as dime back for third straight game before taking over nickel role in fourth quarter when starter Harris left with a knee injury. Posted two tackles and a stop on special teams...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Served as nickel back and registered career-high four tackles (all solo). Matched his career high with two passes defensed. Broke up a pass intended for WR Dennis Northcutt on third-and-goal from the 1 in the fourth quarter; QB Matthew Stafford threw the ball away under pressure on fourth down as Packers kept the Lions out of the end zone... At Chicago (Dec. 13): ► Has tallied double digits in special teams tackles each of past four seasons, becoming the first Packer to do so since William Henderson (2002-05).

► Played in all 16 games in '09 for the second straight season and started a career-high three contests as nickel back.

at a glance...

- ► Has also worked as a backup safety the past two seasons in addition to his backup cornerback duties.
- Despite joining the team a week prior to the 2006 season opener, was one of four rookies to play in every game (Daryn Colledge, A.J. Hawk and Tony Moll the others).
- ► Earned All-WAC honors at Utah State after beginning his college career at American River (Calif.) Junior College as a wide receiver and switching to defense as a sophomore.
- ➤ A three-sport athlete in high school, he earned honors on the gridiron and on the track as a 110- and 300-meter hurdles champion.

Started only the second game of his career as team opened up in nickel defense. Matched career high with four tackles (all solo)...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Started back-to-back games for the first time in his career, opening again at nickel back, and posted two solo tackles...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Posted the first interception of his career when he came underneath WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh to pick off a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass on the opening drive of the third quarter. Finished with four tackles (three solo), matching a career best, and added a tackle on special teams...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Started as team opened in nickel, and tied for lead in secondary with four tackles (three solo), which matched a career high...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started as nickel back and posted six tackles (three solo) along with a stop on special teams.

2008: Played in every game and ranked second on the team with career-high 17 special teams tackles...Posted two or more special teams tackles in a game five times... Was on the field for 357-of-472 special-teams plays (75.6 percent), which led the team...Saw time in the preseason at safety and was both a backup S and CB during the regular season, though saw limited playing time on defense, registering one tackle and one pass defensed...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Got a piece of Rob Bironas' 47-yard field goal attempt with his glove as the kick on the final play of regulation went off the right upright, sending the game into overtime...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Made one tackle on special teams but left game early in third guarter after sustaining ankle injury on punt coverage and did not return... Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Played on special teams and posted a tackle despite missing two practices during the week because of ankle injury...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Saw limited time as dime back and posted only tackle and pass breakup on the season...At Jacksonville (Dec. 14): Led team with season-high three special teams tack-

2007: Served as the club's primary nickel back much of the year, playing in 14 games plus two playoff contests...

Earned his first NFL start for an injured Charles Woodson at Dallas (Nov. 29), but the following game sustained an injury of his own (calf) and missed two contests...Recorded 23 tackles (18 solo), eight passes defensed and 11 special teams tackles... Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9): Was a major factor on special teams, coming up with a fumble recovery and tying for a team high with three special teams stops. Sprinted downfield after a Jon Ryan punt with 1:09 remaining and pounced on the ball following a muffed catch from J.R. Reed. The recovery gave the Packers possession, leading to a game-winning, 42-yard FG by Mason Crosby with two seconds left. Also provided big hit on earlier muffed punt, by Greg Lewis, that was eventually recovered by Tracy White for a Green Bay TD...Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Posted two special teams tackles and provided a key block on Williams' 94-yard punt return, getting kicker John Kasay out of the way downfield (Kasay punted out of field goal formation)... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Returned from calf injury and downed a 72-yard Ryan punt on the Detroit 1-yard line; the Lions went three-andout on the subsequent drive...Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Posted a pass defensed.

2006: Played in all 16 games during rookie campaign... Saw most of his action on special teams while appearing in six games (15 snaps) as a reserve DB...His 13 tackles on special teams tied for third on the team... At Detroit (Sept. 24): Stopped Eddie Drummond on a key fourth-quarter kickoff return at Detroit's 16-yard line... Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 8): Posted an early career-high three special teams tackles (later matched at Miami, Oct. 22)... At Minnesota (Nov. 12): Was the first one down the field on a Ryan punt and pressured returner Mewelde Moore into muffing the catch but inadvertently kicked the ball out of the end zone, resulting in a touchback; later, on kickoff that opened the second half, drew an illegal block-above-thewaist penalty on Artose Pinner, negating a 102-yard TD return by Bethel Johnson...2006 Draft: Originally signed with Carolina on May 5 as a non-drafted free agent; subsequently waived by the Panthers on Sept. 2 and claimed by the Packers the next day.

COLLEGE: Played in all 22 games during his Utah State career, including 13 starts...Majored in sociology... Senior season (2005): Garnered 2005 All-Western Athletic Conference honors when he recorded 50 tackles and two INTs for the Aggies...His 13 passes broken up ranked sixth in the NCAA...Junior season (2004): Recorded 20 tackles and one INT among four passes defensed in 11 games (two starts)...Junior college: Began his collegiate career at American River (Calif.) Junior College... Was all-state, all-region and all-league as a CB and return specialist as a sophomore in 2003...Intercepted four passes while posting an impressive 27-yard average on kickoff returns...Earned all-league status as a WR and return specialist as a freshman...Also competed in track.

PERSONAL: Given name Jarrett Lee Bush...Born in Vacaville, Calif. ...Single...Related through marriage to five-time Pro Bowler and former Eagles WR Mike Quick; Quick, part of the Eagles radio broadcast team, is the father of Bush's sister-in-law...High school: A three-sport athlete at Will C. Wood High School in Vacaville, Calif. ...A three-year letterman on the gridiron, he earned all-league and all-county honors as a WR and DB...Also wrestled and competed in track, where he was a two-time section champion in the 110- and 300-meter hurdles...Community involvement: Held the first Jarrett Bush Football Camp

PLANE PIONEERS

The Packers in 1940 became the first NFL team to fly to a road game. Fearing an air disaster would wipe out the entire team, the NFL forced the Packers to split the squad, and fly on two DC-3's (at right, Coach Curly Lambeau posed with half his team and their plane at Austin Straubel Field before a road trip in the early 1940s).

In those days, many fans turned out to see the humongous plane, more than the team. Players also took out life insurance policies. Al Carmichael and Howie Ferguson, for instance, each took out $50,000 policies, making each other the beneficiary. Players dined on food such as overtone cocktail-grilled sirloin.

VETERANS

BRANDON CHILLAR

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 237 Seventh NFL Season Third Packers Season

Born: October 21, 1982 NFL Gm. Played/Started: 89/52 Acquired: UFA-08 (StL)

PRO CAREER: Versatile veteran has become a key contributor in the Packers' nickel defense in his two seasons in Green Bay...Is the team's primary cover man against opposing tight ends and running backs...Signed a long-term contract extension on Dec. 12, 2009...Played in 12 games in '09 and posted 46 tackles (34 solo), two sacks and four passes defensed...Broke his right hand in Week 8 vs. Minnesota and was sidelined for three games with the injury...At the time of the injury, ranked tied for third on the team with 41 tackles through seven games... The Packers' Ione free-agent signee in 2008, led the team's linebackers with nine passes defensed in his first season in Green Bay, more than double his career total coming into the season, and ranked fourth on the team with 13 special teams tackles...Came to the Packers after four seasons in St. Louis and, though he didn't beat out Brady Poppinga for the starting job at strong-side linebacker in a muchanticipated battle, ended up starting a handful of contests at weak-side linebacker late in the season...Had played in every game of his career until missing the 2007 regularseason finale with a lower leg injury...That snapped a string of 63 consecutive games played, 65 including playoffs...For his career, has 365 tackles (262 solo) with 71/2 sacks, 19 passes defensed, five forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries... As a fourth-round draft choice in 2004 out of UCLA (selected 130th overall), initially made his mark with the Rams on special teams and gradually earned more starts at outside linebacker...Had 24 special teams tackles his first two years in the league and now has 52 for his career...A first-team All-Pac-10 selection as a senior in 2003, when his career-high 133 tackles were the most by a Bruin in 14 years...Southern California native is one of the few players of Eastern Indian descent in the NFL.

2009 SEASON: Played in 12 games with four starts, seeing time primarily in nickel package...Also played in playoff game...Posted 46 tackles (34 solo), two sacks, four passes defensed and five tackles on special teams...Sidelined for three games with a broken hand and one contest with a back injury...Broke his right hand in Week 8 vs. Minnesota and had surgery on Nov. 2...Inactive at Tampa Bay (Nov. 8), and was active but did not play vs. Dallas (Nov. 15) and at Detroit (Nov. 26) due to the injury...Also was inactive at Arizona (Jan. 3) due to back injury... Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Came on a blitz and hurdled RB Garrett Wolfe to bring down QB Jay Cutler for a 2-yard sack in the second quarter. Also pressured Cutler to help force an INT by CB Tramon Williams in the second quarter. Tied for lead among LBs with eight tackles (six solo)...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Got his first start of the season, opening at SS in team's 'Big Okie' package. Split his snaps between LB and SS and registered nine tackles (eight solo) along with a season-best two passes defensed...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Started at 'Buck' LB as team opened in nickel and finished second on the team with a season-high 10 tackles (eight solo), including a stop of WR Percy Harvin for a 4-yard loss on first-guarter reception...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Posted four assisted tackles and his first fumble recovery as a Packer, scooping up WR Joshua Cribbs' fumble at the Green Bay 48 after Cribbs was stripped by CB Charles Woodson on a thirdquarter pass... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Started as team

- Last name is pronounced CHILL-er.
- ► His 13 passes defensed over the past two seasons are the most by a Packers linebacker.
- Forein Bay's lone free-agent signee in 2008 after four seasons in St. Louis, became Packers' primary cover man on tight ends and running backs, leading line-backers with nine passes defensed.
- Played in every game of his career until 2007 regular-season finale, which he missed with a lower leg injury. Ended streak of 63 games played (65 including playoffs).
- ► Of his 7½ career sacks, 4½ have come vs. Seattle.
- ► Forced a fumble by RB Ryan Grant vs. Packers in 2007 on a short dump-off pass (recovered by St. Louis).
- During senior season at UCLA in 2003, had 133 tackles, the most by a Bruin since 1989.

opened up in nickel and recorded two solo tackles with a stop on special teams. Broke his right hand late in the first half and did not return... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Returned to action with club cast on hand, but only played on special teams, posting one tackle... Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Saw first action on defense in over a month, taking limited snaps in 'Big Okie' package. Recorded one tackle and a pass defensed along with a team-high two special teams tackles... At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Saw most extensive action on defense since breaking his hand as he played in nickel... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Posted three tackles (all solo) and a sack in nickel role. Came on a blitz up the middle to bring down QB Matt Hasselbeck for a 7-yard loss on fourth down at Green Bay's 22 late in the third quarter...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started as team opened in nickel, and posted three solo tackles and a QB hit. Stopped RB Tim Hightower for a 2-yard loss on a run up the middle in the fourth quarter.

2008: Played in 14 games with seven starts and posted 65 tackles (55 solo)...Led LBs with career-best nine passes defensed and forced one fumble...Finished fourth on the team with 13 special teams tackles, which matched his career high...Began training camp in a battle with Poppinga for starting strong-side LB spot, but made his biggest initial impact on special teams...Ended up as the team's starting weak-side LB by season's end in place of A.J. Hawk, who had moved to the middle when Nick Barnett (knee) went on injured reserve... At Detroit (Sept. 14): Led team with three special teams tackles... Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Made first start as a Packer at SLB and posted six tackles and a pass breakup. Forced a fumble on RB Marion Barber's reception in the second quarter, but the ball flew into the arms of TE Tony Curtis... Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Tied for team lead with two stops on special teams and made a key block upfield on CB Brent Grimes on Will Blackmon's 45-yard kickoff return... At Seattle (Oct. 12): Saw time in nickel situations and posted a tackle and a pass defensed, breaking up a Charlie Frye pass intended for TE John Carlson. Also led team with two special teams tackles...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Saw CHILLAR most extensive action of season as defense primarily used nickel package. Recorded a career-high 12 tackles, including a stop of RB Dominic Rhodes for a 1-yard loss in the first quarter (shared with Johnny Jolly)...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Playing in nickel package, registered five tackles and tied career high with two passes defensed, both in the third quarter, the first on Kerry Collins' pass intended for FB Ahmard Hall, and the second when he broke up Collins' throw on third down to TE Bo Scaife in the end zone... Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Started at WLB with Hawk moving to middle in place of an injured Barnett. Registered two QB hits and six tackles, including a stop of RB Matt Forté for a 4-yard loss on a fourth-quarter reception, and broke up a Kyle Orton pass intended for TE Desmond Clark in the third quarter... At New Orleans (Nov. 24): Started at WLB and led the team with 11 tackles (career-high 11 solo), including his first sack as a Packer when he brought down Drew Brees for a 5-yard loss in third quarter. Also made a big hit on WR Lance Moore on his pass attempt in third quarter that was intercepted by S Aaron Rouse... Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Started at WLB, recorded seven tackles and a QB pressure, and broke up a Jake Delhomme pass intended for WR Steve Smith over the middle in the third quarter...At Jacksonville (Dec. 14): Returned to starting lineup at WLB after missing previous game with groin injury and registered three tackles and a QB pressure. Led team with two passes defensed, including a breakup of a David Garrard pass intended for RB Maurice Jones-Drew in the first quarter... At Chicago (Dec. 22): Started at WLB as defense opened up in nickel and recorded eight tackles and a QB hit. Stopped Forté for no gain on first-quarter run and for a loss of 1 yard on run in third quarter... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Started at WLB, registered four tackles and a QB hit, and broke up a Dan Orlovsky pass intended for WR Calvin Johnson early in the second quarter.

2007: Played in 15 games with 14 starts, missing the first game of his career in regular-season finale at Arizona (Dec. 30) with a lower leg injury, which snapped a string of 63 consecutive games played (65 including playoffs)... Posted 85 tackles (58 solo), both career highs, and four passes defensed, plus career highs in sacks with 21/2 and forced fumbles with three... Vs. Carolina (Sept. 9): Among nine tackles (seven solo), had a tackle for loss and a forced and recovered fumble; in the third quarter with Panthers looking to add to a 14-13 lead, knocked the ball loose from RB DeShaun Foster and recovered at the St. Louis 3-yard line... Vs. Seattle (Nov. 25): Recorded 11/2 sacks of Hasselbeck, both plays coming on third down to force punts; marked the first multi-sack game of his career, and had another sack wiped out by an offsides penalty on a teammate... Vs. Atlanta (Dec. 2): Had (then) career- and season-high 11 tackles, including seven solo stops and two passes defensed...Vs. Green Bay (Dec. 16): Forced a fumble by hitting RB Ryan Grant just as he caught the ball on a dump-off pass; recovery by teammate Adam Carriker set up a Rams' TD that tied the game 7-7 in the first quarter.

2006: Played in all 16 games, starting 14, and had 77 tackles (54 solo), along with two sacks and one pass defensed...Led or tied for team lead in tackles three times, and also had four special teams tackles...Vs. Seattle (Oct. 15): Posted his first career sack as he brought down Hasselbeck, adding another in rematch with Seahawks a month later...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 26): Tallied a team-leading and then career-high 10 tackles (six solo), the first double-digit tackle game of his career.

2005: Played in all 16 games and started seven, holding a regular special-teams role...Had 61 tackles (39 solo) with one pass defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery...Also had 11 special teams tackles...Vs. Jacksonville (Oct. 30): Returned a blocked punt 29 yards for his first career TD...At Minnesota (Dec. 11): Posted a (then) career-high eight tackles for the second straight game, and recovered a fumble...At Dallas (Jan. 1): Along with seven tackles (five solo), notched his first career forced fumble in regular-season finale.

2004: Played in all 16 games, plus two playoff contests, with five starts...Saw most of his action on special teams, totaling a career-high 13 special teams tackles...From scrimmage, made 31 tackles (22 solo)...Vs. Arizona (Sept. 12): Made his first career start in season opener, posting four tackles (three solo)...At Atlanta (Sept. 19): Tallied his rookie high of seven tackles...At Buffalo (Nov. 21): Matched rookie best with seven tackles...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Led the team with three special teams tackles...2004 Draft: Selected by the Rams in the fourth round (130th overall).

COLLEGE: Started 35 of 49 games at UCLA, recording career totals of 255 tackles (149 solo), 12 sacks, 27½ tackles for loss, five fumble recoveries, three INTs, eight passes defensed and two blocked kicks...Majored in history... Senior season (2003): Earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors, starting every game at OLB and leading the team with a career-high 133 tackles (72 solo), plus two sacks, 8½ tackles for loss, one INT, five passes defensed, two fumble recoveries, and one blocked kick...His 133 tackles were the most in a season by a Bruin since 1989...Earned Pac-10 player of the week honors twice, posting 13 tackles (eight solo) with one INT vs. Illinois (Sept. 13) and getting 12 tackles (eight solo) and returning a blocked FG 65

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE, PACKERS HISTORY

Phil Bengtson, Vince Lombardi's hand-picked replacement, might have dealt with more pressure in 1970 than anyone who's ever coached the Packers. That season, his third and final as Green Bay head coach, ended at 6-8, with losses in four of his last five games (all on the road). What's more, Bengtson faced the toughest schedule ever thrown at the Packers. The toughest schedules in team history, based on opponent records at the end of that season:

		W	L	Pct	Packers Finish	Notable opponents
- 19	970	113	74	.604	6-8-0, tied for third, division	Super Bowl V champion Colts (twice), NFC champion Cowboys
- 19	921	21	14	.600	3-2-1, tied for sixth, league	League champion Chicago Staleys (9-1-1) in season finale
- 19	933	84	57	.596	5-7-1, third in division	Both NFL title participants (Bears & Giants) twice
- 19	926	79	55	.590	7-3-3, fifth in league	14-1-2 league champion Frankford Yellow Jackets
19	953	82	58	.586	2-9-1, sixth in conference	10-2 NFL champion Lions (twice), 11-1 Browns
19	957	81	63	.563	3-9-0, sixth in conference	Only one team with eventual losing record: Bears (5-7, twice)
- 19	954	77	60	.562	4-8-0, fifth in conference	9-2-1 conference champion Lions (twice)
- 19	935	70	57	.551	8-4-0, second in division	9-3 Giants, 7-3-2 NFL champion Lions (twice)
- 19	975	107	89	.546	4-10-0, tied for third, div.	12-2 Vikings (twice), 12-2 Rams, Super Bowl champion Steelers yards for a TD vs. California (Oct. 18)...Had a career-high 14 tackles twice, at Oklahoma (Sept. 20) and vs. Oregon (Nov. 15)...Junior season (2002): Was All-Pac-10 honorable mention, finishing third on the team with 74 tackles (50 solo) with five sacks...Had a game-ending INT in season opener vs. Colorado State (Sept. 7)...Sophomore season (2001): Had five sacks, including one in his first career start at Kansas (Sept. 8)...Freshman season (2000): Played in all 12 games, primarily on special teams.
19	958	76	64	.543	1-10-1, sixth in conference	NFL champion Colts (9-3, twice); Rams (8-4, twice)

PERSONAL: Given name Brandon O'Neil Chillar...Last name is pronounced CHILL-er...Born in Los Angeles... Single...Father's name is Ram, making for an interesting coincidence when he was drafted by St. Louis...His father lived in India until he was 18...High school: A first-team all-state selection at Carlsbad High in Carlsbad, Calif. Was also named San Diego Union-Tribune defensive player of the year and was selected to play in the California-Texas Shrine game and the California-Florida Bowl...Named to the North County Times team of the decade...A two-way star at LB and TE, added five TD catches on offense as a senior...Community involvement: Attended holiday party for Families of Children with Cancer in De Pere... Participated in Pros vs. GI Joes, playing an X-Box game against a soldier overseas and meeting with local military in attendance...Also participated in the local Pals Halloween party and the Edgar Bennett Celebrity Bowl-A-Thon to support the Angel Fund for children with cancer...Makes visits to his hometown high school to help coach the football team...Was involved with many football camps in the St. Louis area... Has been active with the American Red Cross blood drives and the Urban League Thanksgiving project of St. Louis...Helped to raise money for a golf outing in California for a cause close to his heart, cystic fibrosis, a disease which his cousin died from...In February, was involved in the ceremony for teammate Brett Swain's high school jersey retirement; the two players attended the same high school... Hobbies/interests: Was part of two trips with Packer Fan Tours, the first to Montego Bay, Jamaica, in March and the second an Alaskan cruise in May... In his free time enjoys spending time at the beach, playing video games (especially Madden), watching movies (naming 300 as one of his favorites), and fishing, particularly for halibut...Also is an avid reader and has read many books on religion lately...Residence: Carlsbad, Calif.

IMPOSTER

During the 1923 season, the Green Bay Press-Gazette published a major story announcing the Packers had signed Jack "Dollie" Gray, an end who'd received All-America honors at Princeton.

According to participation charts kept by George Calhoun, Gray started his only game played — a 24-3 loss to the Racine Legion at Bellevue Park.

Suspicious by Gray's performance, Curly Lambeau checked the player's background, only to discover he was an imposter. Lambeau quickly gave the player — whoever he was — his walking papers.

However, because he did play in a game, the Packers still list him on their all-time roster.

VETERANS

PRO CAREER: A solid presence at the left tackle position who remains steady at protecting the quarterback's blind side...As an unrestricted free agent, re-signed with the team in early March for an 11th season in which he could play in his 150th regular-season game with Green Bay, a mark reached by only 18 other players in franchise history...Has played in 143 games, with 138 starts, plus eight postseason contests... Has blocked for five of the top eight single-season rushers in franchise history (Ahman Green, 2001-03; Ryan Grant; 2008-09), and has helped pave the way for a 1,000-yard rusher in eight of his 10 seasons...Has been part of a top-10 offense in the league in seven of his 10 seasons in Green Bay...Following the devastating pelvic injury that prematurely ended his 2002 season, he has successfully returned to the field to start 106 of 112 games (112 of 118 including playoffs) over the past seven years...Came off arthroscopic surgery on both knees heading into 2009, but an early-season ankle injury limited him to 12 games, his fewest since '02...Over the past two years, has helped the Packers become the first team in NFL history to have a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,200-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in backto-back seasons...Made his lone Pro Bowl trip following the 2007 season as an alternate and injury replacement for Seattle's Walter Jones (shoulder), but has been named an alternate on three other occasions as well ('04, '05, '09)...During that Pro Bowl season of '07, solidified his reputation as one who can keep the opponent's premier pass rusher quiet, holding a trio of fellow '07 Pro Bowlers, the New York Giants' Osi Umenyiora, San Diego's Shawne Merriman and Kansas City's Jared Allen (also the league leader in sacks), to a total of a half sack to help the Packers tie for the third-fewest sacks allowed in the league with 19...Did the same over the past two years against the likes of Indianapolis' Dwight Freeney, Houston's Mario Williams and Pittsburgh's James Harrison...Is known for his textbook technique and an extensive regimen that gets his bumped and bruised body ready for gameday...Along with fellow veteran Mark Tauscher, stepped into more of a leadership position along the offensive line in 2005 with the offseason departures of guards Marco Rivera and Mike Wahle...Had a starting streak of 53 consecutive games (56 including playoffs) snapped in 2006 when he became violently ill with the flu the night before the contest at Miami (Oct. 22)...Subsequently missed only one of the next 44 contests (at Tennessee, Nov. 2, 2008, due to an allergic reaction to medication) before sustaining ankle injury in Week 2 of last season.

arely leaving the field at all when healthy, he was in for 88.5 percent of Green Bay's offensive snaps in 2008, 93.3 percent in '07, 93.1 percent in '06 and 94.2 percent in '05 after being the only Packers player (on either offense or defense) to have played every snap from scrimmage on his respective side of the ball in both the '03 and '04 seasons...Rewarded with a six-vear contract extension, through the 2009 season, on March 2, 2004, he certainly showed no signs of complacency the following year, helping the Packers to an all-time franchise-low 14 sacks during the '04 season... A year earlier, in his 2003 return to the field following an arduous offseason of rehabilitation, started all 16 games for the first time as a profes► Has blocked for five of the top eight single-season rushers in franchise history (Ahman Green, 2001-03; Ryan Grant; 2008-09), and has helped pave the way for a 1,000-yard rusher in eight of his 10 seasons in Green Bay.

the field in '03 from the serious pelvic injury that ended his

2002 season ► Went to his first Pro Bowl following 2007 season, filling in for an injured Walter Jones of Seattle. Held New York Giants

- Osi Umenyiora, San Diego's Shawne Merriman and Kansas City's Jared Allen to a total of 1/2 sack in head-to-head meetings that season ► Had 53-game starting streak snapped in 2006 by a bout with the flu the night before and morning of game at Miami
- (Oct. 22), and 33-game streak ended in '08 at Tennessee (Nov. 2) because of a pre-game illness due to a reaction to medication.
- ► As the left tackle, was a major factor in the Packers limiting opponents to an all-time franchise-low 14 sacks in 2004. Green Bay also did not allow a sack in eight games - another club single-season record.
- ► Played a pivotal role by shutting out Pro Bowl DE Simeon Rice - when Green Bay snapped the Buccaneers' 69-game streak with at least one sack in a 20-13 triumph at Tampa Bay, Nov. 16, 2003. Ironically, that game marked his return to Raymond James Stadium, where he had incurred his season-ending pelvic injury roughly a year earlier
- ► Played in two national championship games, including Fiesta Bowl victory over Florida State to culminate undefeated 1998 season, while a four-year starter at the University of Tennessee

sional and, as the left tackle, was a key cog in Green Bay allowing but 19 sacks - tied for the second fewest in the NFL and at the time the franchise low for a 16-game season...Included in that success was the Packers' Nov. 16. 2003, win at Tampa Bay - a game with tremendous personal ramifications for him - when Green Bay snapped the Buccaneers' NFL-record streak of 69 consecutive games with at least one sack...Just less than a year earlier (Nov. 24, 2002), on the same Raymond James Stadium field, his season had come to an untimely end when he suffered a badly sprained pelvis as the result of an unnecessary block on an interception return that he did not see coming (a play that the NFL made illegal in 2005)...Subsequently designated as Green Bay's 'franchise' player Feb. 24, 2004, he reached agreement with the Packers on his contract extension on the eve of free agency...Earlier, in 2001, was a large factor in Green Bay allowing the third-fewest sacks in the league (22), a figure that then also qualified as the least by a Packers team in 27 years... Was playing at a similarly high level in 2002 before the abrupt end to his season in Tampa...Had been thrust into the starting lineup seven games into his 2000 rookie campaign, immediately shoring up what had been a trouble spot for Green Bay early in the year... As a rookie starter, was not intimidated by the hostile crowds or noisy dome stadiums – situations he had encountered in the years prior as a standout at the University of Tennessee – while holding his own against some of the game's better pass rushers...A second-round draft choice of the Packers in 2000, joined fellow rookie Tauscher in the lineup that year to give Green Bay its first pair of starting rookie offensive tackles in 48 years.

2009 SEASON: Started 12 games at LT, plus the playoff contest, and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate...Had arthroscopic surgeries on both knees and both shoulders during the offseason...Part of line that blocked for Grant's career-high 1,253 rushing yards, his second straight 1,200-yard season, and member of an offense that ranked No. 6 in total yards...Helped Packers become the first team in NFL history to have a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,200-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in back-to-back seasons...Inactive at St. Louis (Sept. 27), at Minnesota (Oct. 5) and at Cleveland (Oct. 25) with ankle injury...Active but did not play vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1)...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Sprained his ankle on the first play of the third quarter on a Grant run and did not return, missing the next two contests... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Returned to starting lineup and helped block for Packers' 435 yards of total offense, but reinjured ankle late in the third guarter and did not return, sitting out the next two games as well... At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Returned to starting lineup at LT and helped block for Packers' 170 rushing yards on 32 carries (5.3 avg.), the team's secondbest output on the season... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Started and helped block for offense's season-high 484 total yards, including 129 yards rushing from Grant on 21 carries (6.1 avg.). Part of line that did not allow any sacks of Aaron Rodgers in the first half as he threw for 274 yards, his career high for any half in the regular season... At Detroit (Nov. 26): Injured hamstring on second drive of second half and did not return. Part of line that did not allow a sack of Rodgers in the first half... Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Helped limit the Ravens to just one sack of Rodgers as he threw for 263 yards and three TDs...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Helped clear the way for Grant's 137 yards on 20 carries (6.9 avg.); it was Grant's career-high average for a game with at least 20 carries. Blocked DE Alex Brown on Grant's 62-yard TD run off left tackle on the Packers' first play...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Part of a line that allowed just one sack as Rodgers threw for 383 yards and three TDs. Limited Pro Bowl OLB Harrison to one assisted tackle and no sacks... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Helped block for team's 153 rushing yards and five TDs on 32 carries (4.8 avg.), the first time the Packers posted five rushing TDs in a game since Oct. 9, 1988, vs. New England. Also helped protect Rodgers as he was sacked only one time, and didn't play in the fourth quarter (rest)...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Played first three quarters before resting for the fourth as the line didn't allow a sack of Rodgers in his three quarters of play that produced 235 passing yards...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Left game with just under 12 minutes remaining with a right ankle injury. Helped offense post team playoff-record 493 total yards, including franchise-record 423 yards passing from Rodgers.

2008: Started 15 games at LT and helped pave the way for Grant's (then) career-high 1,203 rushing yards...Also protected Rodgers on his way to 4,038 passing yards to give the Packers a 4,000-yard passer and a 1,200-vard rusher in the same season for the first time in team history...Played 88.5 percent of the offensive snaps, missing the Week 9 contest at Tennessee due to illness... Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Limited Allen, who finished tied for fifth in the NFL with 14.5 sacks, to no tackles and no sacks. Part of a line that helped pave the way for team's 139 rushing yards on 27 carries and did not allow a sack of Rodgers...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Part of line that blocked for Grant's 105 rushing yards, his first 100-yard game of the season, and did not allow a sack of Rodgers. Limited perennial Pro Bowl DE Freeney to no sacks and just two tackles... At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Had streak of 33 games started snapped when he did not play due to pre-game illness caused by a reaction to medication... Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Part of line that paved the way for team's 200 rushing yards, including season-best 145 from Grant. Line did not allow a sack or pressure of Rodgers all afternoon. On Grant's game-long 35-yard run in the first quarter, sealed DE Brown to open the hole... Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Blocked for Grant's 104 yards on 19 carries. Matched up with DE Williams, who finished tied for seventh in the league with 12 sacks, for much of the afternoon and held him to no sacks and just one tackle... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Blocked for team's 211 rushing yards, a season-best. Helped pave the way for Grant and RB DeShawn Wynn to each post 100 yards rushing, only the second time since 1985 that the Packers had a pair of 100-yard rushers in the same game.

2007: Started all 16 games and both playoff contests and was named to his first Pro Bowl, filling in for Seattle's Jones (shoulder injury)...Played 93.3 percent of the offensive snaps, the fifth straight year he played at least 93 percent...Was ranked as the Packers' top offensive player by Pro Football Weekly and Sporting News in their respective preseason previews, and went on to lead an offensive line that allowed just 19 sacks on the season... At New York Giants (Sept. 16): Held Umenyiora without a sack; suffered an ankle injury in the fourth quarter and missed a series while his ankle was re-taped... Vs. San Diego (Sept. 23): Held Pro Bowler Merriman without a sack...At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Held '07 sack leader Allen to a half sack... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Helped Green Bay amass a season-high 488 yards, and held the Vikings without a sack; Grant collected 119 yards rushing...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Was part of an offensive line that assisted Grant to 201 yards and three TDs, both Packers playoff records... Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Held Umenyiora without a sack.

2006: Started 15 games and played in 93.1 percent of the team's offensive snaps...Continued to work back to his Pro Bowl-caliber form after surgeries on his ankle in January and on his knee in May...Along with Tauscher, was one of two returning full-time starters on Green Bay's

FEWEST SACKS ALLOWED SINCE 2000

Tackle Chad Clifton has been a mainstay along the line since his rookie season in 2000 and is noted as one of the league's finest pass protectors. A look at the numbers since he entered the NFL:

Since Week 7, 2000 (Clifton's first start)

Indianapolis Colts 185

Green Bay Packers . . . 254

Tennessee Titans 264

San Diego Chargers . .266 Denver Broncos.276

San Diego Chargers . .288 Denver Broncos.290 offensive line...Played every snap on an offensive line that didn't allow a sack from the fourth quarter vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17) to the second quarter vs. St. Louis (Oct. 8); the streak covered 108 passing plays and included a shutout at Philadelphia (Oct. 2) against the Eagles' attacking defense... At Miami (Oct. 22): Was listed as inactive just before the 90-minute deadline, ending his streak of 53 straight starts, which had been tied with Tauscher and Al Harris for the second-longest active streak on the team behind Brett Favre; had battled flu-like symptoms the night before and the morning of the game, the first contest he missed since Warren Sapp ended his 2002 season... Vs. Arizona (Oct. 29): Helped the offense amass 203 yards on the ground (383 total) including 100-yard performances from both Green (106) and RB Vernand Morency (101). which was the first time the Packers had a pair of 100-yard rushers in the same game since Dec. 1, 1985, vs. Tampa Bay (Eddie Lee Ivery, Gerry Ellis)... At Chicago (Dec. 31): Played his 100th career game.

2005: Though nagged by an ankle injury for the final three-fourths of the season, started all 16 games at LT for the third straight year, playing 94.2 percent of the offensive snaps - second among offensive linemen and third among all players on offense... Was voted as an NFC Pro Bowl alternate a second straight year...At Carolina (Oct. 3): Sustained left ankle injury early in Monday night contest. forcing him to sit out quarters 2-4... Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 9): Though he missed most of practice in the week leading up to game, still started in 52-3 victory and shut out Saints DE Will Smith, who would go on to tie for eighth in the NFC in sacks...At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Helped to extend the offensive line's streak to 111 consecutive passing plays without a sack in border battle... Vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 6): Blanked Pittsburgh sack specialist Joev Porter (10.5 sacks in '05) in hard-fought loss to eventual Super Bowl champs... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 11): Threw several key blocks for rookie RB Samkon Gado as he rushed for a team rookie record 171 yards...Underwent offseason surgery (Jan. 16, 2006) to alleviate ankle problem.

as a professional, matter-of-factly shutting down several of the league's top pass rushers as Green Bay allowed an alltime franchise-low 14 sacks...Was a Pro Bowl alternate... Started all 16 games for the second consecutive season and played 100 percent of the team's offensive snaps during the regular season a second consecutive year, a feat matched only by linemate Wahle in '04...Was a catalyst in the Packers not allowing half of their regular-season opponents (an all-time high eight of 16) to record a sack... Following the season, was named to the 'All-Joe' team of USA Today as a player who is "overlooked and underappreciated" as well as to FOX Sports analyst Daryl Johnston's 'All-Lunch Pail Crew' for his blue-collar approach to football... At Carolina (Sept. 13): Kept Pro Bowl DE Julius Peppers from recording a sack in season-opening victory...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 19): Made his 50th NFL start (along with Tauscher)...At Indianapolis (Sept. 26): Turned in his top personal performance of the season in noisy, hostile RCA Dome, neutralizing the Colts' catquick Freeney, who would go on to lead the NFL with 16 sacks: Indy's Pro Bowl DE could post only one solo tackle in spite of the fact that he was playing on the fast track of his home stadium and the Packers were in catch-up mode for much of the contest... Vs. Minnesota (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Exited playoff game in the third quarter after spraining his left ankle; subsequently underwent arthroscopic surgery on that ankle Feb. 14, 2005.

2003: Returned successfully from the pelvic injury that had ended his 2002 season to start all 16 games for the first time as a professional...Was the only Green Bay lineman to play every offensive snap during the regular season...Also started both playoff contests...As a general rule, practiced only once a day early in training camp as he returned gradually from the pelvic injury that had cut short his '02 season, and he did not see game action until the third preseason contest (Aug. 15 at Cleveland)...His comeback efforts had been hindered by a pair of unrelated offseason operations...Underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right knee Jan. 31, 2003, to address cartilage damage tied to an MCL sprain from the '02 season, then later had his right elbow scoped April 14, 2003, to remove multiple loose bodies...Was personally responsible for

WHERE TITLETOWN MEETS TINSELTOWN

The 2008 release of Leatherheads, starring George Clooney and Renee Zellweger, was inspired by the tales of Johnny "Blood" McNally, who spent seven seasons in Green Bay. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Johnny "Blood" led the Packers to four championships (1929, '30, '31 and '36).

- ►Actor Matthew McConaughey's father was drafted by the Packers. The team selected James (Jim) McConaughey, an end, out of the University of Houston in the 27th round (319th overall) of the '53 draft. The elder McConaughey didn't see action in a league game.
- ▶ Alan Autry, who played Captain Bubba Skinner in the hit series In the Heat of the Night, also was drafted by Green Bay. GM/Head Coach Bart Starr drafted him in the 12th round (296th overall) of the 1975 draft. During training camp, Autry met director Robert Altman, who would give him a small part in the 1978 film Remember My Name. Autry's legal name was Carlos Brown (including his 1975-76 Packers tenure) until 1981, when he changed it while filming Southern Comfort, after meeting his biological father. Autry now owns a production company, and produced and starred in his first full-length film, The Legend of Jake Kincaid.
- ▶ The Packers were the subject of a 1937 MGM/UA movie, Pigskin Champions (left, Don Hutson and Arnie Herber collect autographs from one of their "co-stars," Pete Smith, while in Hollywood).
- ▶ Brett Favre made a cameo in the comedy There's Something About Mary (Cameron Diaz, Ben Stiller), as Mary's mysterious boyfriend.
- ► Gary Knafelc, Lambeau Field's former P.A. announcer who also caught the game-winning touchdown in the stadium's inaugural game, was an action as well. Using the screen name Gary Kincaid, he had roles in Palm Springs Weekend (1983) among other films.
- Springs Weekend (1963) among other films.

 ▶ Ray Nitschke had roles in The Longest Yard (1974), starring Burt Reynolds, and Head (1968).

only two pressures and a half sack, according to Green Bay coaches...Manned critical LT spot on an offensive line that permitted but 19 sacks - at the time a franchise low for a 16-game season and tied (with Indianapolis) for the second fewest in the NFL...Included in that low sack number was a (then) team-record six games without a sack allowed (since 1963, as far back as the stat can be tracked in team annals), including three straight contests (Sept. 14-21-29) with zero sacks for the first time in franchise history...Also helped the Packers to single-season franchise records for yards rushing (2,558) and yards per carry (5.05), including 1,883 yards by Green to break Jim Taylor's 41-year-old team rushing mark; Green Bay's 2,558 rushing yards ranked third in the NFL, behind only Baltimore (2,669) and Denver (2,629)...Played a part in November stretch in which the Packers rushed for 190 or more yards in four straight games...At St. Louis (Oct. 19): Blanked Rams' Pro Bowl DE Leonard Little (third in the NFC with 12½ sacks)...At Tampa Bay (Nov. 16): Played a pivotal role when Green Bay snapped the Buccaneers' NFL-record streak of 69 consecutive games with at least one sack in 20-13 triumph, shutting out Simeon Rice, the Bucs' Pro Bowl DE who ultimately would finish second in the NFC with 15 sacks.

2002: Turned in several notable performances before his season was ended by a pelvic injury after 11 games... Played in 10 of Green Bay's first 11 games, making nine starts at LT, and was inactive twice... Vs. Carolina (Sept. 29): Shut out Mike Rucker - the league's leading sacker entering the contest and the eventual NFC 'Defensive Player of the Month' - in victory over Panthers... At New England (Oct. 13): Was playing well before he sprained the MCL in his right knee, which made him inactive vs. Washington (Oct. 20)...At Miami (Nov. 4): Did not start as he continued to battle knee injury, but played the final two-and-a-half quarters as he neutralized DE Jason Taylor, who had been named AFC 'Defensive Player of the Week' days earlier and would go on to finish as the NFL sack leader with 18½...At Tampa Bay (Nov. 24): Had his year come to an abrupt end when he was blindsided by an unnecessary block during a third-quarter INT return.

Sprained the bones of his pelvis so severely that he was hospitalized for nearly a week (in both Tampa and Green Bay) and was unable to walk on his own for roughly another six weeks before beginning a full offseason of rehabilitation. Was placed on injured reserve Dec. 4.

2001: Played in 14 games, starting 13, in his first full season as the starter at LT...Also opened both playoff contests...Was inactive for one regular-season game and dressed for the other, though he did not play...Played a central role as Green Bay allowed the third-fewest sacks in the NFL (22) and the least by a Packers team in 27 years (17 in 1974) at that time...Vs. Washington (Sept. 24): Held Hall of Famer Bruce Smith without a sack in Monday night victory... Vs. Baltimore (Oct. 14): Despite playing with a left hamstring strain suffered a week earlier at Tampa Bay, shut out DE Michael McCrary, one of the AFC's top pass rushers, in triumph over the defending Super Bowl champions... Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 4): Sprained his left ankle early in the game, forcing him to be inactive for the ensuing contest, at Chicago (Nov. 11)...At Detroit (Nov. 22): Returned to the field, in a reserve capacity, for Thanksgiving Day battle, rotating in for Barry Stokes in the first half before taking the majority of snaps after halftime... At Jacksonville (Dec. 3): Returned to the starting lineup...Vs. Minnesota (Dec. 30): Picked up a big block of LB Jim Nelson on Donald Driver's 31yard TD run on a reverse, giving the Packers a 7-3 advantage late in the first half of eventual 24-13 win.

2000: Moved into the starting lineup at LT in the seventh game of his rookie season, taking over for Wahle... Played so well down the stretch against some of the NFL's best pass rushers that he drew serious consideration for all-rookie honors...Helped Green Bay average 117.3 yards rushing per game over the final 10 contests - a 39-yard improvement over the 78.3 yards per game the Packers put forth in the first six weeks when he wasn't starting... Saw action in 13 games, starting the last 10...Saw his rookie season get off to a slow start when he suffered a mild sprain of his right MCL during one-on-one passblocking drills in practice Aug. 16, causing him to miss the Packers' final two preseason games and to be inactive for the first two regular-season contests (vs. New York Jets, at Buffalo)...Dressed, but did not play, vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 17)...At Arizona (Sept. 24): Made his NFL debut, seeing late-game action at LT in a 29-3 win...At Detroit (Oct. 8): Played the majority of the second half at LT after Wahle went out due to a calf strain, holding up well against DE Tracy Scroggins, who had generated 1½ sacks and significant pressure before Clifton got onto the field...Vs. San Francisco (Oct. 15): Made his first NFL start, opening up at LT. Along with Tauscher, gave Green Bay its first pair of starting rookie tackles in 48 years (Tom Johnson-Bob Dees, Nov. 16, 1952, at N.Y. Giants)... At Miami (Oct. 29): Held his own against Taylor, whose 141/2 sacks ended up second in the AFC, in his initial significant challenge since becoming a starter...At Tampa Bay (Nov. 12): Held DE Marcus Jones (fourth in the NFC with 13 sacks) without a sack, and prevented him from making even a single tackle... At Minnesota (Dec. 17): Shut down DT John Randle in upset victory over Vikings inside the noisy Metrodome...2000 Draft: Selected in the second round (44th overall), and was the fifth OL picked in the draft. First OL drafted by the Packers out of the University of Tennessee since T Jim Haslam in 1953. At the time, was the highest selection used on a player from UT in team history (Justin Harrell, 16th overall in 2007). One of nine Volunteers drafted in 2000.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter (1996-99) who began his collegiate career at RT before spending his final three seasons at LT...A two-time All-Southeastern Conference selection, he also earned second-team All-America honors from Sporting News as a senior...Played in two national championship games - including Fiesta Bowl victory over Florida State to culminate unbeaten 1998 season - four bowl games and two SEC championship games...Started 45 of 48 career games played as a collegian, including 26 straight starts...Enjoyed a 43-7 on-field record (.860) during the four seasons in which he played for the Volunteers...Majored in psychology...Senior season (1999): Served as one of six team captains while opening at LT in 11 of 12 contests...Earned second-team All-America honors from Sporting News and was a second-team All-SEC pick by the conference's coaches...Junior season (1998): Named first-team All-SEC by Football News and second-team all-conference by The Associated Press and league's coaches...Started all 13 games at LT as Vols went 13-0 and captured the '98 national title... Sophomore season (1997): Played in all 13 games, starting 12 at LT, as Volunteers won SEC title before losing to Nebraska in national championship (Orange Bowl)...Was part of an offensive line that allowed only one sack per 35 snaps - a school record...Redshirt freshman season (1996): Took over at RT after incumbent Jarvis Reado broke his leg in the third game of the year...Played in 11 of the Vols' 12 games, starting nine, including Florida Citrus Bowl victory over Northwestern.

▶2004 Designated franchise player by Packers, Feb. 24... Signed six-year contract extension, through 2009, March 2

►2010 Signed three-year contract extension, through 2012, as unrestricted free agent, March 6.

NFL debut: at Arizona, 9/24/00 First NFL start: vs. San Fran., 10/15/00

Additional statistics: Miscellaneous tackles — 1 in 2001, 1 in 2002, 1 in 2003, 1 in 2007, 1 in 2008; NFL total: 5. Miscellaneous fumble recoveries — 1 in 2003.

CURRENT CONTRACT EXPIRATION: After 2012

PRO CAREER: A resilient offensive lineman who has gone through ups and downs as a young player and enters his fifth season fighting for a starting spot at left guard once again...The competition is nothing new, having been put in the position of battling to keep or win a starting job a handful of times in his career...Is the only offensive lineman on the team to start every game the past two seasons...Coming off a 2009 campaign in which he played 97.4 percent of the offensive snaps, second on the team for a player on either side of the ball behind fellow guard Josh Sitton (100 percent)...Overall performance didn't measure up, however, to his steady, consistent 2008 season, his best as a pro, when he was one of only two players, along with Jason Spitz, to take every snap on offense...In four seasons, has not missed a game, starting 60 of 64 contests (including a stretch of 43 in a row, and 63 of 67 overall including playoffs), with all but five of the starts coming at left guard...Over the past two years, has helped Packers become the first team in NFL history to have a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,200-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in back-to-back seasons...Also was named Packers' 2009 Walter Payton Man of the Year... Has faced summer and in-season competitions before, having won the left guard spot in 2008 training camp, regained his starting job for the conclusion of the 2007 season and playoffs after losing it for three weeks, and reclaimed his place in the starting lineup in Week 2 of his rookie season due to an injury to fellow rookie Spitz...That first season, 2006, lost his starting spot in the preseason opener but ended up starting 15 games (including one as an emergency fill-in for Chad Clifton at left tackle) on his way to All-Rookie honors...Head Coach Mike McCarthy called him the team's most improved player, when he was named to the midseason All-Rookie Team of Sports Illustrated's Peter King and the postseason All-Rookie Team of Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association...Was a four-year starter (2002-05) at left tackle for Boise State, though the Green Bay coaching staff immediately penciled him in as the designated starter at left guard...Highly durable at Boise State, established the school record for consecutive games played and started (both 52)...Was a three-time All-Western Athletic Conference selection for the Broncos, earning first-team honors in 2004 and 2005 after receiving second-team recognition in 2003...At Boise State during a period of remarkable success, the school posted a 45-7 record (.865) during his four seasons as a starter, including a 31-1 conference mark en route to four straight WAC championships...Upon being chosen by the Packers with the 47th overall pick, he became the eighth Alaskan to be drafted by an NFL team - and the highest ever, topping Reggie Tongue, who went 58th overall to Kansas City in 1996...Interestingly, lived on S. Santa Claus Lane while growing up in North Pole, Alaska, a city located 14 miles southeast of Fairbanks that has a population of just over 1,600 people and features candy cane-themed light poles.

2009 SEASON: Started all 16 games for the second straight season, opening 14 at LG and two at LT...One of only two offensive linemen, along with Sitton, to start every game...Part of line that blocked for RB Ryan Grant's career-high 1,253 rushing yards, his second straight 1,200-yard season, and member of an offense that ranked ► Named Packers' 2009 Walter Payton Man of the Year, the only league award that recognizes player off-the-field community service as well as playing excellence.

▶ Played 97.4 percent of the offensive snaps in 2009, second on the team for any player on either side of the ball behind fellow quard Josh Sitton. In 2008, joined 73

at a glance..

Jason Spitz as the only offensive players to play every snap.

► Has shown his durability by never missing a game in the NFL or in college, a combined total of 116 games (119 including plansiff).

Named to the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie Team in 2006, when he started every game except Week 1

Played at Boise State during a period of tremendous success as the Broncos posted a 45-7 record from 2002-05, including a 31-1 conference mark en route to four straight Western Athletic Conference championships.

▶ Became the highest-ever NFL draft choice from the state of Alaska – and the eighth overall – when he was picked 47th overall in 2006 by Green Bay, topping Reggie Tongue, who went 58th to Kansas City in 1996.

▶ Grew up in North Pole, Álaska, a town populated by just over 1,600 that is located 14 miles southeast of Fairbanks. His boyhood home was located on S. Santa Claus Lane and the city was known for its candy cane-themed light poles.

No. 6 in total yards...Helped Packers become the first team in NFL history to have a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,200-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in back-to-back seasons... Named Packers' 2009 Walter Payton Man of the Year, the only league award that recognizes player off-thefield community service as well as playing excellence... Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Started at LG, but slid over to LT on the first series of the third quarter when Clifton left the game with an ankle injury, and remained there for the rest of the contest... At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Started at LT in place of an injured Clifton. Helped clear the way for Grant's 99 yards on 26 carries, including 50 yards in the fourth quarter, and part of line that did not allow a sack of QB Aaron Rodgers in the final three quarters... At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Started again at LT, the first time in his career that he opened back-to-back games at the position, but left early in the fourth quarter with a knee injury and did not return... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Returned to starting LG position, where he remained for rest of season, and helped block for Packers' 435 yards of total offense. Part of line that protected Rodgers on his way to 358 passing yards, giving him back-to-back games with 350-plus yards for the first time in his career... At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Part of a line that did not allow a sack of Rodgers all afternoon and blocked for Grant's season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5 avg.). Team's 202 yards on the ground was also a season best ... At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Helped block for Packers' 170 rushing yards on 32 carries (5.3 avg.), the team's second-best yardage output on the season...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Helped block for offense's season-high 484 total yards, including 129 yards rushing from Grant on 21 carries (6.1 avg.). Part of line that did not allow any sacks of Rodgers in the first half as he threw for 274 yards, his career high for any half in the regular season...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Started at LG and helped block for Grant's 137 yards on 20 carries (6.9 avg.), his career-high average for a game with at least 20 carries. Threw key block on LB Lance Briggs on Grant's 62vard TD run off left tackle on Packers' opening play... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Helped block for team's 153 rushing vards and five TDs on 32 carries (4.8 avg.), the first time the Packers posted five rushing TDs in a game since Oct. 9, 1988, vs. New England. Also helped protect Rodgers as he was sacked only one time. On RB Brandon Jackson's screen pass that he took 13 yards for the score in the first quarter, had key block down the field on S Jordan Babineaux. Got to the second level to clear LB David Hawthorne on Grant's 56-yard TD run in the second quarter... At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started and helped offense post team playoff-record 493 total yards, including franchise-best 423 yards passing from Rodgers.

2008: Started all 16 games for the first time in his career, and was one of only two players (Spitz) to take every offensive snap...Joined Spitz as the only linemen to start at three different spots on the offensive line...Opened up 14 games at LG and one each at LT and RT...Blocked for Grant's (then) career-high 1,203 rushing yards, and also protected Rodgers on his way to 4.038 passing yards to give the Packers a 4,000-yard passer and a 1,200-yard rusher in the same season for the first time in team history...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Part of a line that did not allow a sack of Rodgers and cleared the way for 139 yards on the ground. Provided a key block on Grant's 57-yard run in the fourth guarter, taking out DT Pat Williams...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Helped team rush for 123 yards, and also saw time at RG in the second half when Allen Barbre came in at LG...Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Started at LG but moved over to LT in the third quarter for an injured Clifton (hamstring), where he played the rest of the game...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Started at LT for first time since Oct. 22, 2006, at Miami in place of Clifton, who missed the game due to illness... Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Part of line that paved the way for team's 200 rushing yards, including a season-high 145 from Grant. Line did not allow a sack or pressure of Rodgers all afternoon... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Started first game of his career at RT, but moved over to customary LG spot in the third quarter when injuries to C Scott Wells and Barbre forced the line to reshuffle. Blocked for team's season-high 211 rushing vards. Helped pave the way for Grant and RB DeShawn Wynn to each post 100-plus yards rushing, only the second time since 1985 that the Packers accomplished that feat. Provided several key blocks down the field on Wynn's 73-yard TD run in the first quarter, the longest run by the Packers on the season.

2007: Started 13 games, played in all 16, and started at LG in both playoff contests...Filled in at both tackle spots when needed...At N.Y. Giants (Sept. 16): Moved to LT in the fourth quarter for a series when Clifton went out temporarily with an ankle injury; on another fourth-quarter series, pinned DE Justin Tuck inside, allowing Wynn to burst ahead for a 38-yard TD...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Started at LG and shifted to RT in the third quarter after Mark Tauscher left the game with an ankle injury; Colledge noted it marked the first time since high school he played at RT. Helped Green Bay amass a season-high 488 yards, and held the Vikings without a sack; Grant collected 119 yards rushing...At Dallas (Nov. 29): Started, but Spitz replaced him in the second quarter (coach's decision), with Junius Coston filling in at Spitz's RG spot... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Regained starting spot at LG and shifted to LT for Clifton in the second half. Helped the team rush for 217 yards, 113 coming from Jackson, the first 100-yard rushing performance of his career... Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Was part of an offensive line that assisted Grant to 201 yards and three TDs, both Packers playoff records. On Grant's 24-yard run in the third quarter, took out LB Lofa Tatupu.

2006: Played in all 16 games during his rookie season...Spent the offseason and first portion of training camp as the starter at LG, but after the preseason opener at San Diego (Aug. 12), fellow rookie Spitz was moved to LG and Tony Moll was promoted to start at RG...Played primarily at LT, his college position, the rest of the preseason...Made NFL debut in the season opener, on special teams, then started the final 15 games -- 14 at LG and one at LT...Started in Week 2 vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17) for an injured Spitz and never relinquished the role, even after Spitz returned to health and was re-inserted at RG... Wound up on the field for 1,060 offensive plays (94.9 percent), third on the team behind QB Brett Favre and Wells... Played every snap on an offensive line that didn't allow a sack from the fourth quarter vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17) to the second quarter vs. St. Louis (Oct. 8); the streak covered 108 passing plays and included a shutout at Philadelphia (Oct. 2) against the Eagles' attacking defense...At season's end, called the team's most improved player by McCarthy...Named to the prestigious Pro Football Weekly/ Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie Team... Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17): Made his first NFL start, at LG for Spitz (thigh bruise)...At Miami (Oct. 22): Shifted from LG to LT with Clifton inactive (illness) as the Packers started three rookies on the offensive line for the first time since at least the 1970 merger, according to Elias Sports Bureau; was part of an offensive line that blocked for 155 yards rushing, including 118 from RB Ahman Green... Vs. Arizona (Oct. 29): Helped the offense amass 203 yards on the ground (383 total) including 100-yard performances from both Green (106) and RB Vernand Morency (101), the first time the Packers had a pair of 100-yard rushers in the same game since Dec. 1, 1985, vs. Tampa Bay (Eddie Lee Ivery, Gerry Ellis)...2006 Draft: Selected in the second round (47th overall), and was the sixth OL picked. Was the first of two second-round choices by Green Bay; the Packers utilized a pick obtained from Atlanta in a draftday trade down 10 spots that included the 37th overall selection received from Denver for WR Javon Walker. Became only the second player in Boise State history to be selected in the top 50 of the draft (DE Markus Koch, 30th overall in 1986).

PACKERS HEAD-COACHING DEBUTS

COLLEGE: A four-year starter and a three-time All-WAC selection for Boise State, earning first-team honors in 2004 and 2005 after receiving second-team recognition in 2003... Highly durable, established the school record for consecutive games played and started (both 52)...At Boise State during a period of remarkable success, the school posted a 45-7 record (.865) during his four seasons as a starter, including a 31-1 conference mark en route to four straight WAC championships...Also contributed to three consecutive top-20 rankings from 2002-04 and to a 31-game home winning streak that stood as the nation's longest active string until it was ended in his final collegiate game...Three times he was named as the school's 'Outstanding Offensive Lineman' (2003-05)...Also set several records in the BSU weight room during the spring of 2005, including 438 pounds in the power clean and 665 pounds in the back squat...Earned B.A. degree in communications...Senior season (2005): Was one of only four senior starters on a team that finished 9-4, including a 7-1 conference mark that allowed it to capture the WAC title...Started all 13 games at LT, stretching his personal starting streak to a school-record 52 games when he lined up against Boston College in the MPC Computers Bowl (Dec. 28) in his final game as a collegian...Garnered firstteam all-conference honors and was chosen as the top offensive lineman in the WAC for the second straight year... Tabbed as the school's 'Outstanding Offensive Lineman' for a third consecutive season...Recorded a season-best 11 knockdowns in win at Hawaii (Oct. 1) and blocked a pair of fourth-quarter kicks, both of which led to BSU points - a FG try, returned by CB Orlando Scandrick for a TD, and a PAT, run back for two points (also by Scandrick)...Allowed only one sack all season (Nov. 5 vs. New Mexico State)... Was on the preseason "watch" lists for the 2005 Outland and Rotary Lombardi awards...Junior season (2004): Earned first-team All-WAC recognition an initial time while starting all 12 games at LT...Also was chosen as the conference's top offensive lineman and the fifth-best player overall in the league...Had a hand in a school-record 49 rushing TDs...Was honored as 'Outstanding Offensive Lineman' at BSU for a second straight year... LOGO HISTORY

1950-53: In their first season after Curly Lambeau's 31-year reign, the "New Packers" introduce their first identifying mark; the logo is also present on 1950 stock certificates. It changes colors over the four years, as the team experiments with several uniform combinations.

1993: Commemorative logo, worn on jersey during '93 season, signifying the team's 75th professional season, since its birth in 1919. Wearing logo, team earned first playoff berth in 11 years, kicking off string of six straight postseason trips.

2003: Patch team wore for first two home games of '03 to commemorate rededication

of Lambeau

ing three-year. $295-million renovation.

1954-61: Looking for a fresh look with new coach Lisle Blackbourn, the team unveils new uniforms and a new mark. The logo locates both Green Bay and Milwaukee on a Wisconsin silhouette. The passer wears No. 41, worn two decades earlier by both Arnie Herber and Clarke Hinkle.

1959-74: Sideline logo, worn on hats, shirts and jackets by coaches, equipment managers and trainers at both games and practice. Coincided with Vince Lombardi's first season, then retained by Phil Bengtson and Dan Devine.

1961-69: The primary logo during the Lombardi era, used on official Packers stationery and publications. The team won five world championships under the mark. Before the '69 season, after Lombardi's departure to Washington, team letterhead shifts to a helmet logo. The mark still sees use into the '70s, though.

After introducing the G, the team immediately won two world titles (1961-62), and five over the mark's first seven years. Borrowed by scores of high schools and colleges

2006: Commemorative mark recognizing the 10th anniversary of the team's Super Bowl XXXI triumph over the New England Patriots.

2007: Emblem celebrating the 50th anniversary of venerable Lambeau Field. worn on home jerseys and painted in the end zones on the world-famous stadium grass.

year last season, becoming the first Packers safety to receive that recognition in back-to-back seasons since Le-Roy Butler (1996-98)...Also earned second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press for the second straight season...Leads all NFL safeties with 13 interceptions since 2008, and leads the league with 405 interception return yards over that span...Is tied for second with four interception returns for touchdowns since 2006, trailing only teammate Charles Woodson (seven)...Took on increased responsibilities as a signal caller in '09 in new defensive coordinator Dom Capers' 3-4 scheme, and started all 16 games at free safety for the fourth time in five seasons... Finished second on the team with six interceptions, tied for fifth in the league...That followed a 2008 campaign that saw him intercept a career-best seven passes, nearly tripling his previous career total, and returned three of them for TDs in earning his first Pro Bowl berth, the first Packers safety to earn the honor since Darren Sharper in 2002...Became the first NFL safety to run back three INTs for TDs in a season since Kansas City's Lloyd Burruss in 1986, and tied Herb Adderley (1965) for the singleseason franchise record in the category (Woodson also tied the mark in 2009)...Also led the NFL in INT return yards with 295 in '08, the sixth-best single-season mark in NFL history, which also topped Bobby Dillon's previous single-season franchise mark of 244...Is tied with Johnny (Blood) McNally for No. 5 on the Packers' all-time list for INT returns for TDs with four, needing one to tie Sharper and Dillon for third...Showed the first true glimpse of his game-changing ability in the 2006 regular-season finale at Chicago, when he intercepted two passes and returned one for a TD in Green Bay's resounding victory over the eventual NFC champion Bears...In 2007, remained reliable and productive, but did not turn in those big plays in part due to a knee injury that forced him to miss the first and only three games of his career, plus a nagging back issue that he played through repeatedly in 2008...Upon drafting Collins, GM Ted Thompson assigned the rookie No. 36, last worn by four-time Pro Bowler Butler; Thompson told Butler he wouldn't give out the number to just any player, tabbing Collins worthy of the honor...Collins answered by earning the Packers' 2005 Defensive Rookie of the Year award...Took a little more than a week of his rookie training camp to gain his bearings, then grabbed onto the starter's role at free safety and never relinquished it... Turned heads prior to the 2005 draft with a 40-inch vertical leap... Was the first of two second-round choices by Green Bay in the 2005 draft (51st overall and 12th defensive back), the Packers utilizing the pick acquired from New Orleans for CB Mike McKenzie in October 2004...Led the Mid-Eastern seasons in college, earning all-league honors both years and successfully filling the void as Bethune-Cookman's playmaker after three-time Division I-AA All-American CB

Rashean Mathis departed for the NFL (Jaguars)...Also was a third-team Division I-AA All-America pick as a senior...

Is only the second Bethune-Cookman athlete ever to play for the Packers, joining T Steve Collier, who suited up for Selected to the Pro Bowl for the second straight season in 2009, becoming the first Packers safety to earn the honor in back-to-back seasons since LeRoy Butler

Tied Adderley (1965) for team single-season record with the three INT returns for scores...Led league with 295 INT return yards, which is sixth-most in a single season in NFL history and tops in Green Bay history, besting Dillon's mark (244 in 1956)...Along with Woodson, became only the second tandem in franchise history to each post 165-plus INT return yards in a season (Symank/Dillon, 1957)...Along with Woodson and Tramon Williams, became first Packers trio to each post five INTs in a season since 1996 (Eugene Robinson, Doug Evans, Butler)...Second on the team with a career-high 18 passes defensed...On the field for 986-of-1,050 (93.9 percent) defensive snaps, which ranked third on the team... At Detroit (Sept. 14): Posted second TD of his career when he intercepted QB Jon Kitna with just over two minutes remaining and returned the pick 42 yards for the score... Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Intercepted a Romo pass toward end of first quarter in the end zone, and returned it 61 yards. Posted eight tackles and two passes defensed on the night, but left game in third quarter with a bruised back and did not return...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Posted INT in third straight game when he picked off QB Brian Griese's pass intended for WR Antonio Bryant in third quarter. Made eight tackles and added two passes defensed, but left game in the third quarter after reinjuring back... Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Recorded career-high 13 tackles, including stop of RB Jerious Norwood for a 2-yard loss on a reception from QB Matt Ryan in the second quarter... At Seattle (Oct. 12): Posted team-high 10 tackles, plus forced a fumble by RB Julius Jones on 1-yard run in third quarter that went out of bounds... Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Recorded career-high fourth INT on the season when he picked off QB Peyton Manning's pass that went off the hands of WR Reggie Wayne. Weaved 62 yards with the pick for a TD, his career long for an INT return. On the next series, broke up a pass in the end zone intended for WR Marvin Harrison... At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Picked off QB Gus Frerotte's deep pass over the middle to TE Visanthe Shiancoe and returned the INT 59 yards for a TD, his third score of the season... Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Recorded 11 tackles, a career-best third game on the season with double-digit tackles, before leaving game late in fourth quarter after sustaining shin injury making a tackle of FB Vonta Leach on the sideline... At Chicago (Dec. 22): Picked off QB Kyle Orton's pass intended for WR Devin Hester at the Green Bay 11 early in the fourth quarter and returned the INT 28 yards. Led team with four passes defensed to match his career high, breaking up two Orton passes that were near-INTs...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Recorded three tackles, an INT and tied for the team lead with two passes defensed. Picked off QB Dan Orlovsky's deep pass intended for WR Calvin Johnson late in the fourth quarter at the goal line and returned it 61 yards to the Lions' 39, but was credited with 37 yards because of a block-in-the-back penalty... Pro Bowl (Feb. 8): Started at FS and made one solo tackle and two special teams tackles in NFC's 30-21 victory.

2007: Started 13 games, plus both playoff contests, and was inactive for three games...Made 62 tackles (45 solo), plus six passes defensed...At Minnesota (Sept. 30): Suffered knee injury after making a second-quarter, TD-saving tackle on RB Adrian Peterson; missed parts of two defensive series, but returned to play the entire second half. Finished second on the team with a season-high eight tackles (three solo)...Vs. Chicago (Oct. 7): Made seven tackles (six solo), with one pass defensed. In the

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

In 1978, the Baltimore Colts started an effort to raise funds for abused children and conceived an award they named after their longtime trainer, the late Ed Block. In 1984, the award was taken league-wide to honor one player from each team who, in the eyes of his teammates, best exemplifies and displays courage. Below are the Packers winners, as voted by their teammates, 1984-2009:

1984 Ron	Cassidy 1993	Johnny Holland	2002
1985 Ezra J	lohnson 1994	George Teague	2003
1986 Karl	Swanke 1995	Reggie White	2004
1987 Keith	Uecker 1996	Brett Favre	2005
1988 Mark	Murphy 1997	Robert Brooks	2006
1989 Herman F	ontenot 1998	Craig Newsome	2007
1990 Perr	y Kemp 1999	Earl Dotson	2008
1991 Vai Si	kahema 2000	Josh Bidwell	2009
1992 Tootie F	Robbins 2001	Santana Dotson

fourth quarter, leaped and got his hand on a Griese throw, tipping the pass into the hands of LB Brady Poppinga for the INT...At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Made two solo tackles and one pass defensed before leaving the game in the third quarter with a knee injury; did not return and missed the next three contests...Vs. Oakland (Dec. 9): Posted five tackles (four solo) and one pass defensed. In the first quarter, stopped RB Justin Fargas for a 2-yard loss on fourth-and-1.

2006: Started all 16 games at FS and finished third on the team with 16 passes defensed -surpassing the nine he totaled as a 2005 rookie -- and finished fifth on the team and second Packers DBs among with a career-high 102 tackles (82 solo)...Also picked off three passes, returning one for his first NFL TD, forced a fumble, and notched one special teams tackle...Saw action in 999 of the team's defensive plays (95.7 percent)...His versatility allowed him to play corner in the team's dime package...Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17): Deflected a Drew Brees pass into the arms of CB Al Harris; also shifted to CB in the dime package, and on two third downs -- including late in the game with the Packers trailing by a TD -- stopped

RB Reggie Bush on dump-off passes to force punts...At Detroit (Sept. 24): Led the team with a career-high four passes defensed. In the fourth quarter on a crucial Lions third-and-1, took down RB Kevin Jones from behind for a 1-yard loss (DT Corey Williams sacked Kitna on fourth down to change possession); then, on the last play of the game -- a Hail Mary attempt by Kitna -- got up to knock the ball down, preserving a 31-24 win... At San Francisco (Dec. 10): Made his first INT of the season and second of his career, diving for a Smith pass intended for Davis; Green Bay took a 24-13 lead two plays later on a 68-yard Donald Driver catch-and-run...At Chicago (Dec. 31): Posted a career-high two INTs. In first quarter, stepped in front of a QB Rex Grossman pass intended for TE Desmond Clark and returned it 55 yards for his first NFL TD; in the fourth quarter, intercepted a Griese throw on third-and-13 on what turned out to be Chicago's final offensive play.

2005: Promising second-round draft pick who started all 16 games at FS, earning a spot on the prestigious All-Rookie team announced by PFW/PFWA...Finished fourth on the team with 96 tackles (66 solo)...Also ranked third with nine passes defensed, including one INT, and forced a fumble...Began working with the first-team defense prior to the first preseason game and did not look back, becoming an important contributor to the NFL's No. 1 passing defense...Added 10 stops on special teams and secured each of the team's two opponent onside kick attempts, extinguishing potential rallies in wins over Atlanta and Seattle...At Detroit (Sept. 11): Posted two solo tackles in his first NFL game and start, becoming the first Packers rookie to start a regular-season opener at safety since Chuck Cecil in 1988; Cecil, a fourth-round pick out of Arizona, lined up in the backfield Sept. 4, 1988, a 34-7 loss to QB Jim Everett and the L.A. Rams in Lindy Infante's first contest as Packers coach... Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 9): Made seven tackles (three solo) and forced one fumble with a jarring hit on TE Ernie Conwell that DE Kenny Peterson returned 8 yards, leading to a three-play TD drive... At Cincinnati (Oct. 30): Notched six tackles (four solo) and a then career-high three passes defensed; delivered a highlight-reel hit on WR Chad Johnson to knock the ball loose and, on the next play, nearly intercepted a QB Carson Palmer pass intended for Johnson, forcing a punt...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 21): Totaled 11 tackles (eight solo) and two passes defensed, including his first career INT. a QB Brad Johnson sideline pass intended for RB Mewelde Moore. In the second half, broke up a long pass in the second half, blasting WR Koren Robinson before he could make the catch, and dropped Moore for a 5-yard loss on third down, forcing a punt... At Baltimore (Dec. 19): Paced the team with a (then) career-high 12 tackles (career-high 11 solo)...2005 Draft: Chosen by the Packers as the first of two second-round selections (51st overall and 12th defensive back), using a choice obtained from New Orleans in the McKenzie trade six months prior.

COLLEGE: Was a three-year letterman and two-year starter at Division I-AA Bethune-Cookman...In 34 games (23 starts), had 144 tackles (89 solo), one sack, 13 passes defensed and 13 INTs -- two of which he returned for scores...Also rushed once for 12 yards and returned 10 kickoffs for 215 yards...Paced the MEAC in INTs each of his last two seasons, earning all-conference honors both years and filling a vacancy in the Bethune-Cookman secondary created when Mathis left for the NFL...Majored in recreation... Senior season (2004): A third-team Division I-AA All-America pick of The Associated Press, starting all 10 games at FS...Earned first-team All-MEAC honors after leading the conference in INTs with six (for 108 yards)...Began his senior campaign by intercepting QB Antonio Lovelady early in the third quarter of 27-14 victory at Arkansas-Pine Bluff (Sept. 11), then running 38 yards to the end zone to give B-CC a commanding 17-0 advantage...Closed out his collegiate career with a memorable performance in a 58-52, double-OT triumph over Florida A&M in Orlando (Nov. 20). Recorded nine tackles and intercepted FAMU QB Ben Dougherty at the B-CC 8-yard line with 1:49 left to keep the game tied and send it into OT... Junior season (2003): Started 11 of 12 games at FS and led the MEAC in INTs with six...Had a career-high two INTs in a pair of games...Scored his first TD as a collegian when he returned an INT 45 yards at Norfolk State (Sept. 27)...Sophomore season (2002): Spent most of season as a reserve LB before starting the final two games at SS...Freshman season (2001): Sat out season under NCAA's Proposition 48 guidelines.

MASON CROSBY

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 207 Fourth NFL Season Fourth Packers Season

Born: September 3, 1984 NFL Gm. Played/Started: 48/0 Acquired: D6c-07

PRO CAREER: Fourth-year kicker known for his strong leg and level head, will look to bounce back from his first true "slump" as a pro...Endured a four-game stretch in 2009 during which he missed a field goal from 43 yards or closer in each contest, preventing him from reaching the 80-percent efficiency threshold once again (27-of-36, 75.0 percent) after narrowly missing in his first two seasons (79.5 in 2007, 79.4 in 2008)...Still managed to score 129 points in 2009 to push his three-year total to 397, an NFL record for a player in his first three seasons and the second-most in the league from 2007-09 behind New England K Stephen Gostkowski (410)...That scoring total also ranks as the most in franchise history by a kicker for a three-year span and second in the team's record books for any player, trailing only Paul Hornung, who posted 416 points from 1959-61 as a kicker and running back...Needs 117 points in 2010 to break Gostkowski's mark (513) for the most points in a player's first four seasons...Remains productive on kickoffs, following up a career-best 17 touchbacks in 2008 -- the most by a Packers kicker since Chester Marcol's 28 in 1972 and since kickoffs were moved back to the 30-yard line in 1994 -- with 12 more in 2009, bringing his three-year total to 43, which ranks ninth in the league from 2007-09...Also produced two successful onside kicks last season, including one in the NFC Wild Card playoff contest...Overall in three seasons has made 85-of-109 field goals (78.0 percent) and 142-of-143 PATs, his lone miss coming at St. Louis this past season (Sept. 27) and breaking a string of 100 straight (108 including playoffs) to begin his pro career...That miss ended a string of 168 consecutive PATs overall dating back to his sophomore season in college at Colorado, with his previous miss coming on Nov. 6, 2004, at Kansas.

ecorated rookie year began by winning the kicking job from incumbent Dave Rayner during 2007 training camp as a sixth-round draft pick...Captured the league scoring title with 141 points, becoming the first rookie to lead the league since Chicago K Kevin Butler in 1985...Finished just three points shy of tying Butler's NFL record for points in a season by a rookie kicker (144)... Also set franchise records for points in a season by a kicker, surpassing Ryan Longwell's 131 points in 2000, and for points by a rookie, joining Marcol (1972), Chris Jacke (1989) and Longwell (1997) as the only kickers in Packers history to score more than 100 points as a rookie. His 141 points in 2007 rank third behind Hornung (176 in 1960, 146 in 1961) on the team's single-season scoring list...Also earned 'NFC Special Teams Player of the Month' for November, when he made 12-of-15 field goals over a five-game stretch, including five from 45 yards or longer...Booted a 53-yard FG and a 42-yard game winner in his first professional contest, vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9, 2007), and his season took off from there, earning recognition on the Dallas Morning News All-Rookie team... A good athlete who has made 12 tackles on special teams in his career and could serve as emergency punter if needed... In college, already had proven his kicking prowess was not simply a product of kicking in the mountain air of Colorado, having hit a 58-yard field goal at Miami in 2005, the longest field goal at "sea level" in NCAA Division I-A history without a tee...The only players in football history, college or pro,

► His 397 career points are the most in NFL history by a player in his first three seasons, second-most in the league spanning 2007-09 behind only New England K Stephen Gostkowski (410), most in franchise history by a kicker over a three-year stretch, and second-most in franchise history by any player over a three-year period, behind

over a three-year period, behind RB/K Paul Hornung (416, 1959-61).

- ► Captured the league scoring title with 141 points in 2007, becoming the first rookie to do so since Chicago K Kevin Butler in 1985 and setting Green Bay records for points by a kicker, and by a rookie (any position), in a single season.
- ► His 17 touchbacks in 2008 were the most by a Packers kicker since 1972 (Chester Marcol, 28). His 43 touchbacks the last three years rank ninth in the league over that span.
- ► Came up just a yard or two short of a potential NFL-record 69-yard field goal on a free kick in the 2008 finale.
- ► Established a total of 31 game, season and career records at Colorado. His field goals made, attempted and percentage also set Big 12 Conference records.
- ► Made a 58-yard FG at Miami in 2005, the longest field goal at sea level in NCAA Division I-A history without a tee. Had a 65-yard FG attempt fall less than a yard short in 2006 vs. lowa State.
- ► Had made 100 consecutive PATs as a pro, and 168 overall dating back to his sophomore season in college, when he missed one in 2009 at St. Louis (Sept. 27). His previous PAT miss came on Nov. 6, 2004, at Kansas.

to kick longer field goals at sea level without a tee were a pair of New Orleans Saints – Tom Dempsey (63 vs. Detroit in 1970) and Morten Andersen (60 vs. Chicago in 1991)... Established a total of 31 game, season and career records at Colorado, where he holds the all-time records for points scored (307), field goals made (66) and attempted (88), extra points made (109) and attempted (117), field goal percentage (75.0) and longest field goal made (60 yards)... His field goals made, attempted and percentage also set Big 12 Conference career marks...Earned various first-team All-American honors his final two seasons and was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award his final three years.

2009 SEASON: Led team with 129 points, the thirdhighest single-season point total without a TD in team history...Connected on 27-of-36 FG attempts (75.0 percent) and 48-of-49 PATs...Ranked fourth among NFL kickers in scoring and tied for sixth in FGs made...Posted 12 touchbacks on kickoffs and two tackles on special teams... Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Made 2-of-3 FG attempts, including seventh 50-plus-yard FG of his career when he drilled a season-long 52-yarder in the second quarter... Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Connected on 45-yard FG late in the fourth quarter, with onside kick on the ensuing play recovered by CB Tramon Williams, the first successful onside attempt by the Packers since Dec. 3, 2006... At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Posted 12 points, connecting on all three FG attempts (48, 38, 25), but missed the first PAT of his career early in the fourth quarter, snapping a streak of 100 consecutive made, the fourth-longest streak in team history...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Matched his career high with four FGs, connecting on kicks of 46, 28, 31 and 26 yards, and posted season-high 14 points...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Posted two touchbacks on kickoffs plus a tackle on special teams, and connected on 18yard FG in the third quarter, but missed on 55-yard attempt earlier in the quarter as kick sailed wide left... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Made FGs from 37 and 26 yards, but 51-yarder in fourth guarter sailed wide right... At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): With all coming in the first half, matched career high with three touchbacks on kickoffs (also at Detroit, Sept. 14, 2008; vs. San Diego, Sept. 23, 2007)... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): After missing wide left from 52 yards in the first quarter, connected on 48-yard FG as time expired in the first half, the only points scored in the game in the opening half...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Connected on 2-of-3 FG attempts, missing wide right from 43 yards in the first quarter...Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Made 2-of-3 FGs again, with 38-yard attempt early in the fourth quarter sailing wide right...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Connected on 2-of-3 FG attempts for third straight game, as 42-yarder with just over six minutes left went wide right...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Made four extra points, but pushed his only FG attempt, from 34 yards in the second quarter, wide right, his fourth straight game with a miss from 43 yards or closer...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Scored 12 points (2 FG, 6 PAT), which included matching his season-long FG with 52-yarder in the fourth quarter, the eighth 50-yarder of his career...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Perfectly executed an onside kick midway through the third quarter, the first by a Packers kicker in the postseason since Josh Bidwell (at St. Louis, Jan. 20, 2002). With the Packers trailing 31-17, his one-bounce kickoff was recovered in the air by CB Brandon Underwood at Green Bay's 43; the offense utilized the field position by scoring a TD in eight plays to narrow the Cardinals' lead to 31-24. Matched his own team playoff record with six PATs (vs. Seattle, Jan. 12, 2008) and made 1-of-2 FGs, connecting on 20-yarder as time expired in first half but missing 54yard kick wide right early in the second quarter. Added a special teams tackle.

2008: Playing in every game, tied for sixth in the NFC and tied for seventh in the NFL among kickers with 127 points... Tied for third in the NFC and tied for sixth in the NFL with 17 touchbacks, the most by a Packers kicker since 1972 (Marcol, 28) and since kickoffs were moved back to the 30-yard line in 1994...Connected on 27-of-34 FG attempts (79.4 percent) and all 46 PATs...Registered four special teams tackles...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Connected on a 42-yard FG in the second quarter and posted two touchbacks on kickoffs. Also had 33-yard attempt blocked as time expired in first half, and made tackle of DE Jared Allen on the return...Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Connected on 50-yard FG in third quarter, but had 43-yard kick in second quarter wiped out by holding penalty and missed ensuing 53-yarder...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Made FGs from 23, 25 and 38 yards out; the 38-yarder with 5:30 remaining tied the game at 16. Also tackled Chris Carr at the Tennessee 35 on a fourth-quarter kickoff return... At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Connected on FGs of 47 and 40 yards and posted two touchbacks, but with the Packers trailing 28-27, his 52-yard FG attempt sailed wide right with 26 seconds remaining... Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Matched career-long kick with 53-yard FG right before halftime to put Packers up 17-3 and added FGs from 33 and 45 in the fourth quarter, giving him his first game of the season and fourth career with two 45-plus yard FGs...At Chicago (Dec. 22): Made 28-yard FG in the fourth quarter, but his 38-yarder with under 30 seconds remaining and score tied at 17 was blocked...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Attempted 69-yard FG on a free kick at the end of the first half with no time left on the clock that fell a couple of yards short.

2007: Played in all 16 games, plus both playoff contests, making 31-of-39 FG attempts (79.5 percent) and all 48 PAT tries in the regular season, and going 2-for-2 on FGs and 8-for-8 on PATs during postseason...Beat out incumbent Rayner for kicking duties in the preseason and went on to capture the league scoring title with 141 points, the first rookie to do so in 22 years, and earned All-Rookie honors from the Dallas Morning News...Also posted 14 touchbacks, good for third in the NFC and sixth in the league; at the time that was the most by a Green Bay kicker in 16 years (Jacke, 15 in 1991)...Named 'NFC Special Teams Player of the Month' in November, when he made 12-of-15 FGs over a five-game stretch, including five from 45 yards or longer... Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9): Hit a 53-yard FG and a game-winning 42-yarder with two seconds left in his first professional contest to earn 'NFC Special Teams Player of the Week' honors. According to Elias Sports Bureau, became the first player in league history to kick a 50-plus-yard FG and a game-winning FG in the final minute of his first NFL game. Scored his first NFL point on a PAT following a Tracy White TD on a muffed punt fumble recovery. His first career FG came from 53 yards in the first quarter to give Green Bay a 10-0 lead; also converted a 37-yard FG in the third quarter to tie the score at 13... At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Made 4-of-5 FG attempts (48, 36, 32, 45), plus all three PATs; missed a 52-yarder. His 45-yard conversion gave Green Bay a 26-22 fourth-quarter lead in the eventual 33-22 win...At St. Louis (Dec. 16): Made all four FG attempts (44, 50, 25 and 46 yards) and all three PATs, plus two touchbacks, earning him 'Diet Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week' honors... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Made FGs of 33 and 35 yards, plus all four PATs. In the fourth quarter, kicked a 35-yard FG, his last points of the season that allowed him to take the scoring title from New England WR Randy Moss... Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Made a career-best six PAT tries...2007 Draft: The third of Green Bay's three consecutive sixth-round picks (193rd overall), the third K selected. Was the 16th player from Colorado drafted by the Packers and first since DT Darius Holland (D3a-95).

PACKERS HELMETS

- The Packers added their first and only helmet logo in 1961, the Lombardi G emblem. Since, the club has made no significant changes to its helmet.
- Only two other teams have made no significant changes (including color alterations) since the G first went on the Packers helmet in '61. The Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts have sported their blue horseshoe since 1959. The Cleveland Browns shifted to "bald" helmets in 1960. The Pittsburgh Steelers introduced their unique helmets, with one bald side, the year after the Packers added the G. in 1962.
- Designed for Lombardi by equipment manager Dad Braisher, the G is one of the most recognizable team marks in sports, borrowed by several colleges and high schools, including Grambling State and the University of Georgia.
- The actual raised helmet G oval measures 3.125 inches at its tallest point, and 5 inches at its widest point. The thick decal is applied to each Riddell helmet by current equipment manager Red Batty and his staff.
- The middle white stripe is exactly 1 inch wide: the two green stripes are each 11/16 of an inch.

COLLEGE: Established a total of 31 game, season and career records at Colorado, where he holds the alltime records for points scored (307), FGs made (66) and attempted (88), PATs made (109) and attempted (117), FG percentage (75.0) and longest FG made (60 yards)... His FGs made, attempted and percentage also set Big 12 Conference career marks...Earned various first-team All-America honors his final two seasons and was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award his final three years, finishing runner-up after superb 2005 campaign...Hit a 58-vard FG at Miami (Sept. 24) that season, the longest FG at "sea level" in NCAA Division I-A history without a tee, and one of four 50-plus FGs he made on the road that year...Made 10-of-14 FGs from 50-plus his sophomore and junior seasons combined before falling off that pace as a senior when he missed seven of nine from 50-plus, including attempts from 63 (vs. Montana State) and 65 (vs. Iowa State), the latter falling less than a yard short...Made two FGs of 50-plus in one game three times in his career... Missed only two PATs over his final three years in college, making 78 of 80, including 60 straight to conclude career... Noted for his booming kickoffs as well, on 203 career kickoffs recorded 138 touchbacks, including 88 that went through the end zone... Majored in communication...

Senior season (2006):
Was an All-American firstteam selection by The NFL Draft Report, Pro Football
Weekly and the Walter Camp Foundation, adding third-team honors from The Associated Press...All-Big 12 Conference first-team choice for the third consecutive year, only the seventh player in school history to achieve that...Scored 76 points on 19-of-28 FGs and 19-of-19 PATs...Six of his misses were on long-range attempts (three from 50-59 yards, three from past 60 yards)...Only 15 of his 43 kickoffs were returned, with 11 of 27 touchbacks out of the end zone...The opposition's average starting point after kickoffs was the 22-yard line...Tried first and only punt of his career in season opener vs. Montana St. (Sept. 2), good for 43 yards...Converted a 40-yard FG in second quarter vs. Colorado St. (Sept. 9), his 49th FG to surpass Jeremy Aldrich for the most FGs in a CU career...With two FGs and one PAT at Missouri (Sept. 30), became school's all-time leading scorer, besting previous record holder RB Eric Bieniemy (254 points)...Closed his career by becoming the first Colorado placekicker to play in the Senior Bowl, where he helped the North to a 27-0 win with nine points on three PATs and two FGs of 38 and 21 yards...Junior season (2005): Became the first Colorado placekicker to earn consensus All-American first-team honors (The Associated Press, the Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News, The NFL Draft Report, Sl.com, Walter Camp and Rivals.com.)...Runner-up for the Lou Groza Award by just six points to Oregon State's Alexis Serna...Unanimous All-Big 12 first-team choice and named Special Teams Player of the Year by the league's coaches...Led the team in scoring with 94 points, converting all 31 PATs and 21of-28 FGs...Was 5-of-7 from beyond 50 yards, with four of the five made ones coming on the road, and 8-of-11 from 40 to 49 yards...Also led the nation in FGs made from 50 yards or more for the second straight year, and led the nation in average distance per FG made at 41.2 yards... Only 18 of his 61 kickoffs were returned, with 33 of his 43 touchbacks out of the end zone... Earned Big 12 Player of the Week honors four times (vs. Colorado State, at Miami, at Kansas State and Missouri), joining Texas Tech QB Kliff Kingsbury (2002) as the only other Big 12 player to receive the honor at least four times in a season... Opened the season vs. Colorado State on his 21st birthday (Sept. 3) by booting a 48-yard FG to tie the score at 21 with 2:32 left and then hitting the first of two game-winning kicks in his career, a 47-yarder with just four seconds left... Had the other game-winner at Kansas State (Oct. 29), a 50-yarder with six seconds left in swirling winds for a 23-20 victory; that came after already making a 52-yard kick in the second quarter...Sophomore season (2004): Named a unanimous All-Big 12 first-team selection and semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award...Earned second-team All-American accolades from NFL Draft Report and Rivals.com, adding honorable mention from Sports Illustrated...Led the NCAA in FGs made from 50plus yards with six (topping Ohio State's Mike Nugent, the Groza winner, who had five), and connected on 23of-29 FGs overall (19-of-23 regular season, 4-of-6 in Houston Bowl)...Scored 85 points, making 28-of-30 PATs...Only 17 of his 59 kickoffs were returned, with 26 of 41 touchbacks out of the end zone...The opponent average starting yard-line after all his kicks was the 21...Won the first of two Bill McCartney Awards (also in 2005), given to the team's most outstanding special teams player as selected by the coaches...Became just the 10th player in NCAA history to make a 60-yard or longer FG without a tee when he nailed a 60-yarder vs. Iowa State (Oct. 16), the longest in the nation in 2004; had three other FGs in that 19-14 win, including a 54-yarder for the first of his three career games with two FGs of 50-plus... Freshman season (2003): Became only the second true freshman to handle the placekicking chores in a CU season opener in school history...Set a Colorado record for the most points scored by a freshman with 52...Connected on 31-of-37 PATs and 7-of-9 FGs...Only 10 of his 37 kickoffs were returned, with 17 of 26 touchbacks out of the end zone...Made his first five career FGs, one shy of the school record.

PERSONAL: Given name Mason Walker Crosby... Born in Lubbock, Texas...Married the former Molly Ackerman on June 28, 2008, and spent honeymoon in the Bahamas; the couple is expecting its first child...Father, Jim, was a running back in college at Texas-El Paso (UTEP) and graduated from Texas Tech...Received the male career athletic achievement award at Colorado's annual CUS-PY awards ceremony (Colorado University Sports Performers of the Year)...Is in Colorado's Folsom Field's Ring of Fame...Filmed an NFL.com fantasy football ad spot that showed him booting three footballs into the local Brown County Courthouse bell tower...Also partnered with the famous Radio City Rockettes dance team as part of an advance promotional event prior to their visit to Green Bay for a performance during the 2008 regular season. Well known for a routine that features their trademarked kicking steps, the dancers joined Crosby at Ray Nitschke Field to receive instruction on football-kicking techniques...High school: As a junior and senior at Georgetown (Texas) High School, earned first-team All-District 13-5A honors as a K. P and FS, adding All-Central Texas region recognition at K... PrepStar named him to its All-Midlands team, while Rivals.com ranked him as the third-best placekicker in the nation...During his final two seasons, converted 15-of-21 FGs (long of 59) and 40-of-45 PATs...Owned a 38.2-yard average for 100 punts (64 long), with 18 punts downed inside the 20-yard line, including five inside the 5...At FS those two years, recorded 136 tackles (51 solo, 18 for loss) with six INTs, seven passes broken up, three forced fumbles and four recoveries...Vs. Cedar Park High as a senior, made the longest FG in Texas prep football in eight years and tied for the third-longest in state history with a career-best 59-yarder...Also had a 61-yard punt in the game...Vs. Round Rock, had seven tackles and two INTs, returning one for a TD and kicking the PAT following the score...Also earned two letters in soccer (defense/ midfielder), receiving All-District honors as both a sophomore (14 goals) and junior (17 goals)...Community involvement: Took part in the Beyond the Lights Celebrity Golf Classic charity tournament featuring several members from the Friday Night Lights movie and television show; proceeds go to support spinal cord injury research... Also serves on the board of directors for a charity based in his hometown called Eagle Locker, an organization that aims to raise awareness of the homeless teen problem in Georgetown and to obtain city funding to build a center for homeless teens that would provide shelter, counseling and academic assistance. In the past, has paid for a group of Eagle Locker teens to go on a shopping spree for shoes and other needed clothes...Served as a celebrity bartender at a House of Hope event in Green Bay. The House of Hope

LAMBEAU'S TWIN FLAGS

The twin American flags above Lambeau Field enter their seventh season in 2010. The impressively sized flags, 15 feet by 25 feet, were raised May 28, 2004, on Memorial Day weekend that year.

Located on top of the stadium's indoor club seats on the north end of the facility, the flags are the culmination of the desire to improve Lambeau Field's honoring of America, an effort first discussed in Fall 2003, at the end of the stadium's 32-month renovation.

"Once the Lambeau Field redevelopment project was complete and we had our first games in the stadium, we realized the old flag and flagpole appeared a bit small compared to the larger size of the new facility," said then-Packers CEO Bob Harlan.

"We needed something more prominent to appropriately honor our country and decided to upgrade that component of the stadium. We also heard from a few fans that they had trouble locating the flag during the anthem, so this will definitely help in that area, too.

"The new, larger flags are a great way to honor America and the timing worked out for it to be done for Memorial Day weekend."

The flags are positioned atop 72-foot high flagpoles which are stationed on top of the northeast and northwest corners of the stadium, above the club seats. All told, the flags are flying at 180 feet above ground.

Once the plans were set, the team worked with Kocken and Associates, of De Pere, Wis., on the design and engineering of the project. A major challenge of the design was ensuring both the structure and the flagpoles themselves could withstand the extreme wind load from the two large flags at that height.

Physical preparation for the new flagpoles began months prior with structural work, including reinforcing the area above the ceiling and on the roof with additional steel and concrete to support the extra load.

The two flags fly 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and are illuminated by spotlights at night.

PRO CAREER: A consistently productive pro who seems to age only numerically, continues to break franchise receiving records with each passing season and now is on the verge of perhaps the most prestigious one... Enters 2010 with 9,050 receiving yards, needing just 607 to surpass James Lofton (9,656) as Green Bay's all-time leader in the category...Climbed past Don Hutson (7,991) and Sterling Sharpe (8,134) into second place in 2009 with his sixth straight 1,000-yard season and seventh overall, extending two franchise marks...Also assumed the top spot in team history for receptions ahead of Sharpe (595) with a 70-catch season that gives him 647 receptions in his career...His eighth season of 50-plus catches also established a team record, topping Lofton and Sharpe (seven each)...Three-time Pro Bowl selection continues to add to his Lambeau Field records for receptions (311) and receiving yards (4,285) and enters this season with a streak of 127 games with at least one reception (133 including playoffs), the longest streak in franchise history...During that streak, has been held to just one reception only once over the past five years...With 49 career TD receptions, ranks tied for fifth in team history with Lofton and needs just one more to match Max McGee (50) for fourth, with only Hutson (99), Sharpe (65) and Antonio Freeman (57) still ahead on the list; 36 of those came from Brett Favre, putting Favre and Driver third among Green Bay touchdown combinations...His 50 career TDs (49 receiving, 1 rushing) make him just the $10^{\rm th}$ player in team history with 50 touchdowns...Teamed with Greg Jennings in '09 as the Packers posted a pair of 1,000-yard receivers for only the fifth time in team history; Driver has contributed to three of those, also teaming with Jennings in '08 and Javon Walker in '04...Has 22 career 100-yard receiving games, good for fourth in team history and two shy of No. 3 Hutson (24)...Also ranks fourth all-time in yards from scrimmage with 9,267, needing 446 to move past No. 3 Jim Taylor (9,712)...Added four receptions in last season's NFC Wild Card game at Arizona to give him 32 career postseason catches, moving past Edgar Bennett (31) into fourth in team annals, trailing only Freeman (47), Robert Brooks (45) and Dorsey Levens (41).

ants to play until he's 40, and just may do that with the tremendous care he takes of his body... With 161 games played, ranks 13th in franchise history and would move up to seventh with another full 16-game season...Impressive, uninterrupted run of success began in 2004, when he first approached age 30, with the first of three straight years setting personal highs in receptions and yards...That year, teamed with Walker to register the Packers' best season by a receiving duo in both combined receptions (173) and combined receiving yards (2,590); yardage total ranked second in the NFL that year behind the Rams' Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce (2,664)... Stepped forward again in 2005 when injuries decimated the Packers at the skill positions and was the team's lone reliable playmaker for the duration of the season, earning the team's MVP award for the second time (also 2002)... Three-year stretch of personal bests culminated in 92 catches for 1,295 yards in 2006 to earn his second Pro Bowl appearance...Those totals ranked third and second in the NFC, respectively; both were fifth in the NFL in

- ► Ranks first on the franchise's alltime list for receptions with 647 and ranks second in team history with 9,050 career yards, trailing only James Lofton (9,656).
- Extended two team records in 2009 with his seventh 1,000-yard season and sixth straight. Indianapolis' Reggie Wayne is the only other player in the

at a glance...

- ► Enters "10 with a streak of 127 games with at least one reception (133 including postseason), the longest streak in franchise history. During that streak, has been held to just one catch only once in the past five seasons.
- ► All-time leader in receptions (311) and yards (4,285) at Lambeau Field.
- Has caught 50 or more passes in a season a franchise-best eight times, topping Lofton and Sterling Sharpe (seven each).
- One of the NFL's most decorated collegiate track athletes (high jump, decathlon, long jump, triple jump), won his conference's 'Athlete of the Year' award three straight years. Likely could have qualified for 2000 Sydney Olympics in high jump had he concentrated on track.
- Overcoming countless obstacles growing up has inspired him to become one of the team's most involved players in giving back to the community. In 2000, he and his wife created the Donald Driver Foundation (www.donalddriverfoundation.com), which offers assistance to homeless mothers and underprivileged children as well as scholarships to high school students in three states. In addition, has made more than 500 appearances since 1999, from schools to youth football fields to churches, delivering motivational speeches or offering assistance.

2006, and his career-high 191-yard performance at Minnesota (Nov. 12) was the best single-game total by an NFC receiver on the season...His 82-yard catch-and-run at Minnesota in 2006 gave him three career TD receptions of 80 or more yards (not including playoffs), tying a Packers record held by Billy Howton (two in 1952, one in 1953) and Carroll Dale (1966, 1967, 1970), and also now shared by Jennings (two in 2007, one in 2009)...Continued since then with three more 1,000-yard seasons the last three years, including a third Pro Bowl nod in 2007, and now is one of only two receivers in the league (along with Indianapolis' Reggie Wayne) to go over 1,000 yards each of the past six years (2004-09)...Remains a legitimate bigplay threat, posting 59 receptions of 25-plus yards since 2004, which is tied for fifth in the league over that span with Santana Moss, behind only Steve Smith (65), Terrell Owens (63), Larry Fitzgerald (62) and Wayne (60)... Also ranks fifth in the league with 6,845 receiving yards since 2004, trailing only Wayne (7,494), Chad Ochocinco (7,102), Fitzgerald (7,067) and Andre Johnson (6,972)... All this from a seventh-round draft choice in 1999 who initially carved out a roster spot by regularly making phenomenal catches in his first training camp, putting on display the tremendous athleticism that made him a onetime Olympic hopeful in the high jump (7 feet, 61/2 inches was his top mark)...Broke through as the team's No. 3 receiver for much of 2000, when he replaced an injured Corey Bradford, and became the lowest-drafted Packers Pro Bowler in 19 years in 2002...Now as a veteran and team leader, sets an example for Green Bay's younger receivers, both on the field and off, of what it takes to be successful, and credits predecessors Freeman and Brooks for helping him develop his leadership skills.

2009 SEASON: Started all 16 games for the fourth time in the last five years, and led the team with 70 receptions and six TD catches...Also started playoff contest... Finished second on the team with 1,061 receiving yards, his sixth straight 1,000-yard season and seventh overall, extending two team records...Ranked ninth in the NFC in receiving yards...Ranked tied for ninth in the NFL with five receptions of 40-plus yards...Was named the recipient of the 2010 Red Smith Award, an honor given annually to an individual who contributes to sports on or off the field in the state of Wisconsin... Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Caught four passes for 39 yards (9.8 avg), with a 14-yard reception in the first quarter moving him past Hutson (7,991) and over 8,000 career yards for the No. 3 spot on the team's career receiving yardage list... At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Led team with four catches for 95 yards (23.8) avg.) and a TD, including a spectacular one-handed catch in the second quarter, pulling in 46-yard pass from QB Aaron Rodgers with his left hand while being interfered with by CB Bradley Fletcher; pinned the ball against his shoulder pads and helmet as he fell to the turf. Also caught 21-yard TD pass on the left sideline late in the second quarter, and with 13-vard reception on first drive, moved past Sharpe (8,134) for second in franchise history for receiving yards...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Caught four passes for 55 yards (13.8 avg.) as his final catch of the night, a 10-yarder late in the fourth quarter, tied Sharpe for the franchise's all-time mark in receptions with 595... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): On the Packers' second series, caught a quick hitch at the line of scrimmage and picked up 5 yards for his 596th career reception, surpassing Sharpe to become the franchise's all-time receptions leader. Added an impressive one-handed grab late in the third quarter as he hauled in a 37-yard pass from Rodgers with his left hand despite being interfered with by CB Demarcus Faggins. Finished the afternoon with team-leading seven catches (including his 600th career) for team-high 107 yards (15.3 avg.), the 21st 100-yard game of his career, moving him ahead of Freeman for sole possession of fourth place in team annals...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Led team with 84 receiving yards on just two catches (42.0 avg.), highlighted by his 71-yard TD reception in the second quarter. With S Abram Elam coming on a blitz, Rodgers found Driver with a quick pass at the Cleveland 35 and Driver did the rest, fighting off CB Eric Wright for the final 20 yards of the 71-yard score... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Tied for team lead with four catches for 50 yards. with game-long 24-yard reception over the middle at the end of the first half setting up Mason Crosby's 48-yard FG as time expired, the only points scored by either team in the first half ... At Detroit (Nov. 26): Led team with a season-high 142 yards and a TD on seven receptions (20.3 avg.), the best yardage total by a Packer for the regular season. Got behind S Marvin White late in the first quarter for a 68-yard reception on third down that put the ball at the Detroit 7; TE Donald Lee caught a TD pass the next play. Early in the second half, beat CB William James deep down the middle for a 45-yard catch to the Lions' 45; drive was capped off with a 7-yard TD catch by Driver in the middle of the end zone. The 45-yard grab was his 50th reception of the year, which gave him a team-record eight 50-catch seasons in his career. The last time he had two catches of 45-plus yards in a game was vs. Houston (45 and 59) on Dec. 7, 2008...Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Posted three receptions for 31 yards (10.3 avg.) and a TD, the 50th of his career (49 receiving, 1 rushing), making him just the 10th player in franchise history to reach the mark. The 8-yard score came just before halftime as he caught a quick pass from Rodgers and made CB Domonique Foxworth miss...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Went over the 1,000-yard mark for the season on the first play of the game, picking up 14 yards on a hitch. On his second catch of the day, a 7-yard grab on the next series, went over the 9,000-yard mark for his career. Led the team with six receptions for 65 yards (10.8 avg.), with five of the six grabs going for first downs...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Caught four passes for 43 yards (10.8) avg.), including 28-yard grab in the fourth guarter. Caught the pass at the Arizona 15, made a nice move to make S Adrian Wilson miss, and took it down to the Cardinals' 1 to set up a John Kuhn TD run on the next play that tied the game at 38.

2008: Started all 16 games and ranked second on the team with 74 receptions for 1,012 yards (13.7 avg.) and five TDs...Ranked 13th in the NFC in receptions and tied for third in the conference with 25 catches on third down, including four of his five TD receptions...Tied for fifth in the NFL with six receptions of 40-plus yards, a career high...Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Became eighth player in team history with 40 career TD receptions on a 44-yard grab in the second quarter, making the catch over CB Brent Grimes and S Erik Coleman... Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Became all-time leader in receiving vards at Lambeau Field with 24-yard grab in second quarter, passing Freeman's career record of 3,477 yards. Passed Lofton for No. 2 on the all-time franchise list for receptions with 3-yard catch three plays later, giving him 532 for his career...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): With his 5-yard TD catch in the second quarter, tied Sharpe's team record of 103 consecutive games with a catch. Matched season high with seven catches for season-best 136 yards...

AMONG THE NFL'S BEST

For a sixth consecutive season (2004-09), Donald Driver had at least 1,000 receiving yards. Driver and Indianapolis' Reggie Wayne are the only NFL players with six consecutive 1,000-yard seasons over that span.

- ► The 1,061 receiving yards in 2009 marked Driver's seventh overall 1,000-yard campaign, extending his own franchise record.
- ▶ Already the record holder for receptions and receiving yards at Lambeau Field, Driver surpassed Sterling Sharpe (595) on the team's all-time receptions list. He enters play in 2010 with 647 career catches.
- ▶ Driver has a chance to become the franchise's all-time receiving yardage leader in 2010. He needs 607 yards to surpass No. 1 James Lofton (9,656) on the team's all-time list.
- ► Driver's numbers over the past six seasons are comprable to the game's best:

Name	Yards	Receptions	Name	Yards	Receptions
Reggie Wayne	7,494	532	Terrell Owens	6,379	414
Chad Ochocinco	7,102	497	Steve Smith	6,194	422
Larry Fitzgerald	7,067	523	Tony Gonzalez	6,160	531
Andre Johnson	6,972	521	Anguan Boldin	6,143	485

Torry Holt	6,598	497

At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Broke Sharpe's record for consecutive games with a catch on his 11-vard grab from Rodgers in the first quarter, giving him a reception in 104 straight games...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Led team with six catches for 111 yards, including a 71-yard TD pass from Rodgers, the longest pass play by the Packers on the season. Ran a stutter-and-go route on CB Leigh Bodden to get open deep down the right sideline. The TD put him over 1,000 yards on the season for a franchise-record sixth time. Provided key blocks on RB DeShawn Wynn's 73-yard TD run in the first quarter, the longest run by the Packers on the year.

2007: In his ninth season, was one of four 2007 Packers Pro Bowl selections...Played in first 15 games of the season with 14 starts, did not play Dec. 30 vs. Detroit (coach's decision), and started both playoff contests... Led the team with 82 receptions for 1,048 yards, with two TDs, moving into third on the team's all-time receptions list with 503 - surpassing Freeman (431), Dowler (448) and Hutson (488) - and fourth on the yards list with 6,977, eclipsing Freeman (6,651) and Dowler (6,918)...In the preseason, suffered a sprained foot fighting for extra yards in the second quarter vs. Jacksonville (Aug. 23) and did not play in the team's preseason finale at Tennessee (Aug. 30)...Returned Sept. 2 on a limited basis and was back to full participation by the end of the week... Vs. San Diego (Sept. 23): Posted a game-high 126 receiving yards on six catches, with one TD, his first 100-yard receiving game of the season and 17th of his career. Made his first reception in the second quarter, a 16-yard gain on third-and-3. The catch moved him into first place on Lambeau Field's all-time receptions list at 214, topping Freeman...At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Led the team with five catches for 99 yards, including a 44-yard, one-handed grab between two defenders; Crosby kicked a 32-yard FG four plays later to put Green Bay up 16-14...At Detroit (Nov. 22): Recorded season highs with 10 catches for 147 yards...At St. Louis (Dec. 16): Led the team with five receptions for 80 yards. On the Packers' first offensive play of the fourth quarter, caught a 7-yard pass to give Favre the NFL record for most passing yards in a career... At Chicago (Dec. 23): Recorded his 500th career catch...Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Had a team-high five catches for 141 yards and one TD. In the second quarter, caught a long pass and outran three defenders down the right sideline on his way to a 90-yard TD, the fourth-longest postseason TD in NFL history and longest in Green Bay playoff history...Pro Bowl (Feb. 10): Had two catches for 31 yards.

2006: After signing a contract extension in the offseason, answered with his second career Pro Bowl selection and the best statistical season of his career...Started all 16 games for the third time in his career and led the team with 92 receptions and 1,295 receiving yards - both career highs — and eight TDs, including an 82-yard score at Minnesota (Nov. 12) and a 68-yarder at San Francisco (Dec. 10)...Added seven carries for 16 yards (2.3 avg.)... His 1,295 overall receiving yards were second in the NFC and fifth in the league...His 92 catches ranked third in the NFC and fifth in the NFL, and he became the first Packers receiver to finish in the league's top 5 since Freeman also finished fifth in 1998...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 10): Had a game-high seven receptions for 96 yards, moving into third place in all-time receiving yards at Lambeau, ahead of Sharpe (2,309)... Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17):

Playing in his 100th professional contest, accumulated 153 yards on eight catches and surpassed 5,000 career yards from scrimmage on a 16-yard reverse... At Detroit (Sept. 24): Surpassed McGee for sixth on the franchise's all-time receptions list; also delivered the key assist on Jennings' 75-yard TD reception, screening CB Dré Bly for several yards, allowing Jennings to score up the right sideline for Favre's 400th TD pass... Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 8): Caught three passes, to move into second place for career receptions at Lambeau, eclipsing Lofton (178)... At Miami (Oct. 22): Had a game-high 10 catches for 93 yards, becoming the seventh player in team history with 5,000 career receiving yards and the 11th Packer with 30 TD receptions; caught a 34-yard TD in the third quarter, diving between two defenders to put Green Bay up 20-10 (reversed after a Packers replay challenge, the play originally was ruled incomplete). Later in 34-24 triumph, on a back-breaking fourth-quarter TD drive, ran an end-around for 6 yards to convert a fourth-and-1... At Minnesota (Nov. 12): Established a career high with 191 yards on six receptions; caught three passes for 69 yards on a game-opening FG drive, then just before halftime caught a short pass over the middle and blazed by a group of defenders for an 82-yard score — the Packers' longest 2006 play — giving Green Bay a lead it would not relinquish. In the third quarter, took a lateral from Jennings and ran for 30 yards, setting up another FG. His 191-yard performance was the best single-game total by an NFC receiver in 2006... At San Francisco (Dec. 10): Went over 1,000 yards receiving on the season and recorded his 400th career catch and 16th career 100-yard game; caught a game-high nine passes for 160 yards and one TD, making a long catch down the right sideline, breaking an ankle tackle and running past a group of defenders for a 68-yard score to give Green Bay a 24-13 advantage...Pro Bowl (Feb. 10): Had three catches for 38 yards; also finished fifth in the Best Hands competition in the Pro Bowl Skills Challenge, won by Cincinnati's Chad Ochocinco.

2005: Started all 16 games and led the Packers with 86 receptions and 1,221 yards — then career bests — with five TDs...Also carried twice for 13 yards...Was selected as team MVP...Surpassed No. 7 Paul Coffman (322) on the team's career receptions list, finishing the year with 329 catches...Became just the fourth Packers player with an 85-reception season (joining Sharpe, Brooks and Walker)...Posted a career-best five 100-yard receiving games and finished the season with consecutive 100-yard efforts...Had the Packers' three longest catches of the season, a 59-yard reception vs. Seattle (Jan. 1), a 56-yard catch vs. Chicago (Dec. 25) and a 53-yard TD vs. Minnesota (Nov. 21)...Earned the 'Ed Block Courage Award,' given to one player on every NFL roster who displays commitment to the principles of courage and sportsmanship, as voted by his teammates...At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Caught a game-high eight passes for 114 yards and one TD, a spectacular, 22-yard, one-handed grab, making the catch despite being held by CB Antoine Winfield (penalty declined) for the game's first points in tough, 23-20 loss...At Atlanta (Nov. 13): Caught season-high 10 passes for 114 yards... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 21): Caught five passes for 84 yards and two scores, the third multi-TD game of his pro career; second TD was 53-yarder on a post pattern in final minute of first half...Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Brought in six catches for 107 yards, going over 1,000 yards for the season by converting a third-and-3 early in the game... Vs. Seattle (Jan. 1): Led the team with six receptions for a seasonhigh 118 yards; his first five catches all converted third downs, while his sixth was a 59-yard grab in the third guarter to the Seattle 5, Green Bay's longest passing play of the season.

2004: Played in all 16 games, with 11 starts; did not start in five contests when club opened in other than base personnel...Had 84 catches for 1,208 yards and matched career high with nine TDs (2002)...Teamed with Walker to register the Packers' best season by a receiving duo in both combined receptions (173) and combined receiving yards (2,590), respectively surpassing the 172 catches of Sharpe and Bennett in 1994, and the 2,253 receiving yards of Freeman and Brooks in 1997...Among NFL receiving pairs in 2004, the two ranked second, behind only the Rams' Holt and Bruce (2,664)...In the process of racking up huge numbers, the duo became the club's first set of 1,000-yard receivers since 1999 (Freeman, Bill Schroeder) and just the third overall (Freeman, Brooks in '97)...At Indianapolis (Sept. 26): Scored his first TD of the season by catching a deep out and gracefully tightroping along the sideline for 27 yards in all to cut deficit to 38-31... At Detroit (Oct. 17): Caught a game-high nine passes for 110 yards in 38-10 victory, including a pair of TDs, his second two-TD game as a pro (Sept. 29, 2002, vs. Carolina); the second TD came on 20-yard pass from RB Ahman Green... At Washington (Oct. 31): Pulled in career catch No. 200...At Houston (Nov. 21): Had a spectacular homecoming in his native Houston, making 10 catches for 148 yards and one TD, including a seasonlong 50-vard bomb, a 24-vard TD catch off his fingertips to bring the Packers within three points, a 15-yard catch on third-and-16 to set up game-tying kick, and a 12-yard catch to the Houston 28-yard line just prior to the gamewinning 46-yard FG...At Minnesota (Dec. 24): In division-clinching triumph, had a clutch performance with 11 catches (matching his career high) for a (then) career-best 162 yards and a TD. In the fourth quarter, capped a drive by converting a fourth-and-3 with a tough TD reception, knotting the game at 31... Vs. Minnesota (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Registered game highs in receptions (seven) and receiving yards (78).

2003: Served as Green Bay's starting flanker for the second straight season, occasionally shifting to split end as dictated by injuries...Started 15 regular-season games (13 at FL, two at SE)...Also saw action in both playoff games; he did not start Wild Card contest vs. Seattle (Jan. 4) when Green Bay opened with two TEs...Led the team in receptions for the second consecutive season, with 52 catches for 621 yards and two TDs...Also tied for the team lead in postseason receptions with eight for 91 yards... Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 7): Suffered a sprained neck midway through the fourth quarter of the season opener when he landed on his head after going high to attempt a catch, but missed only one game... At Minnesota (Nov. 2): Had a career-long 45-yard run to set up an early FG... At San Diego (Dec. 14): Enjoyed his top performance of the season as he pulled in eight passes for 112 yards the Packers' first 100-yard receiving effort of the season – and a 7-yard TD just before halftime to give Green Bay a 17-3 advantage... At Oakland (Dec. 22): Keyed the Packers' final TD with a season-long 41-yard reception; he caught the ball between two defenders, over his shoulder, falling backward toward the sideline... Vs. Seattle (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 4): Posted his best effort of the playoffs to date, pulling in six passes for 66 yards, including a leaping, 23-yard catch between two defenders to set up a FG just before halftime.

2002: Developed into one of the league's most explosive playmakers in his fourth NFL season...Won the starting SE position, vacated when Schroeder was allowed to leave in free agency, with a strong preseason performance...Was one of Green Bay's most consistent performers in training-camp practices, edging Robert Ferguson and Charles Lee, among others, to become a full-time starter for the first time as a pro...Earning his first Pro Bowl trip, he became the lowest-drafted Packers player (seventh round) to participate in the Pro Bowl since Larry McCarren (12th round) in 1983 (Don Majkowski, 10th round, was chosen for the game in 1989, but did not play)...Led the Packers in receptions (70, 14th in the NFC), receiving yards (1,064, 10th in NFC) and TD receptions (nine, second in NFC) - all three figures eclipsing his three-year NFL totals entering the 2002 season...Had more catches (70) in his first year as a starter than any of the top 10 WRs in Packers history had in their initial season in the starting lineup...Became the eighth 1,000-yard receiver in Packers history - and the first drafted in the seventh round or later - at San Francisco (Dec. 15) when he reached the plateau for the first time as a pro...Enjoyed the fifth-highest yards-per-catch average in the NFC (15.2) and tied for fourth in the NFC in third-down receptions (25)...Also rushed eight times for 70 yards...Had three 100-yard receiving days and a pair of 80-plus-yard TD catches over the course of the season...Was the Packers' finalist for the 2002 'Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year'

The middle child in a five-sibling family, which lived for a time during his early teens out of a U-Haul truck after a collection agency confiscated the family's possessions... He also spent multiple holidays without parents and slept several nights in motel rooms his mother, Faye Gray, purchased with food stamps...Also remembers several times when his mom skipped meals while working at night... Moved in with his grandmother, Betty Lofton, who encouraged him to go to church, at age 14... Motivated toward football by college films of his father. Marvin, a QB who earned a Texas A&M scholarship, and likely would've gone pro but gave up NFL dreams to support his mom after his father's death (Donald's grandfather)...Community involvement: Overcoming incredible trials has inspired Driver to become one of the Packers' most involved players in the community... Has made more than 500 appearances during his NFL career and in 2007 received a JB Award for community service, named for CBS' NFL Today host James Brown and given to a select group of players for their individual contributions to their communities... Named Packers' 'Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year' in 2002, in recognition of his extensive work in the community...Also was chosen by Sporting News as one of the NFL's "Good Guys" in its July 5, 2004, issue...In 2000, created the Donald Driver Foundation (www.donalddriverfoundation.com), with the motto "Strong Hands, Strong Minds, Loving Hearts"...Run by his mother, the organization offers assistance to homeless mothers and underprivileged children...Since its inception, the foundation has helped at least 17 families in the Houston and Green Bay areas by purchasing homes or providing other housing or mortgage assistance...The foundation also provides 10 scholarships worth $1,000 each, annually, to students in Texas. Mississippi and Wisconsin, and has funded several computer labs for inner-city youth centers...During the foundation's big fundraising time in June, hosts the annual Donald Driver Golf Classic at courses in both Texas and Wisconsin, hosts the Celebrity 9-Ball Shootout at Slick

Willie's Family Pool Hall in Houston, and also hosts the annual Donald Driver Football Camp in three locations: Houston, Milwaukee and Cleveland, Miss. ... These camps are free for children between the ages of 7-17...Also ran drills at an Oneida Nation football clinic in July 2005 and has conducted or helped out at football camps in Green Bay and De Pere in recent years...In summer 2008 he took over the tradition of hosting the annual Packers offense vs. defense charity softball game with the proceeds going to support the Donald Driver Foundation... The game raised an estimated $125,000 from 2008-09, and in 2010, 7,162 tickets were sold for the game, a high since Driver took over as the host...In summer 2006, participated in the inaugural Packers Tailgate Tour, visiting four Wisconsin cities as well as other impromptu stops to meet and chat with fans from all over the state... Has been a frequent speaker at Green Bay-area schools, addressing the importance of fitness and making good decisions in life...Has been involved with 'Junior Power Pack.' the Packers' fan club for kids, local Pop Warner football, and the Brown County Association for Retarded Citizens (now ASPIRO)...Appeared in a national United Way commercial on behalf of the NFL and Packers, which started in the 2003 season...Received the 'Community Service Award' from the Green Bay Chamber of Commerce in August 2001, in recognition of his community involvement... Earned the 'Professional Achievement Award' at the sixth annual Lee Remmel Sports Awards Banquet in April 2003 and was the recipient of the 2010 Red Smith Award for professional achievement, an honor given annually to an individual who contributes to sports on or off the field in the state of Wisconsin...This past year, also rang bells for the Salvation Army and signed autographs for donations in a competition against the Minnesota Vikings' defensive line...Additionally has given time and money to the Milwaukee Juvenile Detention Center, the PALS program, Children's Miracle Network and the Calvary Baptist Church Scholarship...Has taken part in the Brett Favre Celebrity Softball Game as well as Edgar Bennett's Celebrity Bowl-A-Thon to benefit the Angel Fund for Children with Cancer... Hobbies/interests: Is partowner of two Chevrolet/Buick car dealerships in eastern Wisconsin...Nearing completion of a master's degree in computer science...Hobbies include reading novels and spending time with his family...Splits residence between De Pere, Wis., and Flower Mound, Texas.

PRO CAREER: A rising star who enjoyed a breakout sophomore campaign, culminating in a Green Bay singlegame postseason record for receiving yards...Became a favorite target of QB Aaron Rodgers as the big-play flashes from the end of his rookie season carried over to his second year...Despite missing three midseason games due to a knee injury, had one of the most productive seasons by a tight end in team history in 2009 with 55 catches for 676 yards and five touchdowns, adding six catches for a team playoff-record 159 yards in the NFC Wild Card game at Arizona...Finished just one shy of Paul Coffman's single-season franchise-best 56 catches by a tight end in 1979, tying for second on the list with Coffman (1981) and Jackie Harris (1992)... The 676 yards were the fifth most by a Packers tight end and the most since Mark Chmura's 679 in 1995... Had seven or more receptions in three games to set a new team record, and had at least six catches four times in the regular season to match Coffman's '79 output...His eight 50-yard games did top Coffman's franchise mark of seven ('81, '83)...Upon returning from injury in Week 11, ranked third in the league among tight ends in receptions with 37, trailing only Dallas' Jason Witten (45) and Atlanta's Tony Gonzalez (39)...His playoff performance broke the previous team high of 148 yards by WR John Jefferson (Jan. 8, 1983, vs. St. Louis) and was No. 2 in NFL playoff history by a tight end behind only San Diego's Kellen Winslow (166 yards, Jan. 2, 1982, vs. Miami)...Has two-year career totals of 61 receptions for 750 yards and six TDs...Is particularly dangerous around the goal line, as four of his TD catches have come on short fade routes over smaller, overmatched defenders...Also possesses explosive capabilities with 11 career catches of 20-plus yards (plus three more in playoffs), including a 62-yard touchdown last season, the longest reception by a Green Bay tight end in 16 years...Thirdround draft pick in 2008 who showed that big-play ability with two receptions of 25-plus yards in the final two weeks of his rookie season, when he was the youngest player on Green Bay's roster...Came to the NFL after playing only two seasons at the University of Texas, where he caught 76 passes for 947 yards in just 26 games...Ranks third in school history in receptions by a tight end and sixth in receiving yardage, despite playing only two years... Earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches as a sophomore and honorable mention Freshman All-America recognition from Sporting News.

2009 SEASON: Played in 13 games with nine starts and ranked third on the team with career bests of 55 catches and 676 yards (12.6 avg.) despite missing three games due to injury...Tied for second on the team with a career-high five TD catches...Reception total was one shy of Coffman's single-season team record for a TE (1979), tying him with Coffman (1981) and Harris (1992) for No. 2... Yardage total was fifth most by a Green Bay TE and most since Chmura's 679 in 1995...Set a team record for a TE with seven or more receptions in three games, matched Coffman (1979) with six or more catches four times, and had eight 50-yard games to top Coffman's mark of seven (1981, 1983)...After returning from knee injury in Week 11, ranked third in the league among TEs with 37 receptions in that seven-game span, trailing only Dallas' Witten (45) and Atlanta's Gonzalez (39)...Inactive for games vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1), at Tampa

- ► In breakout second year, posted second-most catches in a single season by a Green Bay tight end (55) and fifth-most yards (676) despite missing three games with a knee injury.
- ► Finished year with Green Bay playoff-record 159 receiving yards in NFC Wild Card loss at Arizona, the second-most

- ► Tied regular-season, single-game franchise marks for yards (128, Week 4 at Minnesota) and receptions (nine, Week 15 at Pittsburgh) by a tight end
- Ranks third in University of Texas history for career receptions by a tight end with 76, despite playing only two
- ► Became first Packers draftee from the University of Texas since 1991, and was the highest pick used on a tight end by the Packers since Bubba Franks was selected in the first round (14th overall) in 2000

Bay (Nov. 8) and vs. Dallas (Nov. 15) with sprained knee sustained at Cleveland in Week 7... At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Led the team with six catches for a career-best 128 yards, tying the single-game franchise mark for a TE; Harris posted the same number vs. Denver on Oct. 10, 1993. Broke open down the right sideline and caught a 62-yard TD pass from Rodgers, making nice move to elude S Tyrell Johnson. The catch was the longest of his career and the longest reception by a Packers TE since Harris' 66-yarder in the '93 game against the Broncos...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Caught a 16-yard pass over the middle on the Packers' opening drive, but sustained a sprained left knee on the play and did not return... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Returned from knee injury and caught seven passes for 54 yards, including 20-yard catch-and-run down the right sideline on the first drive of the game. Also made a key catch on Packers' final drive when he picked up 5 yards on sideline pass on a third-and-4 with the Packers trying to hold onto a six-point lead... At Detroit (Nov. 26): Started and caught three passes for 25 yards, absorbing a huge hit from Lions S Louis Delmas over the middle in the second quarter that drew an unncessary roughness flag, and returned on the very next play to catch a 9-yard pass down to the Lions' 8 that helped set up a 20-yard Mason Crosby FG...Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Started and posted seven receptions for 79 yards and two TDs, the first multi-TD game of his career. First TD catch came in the second quarter when he out-jumped S Tom Zbikowski on a fade route for a 2-yard score. Also had a 29-yard catch down the seam and a 14-yard grab on the drive to help set up the TD. Left game early in the third quarter after reinjuring his knee, but returned later in the quarter. Early in the fourth quarter, caught pass from a scrambling Rodgers inside the 5, ran over Zbikowski and extended the ball past the goal line for 19-yard TD as LB Ray Lewis attempted to bring him down... At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Started and led the team with a career-high nine catches for 74 yards, matching the single-game franchise mark for receptions held by three other TEs. Had five receptions of 10-plus yards, including 11-yard TD grab early in the fourth quarter when he went up over S Ryan Clark to haul in jump-ball pass from Rodgers in the corner of the end zone to narrow Pittsburgh's lead to 24-21... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Finished second on the team with 80 receiving yards on three catches. The 26.7-yard average was a career high and tied for fourth in franchise history by a TE (min. three receptions). Beat S Deon Grant on the right sideline for a 28-yard pickup down to the Seattle 17 on a third-and-8 early in the third quarter. Then on the next drive, caught a rollout pass from Rodgers at the 30, made S Jordan Babi-the way down to the Seattle 4 for a 38-yard gain; RB Brandon Jackson scored on a run on the next play... At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Led the team with a team playoffrecord 159 yards receiving on six receptions (26.5 avg.), breaking the previous high of 148 yards set by Jefferson (Jan. 8, 1983, vs. St. Louis). His yardage total was also No. 2 in NFL playoff history by a TE behind only Winslow (166 yards, Jan. 2, 1982), and his 26.5yard average was a league playoff record for TEs (min. five receptions). Late in the first half, caught a 44-yard pass down the right sideline to Arizona's 26 despite being interfered with by CB Bryant McFadden; the catch set up a Crosby FG as time expired in the opening half. Picked up 23 yards on thirdquarter catch down the left neaux miss, and took it all sideline to the Cardinals' 21 in front of S Adrian Wilson that helped set up a Jordy Nelson TD catch three plays later. Had 38-yard catch-and-run down the left sideline early in the fourth quarter to Arizona's 29 that helped set up a John Kuhn 1-yard TD run two plays later, tying the game at 38.

PRO CAREER: Will look to hold down backup quarterback position again after serving as No. 2 his first two seasons in the league...Also has served as team's holder in separate stints each of the past two years...Played in five games at quarterback in relief of Aaron Rodgers in 2009 after seeing action in three contests in his first season, as one of only six rookie quarterbacks in the NFL to throw a pass in 2008...In all, has completed 9-of-17 passes for 64 yards with one interception...Offseason improvement in Head Coach Mike McCarthy's quarterback school helped him hold onto No. 2 job in 2009 despite very limited preseason action due to shoulder injury...Got the most extensive playing time of his career in Week 16 vs. Seattle, playing the entire fourth quarter and completing 4-of-6 passes for 36 yards, including career-long 17-yarder to convert a third-and-12 and help set up a field goal...Entered rookie training camp as No. 3 guarterback behind Rodgers and fellow rookie Brian Brohm, but solid play throughout the preseason (27-of-42, 209 yards, 3 TDs, no INTs, 100.2 rating) earned him the nod as the backup...Down 23-15 in preseason finale vs. Tennessee (Aug. 28), with 2:19 to go, led offense on 85-yard scoring drive that was capped off with a 22-yard TD pass as time expired...On the drive, also scrambled for a 21-yard pickup, completed a 20-yard pass, and connected on a two-point conversion attempt to tie the game, but receiver was unable to get both feet in bounds as the Packers came up short...Made NFL debut in Week 4 at Tampa Bay when Rodgers left the game with a shoulder injury...Played two series against the Buccaneers and completed 2-of-5 passes for 6 yards, his only passing attempts of the season... Was drafted in the seventh round after he finished off his college career at LSU by leading the Tigers to the 2007 BCS National Championship over Ohio State and earned Offensive MVP honors in the game...Had backed up future NFL draft picks JaMarcus Russell and Matt Mauck during his first three years before getting his chance to start as a senior...Finished career with an 11-2 record as a starter for the Tigers...Despite serving as the starter for just one season, still managed to throw for 3.096 yards and 31 TDs during his career.

2009 SEASON: Served as No. 2 QB for the second straight season...Played in 15 games, handling holding duties for FGs and PATs in the first 13 games and seeing time at QB in five contests, completing 7-of-12 passes for 58 yards with one INT...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Saw first action at QB on the season when he relieved Rodgers with just under nine minutes remaining. Completed 1-of-2

- ► Served as No. 2 quarterback each of last two seasons, and held for field goals and extra points in separate stints each year as well.
- ► Was one of only six rookie quarterbacks in the NFL to throw a pass in 2008.
- Capped LSU career by leading the Tigers to the 2007 BCS National at a glance... Championship with a 38-24 win over Ohio State and earned Offensive MVP honors in the completion... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Took final snap of the game and completed a 3-yard pass to TE Donald Lee...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Took final three offensive snaps, handing the ball off to RB Brandon Jackson each time...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Saw most extensive action of career, coming in for Rodgers for final snap of the third quarter and playing the entire fourth quarter. Completed 4-of-6 passes for 36 yards. Scrambled to his right and found WR Jordy Nelson on the sideline for a career-long 17-vard gain to convert a third-and-12 and set up a fourth-quarter FG...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Played the entire fourth quarter, completing 1-of-3 passes for 7 vards with one INT.

Finished college career with an 11-2 record as LSU's starting

2008: Played in seven games, three of them at QB and the last four games at holder...Completed 2-of-5 passes for 6 yards...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Took first NFL snaps with two kneel downs to end game in 48-25 win...Vs. Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Played two series in the fourth quarter after Rodgers was sidelined with a shoulder injury. Completed 2-of-5 passes for 6 yards. First career completion came on 3-vard pass to Jackson late in the fourth quarter...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Held on PATs for the first time in his pro career, holding for Mason Crosby's three kicks...At Chicago (Dec. 22): Rushed for 6 yards and a first down to the Chicago 31 on a fake punt as he took a direct snap from LS Brett Goode and found a hole on the right side on a fourth-and-2 play in the second quarter. The first down kept drive alive that was capped off with a Jennings TD catch...2008 Draft: The Packers' first of two seventh-round draft choices passes, connecting with WR Greg Jennings for a 12-yard (209th overall), and was the 12th QB taken. Selected with pick from Minnesota acquired along with the Vikings' fifth-round pick (150) for Green Bay's fifth-round pick (137). Was the second QB selected by the Packers in the '08 draft, joining second-round pick Brohm; the last time the team selected two signal-callers in the same draft was in 1989 when the Packers took Anthony Dilweg in the third round and Jeff Graham in the fourth round.

COLLEGE: Patiently waited his turn to become the Tigers' starting QB, playing behind a pair of NFL draft picks in Mauck (selected in seventh round by Denver in 2004) and Russell (first overall pick by Oakland in 2007)...After serving as a backup for three seasons, capped LSU career by leading the Tigers to the 2007 BCS National Championship with a win over Ohio State and earned Offensive MVP honors in the game...Finished career with an 11-2 mark as the Tigers' starter, which included a 10-2 mark as a senior in '07...Despite serving as LSU's starting QB for only one season, still managed to throw for 3,096 yards and 31 TDs during his career... The 31 career TDs tied for the sixth-highest total in school history...Also served as the holder on FGs and PATs throughout his career at LSU...Majored in general studies...Senior season (2007): Started 12 games on his way to leading the Tigers to a national championship... Threw for 2.407 vards and 21 TDs, including five games with three or more TD passes...Led the Tigers to four come-from-behind victories...Also served as holder on FGs and PATs...Named SEC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance vs. Auburn (Oct. 20) as he completed 22-of-34 passes for 319 yards and three TDs...Became only the fourth QB in LSU history to post back-to-back 300-yard games when he threw for a career-high 353 yards at Alabama (Nov. 3) along with three TDs...Joined Russell as the only QBs in school history to throw three TD passes in three straight games when he tossed three more scores vs. Louisiana Tech (Nov. 10)...Showed his toughness by playing most of the second half of LSU's triple-OT victory vs. Arkansas (Nov. 23) with a separated shoulder, an injury that came on a two-point conversion run by him early in the third quarter...Despite having to leave the field to head to the locker room for treatment, still finished the game and threw a career-high 47 passes with 22 completions, 209 yards passing and two TDs... Missed the SEC Championship Game vs. Tennessee (Dec. 1) with the shoulder injury...Returned to action against Ohio State in the BCS National Championship (Jan. 7), and tied a school record with four TD passes in the Tigers' 38-24 win...Named Offensive MVP of the title game after completing 19-of-27 passes, a season-high 70.4 percent, for 174 yards and the four scores...Junior season (2006): Played in a reserve role at QB in seven games and served as the holder on FGs and PATs...Threw for 133 yards and two TDs with one INT...Also rushed for 86 yards and a TD on 13 attempts...Sophomore season (2005): Played in seven games at QB and completed 27-of-48 passes for 457 yards, seven TDs and just one INT...Also served as the holder on placekicks...Was a perfect 7-of-7 for 139 yards and three TDs vs. North Texas (Oct. 29), with all three TDs coming in the fourth quarter; became the only non-starter in LSU history to come into a game and throw three TD passes in a single quarter... Inserted into the SEC Championship Game in the second half against Georgia (Dec. 3) when Russell went down with an injury and threw a TD pass...Started in place of an injured Russell in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl vs. Miami (Dec. 30) and was named Offensive MVP in the 40-3 victory after throwing for 196 yards and two TDs...Redshirt freshman season (2004): Served as Tigers' No. 3 QB and played in all 12 games, seeing action under center in three contests...Served as team's holder on placekicks... Completed 4-of-10 passes for 99 yards and a TD...First completion of collegiate career was a 67-yard TD pass to Xavier Carter vs. Mississippi State (Sept. 25).

PRO CAREER: Fifth-round pick in 2008 will look to make bigger contribution in his third year with the team... Began 2009 training camp in competition for starting right tackle spot, but was clearly behind after having missed the entire offseason program and never seriously challenged for the job...Ankle injury in final month of rookie season required surgery (Feb. 11, 2009) and kept him out of full-time duty until late summer...Will look to compete for starting right tackle position again in 2010...Has been active for just three games over his first two seasons, playing in one...Head Coach Mike McCarthy noted Giacomini's improvement throughout his rookie campaign, pointing out how much he benefited from facing former defensive end Aaron Kampman every day in practice...Converted tight end who didn't become a full-time tackle until his senior season at Louisville...Part of an offense that ranked sixth in the nation at 488.0 yards per game as a senior... Protected former Packers teammate Brian Brohm on his way to throwing a school-record 30 touchdown passes in 2007 for the Cardinals.

2009 SEASON: Was active for one game and inactive for the other 15, plus the NFC Wild Card playoff contest...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Active, but did not play.

2008: Active for two games, playing in one...Inactive for final 14 games of the season...Sustained ankle injury in Dec. 20 practice...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Active, but did not play. At Detroit (Sept. 14): Made his NFL debut, seeing time on special teams...2008 Draft: Selected in the fifth round (150th overall), and was the 23rd OL selected. Pick was acquired from Minnesota along with a seventh-round choice (209) for Green Bay's fifthround pick (137). Became only the third OL to be selected from Louisville in team history, joining teammate G/C Jason Spitz (2006, third round) and C Cleo Walker (1970, seventh round).

COLLEGE: Converted tight end who didn't become a full-time tackle until his senior season...Split time at TE and T for his first three seasons at Louisville...Teammate of Spitz, and helped protect Brohm on his way to setting a school record with 30 TD passes and 4,204 yards as a senior, which is second best in Louisville single-season history...Recruited by some smaller Division I schools to play basketball but decided to focus on football in college...Majored in sports administration...Senior season (2007): Started all 12 games at RT...Part of an offense that ranked sixth in the nation at 488.0 yards per game... Allowed just four sacks and two pressures on 491 pass plays...Helped protect Brohm as he set a school record with 30 TD passes and threw for 4,204 yards, the second-

PACKERS AMONG BEST IN POSTSEASON

On the heels of 12 playoff appearances in the last 17 years, and two trips to the Super Bowl in the 1990s, the Packers own the third-best postseason winning percentage in National Football League history, trailing only Baltimore and Pittsburgh. They have won 25 of 41 playoff games since their first-ever postseason contest — the 1936 NFL championship, a 21-6 victory over the Boston Redskins. The standings:

PRO CAREER: Reliable long snapper was a lastminute injury replacement for J.J. Jansen following the 2008 preseason and has performed the job almost flawlessly for the past two seasons...Has recorded four coverage tackles and a fumble recovery in his two years.. Signed by Green Bay as a free agent on Sept. 1, 2008, three days after Jansen suffered a season-ending knee injury in the preseason finale vs. Tennessee...Without a team for 2008 training camp, was pouring concrete for a driveway in 93-degree heat in home state of Arkansas when the Packers called...Earned his first NFL roster spot after two failed attempts with Jacksonville, having originally signed as an non-drafted rookie free agent with the Jaguars in May 2007, and participated in training camp prior to being waived on Aug. 20 of that year...Re-signed with Jacksonville on March 5, 2008, and attended the team's offseason program, before being released on June 16, 2008...Attended college at the University of Arkansas, where he was a four-year letterwinner at long snapper for the Razorbacks...Appeared in 49 games during his collegiate career, collecting seven special teams tackles along the way...Served as the point man for the team's punting operation in each of his four seasons, and snapped for all of the kicking placements during his final three years.

2009 SEASON: Handled snapping duties in every game for the second straight season, including Wild Card playoff game at Arizona (Jan. 10)...Posted two tackles on special teams, equaling his total from 2008... At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Recorded a tackle on special teams, bringing down Jaymar Johnson on a punt return... At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Registered a stop on special teams, putting a big hit on returner Stefan Logan for a 2-yard loss on a third-quarter punt.

2008: Handled snapping duties in all 16 games, and recorded two tackles and a fumble recovery on special teams...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Registered first career special teams tackle when he brought down Chris Carr at the Tennessee 28 on Derrick Frost's 55-yard punt early in the fourth quarter...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Recovered first career fumble when he jumped on Jacoby Jones' muffed catch at the Green Bay 49 on fourth-quarter punt, setting up offense for TD drive that tied the game at 21... At Chicago (Dec. 22): Snapped the ball to QB Matt

Additional statistics: Special teams tackles — 2 in 2008, 2 in 2009; NFL total: 4. Recovered fumble on special teams vs. Houston, 12/7/08.

NFL debut: vs. Minnesota, 9/8/08

PRO CAREER: A virtual unknown when he was acquired by the Packers prior to the start of the 2007 regular season, has begun to cement his status as one of the most productive backs in team history... Has posted back-to-back 1,200-yard rushing seasons, only the third player in team history to do so (Ahman Green, 2001-03; Jim Taylor, 1961-62) and one of only four backs in the league to accomplish the feat in 2008-09 along with Minnesota's Adrian Peterson, the New York Jets' Thomas Jones and Tennessee's Chris Johnson...With 3,412 career rushing yards, ranks ninth in team history and needs 300 yards to move past Paul Hornung (3,711) for No. 8; to crack the franchise's top five, needs only 526 yards (No. 5 Dorsey Levens, 3,937)...Surpassed 3,000 yards rushing in just 41 games with the Packers, the third-fastest to do so in team history (Green, 37; John Brockington, 40), despite only rushing six times for 27 yards in his first five games with Green Bay...Has a dozen 100-yard games in just 21/2 seasons as the starter, which puts him fourth in franchise history, one away from tying Brockington for third...Followed up his 1,203-yard rushing season in 2008 with a 1,253-yard output in 2009, totals that rank eighth and sixth, respectively, on the team's single-season list... Ranked third in the NFC and seventh in the NFL in rushing yards last season, adding a career-best 197 receiving yards as well for 1,450 yards from scrimmage...His 11 rushing touchdowns last season make him one of only four backs in team history with at least eight rushing TDs in two different seasons (he also had eight in 2007), joining Taylor, Green and Hornung...Heading into 2010, carries a career-long streak of 291 rushes without a fumble, the No. 2 current streak in the NFL behind only Green (393)...His only fumble over that stretch came on a pass reception (Week 2, 2009, vs. Cincinnati).

traight-ahead runner with forward lean whose onecut style clearly fit the offense's zone-blocking scheme from the moment he stepped in as the feature back midway through '07...Since taking over in Week 8 at Denver in 2007, has rushed for 3,385 yards, the second-most in the NFL over that span behind only Peterson (3,814)...Has played in 47 straight games (50 including playoffs) despite a hamstring injury that slowed him down in the early stages of the '08 season...Still became only the fourth player in team annals to top the 1,200-yard mark in a season, doing so that year on 312 attempts, the fourth-highest single-season total in team history...One of only five players in the NFL to post at least 300 rushes in 2008...Carried the ball slightly less in 2009 (282) and boosted his per-carry average by one-half yard, from 3.9 to 4.4...Still hasn't matched his 5.1 yards per carry from 2007, when he took over for injured DeShawn Wynn (shoulder) in second quarter of Monday night game at Denver (Oct. 29), and went on to post the Packers' first 100-yard rushing performance of the season and four more by the end of the regular season... Nearly eclipsed 1,000 yards, finishing with 956 and eight touchdowns on 188 attempts, in barely more than half a season as the primary ballcarrier...Authored tremendous performance in 42-20 NFC Divisional playoff win vs. Seattle (Jan. 12), setting Green Bay postseason records for rushing yards (201) and rushing TDs (3), all after fumbling twice in the first minute► Has topped 1,200 rushing yards each of the last two seasons, only the third back in team history to do so in consecutive years (Ahman Green, 2001-03; Jim Taylor, 1961-62) and one of only four backs in the NFL to do so in 2008-09 (Adrian Peterson, Thomas Jones, Chris Johnson).

- Wynn (shoulder) in second quarter of '07 Monday night game at Denver (Oct. 29) and has started ever since, compiling 3,385 rushing yards, No. 2 in the NFL over that span behind only Peterson.
- ► Has a career-long streak of 291 carries without a fumble, which ranks No. 2 in the NFL among current streaks behind only Green (393). His lone fumble in 2009 came on a pass reception (Week 2 vs. Cincinnati).
- Surpassed 3,000 yards rushing in just 41 games with the Packers, the third-fastest to do so in team history (Green, 37; John Brockington, 40), despite only rushing six times for 27 yards in his first five games with Green Bay.
- ➤ Set Packers' playoff records with 201 yards on the ground and three rushing touchdowns in 42-20 NFC Divisional playoff win over Seattle (Jan. 12, 2008), after fumbling twice in the first minute-plus to help stake Seahawks to 14-0 lead.
- Acquired Sept. 1, 2007, from the N.Y. Giants in exchange for a sixth-round draft choice in 2008.
- ► A four-year letterman at Notre Dame, became the 13th running back in school history to top the 2,000-yard mark.

plus of the game to help the Seahawks take an early 14-0 lead...Including playoffs, rushed for 1,159 yards and 11 touchdowns in the final 12 games of the season...His 929 yards from Week 8 through the end of regular season ranked second only to San Diego's LaDainian Tomlinson (947) during that stretch...Deceptive breakaway speed also produced 11 runs of 20 yards or more in regular season, one every 17.1 attempts, the best rate in the NFL and well ahead of the runner-up, Minnesota's Peterson, who had one every 18.3 carries...Acquired by the Packers in a trade with the New York Giants for a sixth-round draft choice on Sept. 1, 2007...Enjoyed a strong preseason in 2007 with the Giants, rushing for 90 yards on 18 carries (5.0 avg.), but was likely the odd man out in a crowded backfield...Missed all of 2006 rehabilitating a severe hand injury, which occurred when he slipped on a wet floor and his left arm went through a glass table at a party... In addition to bleeding profusely, the injury affected the tendon, the ulnar nerve and an artery, causing him to lose all feeling in the hand...Surgery was required and during rehab he was forced to learn how to hold a fork and spoon again...Spent all of 2006 on the Giants' non-football injury reserve list...Originally signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Giants out of Notre Dame, where he became the 13th running back in school history to top 2,000 yards... Released in the final roster cutdown and signed to the Giants' practice squad on Sept. 4, 2005, where he spent the entire '05 season.

team with a career-high 1,253 rushing yards and a careerbest 11 TDs on 282 carries (4.4 avg.)...Ranked third in the NFC and seventh in the NFL in rushing yards...Also had 25 receptions for a career-high 197 yards (7.9 avg.)... Finished fourth in the NFC and ninth in the NFL in yards from scrimmage with 1,450...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Rushed for 99 yards on 26 carries (3.8 avg.), including a 17-yard run and 50 yards total in the fourth quarter...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Registered 51 yards on 11 carries (4.6 avg.) and a career-high 50 receiving yards on four receptions, including two screen passes that picked up 13 and 20 yards, respectively... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Recorded 90 yards on 24 carries (3.8 avg.), including 62 on 11 attempts (5.6 avg.) in the fourth quarter, which featured a 22-yard run...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Posted the second-best regular-season performance of his career with season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5 avg.). Broke off a 37-yard run down the right sideline in the fourth guarter down to the Cleveland 5 that set up a James Jones TD reception on the next play. The big gain was his longest run since a 57-yarder in the '08 season opener vs. Minnesota. Posted six runs of 8-plus yards, and 100 vards on 15 carries (6.7 avg.) in the second half, only the second time in his career that he went over 100 yards in a half (105 on 13 carries vs. Chicago, first half, Nov. 16, 2008)...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Picked up 129 vards rushing on 21 carries (6.1 avg.) along with a 1-yard TD early in the fourth quarter, moving past Eddie Lee Ivery for 11th place on team's all-time rushing yardage list. His two runs of 20-plus yards were a season high. First one was a 26-varder on opening drive to help set up a Mason Crosby FG. Second one came on final drive of the game as the Packers were looking to run out the clock with a 30-24 lead; on first down from the Green Bay 20, was stopped on run up the middle at the line, but bounced it outside to the left for a 21-yard gain... At Detroit (Nov. 26): Compiled 61 yards on 20 carries (3.1 avg.), including game-long 15-yarder off right tackle in the first quarter, plus 42 yards on three receptions. Posted career-long reception as he caught a shovel pass from Aaron Rodgers and took it 27 yards down to Detroit's 29 to help set up a Jones TD catch three plays later...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Rushed for 137 yards and two TDs on 20 carries, a 6.9-yard average that ranks as his career high for a game with 20 carries or more, and the two TDs matched his career best (at Dallas. Nov. 29, 2007). Scored on the Packers' first offensive play. finding a hole on the left side and taking the ball 62 yards for the TD as he outran CB Charles Tillman. The score was his longest run since a 66-vard TD at Chicago (Dec. 23. 2007), and it was the first time the Packers had scored on their opening play since Antonio Freeman's 80-yard TD catch vs. San Francisco (Nov. 1, 1998). Hit the 1,000-yard mark for the season on his second carry of the afternoon. a 7-yard pickup, and moved into the No. 10 spot on the Packers' career rushing list on his 17-yard run in the fourth quarter, surpassing Donny Anderson (3,165)...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Had a season-low eight carries for 37 yards (4.6 avg.) and a TD. Found a hole on the left side and took it down the sideline for a 24-yard TD run midway through the fourth quarter, outrunning S Tyrone Carter to give the Packers their first lead of the day at 28-27...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Led team with 97 yards and two TDs on 16 carries (6.1 avg.), his third career two-TD game. With just over five minutes remaining in the first half, broke off a 56-yard TD run up the middle, making S Deon Grant miss at the second level before taking it the rest of the way for the score. Also scored on a 3-yard run in the first quarter, diving for the pylon in the right corner of the end zone. On his final two carries of the afternoon, moved past his position coach, Edgar Bennett (3,353), for the No. 9 spot on the franchise's all-time rushing list with a 5-yard gain, and then hit the 1,200-yard mark for a second straight season with a 3-yard gain on the last play of the third quarter... At Arizona (Jan. 3): Posted 51 yards on 11 carries (4.6 avg.), including a 1-yard TD run off right tackle on the Packers' opening drive of the game. On his first carry of the game, a 5-yard gain, surpassed his previous career high for yardage in a season... At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Carried the ball 11 times for 64 yards (5.8 avg.), including a 20-yard run off left tackle in the second quarter down to the Cardinals' 7; Rodgers scored five plays later on 1-yard sneak. Added two receptions for 18 yards.

2008: Played in every game with 14 starts and led team with 1,203 yards on 312 carries (3.9 avg.) despite battling a hamstring injury early in the season... Became only the fourth player in franchise history to rush for 1,200 yards in a season, and posted four 100-yard rushing games... His 312 attempts rank fourth for a single season in team history, and he was one of only five players in the NFL to carry the ball 300 times in '08...Ranked sixth in the NFC and ninth in the NFL in rushing yardage...Both of his non-starts, at Tennessee (Nov. 2) and at Minnesota (Nov. 9), came when team opened up with three WRs and two TEs... Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Led the team with 92 rushing yards on just 12 carries (7.7 avg.), including a 57-yard run in the fourth quarter down to Minnesota's 2-yard line. The run set up Rodgers' QB sneak for a TD to give Green Bay a 24-12 lead, and the carry also put Grant over 1,000 yards for his career... At Seattle (Oct. 12): Rushed for 90 yards on a career-high 33 carries, which is tied for second most in franchise history. It was the first time in his career that he carried the ball 30 or more times in a game...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Posted 105 yards on 31 carries, giving him back-to-back games with 30-plus carries as he became only the second player in team history to do so (Levens, 1997). Scored first TD of the season on an 11-yard run off left tackle in the second quarter...Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Rushed for a seasonhigh 145 yards on 25 carries for a season-high 5.8 avg. (min. 20 attempts). Posted 35-yard run on his second carry of the game, his second-longest rush of the season. Also had runs of 18 and 22 yards to give him three carries of 15-plus yards for the first time on the season...At Jacksonville (Dec. 14): Surpassed 1,000-yard mark

BACK-TO-BACK 1,200-YARD SEASONS

- ▶ With 1,253 rushing yards in 2009, Ryan Grant joined Ahman Green (2001-03) and Jim Taylor (1961-62) as the only players in franchise history to post consecutive 1,200-yard seasons.
- The only other NFL players to post back-to-back 1,200-yard seasons in 2008-09 were Chris Johnson (TEN), Thomas Jones (NYJ) and Adrian Peterson (MIN).
- Faced with mounting injuries in the backfield, the Packers turned to Grant in Week 8 of 2007 in Denver. Grant responded with his first career 100-yard game and has been the team's starter ever since. A look at the numbers across the league since Week 8 of 2007:

Player	Yards	Rushing TDs
Adrian Peterson, MIN	3,814	35
Ryan Grant, GB	3,385	23
Thomas Jones, NYJ	3,346	28

on the season for the first time in his career on a 4-yard run in the second quarter down to the Jacksonville 7. Finished game with 56 yards on 21 carries, and matched season high with three catches for a season-best 32 yards...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Posted 106 yards on 19 carries, including two runs of 20-plus yards. Along with Wynn (106), became only the second Packers runningback tandem since 1985 to each rush for 100 yards in the same game.

2007: Spent training camp and preseason with N.Y. Giants and was acquired in a trade following training camp...Played in 15 of 16 regular-season games with seven starts, and started both playoff contests...Posted five 100-yard games and led team with 188 attempts for 956 yards and eight TDs; also had 30 catches for 145 yards...Established postseason team records for rushing yards (201) and rushing TDs (3) vs. Seattle in the Divisional round (Jan. 12)...Since his insertion into the lineup in Week 8 at Denver, which came when Wynn left in second guarter with a shoulder injury, totaled 929 rushing yards; only San Diego's Tomlinson (947) had more rushing yards over season's final 10 weeks...Had 11 rushes of 20 yards-or-more in the regular season. No running back in the NFL averaged more 20-yard-plus runs than Grant (every 17.1 attempts); Minnesota's

Peterson, ranked No. 2, had one every 18.3 carries...Finished the regular season with a rushing TD in six straight games, tied for the second-longest streak in team history (Terdell Middleton, 1978) and one behind the franchise mark (Hornung, 7, 1960)... At N.Y. Giants (Sept. 16): Saw his first action as a Packer against his former team, playing on special teams and sparingly on offense. In the second quarter, caught a short screen pass — his first catch with Green Bay — and turned it into a 21-yard gain, spinning past a defender and sprinting up the left sideline... At Denver (Oct. 29): Became the Packers' first 100-yard rusher of '07 as he picked up 104 yards on 22 carries despite not getting his first carry until the second quarter; took over as Green Bay's primary RB when Wynn left with a shoulder injury. Declared the starter by Head Coach Mike McCarthy after the game... At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Earned his first career start, rushing for 55 yards on 19 carries, and never relinquished the job... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Won 'FedEx Ground NFL Player of the Week' for his performance against the Vikings as he rushed for 119 yards, plus his first career TD, on 19 carries. On Green Bay's opening drive, took a toss right and scored a 30-yard TD, spinning out of an arm tackle on the second level ... At Dallas (Nov. 29): Rushed 14 times for 94 yards and two TDs, the first multiple-TD game of his career. In the first guarter, found a small opening off right guard and sprinted for a 62-yard TD. Added a 1-yard plunge in the third, narrowing Dallas' lead to 27-24...Vs. Oakland (Dec. 9): Set regular-season career high with 156 yards on (then) career-high 29 carries, adding a TD; named 'FedEx Ground NFL Player of the Week.'... At Chicago (Dec. 23): Picked up 100 yards and one TD on 14 carries. In the second quarter, went off right tackle for a career-long 66-yard TD. the Packers' only score of the contest... Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): After losing fumbles on the Packers' first two drives, rebounded to rush for 201 yards and three TDs, on 27 carries. His 201 rushing yards set a franchise postseason record and ranked seventh on the all-time NFL postseason list. His three rushing scores also established a new franchise playoff record and tied him for second in NFL single-game postseason annals. His 18 points place him tied for second with Sterling Sharpe (3 TDs, at Detroit, Jan. 3, 1994) for most points in a Green Bay postseason game.

2006: Spent the season on the non-football injury reserve list after injuring his hand in the offseason.

2005: Carried the ball twice and caught one pass in preseason action with the Giants...Released in the final roster cut on Sept. 3...Re-signed to the Giants' practice squad on Sept. 4, where he spent the entire '05 season...2005 Draft: Originally signed with the Giants as a non-drafted free agent on May 6.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman for the Irish, Grant became the 13th RB in school history to top the 2,000yard mark...He's now one of 14 and ranks 12th on Notre Dame's all-time rushing list...Also competed on the Irish track and field team...Finished his career with 2,220 rushing yards and 18 TDs...Earned degrees in sociology and computer science...Senior season (2004): Played in nine games and started each one as he rushed for 515 yards and five TDs...Earned the Team Captain award at the conclusion of the season...Junior season (2003): Played in all 12 games, starting the first five... Split time with Julius Jones, who returned from academic probation...Finished the season with 510 yards and three TDs on 143 carries...All three scores came at Stanford (Nov. 29), where he rushed for 84 yards on 14 carries... Sophomore season (2002): Became the starter at RB and enjoyed a breakout campaign, becoming only the seventh back in school annals to top the 1,000-yard mark... Rushed for 1,085 yards and nine TDs...Tallied his first career 100-yard effort in an upset win vs. No. 7 Michigan (Sept. 14) when he rushed for 132 yards and two TDs on 28 carries...Rushed for 190 yards and a score on 30 carries at Air Force (Oct. 19)...Freshman season (2001): Played five games in a reserve role as a true freshman... Carried the ball 29 times for 110 yards and one TD.

Born: August 5, 1983 NFL Gm. Played/Started: 36/20 Acquired: D6a-07

PRO CAREER: A converted linebacker who has made an impact at fullback in his first three seasons, appearing in 36 games with 20 starts... Has helped block for Ryan Grant's back-to-back 1,200-yard rushing seasons in 2008-09, making Grant just the third running back in team history to accomplish that feat... A regular, consistent contributor on special teams, has tallied 37 coverage tackles in three seasons - third most on the team over that span - getting either 12 or 13 each of his three years... An occasional receiver out of the backfield as well, has 20 career receptions for 128 yards and one TD...Has battled various injuries (hip, knee, calf, elbow) all three years that have forced him to miss portions of each season and will be looking for his first fully healthy campaign... Was told upon being drafted in the sixth round in '07 he would be switching to the offensive side of the ball, and picked up the scheme and skills right away...Came from Boise State, where he earned first-team All-Western Athletic Conference honors at linebacker three straight years, an achievement that contributed to him being voted in 2009 as the league's defensive player of the decade by CBSSports.com... Finished his college career second all-time in tackles in the WAC and fourth in school history...As a four-year starter, played 52 career games and posted 394 tackles (191 solo), including 28 for loss, 111/2 sacks, 20 passes broken up and 11 interceptions, tops for a career total among the nation's linebackers in 2006...Played on all four main special teams units at Boise with a reputation as a head-hunter and solid blocker...On draft day, then-Packers special teams coordinator Mike Stock said Hall reminded him of another Boise State linebacker, Bryan Johnson, whom the Washington Redskins signed as an non-drafted free agent in 2000, converted to fullback and used extensively on special teams (Stock coached for the Redskins at the time)...Became the second Packers draft pick out of Boise State overall and in as many years, joining former Broncos teammate Daryn Colledge (D2a-06).

2009 SEASON: Played in 11 games with five starts and caught five passes for 41 yards (8.2 avg)... Helped block for Grant on his way to a second straight 1,200-yard season...Registered 12 special teams tackles, good for fourth on the team...Inactive for four midseason games due to calf injury sustained in Oct. 12 practice... Also inactive for regular-season finale due to elbow injury suffered in previous game vs. Seattle (Dec. 27)... At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Played on special teams and posted a tackle despite being limited in practice all week with a shoulder injury/concussion sustained in previous game... At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Led the team with seasonhigh three special teams tackles, including a huge hit on Vikings WR Percy Harvin on second-quarter kickoff return, bringing him down at the Minnesota 16... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Returned after missing four games due to calf injury, posted two tackles on special teams and saw limited action at FB...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Started and caught two passes for 10 yards, his fifth career two-reception game...Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Started and caught a career-long 13-yard pass from QB Aaron Rodgers on the sideline to the Baltimore 33 in the fourth quarter; drive was capped off two plays later with a 19-yard TD catch by TE Jermichael Finley to extend Green Bay's lead to 24-14...At Converted from linebacker to fullback upon arriving in Green Bay as a sixth-round pick in 2007, playing in 36 games with 20 starts over his first three seasons.

► Helped clear the way for RB Ryan Grant to post back-to-back 1,200yard seasons, making Grant just the third running back in team history to accomplish that feat.

at a glance...

- ► Has posted 37 special teams tackles from 2007-09, third-most on the team over that span.
- In 2009, was voted by CBSSports.com as the Western Athletic Conference's defensive player of the decade, having earned first-team All-WAC honors at linebacker three straight years and finishing his career second in league history in tackles.
- ► Had 11 interceptions in college, tops for a career total among the nation's linebackers in 2006.

Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Started at FB and posted a tackle on special teams. Cleared out OLB James Harrison as he came on a blitz to open a hole for Grant on his 24-yard TD run in the fourth quarter.

2008: Played in 11 games with five starts, and helped clear the way for Grant's first 1,200-yard rushing season...Caught seven passes for 38 yards and finished tied for fifth on the team with 12 special teams tackles... Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Scored the first TD of his NFL career when he caught a 1-yard pass from Rodgers in the second quarter. Also led the team with three special teams tackles...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Started, but left the game in the first quarter with a sprained knee and did not return. Was inactive for next three games with knee injury... At Seattle (Oct. 12): Returned to starting lineup and tied career high with two catches for 12 yards...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Caught an 11-yard pass in the third quarter, and recovered a fumble by Grant on the opening possession at the Indianapolis 26 to keep a drive alive that was capped off with a Mason Crosby FG...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Started and blocked for Grant's 104 yards on 19 carries (5.5 avg.), and added two special teams tackles. Sprained his knee that he injured earlier in the season and did not return, missing next two contests...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Returned for season finale and blocked for Grant and RB DeShawn Wynn as they each rushed for 106 yards to become only the second Packers tandem to rush for 100-plus yards in the same game since 1985.

2007: Sixth-round pick was converted from collegiate LB to professional starting FB in a matter of months, starting 10 of 14 games he played in – did not start four games with team opening in multiple-WR sets – plus started both playoff contests...Suffered a hip injury at St. Louis (Dec. 16) and did not play next two games, but returned for the playoffs and registered three postseason special teams tackles...Caught eight passes for 49 yards and posted 12 special teams tackles, tied for third on the team...Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9): Started in his

NFC Wild Card Playoff

JUSTIN HARRELL

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 315 Fourth NFL Season Fourth Packers Season

Born: February 14, 1984 NFL Gm. Played/Started: 13/2 Acquired: D1-07

PRO CAREER: Mammoth defensive lineman has been beset by injuries dating back to his final collegiate season and through his first three pro seasons... Was preparing to make transition from tackle to end in new defensive coordinator Dom Capers' 3-4 scheme...After rehabbing injured back throughout the offseason, appeared ready to compete for time at left end during training camp in 2009, but reinjured back during Aug. 6 practice...Returned to the field four days later for one practice, but remained sidelined after that until he was placed on injured reserve Sept. 5...Has played in 13 games in his three seasons, with two starts, and posted 37 tackles (18 solo)...After overcoming a torn biceps from his senior year at Tennessee and an ankle injury in the middle of his rookie season, had begun to hit his stride and contribute in the latter stages of '07, including the playoffs, before an offseason back injury kept him out of the entire offseason program, training camp, and first seven games of '08...Ultimately had two back surgeries and came off the physically-unable-to-perform list to play in six games in 2008, only to have hip problems related to his back injury sideline him for the final three contests... Was selected 16th overall in the 2007 draft in a move that surprised many, because of the Packers' established depth at the time on the interior of the defensive line... A defensive captain at Tennessee, showed his dedication to his team with two significant decisions during the course of his college career...First, decided to return for his senior season despite the possibility of being a top-10 draft pick had he come out as a junior, saying he was disappointed in the team's 5-6 record that year and owed it to the program to help it get back to prominence...Then, after tearing a bicep tendon in the second game of his senior season, postponed season-ending surgery one week so he could play one final game for his alma mater, against Southeastern Conference rival and eventual national champion Florida... Started against the Gators with his arm heavily bandaged and came out of the game at times wincing in extreme pain, only to go back in after a play or two...After the courageous Florida game, had the torn biceps surgically repaired and focused on his rehab and preparing for the draft workouts...Interesting connections to the Packers organization are rooted in his background...Became the last Tennessee player to wear Reggie White's No. 92, with the Volunteers having retired White's number posthumously...With White's jersey also retired by the Packers, was given No. 91...Also comes from Martin, Tenn., the same hometown of veteran offensive lineman Chad Clifton...Upon his arrival for rookie orientation, noted driving through the neighborhoods how much Green Bay reminds him of his hometown.

2009 SEASON: Re-injured back during Aug. 6 training-camp practice... Returned to the field for Aug. 10 practice, but then remained sidelined after that until he was placed on injured reserve Sept. 5.

2008: Played in six games and recorded 13 tackles (five solo)...Missed the offseason program, training camp, and the first seven games following offseason back surgeries... Was activated from PUP list Nov. 1...Sidelined for the final three games of the season due to hip injury related to the previous back problems...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Made 2008 debut and recorded four tackles. bringing down RB

- Last name is pronounced HAIR-uhl.
- ► Has been limited to just six games over the past two seasons due to back problems.
- Considered a possible top-10 draft pick before a torn bicep injury limited him to three games during senior year at Tennessee. Postponed his bicep surgery so

- ► Was the last Tennessee player to wear Reggie White's No. 92
- ▶ Is from the same hometown (Martin, Tenn.) as offensive lineman Chad Clifton.

Chris Johnson for a 1-yard loss on a third-down run early in the fourth quarter... At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Matched season high with four tackles and added a QB pressure... Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Played and posted a tackle and a QB pressure despite sustaining a knee injury in Nov. 13 practice... At New Orleans (Nov. 24): Again matched season high with four tackles.

2007: Signing the eve of training camp, played in seven games, making two starts, and was inactive for nine contests...Posted 24 tackles (13 solo)...Suffered an ankle injury during Oct. 23 practice and missed the next five games...Did not participate in mini-camps and organized team activities as a precaution, recovering from the torn biceps suffered as a senior at Tennessee... Vs. Chicago (Oct. 7): Saw his first career action, playing nine snaps on defense and making one solo tackle, stopping RB Cedric Benson for a 1-yard loss in the fourth guarter... Vs. Washington (Oct. 14): On Charles Woodson's 57-yard TD off a fumble return, provided a key block, leveling G Jason Fabini at the line of scrimmage... At Chicago (Dec. 23): Started his first pro contest, filling in for an injured Ryan Pickett (groin); set career highs with nine tackles and five solo stops... Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Started as a third DT when team opened in goal-line defense and finished with four tackles (three solo)...2007 Draft: Selected in the first round (16th overall) and became the 13th player from Tennessee drafted by the Packers and the first since C Scott Wells (D7-04). Also became the first DT selected by Green Bay in the first round since Vonnie Holliday in 1998.

COLLEGE: Finished his career at Tennessee with 35 games played, including 25 starts, with 82 tackles (46 solo), 14 stops for loss, four sacks, 21 QB pressures, four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, eight deflected passes and two INTs, returning one for a TD...Majored in sports management...Senior season (2006): A defensive captain, played in just three games due to a torn left biceps tendon, posting seven tackles (three solo) with a pressure and a tackle for loss...His tremendous value to the defensive line was evident in his absence, as the Vols recorded seven sacks in the three games he played (2.33 per game) and just 10 more sacks in the 10 games he missed (1.0 per game)...Super Sleeper Team selection and preseason All-SEC choice by The NFL Draft Report... Recorded two solo tackles vs. Air Force (Sept. 9), including one for a 1-yard loss, before rupturing his biceps tendon in the third quarter trying to tackle a RB...Was ruled out for the season and surgery was scheduled, but lobbied to postpone the surgery and play one more game, against SEC rival and eventual national champion Florida...With his arm heavily bandaged, started vs. Florida (Sept. 16) and made three tackles for no gain in a 21-20 defeat, coming out of the game periodically in tears and intense pain, but returning as soon as he could... Two of those tackles came against RB and fellow Green Bay draft pick DeShawn Wynn, and chased QB Chris Leak out of the pocket on another play for an eventual 1-yard loss...Junior season (2005): Started all 11 games, shifting to LDT and earning second-team All-SEC honors from The Associated Press and The NFL Draft Report... Totaled 39 tackles (21 solos) with 2½ sacks and 7½ total stops behind the line of scrimmage...Also intercepted two passes, returning one for a TD, and was credited with eight pressures, one forced fumble and three deflected passes...Earned SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week honors in season opener vs. Alabama-Birmingham (Sept. 3), intercepting his first career pass and returning it 29 yards...Posted careerhigh eight tackles (three solo) at Florida (Sept. 17) and posted sacks of Notre Dame's Brady Quinn (Nov. 5) and Vanderbilt's Jay Cutler (Nov. 19)...Closed the season in 27-8 victory at Kentucky (Nov. 26) with four tackles (three solo), a forced fumble, and an INT returned 7 yards for a TD off his own pass deflection...Sophomore season (2004): Started the team's first 11 games at RDT before an ankle sprain vs. Kentucky (Nov. 27) in regular-season finale would limit his play in SEC Championship vs. Auburn (Dec. 4)...Recovered to earn Cotton Bowl Defensive MVP honors to conclude season, posting three tackles, one sack and a fumble recovery off the bench vs. Texas A&M (Jan. 1)...For the season, registered 26 tackles (17 solo) with 11 pressures, 1½ sacks and 4½ stops for losses... Redshirt freshman season (2003): Missed most of spring drills after undergoing right leg surgery and then sat out the team's first five games with a broken right ankle sustained during camp, Aug. 8...Appeared in the team's final eight games, recording 10 tackles (five solo) with a stop for a 4-yard loss, a pass deflection and a pressure... Re-aggravated ankle injury after only one play vs. Miami (Nov. 8) and saw limited action the rest of the year.

PERSONAL: Given name Justin Tyrell Harrell...Last name is pronounced HAIR-uhl...Born in Martin, Tenn. ...Married the former Barbie Terry in March 2009...Brother, Jason, played college basketball at Tennessee Tech... High school: Attended Westview High in Martin, Tenn., the same high school Clifton attended...As a senior in 2001, named Tennessee's Class 2A "Mr. Football," adding Prep Football Report and PrepStar All-American honors... Also named West Tennessee's Defensive Player of the Year by the Jackson Sun and earned Class 2A All-State accolades, helping team to a 13-2 record and a state runner-up finish...A three-year starter on both offense and defense... During senior season, recorded 72 tackles as a defensive lineman, including 19 for loss, four sacks and eight pass deflections...Added 18 receptions for 354 yards and six TDs as a TE...As a junior, had 61 tackles, including 12 for loss, plus four pass deflections, and caught 21 passes for 291 yards and three scores...Also a three-year starter in basketball, averaged 17 points per game during senior season...Community involvement: Participated in the Brett Favre Celebrity Softball Game and a dinner to benefit the Donald Driver Foundation...Also shared football pointers at local Junior Power Pack clinic...Is involved in the Ronald McDonald House and St. Jude's in Memphis, and in the past has helped his hometown high school with a football camp and worked at the Boys and Girls Club in Knoxville...Hobbies/interests: Enjoys spending time with his family, fishing and playing video games (naming 'Call of Duty 4' his favorite)...Lists Harlem Knights as his favorite movie and Denzel Washington as his favorite actor...Hopes to eventually finish his degree in sports management...Residence: Martin, Tenn.

RON WOLF'S STAMP ON PACKERS HISTORY

Ron Wolf arrived in Green Bay Nov. 27, 1991, with a mandate to rescue the Green and Gold from a quarter-century of mediocrity, an assignment which prompted him to assert, "I was brought here to win."

And win, in the decade to follow, the Packers did – in large part because of his leadership and the "cast" he assembled to execute one of the most electrifying turnarounds in NFL annals...rewardingly punctuated by Green Bay's first Super Bowl victory in nearly three decades and back-to-back appearances in professional football's ultimate game.

During the history-making process, he made a more profound impact upon the Packers organization than anyone since the revered Vince Lombardi, who arrived in Green Bay with a similar mission 32 years earlier. Over Wolf's 1992-2000 tenure, the Packers compiled the NFL's second-winningest regular-season record, a 92-52 mark for a .639 percentage, recorded seven straight winning seasons and made six consecutive playoff appearances.

He converted the Green and Gold from perennial also-rans into consistent winners, exemplified by the fact they also have mounted the NFL's third-best regular-season won-lost record since the 1993 institution of free agency (169-103-0, .621).

Wolf's aggressive stewardship, launched with the hiring of 49ers offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren as head coach and the acquisition of Brett Favre as a franchise quarterback in 1992, is perhaps no better illustrated than by the Packers' immediate, 9-7 turnabout in 1992 – his first year on the job – after the team had been a dismal 4-12 in 1991 and 6-10 in 1990...a transformation which brought him recognition as 'INFL Executive of the Year' by Sporting News.

Wolf, reflecting upon the overall record from his perspective on the day he announced his retirement, observed with pardonable satisfaction: "What people said couldn't happen here...happened here (building a winner in Green Bay)...I'm proud of that."

A statistical glance at some notable team figures, over the nine years before - and after - Wolf took control:

DRAFT &

PRO CAREER: An intense, tough veteran looking to return to form after his 2009 season was cut short by a serious knee injury in Week 11...Showed his durability by playing in 175 straight games (163 regular season, 12 playoffs) before missing the first four games of his career in 2008 with a lacerated spleen...Returned to start final nine games of '08, and opened the first 10 games in '09 before sustaining the season-ending injury to his left knee vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22)...A bump-and-run, man-toman specialist who earned a reputation for shutting down the opposing team's top wideout with physical play at the line of scrimmage, made the adjustment to playing more zone coverage in the Packers' new 3-4 defensive scheme in '09...Will look to return to the starting lineup this season, which would be his eighth as the Packers' starter at right cornerback...Has been selected to the Pro Bowl or earned alternate status in five of his last six seasons in Green Bay...Earned back-to-back Pro Bowl trips in 2007-08...Pairs with Charles Woodson to form one of the most dynamic and experienced cornerback tandems in the league, and has been credited by his partner for the number of passes thrown his way, allowing Woodson to post 28 interceptions in four seasons in Green Bay...Also has helped to tutor many of Green Bay's young cornerbacks... Earned second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press in 2007...Did not allow a TD pass in 2005 until Week 13...Broke the Packers' single-season record for passes defensed (tracked since 1982) with 28 in 2004, topping the 27 of Doug Evans in 1995...In 182 regular-season games (123 starts), has 21 career interceptions among 157 passes defensed, and 470 tackles (404 solo)...For the Packers, has returned three picks for touchdowns, including a 52-yard game-winning TD in OT vs. Seattle in an NFC Wild Card playoff, Jan. 4, 2004...Philadelphia traded Harris to the Packers along with a fourth-round pick for Green Bay's second-round choice in the same draft, in a March 3, 2003, deal...Had played behind Pro Bowl cornerbacks Troy Vincent and Bobby Taylor with the Eagles...Began his NFL career in 1997 as a sixth-round draft choice of Tampa Bay, spending his rookie year on the team's practice squad... Subsequently released by the Buccaneers in the final preseason cutdown the next year, he was claimed off waivers by Philadelphia, where he went on to enjoy five highly productive seasons (1998-2002)...Had played the final two years of his collegiate career at Texas A&M-Kingsville after beginning at the junior college level (Trinity Valley)...Has signed two multi-year contract extensions with the Packers in the last six years.

2009 SEASON: Started first 10 games of the season at RCB before sustaining season-ending left knee injury in Week 11...Finished season with 37 tackles (28 solo), two INTs, a sack, a fumble recovery, and seven passes defensed...Placed on injured reserve Nov. 25 and had surgery Nov. 30...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Registered a career-high 11 tackles, including a career-best eight solo stops. Put 21-15 win away when he jumped a slant route to pick off QB Jay Cutler's pass intended for WR Johnny Knox at Chicago's 43 with just over a minute remaining; returned the interception 29 yards...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Posted the first fumble recovery of his career when he scooped up a RB Steven Jackson fumble forced by DE

- ► Earned back-to-back Pro Bowl trips in 2007-08 after alternate recognition the previous three years
- ► Missed the first four games of his career in 2008, after playing in 175 straight (163 regular season, 12 playoffs), with a lacerated spleen, and missed the final six contests of '09 with an injured knee.
- 31 at a glance...
- ► His 182 career games played currently ranks No. 5 among active NFL cornerbacks.
- ► For the last six seasons, regularly assigned to shadow the opponent's top receiver.
- In 2005, did not allow a TD pass until Week 13 and recorded his first two-interception game and first NFL sack vs. New Orleans that year (Oct. 9).
- ▶ Recorded a team-record and career-high 28 passes defensed in 2004, eclipsing the 27 by Doug Evans in 1995 (record longed since 1982).
- ► His Coral Springs, Fla., home was featured on MTV's Cribs.

Cullen Jenkins at the St. Louis 12 late in the first quarter; the recovery set up a Green Bay FG...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Led the secondary with seven tackles (six solo)...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Posted his first sack since 2005 (at Atlanta, Nov. 13) when he came off the left edge, made a move to elude a block by RB Kevin Smith, and brought down QB Drew Stanton for a 9-yard loss on a third down early in the fourth quarter. Midway through the third quarter, picked off Stanton on a deep pass down the left sideline that went off the hands of TE Brandon Pettigrew, getting both feet in bounds at the Green Bay 29...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Posted two passes defensed, breaking up a short pass to WR Michael Crabtree in the second quarter and a deep throw to Crabtree over the middle in the third quarter. Left the game with just under 11 minutes remaining when he injured his knee covering Crabtree near the goal line.

2008: Started 12 games and was named Pro Bowl alternate - ultimately earning a spot in the game as an injury replacement for Philadelphia's Asante Samuel... Sustained a lacerated spleen in Week 3 and missed the next four games, the first missed contests of his entire career...Returned to practice on a limited basis Oct. 15 and returned to starting lineup following the Oct. 26 bye ... Fourth on the team with 12 passes defensed and recorded 21 tackles (all solo)...Was on the field for just under 70 percent of defensive plays on the season despite missing four games...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Started and finished with two tackles and a pass defensed, covering one of the Vikings' primary offseason acquisitions, WR Bernard Berrian, for much of the night and limiting him to three catches for 38 yards...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Matched up with WR Roy Williams and held him to just three receptions for 48 yards while posting season highs with three tackles and three passes defensed... Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Started, but left game in second quarter with cramps. Medical staff would not allow him to return because of blood in his urine, which later was attributed to spleen injury...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Missed the first game of his NFL career, snapping his streak of 175 consecutive games played...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Returned to the field after missing previous four games and returned to his customary starting RCB spot...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Covered Berrian for much of the afternoon and held him to no receptions after Berrian entered the game with 100-plus yards in three of his last four contests... Pro Bowl (Feb. 8): Played as a reserve for NFC and had three solo tackles and one pass defensed.

2007: Named to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 16 games and posting 37 tackles (34 solo) with two INTs among nine passes defensed...Became first Packers' CB since Willie Buchanon in 1978 to earn Pro Bowl bid...On the field for 90.6 percent of the defensive snaps...Named to The Associated Press 2007 NFL All-Pro second team as well as the 2007 All-Interview team as chosen by NFL. com's Vic Carucci...Battled his share of injuries once again, beginning with back problems in the preseason and continuing with an elbow injury in the season opener, but still suited up to play every game, including both playoff contests... Vs. Washington (Oct. 14): Held WR Santana Moss to no catches and broke up two passes. On Woodson's 57-yard TD off a fumble recovery, slowed up QB Jason Campbell just enough to keep him from chasing down Woodson...At Detroit (Nov. 22): Held Williams to two catches (Williams had an additional catch, but against zone coverage); had two passes defensed and added four tackles (three solo). On the Lions' last offensive play, broke up a long pass intended for Williams...At Dallas (Nov. 29): Had his first INT of the year, picking off a fourth-quarter pass in the end zone that bounced off Terrell Owens' hands...At St. Louis (Dec. 16): Limited Torry Holt to three catches for 21 yards... Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Made three solo tackles and had season-best three passes defensed. Did not start due to defense opening in goal-line formation, the only non-start in his first 85 career games (80 regular season, 5 playoffs) in Green Bay prior to 2008 spleen injury...Pro Bowl (Feb. 10): Started at LCB for NFC and tied for team lead with five tackles (all solo).

2006: Started all 16 games and was on the field for 1,028 of opponents' 1,044 offensive snaps (98.5 percent), second on the club to SS Marquand Manuel...Also finished second on the team with 20 passes defensed, including three INTs...Totaled 38 tackles (36 solo) and voted as a Pro Bowl alternate for the third straight season...Named by Larry Weisman to USA Today's "All-Joe" team, recognized as a player who makes valuable contributions to his team that are not necessarily reflected by statistics... Vs. Arizona (Oct. 29): Established a career-high five passes defensed and held Pro Bowler Anguan Boldin to four catches for 47 yards... Vs. N.Y. Jets (Dec. 3): Played in his 150th consecutive game (including playoffs) and held WR Laveranues Coles to three catches...At San Francisco (Dec. 10): Limited WR Arnaz Battle to one catch for 11 yards and made a TD-saving stop in the first quarter, pushing RB Frank Gore out at Green Bay 2-yard line after a 72-yard run; the drive ended with a FG in an eventual 30-19 win... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 17): Intercepted a pass intended for Williams and ran it back 34 yards, setting up a game-tying FG in 17-9 win. The Pro Bowler Williams, who commented before the game that he votes for Harris for the Pro Bowl every year, was limited to one catch for 11 yards — only his third career one-catch game (also 2004 at Green Bay and 2006 at Minnesota), and the reception came not against Harris, but against a zone defense.

2005: The leader of a secondary that ranked No. 1 in the NFL against the pass, started all 16 games at RCB for the third straight campaign...Played 97.4 percent of the defensive snaps, tied for second among Green Bay's defenders, and led the team with three INTs, returning one for a score, and 18 passes defensed...Made 53 tackles (47 solo), forced one fumble and recorded his first three NFL sacks...Did not allow a TD pass until Week 13, broke up at least one pass over the season's final six games, and posted his 100th career pass defensed later in the year...A Pro Bowl alternate, earned a spot on the 'Lunch Pail Crew' all-star team of Fox Sports broadcaster Daryl 'Moose' Johnston...Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 9): Garnered 'NFC Defensive Player of the Week' honors after one of the best games of his career. Posted career-high two INTs among three passes defensed and one solo tackle, his first NFL sack. On back-to-back first-half series, intercepted passes intended for WR Donté Stallworth, returning the first one 22 yards for a score. In second half, sacked QB Aaron Brooks for a 4-yard loss and broke up another pass, nearly snatching his third INT of the game... At Carolina (Oct. 3): Helped limit Pro Bowl WR Steve Smith to just two catches for 12 yards...Vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 6): Made four tackles (three solo), as the Steelers did not throw in his direction once during the game... At Chicago (Dec. 4): Held Pro Bowl WR Muhsin Muhammad without a reception for first time in receiver's past 47 games.

2004: Started all 16 regular-season games for the second straight year, in addition to starting NFC Wild Card playoff...Made 67 tackles (62 solo) and had a career-high and team-record 28 passes defensed, with one INT... Played through October with a painful (left) big toe injury, originally suffered in practice Sept. 30... At Washington (Oct. 31): Started despite spraining the MCL in his right knee the previous game and not practicing much during the week, and recorded the first of three straight games with four passes defensed. Posted a key INT late, with Washington on the Packers' 48-yard line, Green Bay clinging to a 20-14 lead with under three minutes remaining and the Redskins having had a potential go-ahead TD negated by penalty on the prior play. Intercepted a Mark Brunell pass intended for Rod Gardner to help seal the victory, returning it 29 yards to the Washington 36 to set up an Ahman Green TD four plays later... Vs. St. Louis (Nov. 29): Matched season high with eight tackles (seven solo), including a heads-up play with S Mark Roman to snuff out a Rams' fake FG attempt... At Minnesota (Dec. 24): Limited WR Randy Moss to a pair of receptions in division-clinching victory.

2003: Took over the starting RCB job after joining the Packers in an offseason trade with Philadelphia...Played in all 16 contests for the sixth straight year, starting every game for the first time...Also started both playoff games...Made three INTs among 14 passes defensed... Recorded 46 tackles (43 solo), including one forced fumble (his first as a pro)...Added nine stops (eight solo) during the postseason... Vs. Detroit (Sept. 14): Scored his second professional TD when he stepped in front of a QB Joey Harrington pass intended for TE Casey FitzSimmons and returned the INT 56 yards for the score, his first since late in '99 season... Vs. Seattle (Oct. 5): Recorded season highs in tackles with seven and passes defensed with two...At San Diego (Dec. 14): Forced WR David Boston to fumble at Chargers' 39-yard line. Recovery by S Margues Anderson set up a Green Bay FG...Vs. Seattle (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 4): Came up with the first defensive TD to end a postseason OT game in NFL history to earn NFL 'Defensive Player of the Week' honors and indelibly place himself in Packers lore. In manto-man coverage with Seahawks QB Matt Hasselbeck facing an all-out blitz, jumped a quick hitch pass intended for WR Alex Bannister, intercepted the ball and raced 52 yards up the right sideline for the game-winning score.

2002: Served as a key contributor to the Eagles' fourthrated defense in his final season with Philadelphia...Was named as the NFL's "best 'nickel' cornerback" by USA Today Sportsweekly...Played in all 18 of Philadelphia's games (16 regular season, two playoffs), making a pair of starts, as the Eagles advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the second straight year...Led the team and matched his (then) career high with 13 passes defensed... Also totaled 25 tackles (18 solo) and one INT...At Tennessee (Sept. 8): Replaced an injured Vincent (knee) in starting lineup and posted season-high four tackles... Vs. Tampa Bay (Oct. 20): Leapt to intercept a QB Brad Johnson pass, intended for WR Keyshawn Johnson, early in fourth guarter with Eagles clinging to a three-point lead at the time; Philadelphia took over at the Bucs' 42-yard line and drove for the game-clinching TD.

2001: Got on the field mostly in 'nickel' situations, helping the Eagles to the NFL's second-best pass defense while playing in all 16 regular-season games for the fourth straight year... Started two games — once when Eagles opened in nickel and also when Vincent was out — and also saw reserve action in all three playoff contests, including NFC Championship loss at St. Louis (Jan. 27).

Vs. Dallas (Sept. 30): Picked off QB Anthony Wright in Sunday night win...At Kansas City (Nov. 29): Posted another prime-time INT, this one off QB Trent Green with just under three minutes left in 23-10 Thursday night triumph...Vs. Tampa Bay (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 12): Tallied four stops in playoff win.

2000: Remained a valued member of the Eagles' secondary in his third season with the team...Saw action in all 16 regular-season games, plus both playoff contests... Made four starts – three when Eagles opened in 'nickel' alignment...Recorded 32 tackles (22 solo) and three passes defensed...At Arizona (Oct. 15): Though he did not pick off a pass over the course of the year, was credited with a 1-yard INT return when Vincent lateraled to him...At N.Y. Giants (Oct. 29): Started for a healthy Taylor, his only start of the season in base defense.

1999: Continued to excel as a spot starter during his second year as Philadelphia's 'nickel' corner... Made six starts, five of them in place of either Taylor or Vincent, while playing in every game...Tied for second on the team with four INTs and also recorded 40 tackles (31 solo) with 17 passes defensed...Ranked first in the NFC with 151 INT return vards...Signed a five-year contract extension, through the 2004 season, on Nov. 6... Vs. Arizona (Sept. 12): On opening day, registered his first NFL INTwhen he picked off QB Jake Plummer to position Eagles for an early TD...Vs. Washington (Nov. 14): Intercepted QB Brad Johnson after ripping the ball loose from WR Albert Connell (a onetime teammate at Trinity Valley Community College)... Vs. New England (Dec. 19): Returned a QB Drew Bledsoe INT 84 yards - the longest ever by an Eagles player at Veterans Stadium - to set up a TD...Vs. St. Louis (Jan. 2): Scored first NFL TD by returning a QB Joe Germaine INT 17 yards for game-winning points.

1998: Became an immediate contributor in his first season with the Eagles...Was claimed off waivers by Philadelphia on Aug. 31 following his release by Tampa Bay a day earlier in the final roster reduction of training camp (had been re-signed by Buccaneers on Jan. 22 following expiration of '97 season practice-squad contract)...Played in all 16 games, serving as third CB when not in the starting lineup...Notched 53 tackles (45 solo), as well as five passes defensed and a pair of special teams stops...Vs. Seattle (Sept. 6): Made NFL debut in opener, starting at RCB in place of injured Taylor (shoulder), the first of five straight starts and seven overall on the year...At Arizona (Sept. 20): Posted eight tackles (six solo) in just his third game and also had season-best two pass breakups.

1997: Spent his entire rookie season on the Tampa Bay practice squad after an unsuccessful bid to make the team's 53-man roster...Waived on the final roster reduction of training camp (Aug. 24), he was signed to the Buccaneers' practice squad two days later, remaining there until season's end...1997 Draft: Was the first of two sixth-round draft choices (169th overall) by Tampa Bay.

COLLEGE: Was a two-year starter and letterman at Texas A&M-Kingsville after spending two seasons at Trinity Valley Community College in Athens, Texas... Finished Kingsville career with 88 tackles (61 solo), nine INTs, 14 passes defensed and one fumble recovery... Majored in kinesiology... Senior season (1996): Was a first-team All-Lone Star Conference pick with a careerbest five INTs...Junior season (1995): Intercepted a pass in each of the Javelinas' 1995 playoff games, vs. Fort Hays and Portland State...Junior college (1993-94): Recorded eight INTs and 121 tackles.

THE GOALPOSTS

From the Rule Book: "In the plane of each end line, there shall be a centrally placed horizontal crossbar 18 feet 6 inches in length, the top face of which is 10 feet above the ground. The goal is the vertical plane extending indefinitely above the crossbar and between the lines indicated by the outer edges of the goal posts. All goal posts will be the single-standard type, offset from the end line and bright gold in color. The uprights will extend 30 feet above the crossbar and will be no less than 3 inches and no more than 4 inches in diameter. An orange-colored ribbon 4 inches by 42 inches is to be attached to the top of each post."

History: The NFL moved its goal posts from the goal line to the end line prior to the 1974 season. In 1966, the year after Don Chandler's controversial field goal sent a Packers-Colts playoff game into overtime, the league raised the height of the goal posts to "a minimum 20 feet above the crossbar."

PRO CAREER: A former reserve linebacker turned tight end, forged a roster spot for himself in 2009 with his versatility and special-teams contributions...Began crosstraining at both positions last spring during OTAs and then practiced on both sides of the ball last summer during training camp before settling into a backup tight-end role while maintaining his special-teams duties ... Was the surprise performer during fellow tight end Jermichael Finley's absence due to a knee injury, catching four touchdown passes over a stretch of four games in his first significant playing time on the offensive side...Caught seven passes for 112 yards in the regular season and added a fifth TD catch in the playoffs, all while also ranking third on the team with 20 special teams tackles...Missed offseason practices due to shoulder injury sustained in motorcycle accident, but was expected to be ready for training camp... Persevered through multiple stints on the team's practice squad over a three-year span (2006-08) to land a spot on the active roster for final four games of 2008, playing exclusively on special teams...Registered three coverage tackles and downed two punts inside the opponent's 10-yard line during his brief regular-season action... Former captain and four-year starter in college at UCLA was originally signed by Washington as a non-drafted free agent in 2006... Was waived in the team's final roster reduction and signed to Green Bay's practice squad in early October...Was released by Packers following both 2007 and 2008 training camps, eventually getting re-signed to the team's practice squad both years; was finally signed to active roster for the first time in December 2008...Finished college career as UCLA's third-leading tackler all-time, with 402 stops, set a school record with four defensive touchdowns (three interceptions, one fumble recovery), and blocked three kicks on special teams...Was a teammate of LB Brandon Chillar's with the Bruins.

2009 SEASON: Played in all 16 games with one start at TE...Tied for fourth on the team with four TD receptions...Caught seven passes for 112 yards (16.0 avg.)... Ranked third on the team with 20 special teams tackles, participating in 69.6 percent of the team's special teams plays, third most on the team...Began cross-training at TE during OTAs, becoming first two-way player during Mike McCarthy's tenure... Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Caught the first pass of his career when he pulled in a 21-yard reception over the middle from QB Aaron Rodgers in the first quarter. The catch came on third down and kept a drive alive that was capped off with a TD catch by WR Donald Driver...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Made a tackle of RB Aaron Brown for a 1-yard loss on a fake punt by Detroit in second quarter; P Nick Harris went under center on fourth-and-3 and pitched the ball to Brown, who was brought down by Havner at the Green Bay 44. Also caught a 9-yard pass over the middle down to Detroit's 12 in the third quarter and added a tackle on special teams...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Posted the first TD reception of his career on career-long 45-yard grab in the second quarter. With the Packers facing a third-and-1 at the Cleveland 45, caught a pass from Rodgers at the 40 and took it down the right sideline for the score, breaking a tackle by S Abram Elam at the 20 and diving to the pylon to beat S Brodney Pool. On ensuing kickoff, ran down the field to make tackle of WR Joshua Cribbs, one of team-best two special teams tackles. Added a 14-yard reception in the fourth quarter to give him a career-high two receptions for career-best 59 yards...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Caught two passes for 21 yards, with both going for TDs as he became the first Packers TE since Donald Lee (Nov. 11-18, 2007) to record three TDs in a two-game span. Both TDs came on third-down passes, from 16 and 5 yards, respectively... At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Had first kickoff returns of career with two for 26 yards (13.0 avg.) as he fielded two short kicks...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Started first game of his career as team opened in two-TE set and caught 2-yard TD pass on left side of the end zone with S Gerald Sensabaugh covering him with just under 11 minutes remaining to put the Packers up 17-0. Tied for team lead with career-high four special teams tackles... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Led team with three tackles on special teams... At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Caught two passes for 16 yards, including an 11-yard TD with just under two minutes remaining in fourth quarter to tie the game at 45. Made the grab in the flat at Arizona's 6, then spun away and stiff-armed CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie on his way to the end zone.

2008: Waived at the end of Green Bay's training camp for the second straight year and re-signed to practice squad on Oct. 15, where he spent six games...Signed to active roster on Dec. 5...Played in the final four games and registered three special teams tackles...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Made NFL debut on special-teams coverage units, making two tackles and downing Jeremy Kapinos' 35-yard punt at the Houston 3 late in the fourth quarter... At Jacksonville (Dec. 14): Recorded a tackle on special teams...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Downed Kapinos' 30-yard punt at the Detroit 9 in the second quarter.

2007: Spent offseason and training camp in Green Bay but was waived in final preseason roster reduction... Signed to the Packers' practice squad, Sept. 2.

2006: Spent training camp with Washington Redskins but was waived in final roster reduction...Signed to Green Bay's practice squad on Oct. 4, where he spent the season's final 13 weeks...2006 Draft: Signed with Washington as non-drafted free agent, May 4.

COLLEGE: Former captain and four-year starter for UCLA was one of the most productive LBs in college football...His 402 career tackles rank third in school annals...Finished his Bruin career with 42 tackles for loss, six sacks and 11 INTs...His four defensive TDs (three INTs, one fumble recovery) still stand as a school record, now tied with CB Alterraun Verner...Also blocked three kicks on special teams...Tallied double-digit tackles in 15 games during his career...Earned his B.A. in history... THE LAMBEAU LEAP

LeRoy Butler's spontaneous gesture after scoring a 1993 touchdown has turned into the team's most prominent modern tradition, emulated by many other NFL players. It also symbolizes the team's unique relationship with its fans. No doubt, the initial Lambeau Leap will go down as one of the most memorable moments of Butler's 12-year career.

Butler's leap took place late in a frigid game vs. the Los Angeles Raiders, Dec. 26, 1993, at Lambeau Field. The touchdown gave the Packers a commanding fourthquarter lead, en route to a 28-0 shutout that clinched a playoff berth, their first of six consecutive postseason trips.

Chronology of the play:

- QB Vince Evans completes second-down swing pass to RB Randy Jordan, who takes ball to Raiders' 40-yard line.
- Butler forces fumble, recovered by Reggie White at Raiders' 35.
- White returns ball 10 yards before lateraling to Butler, who covers the remaining 25 yards into the end zone and leaps into arms of fans in south bleachers.

2009 GREEN BAY

NFC Wild Card Playoff

THE USS GREEN BAY

01/10 at Ari-L 1 0

The U.S. Navy on July 15, 2006, christened a 684-foot warship, and dubbed it the USS Green Bay at a shipyard in the New Orleans area.

2 16 8.0 11t

Constructed in Avondale, La., at a shipyard owned by Northrop Grumman, it is the second Navy vessel to be called the Green Bay, following a small gunboat that patroled the seas during the Vietnam era.

The newest Green Bay, used to carry troops for rapid deployment, launch and recovery, will become a significant part of the U.S. amphibious fleet.

Former Green Bay Packers quarterback Bart Starr appeared in a video that was played at the July 15, 2006 christening ceremony. And Nancy Croy, principal at Green Bay's Lombardi Middle School - named after Starr's legendary coach Vince Lombardi - traveled to attend the christening as part of the school's relationship with the Navy.

Members of the Packers' front office, including President and CEO

Mark Murphy, toured the ship in November 2008 during the team's road trip to New Orleans.

Commissioned Jan. 24, 2009, it can carry 360 Navy sailors and as many as 800 Marines. Assigned to the U.S. Pacific Fleet, the ship's home port is at the naval base in San Diego, Calif.

PRO CAREER: Reliable, assignment-sure defender entering his fifth season, having played in all 64 games with 62 starts in his first four years following selection as a top-five draft pick... Has either led the team in tackles or finished second in each of his seasons in Green Bay...Has posted 492 tackles (347 solo), 8½ sacks, five interceptions, 20 passes defensed, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries during his career... Despite seeing his snap count go down in 2009 compared to his first four seasons because of the Packers' frequent use of sub-packages, was one of only 10 linebackers in the NFL to post at least 85 tackles, two interceptions, and a sack...The two interceptions matched his career high...Played the 'Buck' inside linebacker position in the Packers' 3-4 base defense in '09...In 2008, played through chest and groin injuries to lead the Packers in tackles for the second time in his career after moving from weak-side to middle linebacker the second half of the season to replace injured Nick Barnett...His team-leading 155 tackles in 2006 were the second most ever recorded by a Packers' rookie (Rich Wingo, 166 in 1979), and his 112 solo tackles ranked third in the league...Finished third in The Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year voting, and earned a spot on the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie Team...Also named the team's Defensive Rookie of the Year...The first linebacker taken in the 2006 draft after being a consensus All-American each of his final two seasons at Ohio State...One of only two linebackers taken among the top five selections over a period of nine NFL drafts (1998-2006), joined LaVar Arrington (No. 2 overall, 2000) in an exclusive group...Followed the likes of Lawrence Taylor (1981), Derrick Thomas (1989), Junior Seau (1990) and Willie McGinest (1994) as one of only 27 linebackers drafted in the top five since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970...Despite fielding a few attractive offers to move from the No. 5 position, GM Ted Thompson kept the pick, and the player he had targeted with that selection from the beginning was still there...When Thompson (a former linebacker himself) drafted Hawk, unlike most of the other high-profile selections, the linebacker wasn't dressed in a suit at Radio City Music Hall to shake hands and pose with Commissioner Paul Tagliabue on national television...Instead, the humble All-American had declined the league's invitation in order to share the moment with his friends and extended family in his native Ohio...That move was no surprise to those who knew him, because humility had defined Hawk since his days at Centerville (Ohio) High School, when he instructed his parents not to cheer for him and he never wore his high school varsity jackets to avoid coming across as "big-time"...In college, was always at his best in the Buckeyes' biggest games...In just one game against eventual national champion Texas in 2005, induced QB Vince Young into two and nearly three turnovers with an interception, fumble recovery, sack, and another forced fumble...Twice started in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl (2003, '05 seasons) and each time earned the contest's defensive MVP honors; also played as a reserve in the Fiesta Bowl, when Ohio State claimed the national championship for the 2002 season...Didn't expect to be drafted by the Packers, but along with his family hoped Green Bay would be his destination because it most resembled his Midwest roots, a smaller town with ardent fans and outstanding tradition, like Columbus, Ohio.

- Has either led the team or finished second in tackles in each of his four seasons in Green Bay.
- ► Hasn't missed a game in his career, playing in all 64 contests with 62 starts. The only two nonstarts came in both Minnesota games in '09 when Packers opened in nickel defense.
- at a glance...

- record at least 85 tackles, two interceptions and a sack in 2009.
- ► Led the team in tackles as a rookle in 2006 with 155, second most ever recorded by Green Bay rookle (Rich Wingo, 166 in 1979). His 112 solo stops were third best in the NFL among all players that year.
- ► Finished third in NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year voting and earned a spot on Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie Team.
- ► First linebacker drafted in the top five of the NFL Draft since Washington chose LaVar Arrington No. 2 overall in 2000; one of only 27 linebackers selected in the top five since the 1970 league merger.
- A consensus All-American both as a junior (2004) and senior (2005), earned first-team All-Big Ten honors in each of his three seasons as a starter. Also captured the 2005 Lombardi Award, given annually to the nation's top lineman or linebacker.
- Nicknamed 'A.J.' by his parents, fans of legendary Indy car driver A.J. Foyt.
- Grew his hair long in 2005 as a tribute to the late Pat Tillman, the former NFL player who lost his life with the U.S. Army while serving in Afghanistan.

2009 SEASON: Played in all 16 games for the fourth straight season with 14 starts at 'Buck' LB...His only non-starts came in both Minnesota games when the defense opened in nickel...Also played in playoff game... Selected as a Pro Bowl alternate...Finished second on the team with 87 tackles (70 solo) and led Green Bay's LBs with two INTs, which matched his career high... Added a sack, four passes defensed, and two tackles on special teams ... At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Led team with season-high 11 tackles (seven solo)...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Had his streak of 51 consecutive games started snapped when team opened in nickel. Posted four tackles (two solo)...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Led the defense with 10 tackles (eight solo), including a season-high three tackles for loss. Stopped RB Jamal Lewis for losses of 1 and 2 yards on runs, and brought QB Derek Anderson down for a 2-yard loss on a fumbled snap...At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Saw most significant action of the season to that point, playing in both the base defense as well as the nickel with LB Brandon Chillar (hand) sidelined. Posted his first sack of the season when he brought down QB Josh Freeman for a 7-yard loss at the Tampa Bay 3 midway through the second quarter. Finished afternoon with six tackles (five solo)...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Tied for team lead with 10 tackles (eight solo), including a stop of RB Kevin Smith for a 1-yard loss on third-quarter run...Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Led the team with seven tackles (five solo) and posted his first INT in more than two years. With the Packers up 24-14 midway through the fourth quarter, ran down the seam with TE Todd Heap and made leaping INT at the Green Bay 47; returned the pick 13 yards to Baltimore's 40 to help set up a 32-yard Mason Crosby FG...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Intercepted QB Matt Hasselbeck's third-down pass in the right flat on Seattle's opening drive at Green Bay's 36, and returned the pick a career-long 29 yards. Added five tackles (all solo)... At Arizona (Jan. 3): Tied for the team lead with seven tackles (six solo), including a stop of RB Beanie Wells for a 1-yard loss on run in the second guarter...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Didn't start as defense opened in nickel, and recorded two solo tackles.

2008: Started every game for the third straight season, playing through chest and groin injuries...Had nine starts at WLB and final seven at MLB, where he replaced the injured Barnett...Led team with 121 tackles (84 solo)...Led LBs and was tied for second on the team with three sacks...On the field for 869-of-1.050 (82.8 percent) defensive plays, most among the team's LBs... Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Started at WLB and led the team with season-high 12 tackles after missing final three preseason games with chest injury suffered in preseason opener vs. Cincinnati (Aug. 11). Wore a shoulder harness to help protect the injury...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Posted first two-sack game of his career and tied for team lead with seven tackles. On second sack, leaped over attempted block by Smith and brought down QB Jon Kitna...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Posted four tackles and broke up a pass intended for TE Jerramy Stevens in the end zone on third down to limit the Bucs to a FG. Left game briefly in second half with groin injury but continued to start despite being limited in practice the next two weeks... Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Saw limited time and did not post any tackles for first time in career as team primarily used nickel package...Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Started first career game at MLB in place of an injured Barnett and led team with 12 tackles, matching his season high...At Jacksonville (Dec. 14): Started at MLB and tied for team high with 10 tackles, including sack of David Garrard for an 8-yard loss early in the fourth quarter... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Started seventh straight game at MLB and surpassed 400-tackle mark for his career with eight stops.

2007: Started all 16 games (plus both playoff contests) at WLB and finished second on the team with 129 tackles (81 solo), adding one sack, one fumble recovery, one forced fumble, one INT and four passes defensed...Played 92.2 percent of the defensive snaps...Vs. Washington (Oct. 14): Made nine tackles (six solo), plus one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. In the first quarter, stripped the ball away from TE Chris Cooley (recovered by Cooley), and in the fourth quarter, dove on a RB Clinton Portis fumble that was knocked out by S Atari Bigby...At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Made his first INT of the year and third of his career, stepping in front of a pass intended for RB Priest Holmes and then fighting for 10 return yards... At Dallas (Nov. 29): Had a team- and season-high 14 tackles (eight solo), with three tackles for loss. In the second quarter, stuffed RB Marion Barber for minus-1 yard. On consecutive pass plays in the third quarter, took down TE Jason Witten for a 1-yard loss and Barber for a loss of 3...Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Made nine tackles (four solo), with one sack, bringing down Eli Manning on fourth-and-8 near the end of the first half.

2006: Started all 16 games and led the team with 155 tackles (112 solo), second most ever recorded by a Packers rookie (Rich Wingo, 166 tackles in 1979), and led LBs with 3½ sacks...Among all NFL players, only Houston LB DeMeco Ryans (126) and Chicago LB Lance Briggs (117) had more solo stops...Also notched a pair of INTs among nine passes defensed, forced a fumble and recovered two others... Was on the field for 995 snaps, or 95.3 percent; the Packers thus utilized the nickel package more than dime...Finished third in The Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year voting...Named to the prestigious Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie team and won Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Week honors twice (Weeks 7 and 10)...At Detroit (Sept. 24): Recorded his first NFL sack, dropping Kitna in the fourth quarter... At Philadelphia (Oct. 2): Teamed with Aaron Kampman to sack QB Donovan McNabb; earlier, recovered a fumble inside the Packers' 5-yard line (forced by Charles Woodson)...At Miami (Oct. 22): Made a team-high 16 tackles (13 solo), plus broke up a pass and sacked QB Joey Harrington, forcing the Dolphins to settle for a FG...At Minnesota (Nov. 12): Assisted on two sacks (1.0 total) and posted 17 tackles (11 solo), plus his first career forced fumble. With DT Cullen Jenkins, sacked Brad Johnson for a 10-yard loss, getting to Johnson first by shedding two blocks by Vikings RBs. In the fourth quarter, sacked Johnson again with Barnett, leading to another punt... At Seattle (Nov. 27): Had a career-best 20 tackles (16 solo)...At San Francisco (Dec. 10): Made his first career INT, stepping in front of an Alex Smith throw to TE Vernon Davis in the end zone, returning it 25 yards...At Chicago (Dec. 31): Snared a third-down Brian Griese pass in the third quarter for his second INT...2006 Draft: Selected fifth overall in the first round and joined Vinnie Clark (1991) and John Brockington (1971) in Packers history as first-round selections from Ohio State...Became the first LB taken in the top five by the Packers since Fred Carr (5th) in 1968.

PRO CAREER: Fourth-year pro who seems to have found a niche as a third-down back, developing into one of the team's best pass protectors out of the backfield... Ironically, his initial struggles in training camp as a rookie came with blitz pick-ups, but has worked tirelessly to hone his skills there...Remains a viable backup to Ryan Grant, having posted 626 yards rushing and 502 yards receiving, with five total touchdowns, in his three-year career...Has shown notable productivity at different times each year - in 2009, scoring a career-best three touchdowns (two rushing, one receiving) in playoff-clinching win vs. Seattle in Week 16; in 2008, averaging 5.5 yards per rush in his limited carries, tied for fifth in the NFL among backs with at least 45 attempts; and in 2007, posting a 100-yard rushing performance in the regular-season finale vs. Detroit (20 carries, 113 yards)...Began his rookie campaign as the starter in an injury-depleted backfield, learning the NFL game on the fly and taking nearly all the snaps in training camp as the No. 1 back...One month into the regular season, missed some time with injury and spent the rest of the year improving in all areas, particularly blocking and blitz pick-up, to become Grant's primary backup... Also began playing special teams for the first time in his life and adapted well...An early entry in the draft, played three seasons at Nebraska in a tailback rotation, emerging as the team's feature back the final nine games of his junior season, gaining 835 yards in those nine contests, an average of 92.8 yards per game as a starter...Overcame injuries to both shoulders, one that limited him to just 18 carries as a sophomore in 2005...Bounced back from a second shoulder injury to ultimately earn first-team All-Big 12 Conference honors...Explained his decision to turn pro early was made in part to help provide financial support for his mother, who is a diabetic working as a registered nurse in a nursing home...Also has noted being motivated by memories of his father, who died when Jackson was 10, the result of a car accident that had paralyzed him four years earlier...His parents split up when he was young, and he was living in Chicago with his mother at the time of his father's accident, which occurred in Nashville; the family moved to Mississippi after his father's death, and Jackson brings a Polaroid picture of his late father with him to every game.

2009: Played in 12 games and rushed for 111 yards and a career-high two TDs on 37 carries (3.0 avg.)...Finished second among RBs with 187 receiving yards and a TD on 21 catches (8.9 avg.)...One of only two players (John Kuhn) on the team to post a rushing and a receiving TD on the season...Inactive for first four games due to sprained ankle suffered during preseason game at Arizona (Aug. 28)... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Made season debut, posting 6 yards rushing on two carries as third-down back, along with a 12-yard reception in the third quarter...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Rushed for season-high 31 yards on nine carries (3.4 avg.), including 9-yard pickup late in the fourth quarter. Also handled kick-return duties, posting two returns for 36 yards (18.0 avg.)...Vs. San Francisco (11/22): Matched career high with six catches for a careerbest 65 yards, becoming the first Packers RB since Noah Herron (Nov. 5, 2006) to post four 10-yard receptions in a game. Had a 16-yard catch on a third-and-11 in the second

- ► Has played in 25 games over the past two seasons as a third-down back, developing into one of the team's most reliable pass protectors in the backfield.
- ► In 2009, scored three touchdowns (two rushing, one receiving) in Week 16 win vs. Seattle, becoming one of only two Packers to post both a rushing

- ► His 5.5 yards-per-carry average in 2008 tied for fifth in the NFL among players with at least 45 carries.
- ▶ Became a feature back in the final nine games of 2006 at Nebraska, gaining 835 yards for an average of 93 yards per guarter to keep a TD drive alive, and had another 16-yard reception later in the half to help set up a Mason Crosby FG. Also had a game-long 8-yard run on Green Bay's final drive to put the Packers at third-and-1 at midfield; QB Aaron Rodgers picked up a first down on a sneak on the next play to put the game away... Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Caught two passes for 14 yards, including a 10-yard reception to convert a third down on the Packers' opening drive that was capped off with a 28-yard FG...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Caught one pass for 4 yards, had a 1-yard run, and was noted by the coaching staff for an outstanding effort in pass protection against the Steelers' blitzes, as Rodgers was only sacked one time all game on his way to 383 passing yards and three TDs...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Posted a career-high two rushing TDs and scored a third time on a reception, making him the first Packer since RB Samkon Gado (at Atlanta, Nov. 13, 2005) to score three times in a regular-season game. First TD came midway through the first guarter when he scored on a 13-yard screen pass, then found the end zone twice in the third quarter on the ground -- a 6-vard run where he bounced it out to the right and outran LB Will Herring and S Jordan Babineaux, and a 4-yard plunge up the middle from the FB position on the next series. Added a tackle on special teams...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Caught two passes for 29 yards (14.5 avg.), both of them screens on a third-quarter scoring drive. First one picked up 17 yards to convert a third-and-4, and second catch went for 12 yards down to Arizona's 5; TE Jermichael Finley caught a TD pass on the next play.
- ► Highest-drafted running back from Nebraska since Lawrence Phillips was a first-round pick by the Rams in 1996.

2008: Played in 13 games as the No. 2 back and finished second on the team with 248 yards and a TD on 45 carries (5.5 avg.)...Led the running backs and was fifth on the team with 30 receptions for 185 yards...Inactive at Seattle (Oct. 12) after coming down with flu-like symptoms the night before the game, and inactive for final two games, at Chicago (Dec. 22) and vs. Detroit (Dec. 28), due to wrist injury sustained at Jacksonville (Dec. 14)... At Detroit (Sept. 14): Led team with 61 yards rushing on seven carries (8.7 avg.), including a 19-yard TD run late in the fourth quarter to put the Packers up 34-25... Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Led the team with five receptions, and added 11 yards on two carries. Also made a special teams tackle...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Led team with season- and career-high six receptions for 37 yards, three of which went for first downs... Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Posted 50 yards rushing on 10 carries, including a 19-yard pickup in fourth quarter. Came in game in the second quarter when Grant left briefly after having wind knocked out of him, and carried the ball five straight times for 30 yards...Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Took over as primary back when Grant left the game in the second quarter with a sprained thumb. Rushed for a season-best 80 yards on a season-high 11 carries. Picked up 24 yards on his first carry of the afternoon down to the Carolina 4; Packers scored on a Donald Driver TD catch three plays later. Also posted season-long 32-yard run on the first play of the second half.

2007: Second-round pick out of Nebraska, played in 11 games and was inactive for five...Played in both playoff contests...Started the first three games, then was inactive for the next four (shin); returned to action at Kansas City (Nov. 4), and had played primarily on special teams before posting his first NFL 100-yard game vs. Detroit (Dec. 30)...Finished second on the team with 75 rushes for 267 yards and one TD...Had initially received more time at RB than any other Packers player after projected starter Vernand Morency missed most of training camp with a patellar tendon injury...Led the team in rushing during the preseason, carrying 40 times for 131 yards and two TDs...Did not play at Tennessee (Aug. 30) after suffering a mild concussion in practice on Aug. 26...Returned to practice Sept. 2...Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9): Started in his first NFL game, rushing 15 times for 40 yards and catching four passes for 35 yards. With under a minute left in the game, made a 7-yard carry that helped move the team closer to an eventual 42-yard, game-winning FG by Crosby...Vs. San Diego (Sept. 23): Scored his first career TD on a 1-yard carry in the fourth quarter, which gave Green Bay a 31-21 lead in the eventual 31-24 win. Also caught a 16-yard pass in the first quarter and rushed six times for 22 yards...At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Returned to action and rushed five times for 18 yards...At Chicago (Dec. 23): Rushed three times for 25 yards. In the fourth quarter, made a 13-yard catch on third-and-11; on the next play made a 15-yard run... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Won 'Diet Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week' for his first 100-yard performance in the NFL, carrying 20 times for 113 yards; also made two catches for 22 yards. Had a career-long 46-yard carry in the third quarter, bursting through the first level and shoving off another defender for extra yards; Crosby converted a FG four plays later...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Served as the No. 2 RB, rushing for 34 yards on eight carries and catching one pass for a 13-yard TD in the third quarter. Also made a team-high four special teams tackles...2007 Draft: Was selected in the second round with the 63rd overall pick, the sixth RB selected. The choice was obtained from the N.Y. Jets along with thirdround (89) and sixth-round (191) picks for Green Bay's second-round (47) and seventh-round (235) selections. Highest-drafted RB from Nebraska since Lawrence Phillips was a first-round pick by the Rams in 1996. Became the 23rd player from Nebraska drafted by the Packers and the first Cornhuskers RB selected by Green Bay since HB Ron Clark (11th round in 1955).

COLLEGE: An early entry in the draft, played three seasons at Nebraska in a tailback rotation, emerging as the team's feature back in the final nine games of his junior season, gaining 835 yards in those contests, an average of 92.8 yards per game as a starter...For his career at Nebraska, played in 33 games with 11 starts and rushed 291 times for 1,431 yards (4.9 avg.) and 14 TDs...Also caught 34 passes for 318 yards (9.4 avg.) and two TDs and returned 32 kickoffs for 579 yards (18.1 avg.), totaling 2,328 all-purpose yards...Overcame injuries to both shoulders, one that limited him to just 18 carries as a sophomore in 2005...Majored in sociology... Junior season (2006): Recovered from offseason shoulder surgery, the second of his college career, to earn first-team All-Big 12 honors from The Associated Press, San Antonio Express-News and Houston Chronicle, adding second-team honors from the league's coaches, Kansas City Star, Dallas Morning News and Fort Worth Star-Telegram...Also was member of the 2006 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team...Amassed 1,459 all-purpose yards, third in the conference with an average of 104.2 per game...Posted 989 rushing yards, good for fifth in the conference, and eight TDs on 188 carries (5.3 avg.)... Also caught 33 passes for 313 yards (9.5 avg.) and two TDs...Spent the first five games as a reserve at I-back, carrying the ball just 27 times for 154 yards, before taking over as the starter for final nine games...Rushed for 835 of his 989 vards as a starter and posted four 100-vard games...Registered a career-high 182 rushing yards and two TDs on 21 carries (8.7 avg.) at Oklahoma State (Oct. 28)... Sophomore season (2005): Saw limited action in nine games as he continued to struggle with shoulder injury that he had surgery on that April...Rushed 18 times for 52 yards (2.9 avg.), plus one catch for 5 yards... Freshman season (2004): Played in 10 games as a true freshman in a reserve role but quickly established

CULLEN JENKINS

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 305 Seventh NFL Season Seventh Packers Season

Born: January 20, 1981 NFL Gm. Played/Started: 82/58 Acquired: FA-04

PRO CAREER: Quiet but steady defensive lineman started every game in '09 for the first time in his career after having his 2008 season cut short by an injury in Week 4...Made the transition to new defensive coordinator Dom Capers' 3-4 scheme and was part of top-ranked rushing defense in the NFL (a franchise-best 83.3 yards per game), the first time in team history that the Packers were No. 1 in the league against the run... Has the bulk to occupy blockers and stop the run, along with pass-rushing ability...Registered career highs in both tackles (50) and forced fumbles (three), and was one of only eight NFL defensive linemen to post at least 50 tackles, four sacks, and three forced fumbles in 2009... Has played in all 16 games in four of his six seasons in the league, playing in 82 games with 58 starts...Missed 12 games in 2008 due to a torn pectoral muscle that required surgery and placement on injured reserve, this after getting off to a strong start following several nagging injuries in 2007 that didn't keep him from playing but limited the productivity he's displayed when healthy...Had 18 tackles and 21/2 sacks in four games in '08 before getting hurt, and now has career totals of 242 tackles (151 solo), 22 sacks, five forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and 22 passes defensed...Had nine of those batted passes in 2007 (including four in one game), at the time the most by a Packers defensive lineman in one season since the team began keeping the stat in 1980; teammate Johnny Jolly broke the record with 11 in '09... Helped make the Packers a different defense down the stretch in 2006, taking over as a starting defensive end in his first true every-down role... Switch was made primarily to provide stouter run defense on early downs, but Jenkins' pass-rush skills began to flourish as well...Finished the season with a career-high 61/2 sacks, including a three-sack effort in his first '06 start at end...Played so well in helping the Packers finish the season with a four-game winning streak that the team locked him up with a multi-year contract just days before he was scheduled to become a restricted free agent...The contract was a monumental step in the career of a humble, undrafted player from a non-major college program who was cut during his first training camp, sent to NFL Europe the following spring, and always playing with a one-year deal... Ability to adapt so well at defensive end traces back to his college days at Central Michigan, where he played end at around 245 pounds before bulking up to take his shot at the pros as an interior lineman...Began to come into his own in 2005 as a starting defensive tackle, blocking a league-best three kicks and piling up seven passes defensed...In 2004, tied for second on the team with 4½ sacks in his first pro season, coming off a stint in NFL Europe that helped him win a roster spot in his second attempt...Started all 10 games

First name is pronounced KULL-en.

- ➤ Started all 16 games for the first time in his career in 2009, and posted career highs in both tackles (50) and forced fumbles (three).
- ➤ One of only eight NFL defensive linemen to post at least 50 tack-les, four sacks and three forced fumbles in 2009.
- ► Batted down nine passes in 2007, at the time the most by a Packers defensive lineman since the team began recording the statistic in 1980. Teammate Johnny Jolly eclipsed the record in '09 with 11.
- ▶ Took over as starting defensive end in final month of 2006 season, and parlayed impressive work into his first long-term contract. Recorded a career-high 6½ sacks that year, including his first three-sack game, vs. Detroit (Dec. 17).
- ▶ Led the NFL in 2005 with three blocked kicks, joining Chicago's Alfonso Boone (2) as one of just two players with multiple blocks that year.
- ► In his 2004 NFL debut, played against older brother, Kris, a former DT for the Panthers (now N.Y. Jets).
- Now a 300-pound lineman, ran the 100-meter dash and 300meter hurdles as an all-conference high school athlete.

for the Cologne Centurions in 2004, and posted 24 tackles (12 solo) with 1½ sacks and seven quarterback pressures, adding five passes defensed...Originally signed with the Packers as a non-drafted free agent, May 2, 2003, but was waived during training camp that year.

2009 SEASON: Started all 16 games for the first time in his career and posted career-high 50 tackles (33) solo) and 23 QB hits...Also started team's playoff game... Recorded career-high three forced fumbles, good for second on the team, plus an INT...Finished second on the team with 41/2 sacks...Part of top-ranked rushing defense in the NFL (a franchise-best 83.3 yards per game), the first time in team history that the Packers were No. 1 in the league against the run...Lined up at RDE in base defense, RDT when team went to nickel defense and as the lone lineman when defense utilized its five-LB 'Psycho' package...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Sacked QB Jay Cutler for a 9-yard loss in the third quarter. Also brought down RB Matt Forté for a 1-yard loss on second-quarter run and was in on two more tackles of Forté behind the line of scrimmage. Matched career high with seven tackles (six solo)...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Brought down QB Carson Palmer on a sack in the second quarter for an 8-yard loss. Forced a fumble by TE Daniel Coats down the field on a screen pass late in the second quarter, but the Bengals recovered ... At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Stripped RB Steven Jackson on first-quarter run at the St. Louis 12-yard line that CB Al Harris recovered to set up a Mason Crosby FG...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Posted the first INT of his career, picking off QB Daunte Culpepper's screen pass intended for RB Kevin Smith on Detroit's first possession at the 21; returned pick 4 yards to help set up an Aaron Rodgers TD pass to FB John Kuhn...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Registered a sack/forced fumble when he brought down QB Derek Anderson in the fourth quarter; Anderson recovered the fumble for an 11-yard loss. Also shared a sack of Anderson with LB Aaron Kampman late in the first half for a 7-vard loss. Finished with five tackles (four solo) and three QB hits...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Sacked QB Alex Smith for a 9-yard loss midway through the second quarter. Brought down RB Frank Gore for a 5-yard loss on a screen later in the quarter, one of his four tackles (two solo) on the afternoon...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Credited with four tackles (one solo) and a season-high six QB hits... At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started and posted two tackles (one solo). Added two QB hits and a 2008: Was off to the best start of his career statistically, posting 18 tackles and 21/2 sacks in the first four games, before sustaining a pectoral injury at Tampa Bay in Week 4...Placed on injured reserve Oct. 1 and had surgery the next day... Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Led defensive linemen with five tackles, adding four QB pressures and three QB hits, and helped limit Pro Bowl RB Adrian Peterson to just 28 yards on 10 carries in the second half... At Detroit (Sept. 14): Sacked QB Jon Kitna in the third quarter among three tackles, two QB hits and two pressures...Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Led defensive line and tied career high with seven tackles and tied for team lead with 1½ sacks. Among three QB hits, forced a fumble by QB Tony Romo on sack toward end of first half that was recovered by Dallas, and burst into backfield to stop RB Felix Jones for a 5-yard loss in third quarter... At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Recorded three tackles, batted down a pass, and posted three QB hits and one pressure, but left game early in the fourth quarter after injuring his pectoral attempting to bring down QB Brian Griese for a sack.

2007: Started 15 of 16 games despite several nagging injuries and tied his (then) career high with 49 tackles (31 solo) plus one sack and nine passes defensed... His nine batted passes marked the most by a Green Bay defensive lineman since the team began recording the statistic in 1980...Also started both playoff games, posting 10 total tackles (seven solo) with 1½ sacks and one pass defensed...At Minnesota (Sept. 30). Came off the bench and was credited with four batted passes...Vs. Washington (Oct. 14): Made his lone sack of the season, among four solo tackles. After earlier forcing QB Jason Campbell into an intentional-grounding penalty, sacked Campbell for a 2-yard loss, but left the game following the next play and had X-rays on his knee and ankle; returned to play at start of second half...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Made five tackles (three solo), including 1½ sacks. In the first quarter, sacked QB Matt Hasselbeck for a 10-yard loss on third-and-5, forcing a punt. In the fourth quarter, split a sack with DE Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila, taking down Hasselbeck for a loss of 12...

Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Made five tackles (four solo), and batted a QB Eli Manning pass on third-and-10, leading to a FG.

2006: Played in 14 games with five starts, including the season's final three weeks at RDE where he excelled... Beginning in Week 14 at San Francisco, received increased reps at DE on early downs, in an effort to improve the run defense and also to rest Gbaja-Biamila for passing downs...His 61/2 sacks were a career high and ranked third on the team...Had 48 tackles (28 solo), two passes defensed and a pair of fumble recoveries...Missed two contests with an injured left ankle, sustained in Week 5...At Philadelphia (Oct. 2): Sacked QB Donovan McNabb for a 9-vard loss on third-and-12 and, on the next play, ended the first half by alertly making the tackle on a fake FG pass... At Buffalo (Nov. 5): Returned to practice three days prior from ankle injury and sacked QB J.P. Losman. Also tipped a pass at the line to force a punt...At Minnesota (Nov. 12): Split sacks of QB Brad Johnson with Kampman and LB A.J. Hawk...At San Francisco (Dec. 10): Saw about two-thirds of his snaps at RDE after practicing there during the week; on third-and-9 in third quarter, sacked Smith with Kampman, forcing a three-and-out...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 17): Taking the place of Gbaja-Biamila, made his first '06 start at RDE and answered with career bests of seven tackles and three sacks, all the sacks coming in the first half (the first from the end position and the other two as a tackle, both on third downs forcing punts). Became the third Green Bay player to record three sacks in a 2006 game (also Kampman and Corey Williams); never before had as many as three Packers posted three-sack games in the same season. Also recovered a second Kitna fumble on a Detroit fourth-and-1.

2005: Played in all 16 games with 12 starts — all at DT and in doing so doubled his '04 starts total...Finished with a (then) career-high 49 tackles (28 solo), including three sacks, plus one fumble recovery and seven passes defensed...Led the NFL with three blocked kicks, joining Chicago DT Alfonso Boone (2) as one of two players in 2005 with multiple blocks...Got his hands on two PATs and one FG, becoming the first Packer to block a PAT since DT Cletidus Hunt, Dec. 8, 2002... Vs. Cleveland (Sept. 18): Made a (then) career-high six tackles (four solo) and blocked a Phil Dawson PAT try in the third quarter...At Carolina (Oct. 3): Blocked a John Kasay PAT attempt and recovered a QB Jake Delhomme fumble caused by Gbaja-Biamila, setting up a 16-yard TE Donald Lee TD reception one play later... Vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 6): Blocked a 51-yard FG attempt by Jeff Reed in the fourth quarter.

2004: Contributed 28 tackles (18 solo) over the course of the season, including 41/2 sacks (tied with Kampman for second on the team), plus one fumble recovery, one forced fumble and two passes defensed...Played in all 16 regular-season games, plus one postseason contest, making six starts...At Carolina (Sept. 13): Making NFL debut in Monday night opener, playing against older brother Kris, a Panthers DT, took a significant number of snaps after DT Grady Jackson (kneecap) was sidelined early in contest...At Detroit (Oct. 17): In last of fourgame starting streak at 'Eagle' tackle position when the usual starter, Hunt, shifted over to NT to replace Jackson, helped limit the Lions to 33 yards rushing on 16 attempts (2.1 avg.). Also pressured QB Joey Harrington into an INT that S Darren Sharper returned 36 yards for a TD... At Philadelphia (Dec. 5): On the Eagles' first drive, recorded a sack, forced fumble and recovered it when he came around McNabb's back side and swatted the ball out of the QB's hand, then pounced on it.

2003: Spent the season out of football after Green Bay waived him in the first mandatory roster reduction, Aug. 26...2003 Draft: Originally signed with the Packers as a non-drafted free agent on May 2.

COLLEGE: Was a four-year letterwinner (1999-2002) at Central Michigan, starting his last three years...Majored in elementary education...Senior season (2002): Recorded 40 tackles (20 solo), seven tackles for a loss, 4½ sacks and two passes defensed in 12 games...Junior season (2001): Started every game and finished with 48 tackles (28 solo), 10 stops for a loss and five sacks... Sophomore season (2000): Recorded 49 tackles and two sacks following limited action as true freshman in 1999.

PRO CAREER: Fifth-year wideout whose accomplishments continue to put him among the elite in franchise history...This past season, became just the fifth player in team annals to post back-to-back 1,000-yard receiving seasons, joining James Lofton, Sterling Sharpe, Antonio Freeman and teammate Donald Driver...His 3,957 yards over four seasons rank No. 12 in franchise history, leaving him just 269 yards from cracking the top 10...Also has 246 receptions and 28 touchdown catches, which rank 17th and 13th, respectively, in team history (11th among wide receivers in both categories)...Among the most recognized big-play receivers in the game today, his 21 catches of 40-plus yards over the past three years lead the NFL, while his 34 receptions of 25-plus yards since 2007 ranks tied for third (with New England's Randy Moss), behind only Carolina's Steve Smith (39) and Atlanta's Roddy White (36)...Of his 28 career TD receptions, 13 have been at least 40 yards in length, and three are at least 80 yards, tying him with Driver, Billy Howton and Carroll Dale for most TDs of 80-plus yards in team history...His career average of 34.2 yards per touchdown catch is the top mark in the NFL among active players... Has caught a pass in 58 of 59 games played with the Packers (61 of 62 including playoffs) and has 14 career 100-yard games...Over the past two years, has teamed with Driver to account for two of the five times the Packers have had a pair of 1,000-yard receivers in the same season...Prior to the 2009 season, signed a long-term contract extension with the Packers through 2012, after posting career-highs in catches (80) and receiving yards (1,292) in 2008 on his way to being named first alternate for the Pro Bowl...Became only the sixth WR in team history to catch 80 passes in a season...Enjoyed his breakout year in 2007, when he hauled in 12 TD passes in just 13 games, with six of those scores coming from 40-plus yards, including one of the most memorable plays of the year, an 82-yard TD pass from Brett Favre on the first snap of overtime to win a Monday night game in Denver... In addition, posted the go-ahead TD on big plays late in the fourth quarter of games vs. San Diego and at Kansas City, caught a TD pass in five straight games (Weeks 11-15, the club's longest streak of the decade), and had two TD grabs in his first playoff game, vs. Seattle in the NFC Divisional round...Over his first two seasons, caught Favre's 400th, 420th and 421st TD passes as the Hall of Fame-bound QB chased, matched and surpassed Dan Marino's all-time NFL record...Also on the receiving end of Aaron Rodgers' first career TD pass, which came in 2007 at Dallas...A secondround draft pick in 2006 who made a strong first impression as a rookie, earning a starting job...Put up impressive first-year numbers (45 catches, 632 yards, 3 TDs) to earn recognition on the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie team despite being slowed from the sixth game through the end of the year by an ankle injury...Was the second of two second-round draft choices by Green Bay in the 2006 draft (52nd overall), the Packers using a pick obtained in a draft-day trade down of 16 spots with the Patriots... Was the fourth wide receiver selected, behind Santonio Holmes (25th by Pittsburgh), Chad Jackson (36th by New England) and Sinorice Moss (44th by the N.Y. Giants)...Finished his Western Michigan career ranked first in school history in receptions (238), touchdown catches (39) and all-purpose vards (5,093) while

- One of just five receivers in team history to post back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons.
- ► Leads the NFL with 21 catches of 40-plus yards over the past three seasons, and his career 34.2-yard average per TD reception is tops among active players.

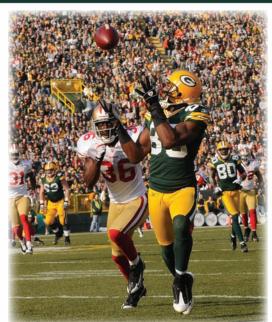

at a glance...

- ► Has caught a pass in 58 of 59 games played for the Packers (61
- of 62 including playoffs).

 ► Posted career highs in receptions (80) and receiving yards (1,292) in 2008 on his way to being named first alternate for
- the Pro Bowl. ► Caught Brett Favre's 400th, 420th and 421st TD passes in 2006-07 as the future Hall of Fame QB chased, matched and surpassed Dan Marino's career record for TD passes.
- ► Led the nation in receptions per game (8.91) in his 2005 senior season at Western Michigan.
- ▶ Became the first Mid-American Conference player to earn league MVP and offensive player of the year recognition in the same season since Randy Moss of Marshall did so in 1997.
- Attended the same high school (Kalamazoo Central) as N.Y. Yankees superstar Derek Jeter; joins Jeter and RB T.J. Duckett as three of the top athletes ever to come out of Kalamazoo. Mich.

finishing second in career receiving yards (3,539), just 60 behind record-holder Steve Neal...Became just the 11th player in NCAA Division I history to record three career 1,000-yard receiving seasons (2003-05)...Burst onto the national scene with his record-breaking senior year, when he set school records for receptions (98), receiving yards (1,259) and receiving touchdowns (14-tie), along with leading the country in most receptions per game (8.91)...Also became the first Mid-American Conference player to garner league MVP and offensive player of the year recognition in the same year since Moss (Marshall, 1997)...Received All-America recognition as well...One of only five Western Michigan players to be drafted in the first two rounds, joining DB Louis Delmas (2009, second round, Lions), DE Jason Babin (2004, first round, Texans), LB John Offerdahl (1986, second round, Dolphins) and DL Bob Rowe (1967, second round, Cardinals)...Also was the first WR drafted in the first 100 seasons (1906-2005) of the WMU program.

2009 SEASON: Played in all 16 games for the second straight year with 13 starts and led the team with 1,113 receiving yards on 68 catches (16.4 avg.)...Was tied for fourth on the team with four TD catches and tied career best with five 100-yard games...Added a fifth TD, and sixth 100-yard game, with season-best 130 yards in playoffs... Ranked tied for seventh in the NFL with six receptions of 40-plus yards and was sixth in the NFC in receiving yards...Was named to USA Today's "All-Joe Team" for making significant contributions with little fanfare... Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Started and led team with 106 yards on six receptions (17.7 avg.), beating CB Nathan Vasher on a post route for a 50-yard score with just over a minute remaining (and catching the two-point conversion pass), to give Packers the 21-15 win... Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Did not catch a pass for the first time in his career, snapping a streak of 44 consecutive games with a reception...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Posted two receptions for 103 yards (51.5 avg.) – a 50-yarder deep down the right sideline on a third-down play in the second quarter to set up Driver's 21-yard TD on the next play (putting him over 3,000 career yards), and a 53-yarder over CB Ronald Bartell on the first play of the fourth quarter, leading to Rodgers' TD run four plays later... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Led the team with seven receptions for 81 yards (11.6 avg.), including a 10-yard TD reception on the right sideline of the end zone in the fourth quarter despite being interfered with by CB Karl Paymah... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Started and led the team with a season-high 126 yards on five catches (25.2 avg.), the biggest a 64-yard TD in the second quarter, when he caught a pass over the middle about 10 yards downfield and made a nifty move to elude S Dashon Goldson and CB Tarell Brown at the San Francisco 45. Also caught a 37-yard pass down the left sideline to set up a Mason Crosby FG and went over the 100-yard mark in first half with four receptions for 121 yards, a career high for an opening half...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Led the team with 118 receiving yards on five receptions (23.6 avg.), including the longest catch of his career, an 83-yard TD on third down in the first quarter when he caught pass over the middle near midfield and shook off tackle attempt by S Tyrone Carter. That marked his third career TD catch of 80-plus yards, tied for first in franchise history with Driver, Howton and Dale... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Started and led the team with four catches for 111 yards (27.8 avg.), his 14th career 100-yard game. The 27.8-yard average matched his career best (min. four receptions), tying his six-catch, 167-yard performance at Detroit on Sept. 14, 2008. Beat CB Kelly Jennings down left sideline on deep pass that picked up 40 yards late in the first quarter to put him over 1,000 yards for the season. On the next play, caught hitch from Rodgers, made CBs Marcus Trufant and Josh Wilson miss, and took it 24 yards down to Seattle's 3; Grant scored on the next play. Also caught pass over the middle on third down that he took 38 yards to the Seattle 10 with under two minutes remaining in the first half to help set up a 29-yard Crosby FG...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started and led the team with eight receptions for 130 yards (16.3 avg.) and a TD. His four catches of 20-plus yards et a team postseason record. Posted 35-yard catch-and-run in the third quarter, stumbling at the Arizona 20 before getting back up and running down to the Cardinals' 3. Three plays later, made spectacular one-handed grab with his left hand on back-shoulder throw from Rodgers for 6-yard TD. Made leaping 22-yard grab over CB Bryant McFadden in the fourth quarter at Arizona's 25, showing great body control to get both feet in bounds; Packers scored four plays later on TE Spencer Havner TD catch to even the score at 45.

2008: Played in all 16 games for the first time in his career, including a career-high 15 starts... Led the team with a career-high 80 receptions for a career-best 1,292 yards...Named first alternate for Pro Bowl...Ranked seventh in the NFC in catches and sixth in the NFL in receiving yardage...Led the NFL with eight receptions of 40-plus yards and tied for second in the league with 21 catches of 20-plus yards...Led the team with nine TD catches and posted a career-high five 100-yard receiving games on the season... At Detroit (Sept. 14): Posted career-high 167 receiving yards on six receptions, including a 60-yard TD catch and a 62-yarder, the first time in his career that he posted two receptions of 60-plus yards in a game...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Posted the third two-TD game of his career and his third straight 100-yard game. Caught six passes for 109 yards, including a 25-yard score in the first quarter and a 48-yard TD in the third quarter... At Seattle (Oct. 12): Led team with 84 yards receiving on five catches, including a 45-yard TD over CB Marcus Trufant in the third quarter to break a 10-10 tie...Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Only game of season he did not start as team opened up with just one WR. Caught career-best eight passes for the second straight week and third time on the season, for 91 yards. Reached the 1,000-yard plateau in a season for the first time in his career on a 15-yard grab in the third quarter... Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Had two receptions for 74 yards, including a season-long 63-yarder down to the Houston 6 in the third quarter to set up a Grant TD run on the next play... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Caught five passes for 101 yards. Teamed up with Driver as each posted 100 yards receiving in the game, the first Packers tandem to do so since Jennings and WR James Jones each topped the 100-yard mark at Denver on Oct. 29, 2007.

2007: Started 13 games and was inactive for three, making 53 catches for 920 yards and a team-high 12 TDs, the most by a Green Bay receiver since Javon Walker's 12 in 2004...Added seven catches for 85 yards and two TDs in two postseason games...Tied for seventh in the NFL and third in the NFC in scoring for non-kickers with 72 points...His 17.4-yard average per catch ranked fourth in the NFL, and his streak of five straight games with a TD catch (Weeks 11-15) was the Packers' longest since Freeman's five-game streak in 1998-99...Injured a hamstring during a Week 1 practice (Sept. 5) and did not play in the team's first two games... Vs. San Diego (Sept. 23): Returned to practice on Sept. 20 and caught four passes for 82 yards against the Chargers, including a 57-yard TD that tied Favre with Marino for the NFL record of 420 TD passes; with the Chargers up 21-17 late in the fourth quarter, caught a short slant and sprinted across the middle of the field for the score in the eventual 31-24 victory...At Minnesota (Sept. 30): Caught Favre's NFL record-setting 421st TD pass, a 16-yard score on another slant pass in the first quarter that gave the Packers a 7-0 lead...At Denver (Oct. 29): Caught six passes for a (then) career-high 141 yards and a game-winning 82-yard score in overtime. It marked the third 100-yard performance of his career and pushed him past 1,000 career receiving yards. On the opening play of the extra period, caught a Favre pass in stride down the left sideline and took it to the end zone to give Green Bay a 19-13 victory... At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Made three grabs for 85 yards. Caught a 60-yard TD with 3:05 left in the game, lining up where the TE normally is, and then blowing past LB Donnie Edwards and catching the pass in stride; the score gave Green Bay a 23-22 lead in the eventual 33-22 win... At Dallas (Nov. 29): Caught five passes for a teamhigh 87 yards and one TD. In the second quarter, caught a short pass from Rodgers and spun away from defender for an 11-yard TD; the play marked Rodgers' first career TD pass...Vs. Oakland (Dec. 9): Caught two passes for 100 yards, his second 100-yard receiving game on the season. In the third quarter, caught a long pass down the right sideline and strolled his way into the end zone for an 80-yard TD...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Caught a team-high six passes for 71 yards and two TDs. In the first quarter, caught a 14-vard pass to start a drive and a 15-yard TD catch to finish the series. Caught his second TD in the second guarter, a 2-yard grab on a fade route that gave Green Bay a 21-14 lead.

2006: Played in 14 games with 11 starts and was inactive twice, a late scratch on both occasions...Ranked third on the team with 45 catches, for 632 receiving yards (14.0 avg.), and finished second with three TD receptions... Also returned five punts for 29 yards (5.8 avg.) and made three stops on special teams...An attention-grabber since his arrival in Green Bay, got better each week during the first half of the season, then saw his numbers decline after a Week 7 ankle injury...Named to the prestigious Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie Team...Led the NFL in the preseason with 328 receiving yards, on 12 catches, with one TD...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 10): Entered the regular season as a starter but made his NFL debut, vs. the Bears, as a reserve when the Packers opened with two TEs; notched his first reception on the second-to-last play of the game, for 5 yards...Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17): Made his first career start and posted season-high six receptions. On the Packers' fifth play from scrimmage, a third-and-7, juked CB Mike McKenzie at the line of scrimmage and sprinted down the right sideline, catching a 22-yard pass from Favre in stride for the rookie's first NFL score... At Detroit (Sept. 24): Posted his first 100-yard game, catching three passes for 101 yards, which marked the most by a Packers rookie since Sharpe had 137 (on seven catches), Sept. 25, 1988, vs. Chicago at Lambeau Field. In the first quarter, caught a short pass and took off for a 75-yard score, stiff-arming CB Dré Bly for the final yards on Favre's 400th career TD pass. With the long TD play, became only the third NFL player since 1990 to make a TD reception of at least 75 yards within the first three games of his NFL career, joining WR Derrick Alexander (Cleveland, 81 yards, Sept. 18, 1994) and WR Braylon Edwards (Cleveland, 80 yards, Sept. 18, 2005). Earned Diet Pepsi NFL Offensive Rookie of the Week honors for the performance... At Miami (Oct. 22): Made one catch, a tough, 14-yard grab, but suffered an ankle injury on the play and was out the duration of the contest and the next game vs. Arizona (Oct. 29)... At Buffalo (Nov. 5): Returned from injury and caught five passes for 69 yards, including a team-long 25-yarder in the second quarter; left in the fourth quarter, however, after aggravating his ankle injury... At Seattle (Nov. 27): Caught six passes, matching his season high, for 50 yards...At Chicago (Dec. 31): Missed game to be with his wife, who gave birth to their first child earlier that day ... 2006 Draft: Was the second of two second-round draft choices by Green Bay (52nd overall), a pick obtained in a draft-day trade down of 16 spots with the Patriots. The fourth WR selected, behind Pittsburgh's Holmes (25th), New England's Jackson (36th) and the N.Y. Giants' Moss (44th). Was the first Western Michigan athlete to be chosen in the NFL Draft since DE Babin went late in the first round to Houston in 2004; he joined Babin, DL Rowe (1967, second round, Cardinals) and LB Offerdahl (1986, second round, Dolphins) as the school's only players to go in the first two rounds, with DB Delmas (2009, second round, Lions) since added to the group. Also was the first WR drafted in the first 100 seasons (1906-2005) of the WMU program.

COLLEGE: Finished his career at Western Michigan as the school's all-time leader in receptions (238), TD catches (39) and all-purpose yards (5,093), and ranked second in receiving yards (3,539), behind Neal's 3,599... Remains first in TDs but is second in all other categories now...Became just the 11th player in NCAA Division I history to record three career 1,000-yard receiving seasons (2003-05)...His 238 career receptions tied him for third on the all-time list of the MAC (is now tied for ninth), his 3,539 receiving yards ranked fourth (now seventh), and his 39 TD receptions remain second in the MAC record books, exceeded only by the 47 of Marshall's Darius Watts...Recorded 18 career 100-yard receiving games... Also returned 41 kickoffs for 921 yards (22.5 avg.) and 49 punts for 541 yards (11.0) with two TDs...Senior season (2005): Led the nation with an average of 8.91 receptions per game, while also ranking second in the country in yards receiving per game (114.45), trailing only Oregon State's Mike Hass (139.27)... Established WMU singleseason marks for receptions with 98 - 21 better than the prior record - and yards with 1,259 (both totals now rank second in school history), and tied his own mark for TD receptions, which still stands (14, also done in 2003)... Additionally, rushed 10 times for 50 yards, returned 20 punts for 172 yards (8.6 avg.), ran back two kickoffs for 20 yards and threw a TD pass...Was a third-team All-America pick of The Associated Press, while also garnering second-team recognition from Sports Illustrated...

MAKING THE LEAP

Over the past three seasons, Greg Jennings has emerged as one of the NFL's brightest young stars at receiver. His numbers in touchdowns, receiving yards and average yards per catch from 2007-09 all rank in the league's top 10. His lower ranking in total receptions proves he is one of the game's most dangerous "big-play" wideouts.

Regular-season games only

VETERANS

PRO CAREER: Big, bruising fullback who made the roster as a rookie on his raw ability and will look to continue refining his blocking and receiving skills...Played in nine games in 2009 as a reserve fullback behind veterans Korey Hall and John Kuhn...Used primarily as a lead blocker on running plays, touching the ball just twice with two receptions for 4 yards...Also played on special teams, but only sparingly... Selected by the Packers with their first of two fifth-round selections (145th overall, 11th running back) out of LSU, where he cleared the way for an 1,100yard rusher each of his final two seasons, just the second time in school history that the Tigers had different running backs rush for 1,100 yards in consecutive seasons...Was a teammate of Packers quarterback Matt Flynn for three seasons with the Tigers, including their 2007 BCS National Championship year...Originally came to LSU as a highly recruited linebacker before moving to fullback prior to his sophomore season...Became the highest draft selection the Packers used on a fullback since Najeh Davenport was chosen in the fourth round (No. 135 overall) in 2002.

2009 SEASON: Played in nine games, seeing time at FB and on special teams, and caught two passes for 4 yards...Inactive for the first four contests of the season, plus three others over the season's second half, and the playoff game... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Made NFL debut, and helped block for Ryan Grant's 90 yards on 24 carries, including 68 yards in the fourth guarter... At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Saw time at FB and helped clear the way for Grant's season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5 avg.), the second-best regular-season performance of Grant's career. Helped the team post a season-high 202 yards on 41 carries (4.9 avg.) and recorded his first career reception, a pass in the right flat from QB Aaron Rodgers in the third quarter that went for no gain... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Juggled pass catch in the flat but hung on for 4-yard gain late in the first quarter... At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Helped block for Packers' 170 rushing yards on 32 carries (5.3 avg.), their second-highest output of the season... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Helped clear holes for Grant to rush for 129 yards on 21 carries (6.1 avg.)... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Threw nice block on LB Will Herring to help clear the way for Grant's 56-yard TD run up the middle in the second quarter... At Arizona (Jan. 3): Cleared out LB Gerald Hayes to open a hole on the right side on Grant's 1-yard TD run on the Packers' opening drive...2009 Draft: Selected with the first of two fifth-round selections (145th overall, 11th RB). Highest selection the Packers used on a FB since Davenport was picked in the fourth round (No. 135 overall) in 2002. The last time Green Bay drafted a FB from LSU came in 1962 when Earl Gros was selected in the first round with the 14th overall pick.

COLLEGE: Played in 40 games during his LSU career, starting 15...Carried the ball 16 times for 34 yards and five TDs, along with five catches for 54 yards...Teammate of Flynn for three seasons with the Tigers...Came to LSU as a highly recruited LB before moving to FB prior to his sophomore season...Cleared the way for an 1,100-yard rusher each of his final two seasons, just the second time in school history that the Tigers had different RBs rush for 1,100 yards in consecutive seasons, with Charles

FIRST OVERALL NFL DRAFT PICKS TO PLAY FOR PACKERS

	Played for Packers	Obtained by Packers	Drafted by	College	Year
Bobby Garrett, QB	1954	.Six-player trade	.Cleveland Browns	.Stanford	1954
Paul Hornung, HB	1957-62, 64-66	Bonus choice, '57 draft	.Green Bay	.Notre Dame	1957
Russell Maryland, DT	2000	.Unrestricted free agent	.Dallas	.Miami (Fla.)	1991

NOTE: Jack Concannon (1964, Boston) and Jim Grabowski (1966, Miami) were taken first overall in AFL drafts, but opted to sign with the NFL teams that drafted them...From 1947-58, the first pick was a Bonus Choice, awarded to the winner of a random draw. That club, in turn, forfeited its last-round draft choice and was eliminated from future draws. The Packers were next-to-last to get the Bonus; it was abolished after 1958, when the last club had received one Bonus pick.

HNNY JOLLY

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 325 Fifth NFL Season

PRO CAREER: Agile defensive lineman started all 16 games for the second straight season, making the move from tackle to end in new defensive coordinator Dom Capers' 3-4 scheme...Led the defensive line with 75 tackles (33 solo), along with a career-high 11 passes defensed...The 11 passes defensed set a franchise record for defensive linemen (since team began recording the stat in 1980), eclipsing the mark of teammate Cullen Jenkins (nine in 2007), and was the most by any NFL defensive lineman in 2009...With a blocked field goal, an interception and a fumble recovery in '09, became the first Packer since CB Doug Evans in 1993 to record all three in a season...One of only six NFL players to block a field goal in each of the last two seasons...Continued to show his run-stopping ability in role at left end as he was part of the Packers' top-ranked rushing defense in the NFL in '09 (a franchise-record 83.3 yards per game), the first time in team history that the team was No. 1 in the league against the run...Started all 16 games at tackle in '08 and posted a career-best 82 tackles (50 solo)...Also recorded the team's first blocked field goal in three years...In 2007, had season cut short by shoulder injury after starting seven of that season's first 10 games, alternating with Corey Williams, having landed starting interior spot alongside veteran Ryan Pickett following impressive training camp...Had come on strong late in his rookie 2006 campaign, catching the coaching staff's eye with his work in practice, prompting him to be active for the final four contests after playing in just two of the first 12 games...In 48 career games over four seasons, has 192 tackles (100 solo) with two sacks, four fumble recoveries and 22 passes defensed...Three of those batted passes came in his first NFL start, the '07 season opener, vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9)...First of the Packers' two selections in the sixth round (183rd overall) in 2006, missed the team's first post-draft mini-camp because of an ankle injury, the likely reason he wasn't drafted earlier...Was joined on the Packers' defensive line by college teammate Michael Montgomery, a sixthround pick in 2005 who played alongside Jolly for two seasons (2003-04) at Texas A&M...A three-year starter at Texas A&M who started the final 35 games of his college career...After a breakout sophomore campaign (2003) in which he had a career-best 95 tackles, posted a pair of sacks and deflected eight passes -- became a focal point in opponents' game plans in 2004, and saw double teams on a weekly basis...Rebounded in 2005 to notch a careerhigh 4½ sacks...For his efforts as a sophomore, received delayed recognition from Big 12 observers, garnering all-conference honors in each of his final two seasons despite lesser numbers.

2009 SEASON: Started all 16 games for the second straight season and led the defensive line with 75 tackles (33 solo)...Also started team's playoff game...Led the line with a career-high 11 passes defensed, the most by a Packers defensive lineman since the team began recording the statistic in 1980...The 11 passes defensed also led all NFL defensive linemen...Part of top-ranked rushing defense in the NFL (a franchise-record 83.3 yards per game), the first time in team history that the Packers were No. 1 in the league against the run...Had an INT, a sack, and led the line with two fumble recoveries... Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Posted the first INT of his career when he made an athletic one-handed pick of QB Jay Cutler's screen pass intended for RB Matt Forté at Green Bay's 12 midway through the second quarter to halt a Chicago scoring opportunity. Led defensive line with season-high eight tackles (four solo)... At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Came up the middle to block Josh Brown's 48-yard FG attempt with his left hand on the Rams' first possession; the block was the first by a Packer since Jolly's block of an Adam Vinatieri 45-yard attempt vs. Indianapolis in Week 7 in 2008. Recovered a fumble by QB Marc Bulger on the next series to set up a Mason Crosby FG; LB Aaron Kampman forced the fumble on a sack and Jolly made a diving catch...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Recovered a fumble in the first quarter at the Minnesota 21: shotqun snap went off of QB Brett Favre's leg as he approached the line to change play call, and ball was knocked down the field by a couple of players before Jolly recovered. Added six tackles (two solo)... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Led defensive line with five tackles (one solo), including a stop of RB Marion Barber for a 1-yard loss on opening play of second half. Was also credited with two QB hits, a pressure, and a season-high two passes defensed... Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): On Ravens' opening drive of the game, forced a fumble by RB Ray Rice at the Green Bay 18 that S Nick Collins recovered... At Chicago (Dec. 13): Led the defensive line with five tackles (two solo) along with a QB hit and a pressure. Posted his only sack of the season when he brought Cutler down for a 4-yard loss early in the fourth quarter, but picked up a 15-yard face-mask penalty on the play as he attempted to strip the ball... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Led the line with five tackles (four solo), including a stop of RB Julius Jones for a 2-yard loss on third-and-2 from the Green Bay 7; Seahawks were forced to settle for a FG. Posted two passes defensed, the first coming when he tipped a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass intended for Jones with his right hand, nearly gathering the ball in for an INT as he fell to the ground. The pass breakup was his 10th of the season, giving him the record for Packers defensive linemen... At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started and led the defensive line with four tackles (three solo).

2008: Started all 16 games for first time as a pro at RDT and made a career-high 82 tackles (50 solo), which ranked second on the defensive line...Tied for lead on the line with five passes defensed...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Led defensive line with six tackles (five solo), including a stop of RB Earnest Graham for a 1-yard loss in the fourth quarter... Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Posted three tackles, including two for loss, combining with LB Brandon Chillar to stop RB Dominic Rhodes for a 1-yard loss in the first quarter and with Nick Barnett to bring down RB Chad Simpson for a 2-yard loss in the fourth quarter. Also blocked Vinatieri's 45-yard FG attempt midway through the third quarter, the first blocked FG by the Packers since Nov. 6, 2005 (Jenkins, vs. Pittsburgh)...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Led team with a career-high 13 tackles (nine solo), including a stop of RB Chester Taylor for no gain in the second quarter... Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Posted eight tackles (six solo) and recovered RB Steve Slaton's third-quarter fumble at the Green Bay 18, returning it 3 yards...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Tied for team lead with eight tackles, including a stop of RB Kevin Smith for a 1-yard loss early in the second quarter.

2007: Started at RDT to open the season, rapidly ascending to the spot after a standout training camp and preseason...Played in the first 10 games with seven starts, alternating with Williams, before Week 11 shoulder injury ended his season...Was placed on injured reserve Dec. 11...Registered 31 tackles (14 solo) and five passes defensed, with one sack...Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9): Made first NFL start in season opener, batting away a team-high three passes and making five tackles (one solo)...At Minnesota (Sept. 30): Picked up a FB Jeff Dugan fumble and returned it 19 yards; Favre threw his record-setting 421st career TD pass to Greg Jennings on the following drive to give Green Bay a 7-0 lead... BRAD JONES

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 242 Second NFL Season Second Packers Season

Born: April 1, 1986 NFL Gm. Played/Started: 14/7 Acquired: D7-09

PRO CAREER: Athletic outside linebacker expected to compete for starting spot on the left side after starting seven games there as a rookie in '09...Took over the starting position in Week 12 after veteran Aaron Kampman sustained a season-ending knee injury the previous game... Became only the fifth Packer (since 1982) to record four sacks as a rookie, with all of them coming in the final five games...Was one of only six NFL rookies in 2009 to post four or more sacks, and was joined in that group by teammate Clay Matthews...With his seven starts in '09, tied Patriots WR Julian Edelman for the most games started by a 2009 seventh-round draft choice...Made impact early in the season on special teams, posting three tackles twice in his first three games...Rookie campaign got off to a slow start after he injured his back just before the start of training camp during conditioning test on July 31...Spent time on the Physically Unable to Perform list before returning to practice on Aug. 17 and playing in final three preseason contests...Brought familiarity with the 3-4 scheme from his time at Colorado, where he was a three-year starter who played in every game during his career... Earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from both The Associated Press and the conference's coaches as a senior...Also named CU's co-defensive player of the year in '08...Showed his pass-rushing ability by leading the team in sacks with seven during his senior campaign... Moved into the starting lineup as a sophomore, opening up 11 of 12 games and finishing third on the team with 72 tackles...Played in every game as a redshirt freshman... Was a teammate of kicker Mason Crosby for two seasons with the Buffaloes...Was a first-team all-state selection and earned all-state Dream Team honors from the Detroit Free Press as a senior at East Lansing (Mich.) High School...Also named the Defensive Player of the Year by the Lansing State Journal.

2009 SEASON: Played in 14 games with seven starts at LOLB, and started team's playoff contest...Posted 31 tackles (23 solo), four sacks, 11 QB hits and eight special teams tackles...Tied for third on the team with the four sacks, and became just the fifth rookie in team history (since 1982) to register four or more sacks... Was also one of only six NFL rookies to record four sacks in '09... Inactive for the first two games of the season as a healthy scratch...Began training camp on Physically Unable to Perform List after injuring his back during conditioning test on July 31, but returned to practice on Aug. 17 and played in final three preseason games...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Made NFL debut, seeing time on special teams, and led the team with three tackles... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Tied for team lead with three special teams tackles, which also matched his career high... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Started his first game, opening at LOLB in place of an injured Kampman (concussion), and led the LBs with a career-high eight tackles (seven solo). Tackled QB Tony Romo for a 3-yard loss in third quarter on fumbled snap... At Detroit (Nov. 26): Moved into the starting lineup for good with Kampman's season ending the previous game due to a torn ACL. Posted four tackles (one solo), along with a team-high two QB hits... Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Recorded four tackles (three solo) and a career-high three QB hits. Posted first sack of his career when he brought QB Joe Flacco down for a 4-yard loss on third down to force ► Played in 14 games with seven starts as a rookie, taking over the starting LOLB position in Week 12 vs. Detroit after Aaron Kampman sustained a seasonending knee injury in the previous game.

► Became only the fifth Packer (since 1982) to record four sacks at a glance... as a rookie.

- Was one of only six NFL rookies in 2009 to post four or more sacks, and was joined in that group by teammate Clay Matthews.
- Was tied with Patriots WR Julian Edelman for most games started by a 2009 seventh-round draft choice.

VETERANS

Fourth Packers Season Born: March 31, 1984 NFL Gm. Played/Started: 42/14 Acquired: D3a-07

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 208 Fourth NFL Season

PRO CAREER: Fourth-year receiver bounced back from an injury-plaqued 2008 season to catch a career-high five touchdown passes, plus another in the playoffs, in 2009...Overall production (32 catches, 440 yards) still didn't match that of his rookie campaign as he continued to battle Jordy Nelson for the No. 3 receiver spot behind veterans Greg Jennings and Donald Driver...Two of the touchdowns last season were from 74 and 47 yards, his longest receptions since a 79-yard touchdown on Monday Night Football as a rookie...Frustrating second season began when he sprained his right knee in a preseason game at Denver and struggled to stay healthy for any extended period for the remainder of the year...Did show flashes of his abilities down the stretch, catching half of his 20 receptions during the final four games of 2008, including a career-high 132-yard receiving game at Jacksonville in Week 15, the third-highest yardage output total by a Green Bay receiver on the season... As a rookie in 2007, quickly earned No. 3 receiver job and held it the entire season...Posted one of the top pass-catching seasons in Green Bay annals for a rookie, with his 47 catches and 676 yards both ranking fourth in club history...Reception total trailed only Sterling Sharpe (55, 1988), Billy Howton (53, 1952) and RB Gerry Ellis (48, 1980) in team's rookie record book, while yardage total trailed only Howton (1,231), James Lofton (818, 1978) and Sharpe (791)...His totals also ranked third, respectively, among all 2007 NFL rookies behind Kansas City's Dwayne Bowe (70-995) and Detroit's Calvin Johnson (48-756)...Also caught two TD passes, including the 79-yarder in Denver in Week 8, the longest TD catch by a Green Bay rookie in 53 years (Max McGee, 82 yards, 1954)...Sure-handedness and run-after-thecatch ability drew attention in college at San Jose State, where he played 44 games (21 starts) and caught 126 passes for 1,496 yards (11.2 avg.) and 12 TDs...Finished his career ranked third in receptions and 11th in yards in school history and now ranks sixth and 15th, respectively, in those categories...Posted one of the best receiving seasons in school history as a senior in 2006, catching 70 passes for 893 yards and 10 TDs...Voiced on draft day how excited he was to be selected, having come from very humble beginnings...At times he and his mother moved around to different homeless shelters, at times going to bed hungry and getting by however they could...In high school, in order to help his mother get back on her feet, moved in with his paternal grandmother, who forced him to take special education classes during his early high school years to keep up academically...Was a three-sport star at Gunderson H.S. (San Jose) who played QB on the football team, an early sign of the various ways his athletic talents would be utilized on his hometown college football squad.

2009 SEASON: Played in all 16 games with three starts and made 32 catches for 440 yards (13.8 avg.)... Finished tied for second on the team with career-high five TD catches, adding a sixth TD in the postseason... Was fifth on the team in receptions and fourth in yards... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): On opening drive of the game, hauled in pass deep down the right sideline from QB Aaron Rodgers at the Detroit 15, made a nice cutback move on S Marquand Manuel at the 10, and took it in for the 47-yard TD, the third-longest TD reception of his career...

► Bounced back from injuryplagued '08 with a career-high five TD catches in '09 (plus one in postseason), including scores of 74 and 47 yards, the secondand third-longest of his career.

► Held the No. 3 receiver spot his entire rookie season in 2007 catching 47 passes for 676 yards and two TDs, includ-

at a glance.. ing a 79-yarder on Monday Night Football at Denver, the longest TD catch by a Green Bay rookie since Max McGee's

82-yarder in 1954. ► His first-year totals rank fourth all-time among Green Bay

- Finished his career at San Jose State third, and now ranks
- sixth, all-time in receptions with 126
- Moved around to different homeless shelters as a child before moving in with his grandmother in high school.

At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Caught a 5-yard TD pass in the fourth quarter, coming back on the ball to beat CB Eric Wright for the score near the left sideline of the end zone...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Started first game of the season as team opened with three wideouts and posted game-long 42-yard catch-and-run over the middle to the Minnesota 30; catch helped set up TE Spencer Havner's 5-yard TD catch five plays later... At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): On Packers' second play, beat CB Elbert Mack down the right sideline for a 74-yard TD, the secondlongest of his career. Rodgers found him near midfield, and Jones took it the rest of the way for Green Bay's longest opening-drive TD since WR Antonio Freeman's 80-yard TD reception on Nov. 1, 1998, vs. San Francisco. Finished game with season-high four receptions for 103 yards (25.3 avg.), also a season high, the third 100-yard game of his career... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Matched season high with four catches for 22 yards, including 5-vard catch near the sideline on a third-and-3 at the end of the first half to help set up a Mason Crosby 27-yard FG...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Matched season high with four receptions for 35 yards (8.8 avg.). Late in third quarter, caught pass from Rodgers over the middle at the Detroit 10 before taking it the rest of the way for the 21-yard score... Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Posted his third straight four-catch game, gaining 44 yards, including 15 yards on short pass over the middle to convert a third-and-11 on Green Bay's opening drive; the catch helped set up Crosby's 28-yard FG...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Caught two passes for 36 yards (18.0 avg.), including 24-yard TD that put Packers up 36-30 with just over two minutes remaining. On 3rd-and-10, made a move inside to fake out CB Joe Burnett, broke outside and caught pass from Rodgers near the 10 before taking it in for the score... At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Posted 50 receiving yards and a TD on three catches (16.7 avg.). On a fourth-and-5 early in the fourth guarter, made catch near the right sideline at Arizona's 25, spun away from CB Bryant McFadden, and took it the rest of the way for a 30-yard TD.

COMMUNITY

2008: Played in 10 games with two starts, and ranked sixth on the team with 20 receptions for 274 yards (13.7) avg.) and a TD...One of only three players, along with Jennings and Driver, to post a 100-yard receiving game on the season...Inactive for six games, five of them due to sprained right knee originally suffered in preseason game at Denver (Aug. 22)...Also was in and out of three other contests after banging knee during play...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Made season debut as he started and finished with four receptions for 29 yards. Caught a 9-yard TD pass from Rodgers in the first quarter to put the Packers up 7-0...At Jacksonville (Dec. 14): Caught four passes for a career-high 132 yards, the third-highest yardage output by a Packers receiver on the season, including receptions of 46, 40 and 34 yards. On the 40-yard grab in the second quarter, made a juggling catch on the sideline and absorbed a big hit from S Reggie Nelson at the Jacksonville 10.

2007: Played in all 16 games with nine starts, and played in both playoff contests...Started the first two games of the season as the No. 2 WR, then played as No. 3 for the next 12 games, after Jennings (hamstring) returned to the lineup; started other games in multiple-WR sets, plus the regular-season finale with both Driver and Jennings inactive...Finished fourth on the team with 47 catches for 676 yards -- both totals good for third in the league among rookies, behind Kansas City's Bowe (70-995) and Detroit's Johnson (48-756) -- and two TDs...Reception and yardage totals also rank fourth in club history for a rookie...Finished the preseason tied for first in the NFL with 21 receptions and his 233 receiving yards ranked third, with two TDs...Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9): In his first NFL game, started as the No. 2 WR and caught four passes for 29 yards, including two 8-yard grabs on back-to-back plays...At N.Y. Giants (Sept. 16): Started and caught four passes for 75 yards. In the second quarter, beat CB Corey Webster down the left sideline and caught a pass for a game-long 46 yards... Vs. San Diego (Sept. 23): Caught a career-high six passes for 79 yards, serving as the No. 3 WR with the return of Jennings. Posted receptions of 22 and 26 yards in the first quarter... At Minnesota (Sept. 30): With the offense opening with a three-WR set, started and caught his first career TD, beating CB Marcus McCauley down the right sideline for a 33-yard score in the fourth quarter; the TD gave Green Bay a 23-9 lead in the eventual 23-16 victory; the pass marked Brett Favre's 422nd TD toss... At Denver (Oct. 29): Posted his first career 100-yard game and earned 'Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Week' honors after catching three passes for 107 yards, including a career-long 79-yard TD. In the first guarter, on the first play of the Packers' second drive, caught a long pass down the right sideline and cut back across the field on his way to the 79-yard score. It marked the longest TD catch by a Packers rookie since 1954, when McGee caught an 82-yarder...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Caught three passes for 42 yards, including 31-yarder in first quarter on third-and-6, the Packers' longest reception of the game. In the second quarter, caught an 8-yard pass on third-and-6 on a series that would finish with a 3-yard Ryan Grant TD to give Green Bay a 28-17 lead...2007 Draft: Selected with the first of Green Bay's two thirdround picks, the 78th overall selection and the 14th WR drafted. Became the fifth player drafted by the Packers from San Jose State and the first since 1974, when LB Emanuel Armstrong was chosen in the 13th round. Highest draft selection out of San Jose State since TE Sean Brewer in 2001 (Cincinnati, 66th overall).

COLLEGE: In 44 games at San Jose State, started 21 and caught 126 passes for 1,496 yards (11.2 avg.) and 12 TDs...Also ran the ball 24 times for 126 yards (5.3 avg.) with one score and completed 3 of 7 passes for 58 yards and a TD...On special teams, returned 42 punts for 307 yards (7.3 avg.) and made nine tackles (six solo)... His 126 career catches stood third in school history at the end of his career and now rank sixth, while his 1,496 yards receiving ranked 11th and now 15th... Senior season (2006): Named second-team All-Western Athletic Conference and team MVP with a career-high 70 receptions for 893 yards (12.8 avg.) and 10 TDs, including four 100-yard games...Played in 13 games with 12 starts at split end...Reception total ranked 27th in the nation...His 70 catches were the fourth-highest total in school history (now fifth), and his 10 TDs are the third-best mark...Led the team with an average of 83.85 all-purpose yards per game and was involved in seven plays of 40-plus yards... Started season off strong at Washington (Sept. 2), catching nine passes for 130 yards and a school-record-tying three TDs...Caught seven passes for 82 yards vs. Stanford (Sept. 9), and had a 42-yard TD run midway through the third quarter of 35-34 victory that was ESPN's "Play of the Day"...Had eight receptions for a career-high 134 yards and a score vs. Utah State (Oct. 14)...Junior season (2005): Played in 11 games, starting three at split end... Ranked second on the team with 30 receptions for 278 yards (9.3 avg.) and a TD...Picked up 48 yards on eight carries (6.0 avg.) and 106 yards on 20 punt returns (5.3 avg.)...Sophomore season (2004): Started six of 11 games, ranking second on the team with 25 receptions for 317 yards (12.7 avg.) and a TD...Served as the team's primary punt returner for the first half of the season, with 11 punt returns for 80 yards (7.3 avg.)...Snared career-long 67-yard TD pass vs. Morgan State (Sept. 18) in his first 100-yard game (four catches, 102 yards)...Freshman season (2003): Saw limited action in nine games, with one reception for 8 yards at Florida (Aug. 30)...Played special teams and was a reserve long snapper, recording three tackles.

PRO CAREER: A sure-handed, reliable fullback who has developed into a consistent performer in his three seasons in Green Bay... The Packers had their eye on him for a couple of years, claiming him off waivers from Pittsburgh on Sept. 2, 2007...Is a legitimate goal-line threat on offense, having scored six touchdowns (two rushing, four receiving) on 27 total touches over the past two years...Is the only player on the team to have a rushing and receiving touchdown in each of the last two seasons and the first Packer to achieve that in back-to-back seasons since RB Ahman Green (2003-04)...Has helped block for RB Ryan Grant's back-to-back 1,200-yard seasons, as Grant became only the third back in team history to accomplish the feat...Shared duties with two other fullbacks, Korey Hall and Quinn Johnson, last season after splitting time with Hall the previous two years... Has played in 46 of 48 games with the Packers (49 of 51 including playoffs), and had a 54-game playing streak (45 in Green Bay) snapped when he was inactive last season at Pittsburgh in Week 15...Also has been a key contributor on special teams, posting 34 coverage tackles for the Packers the last three seasons, with 40 in his career...Played in nine games for the Steelers in 2006...Had been on Pittsburgh's practice squad at the end of the 2005 season and the first half of 2006 prior to that...Originally signed by the Steelers as a non-drafted free agent out of Shippensburg, where he set 27 school records and four Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) records...School records included 4,685 yards rushing on 910 carries (5.1 avg.), 26 games with at least 100 yards rushing, 53 touchdowns and 5,300 all-purpose yards.

2009 SEASON: Played in 14 games with six starts...Scored TDs on 20 percent (3 of 15) of his offensive touches, rushed eight times for 18 yards and caught seven passes for 47 yards (6.7 avg.)...Also played in playoff contest and added another rushing TD...Helped block for Grant's second straight 1,200-yard season...One of only two players (RB Brandon Jackson) on the team to post a rushing and receiving TD on the season...Also registered 11 tackles on special teams...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Started, rushed for a TD and caught a TD pass, becoming the first Packers FB to do both in a game since William Henderson (Nov. 29, 1998, vs. Philadelphia). Scored from 1 yard out on a dive play in the second quarter and caught a play-action pass in the right flat from QB Aaron Rodgers in the fourth quarter and took it in for the 10-yard score... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Caught a 1-yard TD pass from Rodgers in the left flat, his second TD reception of the season, matching his career high. Also helped block for Grant's 90 yards on 24 carries and added two tackles on special teams...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Helped clear the way for Grant's season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5) avg., the second-best regular-season performance of Grant's career, and helped team post a season-high 202 yards on 41 carries (4.9 avg.)... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Posted career-best 22 yards receiving on two receptions, including a season-long 14-yard grab over the middle in the fourth quarter, his longest reception as a Packer. Also had two carries for 7 yards and a tackle on special teams...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Saw time on special teams, playing with club cast on broken

Vince Lombardi was convinced that defenses had become so sophisticated that it was time for the offense to go back to the basics - to avoid frills and to carry out fundamentals well These principles were borne out in his Green Bay sweep (A), with either Paul Hornung (5) or Jim Taylor (31) carrying the ball, following pulling guards Fuzzy Thurston (63) and Jerry Kramer (64) in a devastating end

The weak-side slant (B) and the companion play it set up (C) became the heart of the Packers' offense after defenses found ways to stop the sweep. Taylor "ran to daylight" wherever he found it.

PRO CAREER: Versatile second-year lineman who could fill any number of roles in the coming years...Could become a starting right tackle, look to eventually take over for Chad Clifton at left tackle, or battle for a spot at guard, but enters training camp in 2010 having missed all of OTAs and mini-camp due to April wrist surgery...Played all three positions at different times during an impressive rookie season, working all of training camp at left guard and then starting games at both tackle spots during the year - on the left side when Clifton was injured and on the right side in a temporary rotation with Mark Tauscher... Became the first Packers rookie to start consecutive games at left tackle since Clifton in 2000...Possesses a prototypical offensive lineman's frame and impressed the coaching staff with his readiness to play at multiple positions, as well as special teams, as a rookie...Came to Green Bay as a fourth-round draft choice, No. 109 overall, from Eastern Michigan, the team's first pick after the first round last year...Started his final two seasons in college at left tackle, after converting from defensive lineman and originally starting at right tackle upon moving to the offensive side...Showed his ability to play guard at the Texas vs. The Nation all-star contest following his final college season...Any doubts about his level of competition, coming from the Mid-American Conference, were eased by going head-to-head each of his final three years with Northern Illinois DE Larry English, the firstround draft pick of the San Diego Chargers in '09 (No. 16 overall)...Became Green Bay's third draft pick from Eastern Michigan and first since LB Dave Pureifory in 1972 (D6b, 142).

2009 SEASON: Played in all 16 games with three starts, opening games at both tackle positions, and also played on special teams and in playoff contest...Saw time primarily at LG during preseason... At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Made his debut from scrimmage when he came in at LT for Daryn Colledge for one play in the third quarter when Colledge's shoe came off and he had to leave the game...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Came in at LT for most of the fourth quarter after Colledge, playing there for an injured Clifton (ankle), left with a knee injury... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Filled in at LT for Clifton for the entire fourth quarter after Clifton reinjured his ankle late in the third...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Started first game of NFL career, opening at LT in place of Clifton (ankle). Part of a line that did not allow a sack of QB Aaron Rodgers and blocked for RB Ryan Grant's season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5 avg.). Team's 202 rushing yards was also a season best...Vs. Minnesota (11/1): Started second straight game at LT, becoming the first Packers rookie to do so since Clifton did it as a rookie in 2000... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Started his third game of the season, and his first as a pro at RT, helping block for Grant's 79 yards on 19 carries (4.2 avg.)...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Rotated in at RT with Tauscher, playing three series... At Detroit (Nov. 26): Rotated in at RT for Tauscher for one series in the first half, then took over at LT on second drive of the second half for Clifton (hamstring). Played the remainder of the game there and helped allow just one sack of Rodgers on his way to 348 yards passing and three TDs...Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Saw time on Played three different positions up front during his rookie season, starting games at both tackle spots and becoming the first Packers rookie to start consecutive games at left tackle since Chad Clifton in 2000.

► Began his college career as a defensive lineman, but converted at a glance... to the offensive line as a sophomore and started 36 straight games (10 at RT, 26 at LT) over his final three years ► Went head-to-head three straight years with Northern Illinois DE Larry English, the first-round draft pick (No. 16 overall) of the San Diego Chargers in 2009

► Was just the third draft pick in franchise history from Eastern Michigan, and the first in 37 years (LB Dave Pureifory, 1972)

special teams after missing two days of practice due to concussion sustained in Dec. 3 practice...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Came in for Clifton (rest) at LT on final play of third quarter and played the entire fourth quarter there... At Arizona (Jan. 3): Played entire fourth quarter at LT for Clifton (rest) for the second straight week...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Played LT for most of the fourth quarter and overtime, coming in for Clifton (ankle) with just under 11 minutes remaining in regulation...2009 Draft: Taken by the Packers in the fourth round, No. 109 overall, the team's first pick after the first round. Became Green Bay's third draft pick from Eastern Michigan and first since LB Pureifory in 1972 (D6b, 142).

COLLEGE: Originally came to Eastern Michigan as a defensive lineman and played one season there before successfully converting to the offensive side and starting his final three seasons at tackle...Started 36 games in all on offense, 10 at RT and 26 at LT, including every game the last two years on the left side...A four-year letterman, went head-to-head each of the last three years with NIU's English, the first-round draft pick of the San Diego Chargers in '09 (No. 16 overall)...Majored in criminal justice...Senior season (2008): For the second straight year, started all 12 games at LT...Earned first-team All-MAC honors and was a Super Sleeper Team selection by The NFL Draft Report...Also was a second-team allconference pick by the league's coaches and earned the Harold E. Sponberg Award, given to his team's top down lineman scholar-athlete...Part of an offense that ranked 20th in the nation with 417.5 yards per game, including three games with more than 550 yards...Held English to iust one tackle and two QB pressures vs. Northern Illinois (Sept. 27)...Was named his team's offensive player of the week three times - vs. Toledo (Sept. 13), at Army (Oct. 11) and vs. Akron (Oct. 18)...Junior season (2007): Started all 12 games at LT...Named second-team All-MAC by The Gridiron Report...Part of an offensive line that ranked second in the MAC, allowing just 1.42 sacks per game...Selected for a 'championship performance' by the coaching staff following season finale, when the Eagles tallied a season-best 441 yards, went 6-for-6 on

PACKERS IN THE COLLEGE ALL-STAR GAME, VS. NFL ALL-STARS

- From 1934-73 and 1975-76, the NFL participated in the annual Chicago College All-Star Game. The charitable contest, played during the preseason in either July or August, pitted the defending NFL champion against a group of standout collegiate players. An NFL players strike cancelled the '74 matchup.
- Soldier Field, even when the Bears were playing at Wrigley Field, served as the event's stage for all but two years. Dyche Stadium in Evanston, Ill., hosted the game in 1943 and '44.
- Nearly every prominent Packers player, whether as a collegian, as a pro, or both, played in the game.
- The Packers actually lost their first contest, in 1937, when Slingin' Sammy Baugh and the collegians shut out Green Bay, 6-0. Legend suggests the Packers chalked up the embarrassing loss to shiny new uniforms, ordered by Curly Lambeau, which didn't "breathe" in the August humidity.

PRO CAREER: A veteran tight end who remains a steady performer for the Packers and ranks in the top eight in all major categories for tight ends in team history... Over the past three seasons, became the first Green Bay tight end since Paul Coffman (1983-85) to catch at least 35 passes three straight years...Ranks seventh in team history for receptions by a tight end with 167; needs four more to move into sixth (Ron Kramer, 170), nine for fifth (Rich McGeorge, 175), 22 for fourth (Mark Chmura, 188) and another 35-catch season to match No. 3 Ed West (202)...Also ranks eighth in yardage with 1,582 yards, needing 39 more to surpass No. 7 Jackie Harris (1,620), and ranks sixth in touchdowns with 14, one fewer than No. 5 Kramer (15) and three fewer than No. 4 Chmura (17)... Has played in 77 of a possible 80 games since joining the Packers in 2005, and 109 of 112 during his seven-year NFL career...Ranked fourth on the team with 37 receptions in 2009 and third with 37 receptions in 2008, when he also finished second with five touchdown catches...Enjoyed a breakout campaign in 2007, taking over as the team's No. 1 tight end, developing into an all-around performer at the position, and earning a multi-year contract extension at midseason...Caught 48 passes for 575 yards and six touchdowns in '07, essentially doubling his career totals in every category...Became a significant downfield threat, catching seven passes of 20 yards or longer, which he combined with fundamentally sound blocking to become a reliable every-down tight end...Previously had earned playing time in Green Bay as a backup tight end and special-teams contributor, finishing second on the team in special teams tackles in 2006 with 15...Had an immediate impact in 2005, despite signing with Green Bay as a free agent just five days before the season opener...His first two receptions in a Green Bay uniform were touchdown catches...Came to Green Bay after two seasons (2003-04) with the Dolphins, who selected him in the fifth round of the '03 draft...For his career, has started 58 of 109 games played and posted 187 receptions for 1,802 yards and 16 touchdowns.

2009 SEASON: Played in all 16 games with 10 starts and ranked fourth on the team with 37 receptions for 260 yards (7.0 avg.) and a TD...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Posted season-high four receptions (a total he would match three other times) for 28 yards, moving past Harris (133 catches) for No. 7 in team history for receptions by a TE. Left the game late in the fourth guarter after getting the wind knocked out of him and did not return... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Posted season high with 39 yards on three receptions, including 18-yarder down the middle on the first play of the second quarter... At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Matched season high with three catches for 39 yards for the second straight week. Caught season-long 19-yard pass down the middle on second-and-14 from the Green Bay 10; WR Donald Driver scored on a 71-yard pass on the next play... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Posted two receptions for 21 yards, including key 17-yard catch in third quarter between LB Bobby Carpenter and S Patrick Watkins on third-and-13; play kept drive alive that eventually went for TD that put Packers up 10-0... At Detroit (Nov. 26): Started and caught four passes for 22 yards, including lone TD catch of the season, a 7-yard screen pass early ▶ Became first Packers tight end since Paul Coffman (1983-85) to post three consecutive seasons of at least 35 receptions.

▶ Ranks No. 7 in team history for career receptions by a tight end with 167, No. 8 in yardage with 1,582, and No. 6 in touchdowns with 14.

NEW OVERTIME RULES FOR 2010

PRESEASON AND REGULAR SEASON

The sudden death system of determining the winner shall prevail when the score is tied at the end of the regulation playing time of preseason and regular-season NFL games. The team scoring first during overtime play shall be the winner and the game automatically ends upon any score (by safety, field goal, or touchdown) or when a score is awarded by Referee for a palpably unfair act.

- At the end of regulation time the Referee will immediately toss coin at center of field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.
- Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, play will continue for one 15-minute period or until there is a score. Each team has two time outs. General timing provisions that apply for the fourth quarter will prevail.
 Try is not attempted if touchdown scored. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.
- Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay assistant.

POSTSEASON

NFL owners voted to install a modified sudden death system in the postseason. The system guarantees each team a possession or the opportunity to possess, unles the team that receives the opening kickoff scores a touchdown on its initial possession.

• At the end of regulation time the Referee will immediately toss coin at center of field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.

- Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, play will be continued in 15-minute periods until a winner is declared. Each team must possess or have the opportunity to possess the ball unless the team that has the ball first scores a touchdown on its initial possession. Play continues in sudden death until a winner is determined, and the game automatically ends upon any score (by safety, field goal, or touchdown) or when a score is awarded by Refereefor a palpably untair act. Each team has three time outs per half and all general timing provisions apply as during a regular game. Try is not attempted if touchdown scored. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.
- Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay assistant.

Possession: Actual possession of the ball with complete control. The defense gains possession when it catches, intercepts, or recovers a loose ball.

Opportunity to possess: The opportunity to possess occurs only during kicking plays. A kickoff is an opportunity to possess for the receiving team. If the kicking team legally recovers the kick, the receiving team is considered to have had its opportunity. A punt or a field goal that crosses the line of scrimmage and is muffed by the receiving team is considered to be an opportunity to possess for the receivers. Normal touching rules by the kicking team apply.

PACKERS CHEERLEADERS

The Green Bay Packers once had official cheerleaders, but after the 1988 season the decision was made not to reinstate them. While some Packers fans supported the official cheerleaders, many were opposed or indifferent, at best.

Helping the Packers make the decision to discontinue the program was a television news poll in which fans were generally split over whether they wanted the program to continue.

Then the Packers' executive vice president of administration, Bob Harlan was quoted in an official release Feb. 7, 1989, saying: "In general terms, the poll disclosed there were as many fans who expressed opposition to the return of the cheerleaders as there were those in favor of restoring them. On that basis, we felt the appropriate decision at this time would be to continue without them."

At this time, there are no plans to return to official cheerleaders.

For several years, the team has used cheering squads from two local schools, St. Norbert College in De Pere, Wis., and the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay. Compared to other stadiums, though, they are not as much a part of the gameday experience at Lambaau Field.

PRO CAREER: After a season on the practice squad, the lone non-drafted rookie free agent to make the Packers' opening-day roster in 2008 will look to regain that roster spot he earned two years ago...Is expected to vie for a backup spot behind Ryan Grant, competing with a list of reserve backs that includes veteran Brandon Jackson and rookie James Starks...In 2009, rushed 27 times for 95 yards (3.5 avg.) and a touchdown in the preseason but was waived in the final roster reduction and signed to the practice squad the next day...In 2008, led the team in rushing during preseason with 153 yards on 38 carries (4.0 avg.), plus a game-winning 1-yard touchdown run at Denver, which helped him beat out Wynn, Noah Herron and Vernand Morency for a spot on the 2008 opening-day roster...Was active for three games, playing in two, before sustaining hamstring injury that eventually led to him being placed on injured reserve...Saw most significant action in Week 2 at Detroit, rushing once for 19 yards and catching three passes for 22 yards...Signed by Green Bay as a non-drafted free agent on May 2, 2008, and said later that despite being contacted by a number of teams, the Packers were the only one in the league to offer him a contract... Battled injuries during his career at Georgia, missing entire sophomore season in 2004 with torn ACL, and also missed much of his senior campaign due to an injury to the same knee...Was named to the Doak Walker Award candidate watch list prior to his senior season after leading the Bulldogs in rushing with 798 yards as a junior...Started all four years at running back at Stephenson High School in Stone Mountain, Ga., and was rated the second-best running back in the nation by Rivals.com as a senior.

2009 SEASON: Ranked second on the team in the preseason with 95 rushing yards on 27 carries (3.5 avg.) with a TD...Was waived in final roster reduction on Sept. 5 and signed to the practice squad the next day...Spent entire season on practice squad.

2008: Active for three games, playing in two...Had one carry for 19 yards and caught three passes for 22 yards... Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Active for season opener, but did not play... At Detroit (Sept. 14): Made NFL debut, and posted a 19-yard run on his only carry along with three receptions for 22 yards. His 19-yard run in the first quarter went down to the Detroit 10, setting up a 9-yard TD pass from QB Aaron Rodgers to WR James Jones three plays later. Picked up 12 yards on a screen pass down to the Detroit 8; Rodgers found WR Donald Driver for a 2-yard TD pass three plays later... Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Saw limited time on offense, but did not have any carries and sustained a hamstring injury during the game...Was inactive for the next two contests and was placed on injured reserve Oct. 11 after re-aggravating the injury during Oct. 9 practice...2008 Draft: Signed by Green Bay as a nondrafted free agent, May 2, and was the only non-drafted free agent to make the Packers' opening-day roster.

COLLEGE: A three-year letterwinner who was named to the Doak Walker Award candidate watch list prior to the 2007 season...Rushed for 1,656 yards and 15 TDs on 340 carries (4.9 avg.) during his career...Earned two B.S. degrees, in consumer economics and housing...Senior

- ➤ Spent 2009 on the Packers' practice squad.
- Was the only non-drafted rookie free agent to make Green Bay's opening-day roster in 2008, beating out veteran running backs Vernand Morency, DeShawn Wynn and Noah Herron for the No. 3 RB spot.
- at a glance...
- Named to the Doak Walker Award candidate watch list prior to his senior season at Georgia, but missed much of the year after sustaining a seasonending knee injury at Vanderbilt (Oct. 13, 2007).
- ► Led the team in rushing with 798 yards and six TDs during his junior season.
- Rated the second-best running back in the nation by Rivals. com as a senior at Stephenson High School in Stone Mountain, Ga.

PRO CAREER: Safety acquired in trade just prior to the start of '09 regular season made an immediate impact on special teams in his first season in Green Bay...Signed contract extension with the Packers on Feb. 22...Played in 14 games with one start last season and finished second on the team with a career-high 21 special teams tackles... Saw most significant action on defense early in the season when starting SS Atari Bigby missed three games due to a knee injury...Was sidelined for the regular-season finale and the Packers' playoff contest at Arizona with an ankle injury that required surgery in April...Came to Green Bay on Sept. 5 in a trade with the Baltimore Ravens for offensive lineman Tony Moll...An accomplished cornerback coming out of Wyoming in the 2006 draft, played 28 games with three starts through his first three pro seasons before moving to safety last offseason... Has 31 career tackles (28 solo) with two interceptions and eight passes defensed, plus 43 special teams tackles...Compiled the majority of his defensive statistics in 2007, appearing in all 16 games, before playing in only four contests in 2008 due to a shoulder injury...An early entry in the 2006 draft, was taken by Baltimore in the sixth round (208th overall) following a three-year college career in which he made an impact on defense and special teams with six interceptions (returning one for a score), three blocked punts and two returns of blocked punts for TDs.

2009 SEASON: Played in 14 games with one start and finished second on the team with a career-high 21 special teams tackles...Also registered four tackles (all solo) on defense, seeing time primarily early in the season when Bigby was out for three games (Weeks 2-4) with a knee injury...Sidelined at Tampa Bay (Nov. 8) due to concussion, and also for season finale at Arizona (Jan. 3) as well as Wild Card contest at Arizona (Jan. 10) due to ankle injury...Came to Green Bay in Sept. 5 trade with Baltimore for Moll...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Registered a special teams tackle in his Green Bay debut...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Saw significant time at SS and posted a solo tackle...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Started at SS, the first start of his career at safety, and posted three tackles (all solo)... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Tied for team lead with three stops on special teams... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Posted a tackle on special teams, a stop of WR Jaymar Johnson on a punt return late in the first half, but sustained a concussion making the tackle... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Led the team with three special teams tackles. On Jeremy Kapinos' punt early in the fourth quarter, downed punt at the 2 by flipping the ball back to CB Jarrett Bush; on the very next play, S Nick Collins posted an INT to set up a Ryan Grant TD run...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Led the team with a career-high five special teams tackles, the most posted by a Packer all season...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Registered a special teams tackle and also saw a few defensive snaps before injuring his ankle; did not return.

2008: Missed the first game of the season due to a onegame suspension and then played in four of the next six contests, missing two with a shoulder injury...Recorded one special teams tackle before being placed on injured reserve due to the shoulder injury on Oct. 30. ► Finished second on the team with a career-high 21 special teams tackles in 2009

- Posted a career-best five special teams tackles at Pittsburgh (Dec. 20), the most by a Packer all season.
- ► Played in 28 games with three starts at cornerback during his three seasons with Baltimore before making the transition to safety last offseason.

► Earned All-Colorado and All-State Class 5A honors from The Denver Post as a quarterback and running back at Thomas Jefferson High in Denver.

2007: Played in all 16 games for the first and only time in his career, seeing action on defense in 11 contests, including his first three career starts, while playing on special teams in the other five games...Established all his career highs with 26 tackles (23 solo), two INTs and eight passes defensed...Also set a (then) career best with 17 special teams tackles (fourth on the team) and recovered a fumble on special teams...At Cincinnati (Sept. 10): Recovered a fumble on a Bengals' kickoff return... Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 14): Recorded his first career INT (as part of Ravens' single-game franchise record five INTs) as well as a special teams tackle...At Pittsburgh (Nov. 5): Started his first career game, for CB Samari Rolle (illness), and had two solo tackles... Vs. Cincinnati (Nov. 11): Started again for Rolle and posted a career-high six tackles, all solo, and had a QB hit... Vs. Indianapolis (Dec. 9): Started for Rolle (shoulder) and posted five tackles plus one pass defensed... At Seattle (Dec. 23): Came off the bench to post a career-best four passes defensed, plus an INT of QB Matt Hasselbeck, along with four solo tackles.

2006: Played in eight games, posting one tackle from scrimmage and four on special teams...Vs. Carolina (Oct. 15): Made his NFL debut and had two special teams tackles...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 24): Posted first career tackle from scrimmage and added another special teams tackle...2006 Draft: As an early entry, selected in the sixth round (208th overall) by Baltimore as a compensatory selection, becoming the first player in Ravens' history drafted from Wyoming.

COLLEGE: Played in 30 games over three seasons at Wyoming, starting 24 at CB...Totaled 134 tackles (92 solo), 21 passes defensed, six INTs (returning one for a TD), three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two sacks...Also returned six kickoffs for 135 yards (22.5 avg.) and blocked three punts, returning two for scores... Junior season (2005): Named All-Mountain West Conference honorable mention, leading a defense that finished first in the conference in pass defense (207.4 ypg)... In Green Bay, where the local time is always 1963, the citizens worship their Packers with religious fervor, and Lambeau Field is their ageless cathedral. The benches are aluminum, the grass (when not iced over) is resplendent, and the fans are rabid but realistic without being rude. No wonder Packers players leap into the stands after scoring touchdowns. On a truly cold day you can feel the spirit of Vince Lombardi — even if you can't feel your toes.

- ▶ Played in every game in 2008, the only Packers rookie to appear in every contest, and became only rookie in team history to post 30-plus catches and a 45-plus yard kick return in his debut season.
- Consensus All-America selection at Kansas State and one of three finalists for the Biletnikoff Award in 2007.
- ▶ Went from being a walk-on safety as a freshman in 2003 to posting the most prolific single season in Kansas State history with 122 receptions for 1,606 yards in '07.

kickoff for 29 yards, but sustained a sprained knee on his first punt return of the game, a muffed catch that he recovered at the Green Bay 22; injury sidelined him for the remainder of the game and the next three contests... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Returned from knee injury and posted season-high four receptions for 32 yards. Caught 7-yard pass in the flat early in the fourth quarter on third-and-6 at the Dallas 8; QB Aaron Rodgers scored on a sneak on the next play to put Green Bay up 10-0... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Caught three passes for 21 yards (7.0 avg.), including a 7-yard TD late in the first half on a hitch where he made CB Tarell Brown miss at the line... Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Returned opening kickoff 38 yards out to the Green Bay 43 to help set up a 28-yard Mason Crosby FG...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Caught four passes for a career-high 71 yards (17.8 avg.). Made a nice adjustment to come back and catch a 27-yard pass down the right sideline with CB William Gay covering, then on the next play made a nice block down the field on CB Ike Taylor on RB Ryan Grant's 24-yard TD run. Also had a 24-yard reception down the sideline late in the first half... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): With Matt Flynn at QB, drew 36-yard pass-interference penalty on CB Marcus Trufant in fourth quarter down to the Seattle 7 that set up a RB Ahman Green TD run two plays later... At Arizona (Jan. 3): Posted the longest catch of his career when he beat CB Michael Adams deep down the middle and made a leaping 51-yard grab at Arizona's 1-yard line; Rodgers took it in for a TD on a QB sneak on the next play. Returned three kickoffs for a 29.7-yard average, highlighted by a careerlong 54-yard return late in the fourth quarter. Became first Packer since AFL-NFL merger in 1970 to post a 50-plus yard reception and a 50-plus yard kickoff return in the same game...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Caught an 11-yard TD pass late in the third guarter, making the grab at Arizona's 5 from a scrambling Rodgers and then beating CB Bryant McFadden to the end zone.

2008: Played in every game with two starts, the only rookie on the roster to appear in every contest...Finished fourth on the team with 33 receptions for 366 yards (11.1 avg.) and two TDs...Also returned 11 kickoffs for 208 yards (18.9 avg.)...Was named Packers Hall of Fame Team Rookie of the Year...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Caught first

NFL pass, a 29-vard TD reception from Rodgers in the second guarter... Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Established career high with four receptions for 42 yards, all of them coming in the second half. Would match reception total twice in the next three games...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Started first career game as Packers opened up in three-WR set and had two catches for 34 yards. Posted 40-yard kickoff return in the second quarter... Vs. Houston (Dec. 2): Made three catches for 25 yards, including a 9-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter to tie the game at 21... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Returned opening kickoff 45 yards, a season-long...2008 Draft: Selected in the second round (36th overall), the third WR taken. The choice was obtained from the N.Y. Jets, along with a fourth-round selection (113th overall) in exchange for Green Bay's first-round pick (30th overall). Only the third player from Kansas State ever selected by the Packers, and the highest selection since HB Veryl Switzer (fourth overall) in 1954. Became first top-40 selection from KSU in the draft since CB Terence Newman was selected fifth overall by the Dallas Cowboys in 2003.

COLLEGE: Utilized the work ethic he learned on the family farm growing up as he went from being a walk-on safety as a freshman in 2003 to posting the most prolific single season in Kansas State history with 122 receptions for 1.606 yards in 2007 on his way to earning consensus All-America honors...Finished career second in school history with 206 receptions for 2,822 yards, trailing only Lockett, who caught 217 passes for 3,032 yards and went on to be selected in the second round by the Kansas City Chiefs in 1997...Became just the fifth player in school history to eclipse the 2,000-yard career receiving mark and tied Quincy Morgan's school record for 100-yard receiving games with 10...Showed his versatility by returning two of his six career punt returns for TDs, an 89-yarder and a 92-yarder, and threw two passes as a senior, both for TDs...Made the switch to WR in the spring of 2005, and made an immediate impact as he led the team in receptions, yards, and receiving TDs as a sophomore... Majored in social science... Senior season (2007): A consensus All-American who was named to nine firstteam All-America squads...Swept first-team All-Big 12 honors from The Associated Press, the league's coaches, Rivals.com. the Kansas City Star and the Waco Tribune-Herald...One of three finalists for the Biletnikoff Award, given annually to the top receiver in the nation...Also earned honorable mention recognition from the league's coaches as a punt/kick returner despite returning just five punts on the season...Started all 12 games and posted school single-season records with 122 receptions for 1,606 yards...Registered a school-record eight 100-yard receiving games...Caught eight or more passes in 10 of 12 games and 10 or more passes six times...Ranked second in the Big 12 and nationally in receptions and yardage...Was one of just two receivers in the country to record 1,600 yards receiving, joining Crabtree of Texas Tech...Returned five punts for 264 yards (52.8 avg.) and two TDs...Broke his own school single-game receiving yardage record set earlier in the season with 214 yards on 14 grabs at Iowa State (Nov. 3)... Tied his own singlegame record for receptions with 15 catches for 165 yards and a TD at Fresno State (Nov. 24) in the final game of his career...Junior season (2006): Played in all 13 games with nine starts despite battling a knee injury all season long...Still managed to lead the Wildcats in both receptions and receiving yards for the second straight year...Caught 39 passes for 547 yards (14.0 avg.) and a TD...Posted four or more receptions in seven games... Sophomore season (2005): Started all 11 games and earned second-team All-Big 12 honors from the Kansas City Star... Picked up honorable mention All-Big 12 recognition from the conference's coaches and AP...Selected as Kansas State's most improved offensive player...Led the Wildcats in receptions (45), receiving yards (669) and receiving TDs (eight)...Ranked tied for third in the Big 12 in TD catches, seventh in yards per game (60.8) and 11th in receptions per game (4.1), despite playing in an offense that attempted the league's fewest passes (318)...Became the only receiver in school history to catch a TD pass in each of the first seven games of a season...Redshirt freshman season (2004): Did not see any playing time as a safety.

NICKNAME ORIGIN

In the Green Bay Press-Gazette on Aug. 29, 1919, two weeks before the team's first organized game, sports editor and Packers co-founder George Calhoun first publicly identified the team as the "Indian Packers."

Curly Lambeau received $500 from his employer, the Indian Packing Co., for uniforms and equipment, and for use of the company's lot for practice. In exchange, Lambeau and Calhoun agreed to call the team "Packers." Early fans, many of whom were working-class citizens, immediately embraced the name, widely publicized by Calhoun.

Calhoun also called them simply "Indians" briefly in 1919, but that moniker seemed to fold with the company, soon purchased —along with the team — by Acme Packing Co. In 1921, the team's first season in what is now the NFL, its owners had "Acme Packers" put on the jersey, setting the name in stone.

While "Packers" has served as the primary nickname since the team's embryonic stages, fans and sportswriters also have called them the Big Bay Blues, or the Bays. Lambeau in 1922 applied with the name "Blues," but public opinion quickly vetoed him.

A packer is someone who works at a packing house, an establishment for slaughtering, processing and packing livestock into meat, meat products and byproducts. "Green Bay Packers" is the longest-standing team name in NFL history.

PRO CAREER: Begins his 10th NFL season and fifth in Green Bay as a primary run-stuffer and unsung leader on the defensive line...Made the transition to the nose tackle position in the defense's new 3-4 scheme in 2009, continuing his role as a quiet, reliable anchor on the defensive interior...Worked primarily at left end this past offseason, while also providing depth at nose tackle... Was a key part of the Packers' No. 1-ranked rushing defense in '09 (teamrecord 83.3 yards allowed per game), the first time in franchise annals that Green Bay led the league in run defense... Part of a defense that held opponents to under 90 net rushing yards a league-high 12 times on the season, also a franchise record... Was designated as the team's franchise player on Feb. 24, but agreed to a long-term extension with the Packers on March 12...Though many of his contributions don't always show up on the stat sheet, does have 283 tackles (146 solo) in 59 regular-season games in Green Bay over four seasons, posting five or more tackles 31 times (33 including playoffs)...Now has 691 tackles (316 solo) with 8½ sacks and 30 passes defensed for his career...Battled through hamstring and tricep injuries to start every game in '08 and has played in 134 of a possible 144 regular-season games during his career...Has missed only five contests due to injury...Prior to Week 16 of 2007, had not missed a game since midway through his rookie season, and had not missed a start since Week 4 of 2003... Took over DT Grady Jackson's old starting job after signing as an unrestricted free agent on March 17, 2006, coming over from St. Louis, where he spent his first five seasons and was a first-round draft choice (29th overall) in 2001, turning pro after his junior year at Ohio State...Came to Green Bay off his best NFL season statistically in 2005 in which he led all of the league's defensive linemen with 115 tackles, 10 more than runner-up Aaron Kampman...Having appeared in three playoff games with Green Bay, has the experience of playing in nine postseason contests, including Super Bowl XXXVI while a rookie with St. Louis.

2009 SEASON: Played in 13 games with nine starts at NT; only non-starts came when team opened up in nickel... Also played in team's playoff contest...Part of top-ranked rushing defense in the NFL (a franchise-best 83.3 yards per game), the first time in franchise history that the team was No. 1 against the run...Posted 47 tackles (25 solo) and a pass defensed...Inactive for three games late in the season due to a hamstring injury... At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Led line with six tackles (two solo), including a stop of RB Steven Jackson for a 2-yard loss on first-quarter run...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Didn't start as team opened in nickel, but led the defensive line with season-high seven tackles (six solo). Helped limit Pro Bowl RB Adrian Peterson to just 55 yards on 25 carries (2.2 avg.)... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Led the line with seven tackles (five solo) to match his career high. Along with LB A.J. Hawk, stopped Peterson for a 1-yard loss on fourth-and-1 from Green Bay's 7 midway through the second quarter... Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Posted four tackles (two solo) and a QB hit, but sustained a hamstring injury with under nine minutes remaining in the game and did not return. Injury would go on to sideline him for three of final four regular-season games...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Didn't start as team opened in nickel, but registered two tackles (one solo).

Key component of Packers' No. 1-ranked rushing defense in 2009 (franchise-record 83.3 yards allowed per game), the first time in team history that Green Bay led the league in that category.

► Has played in 134 of a possible 144 regular-season games during his nine-year career, missing just at a glance... five contests due to injury

- ► On Monday Night Football in Denver in 2007, his heads-up tackle of QB Jay Cutler on a draw play at the 4-yard line in the final seconds of the fourth quarter forced the Broncos to kick a game-tying FG. One snap into overtime, Brett Favre hit Greg Jennings for an 82-yard TD for the Green Bay win.
- A first-round draft choice (29th overall) in 2001 who turned pro after his junior year at Ohio State, and became a starter in his second season in St. Louis.
- ► Came to Green Bay off a career year in 2005, when he led all NFL defensive linemen with 115 tackles, 10 more than former Packers' linemate and runner-up Aaron Kampman.
- ► An All-American at Zephyrhills (Fla.) High School who did not stay close to home like older brother Booker, who played at Miami (Fla.).

2008: Started all 16 games for the fourth time in the last five seasons, opening up every game at LDT...Was third on the defensive line with 81 tackles (38 solo), the sixth time in his career he posted 80-plus stops...Tied for lead on the line with five passes defensed...Posted 11/2 sacks, his most in a single season as a Packer... Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Returned to starting lineup after missing entire preseason with hamstring injury suffered just prior to the start of training camp...Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Led defensive line with seven tackles, including a stop of RB Michael Turner for a 3-yard loss in the first quarter...At Seattle (Oct. 12): Registered three tackles, but left game midway through third quarter with triceps injury and did not return... Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Started after being limited all week in practice with tricep injury, which required a harness for protection during game. Registered three tackles and batted down a QB Peyton Manning pass on third down in the second quarter to force a Colts punt... At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Finished second on the defensive line with seven tackles, registered his first sack of the season when he brought down QB Kerry Collins for a 4-yard loss early in the third quarter, and batted down a Collins pass intended for TE Bo Scaife in overtime...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Tied for lead on defensive line with season-high nine tackles...At Chicago (Dec. 22): Shared a sack of QB Kyle Orton in the third quarter with DE Michael Montgomery for a 4-yard loss on a third down. Tied for lead on defensive line with seven tackles.

2007: Started 14 games, plus both playoff contests, recording 63 tackles (38 solo), with one sack and one pass defensed...Inactive for final two regular-season games with a groin injury, snapping a string of 74 consecutive starts (77 including playoffs) dating back to early 2003 and 101 straight games played (107 including playoffs) dating back to midway through his rookie season...

Didn't even miss the preseason opener, having arrived in Pittsburgh (Aug. 11) the morning of the game following the birth of his son, Ryan Jr. ...At Minnesota (Sept. 30): Made his first sack of the season and first as a Packer, felling QB Kelly Holcomb for a 6-yard loss in fourth quarter; made a season-high seven total tackles (six solo)...At Denver (Oct. 29): With time running out, stopped Jay Cutler for no gain at the Green Bay 4-yard line on a QB draw. Denver was forced to kick a FG that tied the score 13-13 and led to an OT period; QB Brett Favre connected with WR Greg Jennings on the first play for an 82-yard score and the victory...At St. Louis (Dec. 16):

Made six tackles but missed a good part of the second half after suffering a groin injury and then missed the next two games...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12):

Returned to starting lineup for postseason and made six tackles, including stop of RB Shaun Alexander for a 1-yard loss in third quarter.

2006: An unrestricted free agent signed from St. Louis, started all 16 games in his first year with the Packers and was often called by coaches the most consistent defensive lineman...Collected 92 tackles (45 solo), one fumble recovery and a career-best seven passes defensed... Was held to fewer than five tackles just four times all season and had six-or-more on eight occasions...At Philadelphia (Oct. 2): Played in spite of an ankle injury suffered the week prior at Detroit...At Seattle (Nov. 27): Tied a regular-season career high with 12 tackles, including three for loss. Also helped to end the Seahawks' first possession by tipping a pass that was intercepted by CB Charles Woodson, setting up a Packers TD...Vs. N.Y. Jets (Dec. 3): Combined with LB Nick Barnett to stop RB Cedric Houston for minus-1 yard; on the next play, nearly intercepted a pass, his sixth pass breakup of the year... At Chicago (Dec. 31): Recovered a QB Rex Grossman fumble, his first career fumble recovery.

2005: Assembled the finest season statistically in his NFL career in his final year in St. Louis...Started all 16 games for a second straight season and posted a careerhigh 115 tackles (61 solo), which led all NFL defensive linemen...Also tied his career high with two sacks...At Arizona (Sept. 18): Joined with DE Leonard Little to share a fourth-quarter sack of QB Kurt Warner...Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 23): Led team in tackles with 11...Vs. Jacksonville (Oct. 30): Led team in tackles for second straight week with nine and shared a sack of QB Byron Leftwich with LB Chris Claiborne...At Houston (Nov. 27): Got a sack of his own, dropping QB David Carr on a key third down to force the Texans to settle for a FG in the Rams' eventual 33-27 win...Vs. Washington (Dec. 4): Tied career high with 12 tackles.

2004: Started all 16 regular-season contests and two playoff games, finishing with 81 tackles (36 solo) and two sacks, and playing his best football late in the year and into the postseason...Led the team in tackles twice and led or tied for tackle lead among defensive linemen on three other occasions, all in final month of regular season and playoffs...At Carolina (Dec. 12): Led team in tackles with 11, one shy of regular-season career high...Vs. N.Y. Jets (Jan. 2): Posted 10 tackles, including a sack of QB Chad Pennington in OT of regular-season finale...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Established postseason-high of 13 tackles, surpassing regular-season best by one.

2003: Started 13 games at NT and finished with 74 tackles (26 solo) and one sack...At Chicago (Nov. 16): Recorded a season-high 10 tackles...Vs. Carolina (NFC Divisional, Jan. 10): Had seven tackles, the seventh time on the season (six regular season) he posted seven or more.

2002: Started 14 games at LDT and turned in breakout year with 107 stops (59 solo) to lead St. Louis' defensive line and finish second on the team...His six tackles for loss also were second on the Rams...At Denver (Sept. 8): Made his first career start in the season opener, leading the defensive line with 10 tackles and getting a half-sack of QB Brian Griese...At Washington (Nov. 24): Reached double figures in tackles again with 10... At Philadelphia (Dec. 1): Established regular-season career high with 12 tackles.

2001: Took a reserve role on the defensive line and played special teams...Saw action in 11 regular-season and three postseason contests, making 24 stops (10 solo) with ½ sack...At Atlanta (Dec 2): Tallied five tackles, his rookie high...At Carolina (Dec. 23): Matched rookie best with five stops...Vs. New England (Super Bowl XXXVI, Feb. 3): Posted two assisted tackles in Super Bowl loss to Patriots...2001 Draft: Selected after his junior season by St. Louis Rams as the third of three first-round selections (29th overall). First Ohio State defensive lineman picked in the first round since Dan Wilkinson was selected first overall by Cincinnati in '94.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at Ohio State (1998-2000), he played both DT positions...Totaled 109 tackles (72 solo), eight sacks and 20 stops for loss in 37 career games...Majored in general studies...Junior season (2000): Played LDT and had 39 tackles (21 solo), three sacks and two forced fumbles...Sophomore season (1999): Started every game at RDT and was named All-Big Ten honorable mention with a career-high 48 tackles (34 solo) and three sacks...Freshman season (1998): Played in every game and started the final nine contests at RDT, with 22 stops (17 solo), two sacks, and five tackles for loss.

HISTORY OF THE SACK STATISTIC

In 1947, the NFL implemented a new team statistic, yards lost attempting to pass. The new category allowed the league to separate gross yards passing from net yards, to more accurately reflect a team's passing performance. Net passing yards included yards lost by backs tackled on passing plays.

In 1963, Seymour Siwoff, president of the league's official statistical company, the Elias Sports Bureau, made a suggestion. Recognizing the 'yards lost attempting to pass' figure needed a complement, he argued for a new category: number of times losing yards attempting to pass. The league agreed, and one of the NFL's top executives, Jim Kensil, first coined the term "Sack," which in the early 1960s was a dark-ages word, meaning to plunder a captured town. Kensil, who handled NFL public relations among other responsibilities, popularized the term in his stories and publicity materials.

In 1982, convinced by member team PR directors (many of whom were convinced by their players), Elias and the NFL agreed to make individual sacks an official number. New rules were written, such as only two players can share in a sack.

Today, it's arguably the game's most popular defensive stat. Siwoff, whose bureau also tracks official numbers for MLB, the NBA and NHL, still has the final word on every challenged sack, spending Tuesday or Wednesday in the film room at the league office.

PRO CAREER: Intense and enthusiastic veteran will continue to provide depth at both outside-linebacker spots...Made the transition back to the OLB position in the Packers' 3-4 scheme in 2009, reprising the pass-rushing role from his days as a college defensive end... Has only missed one game the last four years since returning from a torn ACL in his left knee, sustained in the final month of his rookie season, in his first NFL start (vs. Detroit, Dec. 11, 2005)...After starting the first three games of the '09 season at ROLB, backed up both spots for the remainder of the season and contributed on special teams, posting 10 stops, the most since his rookie year... Was a consistent contributor in '08 despite beginning the year in competition with free-agent signee Brandon Chillar for starting strongside linebacker job, playing in every game and recording a career-high 77 tackles...Was back on the practice field in training camp in August 2006, able to play in the final two preseason games and start the season opener on Sept. 10, one day less than nine months from the injury date... The remarkably fast recovery was attributed to his undying work ethic and intensity during rehabilitation, which only furthered his love for the game...Despite the serious injury, has played in 75 of a possible 80 games in his five-year career (78 of 83 including playoffs), amassing 254 total tackles (165 solo), four sacks, two INTs, eight passes defensed, two forced fumbles and 40 special teams tackles...As a rookie, played in 12 games prior to his injury and was an immediate contributor on special teams, finishing second on the team with 22 coverage stops, one behind fellow rookie Marviel Underwood...At BYU, was a threetime first-team All-Mountain West Conference selection, amassing 20 career sacks between end and linebacker positions...Drafted in the fourth round in 2005, entered the NFL older than most rookies after spending two years on a Mormon mission in Uruguay prior to going to college.

2009: Played in 15 games with three starts, opening the first three games of the season at ROLB before rookie Clay Matthews took over there as the starter for the rest of the year...Also played in team's playoff contest...Registered 21 tackles (14 solo), a sack and a pass defensed...Saw time at both OLB spots during the season, and added 10 tackles on special teams...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Posted season-high eight tackles (six solo) and a pass defensed...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Registered five tackles (all solo) and season-high two stops on special teams...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Played on special teams but didn't get any defensive snaps; missed two practices leading up to the game due to illness... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Inactive with a guad injury sustained the previous week at Tampa Bay, the first time he had missed a game due to injury since his rookie season in '05 when he was sidelined for the final three contests with a torn ACL...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Saw some time at LOLB in the fourth quarter when Aaron Kampman left the game with a season-ending knee injury, and also matched season high with two special teams tackles...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Saw time at LOLB and posted his first sack since '06 when he beat RT Willie Colon to bring down QB Ben Roethlisberger on the opening play of the Steelers'

- Last name is pronounced puh-PING-ah.
- ► Posted 10 tackles on special teams in 2009, the most since his rookie season of 2005.
- Returned to practice less than eight full months after a torn ACL in his knee, started the 2006 season opener, and has played in 63 of 64 games since.

- ➤ Spent two years on a mission in Uruguay before entering BYU; recalls the trip as the most difficult and most rewarding experience of his life.
- ➤ Comes from a very athletic family. Father, Dennis, played tight end at BYU from 1968-1971; brother, Casey, played tight end at Utah State; brother, Kelly, was a linebacker at BYU; and older sister, Tara, played volleyball at Utah State.
- ► Son is named Julius Maximus Poppinga, a name inspired by his favorite movie, Gladiator.

final drive of the game for a 4-yard loss...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Led the team with three tackles on special teams.

2008: Played in all 16 games for the third straight season with 12 starts at SLB...Held off challenge from freeagent signee Chillar during training camp for starting job and registered career-best 77 tackles (51 solo), one more than previous career high and second most among LBs... Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Among six tackles, combined with DT Colin Cole to hold RB Adrian Peterson to a 1-yard gain on a third-and-2 in the second guarter. Also contributed his lone pass defensed on the season...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Tied for second on team with 10 tackles, including stop of RB Warrick Dunn for 2-yard loss in third quarter...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Started and posted career-high 12 tackles... Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Made six tackles, including a stop of RB DeAngelo Williams for a 2-yard loss in the fourth guarter. Also began taking a few snaps at DE in pass-rushing situations, a role he held the rest of the season... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Registered five tackles, including a stop of RB Kevin Smith for a 1-yard loss on second-quarter run, and added two QB pressures.

2007: Played in 16 games with 15 starts; did not officially start vs. Detroit (Dec. 30) with team opening in its 'nickel' package...Also started both playoff games... Registered 70 tackles (43 solo), with one INT and one pass defensed...Vs. Chicago (Oct. 7): Made five tackles with one pass defensed and an INT. In the fourth quarter, caught a QB Brian Griese pass tipped by S Nick Collins, the Packers' only forced turnover of the game and second INT of Poppinga's career (also Oct. 22, 2006, at Miami)...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): On the Vikings' first drive, stopped Peterson for no gain on third-and-1, leading to a punt...At St. Louis (Dec. 16): Posted a season-high eight tackles (four solo)...At Chicago (Dec. 23): Made six solo tackles; in the second quarter, dropped RB Garrett Wolfe for a 3-yard loss...Vs. New York Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Made five tackles (four solo); in the first quarter, stopped RB Brandon Jacobs for no gain at the Green Bay 11-yard line on a drive that ended three plays later with a Giants FG.

2006: Played in all 16 games, starting 12...Recorded 76 tackles (51 solo), one sack, one INT, five passes defensed and a pair of forced fumbles...Did not start four contests when the team opened in nickel...Reclaimed the starting role he had earned Dec. 11, 2005, when a torn ACL ended his rookie season...After an unusually quick recovery and rehabilitation, returned to practice on a limited basis Aug. 8 and to the starting lineup in four weeks, returning in Week 1 to the starting 'Sam' LB role he had relinquished upon his 2005 injury... Vs. Chicago (Sept. 10): Started season opener and led the team with a (then) career-high 11 tackles, including a personal-best nine solo stops...At Miami (Oct. 22): Made his first career INT, picking off a QB Joey Harrington pass floated over the middle and returning it 21 yards...At Minnesota (Nov. 12): Sacked QB Brad Johnson, forcing a fumble (recovered by DT Corey Williams) to set up the Packers' first TD. The sack gave him two of his three career sacks in the Metrodome, the other coming against QB Daunte Culpepper (Oct. 23, 2005).

2005: Played in 12 games with one start, missing the final three contests with a knee injury...Finished with 10 tackles (six solo), including two sacks...Finished second on the club with 22 special teams tackles...At Detroit (Sept. 11): Recorded two special teams tackles in his NFL debut, dropping dangerous PR Eddie Drummond for a 2-yard loss in third quarter...Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 9): Played six snaps at 'Sam' LB, the first defensive action of his career. Also made three special teams tackles... At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Posted one special teams stop and took down Culpepper in the first quarter for a loss of 14 yards, his first career sack and tackle from scrimmage...At Atlanta (Nov. 13): Made a career-best four coverage tackles, twice dropping KR Allen Rossum on kickoff returns, at the 15- and 19-yard lines...At Philadelphia (Nov. 27): Posted a sack in five snaps on defense, taking down RB Brian Westbrook (looking to pass) for a 3-yard loss in the fourth quarter... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 11): Making his first NFL start, replaced Na'il Diggs (knees) at 'Sam' LB and posted five tackles (two solo), plus one on special teams. Saw his season end after tearing the ACL in his left knee while covering a fourthquarter kickoff and was placed on injured reserve on Dec. 14...2005 Draft: Was the Packers' second of two selections in the fourth round (125th overall), the fourth player ever chosen by the Packers from BYU and the first since QB Ty Detmer in 1992.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterwinner (2001-04) for the Cougars, started his last three seasons...Played in 47 contests, with 25 starts...Finished with 193 tackles (99 solo), 20 sacks and 39 tackles for loss...Garnered first-team All-MWC honors as a sophomore, junior and senior...Earned a B.S. degree in business management... Senior season (2004): Started all 11 games, shifting before the season from DE to LOLB...Ranked third on the team with 79 tackles (35 solo), including six sacks and 12 stops for loss...Added five QB hurries, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble...Selected as one of 58 candidates for the 2004 'Bronko Nagurski Award,' presented annually to the nation's best defensive player... Junior season (2003): Started all 12 games at DE... Ranked among MWC leaders with 55 tackles (34 solo)... Finished seventh in the conference and led the team with six sacks...Ranked ninth in the conference and second on the Cougars with 13 tackles for loss...Contributed one

INSTANT REPLAY

For the 2010 season, the NFL will continue to employ a system of Referee Replay Review to aid officiating.

Prior to the two-minute warning of each half, a Coaches' Challenge System will be in effect. After the two-minute warning, and throughout any overtime period, a Referee Review will be initiated by a Replay Assistant from a Replay Booth.

The following procedures will be used:

REVIEWS BY REFEREE: All Replay Reviews will be conducted by the Referee on a field-level monitor after consultation with the other covering official(s), prior to review. A decision will be reversed only when the Referee has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

COACHES' CHALLENGE: In each game, a team will be permitted two challenges that will initiate Referee Replay reviews. Each challenge will require the use of a team timeout. If a challenge is upheld, the timeout will be restored to the challenging team. If both challenges are upheld, a third challenge will be awarded to the challenging team. No challenges will be recognized from a team that has exhausted its timeouts.

REPLAY ASSISTANT'S REQUEST FOR REVIEW: After the two-minute warning of each half, and throughout any overtime period, any review will be initiated by a Replay Assistant

There is no limit to the number of reviews that may be initiated by the Replay Assistant. His ability to initiate a review will be unrelated to the number of timeouts that either team has remaining, and no timeout will be charged for any review initiated by the Replay Assistant.

TIME LIMIT: Each review will be a maximum of 60 seconds in length, timed from when the Referee begins his review of the replay at the field-level monitor.

REVIEWABLE PLAYS

The Replay System will cover the following play situations only:

A) PLAYS GOVERNED BY SIDELINE, GOAL LINE, END ZONE, END LINE, AND GOAL POSTS:

- Scoring plays, including a runner breaking the plane of the goal line.
- 2. Pass complete/incomplete/intercepted at sideline, goal line, end zone, and end line.
- 3. Runner/receiver in or out of bounds.
- 4. Recovery of loose ball in or out of bounds.
- 5. A field goal or try attempt when it is lower than the top of the uprights.

B) PASSING PLAYS:

- 1. Pass ruled complete/incomplete/intercepted in the field of play.
- 2. Touching of a forward pass by an ineligible receiver.
- 3. Touching of a forward pass by a defensive player.
- 4. Quarterback (Passer) forward pass or fumble.
- 5. Illegal forward pass beyond line of scrimmage.
- 6. Illegal forward pass after change of possession.
- Forward or backward pass thrown from behind line of scrimmage.

C) OTHER DETECTABLE INFRACTIONS:

- 1. Runner ruled not down by defensive contact
- Runner ruled down by defensive contact and there is a recovery by defense.
- 3. Forward progress with respect to first down.
- 4. Touching of a kick.
- 5. Number of players on the field.
- 6. Recovery of loose ball in the field of play.

fumble recovery and two passes defensed...Tallied six or more tackles in four games...Selected to the preseason watch list of the Rotary Lombardi Award...Sophomore season (2002): Saw action in all 12 games, starting two at DE...Led the conference with a career-high eight sacks (for 52 yards)...Recorded 49 tackles (25 solo), including 14 for loss...Forced three fumbles and had three QB pressures...Named both first-team All-MWC and a MWC All-Academic selection...Earned the Cougars' top defensive lineman award...Freshman season (2001): Played in all 12 games as a DE and contributed significantly on special teams...Recorded 10 tackles (five solo) and one pass defensed.

▶ Became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in each of his first two seasons as a starter.

► Has ranked fourth in the league in passing vards and touchdowns in each of the last two seasons.

► In 32 regular-season starts, has posted nine 300-yard passing at a glance.. games, 19 games without an interception and 18 with a 100-plus passer rating. ► In 2009, nearly broke the franchise's single-season record

- with 4,434 passing yards, falling just short of Lynn Dickey's 1984 mark of 4,458. Did set Green Bay's single-game postseason record with 423 yards passing in NFC Wild Card
- ► Signed long-term contract extension through 2014 on Oct. 31 2008
- Is the eighth quarterback drafted by the Packers in the first round and the first since Rich Campbell, also from California. was selected in 1981; became just the second player from California (Campbell) taken in the first round by Green Bay
- ▶ Went 17-5 as a starter at Cal, taking over in Week 5 of the 2003 season.

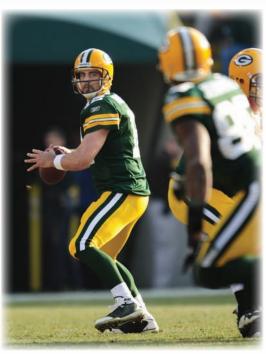

ated by Packers personnel as one of the top players in the 2005 NFL Draft, slipped all the way to Green Bay's No. 24 slot...Was the second guarterback taken after Alex Smith (49ers) at No. 1... Was the eighth quarterback drafted by the Packers in the first round and the first since Rich Campbell, also from the University of California, was selected in 1981; became just the second player from Cal (joining Campbell) taken by Green Bay in the first round as well...Passed on his final year of eligibility and was considered one of the top quarterback prospects in the country with numerous football observers rating him as the No. 1 pick in the draft... Was a two-year starter (2003-04) for Cal after playing the 2002 season at Butte College, a junior college near Chico, Calif. ... Finished 17-5 as the Bears' field general, leading the school in 2004 to its best season in more than a half century in just his second campaign at the Division I level...Rodgers' journey to the pros is a compelling story, beginning with scant Division I recruitment after two highly successful prep seasons; he was perhaps not big enough or located in an area not often recruited by the big schools...He opted to enroll at nearby Butte College and promptly led the Roadrunners to a 10-1 record and a No. 2 national JUCO ranking...Along came Cal coach Jeff Tedford, who noticed Rodgers while watching video of a teammate, TE Garrett Cross (who later, too, became a Cal Golden Bear, and then a Green Bay Packer)...After watching him practice and feeling confident in his ability to thrive in Berkeley, Tedford offered Rodgers a scholarship and launched the beginning of two immensely successful seasons...Was a major component of a 2004 Cal campaign that saw the team reach its highest national ranking (No. 4) since 1952, produce its best regular-season record (10-1) in 54 years and record the most conference wins (seven) in 55 years...Took over as the starter in the fifth game of the 2003 season and went on to fire 43 touchdowns

PRO CAREER: Mature, confident quarterback who built on an impressive starting debut in 2008 with an even better 2009, making his first Pro Bowl and placing himself in various spots in the franchise record books...Became the first quarterback in NFL history to surpass 4,000 yards passing in each of his first two seasons as a starter, and his 4,434 yards in 2009 nearly broke Green Bay's singleseason mark set by Lynn Dickey 25 years prior (4,458)... Capped his second season with a memorable playoff debut, breaking Dickey's single-game postseason mark for passing yards with a career-best 423 in the NFC Wild Card playoff at Arizona (Jan. 10), and tying team playoff records for completions (28) and TD passes (four)...Already ranks first in franchise history for career passer rating (97.2) and career completion percentage (63.9), and in 32 regularseason starts has posted nine 300-yard passing games, 19 games without an interception and 18 with a 100-plus passer rating...Has finished fourth in the league in both passing yards and touchdowns each of the last two years, while his 1.29 interception percentage in 2009 was best in the league...That figure, along with his 103.2 passer rating last year, were both second-best for a single season in team history behind Bart Starr's 1966 campaign (105.0 rating, 1.20 INT percentage)...Also was the league's toprated quarterback on third down in 2009 with 133.5 rating, featuring league highs of 1,710 yards and 14 touchdowns, with no interceptions...Ranked second in the league in rushing yards among guarterbacks with 316 last year and added five rushing touchdowns, both numbers best by a Green Bay signal caller in two decades...Is the only quarterback in franchise history other than Brett Favre to post back-to-back 4,000-yard campaigns, and with nine rushing touchdowns in two years is just the third quarterback in team history to tally at least four in consecutive seasons, joining Tobin Rote (1954-56) and Scott Hunter (1971-72)...His 32 straight starts rank tied for sixth among active NFL quarterbacks...Took over as the starter in 2008 after waiting patiently for three years for his opportunity behind Favre, and showed why the team had placed its trust in him to lead the Packers' offense...Started every game while playing through a sprained right shoulder suffered in Week 4 at Tampa Bay...Was limited for several weeks in practice because of the injury but never missed a start, taking more than 99 percent of the team's snaps on the season... Secured his position as one of the team leaders for years to come when he signed a long-term contract extension with the Packers through 2014 on Oct. 31, 2008... Spent his first three seasons learning under Favre as his backup while continuing to grow as a leader in his own right, particularly during the team's offseason program... Participated in Mike McCarthy's offseason QB school three consecutive years while handling his share of reps leading the No. 1 offense during OTAs and other workouts... Posted his most noteworthy performance to that point in relief of Favre in '07, in a showdown of two 10-1 teams in Dallas that saw Favre knocked out of the game with shoulder and elbow injuries...With Packers trailing 27-10, Rodgers directed two touchdown drives to pull the Packers within three points early in the fourth quarter, finishing with noteworthy numbers (18-of-26, 201 yards, one TD, no INTs, 104.8 rating) despite the 37-27 defeat.

with only 13 interceptions over the course of his career and finish with a 150.27 career passing efficiency mark, the best in school history...Authored 10 career passing games of 250-plus yards.

2009 SEASON: Selected to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career...Started every game for the second straight season and completed 350-of-541 passes (64.7 percent) for 4,434 yards, 30 TDs and seven INTs for a 103.2 rating, which ranked fourth in the NFL and second in team history behind Starr's 105.0 in 1966...Ranked fourth in the league in passing yards, fourth in TD passes and first in INT percentage (1.29), the latter mark second in team history to Starr's 1.20 in '66 as Rodgers posted 12 games without an INT to break Starr's franchise mark of 11 in 1964...Nearly broke Dickey's single-season team record for passing yards set in 1984 (4,458) while joining Favre (1998-99) as the only QBs in team history to post back-to-back 4,000-yard seasons and joining Dickey and Favre as the only Green Bay QBs to hit 30 TDs in one season...Had a 133.5 rating on third down, which led the league and was the highest since St. Louis' Kurt Warner (137.3) in 1999; third-down production included an NFL-best 14 TDs, no INTs, and a league-high 1,710 yards, the most yards by an NFL QB since the stat began to be kept in 1991...Tied for NFL lead (with Donovan McNabb and Tony Romo) with 17 completions of 40-plus yards...Was tied for second in the league

(with Romo and Drew Brees) with 39 completions of 25-plus yards, trailing only Eli Manning's 42...Posted a 104.9 passer rating in the fourth quarter, good for fifth in the NFL...Rushed for 316 yards and five TDs on 58 carries (5.4 avg.), the second-most yards by any QB in 2009 (David Garrard, 323) and the most runs of 10-plus vards with 14...Rushing total was good for No. 5 in team history by a QB and most since Don Majkowski's 358 in 1989, with five rushing TDs also most since Majkowski's five in '89...Became the first QB in NFL history to throw 30 or more TDs, seven or fewer INTs, and rush for five TDs in the same season...Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Month honors for October...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Completed 17-of-28 passes for 184 yards, with his lone TD a game-winning 50-yarder to WR Greg Jennings on a post route with just over a minute remaining... Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Along with 261 yards on 21-of-39 passing, rushed for 43 yards on four carries, including three runs of 10-plus yards. His 43 yards were the most by a Packers QB since Favre posted 49 on the ground on Dec. 20, 1998, vs. Tennessee...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Completed 13-of-23 passes for 269 yards, two TDs (plus a rushing TD) and no INTs for a 126.9 rating, the third-highest rating of his career. Posted three completions of 40-plus yards, a 46-yarder to WR Donald Driver and passes of 50 and 53 yards to Jennings. Added 38 rushing yards to become first Packers QB since Majkowski (Sept. 23-Sept. 30, 1990) to rush for 35-plus yards in consecutive games...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Threw for a regular-season career-high 384 yards on 26-of-37 passing for a 110.6 rating. Connected with TE Jermichael Finley on a 62-yard TD pass in the first quarter and on a 33-yard TD with WR Jordy Nelson in the fourth. Was intercepted for the first time on the season when CB Antoine Winfield picked off his pass intended for Jennings on the right sideline at the Minnesota 23 early in the second quarter; the INT snapped a career-best streak of 159 passing attempts without one, third longest in team history behind Starr (294 in 1964-65) and Favre (163 in 2001-02)... Vs.

Detroit (Oct. 18): Completed 29-of-37 passes for 358 yards, two TDs and one INT for a 113.7 rating, giving him two career firsts - back-to-back games with 350-plus yards and three straight contests with a 110.0 rating or better. His 78.3 completion percentage was the secondbest single-game performance in team history (min. 35 attempts), trailing only Favre's 79.5 percent on 31-of-39 passing at Minnesota on Nov. 21, 1998...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Completed 15-of-20 passes for 246 yards, three TDs and no INTs for a 155.4 passer rating, the best single-game rating in franchise history (min. 20 attempts). TDs went to TE Spencer Havner (45 yards), Driver (71 yards) and WR James Jones (5 yards), and his fourth straight game with a 110.0-plus passer rating made him only the second QB in team history to accomplish the feat in the same season (Starr, Sept. 18-Oct. 9, 1966)... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Connected on 26-of-41 attempts for 287 yards, three TDs (two to Havner, one to Jennings) and no INTs for a 108.5 rating. Also posted a career-high 52 yards rushing on five attempts (10.4 avg.), including a career-long 35-yarder down the right sideline to the Minnesota 15 that set up the Jennings TD pass three plays later...At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Threw for 266 yards and two TDs on 17-of-35 passing, but matched his career high with three INTs for a season-low 57.6 rating. Jones hauled in 74-vard TD on second play of the game, while Driver had 32-yard score in second guarter and Rodgers added 12-yard rushing TD in fourth, putting nifty move on DE Jimmy Wilkerson... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Completed 25-of-36 passes for 189 yards and a TD (to Havner) with no INTs, connecting with a career-high 10 different receivers. Led the Packers on a 15-play TD drive, their longest of the season, keeping possession alive with passes of 14 yards to Jennings on third-and-11 and 17 yards to TE Donald Lee on third-and-13, and then capping the 80-yard march with a 1-yard sneak up the middle for a 10-0 lead... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Posted 344 yards passing and a career-high 32 completions on 44 attempts with two TDs and no INTs for a 108.0 rating. Threw for 274 vards in the first half alone, his career-high vardage mark for any half in the regular season. Second-guarter scores went to Jennings on 64-yard catch-and-run over the middle and to Nelson on 7-yard hitch. Added a 2-yard sneak on third-and-1 at midfield with just over two minutes remaining to clinch the win...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Threw for 348 yards and three TDs on 28-of-39 passing for a 124.7 rating. Completed four passes of 25-plus yards, including throws of 68 and 45 yards to Driver that set up two of the scores... Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Connected on 26-of-40 passes for 263 yards and three TDs (two to Finley) with two INTs. Set up 8-yard TD strike to Driver just before halftime with 23-yard scramble up the middle...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Completed 16-of-24 passes for 180 yards and no INTs, but 19-game streak with at least one TD pass ended, third-longest streak in team history. Converted early fourth-and-3 with 9-yard scramble to set up FG...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Threw for 383 yards and three TDs with no INTs on 26-of-48 passing for a 101.3 rating. The 383 yards were just one yard shy of his career high in Week 4 at Minnesota, and the 48 attempts without an INT were most in a single game in team history. Connected on career-long pass when he found Jennings over the middle for an 83-yard TD early in the first quarter, adding scoring tosses of 11 yards to Finley and 24 yards to Jones, plus a career-long 15-yard TD run of his own. On third down, was 8-of-13 for 217 yards and three TDs for 145.0 rating...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Completed 12-of-23 passes for 237 yards, a TD and no INTs for a 103.0 rating in three quarters of play. Score came on 13-vard screen to RB Brandon Jackson. Added big gains of 40 and 38 yards to Jennings and 38 yards to Finley...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Threw for 235 yards and a TD on 21-of-26 passing in three quarters of play. His 80.8 completion percentage was a career high for a game with 25 or more attempts, and he enters 2010 regular season with streak of 133 passes without an INT...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Posted team playoff-record 423 yards and four TDs on 28-of-42 passing with one INT for a 121.4 rating. The four TD passes matched a franchise playoff mark held by Starr (at Dallas, Jan. 1, 1967) and Dickey (vs. St. Louis, Jan. 8, 1983), and the 28 completions also tied a team playoff record of Favre's (at Dallas, Jan. 16, 1994). The 423 yards in a game ranks No. 5 in NFL playoff history, and his 319 yards passing after halftime set an NFL playoff record, eclipsing the previous mark of 274 yards set by Miami's Dan Marino (at Buffalo, Dec. 30, 1995). Became one of only six QBs in the Super Bowl era to throw for 400 vards/4 TDs in a postseason game, and one of only two signal callers to post 400 yards/4 TDs and a rushing TD in a playoff game (Peyton Manning, vs. Denver, Jan. 9, 2005). Completed six passes of 25-plus yards as he helped team come back from 21-point deficit in the second half to tie the game, with the longest score coming on 30-yarder to Jones on 4th-and-5 early in the fourth quarter...Pro Bowl (Jan. 31): Started for NFC and completed 15-of-19 passes for 197 yards with two TDs and no INTs for 145.0 rating. Scoring tosses went to Carolina WR Steve Smith (48 yards) and Philadelphia WR DeSean Jackson (7 yards) in leading NFC to 17-14 lead in second quarter of eventual 41-34 defeat.

2008: Becoming the first QB other than Favre to start a Packers game since Majkowski (Sept. 20, 1992), started all 16 games and ranked third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL with a 93.8 passer rating...Completed 341-of-536 passes (63.6 percent) for 4,038 yards, 28 TDs and 13 INTs...Under center for 1,039-of-1,049 (99.1 percent) offensive plays...Ranked fourth in the league in both TD passes and passing yards...Became just the fourth QB in team history to surpass 4,000 yards in one season (Favre, Dickey, Majkowski) and only the second in NFL history to throw for 4,000 yards in the first season that he started a game (Warner, St. Louis, 1999)...Third in the NFL with a 105.8 passer rating on third down, including 14 TDs, which trailed only Philip Rivers' 15...Completed 16 passes of 40-plus yards, tied for first in the NFL with Brees...Tied for fifth in the league with 48 completions of 20-plus yards...Third on the team with 207 rushing yards on 56 carries (3.7 avg.) and tied for the team lead with four rushing TDs...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Started first NFL game and completed 18-of-22 passes for 178 yards and a TD with no INTs. His 81.8 completion percentage ranks as the second-best mark in league history by a QB in his first start (min. 20 attempts), behind only former Jacksonville QB Rob Johnson's 83.3 percentage (20-of-24) in 1997. Scored first career rushing TD on 1-yard plunge in the fourth quarter to give Green Bay a 24-12 lead...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Posted first 300yard passing day in NFL and threw a career-high three TD passes. Connected on 24-of-38 passes for 328 yards... At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Sprained his right shoulder in third quarter on 7-yard scramble as he dove to extend the ball for a first down. On next series, hit Jennings for a 48-yard TD pass, but then sat out the following series with the injury. Returned for one more series late in the fourth guarter before exiting the game for good. Finished the afternoon 14-of-27 for 165 yards and two TDs, but had a string of 157 consecutive passes without an INT snapped, the fourth-longest streak in team history... Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Started despite being limited all week in practice as he recovered from sprained right shoulder. Recorded the second 300-yard passing game of his pro career as he connected on 25-of-37 passes for 313 yards and three TDs to match a career high...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Completed 22-of-41 passes for 314 yards, one TD and one INT, the third 300-yard passing game of his career. Connected on a career-high six passes of 20-plus

TAKING HIS PLACE AMONG THE GAME'S BEST

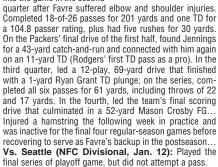

Now firmly entrenched in his role as the face of the franchise, QB Aaron Rodgers has gone from solid first-year starter to one of the game's top young signal callers.

- ▶ Rodgers became the first player in NFL history to post 4,000 yards passing in each of his first two seasons as a starter.
- ▶ He also became the first quarterback in league history to throw 30 or more touchdowns, seven or fewer interceptions, and rush for five TDs in the same season.
- Rodgers played in his first career Pro Bowl following the 2009 season and was the youngest of the six quarterbacks named to the Pro Bowl squads.
- 2009 was a banner season for Rodgers, as his 4,434 passing yards rank No. 2 on the franchise's all-time single-season list behind Lynn Dickey (4,458, 1983). Rodgers' passer rating of 103.2 also ranks No. 2 in franchise single-season annals, behind Bart Starr's 105.0 in 1966 (min. 200 attempts).
- ▶ He took care of the ball again in his second season, topping all NFL quarterbacks with a 1.29% interception percentage. The Packers had a league-low 16 giveaways (15 on offense) in 2009. That interception percentage also ranks No. 2 in team history, again behind Bart Starr (1.20, 1966).
- Rodgers set a new franchise record by posting 12 games (min. 10 attempts) without an interception, breaking Bart Starr's record of 11 set in 1964.
- With 32 consecutive starts, Rodgers' streak already ranks tied for sixth in the league among active quarterbacks entering 2010.

yards...Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Matched his career high with three TD passes, completing 29-of-45 passes for 298 yards. Completed passes to nine different players, which tied a season high...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Completed 21-of-31 passes for 308 yards and three TDs for a season-high 132.2 passer rating, and matched career best with three TD passes. With Lions having just scored a TD to narrow Green Bay's lead to 24-21, connected on season-long pass when he found Driver deep down the right sideline midway through the fourth quarter for a 71-yard score. The pass also put him over the 4,000-yard mark for the season.

2007: Serving as Favre's backup for the third straight season, appeared in two regular-season games and completed 20-of-28 passes (71.4 percent) for 218 yards with one TD and no INTs for a 106.0 rating, plus seven rushes for 29 yards... Put together his best preseason as a pro, completing 37-of-59 passes (62.7 percent) with three TDs in appearances...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Saw his first action of the regular season, entering with 3:56 remaining and completing both of his passes for 17 yards, including a 15-yarder to Jones on his first throw...At Dallas (Nov. 29): Was inserted into the game in the second 2006: Served as the No. 2 QB for the team's first 10 games, playing in two contests...Dressed but did not play in the other eight games...In the preseason, served as the No. 2 QB for all four games...Completed 22-of-38 passes for 323 yards and three TDs, including an 85-yard pass to Jennings, vs. Atlanta (Aug. 19)...Before sustaining a season-ending broken foot in Week 11, had taken 36 regular-season offensive snaps and completed 6-of-15 passes (40.0 percent) for 46 yards, with no TDs or INTs, for a 48.2 rating... At Philadelphia (Oct. 2): Made his season debut in place of an injured Favre (neck/ head); nearly engineered a TD drive on the last series of the game, completing 2-of-3 passes for 14 yards, but the Packers were held out of the end zone on a goal-line stand...Vs. New England (Nov. 19): Saw the most extensive action of his career to date when he was inserted into the lineup for an injured Favre (elbow), and played the last two offensive snaps of the first half and the entire second half. Completed 4-of-12 passes and had a 6-yard scramble on a third-and-6. Played the second half with a foot injury he sustained toward the start of the third quarter; post-game tests revealed a fracture that caused him to miss the rest of the season. Placed on injured reserve Nov. 21.

2005: Saw action in three games as a rookie; he was active but did not play in the 13 other contests... Completed 9-of-16 attempts (56.3 percent) for 65 yards, with one INT, a 39.8 passer rating... Also credited with two rushes for 7 yards, including a kneel down on the season's final snap, after Favre was given a curtain call...Got an extended look in the preseason opener vs. San Diego (Aug. 11), replacing Favre; endured a malfunctioning helmet radio, four offensive penalties and two sacks, and as a result the coaching staff didn't get a great look at him in his rainy preseason debut...Struggled as the No. 2 QB the following week at Buffalo (Aug. 20), going 4-for-9, for 21 yards, with one sack and an INT; his two best plays were carries (22, 9 yards)...Despite a rough preseason, including another INT vs. New England (Aug. 26), Favre said his 1991 rookie debut with Atlanta was worse...Ended preseason on a good note, though, at Tennessee (Sept. 1): orchestrated an important scoring drive, converting two third downs, before hitting TE Ben Steele on a 12-yard TD...Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 9): Made his NFL debut in 52-3 win. Entered on the Packers' initial series of the fourth quarter and completed his lone attempt, his first career pass, to FB Vonta Leach for no gain...At Baltimore (Dec. 19): Got his most extensive playing time in 48-3 Monday night loss.

Came off the bench toward the end of the third quarter and finished the contest, going 8-for-15 with one INT, plus one carry for 8 yards...Vs. Seattle (Jan. 1): Took the game's final kneel down, his only play, after replacing Favre, who had started the drive...2005 Draft: Selected by the Packers in the first round with the No. 24 overall pick. Was the second QB taken after Alex Smith (49ers) at No. 1, the eighth QB drafted by the Packers in the first round and the first since Campbell, also from Cal, in 1981. Also joined Campbell as the only Cal players drafted by Green Bay in round one.

COLLEGE: A two-year starter and letterman at California, went 424-for-665 (63.8 percent) for 5,469 yards, with 43 TDs and 13 INTs while playing in 25 games with 22 starts...His 150.3 career passer rating and 1.95 INT percentage are both tops in school history...Threw for 250-plus yards 10 times and had 160 rushes for 336 yards and eight TDs...Majored in American Studies... Junior season (2004): Started all 12 games for the Bears, including the Holiday Bowl vs. Texas Tech (Dec. 30)...Finished with 209 completions in 316 attempts (66.1 percent) for 2,566 yards and 24 TDs, with eight INTs...Led an offense that ranked first in the conference in passing efficiency (167.39, fourth nationally), total offense (494.7 ypg, fifth), scoring offense (37.3 ppg, sixth) and rushing offense (260 ypg, fifth)...Offense was second-highest scoring in team history...Named first-team All-Pacific-10, and received honorable mention All-America honors from The Associated Press, College & Pro Football Newsweekly and Sports Illustrated.com...Also was a second-team Pac-10 All-Academic choice...Was one of 15 players to receive letters from the Heisman Trophy Committee in November, and was named to the watch lists for the Walter Camp Foundation 'Player of the Year Award,' the Maxwell Award and the Davey O'Brien Award...Served as team co-captain and was chosen as Cal's co-Offensive MVP...Finished second in the conference in passing efficiency (154.4), behind Southern California's Matt Leinart (now with Arizona); the efficiency mark ranked eighth among all NCAA passers in 2004 and was the second-best achievement in Cal annals (164.5, Dave Barr, 1993)...Fired three or more TDs four times on the season...At USC (Oct. 9), completed singlegame school-record 23 consecutive passes to tie an NCAA mark, running his school-record string to 26 straight completions dating back to previous game at Oregon State (Oct. 2). Finished USC game 29-of-34 for 85.3 percent, another school record...Sophomore season (2003): Upon transferring from Butte College, played in three of the Golden Bears' first four games before taking over as the starter in Game 5 at Illinois (Sept. 20), leading Cal to a 7-3 record as a starter...Authored one of the finest quarterbacking seasons of any sophomore in Pac-10 history, throwing for 2,903 yards and 19 TDs, with only five INTs, on 215-of-349 passing (61.6 percent)...The passing yardage total ranked second on Cal's all-time list (now third) and his INT percentage of 1.43 set a school record (breaking old mark of 1.69 set by Gary Graumann in 1977)... Additionally, his passer efficiency rating (146.6) ranks fourth in school annals, and with 210 yards rushing, his 3,113 total yards ranks second...Registered 300 or more yards through the air five times, tying Pat Barnes' school record...Authored two major INT-free streaks: the first came as he started his Cal career with 98 straight passes without an INT, the second came later in the season as he threw 105 times without a pick, ending at Oregon (Nov. 8)...Over the last five games of the season, completed 68.2 percent of his passes (105 of 154) for 1,596 yards (319.1 ypg), 12 TDs and two INTs...Was clutch in the school's final two contests, throwing for 348 yards vs. Washington (Nov. 15) and 359 at Stanford (Nov. 22), both must-wins in order for Cal to clinch its first bowl berth since 1996...In the Stanford contest, registered 414 yards of total offense (359 passing, 55 rushing) to record the highest total in the 106-year history of the 'Big Game'; it was the fourth-highest total offense output in team history...Stretched streak of 300-yard passing games to three in Insight Bowl vs. Virginia Tech (Dec. 26), throwing for collegiate-high 394 in 52-49 win and putting up 424 yards of total offense, third best in school annals...Served as one of two offensive team captains... Freshman season (2002): During his one year at

Butte College, near Chico, Calif., led the Roadrunners to a 10-1 record, a NorCal Conference championship and a No. 2 national ranking...Passed for 2,408 yards and 28 TDs, with only four INTs, on 164 completions in 265 attempts

PRO CAREER: Strong, stout lineman enters his third season entrenched as the starter at right guard... Was the Packers' only offensive lineman to start every game at one spot in 2009, and played all 1,093 snaps on offense, the only player on either side of the ball to not miss a snap with his unit... Known best for his run-blocking, was a key cog in Ryan Grant's career-best 1,253-yard season, the sixthbest single-season rushing output in team history...Likely would have started at RG as a rookie in 2008 if not for a preseason knee injury, which limited him to 11 games of duty primarily on extra points and field goals...Did start twice as a rookie, once at Tennessee in Week 9 when the line was forced to shuffle due to Chad Clifton's illness, and again in the regular-season finale...Came to Green Bay as a fourth-round draft pick out of Central Florida, where he was part of a remarkable turnaround...Played for an 0-11 team as a true freshman and capped his career by helping lead the Golden Knights to their first conference championship in school history as a senior with a 7-1 record in conference (10-4 overall)...Played in 50 games with 43 starts during his collegiate career, joining classmate Keith Shologan as the only players in the program's history to appear in 50 career games...Blocked for RB Kevin Smith, a thirdround choice by Detroit, as he rushed for 2,567 yards in 2007, just 62 yards short of breaking Barry Sanders' NCAA single-season rushing record (2,628) set in 1988...Named first-team All-Conference USA by the league's coaches and media in 2007...Showed his versatility at UCF by starting at both guard spots and at right tackle during his career... Teammate of Packers S Atari Bigby for one season and Dolphins WR Brandon Marshall for two seasons at UCF.

2009 SEASON: Started all 16 games at RG, the only Packers offensive lineman to open every game at one spot...Part of line that blocked for Grant's career-high 1,253 rushing yards, his second straight 1,200-yard season, and member of an offense that ranked No. 6 in total vards...Won starting RG position in training camp...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Helped block for Packers' 435 yards of total offense. Part of line that protected QB Aaron Rodgers on his way to 358 passing yards, giving him back-toback games with 350-plus yards for the first time in his career...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Part of a line that did not allow a sack of Rodgers all afternoon and blocked for Grant's season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5 avg.). Team's 202 yards on the ground was also a season best... At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Helped block for Packers' 170 rushing yards on 32 carries (5.3 avg.), the team's secondbest yardage output on the season... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Blocked for Grant's 79 yards on 19 carries (4.2 avg.) and helped limit Pro Bowl NT Jay Ratliff to two tackles and no sacks... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Helped offense put up season-best 484 total yards, including 129 yards on 21 carries (6.1 avg.) from Grant. Part of line that did not allow any sacks of Rodgers in the first half as he threw for 274 yards in the opening half, his career high for any half in the regular season... At Chicago (Dec. 13): Helped clear the way for Grant's 137 yards on 20 carries (6.9 avg.); that average was Grant's career high for a game with at least 20 carries... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Started and helped block for team's 153 rushing yards and five TDs on 32 carries (4.8 avg.). It was the first time the

- ► Was slated to start at right guard as a rookie if not for a preseason knee injury
- ► Capped off college career by helping lead Central Florida to its first conference championship in school history, and helped the Knights' offense set single-season school records for points (501) and rushing yards (3,287) as a senior.
- · Teammate of Packers safety Atari Bigby for one season and Dolphins WR Brandon Marshall for two seasons at UCF

Packers posted five rushing TDs in a game since Oct. 9, 1988, vs. New England. Also helped protect Rodgers as he was sacked only one time. Threw key block down the field on S Josh Wilson on screen pass in first quarter that RB Brandon Jackson took for a 13-yard TD, and got to the second level to block LB Leroy Hill on Grant's 56-yard TD run in the second quarter...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started and helped offense post team playoffrecord 493 total yards, including franchise-best 423 yards passing from Rodgers.

2008: Played in 11 games with two starts...Inactive for first three games due to sprained knee sustained in preseason at Denver (Aug. 22)...Aside from his two starts, primarily saw time on PATs and FGs, along with some spot duty at RG...At Seattle (Oct. 12): Made NFL debut, seeing time on PATs and FGs... At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Started first career NFL game, opening at RG with the offensive line shuffling due to Clifton's absence (illness)... Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Came in at RG late in the second quarter when C Scott Wells left with a concussion and Jason Spitz moved over to Wells' spot. Helped block for Jackson's season-high 80 yards on 11 carries... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Started at RG with Spitz shifting over to LG and Daryn Colledge starting at RT. Blocked for team's season-high 211 rushing yards, and helped pave the way for RBs Grant and DeShawn Wynn to each post 106 yards rushing, only the second time since 1985 that a Packers RB tandem each rushed for 100-plus yards in the same game...2008 Draft: Selected by the Packers with their second fourth-round selection (135th overall, 22nd OL), a free agency compensatory pick. Became only the second draft pick from Central Florida in franchise history, joining WR Charles Lee, who was taken in the seventh round in 2000. Did you know...Most historians credit the Packers as the first football team to film games and practice, something as important to today's game as the ball itself. The routine, carried on by Vince Lombardi (above), first began in 1923, when Otto Stiller used a hand-powered camera to film games atop the Bellevue Park grandstand.

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 305 Fifth NFL Season Fifth Packers Season

Born: December 19, 1982 NFL Gm. Played/Started: 49/45 Acquired: D3b-06

PRO CAREER: Enters his fifth season as a consistent, versatile performer on the offensive line, but looking to bounce back from an '09 season cut short by a back injury...Is expected to compete for starting jobs at left guard or center in 2010...After winning the starting spot at center in training camp last season, played in just five games with four starts before a back injury requiring surgery sent him to injured reserve...Had missed only four games in his first three seasons with the club, playing all three spots along the interior of the offensive line... Of his 45 career starts, he has opened 29 games at right guard, eight at left guard and eight at center...Battled minor injuries his first two seasons before starting every game in 2008, joining linemate Daryn Colledge as the only players on offense to take every snap and the only linemen to start at three different positions that season... Known for his toughness and a nasty streak that belies his good nature and sense of humor often on display off the field...Named a starter prior to his first NFL training camp after being the second of the Packers' two selections in third round (75th overall) in 2006...A four-year starter at Louisville, started the final 38 games of his college career at guard and earned postseason honors his final three seasons...Because of size and body frame, was thought by some scouts to be a better prospect at center in the NFL...As a senior, played at Louisville when two 2008 Green Bay draft picks were sophomores, quarterback Brian Brohm (second round) and fellow offensive lineman Breno Giacomini (fifth round)...Proved his strength at the NFL Scouting Combine, bench-pressing 225 pounds 25 times and squatting 585 pounds, reminiscent of his high school days as a competitive weightlifter, when he won a Florida state championship as a senior with a 425-pound bench press and a 650-pound squat.

2009 SEASON: Started four of five games played, opening two at C and two at LG...Won starting C position in training camp over incumbent Scott Wells...Inactive vs. Detroit (Oct. 18) and vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1) due to back injury, before being placed on injured reserve Nov. 7... Had surgery on Nov. 11... Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Started at C...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Started at C. but moved over to LG in place of Colledge on the Packers' first possession of the third quarter. Colledge assumed LT Chad Clifton's spot after Clifton left the game with an ankle injury and did not return... At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Started at LG as part of a re-shuffled line with Clifton out. Blocked for RB Ryan Grant's 99 yards on 26 carries, including 50 yards in the fourth quarter. Part of line that did not allow a sack of QB Aaron Rodgers in the final three quarters... At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Started at LG... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Inactive due to back injury sustained in Oct. 15 practice, the first game he missed due to injury since Week 3 of his rookie campaign (at Detroit, Sept. 24, 2006)...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Active, but only saw time on PATs after being limited during the week with back injury.

2008: Started all 16 games for the first time in his career, opening up at RG for 11, C for three and LG for two...Was one of only two players, along with Colledge, to start at three different spots on the offensive line...

- ► Had missed just four games in his first three seasons before a back injury limited him to only five games and four starts in 2009.
- ▶ Of 45 career starts, 29 have come at right guard, eight at left guard and eight at center.
- Was one of only two players on offense along with Daryn Colledge to take every snap in 2008, and also joined Colledge as the - only linemen to start at three different spots on the season.

 Overcame knee injury as redshirt freshman at Louisville and started final 38 games of college career, earning postseason honors in final three seasons.
- Won a state championship as a competitive weightlifter at The Bolles High School in Jacksonville, Fla.
- At Bolles, football coach was Corky Rodgers, who also coached former Packers' running back and current RB coach Edgar Bennett at Robert E. Lee High, also in Jacksonville, Fla.

Blocked for Grant's (then) career-high 1,203 rushing yards, which ranks as the eighth-highest single-season rushing mark in franchise history... Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Started first of three straight games at C with Wells sidelined with a trunk injury, and provided key block of LB E.J. Henderson on Grant's 57-yard run in the fourth quarter...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Returned to RG spot with Wells back in the starting lineup...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Shifted over to start at LG with Colledge moving to LT in place of Clifton (illness)...Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Part of line that paved the way for team's 200 rushing yards, including season-best 145 from Grant. Line did not allow a sack or pressure of Rodgers all afternoon...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Started at LG as Colledge shifted over to RT and Josh Sitton opened at RG. Shifted to C in second quarter when Wells left with an ankle injury, and remained there for the rest of the game. Blocked for Packers' season-high 211 rushing yards, including 106 each from Grant and DeShawn Wynn, only the second time since 1985 that a Packers tandem each posted 100-plus yards in the same game.

2007: Played in 14 of 16 regular-season games with 12 starts: seven at RG, three at C and two at LG...Started both playoff games at RG...Active, but did not play, vs. San Diego (Sept. 23) and at Minnesota (Sept. 30)... Suffered a calf injury in the third preseason game and missed the finale, returning to practice for Week 1...Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9): Started season opener at RG, but aggravated calf injury late in the third quarter and did not return... Vs. Chicago (Oct. 7): Took over for Wells at C late in the third quarter when Wells left the game after being poked in the eye (injury later diagnosed as a broken bone in his eye socket)... Vs. Washington (Oct. 14): Made his first career start at C, and became the eighth C to start during QB Brett Favre's consecutive games-played streak...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Started at RG, and helped the Packers amass a season-high 488 yards... At Dallas (Nov. 29): Started at RG, but took over Colledge's LG spot in the second quarter (coach's decision), with Junius Coston filling in at RG...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Returned to starting RG spot and helped the team rush for season-high 217 yards...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Started at RG and was part of a line that assisted Grant to 201 yards and three TDs, both club playoff records.

2006: Played in 14 games, with 13 starts, and was inactive for two contests...Despite a painful thigh injury that sidelined him during Weeks 2-3, and a Week 5 throat injury that landed him in the hospital, still played 932 of the Packers' 1,117 offensive snaps (83.4 percent)... Opened the season as the starting LG, but played most of the campaign at RG after fellow rookie Colledge reclaimed the LG position... Vs. Chicago (Sept. 10): Started at LG in his NFL debut, but sustained a right thigh bruise and missed the next two contests...At Philadelphia (Oct. 2): Played as a backup, receiving most of the second-half snaps at RG...Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 8): Regained his starting job, but began the day with an upset stomach and was taken to the hospital at halftime after vomiting blood. Diagnosed with a minor tear in his esophagus, but returned to full practice during the ensuing bye week... At Miami (Oct. 22): With Clifton suddenly inactive due to illness, started at LG with Colledge moving to LT and Tony Moll taking the RG spot, marking the first time since at least the 1970 merger that the Packers started three rookies on the offensive line, according to Elias Sports Bureau; was part of an offensive line that helped the team gain 155 yards rushing, including 118 from RB Ahman Green. On Green's 70-yard TD run, made a key block, preventing Pro Bowl LB Zach Thomas from making the tackle...Vs. Arizona (Oct. 29): Helped the offense amass 203 yards on the ground (383 total), including 100-yard performances from both Green (106) and RB Vernand Morency (101) to give the Packers their first pair of 100-yard rushers in the same game since 1985...2006 Draft: Second of Packers' two selections in third round (75th overall, 15th OL), the fifth player drafted by Green Bay out of Louisville.

COLLEGE: A four-year starter at Louisville, started the final 38 games of his college career at G and earned all-conference honors his final three seasons...Earned a B.S. degree in marketing...Senior season (2005): Earned first-team All-Big East Conference honors, starting all 12 games at LG...Helped Cardinals rank ninth in nation in total offense (482 yards per game), third in scoring (43.2 points per game), and third in pass-efficiency rating (159.85)...Allowed only two sacks on the season...

Junior season (2004): Experimented at C during fall camp, but started all 12 games at RG and was named second-team All-Conference USA for the second time... Part of an offense that led Division I-A in total offense (539.0 ypg), scoring (49.75 ppg) and pass-efficiency rating (174.36)...Allowed only 2½ sacks on the season... Sophomore season (2003): Started all 13 games at RG and was named second-team All-Conference USA... Part of an offensive line that allowed only 13 sacks for the season... Helped Cardinals rank in the top 10 nationally in rushing with 2,966 yards, a school record...Redshirt freshman season (2002): Cracked starting lineup at RG in second game, at Duke (Sept. 7)... Started five straight games before suffering torn MCL in left knee... Missed five games but returned to starting lineup vs. Marshall (Dec. 18) in GMAC Bowl.

PERSONAL: Given name Jason Russell Spitz...Born in Boardman, Ohio...Single...Father, Russell, played nose guard at Yale...High school: At The Bolles High School in Jacksonville, Fla., was a first-team All-First Coast selection as a two-way lineman...As a senior, finished with 10 sacks and 56 total tackles to earn second-team all-state honors from the Florida Times-Union...Coach at Bolles was Corky Rodgers, who also coached former Packers RB and current RB coach Edgar Bennett at Robert E. Lee High in Jacksonville...Began prep career at Wolfson High School in Jacksonville...Also lettered in track and field as a shot put and discus thrower and competed in organized weightlifting, winning a state championship as a senior with a bench press of 425 pounds and a cleanand-jerk of 335 pounds...Community involvement: Has participated in numerous community events during his time in Green Bay, including activities to benefit the March of Dimes, Muscular Dystrophy Association and Family Services of Northeast Wisconsin...Also has played games and eaten dinner with patients at the local Families of Children with Cancer holiday party, rung bells for the Salvation Army during Red Kettle campaign over the holidays, served hot lunch to students at De Pere (Wis.) PRO CAREER: Reserve wide receiver and special teamer who took the long road to his first NFL roster spot a year ago and now is coming back from reconstructive knee surgery...Originally a seventh-round draft choice out of San Diego State in 2008 by the Packers, did not make the 53-man roster as a rookie and spent the entire season on the practice squad...Honed his body physically and his skills fundamentally while learning how to play on special teams in the offseason, efforts that paid off when he made the team following the 2009 training camp...Played in six games last season, mostly on special teams, making an impact by stopping a Chicago Bears fake punt in the season opener and posting three coverage tackles against Detroit in Week 6...One week later, suffered a season-ending knee injury covering a kickoff in Cleveland (Oct. 25)... Will look to get fully healthy and regain his roster spot for 2010, battling for probably the final wide receiver spot...A second-team All-Mountain West Conference selection, had nearly 1,000 receiving yards as a senior at San Diego State, including a 224-yard, three-TD game...Comes from an athletic family, as his father Steve was a first-round draft choice of the Houston Astros in 1982.

2009 SEASON: Played in the first six games, seeing time primarily on special teams...Posted four stops on special teams...Placed on injured reserve with knee injury on Oct. 27 and underwent surgery on Nov. 5... Beat out veteran WR Ruvell Martin in training camp for fifth WR spot after spending entire '08 season on Green Bay's practice squad... Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Made key play in NFL debut when he brought down RB Garrett Wolfe for just a 4-yard gain on a fake punt in the fourth quarter with the Packers trailing 12-10. Wolfe took a direct snap on fourth-and-11 and took it up the middle, but was brought down by Swain at the Green Bay 30 to set up goahead FG...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Played on special teams and also saw first action of the season at WR with Greg Jennings and James Jones both sidelined briefly with injuries...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Posted a tackle on special teams...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Tied for team lead with career-high three special teams tackles. Also saw some action in four-WR sets when Jordy Nelson left the game due to injury... At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Saw time ► Played in just six games in 2009 before suffering season-ending knee injury at Cleveland (Oct. 25).

Made key play in NFL debut, tackling Bears RB Garrett Wolfe short of the first down on a fourth-quarter fake punt in '09 season opener.

- ➤ A seventh-round draft choice out at a glance... of San Diego State in 2008, spent entire rookie season on the practice squad.
- ► Had six receptions for 224 yards and three TDs vs. Portland State during senior season in college.
- ► Father, Steve, was a first-round selection of the Houston Astros in 1982 and played outfield in their minor-league cyclem as fourth WR and on special teams, but sustained seasonending knee injury covering kickoff in the second quarter.

2008: In the preseason, made five catches for 28 yards and returned two punts for 10 yards...Was released in the final roster reduction on Aug. 30 and signed to the practice squad the next day...Spent the entire season on the practice squad...2008 Draft: A seventh-round draft choice out of San Diego State, the second of the Packers' two seventh-round selections. Was taken 217th overall and was the 30th WR chosen. Chosen with pick acquired from St. Louis along with the Rams' fifth-round pick (137) for Green Bay's fourth-round choice (128).

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman and two-year starter at San Diego State, played in 44 games with 26 starts over the course of four seasons...Totaled 135 catches for 1,893 yards and eight TDs...Majored in social science... Senior season (2007): Earned second-team All-MWC honors after starting all 12 games and setting career highs with 58 catches, 973 yards and five TDs for the Aztecs...Had a career game vs. Portland State (Sept. 22), when he caught six passes for 224 yards (37.3 av.) and three TDs...Junior season (2006): Appeared in all 12 games, starting 10, and led the team with 47 catches for PRO CAREER: Wisconsin native returns to the Packers for an 11th season in 2010, proving once again last year the stability the veteran right tackle brings to Green Bay's offensive line... Was out of football for the first half of the '09 season after the second season-ending knee injury of his career came in the final month of '08, the last year of his contract at the time...Rehabbed at his alma mater, the University of Wisconsin, and signed with the Packers on Oct. 12, eventually starting eight games plus the playoff contest... Was a notable factor in the team's improved pass protection over the second half of the season, as the offense allowed only 10 sacks over the final seven regular-season games after giving up 41 in the first nine...Re-signed with Green Bay in March, just nine days after fellow tackle and 2000 draftee Chad Clifton also re-signed, keeping the reliable, longtime tackle tandem intact for the coming season...Had bounced back from injury before -- a significant groin injury that snapped a 57-game starting streak in 2006 and sidelined him for five games, and his first knee reconstruction in 2002 that preceded that starting streak... Was named the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner in 2008, following a banner 2007 season in which he played in all 16 games, topping all Packers offensive players by playing 94.5 percent of the offensive snaps as Green Bay had the league's second-ranked offense...Turned in a remarkable performance in the NFC Divisional playoff vs. Seattle (Jan. 12), holding All-Pro DE Patrick Kerney not only without a sack, but without a single tackle. The outing came after the match-up was hyped all week, as Kerney had dominated Washington's offensive tackles in the Wild Card round...A popular home-state hero who has started 128 NFL games, an impressive total for the former Wisconsin Badger and late-round draft pick...Helped the Packers set a franchise record for fewest sacks allowed (14) in 2004... The football fates provided an instant opportunity when he was called upon to start the Packers' first three preseason games as a rookie in 2000 after back problems sidelined veteran RT Earl Dotson...He soon found himself again in that role when Dotson went down with a year-ending back injury on the second offensive play in Week 2...Proceeded from there to make a profound impression on the Packers' coaching staff, playing so well over the course of the season that he was accorded NFL all-rookie honors...Joined Clifton in the starting lineup during the 2000 season to give the Packers their first pair of rookie starting offensive tackles in 48 years; not since rookies Tom Johnson and Bob Dees had opened at tackle Nov. 16, 1952, at the New York Giants had it occurred for Green Bay.

2009 SEASON: Out of football while rehabbing knee injury until re-signing with the team Oct. 12... Inactive for first two games before starting eight of the final nine games, plus the playoff contest, at RT...Began to take the majority of snaps against San Francisco in Week 11...In that seven-game span, helped the line allow just 10 sacks after giving up 41 in the first nine contests...Part of line that blocked for RB Ryan Grant's career-high 1,253 rushing yards, his second straight 1,200-yard season, and member of an offense that ranked No. 6 in total yards... At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Started his first game of the season, opening at RT. Rotated with Allen Barbre in the first half, but left the game and did not return after he reinjured his knee on opening drive of the second half when a Bucs defensive lineman rolled into the back of his leg...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): After missing one game with sprained knee, returned to starting lineup at RT and took the majority of the snaps there; T.J. Lang rotated in for three series. Helped offense put up season-best 484 total yards, including 129 yards on 21 carries (6.1 avg.) from Grant. Part of line that did not allow any sacks of QB Aaron Rodgers in the first half as he threw for 274 yards, his career high for any half in the regular season...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Started at RT and played the whole game except for one series in the second quarter when Lang rotated in... Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Started, playing a full game for the first time on the season. Also posted the first reception of his career on the opening drive when he hauled in a pass intended for WR Jordy Nelson that was tipped at the line by LB Ray Lewis; lost 3 yards on the play, but Mason Crosby kicked a 28-yard FG on the next snap... At Chicago (Dec. 13): Started and played the entire game for the second straight week. Helped clear the way for Grant's 137 yards on 20 carries (6.9 avg.), Grant's career-high average for a game with at least 20 carries... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Started and helped block for team's 153 rushing yards and five TDs on 32 carries (4.8 avg.), the first time the Packers posted five rushing TDs in a game since Oct. 9, 1988, vs. New England...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started and helped offense post team playoff-record 493 total yards, including franchise-best 423 yards passing from Rodgers.

2008: Started the first 13 games at RT, but suffered a season-ending knee injury vs. Houston in Week 14... Helped block for many of Grant's 1,203 rushing yards, which ranks as the eighth-highest single-season rushing mark in franchise history...Named team's Ed Block Courage Award winner, an award given annually to one member of each NFL team for displaying commitments to the principles of courage and sportsmanship while serving as inspirations in their locker rooms... Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Blocked for Grant's 105 rushing yards and helped line not allow a sack of Rodgers. Limited DE Robert Mathis to just two tackles... Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Part of line that paved the way for team's 200 rushing vards, including season-best 145 from Grant, Line did not allow a sack or a QB pressure of Rodgers all afternoon... At New Orleans (Nov. 24): Started, but injured hamstring on second play of game and did not return... Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Started and played the whole game despite being limited all week with injured hamstring. Blocked for Packers' 145 yards on 29 carries (5.0 avg.), including season-high 80 from RB Brandon Jackson... Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Started but left game early in second quarter with left knee injury and did not return. Injury was later diagnosed as a torn ACL, ending his season. Had surgery on Jan. 15.

2007: Started all 16 games and both playoff contests, surpassing 100 games played and started for his career. which began as a rookie starter at RT in Week 3 of the 2000 season...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Started his 100th career game and helped Green Bay amass a season-high 488 yards and hold the Vikings without a sack; Grant collected 119 yards rushing. Went out late in the third guarter with an ankle injury and did not return... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Helped the team rush for 217 vards, 113 vard coming from Jackson, his first 100-vard rushing performance of the season... Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Part of an offensive line that assisted Grant to 201 yards and three TDs, both Packers playoff records. In a much-hyped matchup, held All-Pro Kerney without a tackle... Vs. New York Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Held DE Michael Strahan without a sack. On a fourth-quarter Giants INT by CB R.W. McQuarters, Grant stripped the ball from McQuarters and Tauscher alertly recovered; the Packers went on to kick a FG to knot the score 20-20.

2006: Started 11 games and was inactive for five others with a groin injury...Had entered the year in a new role as a mentor to several young offensive linemen, after being mentored himself on veteran lines for much of his career...Showed the ability to adapt to the Packers' new zone-blocking scheme...Played every snap on an offensive line that didn't allow a sack from the fourth quarter vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17) to the second quarter vs. St. Louis (Oct. 8); the streak covered 108 passing plays and included a shutout at Philadelphia (Oct. 2) against the Eagles' attacking defense... Vs. Arizona (Oct. 29): Helped the offense amass 203 yards on the ground (383 total) including 100-yard performances from RBs Ahman Green (106) and Vernand Morency (101)... At Minnesota (Nov. 12): Suffered a groin injury in the third guarter and missed the rest of the game. The setback snapped his 57-game starting streak dating back to the start of the 2003 season and sidelined him for the next five games...Returned to practice Dec. 14 and started the final two contests.

2005: Started all 16 games at RT, extending his starting streak to three full seasons (48 contests, 51 including playoffs)...Played 99.6 percent of the Packers' offensive snaps -- more than any Green Bay player on that side of the ball -- most of which came at RT, though some were as an extra TE...At Carolina (Oct. 3): Held Pro Bowl DE Julius Peppers without a sack... Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 9): Was called for his first holding penalty in six NFL seasons...At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Helped to extend the offensive line's streak of passing plays without a sack to 111...At Cincinnati (Oct. 30): Started at RT and saw his first action as a blocking TE...At Philadelphia (Nov. 27): Held All-Pro DE Jevon Kearse without a sack and helped pave the way for rookie RB Samkon Gado's 111 rushing yards...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 11): Helped escort Gado to the franchise's single-game rushing mark for a rookie, 171 yards...Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Caught a 1-yard TD pass in the second guarter, but a Packers holding penalty nullified the play.

ALL-TIME PACKERS PLAYERS FROM UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON (39)

Like a college team, the Packers historically have drawn well from their own backyard, obtaining 39 players via "in-state recruiting" from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, a 150-mile drive from Lambeau Field. In fact, only two other schools – Notre Dame (52) and Minnesota (44) – have produced more Packers players.

Following is a list of those who've played in a game for both the Wisconsin Badgers and Green Bay Packers:

2004: Started all 16 regular-season games (plus Wild Card playoff) for the second straight year and the third time as a professional...Played for all but two of the team's 1,094 offensive snaps, helping Packers allow a franchise-low 14 sacks, including a team-record eight games with no sacks, and contributing to three 200-yard rushing games vs. Dallas (Oct. 24, 220 yards), Minnesota (Nov. 14, 206 yards) and St. Louis (Nov. 29, season-high 231)... Vs. Chicago (Sept. 19): Along with 2000 draft classmate Clifton, made his 50th NFL start... Vs. New York Giants (Oct. 3): Virtually shut down Strahan, holding him without a sack...At Detroit (Oct. 17): Helped Green Bay to 157 yards rushing and was called upon to move to RG for two plays early in the fourth quarter after an arm laceration sidelined starter Marco Rivera... At Philadelphia (Dec. 5): Held Kearse without a tackle...At Chicago (Jan. 2): Moved inside to RG during the fourth quarter of regular-season finale, replacing starter Rivera, who was resting his knees.

2003: The Packers' starter at RT for the fourth straight year, made a successful return from the knee injury that had taken away most of his 2002 season...Started all 16 games for the second time in his pro career...Also started both playoff contests...Played all but six snaps during the regular season, yielding to Kevin Barry for the final half-dozen plays in 41-7, Monday night victory over Oakland (Dec. 22); otherwise, was in for the other 1,025 offensive snaps...Had returned gradually from his injury, as a rule practicing only once a day early in training camp and not seeing game action until the third preseason game, at Cleveland (Aug. 15)...Helped Packers to singleseason franchise records for yards rushing (2,558) and yards per carry (5.05), including 1,883 yards by Green to break Jim Taylor's 41-year-old team rushing mark; the 2,558 rushing yards ranked third in the NFL, behind only Baltimore (2,669) and Denver (2,629)...Was part of an offensive line that allowed only 19 sacks -- tied (with Indianapolis) for the second-fewest in the NFL in '03 and (then) a franchise low for a 16-game season... Was personally responsible for four pressures and 1½ sacks. according to his coaches...Included in the Packers' low sack number was a (then) team-record six games without a sack (statistic kept since 1963), including three consecutive contests (Sept. 14-21-29) with zero sacks for the first time in franchise history... Played a big part in November stretch when Green Bay rushed for 190 or more yards in four straight games...Played some snaps at RG early in the year (Barry assuming the RT spot) with Rivera's durability limited as he returned from a preseason MCL sprain.

2002: Suffered a season-ending knee injury in Week 2 at New Orleans (Sept. 15), when Saints LB Charlie Clemons rolled into him during a sack late in the second quarter...Initially diagnosed as having a sprained MCL in his left knee, along with possible cartilage damage, a 75 percent tear of the ACL was revealed during arthroscopic surgery Sept. 17...Placed on injured reserve Sept. 18, he subsequently underwent surgery to repair the ACL on Oct. 11...Had played in 34 consecutive regular-season games to open his professional career, including 32 straight starts – a streak that ended without him in the lineup at Detroit (Sept. 22).

2001: Served as the starter at RT for a second straight season...Remaining consistent in training camp, was able to weather the effort of previous starter Dotson to reclaim his job, and start all 16 regular-season games for the first time as a pro...Also opened both playoff contests...Was named to the All-Pro team of the Dallas Morning News...Along the way, was a key factor in Green Bay allowing the third-fewest sacks in the league (22) and the fewest by a Packer team in 27 years (17 in 1974)... Vs. Detroit (Sept. 9): Helped offense amass 179 yards rushing in season opener...Vs. Cleveland (Dec. 23): Helped Green Bay rush for a season-best 222 yards. With usual starter Rivera hampered by a broken hand, he was moved inside and played RG during the second and fourth quarters of the season's final five games, the first action of his pro career at RG...Vs. San Francisco (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 13): Threw an important block to help Green get into the end zone on his game-clinching, 9-yard TD run with 1:55 remaining in 25-15 victory.

2000: Having seen special-teams duty in the season opener, played in all 16 games as a rookie... Was named to the all-rookie team of Football News...Helped the Packers to average better than 100 yards rushing per game (102.7) for the first time since their last Super Bowl season (1997)...Started the Packers' final 14 games at RT after the incumbent, Dotson, re-herniated a disc in his back in Week 2... At Buffalo (Sept. 10): Played virtually the entire contest after Dotson was forced out on the second play from scrimmage... Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 17): Made his first NFL start...At Carolina (Nov. 27): Stymied the formidable DE Reggie White in Monday night game, holding him without a tackle or sack... Vs. San Francisco (Oct. 15): With Clifton entering lineup for first time, formed Green Bay's first pair of starting rookie offensive tackles in 48 years (since Johnson and Dees, Nov. 16, 1952, at N.Y. Giants)...2000 Draft: Was the first of five seventh-round draft choices (224th overall) by Green Bay.

COLLEGE: Was a one-year starter (1999) and twotime letterwinner (1998-99) for Wisconsin...Showed remarkable improvement and perseverance over his college career, making the team as a walk-on in 1995, redshirting, and playing little for two seasons before contributing substantially his final two years, including a starting assignment as a senior...Was a member of two straight Big Ten and Rose Bowl championship teams (1998-99)...Twice was selected to the Academic All-Big Ten team (1998-99)...Received a B.A. degree in history in 1999 and began work on a graduate degree while playing his final season for the Badgers; completed coursework and exams and received a master's degree in educational administration in May 2003...Since then has worked on pre-doctorate studies through UW-Madison; spent five weeks in England before the '05 season as part of his program, his research including work on the reelection campaigns of two British Parliament members, Malcom Wicks and Geraint Davies, as well as teaching a portion of an American Studies course at Dulwich College... Senior season (1999): Took over as the starter at RT, replacing the departed Aaron Gibson, and blocked for Ron Dayne's Heisman Trophy-winning season, which also included breaking the NCAA's all-time rushing record... Was invited to both the Hula Bowl and East-West Shrine Game, the only 1999 Badger to appear in two postseason all-star contests...Redshirt freshman, sophomore and junior seasons (1996-98): Backed up Gibson and LT Chris McIntosh, a pair of future NFL first-round draft choices.

PERSONAL: Given name Mark Gerald Tauscher... Name is pronounced TAU-sher... Nicknamed 'Tausch'... Born in Marshfield, Wis. ... Married the former Sarah Helgeson in July 2009...Father, Dennis, is a reporter for the Marshfield (Wis.) News-Herald and covers Packers home games for his newspaper, enabling him to deliver personal reports on his son's progress and performance to the readers back home...Received the Professional Achievement Award at the annual Lee Remmel Sports Awards Banquet in 2007... High school: Won all-state and all-conference honors in football his junior and senior years as an offensive lineman at Auburndale (Wis.) High School...Named team MVP as a senior...Also made all-conference teams in both basketball (center) and baseball (third base) as a junior and senior... Earned three letters in football (as an offensive and defensive tackle) and baseball, lettering twice in basketball... Also was a member of the National Honor Society in high school... Community involvement: In 2005 established the 'TRIFECTA (Tauscher's Reading Initiative For Every Child To Achieve) Foundation,' its mission to benefit literacy and education in the state of Wisconsin; holds annual golf outings to raise money for the foundation. With Associated Bank, TRIFECTA has raised more than $110,000 for distribution in Wisconsin...Is a member of the Wisconsin Covenant Foundation Advisory Committee; the Wisconsin Covenant is a promise to all eighth-graders that if they meet certain behavioral and academic standards, they will earn a place in a Wisconsin institution of higher education, and a financial aid package for those who need it... Enjoys giving time to local charities, including reading at several area elementary schools (Howe, Fairview, Pioneer, Sauk Prairie and Fox Lake) to promote reading programs; also has worked with the Salvation Army, UWGB literacy program and the University of Wisconsin Hospitals and Clinics...Participated in a fundraising campaign in 2005 for St. Joseph's Hospital in Marshfield, Wis., a Children's Miracle Network hospital; because the hospital received pledges better than $25,000, Tauscher cut his trademark long hair after the season, with donors having the chance to be randomly chosen to take part in the cutting ceremony...Displayed his considerable batting power annually in the Brett Favre Celebrity Softball Game, held at Fox Cities Stadium in Grand Chute, Wis.; he socked three home runs in the 2001 contest...Attended an 'Evening of Elegance' which goes to support the Donald Driver Foundation...Has eaten dinner and played games with local patients at the annual Families of Children with Cancer holiday party...Was part of the Packers' second annual Tailgate Tour in 2007, visiting various Wisconsin cities with both scheduled and unscheduled stops...Also spent a week traveling with pediatric cancer patients to participate in winter activities around Wisconsin as part of former college teammate Jerry Wunsch's Circle of Friends program...Was an assistant teacher of seventh grade at DeForest (Wis.) Middle School while in college... Organized a charity basketball game, also in DeForest, to benefit cancer research in March of 2000; he also has given time to D.A.R.E. in that city... Hobbies/interests: Enjoys playing golf and tennis...Took an offseason trip to New Zealand...Residence: Madison, Wis.

PRO CAREER: Speedy, long-armed cornerback will look to compete for more playing time in his second season after contributing primarily on special teams as a rookie...Played in 11 games in '09 and led all Packers rookies with nine tackles on special teams...Saw some time at dime back late in the season, and recorded five tackles (all solo) and a pass defensed...Overcame academic difficulties early in his college career that led to a lost scholarship at Ohio State by transferring to Cincinnati and paying his own way, turning in a standout final collegiate season with the Bearcats...Playing both cornerback and safety when injuries in the secondary dictated the need, was named first-team All-Big East at safety, finishing with four interceptions and earning Cincinnati's special teams player of the year honor...A nationally ranked recruit out of Hamilton (Ohio) High School, originally went to Ohio State, where older brother, E.J., lettered three years as a cornerback (2002-04)...Redshirted his first year and suffered a season-ending shoulder injury in the season opener the following season...Played sparingly in eight games as a redshirt sophomore in 2006 before losing his scholarship to academic troubles...Transferred to Cincinnati and sat out 2007 before returning to the field in '08, when he helped lead the Bearcats to the FedEx Orange Bowl... Played in the East-West Shrine Game, one of six Bearcats to accept a postseason all-star invitation that year.

2009: Played in 11 games, mostly on special teams, and led the team's rookies with nine special teams stops... Posted five tackles (all solo) and a pass defensed on defense...Healthy scratch for first four games of the season, and also missed contest at Pittsburgh (Dec. 20) due to hip injury sustained in the previous game... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Made NFL debut, seeing time on special teams... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Played on special teams and posted first career tackle, assisting on stop on kickoff return...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Saw first action of his career on defense, coming in at dime back in the fourth quarter after starting CB Al Harris went down with a season-ending knee injury. Recorded one solo stop on defense and a career-high two tackles on special teams... At Chicago (Dec. 13): Posted a stop on special teams, but left game in the first quarter due to a hip strain and did not return... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Matched his career high with two tackles on special teams, and also registered two solo tackles and a pass defensed on defense. Tackled WR Deion Branch in the left flat for a 1-yard loss on fourth-quarter reception... At Arizona (Jan. 3): Saw significant action at LCB in second half when starters were pulled. Posted two solo tackles, including a stop of RB Tim Hightower for a 1-yard loss on third-quarter reception...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Served as dime back and posted a solo tackle. Became the first Packer since WR Antonio Freeman (at St. Louis, Jan. 20, 2002) to recover an onside kick in a playoff game. With Green Bay trailing 31-17 midway through the third quarter, caught Mason Crosby's kick off of one bounce at the Packers' 43; the offense utilized the field position to score a TD in eight plays to narrow the Cardinals' lead to 31-24...2009 Draft: Selected with the second of the Packers' two sixth-round draft choices. No. 187 overall. Taken ► Posted nine tackles on special teams in 2009, the most among Packers rookies

► In Wild Card game at Arizona, became the first Packer since WR Antonio Freeman (at St. Louis, Jan. 20, 2002) to recover an onside kick in a playoff game.

PLAYOFF SITE PRIORITIES

WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAMES

- ► Two Wild Card teams (division non-champions with best two records) from each conference and the division champions with the third- and fourth-best record in each conference will enter the first round of the playoffs.
- ► The division champion with the third-best record will play host to the Wild Card team with the second-best record.
- The division champion with the fourth-best record will play host to the Wild Card team with the best record.
- There are no restrictions on intra-division games.

DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAMES

- ▶ In each conference, the two division champions with the highest won-lost-tied percentage during the regular season will play host to the Wild Card winners.
- ▶ The division champion with the best record in each conference is assured of playing the lowest-seeded Wild Card survivor.
- There are no restrictions on intra-division games.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

- ▶ The home teams will be the surviving playoff winners with the best won-lost-tied percentage during the regular season.
- A Wild Card team cannot play host unless two Wild Card teams are in the game, in which case the Wild Card team that was seeded the highest in the first round of the playoffs will be the home team.

PRO CAREER: Seventh-year center who appears to have reclaimed his starting job after beginning 2009 as a backup...Was behind Jason Spitz coming out of training camp last season but was playing center by Week 2 when injuries forced the line to reshuffle, never relinquishing the job...A key blocker in Ryan Grant's back-to-back 1,200yard rushing seasons, making Grant only the third running back in team history to accomplish the feat... Has played in 79 games with 68 starts during his first six seasons in Green Bay, with 56 starts at center the past four seasons... Known for his textbook technique and explosive strength, was named the starting center in spring 2006 and started all 16 games that year for the first time as a pro...Missed only two snaps all season (when his shoe came off), playing a team-high 99.8 percent of the offensive snaps... Rewarded with a five-year contract extension in November 2006...Adjusted well to the Packers' zone-blocking scheme in 2006, having performed in a similar system in college, and has always been adept at using leverage from his days as an accomplished wrestler...First earned playing time and displayed his potential with his versatility his first two seasons...In 2004 and 2005, went from a rookie seventh-round draft pick to the practice squad to a parttime starter at two positions - center (four games) and left guard (eight games)...Was not accustomed to the LG spot in game action, but filled in there in 2005 when the coaching staff opted to change personnel at midseason...Helped boost the Packers' running game that year, particularly the fortunes of Samkon Gado, who posted all three of his 100-yard rushing efforts with Wells in the starting lineup... Selected in the 2004 NFL Draft with a seventh-round compensatory pick; was waived at the end of training camp, only to be re-signed two days later to the practice squad... Was activated three weeks later when Mike Flanagan was placed on injured reserve...Ended up playing five games as a rookie, starting two at center for an injured Grey Ruegamer...A fixture at the University of Tennessee, started 49 straight games (all at center), at the time the third-longest streak in college history for an offensive lineman...Initially felt slighted he was drafted so late, but has used it as motivation to get where he is today.

2009 SEASON: Played in 15 games with 14 starts at C, also starting playoff game, after beginning season as backup to Spitz...Did not play in season opener but took over at C in Week 2 when LT Chad Clifton went out with an ankle injury and line shuffled, with Spitz moving to LG...Remained at C rest of season as Spitz eventually went on injured reserve with a back injury...Part of line that blocked for Grant's career-high 1,253 rushing yards, his second straight 1,200-yard season, and member of an offense that ranked No. 6 in total yards...Helped Packers become the first team in NFL history to have a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,200-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in back-to-back seasons...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Came in at C on the Packers' second play of the third quarter after Clifton (ankle) left the game...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Started at C with line reshuffling due to Clifton injury. Blocked for Grant's 99 yards on 26 carries, including 50 yards in the fourth quarter, and part of line that did not allow a sack of QB Aaron Rodgers in the final three quarters... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Started Began 2009 as backup at center but reclaimed starting role early due to injury reshuffling and didn't relinquish it.

Started all 16 games for the first time as a pro in 2006, missing just two offensive snaps all season, when his shoe came off. Signed a five-year contract exten- at a glance... sion in November that year.

► Over his first two seasons, went from rookie seventh-round pick to the practice squad to part-time starter at center (four games) and left guard (eight games)

► Consecutive start streak of 49 games at Tennessee was the third longest in college football history among offensive at C in place of an injured Spitz (back) and helped block for Packers' 435 yards of total offense. Part of line that protected Rodgers on his way to 358 passing yards, giving him back-to-back games with 350-plus yards for the first time in his career...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Part of a line that did not allow a sack of Rodgers and blocked for Grant's season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5 avg.). Team's 202 yards on the ground was also a season best... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Helped limit Pro Bowl NT Jay Ratliff to two tackles and no sacks... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Started after missing some practice time during the week due to concussion sustained against the Cowboys. Helped offense put up season-best 484 total yards, including 129 yards on 21 carries (6.1 avg.) from Grant. Part of line that did not allow any sacks of Rodgers in the first half as he threw for 274 yards, his career high for any half in the regular season... At Detroit (Nov. 26): Started after not practicing all week due to a knee injury sustained against the 49ers. Part of line that allowed just one sack of Rodgers and helped him throw for 348 yards and three TDs...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Started and helped clear the way for Grant's 137 yards on 20 carries (6.9 avg.), Grant's career-high average for a game with at least 20 carries. Sealed NT Marcus Harrison on Grant's 62-yard TD run off left tackle on Packers' opening play... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Started and helped block for team's 153 rushing yards and five TDs on 32 carries (4.8 avg.). It was the first time the Packers posted five rushing TDs in a game since Oct. 9, 1988, vs. New England. Also helped protect Rodgers as he was sacked only one time, and cleared DT Colin Cole to create a hole on Grant's 56-yard TD run...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started and helped offense post team playoff-record 493 total yards, including franchise-best 423 yards passing from Rodgers.

2008: Started 13 games and blocked for Grant's (then) career-high 1,203 rushing yards, which ranks as the eighth-highest single-season mark in franchise history... Was inactive for the first two games with back/trunk injury...Originally injured trunk muscle in Aug. 1 night practice, and re-aggravated injury in preseason game 2005: Played in all 16 games with 10 starts...Started twice at C for Flanagan (sports hernia), and eight games at LG...Saw action exclusively on special teams in four contests...Received plenty of preseason reps with the first unit, filling in for Flanagan, who was held out of afternoon practices early in camp following 2004 knee surgery... Began practicing at guard Aug. 13 to improve his versatility, and played well enough there to become a dark horse in the derby for a starting job... Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 9): Started at C for Flanagan in 52-3 win after playing most of the game the previous week at Carolina (Oct. 3) when Flanagan left with the injury... At Atlanta (Nov. 13): In an attempt to improve the running game, coaches started him at LG, and he held the job for the remainder of the season. Was part of an offense in Falcons contest that produced the team's first 100-yard rusher, Gado... At Philadelphia (Nov. 27): Started and helped pave the way for Gado's 111 rushing yards, only three days after he and his wife lost their unborn twins in a personal tragedy... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 11): Was part of an offensive line in 16-13 win that helped produce 330 total yards, including Gado's 171 on the ground, the franchise's rookie rushing record.

2004: Played in five regular-season games, with two starts, and also played in playoff game...Dressed but did not play in eight contests... Was waived by the Packers Sept. 5 and re-signed two days later to the practice squad, where he spent the season's first three weeks...Promoted to the active roster Oct. 2, when Flanagan (knee) went on injured reserve... At Houston (Nov. 21): Made his NFL debut in Sunday night contest, on special teams... At Philadelphia (Dec. 5): Saw his first snaps at C, replacing Ruegamer (ankle), playing the last drive of the first half and the entire second half... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 12): Made his first pro start, helping Packers to 116 yards rushing in 16-13 win; became the seventh C to start during Favre's streak, and the team's first rookie starting C since Bill Cherry (Oct. 12, 1986, vs. Detroit)... Vs. Jacksonville (Dec. 19): Started and assisted the Packers to 444 yards of total offense... Vs. Minnesota (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Entered in the third quarter at C when the Packers shifted their line to accommodate the loss of Clifton (ankle)...2004 Draft: Drafted with a seventh-round compensatory pick (251st overall). First C selected by the Packers from the University of Tennessee in team history.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterwinner at Tennessee (2000-03), playing in 50 career games with 49 consecutive starts, at the time the third-longest streak in college football history among offensive linemen... Was a redshirt freshman when Clifton was a senior... Earned two B.A. degrees (history and sociology)...Senior season (2003): As a team captain, started every game for a third straight season, earning second-team All-Southeastern Conference honors (coaches, The Associated Press)... Wore No. 67 at Auburn (Oct. 4) to honor teammate Chuck Prugh, hospitalized with a serious illness...Junior season (2002): Started all 13 games for a Volunteer team that averaged 353.2 yards per game...Sophomore season (2001): Started all 13 games, and was part of a line that helped clear the way for RB Travis Stephens to rush for a school single-season record 1,464 yards... Redshirt freshman season (2000): Played in 11 games at C, with 10 starts...Earned third-team freshman All-America honors from Sporting News and freshman All-SEC recognition from the Knoxville News-Sentinel.

at San Francisco (Aug. 16)...Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Practiced all week and was active for the game, but did not play...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Started his first game of the season...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Started after being limited during week with chest injury sustained in Oct. 15 practice, and was part of a line that did not allow a sack and blocked for Grant's 105 rushing yards...Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Helped pave the way for team's 200 rushing yards, including season-high 145 from Grant...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Started, but left game in second quarter with an ankle injury and did not return. Helped clear the way for RB DeShawn Wynn's 73-yard TD run in the first quarter, the team's longest run of the season.

2007: Played in 14 games with 13 starts, and started both playoff contests... Vs. Chicago (Oct. 7): Was poked in the eye on a third-quarter running play and did not return. Further examination revealed a fractured eye socket, forcing him to miss the next game vs. Washington (Oct. 14)...At Denver (Oct. 29): After the bye, missed game with an unrelated sinus infection... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Returned to starting lineup and was part of a line that helped Green Bay amass a season-high 488 yards, and held the Vikings without a sack...At Detroit (Nov. 22): Helped pave the way for 481 yards of total offense and 101 yards rushing for Grant; offense did not allow a sack... Vs. Oakland (Dec. 9): Was part of an offense that totaled 455 yards and 179 rushing yards (156 from Grant) and held the Raiders' defense to zero sacks...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Helped the team rush for 217 yards, 113 coming from RB Brandon Jackson, his first 100-yard rushing performance of the season... Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Was part of an offensive line that assisted Grant to 201 yards and three rushing TDs, both Packers playoff records.

2006: A full-time starter for the first time, started all 16 games and played a team-high 99.8 percent of offensive snaps (1,115 of 1,117), missing just two plays in Week 15 when his shoe came off...Adjusted as well as any lineman to the team's new zone-blocking scheme, having played in a similar system at the University of Tennessee...His consistency was rewarded with a five-year contract extension, which he signed on Nov. 6... Played every snap on an offensive line that didn't allow a sack from the fourth guarter vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17) to the second guarter vs. St. Louis (Oct. 8); the streak covered 108 passing plays and included a shutout at Philadelphia (Oct. 2) against the Eagles' attacking defense...At Miami (Oct. 22): Part of an offensive line that helped the team gain 155 yards rushing, including 118 from RB Ahman Green. 'FULLBACK IS THE POSITION I FEEL I CAN PLAY BETTER.'

Dear Mr. Vainisi, Reference to your letter dated November 11, 1957.

I am very much interested in playing professional football. Football is a great sport and I enjoy playing it. Yes, I would be interested in playing with the Green Bay Packers. My military status is 1A Category 4. Yes, I will be able to play pro ball before entering the service. I prefer playing in either the United States or Canada. Fullback is the position I feel I can play better.

Sincerely, Jim Taylor Baton Rouge, La

PRO CAREER: Former non-drafted free agent and practice-squad player has developed into reliable starter each of the past two seasons... Has served as the nickel back each of the last two years, but also has started parts of each season at right cornerback when veteran Al Harris missed time due to injuries... Has started 19 games over the past two seasons, including a career-high 10 in '09... Moved into the starting lineup in Week 12 in '09 when Harris went down with a season-ending knee injury, and went on to lead the team with a career-high 22 passes defensed...Showed his versatility last season by becoming the first player in franchise history to post a 65-yard INT return and a 45-yard punt return in the same season... Posted career-high 11 special teams tackles in '09...Got his first extensive starting experience in 2008, opening nine games in place of both Harris (spleen injury) and CB Charles Woodson (temporary move to safety), and established career bests in almost every defensive category... His five interceptions in '08 - three coming in consecutive games while starting for Harris - ranked third on the team and were his most in any single season, college or pro... Along with teammates Woodson and Nick Collins, became first Packers trio to each post five or more interceptions in a season since 1996 (S Eugene Robinson, S LeRoy Butler, CB Doug Evans)...In 48 career games (all consecutive), has started 20 contests and posted 105 tackles (84 solo) with 10 interceptions, 40 passes defensed, two forced fumbles and one recovery...Is the only non-drafted free agent in the NFL to record four or more interceptions each of the last two seasons...Released by Houston as a non-drafted rookie following training camp in 2006, joined the Packers' practice squad for the final five weeks of that season...Became the surprise of camp in 2007, landing a spot on the 53-man roster with a strong preseason and by season's end had established himself as the team's No. 3 cornerback and top kick returner...That year, got his first NFL interception and scored his first pro touchdown, returning a pooch punt out of field-goal formation 94 yards for a score vs. Carolina (Nov. 18)...Though he's no longer a primary return man, remains a solid contributor on special teams with 23 career coverage tackles, including one on Thanksgiving Day 2007 in Detroit that saved a touchdown...A first-team All-Western Athletic Conference selection at Louisiana Tech, had seven career INTs and led the nation in passes defensed (19) as a senior in 2005.

2009 SEASON: Played in all 16 games, plus playoff contest, with 10 starts... Was nickel back for first 10 contests before moving into starting RCB spot in Week 12 due to Harris' season-ending knee injury...Led team with a career-high 22 passes defensed...Posted 42 tackles (29 solo), four INTs and a sack...Added a career-high 11 tackles on special teams, which was tied for fourth on the team...Had a 10.4-yard average on 13 punt returns and also returned two kickoffs for 26 yards (13.0 avg.)... First player in franchise history to post an INT return of 65 yards (67 vs. Chicago, Sept. 13) and a punt return of 45 yards (45 vs. Detroit, Oct. 18) in the same season...On the field for 767-of-996 (77.0 percent) defensive plays... Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Intercepted QB Jay Cutler's pass deep down the middle intended for WR Johnny Knox in the second guarter at Green Bay's 32 and returned the pick 67 yards to Chicago's 1 to set up a Ryan Grant TD run on the next play; the 67-yard return was his career long and the season long by a Packer. Tied a career high with three passes defensed and also tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Filling in for injured WR Jordy Nelson, returned a Nick Harris punt 45 yards in the second quarter, the longest punt return of the season by a Packer... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Started as team opened in nickel and registered a season-high six tackles (five solo) and two passes defensed. Tied for the team lead with two special teams stops...Vs. Detroit (Nov. 26): Moved into starting lineup at RCB in place of an injured Al Harris (knee), his first start of the season in the base defense, and remained there for the rest of the season. Posted four tackles (three solo) and an INT, picking off QB Matthew Stafford's deep pass intended for WR Dennis Northcutt at the Green Bay 40...Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Recorded a career-high four passes defensed, including an INT. With the Ravens at Green Bay's 3 in the fourth quarter trailing 24-14, made a leaping INT of QB Joe Flacco's pass in the end zone in front of WR Demetrius Williams...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Posted the first sack of his career when he brought down Cutler for an 8-yard loss on the Bears' final series. With Green Bay trailing 14-13 early in the fourth quarter, also had a key pressure when he came on a corner blitz and got in Cutler's face to force a bad throw to the left sideline that Collins picked off and returned 31 yards to the Chicago 11; Grant scored two plays later on 1-yard TD run for winning score...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Recorded four tackles (three solo), an INT and two passes defensed. Made a leaping grab of QB Brian St. Pierre's pass intended for TE Stephen Spach on the sideline in the fourth quarter, and returned the pick 21 yards to Arizona's 33...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Posted six tackles (five solo) and added a stop on special teams.

Played in all 16 contests, plus both playoff games, with one start, rotating as a nickel and dime back and posting 11 tackles (10 solo) with one INT among four passes defensed...Also had a teamleading 30 kickoff returns for 684 yards (22.8 avg.), plus six punt returns for 118 yards (19.7 avg.) and a TD, and seven special teams tackles... Vs. Chicago (Oct. 7): Had a career-high six kickoff returns for 173 yards; five of six returns went for 20 yards-or-more, including a careerlong 65-yarder in the third quarter that set up a FG...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Made his first two career special teams tackles... Vs. Carolina (Nov. 18): Named 'NFC Special Teams Player of the Week' when he scored his first career TD

on a first-quarter punt return. K John Kasay punted out of field-goal formation; Williams fielded the punt off the bounce and returned it 94 yards down the right sideline for a score and 7-0 Green Bay lead... At Detroit (Nov. 22): Played extensively as an extra DB when Woodson left the game in the second quarter with a toe injury; broke up two passes, both on third down to WR Calvin Johnson to force punts, and made two solo tackles, the first of his career. Also had two special teams tackles, one in the second quarter, chasing down KR Aveion Cason from behind and making a TD-saving tackle; the Lions kicked a FG on the ensuing drive...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Made his first career start with the team opening in 'nickel'; made a (then) career-high five tackles (four solo) and his first career INT, catching a QB Jon Kitna pass tipped by DE Cullen Jenkins and returning it 22 yards... Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Broke up a third-and-12 pass in second quarter intended for WR David Tyree, forcing a FG attempt. In third quarter, ran a kickoff back 49 yards to the Giants' 39-yard line; the drive ended with a TE Donald Lee TD catch.

2006: Spent training camp with the Houston Texans before his release on Sept. 3... Signed to the Green Bay practice squad on Nov. 29, where he spent the final five weeks of the season...2006 Draft: Signed as a nondrafted free agent with Houston on May 8.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman played in 23 games at Louisiana Tech...Initially enrolled as a non-athlete in pursuit of a degree in electrical engineering, but attended a football game during his first semester on campus and was motivated to try out as a walk-on the following spring...Finished his career with 91 tackles (51 solo), five stops for loss, one forced fumble and seven INTs among 32 passes defensed...Earned two degrees, one in sociology and the other in computer information systems...Senior season (2005): Started all 11 games at CB, earning first-team All-WAC and all-state honors from the Louisiana Sports Writers Association...Led the nation with 19 passes defensed, including three INTs... Also tallied 43 tackles (29 solo), three stops for loss and 2008: Played in all 16 games for the second straight season, including a career-high nine starts...Tied for third in the NFC with career-best five INTs and posted a career-high 52 tackles (45 solo)...Along with teammates Woodson and Collins, became first Packers trio to each post five-or-more INTs in a season since 1996 (Robinson, Butler, Evans)...Third on the team with 14 passes defensed, then a career high, and registered five special teams tackles...Tied for second on the team with two forced fumbles...On the field for 776-of-1,050 (73.9) defensive plays... Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Started off game in customary nickel role, but moved to RCB when Harris left game with spleen injury in second quarter... At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Started in place of injured Harris and intercepted QB Brian Griese's pass that was bobbled by WR Michael Clayton at Green Bay's 5-yard line, and returned the pick 39 yards...Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Started and posted a career-high 10 tackles along with an INT in second straight game, a one-handed catch with his right hand on a pass from QB Matt Ryan intended for TE Ben Hartstock in the end zone. Score was 17-10 at the time and the Packers' offense moved down the field for tying TD following the pick... At Seattle (Oct. 12): Started third straight game and posted INT in third consecutive contest when he picked off QB Charlie Frye's deep pass intended for WR Koren Robinson down the left sideline...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Started and posted six tackles. Broke up QB Peyton Manning's pass intended for WR Anthony Gonzalez on the first play of the second half and forced a fumble on TE Dallas Clark's reception late in the fourth quarter that went out of bounds at the Green Bay 1... At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Returned to nickel back spot with Harris coming back from injury... At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Intercepted QB Gus Frerotte's pass over the middle intended for WR Bernard Berrian with just under 30 seconds remaining in the first half and returned the pick 19 yards to the Minnesota 40, which helped set up Mason Crosby's 47-yard FG as time expired in the half to narrow the Vikings' lead to 14-10... Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Played extensively as nickel back as secondary allowed just four receptions by Bears WRs. Also matched season high with two stops on special teams...

a forced fumble...Recorded two INTs vs. New Mexico State (Oct. 1)...Junior season (2004): Played in all 12 games, including seven starts...Recorded collegiate highs in tackles (45) and INTs (4)...Led the Bulldogs with 13 passes defensed...Fourth-quarter INT sealed a victory vs. No. 17-ranked Fresno State (Oct. 2)...Set a collegiate-high with nine tackles at Rice (Nov. 29)...Sophomore season (2003): Saw action in 11 games at DB and on the special teams units...Finished with three tackles (two solo)...Freshman season (2002): Participated as a member of the scout team.

WHAT'S NEW AT PACKERSTRAININGCAMP.COM

The Packers in 2005 launched a new website, www.packerstrainingcamp.com, an online location designed to assist Packers fans as they make plans to visit their favorite team's training sessions each summer.

A vacation-planning resource, the site features a practice schedule as well as information on other Lambeau Field attractions, including the Packers Experience, the Packers Hall of Fame, Stadium Tours, the Packers Pro Shop and dining options.

A key feature of the site is the daily practice schedule, which includes any up-to-the-minute changes that may occur. Other links include information on directions, parking and player interaction sessions.

Another important link takes viewers to the Greater Green Bay Convention & Visitor's Bureau website, which features important information on accommodations, as well as other Green Bay summer activities, places of interest, dining options and airport and rental car information.

NFL BROADCASTING POLICIES

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

- ▶ Franchised Market Television market (ADI or DMA) that has an NFL franchise (i.e., Buffalo, N.Y., or Phoenix, Ariz.).
- ➤ Secondary Blackout Market Television market in the home territory (with station(s) having signal penetration to within 75 miles of the game site) of an NFL franchise that is subject to blackout restrictions.
- ► Early Game Game with kickoff at 12:05 p.m. CT.

 Late Game Game with kickoff at 3:05 or 3:15 p.m. CT.

BLACKOUT POLICY

To ensure an NFL club's ability to sell all of its game tickets, and to make televised games more attractive to viewers through the presence of sellout crowds, the following policy is observed by the NFL:

For a home game to be aired locally in the franchised market and in any secondary blackout market(s), the game must be sold out 72 hours in advance of kickoff. If the game is not a sellout by the 72-hour cutoff, both the home franchised market and the secondary markets of the carrying network will air an alternate game.

NUMBER OF GAMES IN A MARKET

With regard to the number of NFL games seen in a particular market on a Sunday afternoon, there are three situations.

- ▶ An NFL franchised market (i.e., New York, Chicago, Dallas, etc.) On a week when the NFL team (or teams) in a market is on the ROAD Sunday, Monday or Thursday night, or Saturday afternoon, the market will receive three Sunday afternoon games: Two telecasts by the network with the doubleheader week and one game by the network with the single-game week. When an NFL team in the market is playing at HOME on Sunday afternoon, the market will receive two games: One game on FOX and one game on CBS, regardless of which network has the doubleheader week. That is, unless 1) the home team's assigned telecaster that day (CBS or FOX) also is on the doubleheader network and 2) the game is sold out 72 hours in advance. In that case, the three games would be the home team's and two other games in the remaining early or late window.
- All other television markets (including secondary blackout markets) Network affiliates in these markets will receive three games on Sunday afternoon, two on the doubleheader network (one early and one late) and one game on the singlegame network (either early or late).

SELECTION OF GAMES TO BE TELECAST REGIONALLY

By network contract, all team road games must be telecast back to that team's home territory (franchised market and secondary blackout markets). Other than this requirement, the televising network is the sole selector of which game(s) will be aired in all markets

VETERANS

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 202 13th NFL Season Fifth Packers Season Born: October 7, 1976

Acquired: UFA-06 (Oak)

PRO CAREER: Perennial Pro Bowl cornerback turned in what even he called the best season of his 12-year career, earning NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from The Associated Press...Became only the second Packer to win the award (DE Reggie White, 1998) and the oldest defensive back to win the honor... Earned first-team All-Pro honors from every major media outlet, and also was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month three times...Became first defensive player in the NFL to win a monthly award three times in the same season... Utilized by new defensive coordinator Dom Capers in a variety of positions in the defensive backfield in '09, posted a career-high nine interceptions, which tied for the league lead, as well as a career-high 81 tackles... Also tied for the NFL lead with a career-high three INT returns for scores, which also matched S Nick Collins and CB Herb Adderley for the single-season team mark... Now holds the franchise record with eight defensive TDs (seven INTs, one fumble return), eclipsing Adderley and S Darren Sharper (seven each)...Is tied with Adderley for first in team history with seven INTs for TDs...Joined CB Bobby Dillon (1953-57) as the only players in team history to intercept seven-plus passes three times in their career...Is the only player in Packers history to score on an interception in four straight seasons...Since signing with the Packers as their prized unrestricted free agent in 2006, has posted 28 interceptions, more than half of his career total of 45...Is the only player in league history (since 1982) to post seven INTs and two sacks in backto-back seasons (2008-09)...Earned second-team All-Pro honors and his fifth career Pro Bowl bid in 2008 -- his first since four straight Pro Bowl seasons to begin his career (1998-2001) with Oakland...His first season in Green Bay was his best statistically to that point, setting career highs with eight interceptions and 26 passes defensed in '06... Followed that up with four INTs and two TDs (one on a fumble return) in '07, earning Pro Bowl alternate status, and then tied for the NFC lead with teammate Collins by picking off seven passes (returning two for scores) and tallying a career-high three sacks in '08, despite playing most of it with a broken toe...With 169 INT return yards in '08, joined Collins to form the second tandem in franchise history to each post 165-plus interception return yards rafted fourth overall in 1998 by Oakland, was voted to the Pro Bowl his first four years in the league (1998-2001) and earned first-team All-Pro honors on three occasions -- in 1999 from AP, in 2000 from Sports Illustrated and in 2001 from Sporting News and College & Pro Football Newsweekly...Was named NFL 'Defensive Rookie of the Year' by AP in 1998 as well, when his five interceptions and 21 passes defensed established career-bests not topped until coming to the Packers...Signed with Green Bay on May 1, 2006, and became the sixth Heisman Trophy winner to play for the Packers, joining (chronologically) B Bruce Smith (1945-48), B Paul Hornung (1957-62, 1964-66), QB Ty Detmer in a season (John Symank/Dillon, 1957)...Combines with veteran CB Al Harris to give Green Bay a pair of elite cover men and is quick to credit Harris' shutdown abilities for the playmaking opportunities that have come his way with the Packers.

► Named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press last season, becoming only the second Packer to win the award (DE Reggie White, 1998) and the oldest defensive back to earn the honor interceptions, and earned NFC Defensive Player of the Month honors three times. Became first defensive player in the NFL to win a monthly award three times in the same season.

- ► Holds the franchise record with eight defensive TDs (seven INTs, one fumble return), eclipsing CB Herb Adderley and S Darren Sharper (seven each) for the team mark.
- ► Has posted seven or more interceptions in three of his four seasons with the Packers, joining CB Bobby Dillon as the only players in franchise annals to intercept seven-plus passes in a season three times
- ▶ Was voted the 1997 Heisman Trophy recipient, becoming the first predominantly defensive player to win the award given annually to the top collegiate player. He is the sixth Heisman Trophy winner to play for the Packers, joining a group that includes Paul Hornung, Ty Detmer and another former University of Michigan standout, Desmond Howard.
- ► His big-game experience includes one Super Bowl (XXXVII vs. Tampa Bay), three conference championship games. six other NFL playoff contests, three collegiate bowl games including the 1998 Rose Bowl (vs. Washington State) for the co-national championship, and three matchups with collegiate archrival Ohio State.
- ► Made a $2 million donation to the new University of Michigan C.S. Mott Children's Hospital and Women's Hospital, which was announced on Thanksgiving Day in 2009

(1992-95), WR Desmond Howard (1996, 1999) and QB Danny Wuerffel (2000)...Possesses a host of experience on "grand" stages, among them three collegiate bowl games on a nationally ranked Michigan team, including a 1998 Rose Bowl victory over Washington State to sew up the co-national championship; three Michigan-Ohio State games in the annual battle between two of the country's fiercest rivals; 10 NFL playoff contests, including the 2007 NFC Championship Game and a pair of AFC Championship tilts (2000, 2002), as well as Super Bowl XXXVII to conclude the 2002 season... Has shown incredible toughness and desire to play by battling through various injuries to start 62 of 64 games the last four seasons...When necessary, will let his body recover by observing practices during the middle of the week, returning to the field for the final workout by week's end - or perhaps even skipping that, as his broken toe in '08 forced him to do for several weeks - and still playing at a high level in the game... Before a broken leg made him miss 10 games in 2005, had missed just 12 NFL games in his career and has played in 13 or more regular-season games in 10 of 12 seasons as a pro, following a collegiate career that included 34 straight games at Michigan after becoming a starter in the second game of his true freshman season (1995)...Now has at least one INT in 12 consecutive NFL seasons and has totaled 754 tackles (627 solo), including 111/2 sacks and 22 forced fumbles; 45 INTs (returning nine for TDs) among 162 passes defensed; nine fumble recoveries (with one TD return); a blocked FG attempt; two receptions for 27 yards; and 87 punt returns for 708 yards (8.1 avg).

2009 SEASON: Named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by AP, becoming only the second Packer to ever win the award (White, 1998)... Became the oldest DB to earn the honor and the first CB since Deion Sanders in 1994...Also won NFL Defensive Player of the Year from Sporting News...Named first-team All-Pro by AP, Pro Football Weekly, Sporting News and Sports Illustrated... Voted as top DB in the league by NFL Alumni...Selected to the Pro Bowl for the sixth time in his career, and was named a starter for the second straight season...Named 2009 NFC Defensive Player of the Year by the Kansas City Committee of 101, a national committee of 101 sportswriters and sportscasters who cover the NFL...Started all 16 games at LCB, plus the playoff contest, and led the team with a career-high nine INTs, which tied for the NFL lead...Tied for the NFL lead with a career-high three INT returns for TDs...His 179 INT return yards were also a career high and ranked third in the NFL...Led the team with four forced fumbles to match his career high...Also posted two sacks, which was tied for second in the league among DBs...Led the secondary with a career-high 81 tackles (63 solo) and was second on the team with 21 passes defensed...Became only the fourth player in NFL history (since 1982) to post nine INTs and two sacks in the same season...Named NFC Defensive Player of the Month three times (Sept., Nov., Dec./Jan.), the first player on that side of the ball to earn the monthly award three times in the same season... Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Intercepted QB Carson Palmer twice, his fourth career multi-INT game and his third in Green Bay. Second INT came in the second quarter when he jumped Palmer's short pass in the right flat intended for TE Daniel Coats and took it 37 yards for a TD. Finished with a team-high 11 tackles (10 solo), matching his single-game best as a Packer...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Stepped in front of WR Danny Amendola on crossing route over the middle to intercept QB Kyle Boller's pass in the fourth quarter at the Rams' 26. Led secondary with 10 tackles (eight solo), giving him back-to-back games with double-digit tackles for the first time in his career...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Posted 40th career INT when he picked off QB Derek Anderson's pass intended for WR Brian Robiskie on the right sideline in the second quarter; returned INT 25 yards down to the Browns' 15 to set up a RB Ryan Grant TD run. Early in the third quarter, stripped WR Joshua Cribbs after he caught a 3-yard pass, and LB Brandon Chillar recovered at the Packers' 48...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Led team with 10 tackles and had a hand in each of the Packers' three takeaways. Stripped WR Roy Williams after he picked up 42 yards on second-quarter reception, and LB Clay Matthews recovered. With Packers leading 10-0 in the fourth quarter, came through untouched for a blindside sack/forced fumble of QB Tony Romo at Dallas' 25. Matthews recovered at the 7, and returned to the 3 to set up another TD. With just over six minutes remaining and the Cowboys at Green Bay's 1 for first-and-goal, jumped Romo's pass in the flat intended for TE Jason Witten. Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Recorded one of the finest all-around performances of his career with five tackles (all solo), a sack, two INTs, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery, a season-high four passes defensed, and an INT return for a TD. Became the first NFL player since sacks became an official stat in 1982 to record a sack, two INTs. an INT return for a TD and a fumble recovery in the same game. On Lions' first drive of the second half, passed off WR Calvin Johnson and came underneath to intercept QB Matthew Stafford's pass intended for WR Bryant Johnson, making a diving grab to make the catch. With just under four minutes remaining in the game, jumped pass intended for Calvin Johnson and returned the INT 38 vards for the score. On next series, stripped TE Casev FitzSimmons on reception and recovered the fumble at the Detroit 41. Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Posted four tackles (two solo) and a team-high three passes defensed, including an INT when he picked off QB Jay Cutler's underthrown deep pass intended for WR Devin Aromashodu late in the first quarter...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Posted his ninth INT of the season, a career high, jumping a slant route by WR Larry Fitzgerald in the second quarter to pick off a QB Matt Leinart pass. Spun away and took the ball down the left sideline, leaping for the end zone on a 45-yard TD return. The defensive score was the eighth of his Packers career, a new franchise record, and third INT score of the season, which matched the team record...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): With Packers trailing 17-0 early in the second quarter and the Cardinals threatening to score again, stripped Fitzgerald after he made a short catch over the middle at Arizona's 16; Matthews recovered, taking the ball out to Green Bay's 48. Finished game with seven tackles (all solo).

2008: Named Pro Bowl starter, earning his first trip to Hawaii since 2001 and fifth of his career (DNP – toe)...Also named second-team All-Pro by AP and All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA...Started all 16 games, 13 at LCB and three at SS despite playing most of the season with a fractured toe sustained in season opener, an injury that kept him off the practice field entirely for several weeks... Tied with teammate Collins for NFC lead with seven INTs, the second-highest total in a season during his career... Tied for second in the NFL in INTs, trailing only Baltimore S Ed Reed (9)...Tied for second in the league with two INTs for TD and set a (then) career high with 169 INT return yards, joining Collins to become only the second tandem in franchise history to each post 165-plus INT return yards in a season (Symank/Dillon, '57)...Along with Collins and Williams, became first Packers trio to each post five INTs in a season since '96 (S Eugene Robinson, S LeRoy Butler, CB Doug Evans)...Registered 79 tackles, which matched his (then) career high, and added a forced fumble and a fumble recovery...Led team with 20 passes defensed...Led secondary with a career-high three sacks...On the field for 1.024-of-1.050 (97.5 percent) defensive plays, which led the team, and was named the Packers Hall of Fame Team MVP for the season...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Recorded the third two-INT game of his career after missing entire week of practice with fractured toe sustained in previous week's game vs. Minnesota, and tied career high with five passes defensed. Picked off QB Jon Kitna with Green Bay leading 27-25 with just over five minutes remaining to set up RB Brandon Jackson's TD run. Picked Kitna off again two plays later, this time returning the INT 41 yards for the TD...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Amidst seven tackles and three passes defensed, picked off QB Brian Griese's short dump-off pass intended for RB Warrick Dunn early in the fourth guarter and returned the INT 62 yards for a TD...At Seattle (Oct. 12): Jumped route to pick off QB Charlie Frye's pass intended for TE John Carlson in fourth quarter. Also posted his second sack as a Packer and first since 2006 when he brought Frye down for a 5-yard loss toward the end of the first quarter... At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Jumped in front of QB Gus Frerotte's pass intended for WR Bobby Wade in the second quarter for an INT, which he returned 9 yards to the Minnesota 48. Packers utilized field position for drive that was capped off with a 1-yard TD run from Grant...Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Made four tackles and sacked QB Kyle Orton for an 8-yard loss in the third quarter as secondary allowed just four receptions by Bears wide receivers... Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Started first game as a Packer at SS due to injuries at the position, and recorded nine tackles. Recovered fumble by WR Muhsin Muhammad forced by Williams at the Green Bay 19 on the first play from scrimmage, and forced a fumble on RB Jonathan Stewart's 43-yard run down to the Green Bay 3, but it was recovered by Panthers G Travelle Wharton. It was the first time in Woodson's career that he forced a fumble and recovered one in the same game...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Started second straight game at SS and registered a season-high 11 tackles, his highest single-game total as a Packer. Also had two passes defensed, including a breakup of a QB Matt Schaub pass deep to WR Andre Johnson in the first quarter...At Jacksonville (Dec. 14): Started at SS and posted six tackles and a sack, his third of the season, a career high, bringing down QB David Garrard for a 1-yard loss in the third quarter... At Chicago (Dec.

22): Moved back to starting LCB spot and intercepted Orton's short pass intended for RB Adrian Peterson at the Green Bay 48 late in the third quarter, returning the pick 22 yards. Posted four tackles, including a stop of RB Matt Forté for a 1-yard loss in OT...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Recorded his seventh INT on the year, picking off QB Dan Orlovsky's overthrown pass intended for Calvin Johnson on a slant in the first quarter. Returned the INT 23 yards to the Detroit 41.

2007: Started 14 of 16 games and was named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl...Missed one game due to a toe injury and another to rest up for the playoffs, when he started both contests...Posted 64 tackles (54 solo) with four INTs among 10 passes defensed, plus a fumble recovery...Returned one INT and one fumble for scores, the Packers' only defensive TDs on the season...Also had a team-high 33 punt returns for 268 yards (8.1 avg.)... Was named to the 2007 All-Interview team by NFL.com's Vic Carucci... Vs. Washington (Oct. 14): Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors and was voted 'GMC Defensive Player of the Week'; recorded five tackles (four solo), with an INT and a fumble return for a TD. In the second quarter, intercepted a pass that deflected off the hands of WR Santana Moss, wrestling the ball away from WR Antwaan Randle El. In the third quarter, DT Corey Williams stripped Moss on an end-around play; Woodson picked up the fumble and ran for a 57-yard, game-winning TD in 17-14 triumph... At Kansas City (Nov. 4): In the fourth quarter, picked off a QB Damon Huard pass intended for WR Samie Parker and returned it 46 yards for a TD. the final score of the game in the 33-22 win. Earlier in the quarter, had a 27-yard punt return that set up a 45-yard FG for a 26-22 advantage. Also tackled RB Larry Johnson for a 1-yard loss in the third quarter... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): With the Vikings in the red zone in the fourth quarter, picked off a QB Brooks Bollinger pass at the Green Bay 2-yard line, helping to preserve an eventual 34-0 Green Bay win, the franchise's first-ever shutout of Vikings... At Detroit (Nov. 22): Left the game with a toe injury, suffered during a first-quarter 34-yard punt return that was seemingly one block away from a score. Did not return to the contest and missed the next game at Dallas (Nov. 29)... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Sat out to rest up for the playoffs, and went on to post six solo tackles and three passes defensed in the two postseason contests.

2006: Experienced what some might call a rebirth of his career, coming to Green Bay as an unrestricted free agent and producing statistically his best season to that point...Despite battling a painful shoulder injury much of the season, started all 16 contests at LCB and led the team in both INTs (eight) and passes defensed (26), each a career best that topped his previous highs of five INTs and 21 passes defensed as a rookie in 1998 with Oakland...His 26 passes broken up were the third-most ever recorded by a Packers player, behind Harris (28 in 2004) and Evans (27 in 1995)...The eight INTs tied for first in the NFC and tied for third in the league, yet he was snubbed in Pro Bowl voting...Also served as his team's primary punt returner for the first time since winning the Heisman Trophy at Michigan in 1997, returning 41 punts for 363 yards (8.9 avg.) to easily eclipse the 12 NFL returns he had entering 2006... At Miami (Oct. 22): Led the team with four passes defensed. Picked off a QB Joey Harrington pass that bounced off the hands of TE Randy McMichael and ran it back 23 yards for a TD, his third career score, but first since a 22-yard return of a QB Elvis Grbac INT, Nov. 28, 1999, vs. Kansas City (with Oakland); earlier in the game, came on a corner blitz and sacked Harrington, forcing a punt...At Seattle (Nov. 27): Notched the second two-INT game of his career (also at Chicago, Oct. 5, 2003), and with three passes defensed eclipsed 100 for his career. On the Seahawks' first drive, intercepted a QB

Matt Hasselbeck pass deflected by DT Ryan Pickett to set up the Packers' first TD. Notched his second Hasselbeck INT in the second quarter, stepping in front of a short pass intended for WR Deion Branch...At San Francisco (Dec. 10): Had a career-long 40-yard punt return, setting up a fourth-quarter FG that iced the contest, plus his first kickoff return since his days at Michigan, when he had all three in his collegiate days in one game, a home loss to Penn State (Nov. 16, 1996). Also pounced on a RB Frank Gore fumble (his fifth career fumble recovery but his first since Nov. 28, 2004, in an Oakland win at Denver)... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 17): Recorded a (then) career-high sixth INT, picking off a Kitna pass intended for WR Mike Furrey... Vs. Minnesota (Dec. 21): Made his seventh INT of the year, picking off a QB Tarvaris Jackson throw intended for WR Travis Taylor, returning it 14 yards; also had seven punt returns -- tying for the second most in franchise history -- for 48 yards, including a game-high 18-yard return... At Chicago (Dec. 31): Picked off a second-quarter QB Rex Grossman pass for his eighth INT of the year and his seventh individual takeaway over a six-game stretch.

2005: Started the Raiders' first six games of the year before suffering a broken leg that sidelined him for the balance of the season...Was inactive for the subsequent nine contests before Oakland placed him on injured reserve Dec. 29...Finished with 31 tackles (27 solo), one INT among four passes defensed, one forced fumble and three punt returns for 20 yards...Vs. Kansas City (Sept. 18): Opened at FS, his only start of the season not at CB, and had a season-high two passes defensed plus a forced fumble by Parker near midfield with five minutes left, positioning Oakland for a potential go-ahead TD...Vs. Dallas (Oct. 2): Had a second-quarter INT of QB Drew Bledsoe, plus five tackles...Vs. Buffalo (Oct. 23): Fractured his right lower leg late in the second quarter when he tackled RB Willis McGahee at the end of a 4-yard run.

2004: Played in Oakland's first 13 games. starting 12, before being inactive for the final three contests due to a right knee injury...Had a (then) career-high 21/2 sacks among 74 total tackles (59 solo)...Also broke up nine passes, including one INT, forced a pair of fumbles, recovered another fumble and returned one punt for 4 yards... Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Sacked Bledsoe for the first of two early-season sacks... Vs. Tampa Bay (Sept. 26): Got a sack for the second straight week, this one against QB Brad Johnson, forcing a fumble in the process...At Houston (Oct. 3): Had a season-high four passes defensed, along with 10 tackles to lead all defenders...At Carolina (Nov. 7): Played in a reserve capacity due to a hip problem...At Denver (Nov. 28): Recovered a RB Reuben Droughns fumble on the opening possession of the second half that led to a quick Raiders TD in a 25-24 triumph... Vs. Kansas City (Dec. 5): Made a career-best (and game-high) 13 tackles, including 12 solo. Also intercepted QB Trent Green inside Oakland territory in the second quarter to set up a Raiders TD.

2003: Started the Raiders' first 15 games at CB, staying healthy throughout the year... Recorded 70 tackles (56 solo), including one sack and one forced fumble...Also made three INTs among eight passes defensed and recovered one fumble...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 14): Ended Bengals' final threat with INT of Kitna in 23-20 victory...At Chicago (Oct. 5): Contributed two second-quarter turnovers leading to a pair of Raiders FGs, recovering a fumble by TE Desmond Clark and returning an INT of QB Kordell Stewart 51 yards in final minute of first half. Later picked off Stewart on the Bears' initial drive of the second half, giving him his first two-INT game as a professional...At Cleveland (Oct. 12): Forced a RB William Green fumble on the game's opening possession, leading to a TD which ended up being the Raiders' only points of the afternoon...Vs. N.Y. Jets (Nov. 9): Posted season-best eight tackles...Vs. Denver (Nov. 30): Matched that tackle total and added a sack of QB Jake Plummer...At San Diego (Dec. 28): Was a healthy inactive.

2002: Saw his season interrupted by injury for the first time as a professional, playing eight regular-season games with seven starts... Was inactive for the other eight league contests due to shoulder and leg injuries... Started all three of Oakland's postseason games, including Super Bowl XXXVII...Had a team- and career-high four forced fumbles...Also made one INT among four passes defensed, recovered one fumble and posted 37 tackles...Vs. Seattle (Sept. 8): Matched career best with two forced fumbles (also Dec. 16, 2000, at Seattle) among a team-high eight tackles in season-opening victory...At Pittsburgh (Sept. 15): Had a hand in a pair of fourth-quarter turnovers -- forcing a WR Hines Ward fumble and intercepting Stewart -- in 30-17 win... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 3): Returned to starting lineup after missing five games with a right shoulder injury and made eight stops, recovering an early RB Garrison Hearst fumble...At Denver (Nov. 11): Had season-best nine tackles in 34-10, Monday night triumph... Vs. N.Y. Jets (AFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Returned to start after right leg injury left him inactive for three of final four regularseason games (playing as first-half sub in the other). Tied for team high with three passes defensed and had six tackles...Vs. Tennessee (AFC Championship, Jan.

19): Shared club lead with eight tackles...Vs. Tampa Bay (Super Bowl XXXVII, Jan. 26): Had eight tackles and intercepted Johnson on third play, leading to a FG that gave Oakland the first points in eventual 48-21 defeat.

2001: Played in all 16 regular-season games for a fourth straight season, making 15 starts at CB...Also started both of the Raiders' playoff contests...Finished second on the team in passes defensed with 11, he also weighed in with 53 tackles, two sacks, one INT, one forced fumble and one blocked FG...Additionally returned punts for the first time as a professional, averaging 11.8 yards on four returns for 47 yards...In just his fourth NFL season, was voted to a fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, though he did not play in the all-star contest due to turf toe...Also was named to the All-Pro teams of Sporting News and College & Pro Football Newsweekly, along with the All-AFC squad of Football News...At Kansas City (Sept. 9): Intercepted Green in season-opening, 27-24 victory...Vs. Seattle (Sept. 30): Recorded the first two sacks of his pro career among a season-high eight tackles, dropping Hasselbeck twice in a 38-14 victory...Vs. Dallas (Oct. 7): Blocked a 41-yard FG try by Tim Seder just before halftime of 28-21 win...At N.Y. Giants (Nov. 25): Forced a FB Greg Comella fumble to blunt an early Giants drive into Oakland territory, among six stops, in eventual 28-10 victory...At Denver (Dec. 30): Did not start regular-season finale due to stomach illness, though he did see action... Vs. N.Y. Jets (AFC Wild Card, Jan. 12): Posted seven stops plus a pair of passes defensed... At New England (AFC Divisional, Jan. 19): Made five tackles and knocked down a pass as Raiders suffered 16-13, OT loss in snowy contest. Provided hit on QB Tom Brady that knocked ball loose late in fourth quarter, leading to future enforcement of the "tuck" rule.

2000: Led the Raiders in INTs (four), passes defensed (13) and forced fumbles (three) while starting all 16 regular-season games for the third straight year...Also started in both Oakland postseason contests...Finished second on the team in tackles with a (then) career-high 79, recovered one fumble and caught one pass for 8 yards... Chosen to his third consecutive Pro Bowl...Was named to the All-Pro team of SI along with earning second-team honors from AP...Also was an All-AFC pick of Football News...Vs. San Diego (Sept. 3): Intercepted QB Ryan Leaf in the season opener...At New Orleans (Nov. 19): Picked off the first NFL pass attempt of QB Aaron Brooks, leading to an Oakland TD, in 31-22 victory. Also recorded six solo stops and a season-high three passes defensed... At Seattle (Dec. 16): Forced a pair of fumbles to establish a career high, including one by Seahawks RB Ricky Watters late in the game, among five tackles. Also intercepted Kitna to stop another Seattle drive... Vs. Miami (AFC Divisional, Jan. 6): Posted three tackles, a fumble recovery and a pass breakup in 27-0 shutout; his second-quarter recovery of a RB Lamar Smith fumble inside Miami territory led to a TD that put the Raiders up 20-0...Vs. Baltimore (AFC Championship, Jan. 14): Contributed a pair of stops and knocked down a pass in loss.

1999: Started all 16 games for the second consecutive season...Earned a second straight Pro Bowl appearance, making his first career start...Also was a consensus All-Pro pick (AP, PFWPFWA)...Finished fourth on the team in tackles with 61, while additionally ranking second among Raiders with 15 passes defensed...Vs. San Diego (Nov. 14): Saw action on the offensive side of the ball for the first time as a pro when he lined up at WR, making one reception for 19 yards (from QB Rich Gannon)...Vs. Kansas City (Nov. 28): Returned his lone INT of the year 15 yards for a TD in see-saw battle, picking off Grbac in the third quarter for Oakland's final points...Vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 19): Recovered a second-quarter fumble to set up a score in blowout victory.

+ - denotes playoff game

1998: Became the first rookie DB to start all 16 games for the Raiders in 27 years (last was Jack Tatum at S in 1971)...Tied CB Eric Allen for the team lead in INTs with five (also tied for 10th in the AFC), among a club-high 22 passes defensed...His INT total was the most by a Raiders rookie since DB Charles Phillips' six in 1975...Also paced the secondary - and was third among all Oakland defenders - with 64 tackles, along with contributing two forced fumbles...Was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by AP, PFW, and Football Digest, and earned NFL Rookie of the Month honors for December...Also was voted to his first Pro Bowl and was an all-rookie selection of PFW/ PFWA...At Kansas City (Sept. 6): Forced a fumble among a season-high seven tackles in NFL debut...At Dallas (Sept. 27): Picked off QB Jason Garrett deep in Raiders' territory for first pro INT during third quarter of 13-12 victory...At Arizona (Oct. 4): His 46-yard INT return for a TD (of the Cardinals' Plummer) - his first NFL score - gave Oakland a 16-14 lead it would not relinquish in 23-20 triumph...At San Diego (Dec. 20): Knocked down a career-high five passes, along with three tackles and a late INT of QB Craig Whelihan, in 17-10 victory... 1998 Draft: Was the fourth player selected overall, by the Oakland Raiders, the highest DB ever selected out of Michigan.

COLLEGE: Was a three-year starter and letterman (1995-97) at the University of Michigan...Became a starter beginning with the second game of his true freshman season, going on to play in 34 straight games for the Wolverines before turning pro after his junior year... Twice was named Chevrolet 'Defensive Player of the Year' and an All-America selection (1996-97)...Chosen All-Big Ten all three years of his career...Led the Wolverines in INTs for three straight seasons, finishing his collegiate career with 18...Totaled 30 passes broken up...A multi-faceted player, made spot contributions on offense as a receiver and on special teams as a return man with 44 career punt returns...Junior season (1997): Voted the Heisman Trophy recipient, becoming the first predominantly defensive player to win the award presented annually to the top collegiate player...Also named conference 'Defensive Player of the Year,' finishing second in the nation in INTs with eight...A consensus All-American who was voted MVP of Michigan's co-national championship squad... Also earned recognition as Walter Camp 'Player of the Year,' the 'Jim Thorpe Award' as the nation's best DB, the 'Bronko Nagurski Award' as the top collegiate defensive player and Sporting News 'Player of the Year'... Had 36 punt returns for 301 yards (8.4 avg.), including 78-yard TD in 20-14 triumph over No. 4 Ohio State (Nov. 22), upping the Wolverines' mark to 11-0 en route to their perfect 12-0 season and being voted national champion by AP...Sophomore season (1996): Posted a (then) school-record 15 passes broken up among five INTs, earning first of back-to-back Chevrolet 'Defensive Player of the Year' and All-America honors...Freshman season (1995): Picked off five passes and earned Big Ten 'Freshman of the Year' recognition, as well as first of three straight All-Big Ten selections.

PERSONAL: Given name Charles C. Woodson... Born in Fremont, Ohio...Has an infant son, Charles Jr. ... High school: Was named Ohio's 'Mr. Football' as a senior at Ross H.S. in Fremont, Ohio...Finished prep career with the school's career records for rushing yards (3,861) and scoring (466 points), including 2,028 yards and 230 points his senior season, when he was a USA Today All-America selection...Accumulated 5,996 allpurpose yards over the course of his career...Also lettered twice in basketball as a quard as well as in track and field, participating as a sprinter, on the relay teams and in the long jump...Community involvement: Made a $2 million donation to the new University of Michigan C.S. Mott Children's Hospital and Women's Hospital, which was announced on Thanksgiving Day in 2009...Through several fundraisers, including a golf tournament that shares his name along with those of former teammates Griese and Steve Hutchinson, has helped raise money for the University of Michigan C.S. Mott Children's Hospital... In 2008, donated $150,000 for academic scholarships to the University of Michigan for students with financial needs studying kiniesology; with funds being matched by the Presidential Scholarship Challenge Program, the amount of endowed scholarships is $300,000 for students from communities where Woodson has ties -- Fremont, Ohio; Detroit, Mich.; Oakland, Calif., and Green Bay. One of the scholarships will be in honor of Woodson's mother, Georgia, and will go to students in Ohio coming from single-parent households...Has volunteered at a youth football camp held by his former Oakland teammate Zack Crockett, and has participated in events to benefit the Donald Driver Foundation as well as the Donald Driver Celebrity Softball Game...In May 2010, was honored with the Professional Achievement Award at the 13th annual Lee Remmel Sports Awards Banquet... Hobbies/interests: Has an interest in the wine industry, recently leasing acres of vineyards in Napa Valley, Calif. ... Has some real-estate interests in Washington D.C., Mississippi and Georgia...Lists Deep Cover as his favorite movie and Forty Million Dollar Slaves as his favorite book...Enjoys bowling and reading in his spare time...Also has taken up piano lessons previously and plans to resume them...Splits residence between Orlando, Fla., and Atlanta, Ga.

PRO CAREER: Versatile lineman will look to compete for more time in Green Bay's rotation in his second season...Saw action primarily as a down lineman in nickel package as a rookie, and also contributed on special teams...Saw time primarily at defensive end in college but also slid inside to play tackle in certain packages... Played two seasons at Georgia after beginning his career at Georgia Military College...Posted his most productive performances in the final two games of his college career, recording a career-high six tackles in the '08 regularseason finale vs. Georgia Tech, and followed that up with four tackles and a career-high two sacks in Georgia's Capital One Bowl win vs. Michigan State...Appeared in all 13 games as a junior for the Bulldogs after enrolling at school in January 2007...Earned second-team National Junior College Athletic Association honors in 2006 at Georgia Military College...Voted team captain and defensive MVP that season...Led the team with eight tackles for loss, and also posted two sacks, four forced fumbles and a fumble recovery...Started all 11 games as a freshman for a defense that ranked No. 2 in the country...Earned firstteam all-state honors as a defensive lineman his senior season of high school after earning first-team all-state honors the previous season at offensive tackle.

2009: Played in 11 games, seeing time primarily as a down lineman in nickel package and on special teams... Also played in playoff contest...Posted five tackles (three solo) on defense...Healthy scratch for four games and was also inactive vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1) due to hamstring injury...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Registered a solo stop, the first tackle of his career ... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Posted an assisted tackle on defense and deflected a Jon Ryan punt in the fourth quarter that went just 24 yards to the Green Bay 49... At Arizona (Jan. 3): Recorded a career-high two tackles (both solo) in limited action... At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Played on special teams...2009 Draft: Selected by the Packers with the first of their two sixth-round picks (182nd overall and 16th DE). Became the first player drafted by the Packers from Georgia since DT Jermaine Smith was selected in the fourth round (No. 126 overall) in 1997.

COLLEGE: Played two seasons at Georgia after beginning his career at Georgia Military College...Played in all 26 games during his two seasons at Georgia, starting seven contests...Registered 33 tackles (17 solo) and four sacks for the Bulldogs...Majored in child and family development...Senior season (2008): Played in all 13 games with seven starts, recording 24 tackles (11 solo), three sacks and six QB hurries...Posted careerhigh six tackles at Georgia Tech (Nov. 29)...Finished his collegiate career by registering four tackles and a career-high two sacks in the Bulldogs' Capital One Bowl victory over Michigan State (Jan. 1)...Junior season (2007): Played in all 13 games and recorded nine tackles (six solo), a sack and nine QB hurries...Posted three tackles and his first career sack as he brought down eventual Heisman Trophy winner Tim Tebow for a 9-yard loss at Florida (Oct. 27)...Sophomore season (2006): Earned second-team National Junior College Athletic Association honors at GMC...Voted team captain ► Played in 11 games as a rookie in '09, seeing time primarily as a down lineman in nickel package and on special teams.

► Had his best performances in his final two games at Georgia, posting a career-high six tackles in season finale vs. Georgia Tech, and a career-high two sacks in Capital One Bowl win against Michigan State.

► Named second-team National Junior College Athletic Association All-American following his sophomore season at Georgia Military College ► Cousin, running back Garrison Hearst, was a consensus All-American choice at Georgia and was selected No. 3 overall by the Phoenix Cardinals in the 1993 NFL Draft.

and defensive MVP...Started all 11 games and posted 21 tackles, including a team-high eight for loss, along with two sacks, four forced fumbles and a fumble recovery... Ranked No. 6 overall in Rivals.com Junior College Top 100...Part of a defense that held opponents scoreless in four games and ranked third among NJCAA teams (142.4 yards per game)...Freshman season (2005): Started all 11 games at GMC and recorded 12 tackles, two sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery for a TD...Part of team that finished the season ranked No. 2 nationally.

COLLEGE CAREER: Athletic, productive tight end who overcame some early off-the-field issues in his college career to become Penn State's all-time leader in receptions at his position...In 49 career games, including 29 starts, caught 87 passes to break the previous school record for a tight end held by Ted Kwalick (1966-68)...Totaled 1,146 yards for a 13.2-yard average and eight TDs... His yardage total makes him one of only three tight ends in school history to top 1,000 career receiving yards, and he ranks second in school history behind Kwalick's 1,343... He also fell two TDs short of Kwalick's career mark of 10...All this after nearly losing his scholarship prior to his junior season...Had served a two-game suspension as a sophomore in 2007 for an underage drinking incident and then the following spring was involved in another drinking incident, including a DUI charge, that led to head coach Joe Paterno nearly dismissing him from the team...Went to Paterno's house the night after the DUI charge to plead his case, vowing to give up drinking and change his lifestyle, and Paterno gave him another chance...Ultimately finished his career with an impressive senior season, catching 41 passes to break the previous Penn State single-season record of 38 for a tight end set by Tony Stewart in 2000...Capped his career with a Penn State bowl record and career-high eight receptions in Capital One Bowl vs. LSU (Jan. 1) and went on to impress pro scouts during the week of the East-West Shrine Game...Calls the decision to give up drinking the best thing he could have done, and says he hasn't had a drink since the spring 2008 incident, except for a toast with his family the night he was drafted by the Packers...Was taken with the first of Green Bay's two fifth-round picks, the 154th overall selection and the 11th tight end selected...Became the first Penn State player drafted by the Packers since 2001 (CB Bhawoh Jue, third round) and the first Penn State TE drafted in team history...Graduated in December 2009 with a degree in telecommunications

2009: Concluded his collegiate career with by far his best season, nearly doubling his career totals for both receptions and yards coming in...Won the starting job and started all 13 games, catching 41 passes for 536 yards (13.1 avg.) and three TDs for the Big Ten's second-ranked offense...Was the only Penn State player to catch a pass in every game and caught at least three passes in eight contests...Earned honorable mention All-Big Ten and was named to the John Mackey Award midseason watch list...His 41 catches broke the school's single-season record for a tight end held by Stewart (38 in 2000) and his 536 yards were the most by a Penn State TE since 1977 (Mickey Shuler, 600)...Was a standout during East-West Shrine Game practices and caught the winning TD pass in

- ► Holds the Penn State records for receptions by a tight end in a career (87) and single season (41 in 2009).
- ► Ranks second in school history for receiving yards by a tight end with 1,146.
- First Penn State tight end to be drafted by Green Bay.
- Finished his college career with a Penn State bowl-record eight receptions in Capital One Bowl vs. LSU (Jan. 1) and then caught game-winning TD pass in final seconds of East-West Shrine Game.

the game with six seconds left, lifting the East to a 13-10 win...At Illinois (Oct. 3): Tied his regular-season career high with five receptions totaling 26 yards... At Michigan (Oct. 24): Caught two passes for career-high 91 yards and a TD -- a career-long 60-yard catch-and-run, the second-longest pass play on the season by the Nittany Lions and the longest completion to a Penn State TE in six years. The score gave Penn State a 19-7 lead late in the second guarter, and his 31-yard reception early in the second half set up another TD in the eventual 35-10 win... At Michigan State (Nov. 21): Tied his career high with two TDs on four receptions for 62 yards. Caught a 29-yard TD for the game's first score and added a 14-yard TD on a pass from WR Curtis Drake for a 14-7 lead in eventual 42-14 triumph...Vs. LSU (Jan. 1): In the Capital One Bowl in Orlando, broke the school record for receptions in a bowl game with career-high eight catches for 88 yards in 19-17 victory. The previous record of seven had been held by three players - David Daniels (1990 Blockbuster), Bobby Engram (1994 Citrus) and Stewart (1999 Outback).

2008: Played in 12 of 13 games, with one start, serving a one-game suspension vs. Oregon State (Sept. 6) for a violation of team rules...Lost his starting job to Mickey Shuler and caught just 11 passes for 117 yards (10.6 avg.) and one TD...Vs. Temple (Sept. 20): Recorded season highs with four receptions for 50 yards...Vs. Illinois (Sept. 27): Had two receptions for 31 yards, including a 17-yard TD in the fourth quarter...Vs. 2007: Started seven of 11 games played, catching 14 passes for 205 yards (14.6 avg.) and two TDs, with five receptions going for 20 yards or longer...Sat out the season's first two games vs. Florida International (Sept. 1) and vs. Notre Dame (Sept. 8) for a team rules violation...

DRAFT-ORDER TIES

Draft-order ties are resolved by the cumulative record of each team's opponents. The team with the weaker opponents receives drafting priority. Within a tied segment, non-playoff clubs are given priority over playoff clubs. For the teams that do make the postseason, there will be a reseeding based on how far they go in the playoffs. The losers of the wild-card contests will be seeded 21-24 based on their records. The losers of the divisional games will be slotted 25-28, and teams losing in the conference championship games will be picks No. 29 and No. 30. The Super Bowl loser will pick 31st, with the Super Bowl winner picking last at No. 32.

Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 15): Made season debut with two receptions, both for TDs, of 21 and 4 yards...Vs. lowa (Oct. 6): Posted season highs with three receptions for 48 yards...Vs. Ohio State (Oct. 27): Had season-long 30-yard reception to set up TD on team's opening possession.

2006: Earned freshman All-Big Ten honors from Sporting News, playing in 13 games with eight starts and catching 21 passes for 288 yards (13.7 avg.) and two TDs...Fifteen receptions came in the season's final five games...Vs. Youngstown State (Sept. 16): Recorded his first two collegiate receptions, for 12 yards...At Wisconsin (Nov. 4): Established regular-season career high with five receptions for 62 yards...Vs. Michigan State (Nov. 18): Caught four passes for season-high 87 yards and his first collegiate TD, a 17-yarder...Vs. Tennessee (Jan. 1): In Outback Bowl in Tampa, caught a 2-yard TD pass late in first half of 20-10 victory.

ROOKIES VS. FIRST-YEAR PLAYERS

Rookies are players in their first year of pro football who have not been on another pro football team's roster for any regularseason or postseason games. First-year players are those who have played in other pro sports leagues (Arena Football League, etc.), have participated in previous NFL training camps, or have been on an NFL team's active, inactive or reserve list fewer than six names.

The rule originated when Lawrence McCutcheon, drafted by the L.A. Rams in 1972, played only three games his "rookie" season, then rushed for 1,097 yards in 1973. Today, due to McCutcheon and because rosters began expanding around the 1970 NFL-AFL merger (reserve lists formalized, etc.), that year is considered the beginning of the rookie rule. So today, for records purposes, the Packers use 1970 as a separator. From 1921-69, anyone who had yet to play three league games was generally considered a rookie.

New Mexico (Nov. 3): Had a 3-yard run in 37-0 win over the Lobos... Vs. UNLV (Nov. 17): Earned team's player of the week award in 34-10 win, helping the Horned Frogs rush for 251 vards and 4 TDs.

2006: Played in all 13 games as the only true freshman to play on offense...Totaled 10 knockdown blocks on the season...At Baylor (Sept. 3): Made his collegiate debut in season-opening 17-7 win.

THE COIN TOSS

- The toss of the coin will take place within three minutes of kickoff in center of field. The toss will be called by the visiting captain before the coin is flipped. The winner may choose one of three privileges:
 - (a) Receive or kick
 - (b) Goal his team will defend
 - (c) Defer choice to start of second half
- Immediately prior to the start of the second half, the captains of both teams must inform the officials of their respective choices. The loser of the original coin toss gets first choice, unless the coin toss winner elected to defer.

THE COMPENSATORY SYSTEM

The Packers were awarded one compensatory draft selection from the league in 2010. Since the first compensatories were awarded in 1994, only the Ravens (29), Cowboys (28), Eagles (27) and Patriots (26) have received more than the Packers (25). Green Bay's last compensatory choice was in 2010, T/G Marshall Newhouse.

Under terms of the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement, a team losing more or better compensatory free agents than it acquires in a year is eligible to receive compensatory draft picks.

The number of picks a team receives equals the net loss of compensatory free agents up to a maximum of four. The 32 compensatory choices announced every March supplement the original choices in the seven rounds of the NFL Draft.

Compensatory free agents are determined by a formula based on salary, playing time and postseason honors. The formula was developed by the NFL Management Council. Not every free agent lost or signed by a club is covered by this formula.

Teams are no longer allowed to trade compensatories, although they were during the early years of the system. Because of that clause, the Packers acquired two compensatory choices in 1994 from San Francisco. In other words, Green Bay has actually drafted 27 compensatory players, but the league only has awarded the team 25.

HUTSON SETTLES ON THE BAY

1962 Lambeau Field program feature, by Steve Boda Jr.

Green Bay has always had that special somebody, either on the field or in the background, offering inspiration or carrying on the tradition for the City of the Bay that is unique in the annals of professional sports.

And yet, the Packers came perilously close to being denied one of their most popular on-the-field performers. Instead of catching passes and acquiring immortality in Green Bay, Don Hutson might well have been relegated to obscurity in, of all places, Brooklyn.

By 1935, the Packers and Green Bay had fought side by side through one crisis after another, adversity and discouragement. A proud and determined community rallied time and again to save ITS football team from the brink of disaster and forfeiture of a coveted franchise. Then came the formation of Green Bay Packers, Inc., and the Packers belonged to Green Bay and Green Bay belonged to the Packers.

It was also a time to reward the faithful Bayers by laying the foundation for an overdue championship. After sweeping to three titles in succession in 1929-30-31, the Packers had slipped from contention and the vaunted Bears were now the kingpins of the West.

In the early 1930s, Coach Earl L. (Curly) Lambeau found it necessary to replenish his forces as one by one, he, Verne Lewellen, Jug Earp, Lavvie Dilweg, Red Dunn, Tom Nash and other stalwarts wrote the final chapter on their active playing careers.

Lambeau was carefully grooming a hometown product to step on the firing line and resume the aerial attacks so brilliantly conducted through the years by the Packer Coach himself, Lewellen and Dunn. He was Arnie Herber and his passing arm lacked nothing...except targets.

For years Lambeau was a familiar figure at the workouts of the Rose Bowl game participants and the December of 1934 found him at his favorite haunts in Pasadena. As he watched Alabama prepare for Stanford, his eyes were riveted on a lean and lanky Crimson Tide end.

Don Hutson was not merely fast, he was blinding fast. In addition to his combination of speed and agility, he had an uncanny ability to estimate the speed of a pass in flight, just the exact instant it was going to arrive at a given point. He could run in one direction with an opponent trailing him, while the pass he eventually was to receive was thrown in another;

then, like a flash he would turn and invariably get to the point where the ball and he were to arrive, and he caught by sure hands.

But landing this target for the accurate-throwing Herber was another matter.

Hutson frankly admitted to the Packer coach that John (Shipwreck) Kelly of the football Brooklyn Dodgers had approached him and he had a tentative agreement to sign with Kelly.

Both Lambeau and Kelly redoubled e for Hutson in pro football. He stressed their efforts. Lambeau pointed out that Green Bay, with its emphasis on passing, was the place for Hutson in pro football. He stressed that Brooklyn, under Paul Schissler, relied on a ground attack, featuring power plays and that Hutson, at 185 pounds, would not fit in with the Dodgers' pattern of play.

Hutson was unveiled in Green Bay on Sept. 22, 1935, taking a starting position at left end against the Bears. The visitors kicked off and Herber carried back to the 17. On the first play, Herber drifted back to pass. The Bears, familiar with previous Green Bay pass patterns, converged on the most likely receiver, Johnny Blood. The rookie left end was ignored.

Herber let go from the Packer 6 and Hutson pulled in the toss at midfield. Challenging him was the Bears' fastest back, Beattle Feathers. Hutson sped on, eluded a futile, frantic lunge by Feathers, and crossed the goal for the game's only touchdown.

A player will be credited with a year of NFL experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List, Inactive List, Reserve/Injured List, or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform List — six games on a combination of any of these lists. Rookies are players in their first year of professional football who have not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. Players who have played in other professional sports leagues (Canadian Football League, etc.), have participated in previous NFL training camps, or have been on the above lists for fewer than six games are listed as first-year NFL players ("1").

GREEN BAY (AP) — Aaron Rodgers finally has his signature game-winning drive, throwing a 50-yard rainbow to Greg Jennings with 1:11 remaining to give the Green Bay Packers a come-from-behind 21-15 victory over the division rival Chicago Bears in Sunday night's opener. Rodgers' big throw ruined the debut of Bears quarterback Jay Cutler, who had a career-worst four interceptions and finished the game 17 of 36 for 277 yards with a touchdown for his new team.

With the Packers trailing 15-13 and facing third-and-1 at the 50-yard line, Rodgers faked a handoff and heaved a rainbow of a throw deep to Jennings, who ran in for the go-ahead score. Rodgers found Jennings again for a 2-point conversion.

Rodgers finished 17 of 28 for 184 yards on an otherwise off night for the Packers' offense. But the Packers' new-look 3-4 defense put Cutler under pressure and forced him into poor decisions.

After throwing three interceptions in the first half, Cutler settled down to lead Chicago to a touchdown and a field goal in the third quarter, giving the Bears a 12-10 lead.

But Chicago's head-scratching fake punt attempt early in the fourth quarter -- they apparently were trying to catch the Packers with 12 players on the field -- gave the ball back to the Packers deep in Bears territory, and Mason Crosby hit a 39-yard field goal to give Green Bay a 13-12 lead with 10:10 left.

Cutler answered with a drive for a 21-yard field goal by Robbie Gould that gave Chicago a 15-13 lead. Rodgers got the ball back at the Green Bay 28 with 2:28 left and quickly drove the Packers to midfield, where he made the decisive throw to Jennings.

2009 REVIEW

GREEN BAY (AP) — One week after a gut-wrenching last-minute loss to Denver on a deflected pass that went for a touchdown in their opener, the Cincinnati Bengals nearly outdid themselves by blowing a 10-point lead in the final minute Sunday.

The Packers (1-1) kicked a late field goal to cut the lead to a touchdown, then recovered an onside kick.

Aaron Rodgers then marched the Packers to the Cincinnati 10-yard line with the clock running down, but Green Bay was called for a false start to end the game. Packers coach Mike McCarthy said officials told him the call was on wide receiver Greg Jennings.

The Bengals were cruising to a win until then, breaking a 21-all tie when Chad Ochocinco caught a 13-yard TD pass from Carson Palmer in the third quarter.

Defensive end Antwan Odom tied a single-game team mark with five sacks, four of which came after Packers left tackle Chad Clifton injured his ankle and was carted off early in the third quarter.

Pass protection also was an issue in the Packers' Week 1 victory over Chicago.

Rodgers couldn't pull off another comeback after beating the Bears on a late touchdown pass to Jennings last Sunday. He was 21 of 39 for 261 yards and a touchdown and Jennings was held without a catch.

Palmer was 15 of 23 for 185 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions, both by Green Bay's Charles Woodson. Woodson returned one 37 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter.

But that was about the only highlight of a disappointing day for the Packers' defense.

Edward Jones Dome, Sunday, Sept. 27, 2009. Attendance: 60,234. Time: 3:08. Weather: (indoors)

ST. LOUIS (AP) - Aaron Rodgers stayed on his feet. The St. Louis Rams went down again.

Rodgers threw two touchdown passes and ran for another Sunday, and the Green Bay Packers sent the Rams to their 13th straight loss -- now the longest streak in the NFL -- with a 36-17 victory.

Rodgers was 13 for 23 for 269 yards and hit on three long passes in the first road game of the season for Green Bay (2-1).

Rodgers and Greg Jennings hooked up on passes of 50 and 53 yards that set up touchdowns for the Packers. Rodgers had a 46-yard pass to Donald Driver that set up another score, and he scored on a 4-yard run.

Kyle Boller, who played three guarters after Marc Bulger bruised his shoulder, was 16 for 31 for 164 yards, two touchdowns and an interception for St. Louis. Steven Jackson carried 27 times for 117 yards and had five catches for 46 yards.

Sloppy play put the Rams in an early hole, with Green Bay's Mason Crosby kicking first-quarter field goals of 48, 38 and 25 yards. The first was set up by a blocked field goal, the second by Aaron Kampman's sack of Bulger at the St. Louis 15 -- apparently the play on which Bulger was hurt -- and the third on Jackson's fumble at the St. Louis 11 on the first play of the next possession.

Boller replaced Bulger and gave life to the Rams, who had scored just seven points in the previous two games. He threw second-quarter touchdown passes of 16 and 19 yards to backup tight end Daniel Fells.

Sandwiched between those scores was another Green Bay touchdown on a 21-yard pass from Rodgers to Driver, set up by a 50-yard pass to Jennings.

The Rams got within six on Josh Brown's 53-yard third-quarter field goal, but Rodgers and Jennings combined for a 53-yard pass play early in the fourth quarter, and Rodgers ran untouched from the 4 four plays later to make it 29-17.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Brett Favre's first game against his former team was all fun for the Minnesota Vikings and all frustration for the Green Bay Packers, as the graying quarterback connected for three touchdown passes and 271 yards in a 30-23 victory on Monday night.

The Vikings (4-0) sacked Favre's replacement, Aaron Rodgers, eight times. Jared Allen was credited with 4½ of them, a career high, including a safety in the fourth guarter that stretched the lead to 16.

The Vikings were relentless in their rush, particularly Allen on left tackle Daryn Colledge, who left early in the fourth quarter with a right knee injury.

Rodgers' receivers let him down, too, though. On fourth-and-goal at the 1 in the third quarter, Rodgers found tight end Donald Lee open in the end zone. But the ball bounced off Lee's chest and onto the turf, as Rodgers snapped his head back with his hands on the sides of his helmet.

This was a highly anticipated and heavily hyped game. Everybody in the stadium stood all the way through the Vikings' first possession, instead of sitting after the first few snaps like usual. Cameras flashed constantly.

The Packers (2-2) stuffed Adrian Peterson with their new 3-4 defense, holding him to 55 yards on 25 attempts and even turning one short gain directly into points. Rookie Clay Matthews joined a gang tackle and ripped the ball out, returning it 42 yards to tie the score at 14.

Favre trotted right out and took the Vikings down the field, though. He fired a 43-yard pass to Percy Harvin to give the Vikings first-and-goal at the 3, then caught a break when Charles Woodson's interception in the end zone was wiped out by a pass interference penalty. Replays showed Woodson making minimal, if any, contact with Sidney Rice, but Peterson plunged in for a touchdown on the next play to make it 21-14.

Green Bay Packers

Then came an eight-play, 80-yard drive that stretched the lead to 14.

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Oct. 18, 2009. Attendance: 70,801. Time: 2:57. Weather: 46°F, Humidity: 65 percent, Wind: S 13 mph GREEN BAY (AP) — Donald Driver made his mark in franchise history, and rookie linebacker Clay Matthews had a breakout performance to help the defense post a shutout.

Still, the Green Bay Packers know what worked in Sunday's 26-0 victory over a Detroit Lions team playing its third-string quarterback won't necessarily get them where they want to be at the end of the season.

Despite getting knocked around again, Aaron Rodgers threw for 358 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. He found Driver in the first quarter, making him the franchise's career receptions leader.

It was the 596th career catch for Driver, passing Sterling Sharpe's mark.

Matthews had two sacks as the Packers turned in a commanding defensive effort against an undermanned Lions offense.

Detroit (1-5) was without rookie quarterback Matthew Stafford and wide receiver Calvin Johnson because of injuries -- and it showed, as the Lions managed only 79 yards of total offense in the first half and 149 for the game.

Backup quarterback Daunte Culpepper hurt his hamstring in the third quarter and was replaced by third-stringer Drew Stanton.

Sunday was a wild romp for a Packers defense that has struggled at times with the transition to Dom Capers' 3-4 defense this season.

Green Bay had five sacks and interceptions by defensive lineman Cullen Jenkins, cornerback Al Harris and safety Atari Bigby, who returned to the field after missing three games with a knee injury.

Rodgers put two quick touchdowns on the board, the first a 47-yarder to James Jones and the second a 1-yard pass to fullback John Kuhn. But the offense fell into a lull after that, at one point settling for four straight field goals on drives inside the Detroit 30-yard line.

CLEVELAND (AP) — On Green Bay's first offensive series, quarterback Aaron Rodgers got his helmet ripped off and was punched in the face.

The Cleveland Browns hardly touched him again.

Rodgers threw three touchdown passes, Ryan Grant rushed for 148 yards and the Packers rolled with a 31-3 laugher over the Browns, who got over the flu but can't shake other problems. Rodgers and his teammates took care of business against the struggling Browns (1-6), who have scored just four offensive touchdowns and 72 points all season.

Rodgers finished 15 of 20 for 246 yards and the three TDs -- a 71-yarder to Donald Driver and 45-yarder to tight end/linebacker Spencer Havner in the first half, and a 5-yarder to James Jones to cap a 99-yard drive in the fourth quarter after the Packers defense stopped Cleveland at the 1.

Despite being without injured starting left tackle Chad Clifton, Green Bay's offensive line did not give up a sack after allowing a league-high 25 coming in and blew open huge holes for Grant. Rodgers' white No. 12 jersey had no grass stains. He had plenty of time to throw and picked apart Cleveland's secondary.

The Browns were outclassed again, dominated by the Packers, who outgained them 460-139 and seemed to know their every move.

Unlike Rodgers, Browns quarterback Derek Anderson was under duress for four quarters. He completed 12 of 29 passes for 99 yards -- just 44 after the first quarter. The Browns had 1st-and-goal at the 1 in the fourth, but failed to score on two running plays and two incompletions.

By game's end, Browns Stadium was mostly empty and the only noise was coming from Green Bay fans chanting "Let's go Pack."

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Nov. 1, 2009. Attendance: 71,213. Time: 3:09. Weather: 48° F, Humidity: 56 percent, Wind: SW 6 mph

GREEN BAY (AP) -- Brett Favre jogged out of the tunnel in a purple helmet. He might as well have been wearing a black hat. No, Favre didn't seem to relish playing the villain in his return to Lambeau Field. But it was going to take more than a chorus of boos to throw him off his game.

For the second time in less than a month, Favre sliced up his former team as the Minnesota Vikings beat the Green Bay Packers 38-26 at Lambeau Field. Despite being jeered repeatedly by Packers fans who once cheered his every move, Favre completed 17 of 28 passes for 244 yards and four touchdowns without an interception. Under less dramatic circumstances, rookie receiver Percy Harvin would have been the game's star after catching five passes for 84 yards and a touchdown and returning five kicks for 175 yards. The Vikings' defense roughed up Favre's successor, Aaron Rodgers, sacking him six times. But with the Packers (4-3) on the verge of getting routed, Rodgers rebounded with three second-half touchdowns.

Already leading 17-3 at halftime, Favre temporarily reverted from game manager to gunslinger on the Vikings' first possession of the second half -- and even that worked. Favre threw into triple coverage under pressure and Harvin came down with the ball while Charles Woodson, Atari Bigby and Nick Collins tumbled to the ground as the Vikings took a 24-3 lead. But Rodgers answered by driving the Packers to three straight scores in the third quarter -- a field goal and a pair of touchdown passes to tight end Spencer Havner, a linebacker who switched positions in training camp. Harvin then returned a kickoff 48 yards. Facing third down at the 2, Favre rolled right and threw to wide open tight end Jeff Dugan to put the Vikings up 31-20 early in the fourth quarter.

Rodgers wasn't finished, scrambling for 35 yards to set up a 10-yard touchdown pass to Greg Jennings. After a failed 2-point conversion attempt, the Packers trailed 31-26 with 10:26 remaining. Driving with a chance to take the lead, the Packers stalled out and Mason Crosby missed a 51-yard field goal attempt.

Peterson then took a screen pass 44 yards down the left sideline to the 15. With the Vikings facing third-and-11, Favre threaded a ball through the secondary for a touchdown to Bernard Berrian.

TAMPA (AP) — Wearing one of those ghastly creamsicle jerseys that are an ugly reminder of Tampa Bay's past, rookie Josh Freeman gave the struggling Buccaneers plenty of reasons to be optimistic about the future. The third quarterback selected in this year's NFL draft led the previously winless Bucs to a 38-28 victory over the Green Bay Packers in his first start, ending the league's longest losing streak at 11 games.

Freeman passed for 205 yards and three touchdowns, including a 7-yard throw to Sammie Stroughter on fourth-and-4 for the go-ahead TD with under five minutes to play. He completed 14 of 31 passes with just one interception. A critical second pick by Green Bay's A.J. Hawk was wiped out by an illegal contact penalty against Hawk during Tampa Bay's go-ahead drive. Three plays later, Freeman threw 29 yards to Michael Clayton to set up his second TD pass of the day.

Aaron Rodgers threw for 266 yards and two touchdowns for Green Bay (4-4). The league's top-rated passer also threw three interceptions and had one returned for a TD that put the game out of reach in the final minute. Rodgers threw a 74-yard TD pass to James Jones on Green Bay's second play from scrimmage, then led an 11-play, 69-yard march that Ryan Grant finished with a 2-yard run that made it 14-7 late in the opening quarter.

Cornerback Elbert Mack, beaten badly on Jones' long touchdown, returned one of Tampa Bay's interceptions 36 yards to the Packers 8 to set up Freeman's first pro TD pass, a 6-yarder to Derrick Ward. Trailing 14-7, Tampa Bay's Geno Hayes blocked a punt that Ronde Barber scooped up and ran 31 yards for his 14th career touchdown. Freeman led a 74-yard field goal drive just before the half, trimming Tampa Bay's deficit to 21-17.

Rodgers looked like he might have put the game away when he scrambled 12 yards on third-and-goal to give Green Bay a 28-17 lead. But Clifton Smith returned the ensuing kickoff 83 yards to set up Freeman's 7-yard TD pass to Kellen Winslow and spark the comeback.

GREEN BAY (AP) - Charles Woodson wouldn't let the Green Bay Packers' season slip away.

The veteran cornerback forced two fumbles and picked off a pass by Tony Romo on the goal line as Green Bay's defense finally played up to its potential against a big-time opponent, beating the Dallas Cowboys 17-7. It wasn't a pretty win for the Packers (5-4), but it might have saved their season after back-to-back demoralizing losses.

The Packers sacked Romo five times and allowed the Cowboys to convert only three of 12 third-down chances. It was a momentum-killer for the Cowboys (6-3), who had won four straight. Aaron Rodgers rallied the Packers after halftime, scoring on a quarterback sneak and throwing a touchdown pass to tight end Spencer Havner. Rodgers was 25 of 36 for 189 yards and a touchdown.

But he took matters into his own hands to lead the Packers on a 15-play, 80-yard drive capped by a 1-yard sneak for a 10-0 lead early in the fourth quarter. Rodgers converted two third-and-long situations against a thin secondary on the drive.

With the Cowboys pinned deep in their own territory on their next possession, Woodson burst through the line unblocked to sack Romo and strip the ball, allowing rookie outside linebacker Clay Matthews to recover the ball at the 3. Wade Phillips tried to challenge the play, saying a Dallas player had recovered the fumble, but officials ruled that the play was not reviewable. Facing third-and-goal after the turnover, Rodgers threw to Havner for a touchdown -- the fourth score of the season for Havner, a former linebacker who switched positions in training camp.

Romo then drove the Cowboys to the Packers 4, where Roy Williams drew a pass interference penalty on cornerback Tramon Williams in the end zone. But Woodson answered again, picking off Romo's pass on the next play to keep the Cowboys out of the end zone.

GREEN BAY (AP) — Sure, Aaron Rodgers enjoyed beating the San Francisco 49ers. It's the team he grew up rooting for, and the team that snubbed him on draft day in 2005. But Rodgers wasn't gloating after Sunday's 30-24 victory, and neither were the Green Bay Packers. Green Bay (6-4) nearly blew a big lead in the second half, and now will have to hang in the playoff race without two key cogs in the defense; outside linebacker Aaron Kamoman and cornerback Al Harris. who sustained season-ending knee injuries during the game.

Alex Smith, the player San Francisco drafted No. 1 instead of Rodgers that year, rebounded from a miserable start to throw three touchdown passes after halftime for the 49ers (4-6) -- including the first touchdown catch of Michael Crabtree's career. But the rally fell short, making the 49ers' path to the playoffs much tougher. The Packers led 23-3 at halftime and 30-10 in the fourth quarter after Smith threw an interception to Nick Collins that set up a 1-yard touchdown run by Green Bay's Ryan Grant, who rushed for 129 yards.

San Francisco's Josh Morgan returned a kickoff 76 yards and Smith threw a 24-yard touchdown to Vernon Davis, cutting Green Bay's lead to 30-17. With Harris and Kampman sidelined, Smith had long completions to Isaac Bruce and Crabtree on the next series, setting up a fourth-and-5 at the Green Bay 10. Smith found Frank Gore for a touchdown, cutting the lead to 30-24 with 5:56 left. Despite the momentum swings, the Packers managed to hold on -- something they didn't do in a recent loss at Tampa Bay.

After Gore's score, the Packers put together a drive that included a third-down conversion by Rodgers on a sneak, allowing them to run out the clock. Rodgers was 32 of 45 for 344 yards, including 274 in the first half as the Packers took a 23-3 lead.

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Lions used to take a lot of pride in playing on Thanksgiving. Lately, the Lions have been getting embarrassed when the nation tunes in to watch them.

Aaron Rodgers matched a career high with three touchdown passes and Charles Woodson grabbed two of his team's four interceptions, giving the Green Bay Packers a 34-12 win over Detroit. The Lions have lost six straight games on the holiday, setting a franchise record, by an average of 23.2 points and eight of nine in the showcase game. The latest loss was an emotional setback for Detroit (2-9) four days after Matthew Stafford's gutsy play capped its biggest comeback win since 1957. Stafford, playing with a sore non-throwing shoulder, threw one touchdown pass and four interceptions.

Kevin Smith's longest run was 6 yards and he finished with 43 on 18 carries for the Lions. The Lions looked as if they were building off their rare momentum by recovering a fumble on the opening kickoff and with Stafford's TD pass to Calvin Johnson. But the Packers scored 27 unanswered points in the second and third quarters to turn the game into a familiar rout.

The Packers have won nine straight against the Lions overall, and coach Mike McCarthy is 8-0 against them. Woodson also forced and recovered a fumble and had a sack, capping an afternoon that included an announcement of his $2 million gift to the new University of Michigan Mott Children's Hospital.

It was for Rodgers, too, as usual against the Lions. Rodgers was 28 of 39 for 348 yards and connected with Donald Driver, Donald Lee and James Jones for scores. He has played Detroit four times and those passing totals rank among the top eight in his career.

Driver had seven receptions for 142 yards, including a 68-yard catch, and a TD that gave the Packers a 20-7 lead midway through the third quarter. Stafford was only 20 of 43 for 213 yards, and his four interceptions were one fewer than he had earlier this season. He was listed as doubtful for the game because of his shoulder injury, but his decision-making seemed to be more of a problem than his health.

Johnson, who was questionable with hand and knee injuries, only had a 9-yard catch to go with his 1-yard score.

GREEN BAY (AP) — A month ago, the Green Bay Packers were worried that their season was slipping away. Now they've won four straight after beating the Baltimore Ravens on Monday Night Football. While the Packers (8-4) are in good position to earn an NFC wild-card berth, the win showed they still have some work to do to be taken seriously once they make it to the playoffs. Aaron Rodgers threw three touchdown passes, including two to tight end Jermichael Finley. But Rodgers also had a pair of interceptions, two of the combined seven turnovers in the game.

The teams also committed 23 penalties for 310 yards, tying for the second-highest yardage total in an NFL game. The Ravens (6-6) struggled in coverage without star safety Ed Reed, who sat out with hip and ankle injuries.

Rodgers was 26 of 40 for 263 yards with two interceptions, only his sixth and seventh of the season. Baltimore's Joe Flacco was 15 of 36 for 137 yards with a touchdown and three interceptions. Leading 17-0 at halftime and seemingly cruising, the Packers suddenly found themselves scrambling after a pair of turnovers, both involving Donald Driver, allowed Baltimore to get back in the game. The Packers were driving on their first possession of the second half when Driver caught a pass in Ravens territory and fumbled as he turned to run upfield. Flacco made the Packers pay, throwing to Kelley Washington for a touchdown.

Rodgers watched as his first pass of the next possession bounced off Driver's leg and into the arms of linebacker Jarret Johnson. Willis McGahee scored on a 1-yard touchdown run three plays later, cutting the lead to 17-14 in the third quarter. The Packers got the ball back, and Rodgers threw to Korey Hall and Driver for first downs before finding Finley for a 19-yard touchdown pass and a 24-14 lead with 10:31 remaining.

The Packers allowed a long kickoff return and Tramon Williams was called for pass interference, but Williams came back to pick off Flacco in the Soldier Field, Sunday, Dec. 13, 2009. Attendance: 62,214. Time: 3:00. Weather: 38° F, Humidity: 82 percent, Wind: WNW 8 mph CHICAGO (AP) — The way this one started, Ryan Grant and the Green Bay Packers looked as if they were going to run away with their fifth straight win. Instead, they had to earn this one.

Grant ran for 137 yards and two touchdowns, and the Packers beat the Chicago Bears 21-14 on Sunday after letting their lead slip away. Grant broke off a season-long 62-yard touchdown on the Packers' first play from scrimmage and scored the go-ahead TD in the fourth guarter after Nick Collins intercepted Jay Cutler. Aaron Rodgers threw for 180 yards, Jermichael Finley caught five passes for 70, and Charles Woodson added his 44th career interception for the Packers (9-4), who have won five straight.

The Bears (5-8) lost for the seventh time in nine games and were eliminated from the playoff picture. That makes it three straight postseason misses since the 2006 team's Super Bowl run. Cutler, who had four interceptions in a season-opening loss at Green Bay, threw a costly one with a 14-13 lead early in the fourth quarter. Collins picked off a pass to Johnny Knox and returned it 31 yards to the Chicago 11, setting up a 1-yard scoring run by Grant. Rodgers hit Greg Jennings for the 2-point conversion, making it 21-14 with 12:39 left in the game, and the Packers swept the Bears for the first time since 2003.

Grant got things off to a good start when he broke off that touchdown run, but the Packers settled for two field goals after stalling deep in Chicago territory while building a 13-7 halftime lead. That quickly disappeared after Rodgers fumbled the ball away as he dropped back to pass at the Chicago 29 on the first drive of the third quarter. The Bears took over at their 44, and Devin Aromashodu spun for a 10-yard TD reception with Woodson draped on him to give Chicago a 14-13 lead with 9:35 left in the third -- a surprising turn given the way this one started.

Cutler finally gave the restless crowd something to cheer when he found Knox on the right side of the end zone with a 19-yarder that made it 13-7 with 1:48 remaining in the half, capping an 80-yard drive.

Pittsburgh Steelers

Offense

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Ben Roethlisberger throws to the corner of the end zone, the receiver barely gets his feet down inbounds for a remarkable touchdown.

Ten months after winning the Super Bowl with just such an improbable play, the Pittsburgh Steelers possibly saved their season with a nearly identical one. Roethlisberger ended the game the way he started it by throwing a touchdown pass to Mike Wallace, a desperation 19-varder on the final play that rallied Pittsburgh to a 37-36 victory over Green Bay that ended the Packers' five-game winning streak and the Steelers' five-game losing streak. Roethlisberger went 29 of 46 with three TDs and 503 yards passing while becoming the first Steelers guarterback to throw for 500 yards in a game. Down to his last play, Roethlisberger found Wallace open in the left front corner of the end zone with Josh Bell in coverage. Wallace managed to keep both feet in on a play upheld by replay, and Jeff

Reed -- who also kicked three field goals -- added the extra point. Wallace also caught a 60-yard scoring pass on Pittsburgh's first play of the game. The Steelers rallied during a final quarter that featured four lead changes and a failed Pittsburgh onside kick attempt with the Steelers ahead. Aaron Rodgers, who finished 26 of 48 for 383 yards and three touchdown passes and ran for another, threw a 24-yard touchdown pass to James Jones on third-and-14 with 2:06 remaining to put Green Bay up 36-30 after Pittsburgh gambled and failed on the onside kick. But the Steelers came back while outgaining the Packers 537-436 in a game that matched two of the NFL's top four defenses but turned into a passing duel almost from the start. The Packers trailed 7-0, 14-7, 21-14 and 27-21 as Roethlisberger also threw a 10-yard scoring pass to Mewelde Moore late in the second quarter that made it 21-14. Green Bay went ahead for the first time at 28-27 on Ryan Grant's 24-yard touchdown run halfway through the fourth quarter. Before that, Rodgers hit Greg Jennings on an 83-yard TD pass that tied it at 7 and scooled through the Steelers' surprised defense on a 14-yard TD run that made it 14-all.

Pittsburgh later retook the lead on Reed's 43-yard field goal, with 3:58 remaining, but Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin -- aggressively trying to shake his team out of a slide -- called for the surprise onside kick. Ike Taylor fielded the ball before the kick bounced the required 10 yards, giving the Packers a huge break and the ball at Pittsburgh's 39-yard line. The Packers went on to score but, at the end, simply left their exhausted defense on the field one play too many.

GREEN BAY (AP) — As the Green Bay Packers piled up points on the hapless Seattle Seahawks, Aaron Rodgers had more than a passing interest in the out-of-town scoreboard. With a blowout victory over the Seahawks secure, the Packers needed the Carolina Panthers to beat the New York Giants to clinch a playoff berth with a week left in the season. Carolina did. routing New York and sending the Packers to the postseason.

For Green Bay (10-5), the 48-10 victory completed an impressive rebound from last year's 6-10 finish and a disappointing 4-4 start to this season. Several Packers players, including Charles Woodson and Greg Jennings, acknowledged fans during a lap around Lambeau Field after the game.

Green Bay's defense certainly was working, forcing four interceptions by Matt Hasselbeck. It was Hasselbeck's second straight four-interception game in what is shaping up as a miserable season for the Seahawks (5-10). Seahawks coach Jim Mora Jr. said the thought of taking Hasselbeck out of the game crossed his mind, but he stuck with the veteran -- for now, anyway.

With Seattle already trailing 24-3 at halftime, Hasselbeck threw his third interception on the first possession of the second half. Rodgers then converted a third-down pass to tight end Jermichael Finley, setting up Brandon Jackson's 6-yard touchdown run to give Green Bay a 31-3 lead.

Hasselbeck threw yet another interception on the Seahawks' next possession, and Rodgers completed another long pass to Finley to drive for a 4-yard touchdown run by Jackson -- the third score of the game by the Packers' backup running back, who caught a 13-yard touchdown in the first quarter.

That was the end of the day for Rodgers, who was lifted in favor of backup Matt Flynn after completing 12 of 23 passes for 237 yards and a touchdown. While Rodgers and the passing game generally define the Packers' offense, Green Bay turned to the running game for most of its points Sunday.

In addition to Jackson's three scores, Ryan Grant added a pair of touchdown runs -- including a 56-yarder in the second quarter -- and Ahman Green scored in the fourth quarter.

GLENDALE, Ariz. (AP) — Arizona coach Ken Whisenhunt took a cautious approach, while Green Bay's Mike McCarthy kept the Packers at full bore most of the day. The result was a 33-7 Green Bay rout of the NFC champion Cardinals in their regular-season finale on Sunday.

Aaron Rodgers played three quarters, mostly against Arizona reserves, completing 21 of 26 passes for 235 yards and a touchdown. Charles Woodson, who later left with a shoulder injury McCarthy said wasn't serious, returned an interception 45 yards for another score as the Packers (11-5) won for the seventh time in eight games.

Arizona (10-6) sat quarterback Kurt Warner after one quarter. Backup Matt Leinart completed 13 of 21 passes for 96 yards and was intercepted twice. Most of Arizona's first-team defense played only one possession. The Cardinals lost standout cornerback Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie to a bruised left kneecap on the third play of the game.

Rodgers noted the Cardinals never blitzed after the starters left, giving little evidence in this game what they might use in the next. Woodson left the game with a jammed shoulder late in the first half. McCarthy said he expects his star defender to be ready for the playoff opener.

Rodgers-Cromartie, selected to the Pro Bowl in this his second NFL season, was carted off after his knee came down on the cleat of Green Bay tight end Jermichael Finley less than two minutes into the game. On the possession before he left the game himself, Woodson picked off Leinart's errant pass and raced down the left sideline, diving in for the touchdown to make it 26-0 with 41/2 minutes left in the half. It was his third interception return for a TD this season, tying a franchise record. He also broke the Packers' record with his eighth career defensive touchdown since joining the team in 2006 -- seven interceptions and one fumble return. He had shared the mark with Herb Adderley (1961-69) and Darren Sharper (1997-2004). Woodson set a career best with his ninth pick of the season. He has 45 in his career.

Arizona barely avoided its first shutout loss since the second week of the 2003 season.

GLENDALE, Ariz. (AP) — Old master Kurt Warner and playoff newcomer Aaron Rodgers staged a passing duel to rival any the NFL has seen. And when the highest-scoring postseason game in league history ended abruptly in overtime, Rodgers flung his helmet to the sideline in disgust.

He can blame the Arizona defense for his misery. Karlos Dansby returned Rodgers' fumble 17 yards for a touchdown to give the Cardinals a 51-45 victory over the Green Bay Packers on Sunday. Rodgers, intercepted on the game's first play but marvelous after that, was stripped by Michael Adams. The ball careened off Rodgers' foot and into the hands of Dansby, who ran untouched for the score.

The reigning NFC champion Cardinals (11-6) rushed the field to celebrate. Warner improved his playoff record to 9-3, finished 29 of 33 for 379

The reighling into Charliplion (17-0) fushed the field to detectate, warrier improved his playor record to 3-0, missied 29 of 30 of 379 yards with no interceptions, and his five TDs matched the 38-year-Olds career best. Rodgers, in first playoff start, was 28 of 42 for a Packers postseason-record 423 yards and four TDs. All but two of Rodgers' yards came after the first quarter.

Dansby broke up Rodgers' opening pass and Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie intercepted. The next time the Packers got the ball, Dansby stripped Donald Driver and Arizona's Alan Branch recovered. Warner threw two foundhown passes to Larry Fitzgerald, two to Early Doucet and one to Steve Breaston, who caught seven passes for 125 yards. The teams combined for 1,024 yards and an NFL playoff-record 13 touchdowns.

Green Bay entered winners of seven of its last eight, including a 33-7 victory against the Cardinals on the same field a week ago. But the team with the fewest turnovers in the NFL (16) started the game with two of them and ended it with another. After Neil Rackers missed a 34-yard field goal at the end of regulation, the Packers won the toss in overtime. Since Arizona hadn't stopped them since the first half, it didn't look good for the home team. But on third-and-6 at the Green Bay 24, the 5-foot-8 cornerback Adams came through on a blitz and stripped Rodgers. On a bad bounce the Packers will remember for a long time, the ball caromed off Rodgers' foot and right to Dansby.

JOHNNY BLOOD

In 1922 while in college at St. John's (Minn.), John McNally had the chance to pick up some extra cash playing pro ball for the Duluth Eskimos. Problem was, college players were not allowed on pro teams. In order to keep his eligibility, he needed an alias.

Allegedly, he and a teammate were strolling through Minneapolis and noticed a marquee on Hennepin Avenue advertising the movie Blood and Sand, starring Rudolph Valentino. McNally got his alias, dubbed his buddy "Sand," and lived the rest of his colorful life to its fullest.

Blood became the inspiration for the 2008 movie Leatherheads, starring George Clooney.

ENDING THE SEASON ON A HIGH NOTE

If history is any indicator, a Green Bay winning streak to end the regular season means good things for the coming season. In 2006, the Packers were one of four clubs to finish the regular season with four consecutive victories. It marked the third time this decade the club has ended the season with four consecutive wins, and each following season in thas earned a playoff berth.

Season the NEL implemental packets are play the Packers and 10 season play the play played as require packet.

►Since the NFL implemented postseason play, the Packers on 10 occasions have closed a regular season with at least four wins. Green Bay has failed to reach the playoffs in the following season only twice — in 1940 and '42.

PACKERS CLINCHING DATES

With a 38-7 victory over the Oakland Raiders on Dec. 9, 2007, the Packers clinched the 18th division title in club history. It marked the earliest the club had clinched a division crown since 2002, when Green Bay established a franchise record by clinching the NFC North with four games remaining.

HERBER-TO-HUTSON: DID YOU KNOW?

The Packers' Arnie Herber became the NFL's first long-bomb passer, and he did it with unusually small hands. At Green Bay West High School, Herber learned he could improve his distance and accuracy by palming the ball, rather than using the laces. His most-feared target, the incomparable Don Hutson, had flat feet, and trainers had to tape them in a special way. That taping job gave Hutson a strange running motion, which totally stumped opponents, because his loping style disguised his true speed

PRESIDENT KENNEDY ASSISTS PACKERS TO 1961 CHAMPIONSHIP

Vince Lombardi won an incredible nine straight postseason games, a streak he might not have launched without the help of President John F. Kennedy. The 1961 NFL championship took place during the Berlin Crisis, and the United States had called Ray Nitschke, Paul Hornung and Boyd Dowler into service. With Lombardi's persistence, Nitschke and Dowler obtained special weekend passes to play. Private Hornung, however, wasn't released until Lombardi called an old acquaintance, Kennedy.

"Paul Hornung isn't going to win the war on Sunday, but the football fans of this country deserve the two best teams on the field that day," Kennedy assured Lombardi, days before the game against the New York Giants.

The best team was Green Bay, by a 37-0 count, and after Kennedy released Hornung, the Golden Boy scored 19 points, an NFL title-

The Berlin Crisis pitted the U.S. against East Germany for several months, until the East German government backed down. The crisis ended in the summer of 1962. Kennedy visited Berlin and delivered a famous speech before he died in 1963

CARRIED OFF THE FIELD

The Packers played a major role in launching the football tradition of carrying a coach off the field after a significant victory. The Packers lifted Vince Lombardi after at least five games (believed to be an NFL record). His players carried him (1) after his first NFL victory, a 9-6 win in his Packers debut, in Green Bay, Sept. 27, 1959, vs. Chicago; (2) after his first NFL championship, a 37-0 win over the Giants in Green Bay, Dec. 31, 1961; (3) after his third NFL championship, a 23-12 win over the Browns in Green Bay, Jan. 2, 1966; (4) after his fourth NFL championship, a 34-27 win over the Cowboys at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, Jan. 1, 1967; and (5) after his last game as Packers head coach, a 33-14 win over the Raiders in Super Bowl II at Miami's Orange Bowl, Jan. 14, 1968

Nearly 30 years later, the Packers carried Mike Holmgren (below) off the field after a 35-21 win over New England in Super Bowl XXXI at the Louisiana Superdome

TWO GREAT DEFENSIVE BACKS, TWO GOOD EYES

Bobby Dillon and Irv Comp, two of the leading interceptors in Packers history, had only two good eyes between them. Dillon, the team's all-time career leader with 52 thefts, played with a glass eye after suffering an accident in childhood. Comp, who established the single-season franchise record with 10 interceptions in 1943, also was blind in one eye.

MEMORABLE VINCE LOMBARDI QUOTES

There is no substitute for work; it is the price of success.

Fatigue makes cowards of us all; high physical condition is vital to victory.

Two or three plays in a game spell victory or defeat; you never know when that play is coming up.

A winning football team must avoid mistakes with a passion; treat mistakes with a vengeance.

The harder a man works, the harder it is to surrender.

The goal line is the moment of truth; there is no room for a timid person there.

Every play must be considered a game breaker.

Physical pressure on an opponent is necessary; mental pressure will make him crack Desire is a hate for your opponent.

Football is a game of inches and inches make a champion.

Defeat must be admitted before it is reality.

If two teams are the same in physical ability, it is the team with pride that rakes in the chips.

Desire is cold fury burning within a man.

Every man must leave the field with the feeling that every spectator is convinced they have seen the best player in the country.

Pride is what causes a winning team performance

Maybe winning isn't everything, but it sure comes way ahead of whatever is second.

On the goal line, the defense must attack.

Pursuit is an all-out effort on defense.

Our greatest glory is not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall. If the defense is scattered all over the field, it means that they are either confused, tired, or without desire.

Want it: desire it: earn it: take it

Anything is ours providing we're willing to pay the price.

You must forget about being cautious or you are licked before you start.

Mental attitude is 75 percent of winning.

You need fear nothing as long as you are aggressive and keep going.

Football desire is built on pride and effort forged by raw combat.

We have been accused of playing mean, vicious, hungry football. It has been said we only play to win. How else is there to play?

You never lose a game if your opponent doesn't score.

Winning is a habit.

Covering kicks is football's biggest test of courage.

Good fellows are a dime a dozen; aggressive leaders are priceless.

You must force things to happen; you must grab the initiative.

You win games with aggressiveness and precise execution, not gimmicks.

Desire is a constant thing.

Confidence is contagious; so is a lack of confidence

Pursuit is the shortest course to the ball carrier and arriving there in bad humor.

You will find the extent of a man's determination on the goal line.

NOTE: Total Offense from 1932-49 includes lateral statistics, a category eliminated before the 1950 season. In 1947, the league began charting "yards lost attempting to pass." Passing figures from 1932-46 do not include this number. Totals from 1947-2006 are NET figures; passing totals from 1932-46 are GROSS figures. In 1963, Elias Sports Bureau and the NFL changed "yards attempting to pass" to "team sacks." In 1982, Elias officially began keeping individual sacks.

NOTE: Total Defense from 1932-49 includes lateral statistics, a category eliminated before the 1950 season. In 1947, the league began charting "yards lost attempting to pass." Passing figures from 1932-46 do not include this number. Totals from 1947-2006 are NET figures; passing totals from 1932-46 are GROSS figures. In 1963, Elias Sports Bureau and the NFL changed "yards attempting to pass" to "team sacks." In 1982, Elias officially began keeping individual sacks.

Non-league games are indicated by an asterisk (*). Beginning with 1921, the Packers' first season in the National Football League, non-league game results are not reflected in won-lost record, nor in seasonal totals of points for, points against and attendance. From 1920-71, tie games were not included in winning percentage. Overtime games are indi-cated by the '+' symbol. The Packers' league-high 12 NFL championship seasons are highlighted in gold.

VINCE LOMBARDI TROPHY

The Vince Lombardi Trophy, given annually to the Super Bowl champion, was renamed in honor of the former Packers coach shortly after his death in 1970, before Super Bowl V.

The gesture, made by commissioner Pete Rozelle, was arguably the greatest tribute in Each trophy, molded and customized every year, is sterling silver and takes 72 man-hours for Tiffany & Company to hand craft in Parsippany, N.J. Three concave sides form a pyramid, which supports a life-size, regulation football. The icon is 22 inches tall, weighs 7 pounds and is valued at more than $10,000. Former Tiffany V.P. of design Oscar Riedener first sketched the trophy on a napkin in 1966.

FOR THE RECORD

Founded as a town team in 1919, with Woodrow Wilson in the White House, the Green Bay Packers own a 654-518-36 regularseason record in their 89 NFL seasons (1921-2009) - a .558 winning percentage. They played independently from 1919-1920.

The Packers are 275-151-13 (.645) in Green Bay and were 105-61-3 (.631) in Milwaukee for an overall home mark of 380-212-16 (.641). The team played league games in Milwaukee annually from 1933-94.

On the road, Green Bay stands 274-306-20 (.473), a mark that includes two neutral-site contests.

Over their 91 years of existence, the Packers have played 1,635 games. The total includes the regular-season record and one of the league's best playoff marks, 25-16 (.610). The overall breakdown:

TWELVE TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS

The Green Bay Packers have won more championships — 12 — than any other team in National Football League history.

- They won their first three by league standing (1929, 1930 and 1931), and nine since the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933 (1936, 1939, 1944, 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966, 1967 and 1996).
- Green Bay also is the only NFL team to win three straight titles, having done it twice (1929-30-31 and 1965-66-67).
- ▶ In addition, the Packers won the first two Super Bowls (over Kansas City in 1966, 35-10, and over Oakland in 1967, 33-14), as well as a more recent one (over New England in 1996, 35-21).
- Since the league implemented a playoff system in 1933, the Packers have played in the NFL's deciding game 12 times (10 NFL title appearances from 1936-67, two Super Bowls after the 1970 merger). Only the Giants (18) have played for more titles.

World Championship Game AT vs.NED

Offense

Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, Sunday, Jan. 15, 1967; Attendance: 61,946; Weather: 72° F; sunny, hazy

The Packers launched the Super Bowl series by whipping Kansas City's AFL champions, 35-10, behind Bart Starr, Max McGee and a key interception by All-Pro safety Willie Wood.

Vince Lombardi's repeating NFL champions broke open the game with three second-half touchdowns. Wood set up the first, returning an interception 50 yards to the Chiefs' 5, with the Packers up only 14-10. Len Dawson's pass was intended for Kansas City tight end Fred Arbanas.

McGee, replacing Boyd Dowler (injured on the Packers' first series), after having caught only four passes all season, snared seven from Starr for 138 yards and two touchdowns. Elijah Pitts ran for two other scores, one on a 5-yard run in the third quarter, the other on a 1-yard bolt in the final period.

The Chiefs' only touchdown came on a 7-yard pass from Dawson to Curtis McClinton.

Starr, the game's first MVP, completed 16 of 23 passes for 250 yards and two TDs. The aging McGee caught both scores, 37 yards in the first quarter and a 13-yard catch in the decisive third period.

Bart Starr again earned the game's most valuable player as he completed 13 of 24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown and directed a Packers attack that was in control all the way after building a 16-7 halftime lead.

Don Chandler kicked four field goals (39, 20, 43 and 31 yards), and All-Pro cornerback Herb Adderley returned a Daryle Lamonica interception 60 yards for a touchdown.

Leading 3-0 at the quarter, the Packers got three Chandler field goals and a 62-yard scoring pass from Starr to split end Boyd Dowler before half. They then left the Raiders behind with a 10-point third period, Donny Anderson scoring on a 2-vard run and Chandler with his final field goal.

The game ended Vince Lombardi's nine-year reign as Packers coach. He won six Western Conference championships, five NFL titles and two Super Bowls, a record unprecedented in pro football history.

SUPER BOWL XXXI

GREEN BAY 35, NEW ENGLAND 21

Louisiana Superdome, New Orleans, La., Sunday, Jan. 26, 1997; Attendance: 72,301; Time: 3:21

Using several momentum-turning big plays, the Packers held off resilient New England to capture their first world championship in 29 years. For Green Bay, the victory also marked its league-high 12th NFL championship as well as its third Super Bowl triumph.

The Packers jumped to an early 10-0 lead. Brett Favre, sensing a Patriots blitz, audibled on Green Bay's second play from scrimmage, hitting late-season pickup Andre Rison on a wide-open post pattern for a 54-yard touchdown pass. On the ensuing New England possession, Doug Evans intercepted Drew Bledsoe at the Patriots' 28, which led to a 37-yard field goal by Chris Jacke.

New England then was able to turn the tide in its favor, however. as Bledsoe took his club on two long drives for touchdowns. The first, which covered 79 yards and culminated in a short pass to Keith Byars, was aided by two long throws to Pats running backs and a 26-yard pass interference penalty. The second, starting at the New England 43, was spurred by a leaping, 44-yard reception by rookie Terry Glenn. When Ben Coates caught a 4-yard TD pass from Bledsoe, the Patriots momentarily had their only lead of the game and had completed the highest-scoring first quarter in Super Bowl history.

Green Bay rebounded to re-take the lead when Favre, seeing Patriots' strong safety Lawyer Milloy at the line of scrimmage in tight coverage on Antonio Freeman, watched Freeman elude Milloy's "bump" and lofted a perfect aerial to Freeman along the right sideline. Freeman, able to outrun New England's late-arriving free safety, covered 81 yards for the longest reception in Super Bowl history at that time. After another Jacke field goal, Favre took advantage of a Mike Prior interception and escorted his troops on a nine-play, 74-yard march just before halftime which ended when, on a bootleg left, he lunged the ball over the goal line as he was rolling out of bounds.

Taking a 27-14 edge out of the locker room at halftime, Green Bay maintained that lead until late in the third quarter, when the Patriots' Curtis Martin made a magnificent 18-yard run up the middle of the Packers' defense to pull New England to within six points at 27-21.

That margin was short-lived, though, as Desmond Howard returned the ensuing kickoff 99 yards for a back-breaking touchdown (the longest kick return in Super Bowl history), bursting through the center of the Packers' well-blocked wedge, then juking kicker Adam Vinatieri to bolt free. Howard, who had 244 total return yards in the game including key punt runbacks of 32 and 34 yards, was voted the game's most valuable player, becoming the first special teams player to be so honored. A subsequent, successful two-point conversion, where Favre found Mark Chmura along the back of the end zone, gave the Green and Gold an insurmountable two-touchdown lead.

The top-ranked Green Bay defense, which had four interceptions of Bledsoe, was led by Reggie White, who sacked the New England quarterback a Super Bowl-record three times, including twice in a row on the possession immediately following Howard's scoring return.

Favre, playing less than an hour from his hometown of Kiln, Miss., completed 14 of 27 passes for 246 yards and two touchdowns without an interception, while his counterpart, Bledsoe, threw for 253 yards and two scores on 25-of-48 passing.

"This trophy...this is it. It was named after Vince Lombardi. You play in Green Bay. As important as it is to any other team and any other player, it means more to us.

"Back in July, we set our goals. And I'm so proud of you. You made every single goal. You earned it, you worked for it.

"And before we came out for the second half, what did you do? You locked arms. Do it right now, men. Do it right now.

"To the coaches, players, organization, trainers, equipment people, everybody, this trophy is for you, men. Everybody. Everyone had a say in it, everyone got it done. I'm proud of you."

SUPER BOWL XXXII

Qualcomm Stadium, San Diego, Calif., Sunday, Jan. 25, 1998; Attendance: 68,912; Time: 3:25; Weather: 67° F sunny

Behind a dominating rushing performance by San Diego native Terrell Davis, four-time Super Bowl loser Denver garnered its first-ever victory in the NFL's title game to dethrone the reigning champion Packers in what some called "the best Super Bowl ever." In the process, the Broncos also ended a 13-game Super Bowl winning streak by the National Football Conference representative and sent Green Bay to its initial Super Bowl defeat after three triumphs.

Davis, named as the game's most valuable player, averaged 5.2 yards per carry as he rushed for 157 yards and three touchdowns, including the final, decisive score with less than two minutes remaining.

After the opening possession — a 76-yard scoring sequence by Green Bay — it appeared (falsely) that the game might turn into just another rout by the NFC against an overmatched AFC opponent. The Packers easily traversed the field, capping the drive with an arching, 22-yard touchdown pass from Brett Favre to Antonio Freeman at the back of the end zone, Freeman tap-dancing to get his feet down, and Green Bay had a 7-0 lead less than five minutes into the contest.

But the Broncos stormed back, scoring the first three times that they had the ball to commandeer a 17-7 advantage. After Davis went over from a yard out for Denver's initial points, the Broncos forced a pair of turnovers in Green Bay territory. First, Favre was intercepted when he prematurely unloaded a pass for Robert Brooks while under a heavy blitz, a miscue which resulted in a 1-yard touchdown run by Broncos quarterback John Elway on a bootleg to the right. Then, after Favre fumbled when hit by Denver safety Steve Atwater on another blitz, the Broncos tacked on a long field goal by Jason Elam.

Green Bay mounted an impressive, 95-yard touchdown drive to consume the latter half of the second quarter and pull to within 17-14. Favre lofted a perfect aerial to tight end Mark Chmura in the back right corner of the end zone just 12 seconds before halftime, a pass which narrowly skirted the finger tips of a leaping defender.

Davis, who had missed the entire second quarter after experiencing migraine headache symptoms, fumbled on the first play from scrimmage of the second half, an error which turned into a game-tying Ryan Longwell field goal only minutes later.

The Broncos went ahead again late in the third period, when Davis scored his second touchdown of the game to culminate a 92-yard, seven-plus minute drive. And when, on the ensuing kickoff, Freeman fumbled at his own 22, things looked dire for Green Bay as it stared at a potential two-touchdown deficit heading into the final quarter. But when the Broncos went for the jugular on their first play, free safety Eugene Robinson intercepted Elway in the end zone.

Favre completed three passes to Freeman on the ensuing Green Bay possession, including a 13-yard crossing route for the receiver's second touchdown which knotted the score at 24 with 13½ minutes remaining. Freeman made nine receptions (for 126 yards) on the day to equal the club's all-time playoff record.

After the Packers failed to take advantage of one fourth-quarter drive which neared midfield, Denver ran the ball down their throat for the game's winning touchdown, a drive which covered 49 yards in only five plays — four on the ground. Davis strolled into the end zone untouched up the middle

Still facing the relentless blitzing which had characterized the play of the Denver defense throughout the game, from his own 30-yard line Favre moved the Packers 39 yards down the field on four straight passes to Dorsey Levens to reach the Broncos' 31 with 42 seconds remaining.

But when his next three throws fell incomplete, including a fourth-down pass intended for Chmura which was knocked down by linebacker John Mobley, the game was Denver's, giving Elway a long-awaited Super Bowl victory after he personally had endured three losses. In the process, the Broncos became just the second wild-card team to capture a Super Bowl.

GREEN BAY PACKERS SUPER BOWL RINGS

First played January 15, 1967, at the Los Angeles Coliseum, the Super Bowl was initiated to match the champions of the then-rival American Football and National Football Leagues. With a dominating defeat of their counterpart, the AFL's Kansas City Chiefs, by a score of 35-10 in Super Bowl I, the Packers laid the foundation for what would become a tradition of Super Bowl success. Just a year later in Super Bowl II, the Packers emerged with an equally impressive 33-14 conquest of the AFL's Oakland Raiders. Twenty-nine years later, Green Bay made its long-awaited return, appearing in Super Bowl XXXI and beating the New England Patriots 35-21, and making the franchise a perfect three-for-three in the renowned title game.

In commemoration of the those triumphs, each time the Packers went through the process of developing and purchasing a unique, customized ring honoring those within the organization who had contributed to the team's ultimate success.

SUPER BOWL I CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Features: On one side is the NFL logo and shield: above the shield is a ribbon with the scores from the Packers' NFL Championship and Super Bowl victories. the first one reading, 'Green Bay 34, Dallas 27' in the upper left and the second one, 'Green Bay 35, Kansas City 10' in the upper right; below the shield was a crown with the three-word inscription, 'Harmony, Courage, Valor'; on the other side was a ribbon for the person's name, a Green Bay Packers helmet and a football. The top of the ring had WORLD CHAMPIONS' spanning the upper and 'GREEN BAY PACKERS' spanning the lower with the words broken up by a '19' on the left and '66' on the right. Within the white gold insert in the center on the top is a 1.00 point full-cut brilliant diamond. As an interesting anecdote, it is said that the specific nature of the diamond being exactly 1.00 pt. stems from the extremely precise, detail-oriented head coach, Vince Lombardi. Full-cut brilliant diamonds can range in size from 93-1.07 points, but according to those involved with the design, Lombardi demanded that the diamonds all be exactly 1.00 pt. The Packers produced approximately 45 of these rings for players, coaches and select staff members.

SUPER BOWL II CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: Lombardi, Skoronski, and Westland.

Features: On one side of the ring was a shield that held within it a Green Bay Packers helmet and two crowns, one honoring the 1966 championship and then another for the 1967 championship. Above the shield are banners commemorating all of the titles that had been won under then-head coach Lombardi: 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967. Above those banners is a ribbon similar to the one from the previous year. featuring the scores of the Packers' two victorious championship games that closed out the season. The first is, 'Green Bay 21, Dallas 17,' in remembrance of the historic NFL Championship known forever as 'The Ice Bowl' and the second reading, Green Bay 33, Oakland 14' from Super Bowl II. Below the shield reads the word, 'Challenge.' The other side of the ring features a ribbon with the person's name, and a large crown that has 'NFL' inscribed on one side and 'AFL' on the other with the crown sitting on top of the globe to signify the world championships. Below the globe was the inscription. 'Run To Win'. The Packers produced approximately 45 of these rings for players, coaches and select staff members.

SUPER BOWL XXXI CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: Bob Harlan, the Packers' President and CEO, Ron Wolf, the team's General Manager, and Mike Holmgren, the head coach, teamed with the organization's seven-member executive committee and worked in concert with Jostens representatives Gary Rotherham, John Scarpellini, and Charlie Anderson, a championship ring artist, to develop the idea.

Features: The center-top of the ring boasts a raised 'G' on a background of diamonds with the words 'World Champions' surround the logo. One shank (side) features the word 'Packers' over the year '1996' above the word 'Tradition', while the other shank includes the recipient's name, the Packers' logo on a helmet, the team's 1996-97 record (16-3) and the recipient's number or position with the team. The ring contains 115 diamonds totaling 235 points or 2.35 karats. In a true testament to the expansion of not only the league's roster limits, but also the front office and board of directors, the team produced 165 of the actual championship rings.

In addition to the rings themselves, Jostens designed several different sketches for the Packers, including a women's ring for female staff and coaches' and players' wives. Each married player and coach received a women's ring for his spouse and any single players or coaches received a yellow 'G' pendant with 87.5 points of diamonds in it.

Although New York was not represented in the title playoff, the game was played at the Polo Grounds because George Preston Marshall, upset with Boston support, was shifting his Redskins franchise to Washington, D.C. In front of 29,545, Don Hutson caught a 48-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber in the first three minutes, and the Packers never trailed. Green Bay's two second-half scores were set up, respectively, by a 52-yard pass from Herber to Johnny Blood" McNally and when I on Evans blocked a nu

N.Y. GIANTS 23, PACKERS 17 1938 NFL Championship

Dec. 11 at Polo Grounds. New York

The Packers overcame an early 9-0 deficit, spawned by two blocked punts deep in their territory, but could not hold off the Giants in the second half. Early in the second quarter, Green Bay began to close in when Arnie Herber capitalized on a Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen interception by lofting a 40-yard touchdown strike to Carl

Mulleneaux, cutting the Giants' margin to 9-7.

But the Giants converted a midfield fumble by Packers fullback Eddie Jankowski into a 16-7 lead. Green Bay trimmed the margin to two points before the half, when Clarke Hinkle crashed over from the 6-inch line following a 66-yard Cecil Isbell pass to Wayland Becker.

During the opening minutes of the second half, the Packers took their only lead, when an Engebretsen field goal presented them with a 17-16 edge. The Giants, however, stormed back with a 61-yard scoring drive, capped by a 23-yard pass from Ed Danowski to Hank Soar, Soar fought his way over the goal line from the 2, with Hinkle clinging to one leg, for what proved to be the winning touchdown. Dec. 10 at State Fair Park, Milwaukee

The Packers gained long-awaited national respect with the first shutout in an NFL title game, 27-0. Despite bitter 35-mph winds. both Arnie Herber and Cecil Isbell passed for touchdowns in securing the team's fifth world championship before 32,279 fans.

Green Bay mounted a 7-0 halftime lead.

by dint of a Herber scoring strike to Milt Gantenbein, as the Giants missed on three field goal attempts. The Packers pulled away in the third quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen, and a 31-yard TD pass from Isbell to Joe Laws, set up by Laws' 30-yard punt return. The Packers added 10 more points in the fourth quarter on a 42-yard field goal by Ernie Smith and a short scoring run by fullback Eddie Jankowski. Green Bay intercepted the Giants six times and held them to only 164

CHICAGO BEARS 33, PACKERS 14

1941 Western Division Playoff

Dec. 14 at Wrigley Field, Chicago

In a playoff contest necessitated when the two teams finished the year 10-1, each having given the other its lone loss, the Packers fell victim to Chicago's offensive trio of George McAfee, Norm Standlee and Hugh Gallarneau in the 16-degree cold at Wrigley Field.

After the Bears fumbled the opening kickoff, Green Bay grabbed an early 7-0 lead, on Clarke Hinkle's 1-yard plunge. But Gallarneau's touchdown on an 81-yard punt return narrowed the gap to 7-6, before Chicago exploded for 24 secondquarter points to essentially settle the issue. The Bears rushed for 277 yards, including McAfee's team-record 119. Standlee ran for 79 and added two touchdowns.

The Bears also held Green Bay's prolific end, Don Hutson, to only

With peerless pass-catcher Don Hutson employed primarily as a decoy, fullback Ted Fritsch emerged as the offensive hero in the Packers' sixth world title victory.

Fritsch scored both Green Bay touchdowns, a 1-yard run on fourth-and-goal, and a 28-yard pass-and-run collaboration with Irv Comp in the second. Meanwhile, Ward Cuff scored the Giants' touchdown with a 1-yard plunge on the initial play of the fourth quarter, a drive which saw New York advance past its own 35-yard line for the first time in the game. Joe Laws, the Packers' veteran, 34-year-old all-purpose halfback, set a (then) playoff record with three interceptions, and rushed for 74 yards on 13 carries.

1960 NFL Championship

Dec. 26 at Franklin Field, Philadelphia

The Packers couldn't hold a 13-10 fourthquarter lead, yielding a late surge to the Eagles, who scored the deciding points on a 5-yard burst by Ted Dean.

Green Bay had stopped Philadelphia at its own 4 late in the third quarter, then recaptured the lead on a 7-yard TD pass from Bart

Starr to Max McGee. But on the ensuing kickoff, Dean's 58-yard return ignited the Eagles, and led to his game-winning touchdown with 5:21 remaining. Green Bay made a last-ditch effort, driving to the Eagles' 22, but on its final play, Philadelphia's Chuck Bednarik stopped Jim Taylor at the 8 as time expired.

The contest marked the Packers' first title game appearance in 16 years. It would also mark Vince Lombardi's only playoff loss.

Dec. 31 at *City Stadium, Green Bay Paul Hornung, on leave from the Army, tied a (then) playoff record with 19 points, keying the Packers' rout of the Giants in the first title game ever played in Green Bay.

A (then) team-record 39,029 watched the Green and Gold erupt for 24 points in the second quarter. In all, the Packers scored seven times against the NFL's top defensive team, amassing four touchdowns and three field goals. The defense, meanwhile, proved a devastating complement, intercepting four passes and recovering one fumble, while limiting New York to six first downs and 130 total vards.

Two interceptions, by Ray Nitschke and Hank Gremminger, set up the team's second and third touchdowns, while the fumble recovery (by Forrest Gregg) led to Hornung's second field goal. Hornung's final FG came after Jesse Whittenton's interception.

1962 NFL Championship

Dec. 30 at Yankee Stadium, New York

In a raw, cyclonic setting (13-degree temperatures and 40-mile-per-hour winds), the Packers led the entire game, a primitive, hand-to-hand struggle. Ray Nitschke, the game's eventual MVP, proved the principal frustration to New York, seeking redemption for a shutout humiliation in the '61 title game. Early in the contest, Nitschke deflected a Giants pass, triggering an interception that blunted the drive at the Green Bay 10. The linebacker also recovered two fumbles, one that led to the Packers' only touchdown, and another that set up a 29-yard Jerry Kramer field goal, whose trio of three-pointers provided the eventual margin.

The Giants' only TD came after blocking a Max McGee punt in the Green Bay end zone, midway through the third quarter.

A battered Jim Taylor, engaged in a fierce battle with New York's Sam Huff, set a franchise playoff record with 31 rushing attempts, good for 85 yards.

PACKERS 13, BALTIMORE 10 (OT)

1965 Western Conference Championship Dec. 26 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Don Chandler's game-winning field goal, at 13:39 of sudden death, ended the Packers' first-ever overtime game, and their only such playoff contest until 2003. His 25-yard kick sent Green Bay to the NFL championship, after both the Colts and Packers ended the regular season 10-3-1.

Chandler's first field goal, a game-tying 22-yarder with 1:58 left in regulation, remains controversial. Baltimore loyalists, led by coach Don Shula, claimed it sailed wide right. The kick, which flew high above the upright, actually triggered the league to extend the goal posts' height for the following season.

The Colts, playing without starting quarterback Johnny Unitas (knee) and his backup Gary Cuozzo (dislocated shoulder), used halfback Tom Matte as a fill-in. Matte completed only five passes, but did gain 57 yards rushing.

Baltimore held a 10-0 halftime lead, scoring 21 seconds into the game when linebacker Don Shinnick returned a Bill Anderson fumble 25 yards for a touchdown. Bart Starr, in pursuit, injured his ribs on the play, Green Bay's first from scrimmage.

Zeke Bratkowski replaced Starr for the balance of the afternoon, completing 22-of-39 passes for 248 yards. The Packers moved to within 10-7 in the third quarter when Paul Hornung scored on a 1-yard run, setting the stage for Chandler's heroics.

After four inches of snow softened the Lambeau surface, the Packers used their running game to rally past Cleveland, and a crowd of 50,777 celebrated the team's third championship in five years.

Paul Hornung (18-105) and Jim Taylor (27-96) amassed 201 yards rushing, helping the Packers overcome an early 9-7 deficit.

Packers defenders, meanwhile, allowed only 50 yards to Cleveland's Jim Brown, the league's leading rusher with 1,544 yards during the year.

In the third quarter, Bart Starr finally settled the see-saw battle, escorting the Packers on a 90-yard, 11-play drive, ending when Hornung scored on a 13-yard sweep around the Browns' right perimeter. Kickers Don Chandler and Lou Groza booted five total field goals.

Bart Starr, in one of his finest hours, threw four touchdowns, and Tom Brown thwarted a last-minute Cowboys bid, leading Green Bay to its second straight title and fourth in six years.

With 28 seconds left, Brown stunned most of the 74,152 fans, when he intercepted Don Meredith's fourth-down pass in the end zone.

The Packers mounted a quick 14-0 lead, after Starr hit Elijah Pitts on a 21-yard touchdown, and rookie Jim Grabowski returned a fumble 18 yards for a score. But an explosive Dallas comeback cut the margin to 21-17 by halftime, and 21-20 after Danny Villanueva's third-quarter field goal. Starr then hit Boyd Dowler and Max McGee with 16- and 28-yard scoring passes, respectively, to provide a cushion against the Cowboys' late surge.

Green Bay led 28-9 at half, and 41-9 in the fourth. Dickey (17 of 23, 260 yards, no interceptions) tied a team playoff record with four TD passes. Jefferson (six catches) set a (then) club postseason mark with 148 receiving yards, including a 60-yard TD reception. Bart Starr's game-winning touchdown, a 1-yard dive behind Jerry Kramer and Ken Bowman with 13 seconds remaining, clinched a third straight Green Bay championship and ended the "Ice Bowl.

Starr's score, on third down with no timeouts left, climaxed a 68-yard, 12-play drive which began with 4:50 on the clock. In all, 50,861 watched the coldest game in league annals. Kickoff temperature was 13 below zero and wind chill was minus-46.

Like the year before, the Packers grabbed an early 14-0 advantage. But this time the Cowboys came back, gaining a 17-14 edge on the first play of the fourth quarter, when Lance Rentzel caught a 50-yard touchdown from halfback Dan Reeves. The contest was later voted

- ▶ Officially, the field's $80,000 heating system failed due to cold. Unofficially, some say, Vince Lombardi turned it off.
- ► The play before Starr's TD, Donny Anderson actually broke the plane, but Lee Roy Jordan knocked the ball from his hands, and Anderson had to retrieve it on the other side.
- Officials could not use whistles to stop play. They froze.

- ► The team canceled marching-band performances after noticing blood on a few of the musician's faces.
- ► Packers fans several times during the contest leaned over the front row to unplug the Cowboys' heated benches
- After the game, several fans passed out soon after warming up. Their thawed systems finally registered the alcohol they'd consumed to keep warm during the game.
- One fan, an elderly gentleman, died due to exposure.

Dallas' late 74-yard touchdown drive ended all Green Bay comeback hopes, in front of 63.972 fans.

The Packers pulled to within four, 30-26, when Mark Lee returned a fourth-quarter interception 22 yards for a touchdown. Green Bay in the second half rolled up 363 yards total offense and outscored Dallas, 19-17. But despite a (then) team-record 466 overall yards, Green Bay couldn't overcome a slow start and a 20-7 halftime deficit.

Lynn Dickey threw for a (then) team playoff-record 332 yards (19 of 36). Split end James Lofton emerged with 109 yards on five receptions and spiced the Packers' second-half comeback by taking a reverse 71 yards for a TD, matching the NFL's longest postseason run from scrimmage (since broken).

The Cowboys' Dennis Thurman intercepted three passes, returning one 39 yards for a touchdown and another to end the Packers' last-gasp possession in the fourth quarter.

1994 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Dec. 31 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Spurred by a classic defensive performance, the Packers outlasted Detroit in Green Bay's first home playoff game since 1982. Coordinator Fritz Shurmur held the NFL's leading rusher, Barry Sanders, to a career-low minus-1 yard, on 13 attempts, and limited the Lions collectively on the ground to minus-4 yards — erasing a 31-year-old league playoff record, one that still stands today.

Brett Favre directed several long drives, including a 76-yard excursion on the game's opening series, capped by a 3-yard touch-down run by Dorsey Levens. Green Bay, who controlled the ball for 37-plus minutes, played turnover-free throughout, entertaining the 58,125 fans. Chris Jacke added three field goals, including a Packers postseason-record 51-yarder.

The Lions pulled to within 13-10 in the fourth quarter, on Dave Krieg's 3-yard touchdown pass to Brett Perriman, and reached the Packers' 11-yard line on their final drive in the game's closing moments. But the Green Bay defense stiffened, recapturing the ball on downs, before Packers punter Craig Hehrtrich took an intentional safety to run out the day's final seven seconds.

Utilizing a balanced offensive attack, including Edgar Bennett's (then) franchise playoff-record 108 rushing yards, Green Bay toppled the Falcons on a foggy, 30-degree afternoon. The Packers had earned their first NFC Central crown in 23 years.

Jeff George's 65-yard touchdown pass to Eric Metcalf gave Atlanta a 7-0 edge three minutes into the game and stunned the crowd of 60,453. But the Packers quickly regained control, scoring two first-quarter TDs.

Green Bay broke open the game midway through the second period, when rookie Antonio Freeman became the first Packers player to return a kick for a postseason touchdown, taking a punt back 76 yards. Then, with less than one minute left in the first half, Mark Chmura caught a 2-yard touchdown from Brett Favre, capping a 14-play, 85-yard drive, extending the lead to 27-10.

Favre's third TD toss — a perfect, lofting spiral to Dorsey Levens with just under eight minutes left - cemented the issue. Favre completed passes to nine receivers, while Bennett averaged 4.5 yards on the ground, with one TD, on 24 attempts

PACKERS 27, SAN FRANCISCO 17

1995 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 6, 1996, at 3Com Park, San Francisco Physically menacing the 49ers offense, Green Bay shocked the defending Super Bowl champions and advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time.

The victory, especially sweet for San Francisco native Mike Holmgren, marked the coach's first game against the club that launched his pro coaching career

After the Niners blocked a field goal to end Green Bay's opening drive, the Packers defense set the tone for the rest of the game. On San Francisco's first play, Wayne Simmons drilled fullback Adam Walker on a screen pass, forcing a fumble that rookie Craig Newsome returned 31 yards for the day's first points. The Packers then mounted 62- and 72-yard scoring drives on their next two possessions; Brett Favre's touchdown passes to Keith Jackson and Mark Chmura, respectively, gave Green Bay a 21-0 second-quarter

Favre, the NFL's MVP, completed 21-of-28 passes (75 percent), while Jackson, whose two long receptions over the middle set up Packers scores, caught four for 101 yards. Robert Brooks' four catches totaled 103 yards.

The Packers defense forced four turnovers and battered Steve Young all afternoon, with three sacks and countless knockdowns, forcing him to attempt an NFL playoff-record 65 passes in a futile comeback bid. Meanwhile, San Francisco's receiver nonpareil, Jerry Rice, made 11 receptions but had few yards after the catch.

Green Bay posted the only road victory by an NFC team in the divisional playoffs from 1990-99.

Jan. 14, 1996, at Texas Stadium, Irving Green Bay, one win from its first Super Bowl in 28 years, held a fourth-quarter lead before succumbing to the offensive firepower of the eventual league champions. Emmitt Smith (35-150), behind his massive offensive line, rushed for three touchdowns, ending the Packers' season at Texas Stadium for the third straight year.

After the Packers converted a blocked punt into a field goal, Troy Aikman threw two TD passes to Michael Irvin. Brett Favre answered with two scores of his own - at the time a team postseason-record 73-yard pass to Robert Brooks and a Keith Jackson connection — to vault Green Bay into the lead, 17-14. Dallas added 10 points before halftime, though, to go up 24-17.

Green Bay got the second half's first 10 points, including Favre's 1-yard touchdown pass to Brooks, and held a 27-24 lead at the end of three quarters.

But Smith's talents glistened in the fourth guarter. His two rushing TDs - sandwiched around Larry Brown's drive-killing interception in Dallas territory - gave the Cowboys their third Super Bowl appearance in four years.

1996 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 4, 1997, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Jump-started by their special teams, specifically two punt returns by Desmond Howard, the Packers took the first step toward an eventual berth in Super Bowl XXXI by eliminating the 49ers for a second straight year. With rain since early morning on a cold and dreary day, the field offered less-than-ideal footing, and deteriorated into a quagmire by game's end. Despite the weather, 60,787 spectators (three no-shows) still showed up.

After the 49ers went three-and-out on their first drive, Howard weaved his way through several defenders for a 71-yard touchdown just 2:15 into the game. Then, midway through the first quarter, Howard broke free on a second punt return, traveling 46 yards before San Francisco tripped him up at its 7. Moments later, Brett Favre hit Andre Rison on a 4-yard touchdown pass to give Green Bay a 14-0 advantage.

After an Edgar Bennett TD, the 49ers converted two Green Bay special-teams miscues into 14 points, bringing the game back within reach. First, a San Francisco punt bounced off Chris Hayes' leg and the 49ers recovered at the Green Bay 26, setting up a Terry Kirby touchdown catch. Then, when the Packers failed to field a short kickoff to open the second half, San Francisco recovered at the Green Bay 4, and, on the next play, Elvis Grbac's naked bootleg trimmed the Packers' lead to 21-14.

To their credit, the Packers stormed back on their next possession, going 72 yards in 12 plays, a drive capped when Antonio Freeman recovered Bennett's fumble in the end zone.

Neither team gained many yards in the sloppy conditions. Green Bay racked up only 210 yards, including a club postseason-low 71 passing. Bennett was the Packers' workhorse, running for 80 yards and two touchdowns on 17 carries. Steve Young's broken ribs, suffered one week earlier, forced him out after two series and San Francisco managed just 196 total yards.

PACKERS 30, CAROLINA 13

1996 NFC Championship

Jan. 12, 1997, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay The Packers overcame two early deficits to defeat upstart Carolina and earn a berth to their first Super Bowl in 29 years, largely on the strength of Dorsey Levens' 205 yards of offense. It was the first title game in Green Bay since the legendary 1967 "Ice Bowl."

Not quite 10 minutes into the game, linebacker Sam Mills intercepted Brett Favre deep in Green Bay territory, setting up Kerry Collins' 3-yard TD toss to Howard Griffith.

On the first snap of the second quarter, Levens evened the score, out-jumping Carolina's Eric Davis at the right edge of the end zone on a 29-yard touchdown reception. The previous play, Levens had rushed for 35 yards on third-and-1.

Carolina converted a Favre fumble, near midfield, into a field goal, but the Packers stormed back with 10 points in the final minute of the first half. Favre connected with Antonio Freeman for a touchdown on a 6-yard fade with 48 seconds remaining, capping a 15-play, 71-yard drive. When the Panthers then attempted to move down field, rookie Tyrone Williams made a diving interception at the Packers' 38, which Chris Jacke turned into a 31-yard field goal 10 seconds before halftime.

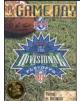

Late in the third quarter, Edgar Bennett strolled untouched through the middle on a 4-vard touchdown, giving Green Bay a 27-13 lead. Levens set up the score on the previous play, going 66 yards down the right sideline on a perfectly executed screen.

Green Bay put up 479 net yards, a (then) team playoff record. It churned out 201 rushing yards (99 on Bennett's 25 carries, 88 on only 10 attempts by Levens). Levens also made five receptions for 117 yards, and Favre completed 19-of-29 for 292 yards.

While the weather certainly was cold - 3 degrees with a minus-17 wind chill — the storyline before the game was the field, ravaged against San Francisco the previous week, when rainy conditions turned it into a mud pit. The Packers installed an all-new surface days prior to the game, with sod trucked in from Maryland on more than two dozen semis

The George S. Halas Trophy, symbolic of the National Football Conference Championship, was presented to president Bob Harlan, general manager Ron Wolf and head coach Mike Holmgren in an on-field ceremony following the game.

In a hard-fought, defensive struggle much like their two earlier meetings during the regular season — the Packers' offensive superiority overwhelmed the Bucs on a gray day. Dorsey Levens' (then) team playoffrecord 112 rushing yards helped Green Bay maintain control

The Packers foiled three first-half fieldgoal opportunties. On the first, Bob Kuberski surged up the middle to block Micheal Husted's 43-yard attempt. On the second, Keith McKenzie stuffed Tampa Bay's fake field goal for no gain. Then, on the third, Bucs long snapper Dave Moore sailed the ball over holder Steve Walsh's head.

After Kuberski's block, Brett Favre moved 67 yards for the team's first score, a touchdown pass to Mark Chmura, Rookie Ryan Longwell then hit two field goals, the second set up by a Tyrone Williams interception in Bucs territory.

Tampa Bay, making its first playoff appearance in 15 years, got its only points after intercepting Favre and driving 94 yards for a Mike Alstott touchdown. But the Packers kept the Bucs at arm's length, when Levens, who had 88 yards after halftime, punched in a short touchdown run early in the fourth quarter and Favre converted a two-point conversion on a quarterback draw.

Warren Sapp forced two fumbles and sacked Favre three times. The two combatants openly jawed throughout the contest in an intriguing sideshow.

PACKERS 23, SAN FRANCISCO 10 1997 NFC Championship

Jan. 11, 1998, at 3Com Park, San Francisco
Green Bay, in its third straight NFC Championship, never allowed the 49ers to get started and advanced to a second consecutive Super Bowl. In the process, the Packers purged San Francisco for a third straight year, the second time at 3Com.

From the outset, on a rain-swept afternoon, the Packers were able to pick on San Francisco's cornerbacks, moving 76 yards on their first possession. Early in the second quarter, Eugene Robinson stepped in front of a Steve Young pass and weaved across the field 58 yards to the 49ers' 28. Two plays later, Antonio Freeman caught a short slant from Brett Favre, cut back against the grain and broke several tackles for a 27-yard touchdown, and a 10-0 Green Bay lead.

Late in the opening half, the 49ers had to settle for a field goal after three straight incompletions from the Green Bay 10. Then, in the waning seconds, Favre connected with Freeman on a 40-yard bomb, to set up the half's final play, Ryan Longwell's 43-yard field goal, against a difficult wind.

Longwell, who attended nearby Cal one season earlier and had been released by the 49ers just before training camp, added his third field goal midway through the fourth quarter, giving Green Bay a more comfortable 13-point lead.

The Packers' defense, which held San Francisco to just 33 rushing yards on 18 overall carries, sacked Young in the fourth quarter four times, twice by Keith McKenzie. When Green Bay sacked Young on fourth down at his own 11 with just under four minutes remaining, the Packers quickly capitalized, scoring after two Dorsey Levens runs.

Levens broke his own, week-old (then) franchise playoff record with 114 rushing yards — the first 100-yard effort allowed by the 49ers during the '97 season — and again did much of his work in the second half. Freeman totaled 107 yards on four catches, and punter Craig Hentrich helped Green Bay to handily win the field-position battle, depositing all five of his punts inside the 49ers' 20.

Following Levens' score, the Niners' Chuck Levy returned the kickoff 95 yards for San Francisco's lone touchdown, with 2:52 left in the game.

On the field after the game, with a smattering of fans remaining, the George S. Halas Trophy, representative of the National Football Conference Championship, was handed over to the rain-soaked trio of president Bob Harlan, general manager Ron Wolf and head coach Mike Holmgren

1998 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 3, 1999, at 3Com Park, San Francisco
Steve Young's touchdown pass to Terrell Owens, in between four defenders with three seconds remaining, ended the Packers' season. The 49ers ended their five-game Green Bay losing streak, a stretch that covered four years, including elimination from the 199597 playoffs. The Packers, in the postseason for a team-record sixth consecutive year, went winless in the playoffs for the first time in the span.

But Young drove 76 yards in the final two minutes, culminating in his game-winning, 25-yard bullet to Owens, who had dropped several passes. Earlier during the controversial drive, rookie Scott McGarrahan appeared to strip Jerry Rice at the Green Bay 41, and Bernardo Harris recovered, but officials ruled Rice down.

Strong running games bolstered both teams. Garrison Hearst ran for 128 of the 49ers' 178 rushing yards, while Dorsey Levens broke his own (then) team playoff rushing mark with 116 yards. Greg Clark's two TD catches each came after Green Bay turnovers. Favre threw for 292 yards and two touchdowns, both to Freeman.

Two Packers icons — all-time sacks leader and future Hall of Famer Reggie White, and head coach Mike Holmgren — saw their Green Bay careers end. Holmgren, 84-42 overall in seven Packers seasons, became the Seahawks' executive VP of football operations/general manager and head coach five days later.

2001 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 13, 2002, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay Brett Favre orchestrated four second-half scoring drives, while Mike McKenzie and Tyrone Williams collaborated on a gameturning fourth-quarter interception as Green Bay ended the 49ers' season, 25-15. The win improved Green Bay's all-time record in home postseason contests to 13-0, including 11-0 at Lambeau Field.

Before the 1970 merger expanded the playoff system, NFL teams tied atop their division were pitted in single games for rights to attend the league championship. The Packers played two such games, losing to the Bears in 1941 and defeating the Colts in 1965.

Favre lobbied with coaches at halftime to open up the passing game, then threw for 226 of his 269 yards in the final two quarters, steering Green Bay back from a 7-6 deficit. Led by Favre, Green Bay in the second half produced points on four of its first five possessions. The quarterback engineered marches of 72, 81, 49 and 93 yards, fighting off a 49ers rally that had tied the contest, 15-15, with 12 minutes left in regulation.

McKenzie halted an ominous Niners drive halfway through the fourth quarter. The cornerback batted an underthrown pass, like a volleyball, into the hands of a nearby Williams at the Packers' 7. McKenzie had broken up another potential Terrell Owens score earlier in the fourth. After the pick, the Packers drove 93 yards to extend their lead, on Ahman Green's 9-yard TD run.

Inspired by the return of injured starters Nate Wayne and Gilbert Brown, the Packers also held the league's No. 2 rushing offense to only 71 yards on the ground. Brown recorded his first sack since 1997 on the game's first play from scrimmage. Cletidus Hunt kept the Niners off the scoreboard early when he blocked a Jose Cortez field noal attempt in the second quarter.

ST. LOUIS 45, PACKERS 17

2001 NFC Divisional Playoff Jan. 20, 2002, at Dome at America's Center

St. Louis parlayed eight Green Bay turnovers into 35 points, and ended an outstanding Packers season, 45-17. The Packers suffered the largest margin of defeat in team postseason history.

Brett Favre, in his 16th career postseason game, matched an NFL playoff record with six interceptions. St. Louis returned three INTs for touchdowns, and four of the six picks were tipped either at the line of scrimmage or by the intended receiver. The timing of the first three interceptions combined to but the dame out of reach.

Favre's initial interception, early in the first quarter, was a read miscommunication with Bill Schroeder, and Aeneas Williams raced 29 yards for the day's first points. Favre answered by marching 65 yards in five plays, getting a great effort from Antonio Freeman on a 22-yard TD pass, to tie the game, 7-7.

But with St. Louis up 14-7 in the second period, Kim Herring picked off Favre and returned it 45 yards to the Green Bay 4. Two plays later, Kurt Warner hit James Hodgins on a 4-yard pass to extend the Rams' lead.

The third interception, in the third quarter, all but sealed the win. Tommy Polley grabbed a pass deflected by Grant Wistrom and sprinted 34 yards for a TD, creating a 31-10 St. Louis advantage.

Lost in the eight turnovers, which doubled the Packers' previous 2001 season high, was a strong effort by the Green Bay defense, which limited the league's best offense to its lowest yardage in 21 games. The Packers gave up only two big plays — a 38-yard run by Marshall Faulk late in the first quarter and a 50-yard pass from Warner to Torry Holt. Green Bay also held St. Louis to 13 first downs, its lowest total since the Rams began their offensive explosion in 1000

The Packers saw a penalty nullify a 95-yard kickoff return, which would have cut the Rams' lead to 21-14 in the second quarter.

2002 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 4, 2003, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay Undaunted by the storied stadium where his own coach, Dan Reeves, lost in the "lce Bowl" 35 years before, Michael Vick led Atlanta to a shocking upset before 65,358.

The Packers, the NFL's only 8-0 home team in 2002, had never lost a home playoff (13-0). Brett Favre was without Pro Bowl back Ahman Green (knee) and top receivers Donald Driver (shoulder) and Terry Glenn (concussion) in a futile second-half comeback attempt.

The NFC North champion Packers, who tied for the league's best record and just one week prior had a shot at the NFC home-field advantage, began their offseason much sooner than expected.

Green Bay, without top defender and Pro Bowl safety Darren Sharper (knee), even got a snowstorm but still couldn't corral any momentum. After a Vick touchdown pass gave the Falcons a quick 7-0 lead, Mark Simoneau beat the Packers' protection and blocked Josh Bidwell's punt near Green Bay's end zone. Artie Ulmer smothered the ball for another Atlanta touchdown. Then, Kevin McCadam pushed Tyrone Williams into Green Bay returner Eric Metcalf, and George Layne recovered the muffed punt. Four plays later, T.J. Duckett's TD made it 21-0. The fervent Falcons also stopped the Packers with a goal-line stand.

Favre, who had two interceptions and a fumble, hit Driver with a 14-yard touchdown on the first drive after halftime, but Driver reinjured his dislocated shoulder on the play. It was the 13th straight playoff game in which Favre threw a touchdown pass, tying Dan Marino's NFL record.

down to win an overtime playoff in NFL history. Once he got to the end zone, his teammates tackled him, setting off a wild celebration. Harris answered with a lap around the stadium.

Seattle had tied it with 51 seconds remaining on Shaun Alexander's third 1-yard touchdown run. Then, Packers kicker Ryan Longwell was short on a 47-yard field goal attempt as regulation time expired. Seattle won the coin toss, and quarterback Matt Hasselbeck told the official, "We want the ball, and we're going to score." The Seahawks got the ball, but punted. After Seattle got the ball back, it was Harris who scored on the game's only turnover.

Favre, as usual, thrived in the cold. He set an NFL record by throwing for a touchdown in a 14th straight playoff game and rallied the Packers to a 27-20 lead.

Early on, the Seahawks — who lost 35-13 in Green Bay the prior October — shut down Ahman Green, who rushed for 1,883 yards in the regular season. But he came on late, particularly on shortyardage plays. After falling behind 20-13, Green Bay covered 60 yards in 12 plays. Green converted a fourth-and-1 from the 3 before surging into the end zone to tie it with 10:01 left.

Early in overtime, replay helped the Seahawks when Alex Bannister was ruled to have fumbled. But a video review overturned the call, to cascading boos. The game was even on key calls — and in just about every other way. In the first half, Hasselbeck tried to stop his passing motion and lost the ball at the Green Bay 17. Nick Barnett retrieved it and ran for a touchdown, but Seattle head coach Mike Holmgren challenged the call and won.

Javon Walker's 44-yard reception led to Favre's playoff TD record. His 23-yard laser found Bubba Franks at the goal line as defender Damien Robinson fell down. Favre, who threw for 319 yards, was tied with former Dolphins star Dan Marino for the record of 13 straight games.

Longwell's 27-yarder made it 13-6 at halftime, but Seattle tied it with a 75-yard drive to open the second half. Alexander ran in from the 1 on fourth down after left guard Steve Hutchinson caught a deflected pass on the previous play.

Favre moved into third place in career playoff completions (364) and touchdown passes (31), ahead of John Flway

PHILADELPHIA 20, PACKERS 17 (OT) 2003 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 11, 2004, at Lincoln Financial Field, Phi.

Brian Dawkins' overtime interception set up David Akers' winning field goal, but the Eagles really advanced to the NFC title game thanks to Donovan McNabb.

thanks to Donovan McNabb.

With the Eagles trailing 17-14 and 1:12 left in regulation, he breathed life into his team with a 28-yard completion to Freddie Mitchell on a fourth-and-26. That, in turn, led to a 37-yard field goal by Akers that sent the game into overtime. McNabb threw for 248 yards and two TDs, and rushed for 107 yards.

Duce Staley had two big runs — one for 22 on the Eagles' first play of their final regulation drive and another of 11 yards in overtime to help set up the winning field goal. Staley's contribution was especially needed with the Eagles missing all-purpose running back Brian Westbrook, who scored 13 touchdowns in the regular season but sat out with a torn triceps muscle.

The Packers (11-7) had won seven of their last eight, including three straight since Brett Favre's father died just before Christmas. Green Bay became the second NFL team to play consecutive overtime playoff games, joining the 1987 Browns.

The Packers led 14-7 at halftime, but the Eagles had the momentum after stopping Ahman Green on fourth down from the 1-yard line late in the second quarter.

Green Bay scored twice in the first quarter on passes of 40 and 17 yards from Favre to Robert Ferguson, the first set up by a McNabb fumble. The Eagles countered midway through the second quarter on McNabb's 7-yard TD pass to Staley. It came one play after a 45-yard completion from McNabb to Todd Pinkston. Philadelphia tied it early in the fourth quarter when McNabb scrambled out of trouble and found Pinkston just inside the right pylon from 12 yards out.

Favre's 44-yard pass to Javon Walker set up Ryan Longwell's 21-yard field goal that gave the Packers a 17-14 lead with 10:21 left in the fourth. Favre's 180 yards passing moved him ahead of Dan Marino into third place on the career playoff yardage list.

MINNESOTA 31, PACKERS 17 2004 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 9, 2005, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay
Randy Moss caught two touchdown

Randy Moss caught two touchdown passes and the Vikings rolled to a 31-17 upset victory against the stunned Packers. Green Bay had swept the season series, including a last-second victory at the Metrodome two weeks prior to clinch the NFC North crown and the home field for this showdown at Lambeau Field.

Daunte Culpepper threw four touchdown passes and the Vikings picked off four Brett Favre passes.

Minnesota scored on its first three possessions, jumping out to a 17-0 lead in avenging two 34-31 losses to the Packers, who entered the playoffs as the NFC's hottest team.

The Packers lost Pro Bowl receiver Javon Walker and left tackle Chad Clifton to injuries, but pulled to 24-17 on Najeh Davenport's 1-yard plunge with 13:37 left. Then, two costly defensive penalties set up Culpepper's 34-yard touchdown toss to Moss, giving the Vikings a 14-point cushion with 10:18 remaining.

On the first series, Culpepper lofted the ball over Nick Barnett and Moe Williams broke a tackle, scampering 68 yards for a touchdown 1:40 into the game. After the Packers went three-and-out, the Vikings made it 14-0 on Moss's 20-yard TD catch. Antoine Winfield's interception on the next possession set up Morten Andersen's 35-yard field goal that made it 17-0.

The Packers pulled to 17-10 on Ryan Longwell's 43-yard field goal and Bubba Franks' 4-yard TD catch, and they caught a huge break when Andersen slipped on a 29-yard field goal attempt.

But Walker, who bruised his shin earlier in the second quarter and didn't play after halftime, changed his deep route and Brian Russell intercepted the pass, leading to a Nate Burleson score.

The Packers drove to the Vikings' 8, but Favre was whistled for an illegal forward pass when he scrambled and flung the ball to Walker in the end zone. Then, Longwell missed a 28-yarder.

Favre surpassed No. 2 Dan Marino and No. 3 John Elway on the all-time postseason completions and pass attempts lists, respectively. He also extended his NFL record with a TD pass in a 16th consecutive playoff game.

2007 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 12, 2008, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay In near white-out conditions that turned Lambeau into a "Winter Wonderland," the Packers overcame an early 14-0 deficit by scoring touchdowns on six consecutive possessions and easily advanced to their first NFC Championship since 1997.

Running back Rvan Grant fumbled twice in the game's first 69 seconds, setting up both of the Seahawks' early scores. But Grant bounced back to rush for 201 yards and three touchdowns, both franchise playoff records, while Brett Favre was an efficient 18-of-23 for 173 yards and three TDs. Favre's 78.26 completion percentage broke his own single-game

Green Bay playoff record.

The Packers had erased the early 14-point deficit by the end of the first quarter with scoring drives of 64 and 69 yards and then took the lead for good early in the second quarter. On the period's opening play, Atari Bigby's big hit on Seattle tight end Marcus Pollard after a short reception jarred the ball loose, and Aaron Kampman recovered at the Seahawks' 18-yard line. Three plays later, Favre found Greg Jennings on a short 2-yard lob pass for the receiver's second TD of the game to make it 21-14.

The defense limited the Seahawks to just two field goals the rest of the way, and by game's end the Packers had amassed huge advantages in total yards (408-200) and time of possession (34:00 to 26:00).

Grant compiled his 201 yards in less than 31/2 quarters, coming out of the game for good with 10 minutes left in the contest. He broke off four runs of 24 yards or longer on the day, including a memorable 43-yard scamper down the left sideline when the

N.Y. GIANTS 23, PACKERS 20 (OT) 2007 NFC Championship

Jan. 20, 2008, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay On a frigid Sunday evening that featured a game-time temperature of minus-1 and wind-chill of minus-23, Lawrence Tynes sent the Giants to the Super Bowl with a 47-yard field goal 2 minutes, 35 seconds into overtime.

The third-coldest contest in NFL championship game history was close throughout, with the Packers overcoming an early 6-0 deficit on a 90-yard touchdown pass from Brett Favre to Donald Driver in the second quarter. It marked the longest play from scrimmage in Green Bay postseason annals.

A 20-yard reception by Driver, whose 141 receiving yards rank as the third most in franchise playoff history, set up a Mason Crosby field goal to give the Packers a 10-6 halftime

The two teams traded touchdowns on three consecutive possessions in the third quarter, with Ahmad Bradshaw's 4-yard scoring run putting the Giants on top 20-17. Two plays into the fourth quarter, Favre's pass was intercepted by R.W. McQuarters near the goal line, but on the return Ryan Grant stripped the ball from McQuarters right into the hands of Mark Tauscher at the New York 19-yard line. The Packers capitalized with a game-tying field goal with 11:46 left.

The Giants had two chances to win the game in regulation, but Tynes missed field goal tries of 43 and 36 yards, the latter coming as time expired.

The Packers won the toss for overtime, but on the second play of the fifth period Favre's pass for Driver was intercepted by Corey Webster and returned to the Green Bay 34. Four plays later Tynes got a third shot at a game-winner and delivered.

ARIZONA 51, PACKERS 45 (OT)

2009 Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 10, 2010, at Univ. of Phoenix Stadium, Glendale

In the highest-scoring postseason game in NFL history, the Packers fell to the Cardinals when quarterback Aaron Rodgers was sacked by Michael Adams and fumbled the ball into the arms of Karlos Dansby, who returned it 17 yards for the gamewinning score just 1 minute, 18 seconds into overtime.

The shootout featured Green Bay playoff records of 493 total yards, 423 yards passing from Rodgers and 159 yards receiving from tight end Jermichael Finley. Rodgers also tied team postseason marks with four TD passes amd 28 completions. Arizona's Kurt Warner was even better, though, going 29-of-33 for 379 vards and five TDs.

The Packers turned the ball over on two of their first three plays from scrimmage, and the Cardinals capitalized with two touchdowns. That lead was extended to 31-10 early in the third quarter before Green Bay rallied.

The Packers scored touchdowns on five consecutive secondhalf possessions to tie the game at 45, and the contest went to overtime when Arizona kicker Neil Rackers pulled a 34-yard field goal attempt wide left with nine seconds left in regulation.

Green Bay won the coin toss and got the ball to start the extra session, but on third-and-6 from their own 24, the Packers turned the ball over for a third and fatal time.

PACKERS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The Green Bay Packers have 21 individuals in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, including Class of 2006 inductee Reggie White. The Packers' total is second only to that of the Chicago Bears, who have 26 enshrinees. The New York Giants (18), Pittsburgh Steelers (18) and Washington Redskins (18) are next.

In addition, five other players who played briefly for Green Bay — defensive end Len Ford, linebacker Ted Hendricks, quard/coach Walt Kiesling, kicker Jan Stenerud and safety Emlen Tunnell — have their busts displayed in the Hall of Fame. Biographies of the Packers' 21 HOF players follow:

Founder, player, head coach, vice president (1919-49)

Founded Packers in 1919 and served as team's only head coach through 1949 season. Also played halfback from '19 through '29, a period during which he pioneered forward pass in professional football. Led Packers to six world championships and is one of only seven coaches to record more than 200 coaching victories in the NFL (others are Don Shula, George Halas, Tom Landry, Chuck Noll, Marty Schottenheimer and Dan Reeves). Had coaching record of 212-106-21 (.667) with Packers. Also coached Chicago Cardinals (1950-51) and Washington Redskins (1952-53). Born April 9, 1898, in Green Bay. Died June 1, 1965, at age of 67. Lambeau Field named in his honor, Sept. 11, 1965.

1963 — ROBERT (CAL) HUBBARD

Tackle (1929-33, 1935)

Also played for New York Giants, Pittsburgh Pirates. A legendary athlete, he was one of pro football's first genuine giants — a massive 6-foot-5, 250-pounder who was a devastating blocker on offense and relentless pursuer on defense as a premier, two-way performer. Was an official NFL All-Pro choice in each of first three years (1931, '32, '33) such selections were made. Selected to NFL's All-50-Year Team in 1970 and to All-Time Two-Way Team in 1994. Played college football three years at Centenary College in Louisiana and one final season at Geneva in Pennsylvania. Born Oct. 31, 1900, in Keytesville, Mo. Died Oct. 17, 1977, at age of 76.

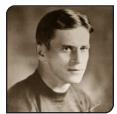

1963 — DON HUTSON

End/Defensive Back (1935-45)

Made eighth-most touchdown receptions (99) in pro football history, an all-time NFL record until broken by Steve Largent in 1989. Credited with inventing pass patterns, he led league in receiving eight years and in scoring five seasons, both also lifetime marks. Also played defensive back and placekicked. Named to NFL's All-50-Year Team in 1970, later was selected to league's 75th Anniversary and All-Time Two-Way teams in 1994. Also holds league record for most points scored in one quarter (29). Played collegiately at Alabama. Named to four Pro Bowls. Born Jan. 31, 1913, in Pine Bluff, Ark. Died June 26, 1997, at age of 84.

Also played for Milwaukee Badgers, Duluth Eskimos, Pottsville Maroons, Pittsburgh Pirates. An elusive runner and gifted pass receiver, he played a major role in Packers' drive to first three championships in 1929, '30 and '31. Also helped Packers win a fourth world title in '36. Going into 2010 season, still held 25th place in Packers lifetime scoring, over seven decades after departing Green Bay scene. with 230 points. Collegiate star at St. John's (Minn.). Born Nov. 27, 1903, in New Richmond, Wis. Died Nov. 28, 1985, at age of 82.

Fullback (1932-41)

A member of the official NFL All-Pro team four times (1936, '37, '38, '41). Incredibly versatile, he was a tough, bruising runner, fine blocker, good receiver and excellent placekicker, as well as a shrewd, hard-hitting linebacker, Sixth-ranking rusher in Packers' history entering 2010 season with 3.860 yards on 1,171 carries. Was selected to NFL's All-Time Two-Way Team in 1994. Played college football at Bucknell. Named to three Pro Bowls. Born April 10, 1909, in Toronto, Ohio. Died Nov. 9, 1988, at age

1964 — MIKE MICHALSKE

Guard (1929-35, 1937)

Also played for New York football Yankees (1927-28) before joining Packers. Rated one of game's greatest guards during pro football's "two-way" era. Two-time official NFL All-Pro selection (1931 and 1935). A true 60-minute player, he was known as "Iron Mike" because of his great stamina and durability. Best asset was exceptional quickness, which made him equally effective on both offense and defense. Played college football at Penn State. Born April 24, 1903, in Cleveland. Died Oct. 26, 1983, at age of 80.

1966 — ARNIE HERBER Quarterback (1930-40)

Also played for New York Giants (1944-45). Pro football's first great long passer. Won three NFL passing titles (1932, '34, '36) and was All-Pro selection in 1932. Teamed with Don Hutson to form NFL's first feared passing combination in mid-'30s. Ranks fifth in Packers annals with 66 career touchdown passes over his 11 seasons. Tough, durable athlete and accomplished punter as well as great passer. A Green Bay native, he played college football at Regis University (Denver). Born April 2, 1910, in Green Bay. Died Oct. 14, 1969, at age of 59.

1971 — VINCE LOMBARDI

Head Coach and General Manager (1959-67), General Manager (1968)

Also assistant coach for New York Giants (1954-58) and head coach of Washington Redskins (1969). Directed Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-62 and 1965-66-67), afeat without parallel in pro football history. His 1966 and 1967 teams also made history by winning first two Super Bowls. Packers won nine of 10 playoff games, the last nine in consecutive fashion. Under his leadership, Green Bay compiled a 98-30-4 record, a glittering .766 winning percentage, as he never had losing season. A guard, played his college football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite." Born June 11, 1913, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Died Sept. 3, 1970, at age of 57.

1974 — TONY CANADEO

Halfback (1941-44, 1946-52)

Became only the third 1,000-yard rusher in pro football history when he gained 1,052 yards in 1949. Still ranks as No. 4 ground gainer in Packers annals entering 2010 season with 4,197 yards on 1,025 attempts, a 4.1 average. A durable, all-purpose halfback, he was an accomplished blocker, capable passer and good receiver, in addition to being a highly effective kick returner. Also played defensive back during early years of his career. Played college football at Gonzaga, where he acquired nickname "Grey Ghost." Served Packers organization longer than any person in history, 59 years, including tenures on the executive committee and board of directors. Born May 5, 1919, in Chicago. Died Nov. 29, 2003, at age of 84.

1976 — JIM TAYLOR

Also played for New Orleans Saints (1967). Rushed for more than 1,000 yards five straight seasons (1960-64). Had ranked among NFL's top-20 rushers, with 8,597 yards over his 10 seasons, until displaced in 2003. Is Packers' second all-time leading ground gainer with 8,207 yards to his credit during his nine seasons in Green Bay. Had 26 career 100-yard rushing games, all in a Packers uniform (second most in team history). Played his college football at LSU. Named to five Pro Bowls. Born Sept. 20, 1935, in Baton Rouge, La.

PACKERS HALL OF FAME, GREEN BAY

The Packers Hall of Fame, which now has a new and expanded home in the Lambeau Field Atrium, owns a unique place in the history of professional football. Now in its 35th year, it was the first permanent hall of fame devoted to one team.

Founded by William L. Brault, a local loyalist and restaurateur with a deep appreciation for Packers history and tradition — as well as the intriguing vision for a team museum — it was formally dedicated on April 3, 1976, by then-President Gerald R. Ford. On Sept. 4, 2003, Bart Starr and Ron Wolf rededicated the Packers Hall of Fame, which moved into the Lambeau Field Atrium complete with a new design complemented by a variety of additional, state-of-the-art exhibits.

To date, 144 individuals — players, coaches and contributors — have been enshrined, including Mark Chmura, Marv Fleming and Greg Koch, inducted during a ceremony in July 2010.

For the record, the Hall of Fame was informally launched by Brault in 1966 as a series of exhibits displayed in the concourse of the Brown County Veterans Memorial Arena — exhibits that had to be removed each autumn to make room for the Green Bay Bobcats hockey team and its schedule. The annual induction banquets were subsequently launched in 1970 but the "Hall" did not become a permanent, year-round entity until 1976.

The Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame, Inc., is a corporation separate from the football team, organized and operated for purposes permitted for tax-exempt status under 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. All revenue is dedicated and invested only for such purposes. Donation of memorabilia is tax-deductible.

1977 — FORREST GREGG

Tackle (1956, 1958-70)

Also played for Dallas Cowboys (1971). Drafted in the second round (20th overall) in 1956. Was named All-Pro eight times (including All-Pro at both guard and tackle in 1965) and nine times to the Pro Bowl. Called by Vince Lombardi "the finest player I ever coached." Voted to NFL's 75th Anniversary Team in 1994. Held the Packers record for durability with 187 consecutive games played, until surpassed by Brett Favre in 2003. Head coach of Green Bay Packers, 1984-87. Also served as head coach of Cleveland Browns (1975-77) and Cincinnati Bengals (1980-83). Played college football at SMU. Born Oct. 18, 1933, in Birthright, Texas.

1977 — BART STARR

Quarterback (1956-71)

Drafted in 17th round in 1956. Became the winningest quarterback in football, directing the Packers to six Western Division titles, five world titles, including two Super Bowl victories, and earning MVP honors in Super Bowls I and II. Led the league in passing in 1962, 1964 and 1966, and was named to the Pro Bowl four times. Held Packers career record for most games played (196) until surpassed by Brett Favre in 2004. In 1972 he coached Packers' quarterbacks. Head coach of Green Bay Packers, 1975-83. He played college football at Alabama. Born Jan. 9, 1934, in Montgomery, Ala.

1978 — RAY NITSCHKE

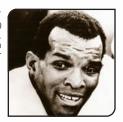

Linebacker (1958-72)

Drafted in third round in 1958 after playing fullback at Illinois. Most Valuable Player in 1962 NFL title game vs. N.Y. Giants. Named to the NFL's All-50-Year and 75th Anniversary teams. All-Pro in 1964, 1965 and 1966; Pro Bowl selection in 1964. Played in third-most games (190) in Packers history. Had 25 career interceptions. Born Dec. 29, 1936, in Elmwood Park, III. Died March 8, 1998, at age of 61.

1980 — HERB ADDERLEY

Cornerback (1961-69)

Also played for Dallas Cowboys (1970-72). Packers' No. 1 draft choice (Michigan State) in 1961. Five-time All-Pro at cornerback, Played in five Pro Bowls, four of first six Super Bowls (two with Green Bay, two with Dallas). Had 48 career interceptions (39 with Packers); ran seven back for TDs (tied for most in Green Bay history), including three in 1965. Born June 8, 1939, in Philadelphia.

1981 — WILLIE DAVIS

Defensive End (1960-69)

Also played for Cleveland (1958-59). A 15th-round draft choice, he came to Packers from Browns in 1960 trade. Became one of premier pass rushers in pro football history, earning All-Pro honors five times and selection to Pro Bowl five times. Holds all-time Packers record for career fumble recoveries (21). Helped Packers win five NFL titles during 1960s. Played college football at Grambling. Served on Packers' board of directors from 1994-2005. Born July 24, 1934, in Lisbon, La.

MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

- ▶ On Monday Night Football for an 18th consecutive season, the Packers make one appearance in 2010.
- ➤ The Packers own the NFC's longest MNF appearance streak 18 seasons (1993-2010). In the NFL, only Denver (19, 1992-2010) now has a longer streak.
- ► Prior to the current 18-year string, Green Bay didn't appear for six straight years, 1987-92.
- ▶ Brett Favre and Robert Brooks own the MNF record for longest pass completion, a 99-yard touchdown strike at Chicago, Sept. 11, 1995 (Packers franchise record, tied NFL record).
- ► The Packers are 27-28-1 in the regular season on MNF.
- ▶ During a memorable Oct. 17, 1983, Redskins-Packers game, still the highest-scoring game in MNF history Green Bay won a 48-47 track meet. Facing the defending Super Bowl champions, the Packers prevailed in a contest featuring 11 touchdowns, 11 extra points and six field goals. Jan Stenerud's 20-yard FG with 54 seconds left decided the issue. The contest also represented the highest-scoring game in the Packers' history, surpassing Green Bay's 52-35 loss at Detroit in 1951.

- Dec. 10, 1995—Tampa Bay 13, Green Bay 10, at Tampa Bay. Buccaneers win toss. Tampa Bay drives 48 yards in seven plays; Husted kicks 47-yard field goal 3:46 into extra period.
- Oct. 14, 1996—Green Bay 23, San Francisco 20, at Green Bay. 49ers win toss. After San Francisco fails to pick up first down, Packers take over at own 44. Green Bay covers only 21 yards in six plays to reach 49ers' 35. Jacke sends his 53-yard kick the longest field goal to win an overtime game in NFL history squarely down the middle at 3:41.

Nov. 6, 2000—Green Bay 26, Minnesota 20, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. After Schroeder's 22-yard reception gets Green Bay across midfield, Freeman makes miraculous catch while flat on his back at Vikings' 15, gets up and runs past stunned Minnesota defenders for 43-yard score with 3:39 elapsed, culminating 82-yard, seven-play drive.

Monday, Nov. 6, 2000, 11:39 p.m., Vikings 20, Packers 20, Wayne Larrivee & Larry McCarren, Packers Radio Network...

Larrivee: Slot left, Freeman wide right, Green the lone back. Third down Packers, under a blitz...

McCarren: Here they come.

Larrivee: Favre pop fly to the right side, Freeman trying to adjust to it, and it's incomplete, nearly intercepted by Cris Dishman.

McCarren: Wait a second...

Larrivee: Wait a minute. Freeman picked it up. It bounced into his hands!

McCarren: It rebounded into his hands.

Larrivee: Touchdown!

McCarren: Touchdown. We win. Larrivee: Packers win. I don't believe McCarren: Wayne, it was meant to be. It was meant to be.

Larrivee: I can't believe it... Dishman thought that ball was on the ground. That ball stayed alive, Dishman tipped it and it looked like he broke it up. I thought the play was over. Freeman made the grab, took it into the end zone. Touchdown Packers! 43-yard touchdown and they win.

- Dec. 24, 2000—Green Bay 17, Tampa Bay 14, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Rossum returns kickoff 29 yards to 38. Aided by Parker's 35 yards on five carries, Green Bay drives 58 yards to Buccaneers' 4. Longwell kicks 22-yard field goal with 6:31 elapsed.
- Sept. 8, 2002—Green Bay 37, Atlanta 34, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Roughing the kicker penalty keeps Packers' first possession alive, but drive stalls at Atlanta 39. Green Bay holds Falcons to three-and-out, then marches 44 yards in seven plays (six carries and one 18-yard pass from Favre to Walker). Longwell kicks 34-yard field goal with 9:45 elapsed.
- Oct. 12, 2003—Kansas City 40, Green Bay 34, at Green Bay. Chiefs win toss. Kansas City drives 41 yards to Green Bay 30, where Hunt blocks Andersen's 48-yard field-goal attempt. On next play, Ahman Green blasts into Kansas City territory but fumbles, recovered by Kansas City at Chiefs' 49. Then, on ensuing play, Trent Green hits streaking Kennison for a 51-yard touchdown up right sideline with 8:50 left on the clock
- Dec. 11, 2005—Green Bay 16, Detroit 13, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Favre orchestrates 10-play, 56-yard drive, the only possession of the extra period. Packers enter Detroit territory after 15-yard unnecessary roughness call. Longwell nails 28-yard field goal with 9:47 left on the clock.
- Oct. 29, 2007—Green Bay 19, Denver 13, at Denver. Packers win toss. On first snap, Favre heaves a pass off play-action deep down left sideline to Jennings, who has a step on Bly. Jennings catches pass in stride and strolls into end zone untouched for game-winning, 82-yard TD with just 16 seconds elapsed in extra period.

- Nov. 2, 2008—Tennessee 19, Green Bay 16, at Tennessee. Titans win toss. On the only possession of overtime, Tennessee drives 55 yards on 10 plays to set up Bironas, who missed a 47-yard attempt at the end of regulation. This one, from 41 yards out, is good with 9:36 left on the clock.
- Dec. 22, 2008—Chicago 20, Green Bay 17, at Chicago. Bears win toss. In frigid conditions, Chicago scored on the only possession of the extra frame after a seven-play, 47-yard drive. Long completions to Olsen and Forte set up Gould's 38-yard field goal at 3:32.

POSTSEASON

- Dec. 26, 1965—Green Bay 13, Baltimore Colts 10, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Moore returns kickoff to Packers' 22. Chandler punts and Haymond returns 9 yards to Colts' 41. Gilburg punts and Wood makes fair catch at Packers' 21. Chandler punts and Haymond returns 1 yard to Colts' 41. Michaels misses 47-yard field goal. Bratkowski, in relief of Starr (injured on game's first play from scrimmage), orchestrates 10-play, 62-yard drive, including 18-yard passes to Anderson and Dale, to penetrate Colts' 20. Chandler's towering kick is good from 25 yards at 13:39. Packers in following week win first of three straight NFL championships (1965-67). Chandler's controversial first field goal, sending contest into OT, sails high above right upright. NFL raises goalposts following season.
- Jan. 4, 2004—Green Bay 33, Seattle 27, at Green Bay. Seahawks win toss. Morris returns kickoff to 33. On third play, Hawthorne recovers Bannister fumble at Seattle 43, but Holmgren's replay challenge reverses call. Seahawks hold Packers to three-and-out, then drive to midfield. Then, with Green Bay on an all-out blitz, Harris steps in front of quick Hasselbeck pass to the left and returns interception 52 yards for touchdown. Packers win first NFL postseason overtime game decided by defensive touchdown.
- Jan. 11, 2004—Philadelphia 20, Green Bay 17, at Philadelphia. Eagles win toss. Thrash returns kickoff to 28. Packers hold Eagles to three-and-out on first possession. On first Green Bay snap, in the face of a heavy Philadelphia blitz, Favre and intended receiver Walker miscommunicate on deep pass, and Dawkins returns interception 35 yards to Packers' 34. Six plays later, Akers kicks 31-yard field goal. Packers become second team in NFL history to play consecutive overtime playoff games (1986 Cleveland Browns).
- Jan. 20, 2008—New York Giants 23, Green Bay 20, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Robinson returns kickoff to 26. On second-and-8, Favre's pass for Driver intercepted by Webster and returned 9 yards to Green Bay 34-yard line. After two Bradshaw carries gain 5 yards, Manning throws incomplete on third down. Tynes, who missed field goal tries of 43 and 36 yards late in the fourth quarter, hits 47-yard field goal with 2:35 elapsed.
- Jan. 10, 2010—Arizona Cardinals 51, Green Bay 45, at Arizona. Packers win toss. On third-and-6 from Green Bay 24, Rodgers is sacked and stripped by Adams. Ball is knocked loose, deflecting off Rodgers' foot and into arms of Dansby, who returns fumble 17 yards for touchdown with 1:18 elapsed.

THE SHRINE GAME

- Green Bay plays host to the Cleveland Browns Aug. 14 in the 61st annual Upper Midwest Shrine Game, one of the NFL's longest team traditions.
- ► Each season, the Packers donate a percentage of the gate to the Shriners' Hospitals for Children.
- The Shriners' facilities provide specialized medical services, helping children with birth defects and other injuries, at absolutely no cost.
- To date, the series has raised more than $3.1 million for the Midwest Shrine's burn centers and hospitals for crippled children.

THE BISHOP'S CHARITIES GAME

- ► In 1961, the Diocese of Green Bay approached Vince Lombardi about playing a second charitable contest in Green Bay (the Shrine game was already a fixture in Milwaukee).
- ▶ Lombardi, a devout Catholic, agreed to the contest. The original contract gave the Packers, their opponent and the church each one-third of the gate receipts.
- ▶ During the 1970s, the Packers and the church changed the contract so the Diocese would receive a flat donation, rather than a percentage.
- ► For more than 30 years, the church handled much of the game's business-related tasks, including game program and advertising sales, using a network of volunteers covering 14 Northeastern Wisconsin counties. The Packers assumed many of those tasks beginning in 1994.
- ► To date, the series has raised over $3.4 million.
- ► In 2010, the Packers host the Indianapolis Colts on Aug. 26 in the 50th annual contest.

BIRTH OF A TEAM, AND A LEGEND

On Aug. 11, 1919, a score or more husky young athletes, called together by Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun, gathered in the dingy editorial room of the old Green Bay Press-Gazette building on Cherry Street and organized a football team. They didn't know it, but that was the beginning of the incredible saga of the Green Bay Packers.

Lambeau and Calhoun struck the initial spark a few weeks before, during a casual street-corner conversation. It was apparently a "Why not get up a football team?" remark, but once they were interested, they wasted no time.

First they talked Lambeau's employer - a war-time industry called the Indian Packing Company, where he worked as a shipping clerk for $250/month — into putting up money for jerseys.

Because the company provided jerseys and permitted the use of its athletic field for practice, the club was identified in its early publicity as a project of the company. With this tie-in, the name "Packers" was a natural, and Packers they have been ever since, although the Indian Packing Company had practically faded out of the picture before that first season was half over.

The first season the team won 10 and lost only one, against foes from Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. Games were played in an open field with no fences or bleachers, and interested fans "passed the hat." But the team was so successful by 1921 that Lambeau was backed by two officials of the packing plant in obtaining a franchise (Aug. 27, 1921) in the new national pro football league that had been formed in 1920. Cash customers didn't quite pay the freight and the team had to be forfeited at year's end.

This was the first in a long series of troubles that the now famous team overcame, for in 1922 Lambeau gained other backers and bought the franchise back for $250, including $50 of his own money. Troubles continued during that season. One game was rained out and the insurance company wouldn't pay off because the official amount of rain was one one-hundredth of an inch short of that required in the policy.

However, another storm late in the season, when the Packers were scheduled to play the Duluth Kelleys, threatened to throw Lambeau further into debt. But A.B. Turnbull, Green Bay Press-Gazette general manager, advanced Lambeau the Duluth guarantee. He then lobbied town businessmen ("The Hungry Five") behind the team, and formed the Green Bay Football Corporation.

From those modest and somewhat tenuous beginnings, the Packers have gone on to earn national stature and virtual worldwide recognition by winning more championships (12) over the intervening 80-plus years than any team in pro football.

These achievements, while representing a town of approximately 100,000 in competition with the country's largest markets, have endeared the Packers to the nation. The David vs. Goliath concept and the team's unique status as a publicly owned corporation have intrigued generations.

The Packers' colorful saga spans 90 years from the "Iron Man" period of the first decade under founder Lambeau, to the present day, which finds Mike McCarthy presiding as the team's 14th head coach.

THE HUTSON

Trouble flared again in 1934, when a fan fell from the stands, sued and won a $5,000 verdict. After their insurance company went bankrupt, the Packers went into receivership and were just about to fold when Green Bay businessmen came to the rescue again, raised $15,000 in new capital and reorganized the club.

About this time (1935), a rather slight, lanky end by the name of Don Hutson came to the club. He actually signed two contracts, with Green Bay and the Brooklyn Dodgers. But commissioner Joe Carr awarded Hutson to the Packers, because Green Bay's postmark was earlier.

From his first game on, Hutson became the terror of the league and the secret of Green Bay's next three championships. His arrival and corresponding attendance increases allowed the team to buy

MEN WHO INFLUENCED THE PACKERS' INFANCY

- ▶George Whitney Calhoun, sports editor, Green Bay Press Gazette; team manager, publicist and traveling secretary from 1919-47; used paper to personally target and recruit local athletes for first gathering in 1919, and to draw fans to game during financially shaky early seasons. Passed his hat along sidelines at Hagemeister Park to raise money for team.
- ►Earl "Curly" Lambeau, founder and first team captain; persuaded employers to purchase equipment and join American Professional Football Association (became NFL); starred as player from 1921-29; coached team for 31 seasons.
- ► Frank Peck, Lambeau's boss at Indian Packing Company, handed team $500 for first uniforms and equipment
- ► John Clair, chairman, Acme Packing Company, bought team and Indian Packing Company in 1919; convinced by Lambeau to apply for franchise in new American Professional Football Association (NFL); forfeited financially unstable team after 1921 season
- ▶Don Murphy, Lambeau's friend; drove to Canton and 1922 league meeting with Lambeau, who wanted to re-enter league (NFL banished franchise for using active college players in 1921); upon arrival, Murphy sold his Marmon Roadster for $1,500, gave $200 to Lambeau to meet most of $250 re-entry fee (Lambeau chipped in $50 of own money), and used some of the rest to buy Green Bay train tickets. In return, Lambeau allowed Murphy to play in one game (he covered on season's first non-league kickoff at Duluth, Sept. 24)
- Andrew B. Turnbull, general manager, Green Bay Press-Gazette; first president of Packers corporation; kept team afloat in 1922, then rallied local businessmen to purchase stock and turn Packers into non-profit corporation in August 1923.

THE FIRST GAME

The Packers played independently from 1919-20. After joining the American Professional Football Association (renamed NFL in 1922), they played their first official league game Oct. 23, 1921, a 7-6 win over the Minneapolis Marines at Green Bay's Hagemeister Park.

With about six minutes left in the fourth quarter, the Marines muffed Cub Buck's punt, and Dave Hayes recovered at the Minneapolis 35. Three plays later, with the crowd chanting Throw a forward," Curly Lambeau hit Buff Wagner for 18 yards. The franchise's first completion, the play set up Art Schmael's 4-yard touchdown run. Lambeau's extra point, with Buck holding, gave the Packers their first win.

itself out of receivership in 1935. With Herber and Cecil Isbell passing and Hutson catching anything they threw at him, despite any kind of a stop-Hutson defense. Green Bay won championships in 1936, 1939 and 1944

After Hutson's retirement, Packer fortunes again declined. The disastrous pro football war, between the NFL and the new All-America Football Conference, brought on another financial crisis after the 1949 season. From 1946-48, the financially strapped Packers lost two of their three No. 1 draft choices to the AAFC, unable to bid with the rival league. Desperate for new income, the Packers held an old-timers' game and intra-squad scrimmage on Thanksgiving Day, 1949, and raised $50,000.

In the midst of the turbulent times, Lambeau lost an internal power struggle - which ultimately began when he used $25,000 to purchase Rockwood Lodge for training camp. Lambeau resigned, Jan. 31, 1950, ending his 31-year run in Green Bay, to become the Chicago Cardinals' head coach.

RONZANI REGIME

To replace Lambeau, the Packers hired Gene Ronzani of the Bears, the most significant step in yet another major reorganization and rebuilding effort. Nearly $125,000 was raised in a giant 1950 stock sale all over the state. Under Ronzani, Green Bay's best season was 1952; the Packers were in the thick of the title chase until the season's last weeks. In 1953, the team played erratic ball and Ronzani resigned with two games remaining.

Before he departed, though, Ronzani hired Jack Vainisi as fulltime talent scout. Vainisi would receive credit for discovering the six Packers Hall of Famers drafted from 1953-58: C Jim Ringo, T Forrest Gregg, QB Bart Starr, HB Paul Hornung, FB Jim Taylor and LB Ray Nitschke.

BLACKBOURN TAKES OVER

The Packers overhauled their front office and coaching staff in 1954, hiring Verne Lewellen, all-time Packers great, attorney and businessman, as general manager. Reaching into the college ranks, Green Bay named Lisle Blackbourn, of Marquette University, its third coach. The Packers were 17-31 during Blackbourn's four years (1954-57).

On April 3, 1956, voters approved a referendum to fund construction of a new stadium. The Packers dedicated the facility (renamed Lambeau Field in 1965), on Sept. 29, 1957.

McLEAN MOVES UP

Likable Ray "Scooter" McLean moved up from being an outstanding assistant coach to guide the destiny of the Packers for 1958. McLean resigned in December after a 1-10-1 record, the worst in Packers history, in his lone season as head coach.

THE LOMBARDI ERA

The Packers took their time after McLean's resignation choosing a new coach. Vainisi conducted Phase II of the 1959 draft by himself, as the team debated whether to hire a general manager as well as a coach, or one person for both positions. The search spanned from the CFL to the college ranks, and even included a GM application from Lambeau.

On. Jan. 28, when team president Dominic Olejniczak recommended to the committee a littleknown New York Giants assistant, longtime committee member John Torinus replied, "Who the hell is Vince Lombardi?'

The committee, and the world, quickly found out. Within hours after his arrival on Feb. 2, Lombardi told the committee, "I want it understood that I am in complete command here." Two days later, the Packers officially gave Lombardi both titles.

In his first season, 1959, Lombardi went 7-5, winning unanimous 'Coach of the Year' recognition. Then in 1960, the Packers captured the Western Division title, only to lose the NFL title game at Philadelphia. However, Lombardi rebounded to win world championships in 1961, '62, '65, '66, and '67.

SOLID FOOTBALL, SHAKY FINANCES, 1922-35

- ► Packers use two active Notre Dame players in non-league game against Chicago Supremes after 1921 season. Upset at teams using illegal players, league makes example of Packers, strips Green Bay of team (Jan. 28, 1922). NFL owners reinstate Packers at Canton league meeting, after Lambeau apologizes, pays $250 franchise fee, making him team's new owner.
- ► Fearing weather would scare fans in 1922, team purchases rain insurance for Oct. 8 Racine game; if official precipitation was at least .1 inches, insurance would pay Racine's guarantee; rained only .09 inches, game drew minimal attendance, and Packers are stuck with debt to opponent.
- ► On Nov. 4, 1922, with team too poor for rain insurance and fearing another sparse turnout for next day's game with Columbus, Andrew Turnbull advances Lambeau funds to pay guarantee, then after season recruits local businessmen, turns Packers into non-profit corporation in August 1923, and holds first stock sale, raising $5,000.
- Small-town Packers gain national respect, defeating mighty Giants at Polo Grounds, 7-0, Nov. 18, 1928
- Lambeau signs Johnny Blood, Cal Hubbard and Mike Michalske before 1929 season. wins three straight NFL titles (1929-31).
- Fan falls from bleachers, sues, court awards $5,000. Packers turn to their public-liability (mutual) insurance company, but it is a casualty of Great Depression; team needs additional $2,500 to settle with creditors.
- Circuit Court Judge and Packers fan Henry Graass turns team into receivership of CPA Frank Jonet, Packers stockholder who allows team to be reorganized from Green Bay Football Corporation to Green Bay Packers, Inc.
- President Lee Joannes organizes 1935 stock drive, raises $15,000, pays off all debts

His teams finished no lower than second from 1960-67 and became the standard of football excellence. In nine years, Lombardi went 98-30-4 (,766), including 9-1 in the postseason, winning his minal nine playoff names.

BENGTSON PERIOD

Following the third consecutive title in 1967, Lombardi turned over the head-coaching duties to Phil Bengtson and one year later announced that he was leaving Green Bay to become coach/GM of the Washington Redskins. Bengtson coached the Packers from 1968-70, compiling a 20-21-1 record. He resigned in December, 1970.

THE DEVINE DAYS

Dan Devine, one of the nation's three most successful college coaches, succeeded Bengtson as head coach and general manager in January 1971. After settling for a 4-8-2 record during his first year, Devine and the Packers appeared on the road to new heights when 1972 produced a 10-4 record and the team's first Central Division title since 1967. But the Packers' Super Bowl hopes dissolved in the second half of 1973 and they slipped to 5-7-2. They continued their recession in 1974, going 6-8, and Devine resigned.

THE STARR TREK

The most successful field general in pro football history, winning five world championships from 1961-67, Bart Starr accepted the challenge to lead the Packers out of the NFL wilderness, agreeing to a three-year contract as head coach and general manager, Dec. 24, 1974. Starr asked for "the prayers and patience of Packer fans everywhere...We will earn everything else."

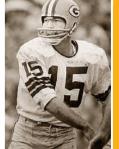

Álthough he had a 4-10 record in 1975, the baptismal season of a massive rebuilding project, Starr gave fans new hope by assembling a sound organization and restoring a positive attitude, underscored by three victories in the last five games of the '75 season. He continued the resurgence in 1976, leading the Packers to a 5-9 record, highlighted by a three-game, mid-season winning streak. Major and key injuries slowed the comeback in 1977 but a strong finish produced a 4-10 mark. Hopes soared in 1978 when the Packers posted their first winning slate since 1972, an 8-7-1 record, only to be temporarily dampened in 1979 by a record rash of injuries which spawned a 5-11 mark. Another injury epidemic, one which saw 27 players on injured reserve during the course of the season, struck in 1980, forcing the Packers to settle for a 5-10-1 record.

Rebounding strongly in 1981, they rallied from a disappointing 2-6 start to mount one of the most dramatic comebacks in team history, closing with a 6-2 rush (an 8-8 mark), one win shy of the playoffs.

The Packers continued the upsurge in 1982, when they qualified for the playoffs for the first time since 1972 by going 5-3-1 during the strike-interrupted season. They then embellished that performance by routing St. Louis 41-16 in the first round of the NFL's Super Bowl Tournament, before bowing to Dallas (37-26) despite a recordsetting, 466-yard offensive effort. Starr was relieved of his head-coaching duties Dec. 19, 1983, after the Packers finished the season 8-8 and missed the playoffs in the season's final week.

THE GREGG ERA

On Dec. 24, 1983, Forrest Gregg, a former Starr teammate and one of the premier offensive tackles in football history, became the Packers' ninth head coach. Gregg had led Cincinnati into Super Bowl XVI following the 1981 season. Gregg, whose 19-6 Cincinnati record over the 1981-82 seasons was the best in pro football, received a five-year contract.

In taking over, he declared: "I took this job to field a winning team. That will happen."

Gregg's prediction began to bear fruit in the second half of the 1984 season when the Packers rebounded from an injury-ridden 1-7 start to win seven of their last eight.

Because of injuries and other complications, however, 1985 followed the '84 script, the Packers getting off to a 3-6 start before mounting a strong finish to again close at 8-8, winning five of their last seven.

Gregg, convinced the time had come to rebuild a team that was 8-8 three straight years, and was "starting to get old," made sweeping personnel changes in 1986. The young Packers, their task complicated by injuries to key performers, got off to an 0-6 start, then began to mature in midseason and finished 4-12.

Following the 1987 season, when the club finished third in the NFC Central (5-9-1), Gregg resigned (Jan. 15, 1988) to become head coach at his alma mater, Southern Methodist University.

INFANTE SIGNS ON

Nineteen days later (Feb. 3), Cleveland Browns offensive coordinator Lindy Infante, recognized throughout the NFL as a brilliant innovator, signed a five-year contract. Plagued by turnovers and kicking problems, Infante's first team, in 1988, was 4-12, but left fans with hopes for the future by winning its last two games.

Building on that positive note, Infante in 1989 led the Packers to a 10-6 record — their best in 17 years — and within one game of the playoffs, spicing that turnabout with a league-record four one-point victories.

In 1990, subsequent high hopes for the team's first postseason berth in a non-strike year since 1972 evaporated when the Packers — with a contending, 6-5 record after 11 games — ended the year with five straight losses.

The Packers continued to decline in 1991 (4-12). New executive vice president/general manager Ron Wolf dismissed Infante Dec. 22. Green Bay had hired Wolf, Nov. 27, and gave him full football-operations authority.

FIRST QUARTERBACKS

The Green Bay Press-Gazette, in editions following the inaugural league game Oct. 23, 1921, vs. Minneapolis, listed Adolph Kliebhan as the first starting quarterback in team history. Kliebhan, however, played his only career league game that afternoon, and didn't see many plays.

While Kliebhan was the first starter, Curly Lambeau was really the team's first "field general." Lambeau would have started the Marines game had he not kept himself out after starting each of the four non-league contests. Lambeau threw both Packers passes that day. In fact, he started four of the team's remaining five games. (Art Schmael started the Packers' second game, vs. Rock Island Oct. 30, 1921; Lambeau started the last four)

Toward the end of Lambeau's playing days, he turned mainly to Red Dunn. However, Arnie Herber, who played from 1930-40 and like Lambeau hailed from Green Bay, was the team's first pure passer. Don Hutson, credited with inventing pass patterns, formed the Herber-to-Hutson combination, which terrified opponents from 1935-40.

From Lambeau to Bart Starr, Brett Favre and Aaron Rodgers, more than 125 Packers have attempted a pass, many in the 1920s when the snap usually went to the halfback, who also called the cadence.

THE HOLMGREN ERA

Wolf named Mike Holmgren, offensive architect of San Francisco's four-time Super Bowl champions, to succeed Infante, Jan. 11, 1992. Holmgren, sought by five other clubs, got a five-year contract.

In his first season, 1992, the former USC field general directed the Packers to a 9-7 record and within sight of the playoffs. He became only the third Packers head coach with a winning record in his first season, punctuated by a six-game winning streak, the team's longest since 1965.

Holmgren took his team to the playoffs in 1993 — despite losing four starters to injury. Forging a second straight 9-7 record — against a considerably more demanding schedule — Green Bay got its first playoff berth in 10 years. In the first round, the Packers came from behind in the last minute to eliminate Detroit, 28-24. They then fell at Dallas, 27-17, in the divisional round.

In 1994, the Packers registered a third consecutive 9-7 mark and second straight playoff trip — the first time that had happened since the Titletown days of the '60s. Riding a three-game winning streak into the postseason, they parlayed a record defensive performance and a turnover-free offensive effort into a 16-12 victory over Detroit — ther first home playoff game since the 1982 season — holding the incomparable Barry Sanders to minus-1 yard in 13 attempts. The Packers advanced without the services of All-Pro receiver Sterling Sharpe, whose neck injury, diagnosed after the regular-season finale, ended his brilliant Green Bay career. For a second straight year, the Packers' run ended in Dallas, 35-9.

Closing ranks with great results following Sharpe's loss, the 1995 Packers put together one of the hallmark seasons in their history. Winning six of their last seven games, they captured their first NFC Central Division crown since 1972, then made their best postseason showing in more than 28 years, forging all the way to the NFC Championship Game.

n route, they closed the regular season 11-5 — their best mark since the 1966 NFL championship club (12-2) — and followed by dispatching the Falcons, 37-20, in a first-round playoff at Lambeau Field. Building on that win, the Packers mounted one of the premier performances in their postseason history, formally dethroning the defending Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers in their own stadium, 30cm Park, 27-17. Again, however, dreams of a Super Bowl floundered in Dallas, 38-27, in the NFC title game, after the Packers led 27-24 at the end of three quarters.

Putting nearly three decades of disappointment emphatically behind, the Packers rewarded their long-patient faithful in 1996. Shunting aside eight of their first nine foes, they swept to a 13-3 record and their second straight division championship. Then, they captured their first NFL title since 1967, dispatching New England, 35-21. in Super Bowl XXXI at the Louisiana Superdome.

Displaying impressive consistency on both sides of the ball, they documented their superiority, outscoring three opponents 100-48 in a postseason sweep. Appropriately, the first two wins were before their Lambeau loyalists — a 35-14 divisional triumph over the 49ers and a 30-13 win over the upstart Carolina Panthers in the NFC title game.

In winning a 12th NFL championship, extending their own league record, the Packers joined an elite group of teams with three or more Super Bowls (Dallas, San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Oakland and Washington).

The Packers thus entered 1997 with an opportunity to win back-to-back Super Bowls for a second time — and came breathtakingly close to achieving their objective. Sweeping to a second consecutive 13-3 mark, tying a club record with 13 wins, they primed for the playoffs by ending the season with five straight wins. After a third consecutive division title, they launched their bid at Lambeau Field in workmanlike fashion, turning back Tampa Bay in the divisional playoff. 21-7. The win padded their all-time home-field postseason record to 12-0, extending the longest such winning streak in pro football his-

Forced to win on the road for a return to the utilimate game, the Packers smothered the 49ers on a soggy, rain-swept afternoon in San Francisco, 23-10. Garnering a berth in the Super Bowl, Green Bay held the Niners without an offensive touchdown.

In a see-saw affair,
Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego found the Packers trailing Denver at halftlime, 17-14. Hopes of a repeat were high, however, when quarterback Brett Favre engineered an 85-yard drive, knotting the contest, 24-24, early in the fourth quarter. But the Broncos later scored with only 1:45 remaining and a last-minute Packers drive fell short when Favre's pass for tight end Mark Chmura fell incomplete inside the Denver 20, with only 28 seconds left, sealing the Broncos' 31-24 win.

A third straight Super Bowl trip, a realistic goal at the outset, eluded the Packers in 1998, their 80th season. Historic accomplishment, however, did not, as they advanced to the playoffs for the sixth year in a row, a team record, while posting a seventh consecutive winning season. Green Bay overcame multiple injuries, including the loss of Pro Bowl running back Dorsey Levens (out nine games) and center Frank Winters (stretch run and postseason), each with a broken leg. They set another team record by stretching their Lambeau Field winning streak to 25 games - the secondlongest in NFL history - before falling to the Minnesota Vikings Oct. 5. They finished 11-5, equaling another team standard by posting a double-digit victory total for the fourth consecutive year (11-5 in 1995, 13-3 in both 1996 and 1997). The only other time Green Bay had strung together four seasons of 10-plus wins was 67 years earlier - Lambeau's triple NFL champions of 1929-32 (12-0-1 in 1929, 10-3-1 in 1930, 12-2 in 1931 and 10-3-1 in 1932).

In the wake of these considerable achievements, the Packers' season came to a dramatic and painful end in an NFC Wild Card game at San Francisco, when a 27-23 lead abruptly dissolved into a 30-27 49ers victory. Steve Young's 25-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens sealed the game with just three seconds left.

Only five days later, Holmgren resigned to become head coach and director of football operations for the Seattle Seahawks.

ROUGH RHODE(S)

Moving swiftly, Wolf tabbed Ray Rhodes, former Eagles head coach and Green Bay defensive coordinator, as the Packers' 12th head coach, Jan. 11, 1999. The Packers launched 1999 under Rhodes in breathtaking fashion, literally winning three of the first four in the last minute. Fate, however, suddenly stopped smilling as Green Bay (8-8) missed the playoffs for the first time since 1992, ending seven straight winning seasons. Saying the Packers lacked the needed toughness and fire, Wolf relieved Rhodes soon after the season finale.

THE SHERMAN TENURE

After searching more than two weeks, Wolf surprised many NFL observers by naming Mike Sherman as the Packers' 13th head coach, Jan. 18, 2000. Sherman in 2000 surmounted multiple injuries, including Favre's prolonged bout with elbow tendinitis, and finished 9-7, inches from the playoffs.

One month after a stirring finish — a four-game winning streak — Wolf retired as the team's executive vice president and general manager, Feb. 1, 2001, and president Bob Harlan quickly named Sherman to replace Wolf. Sherman became the first head coach with the GM title since Starr in 1980.

Wolf's impressive nine-year tenure included 101 total victories (including eight in the playoffs) and the NFL's best regular-season record (83-45) since the 1993 advent of free agency.

Now with full authority over football, Sherman answered in 2001 by returning the Packers to the playoffs, improving his winning percentage to .656 (21-11), best ever over a Packers coach's first two years. Behind Favre and explosive Ahman Green (1,981 yards from scrimmage), the Packers went 12-4, but couldn't grasp the division title, despite sweeping the division champion Bears. The Packers knocked off the Niners in a Wild Card playoff, but couldn't get past eventual NFC champion St. Louis.

In 2002, Green Bay overcame an injury-plagued season to tie for the league's best record, 12-4. Despite injured starters missing 63 combined games, the Packers clinched their division, the inaugural NFC North title, on Dec. 1. Favre finished two votes shy of a fourth MVP, and defensively, behind Pro Bowler Darren Sharper, the team ranked third in the NFL against the pass and led the league with 45 takeaways, six more than any other team. But Michael Vick and the Falcons became the first team ever to beat the Packers at home in the playoffs.

A return to the NFC Championship slipped painfully through the Packers' fingers in 2003. Donovan McNabb led the Eagles to a come-from-behind, 20-17 overtime win to end an emotional Packers run in the Divisional playoffs.

The loss snapped a memorable fivegame winning streak. The stretch included changes to three of the most-revederecords in Packers history (Forrest Gregg's 33-year-old consecutive-games streak, broken by Favre; Jim Taylor's 41-year-old season rushing record, Green; and Don Hutson's 58-year-old career scoring mark, Ryan Longwell). Green Bay captured an improbable division title in the last two minutes of the season, when Arizona upset Minnesota and the Lambeau Field crowd broke the news to the Packers.

Adding to the hallmark of Sherman's tenure, the Packers overcame a 1-4 start in 2004, the club's roughest since 1991, to finish 10-6 and win a third straight division title. The 9-2 stretch run featured four wins on last-second field goals by Longwell, including a 34-31 division-clinching win in Minnesota on Christmas Eve.

However, just two weeks later the same Vikings avenged the loss with a 31-17 win in a Wild Card playoff at Lambeau Field.

On Jan. 14, 2005, Harlan restructured the team's football operations, naming Ted Thompson general manager, with full authority over football decisions. Harlan said he based the decision on his belief in a preferred structure — separate individuals for the GM and head-coach positions.

Only 37 minutes into the 2005 regular season, the Packers lost leading receiver Javon Walker (knee). In the ensuing weeks, the team also lost starting halfback Green (quadricep) and several other key offensive performers, contributing to a 4-12 mark.

Following the season on Jan. 2, saying it was time for a new face to lead the team, Thompson dismissed Sherman.

THE PRESENT

Thompson underwent a grueling nine-day search to tab Mike McCarthy the franchise's 14th head coach (Jan. 12, 2006).

McCarthy guided the Packers to a resilient four-game winning streak to close his first season as head coach with an 8-8 record, keeping the team in contention for the playoffs until the final weekend of 2006, when mere percentage points dubbed the Giants the NFC's last postseason qualifier.

McCarthy was disappointed the Packers just missed the playoffs, particularly because the team was as healthy as it had been all season and was playing its best football the last month. But the NFL's youngest club carried that momentum into 2007, winning its first four games and ultimately tying the franchise record for regular-season victories with a 13-3 mark. McCarthy also tied Sherman's team mark for the most wins by a head coach in his first two seasons (21).

With Joe Philbin taking over as offensive coordinator, Ryan Grant emerging at midseason as a feature back, and Favre enjoying a brilliant final season in Green Bay, the offense finished second in the league, its highest ranking since 1983.

Grant then posted franchise playoff records of 201 rushing yards and three touchdowns in a 42-20 snow-filled NFC playoff triumph over Seattle at Lambeau, but the club's quest for a fifth

THE MOST UNIQUE TEAM IN SPORTS

- ▶ No owner (last remaining publicly owned pro sports team, 4,750,937 shares, 112,120 stockholders, none of whom receive dividend on initial investment).
- ► Team plays in major sports' smallest TV market 70th (New Orleans, 53, is closest)
- Packers have 10 playoff appearances in last 15 years, and won most NFL titles (12).
- ▶ Green Bay has 21 Pro Hall of Famers second-most in league.
- ► Team has averted four financial collapses: 1921, 1922, 1934 and 1950, each time gaining monetary support from community.
- ▶ In a century of franchise movement, only 10 other pro sports teams none in football have held same moniker in same location longer (nine baseball, one hockey).
- Only two other pro sports venues have been in continuous use longer than Lambeau Field (1957) — Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1916).

Super Bowl appearance came up agonizingly short.

In the third-coldest game in NFL championship history, with a temperature of minus-1 and wind chill of minus-23 at kickoff, Green Bay fell at home 23-20 in overtime to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship Game.

In 2008, the torch was passed to Aaron Rodgers from Favre, who retired in March with virtually every significant NFL passing record, unretired in July and was traded to the New York Jets during the first week of training camp. Rodgers became just the second quarterback in league history to pass for more than 4,000 yards in his first season as a starter, and the offense produced a 4,000-yard passer, 1,200-yard rusher (Grant) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Greg Jennings, Donald Driver) for the first time in team history.

On defense, the team set a franchise record with seven touchdowns, including six on interception returns, leading to Pro Bowl berths for three-fourths of the starting secondary in Nick Collins, Charles Woodson and Al Harris. But that wasn't enough to overcome injuries and other shortcomings on that side of the ball, and with the team losing seven games by four points or less, the final 6-10 mark was just the franchise's second losing season dating back to 1992.

That led to a series of changes on the coaching staff, most of them on defense, as McCarthy hired Dom Capers as his new defensive coordinator to institute a switch to a 3-4 scheme. The players responded faster than most predicted in 2009, climbing all the way to No. 2 in the league in yards allowed and No. 1 against the run for the first time in team history, setting a franchise record for fewest rushing yards allowed per game (83.3).

That defensive prowess was highlighted by Woodson winning NFL Defensive Player of the Year, rookie Clay Matthews leading the team in sacks, and Collins joining both as Pro Bowl honorees. Combined with another dynamic season on offense — as the quartet of Rodgers, Grant, Jennings and Driver repeated their feat of the prior year and a new franchise record for points (461) was established — the Packers won seven of their final eight regular-season games to finish 11-5 and earn an NFC Wild Card playoff berth.

Rodgers earned his first Pro Bowl nod and made a memorable postseason debut, throwing for a Green Bay postseason-record 423 yards and record-tying four TDs as he rallied the Packers from a 21-point second-half deficit. Emerging tight end Jermichael Finley also set a team playoff mark with 159 yards receiving and tied a team postseason record with nine receptions.

Ultimately the Packers came up short, however, dropping a 51-45 overtime heartbreaker in Arizona, the highest-scoring postseason game in NFL history. But the disappointment has fueled a determination and the late-season surge has sparked a genuine optimism heading into 2010.

PACKERS STORY

EARL LOUIS "CURLY" LAMBEAU

Somewhat by chance, Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun joined together in 1919 to form what is now the Green Bay Packers. Lambeau was an outstanding athlete at Green Bay East High School, and after enrolling at Notre Dame and making varsity under Knute Rockne, he was back in Green Bay after severe tonsillitis forced him to miss the spring semester.

Then, Lambeau ran into Calhoun, the sports editor of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, who had covered Lambeau as a prep. The two got to talking and decided to start up a football team. On Aug. 11, 1919, Lambeau, Calhoun and a group of young athletes gathered in the editorial room of the old Press-Gazette building on Cherry Street and organized the beginning of the Packers.

At the time, Lambeau was a shipping clerk for the Indian Packing Company, a war-time meat-packing industry in Green Bay. Because he somehow persuaded his boss, Frank Peck, to donate $500 of company money for team uniforms, the new squad had its name, "Packers.

Lambeau was a player and the team's first captain. And in their first season together, the Packers went 10-1 playing local foes.

In the meantime, the Indian Packing Company fell on hard times and was bought out by the Acme Packing Company. But in 1921, based on the success of the team, Lambeau persuaded Acme owners John and Emmitt Clair to back the Packers and apply for membership in the new American Professional Football Association (renamed the NFL in 1922). The Clairs agreed and on Aug. 27, 1921, the Packers became an official professional football franchise.

Not long after, poor finances and the illegal use of college players forced the team to be forfeited, but Lambeau bought it back at a league meeting in Canton, Ohio, for a franchise fee of $250, including $50 of his own money, in 1922.

Financial problems continued however, and with the team teetering on the brink of bankruptcy, Lambeau received aid from Andrew B. Turnbull, the general manager of the Press-Gazette, who forwarded money to Lambeau to help keep the team afloat in 1922, before rallying local businessmen to purchase stock and turn the Packers into a non-profit organization in August 1923.

ne of seven NFL coaches ever to win 200 games, Lambeau's 212-106-21 (.667) Green Bay record - including postseason - doesn't even include 1919 or 1920 before the team joined what is now the NFL. He guided the Packers to six world championships: 1929-31, 1936, 1939 and 1944.

The Packers didn't play an official postseason game until 1936 their first three championships were decided by league standing until the playoff system was added in 1933 - when they defeated the Boston Redskins 21-6 for their fourth NFL title.

Green Bay was back in the title game in 1938, but fell to the New York Giants by the score of 23-17. In 1939, the Packers got their revenge, blanking the Giants 27-0 to win their fifth crown after a 9-2 campaign. And in 1944, the Packers won their sixth and final title under Lambeau, defeating the Giants 14-7.

Six Packers played under Lambeau en route to a spot in the Pro Hall of Fame: T Cal Hubbard (1929-33, 1935), HB Johnny 'Blood' McNally (1929-33, 1935-36), FB Clarke Hinkle (1932-41), G Mike Michalske (1929-35, 1937), QB Arnie Herber (1930-40) and E Don Hutson (1935-45).

Lambeau's tenure as head coach included some pioneering developments: implementing daily practice (late 1920s), bringing Rockne's "secret weapon" of the forward pass to the pro game (1919), implementing pass patterns (1930s) and flying to road games (1940).

However, Lambeau's decision to purchase the Rockwood Lodge north of Green Bay at a price of $25,000 to make it the Packers' training facility didn't go over well with members of the executive committee and contributed to an internal power struggle that helped end his 31-year tenure with the team.

On Jan. 31, 1950, Lambeau resigned and was replaced by Gene Ronzani, who would coach the Packers until 1953. Lambeau finished his coaching career at the reins of the Chicago Cardinals (1950-51) and Washington Redskins (1952-53).

Lambeau was 21 years old when he became player-captain of the Green Bay Packers in 1919. The Packers didn't join what is now the NFL until two years later, so his official Packers playing career ran from 1921-29

Listed in Total Football at 5-foot-10, 187 pounds, he appeared on the roster as a halfback. But in those days, with the passing game in its infancy, the halfback received the snap from center, so in reality Lambeau was the Packers' first field general.

In Green Bay's first official league game, Oct. 23, 1921, Lambeau threw both of the Packers' two passes in a 7-6 win.

Earl Louis (Curly) Lambeau, born April 9, 1898, in Green Bay, Wis., died June 1, 1965, at the age of 67

LAMBEAU AT A GLANCE

- ▶ Multi-sport star at Green Bay East High School, he essentially coached the football team as a senior in 1917; he allegedly knew more than the coach.
- ▶ Played one season, 1918, at Notre Dame, where he lined up in Knute Rockne's backfield next to George Gipp.
- Tonsillitis ended his short-lived college career, but the ailment led to a chance meeting with Green Bay Press-Gazette sports editor George Calhoun. Over beers, Lambeau and Calhoun consummated the establishment of the Green Bay Packers.
- During his playing days, stood nearly 5-foot-10 and weighed 187 pounds, one of the larger players in any NFL backfield; the team captain, he played tailback, blocking back, fullback and end.
- Innovated the forward pass in pro football and was the first coach to implement daily practice.
- ► Father, Marcel, during the 1920s served as construction foreman, supervising several expansions at Green Bay's Hagemeister Park
- Pro Football Hall of Fame, charter class of 1963.
- One of seven NFL coaches to win 200 games.

Credited with inventing pass patterns, Don Hutson wasn't just the best receiver of his era, he's on the short list for greatest receiver of all time and is arguably the most outstanding player in Green Bay Packers history.

After a collegiate career at Alabama, Hutson came to the Packers in 1935 and began what would be an 11-season career. In that span, Hutson caught 99 touchdown passes, which was an NFL record until Steve Largent caught his 100th TD in 1989.

But if many of the 18 NFL records Hutson held at the time of his retirement have been rewritten since, over 60 years after he hung up his cleats and more than 40 years following his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, several of his NFL-leading standards remain intact.

Hutson led the league in receptions eight times, including five consecutive seasons (1936-37, 1939, 1941-45). He led the league in receiving yards seven times, including four consecutive seasons (1936, 1938-39, 1941-44). He led the league in touchdown receptions nine times, including five consecutive seasons (1935-38, 1940-44). All of those achievements remain NFL records.

Meanwhile, Hutson's four 200-yard receiving, games are second only to Lance Alworth's five. And Hutson's two 200-yard games in one season, accomplished in 1942, is an achievement bettered by only Charley Hennigan (three in 1961).

In terms of the Packers' record book, Hutson not only holds the standard for receptions in a game (14, against the New York Giants, Nov. 22, 1942), he's also runner-up on that list (13, against the Cleveland Rams, Oct. 18, 1942).

And Hutson's four-touchdown receiving effort against the Detroit Lions, Oct. 7, 1945, is a feat twice matched by Sterling Sharpe, but never bettered. Nor is any Packers player close to Hutson's collection of six three-touchdown receiving games.

Hutson, who also kicked seven career field goals and 172 extra points, even remained the Packers' all-time leader with 823 points until Ryan Longwell surpassed him in 2003.

tanding 6-foot-1 and weighing 183 pounds, Hutson twice earned the NFL's Joe F. Carr Trophy as its most outstanding player, doing so in 1941 and 1942 (The Associated Press MVP award didn't come into existence until 1957). Hutson was a consensus All-Pro five times (1939, 1941-441).

But he wasn't just an offensive player. In addition to his receiving and kicking duties, like most players of that era Hutson also played defense.

A member of three NFL title teams (1936, 1939, 1944) in the first half of his career, Hutson was a favorite target of Arnie Herber, who was taking Curly Lambeau's passing game to new heights. Cecil Isbell and Irv Comp also enjoyed seasons throwing to Hutson.

But Hutson was dangerously close to spending his career away from the pass-happy Packers. Coming out of Alabama, Hutson actually agreed to contracts both with the Packers and the Brooklyn Dodgers, a run-oriented club. Both teams claimed Hutson as their own, but NFL President Joe Carr awarded Hutson to the Packers on the grounds that their contract with the speedy receiver was postmarked 17 minutes earlier.

As a rookie, Hutson received a weekly game check of $300. Green Bay had only two banks at the time, and with the nation hit hard by the Great Depression, both banks had to write him a weekly check of $150 to cover the salary.

It didn't take long for Hutson to make an impact. Making his first start in the second game

HUTSON AT A GLANCE

- Changed the course of Packers history and, arguably, carried more influence than any player on how professional football is played.
- ► After seven weeks of dogged persistence, Curly Lambeau finally got the All-America receiver from Alabama to sign with Green Bay (one year before the first NFL Draft). However, Hutson also signed with the Brooklyn Dodgers, and both contracts were filed at the office of NFL President Joe Carr.
- Carr settled the hairy dispute with common sense. He awarded Hutson to the Packers because their contract had an earlier postmark. Without that providential decision, Green Bay's history would read much differently.
- Regarded as the greatest player of the 20th century by several experts, he owned world-class speed (9.5 in the 100-yard dash).
- George Halas devised several defenses specifically to corral Hutson. Halas generally conceded Hutson two touchdowns per game.
- ▶ Over 60 years after his retirement, still holds 10 NFL records: most seasons leading league in scoring (5); most points in one quarter (29), most seasons leading league in overall TDs (8); most consecutive seasons leading league in overall TDs (4, twice); most seasons leading league in receptions (8); most consecutive seasons leading league in receiving yards (7); most seasons leading league in receiving yards (7); most seasons leading league in receiving yards (4); most seasons leading league in receiving TDs (9); and most consecutive seasons leading league in receiving TDs (9); and most consecutive seasons leading league in receiving TDs (5).

of his career, Hutson's first career reception went for an 83-yard touchdown from Herber on the first play of the game in a 7-0 win over the Chicago Bears (Sept. 22, 1935).

Hutson's legacy was preserved over a series of events. First, in 1951, Hutson's uniform number 14 became the first to be officially retired by the Packers. In 1970, Hutson was named to the NFL's All-50-Year Team. And in 1994, he was named to the NFL's All-Time Two-Way team and 75th Anniversary team.

Also in 1994, the Packers dedicated their state-of-theart indoor practice facility in Hutson's name (July 18, 1994). Hutson was on hand for the dedication of the $4.7 million facility that includes 70- and 60-yard fields with 10-yard end zones.

Donald Montgomery Hutson, born Jan. 31, 1913, in Pine Bluff, Ark., died June 26, 1997, at the age of 84.

Nearly decades after his death. Vince Lombardi remains one of the most recognizable sports figures of all time.

His name graces the Super Bowl trophy. His likeness can be seen in a 14-foot statue at Lambeau Field. A flamboyant figure, his name remains attached to some of the most famous quotes in American sports history

In his career as head coach in Green Bay, Lombardi steered the Packers to five NFL Championships, including victories in Super Bowls I and II. He tallied a career record of 105-35-6 (regular and postseason combined), 98-30-4 in Green Bay.

And yet, Lombardi's name wasn't always so recognizable.

In early 1959, Green Bay was coming off a 1-10-1 season the worst in team history. Winners of six NFL titles under Curly Lambeau, the team hadn't had a winning season since 1947.

Ray "Scooter" McLean, head coach in 1958, resigned after one season. Searching for McLean's replacement, Dominic Olejniczak - then the president of the organization — became interested in a Giants assistant coach.

To that point, Lombardi had never held a head-coaching position, so when Olejniczak recommended him to the Packers' executive committee, committee member John Torinus replied, "Who the hell is Vince Lombardi?" It didn't take long to find out.

On Feb. 2, 1959, Lombardi arrived and told the committee, "I want it understood that I am in complete command here." Technically he wasn't, not yet, but within two days of his arrival Olejniczak gave Lombardi not only the head-coaching job, but the vacant general-manager position as well.

ombardi immediately changed the way the team looked, the way it played and especially how it thought. In 1959, he ordered that the Packers' uniforms be revamped. The resulting design was almost identical to the uniforms the team continues to wear today. In fact, the only major modification since was the addition of the 'G' helmet logo, which was added in 1961 and has never left. The logo was designed by then-equipment manager Dad Braisher, at Lombardi's request, Lombardi's offense was basic and methodical. Its most famous play, now often referred to as the "Lombardi sweep" or the "Packers sweep," consisted of Paul Hornung or Jim Taylor following pulling guards Jerry Kramer and Fuzzy Thurston. Lombardi was famous for his pursuit of perfection, often dedicating long hours of film study or practice to just one element of one play.

In his first team meeting after being named head coach and general manager, Lombardi made it clear just how determined he was to win. Looking into the eyes of players who just a season before had gone 1-10-1, Lombardi said, "I have never been on a losing team, gentlemen, and I do not intend to start now," True to his word, Lombardi never knew a losing season as a head coach.

His first season was a stunning success. He used many of the same players from that 1-10-1 team of 1958 and finished 7-5 in 1959, winning unanimous Coach of the Year honors. His first game was a 9-6 victory over the Chicago Bears in new City Stadium later renamed Lambeau Field — and when it was over, the players carried their coach off the field in triumph.

In 1960, the Packers won the Western Conference title, going 8-4. That brought Lombardi to his first NFL Championship Game, which the Packers lost 17-13 to the Eagles at Franklin Field.

It didn't take long for Lombardi to earn redemption, however. In 1961, after an 11-3 season, the Packers demolished his former team, the Giants, 37-0, winning the team's first title since 1944.

His teams went on to capture four more NFL crowns: 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967. Green Bay also won the first two Super Bowls after the 1966 and 1967 titles, respectively. In Lombardi's final game as Green Bay head coach, the Packers defeated Oakland 33-14 in Super Bowl II at the Orange Bowl in Miami.

But the Packers' 1967 season isn't remembered for that Super Bowl. Instead, the '67 campaign is remembered for the NFL Championship against Dallas, perhaps the most famous game in football history. Now commonly referred to as the 'Ice Bowl,' the Lambeau Field temperature at kickoff that day (Dec. 31, 1967) was minus-13, with the wind chill dipping to 46-below.

Lombardi had heating coils installed underneath the Lambeau Field turf prior to the season. But on a day when they were dearly needed, the coils in Washington, the Redskins went 7-5-2. Shortly after Lombardi's 1970 death, before Super Bowl V. Commissioner Pete Rozelle made what remains arguably the greatest tribute in league history, naming the Super Bowl championship trophy the Vince Lombardi Trophy.

In August 2003, before the rededication of a renovated Lambeau Field, the Packers unveiled statues of Lombardi and team founder Curly Lambeau in what is now the Robert E. Harlan Plaza outside the Lambeau Field Atrium. Each statue is 14 feet high atop a 4-foot base and 2-foot steps.

Lombardi didn't get his first head-coaching job until he was 45 years old. Before coming to the Packers, Lombardi was an assistant coach with the New York Giants. Lombardi also coached at Army. As a player, he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite" as a guard at Fordham.

Perhaps the most famous quote commonly attributed to Lombardi wasn't even his own. Legendary actor John Wayne uttered the phrase "Winning isn't everything, it's the only thing!" in a 1953 film called Trouble Along the Way. Lombardi may have borrowed that phrase, but many of his other memorable quotes are believed to be his alone.

- · Packers post first winning season (7-5) in 12 years.

13 TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS?

Until the league regularly scheduled postseason in 1933, NFL titles, including the Packers' first three crowns (1929-31), were decided by winning percentage in league standings.

However, the official league standings from 1921-71 did not recognize ties in figuring winning percentage (since 1972, ties have been considered half of a win).

That rule actually cost the Packers a fourth consecutive championship in 1932 (Green Bay is the only NFL team to win as many as three straight titles — 1929-31 and 1965-67) as many as three straight titles — 1929-31 and 1965-67).

The Chicago Bears (6-1-6) and Portsmouth Spartans (6-1-4) finished "tied" for first, ignoring their ties. The Bears won the title by defeating Portsmouth after the season, a game that counted in the final regular-season standings.

Several Packers fans use the 1932 championship to counter Bears supporters who say Don Majkowski threw an illegal TD pass to beat Chicago in the 1989 "Instant Replay" game.

PACKERS PATENTS

Football historians generally credit the Green Bay Packers with inventing several aspects common in today's game. The team is believed to be the first to.

- Implement daily practice (Curly Lambeau, 1920s).
- Innovate the forward pass into pro game (Lambeau used the "unsportsmanlike" play at will at East High School, then after only semester at Notre Dame in 1918 brought Knute Rockne's "secret weapon" to early NFL).
- Introduce a mascot at pro game (dog named Olive, because he liked to eat Durkee olives, 1919).
- Install a stadium public address system (City Stadium, 1925; local radio shop owner Peter Platten installed speakers powered by six-volt wet-cell batteries; former Packers player Jim Coffeen was team's first PA announcer).
- ► Have cheerleaders on sidelines (several games in 1931, from Green Bay East and West high schools).
- ▶ Use pass patterns (Don Hutson, 1935, ran a deep post to catch first career pass, 83-yard TD vs. Bears, Sept. 22, 1935)
- ► Charter an airplane to fly to a road game (1940)
- ► Have "tailgating" fans (some evidence suggests it was introduced at Bellevue Park, 1923-24, but no doubt perfected in new City Stadium's spacious parking lots, 1957)

2009 REVIEW

CHRONOLOGY

The Packers hosted the NFL's first Monday Night Football game after the Sept. 11 attacks

- Starr and Wolf dedicate stunning new Packers Hall of Fame (Sept. 4).
- Legendary players return to Green Bay, reenact Starr's Ice Bowl sneak, in 'Rebirth of a Legend' event (Sept. 6).
- Two middle-school students and a host of dignitaries, including Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, rededicate Lambeau Field at halftime of season opener. Vikings spoil day, 30-25 (Sept. 7).
- Running backs coach Sylvester Croom becomes the Southeastern Conference's first-ever black head football coach, taking over Mississippi State program (Dec. 2).
- Ahman Green breaks Jim Taylor's single-season franchise rushing mark, and Ryan Longwell breaks Hutson's Packers career scoring record, at San Diego (Dec. 14).
- At Oakland (Dec. 22), Favre authors finest career game, throwing for 399 yards and four TDs, in Monday night win, little more than 24 hours after his father's death.
- After winning seven of last nine to keep pace, Packers capitalize on miraculous Minnesota loss at Arizona, clinch last-minute playoff berth and NFC North title, with win vs. Denver (Dec. 28).

▶2004

- Al Harris' overtime interception return wins NFC Wild Card playoff vs. Seattle (Jan. 4).
- Inches from the NFC championship, Packers sustain heartbreaking, 20-17 overtime loss at Philadelphia (Jan. 11).
- · Packers name Lee Remmel team historian (Feb. 19).
- Hatley, vice president of football operations, dies suddenly of heart failure (July 26).
- Corporate treasurer Underwood announces after-tax operating profit of $20.8 million for 2003-04 fiscal year at annual shareholders meeting (July 28). Team's then-record financial success, derived in part from the new Lambeau Field Atrium and an increase in stadium capacity of more than 7,000 over the prior year, ups corporation reserve fund to $84.5 million.
- John 'Red' Cochran, who served the organization for 42 years as an assistant coach and scout — and still was scouting for the team — passes away at age 82 (Sept. 5).
- Packers clinch third straight NFC North title on last-second Longwell field goal, win at Minnesota, 34-31 (Dec. 24).
- White, who helped return glory to Titletown during 1990s, passes away in North Carolina (Dec. 26). Packers fly contingent of roughly 50 to funeral services, apply "92" decal to helmets.

- Minnesota Vikings, swept by the Packers in the regular season, stun Green Bay in Lambeau Field Wild Card playoff, 31-17 (Jan. 9).
- Harlan names Ted Thompson Executive Vice President, General Manager & Director of Football Operations, with full authority over football decisions. Sherman becomes Executive Vice President & Head Coach (Jan. 14).
- First annual Green Bay Packers Fan Fest in the Lambeau Field Atrium is an extraordinary success. Favre kicks off the weekend by officially announcing his return for a 15th season (March 11-13)
- The Packers and American Family Insurance announce a joint effort, through sales of a pink Packers Breast Cancer Cap, to promote breast cancer awareness, raise funds to support those afflicted and sustain research (July 7). With goal of $100,000, effort tops $1 million.
- At annual shareholders meeting (July 27), Larry Weyers reports record $25.4 million profit from operations during 2004-05 fiscal year. Team also establishes the Packers Franchise Preservation Fund (PFPF), formerly the corporate reserve.
- Believed to be first time in broadcast history that an NFL practice is televised to a national audience, the Packers and Bills culminate two days of combined workouts with the annual Family Night scrimmage on NFL Network (Aug. 5).
- For just the fifth time in their rich history, the Packers retire a uniform number, the late Reggie White's No. 92 (Sept. 18).

▶2006

- One day after a 23-17 win over Seattle finalizes the Packers' first losing season since 1991, GM Thompson dismisses Sherman (Jan. 2).
- After a thorough and exhausting nine-day search, Thompson names Mike McCarthy the Packers' 14th head coach (Jan. 12).
- Lambeau Field hosts the Frozen Tundra Classic, a collegiate hockey game in which eventual national champion Wisconsin defeats Ohio State, 4-2. The event draws 40,890, a virtual sellout and the fourth-largest crowd ever to see an outdoor hockey game (Feb. 11).

- At team's quarterly Board meeting, Harlan formally becomes Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and Jones becomes President and Chief Operating Officer (May 31).
- Annual shareholders meeting moves back to Lambeau Field; treasurer Larry Weyers reports $18 million profit from operations during 2005-06 fiscal year, saying Packers have moved to franchisehigh seventh place in NFL team revenue rankings (July 19).
- Perennial All-Pro Reggie White, then the team's career sacks leader, becomes Packers' 21st representative in Pro Football Hall of Fame, receiving induction on first ballot (Aug. 5).

- Work begins on Lambeau Field's new playing surface, a project that will equip the hallowed ground with the latest technology, DD GrassMaster. A natural-grass surface, reinforced with manmade fibers, is installed on top of a new drainage and heating system (Jan. 10).
- Team announces plans to celebrate 50th anniversary of Lambeau Field, the NFL's longest-tenured facility.
 An anniversary logo is created to mark the occasion with plans to feature it prominently, including on uniforms and on the field (May 15).

 The Executive Committee announces
- that John Jones, president and COO, has taken a leave of absence for personal reasons (May 26).

CHRONOLOGY

- At team's quarterly meeting, the Board of Directors unanimously supports a move that will allow Bob Harlan, then Chairman of the Board, to serve as the Packers' principal executive officer despite having reached the mandatory retirement age, 70 (May 30).
- The Executive Committee formally accepts resignation of Jones, who cites health concerns as reason for departure. A search committee for a new President and CEO, consisting of members of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors, is formed (July 20).
- At annual shareholders meeting, treasurer Weyers reports $22 million profit for 2006-07 fiscal year and a $10 million boost to PFPF, now at $125.5 million (July 25).
- For the first time since Aug. 5, 1961, Packers hold training camp practice at City Stadium, with nearly 3,500 in attendance (July 31).
- Favre throws his 421st career touchdown pass in victory at
- Minnesota, breaking Dan Marino's NFL career record (Sept. 30).

 Packers clinch first NFC North title and playoff berth since 2004 with win over Oakland (Dec. 9).
- Board of Directors unanimously elects Mark H. Murphy as Packers' new President and CEO. Schedule is established for Harlan to remain as Chairman through end of football season, when he becomes Chairman Emeritus and Murphy officially assumes role as top executive (Dec. 3).
- Team historian Lee Remmel announces his retirement, effective at the end of the calendar year, ending 62-year association with franchise as a sportswriter and member of front office (Dec. 12).

- GM Thompson signed to new five-year contract (Jan. 7).
- Packers overcome early 14-point deficit to defeat Seattle, 42-20, in NFC Divisional playoff at snow-covered Lambeau (Jan. 12).
- In third-coldest game in league championship history, with minus-1 temperature and minus-23 wind chill at kickoff, quest for fifth Super Bowl berth comes up agonizingly short with 23-20 overtime loss to eventual champion New York Giants (Jan. 20).
- Head Coach McCarthy signed to new five-year contract (Feb. 5).
- In awarding annual grants through Packers Foundation, franchise announces a comprehensive charity impact of more than $5 million in the past year (Feb. 19).
- Favre, owner of NFL career records for pass attempts, completions, yards and touchdowns, and the team's starting quarterback for the past 253 games (275 including playoffs), announces his retirement in a formal press conference at Lambeau Field (March 6).
- At annual shareholders meeting, treasurer Weyers reports $23.4 million profit for 2007-08 fiscal year and a $2 million boost to PFPF, now at $127.5 million (July 24).

- Favre un-retires and is reinstated to roster by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell (Aug. 4), then traded to New York Jets (Aug. 6).
- Aaron Rodgers becomes first quarterback other than Favre to start a Packers game since Sept. 27, 1992 (Sept. 8).

▶2009

- One week following conclusion of 6-10 season, McCarthy dismisses six assistant coaches (Jan. 5).
- Shawn Slocum promoted to special teams coordinator (Jan. 15), Dom Capers hired as new defensive coordinator (Jan. 19), and rest of coaching staff is filled out (Feb. 3).
- Packers select Boston College NT B.J. Raji with the No. 9 overall pick in the NFL Draft and trade up to select USC LB Clay Matthews at No. 26, the first time since 1993 the Packers bring in two first-round draft choices (April 25).
- At annual shareholders meeting, treasurer Weyers reports $4 million profit for 2008-09 fiscal year with PFPF remaining at $127.5 million (July 30).
- Packers dedicate renovated Nitschke Field as primary trainingcamp facility, welcoming overflow crowd of approximately 2,100 for first practice. Permanent bleachers are installed, and a portion of the new field is heated for late-season use (Aug. 1).
- Donald Driver breaks Sterling Sharpe's franchise record for career receptions (Oct. 18).
- Favre, now with Minnesota, plays first game against Green Bay (Oct. 5) and first game at Lambeau Field as member of visiting team (Nov. 1).
- Green breaks Taylor's franchise record for career rushing yards (Nov. 8).

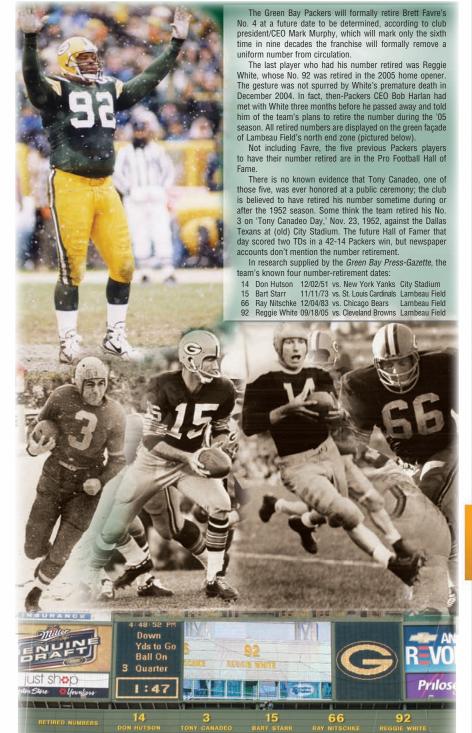

≥2010

- Defense finishes season No. 1 in the NFL against the run for the first time in team history, setting a franchise record for rushing yards allowed per game. Offense sets franchise record for points in one season, surpassing 1996 Super Bowl-winning team (Jan. 3).
- In highest-scoring postseason game in NFL history, Packers fall 51-45 in overtime at Arizona in NFC Wild Card playoff (Jan. 10).
- In awarding annual grants through Packers Foundation, franchise announces a comprehensive charity impact of more than $4 million in the past year (Feb. 22).

GREEN BAY'S FIVE RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

SHAREHOLDER & FINANCIAL HISTORY

Of all the reasons that make the Green Bay Packers and their story so incredible and unique, the most significant is simply this: The team is literally owned by its fans.

Presently, 112,158 people (representing 4,750,937 shares) can lay claim to a franchise ownership interest.

Shares of stock include voting rights, but the redemption price is minimal, no dividends are ever paid, the stock cannot appreciate in value, and there are no season-ticket privileges associated with stock ownership. No shareholder is allowed to own more than 200,000 shares, a safeguard to ensure that no one individual is able to assume control of the club.

The team has had three owners, all in its first four years, 1919-22. The first owner, Indian Packing Company, paid an unofficial purchase price of $500 to supply Curly Lambeau with uniforms and equipment. In turn, Lambeau and team manager George Calhoun called the club "Packers."

Shortly thereafter, Acme Packing Company bought Indian Packing Company and all its assets, including the fledgling team. In 1921, Lambeau convinced new owners John and Emmitt Clair to apply for membership in the new American Professional Football Association (early NFL).

With the team already headed for bankruptcy, the APFA revoked the franchise after Lambeau used illegal college players in a non-league game later that year. But before the 1922 season, Lambeau by himself reapplied and the league reinstated the Packers, with Lambeau as owner. When rain threatened to sink the team in 1922, A.B. Turnbull came to Turnbull, publisher of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, grocery man Lee Joannes, attorney Gerald Clifford and Dr. W. Webber Kelly cancelled Lambeau's $2,500 debt, then rallied the community behind the team. In August 1923, with more than 400 in attendance at a local Elks Club, the club was transformed into a nonprofit entity, the Green Bay Packers Corporation. The five men. including Lambeau, were nicknamed the Hungry Five.

There now have been four stock drives in the 91-year history of the team. The first stock sale, which took place at that 1923 meeting, saw local merchants raise $5,000 by selling

1,000 shares for $5 apiece, with a stipulation that the purchaser also had to buy at least six season tickets.

The second, in 1935, raised $15,000 after the corporation had gone into receivership. At that point, the nonprofit Green Bay Football Corporation was reorganized as the Green Bay Packers, Inc., the present company, with 300 shares of stock outstanding.

The third, in 1950, came on the heels of founder Curly Lambeau's 30-year dominion, when the club's officers arranged to amend the corporation's bylaws to permit the sale of up to 10,000 total shares of stock (opening up more than 9,500 shares for purchase), to limit the number of shares that any individual could own. The team also increased the number of directors from 15 to 25.

The response to the 1950 drive was inspiring, with people from all across Wisconsin, as well as former Green Bay residents living in other states, coming forward to buy the $25 shares of stock. Roughly $50,000 was raised in one 11-day period alone. Reportedly, one woman from a farm near Wrightstown, Wis., showed up at the team's offices with $25 worth of quarters in a match box. A total of about $118,000 was generated through this major stock sale, helping to put the Packers on a sound financial basis once again.

The fourth came late in 1997 and early in 1998. It added 105,989 new shareholders and raised more than $24 million, monies which were utilized for the Lambeau Field redevelopment project. Priced at $200 per share, fans bought 120,010 shares during the 17-week sale, which ended March 16, 1998.

With the NFL supporting the plan, the existing 1,940 shareholders overwhelmingly voted to amend the articles of the corporation on Nov. 13, 1997. The vote authorized the Packers to sell up to 1 million shares to raise funds for capital improvements, and received a 1,000-to-1 split on their original shares. Fans immediately were able to call a special toll-free number, or tap into the team's website for information on how to buy the 400,000 shares made available to the public.

EVENTS THAT HELPED TO STABILIZE PACKERS FINANCIALLY, 1922-66

- ▶ A.B. Turnbull's actions, 1922-23 When rain threatened to keep fans away and bankrupt the Packers, Turnbull told Lambeau and George Calhoun to play their games and that he'd bail them out of debt. Turnbull then organized local investors, turned team into non-profit organization in 1923, and raised $1,000 in team's first stock drive.
- ► Court decision to appoint receiver, 1935 After fan who fell from City Stadium bleachers sued Packers, team petitioned for friendly receiver, while litigation ran its course. Henry Grass, circuit court judge and Packers fan, appointed local accountant Frank Jonet as receiver. Despite Great Depression, Packers prospered during receivership (1934-37), thanks in part to growing popularity of NFL.
- ▶ Second stock drive, 1935 President Lee Joannes raises $15,000 in "Save the Packers" stock drive, getting donations from firefighters, policemen, high-school students, housewives, civic leaders and other citizens.
- ▶ Joe Carr's sending Don Hutson to Green Bay, 1935 College star signed two contracts, including one with Brooklyn football Dodgers. League President Joe Carr awarded Hutson to Packers because team's contract was postmarked earlier. Hutson, pivotal in timely 1936 world championship and greatest player in Green Bay history, helped team to climb out of court receivership.
- ▶NFL's installation of college draft, 1936 Kept small-market teams such as Packers competitive with big-city opponents.
 ▶Lee Joannes donation, 1937 Packers president paid $6,000 to settle case of fan who fell from stands in 1934, then convinced
- ► Lee Joannes donation, 1937 Packers president paid $6,000 to settle case of fan who fell from stands in 1934, then convinced court to end receivership period.
- ▶ Decision to play games in Milwaukee, 1933 Allowed Packers to tap larger market. As a result, the Packers now have one of the largest territories in sports (the NFL has traditionally given teams only 75-mile radius). By playing in both Green Bay and Milwaukee (1939-94), Packers thwarted any efforts to establish another competing pro football team there.
- ▶ Decision to invest in war bonds, 1940s Money in reserve carried team despite losses of at least $25,000 in 1943 alone, as World War II depleted rosters.
- ▶ Intrasquad game, Thanksgiving, 1949 Packers brought old-timers back, drawing 15,000 to City Stadium, earning $50,000
- ▶ Third stock drive, 1950—After Lambeau's departure, team raised nearly $118,000
- ▶ Bert Bell's push for league-wide TV package, 1950s With help from Congress, commissioner laid groundwork for CBS-TV deal that allowed all teams, large market and small market, to share revenue, eventually in place by the 1961 season. In 1966, Pete Rozelle signed first NFL TV package, with CBS and NBC, giving Packers more than $1 million (which allowed Vince Lombardi to sign Donny Anderson to the team's first long-term contract).

The initial response to the recent stock offering was staggering. In the first 11 days, roughly one-third — or $7.8 million — of the total amount transacted was sold. Paid orders poured in at a rate of 3,500 per day during this early period, generating about $700,000 each day. The sale hit its high point during the first week of December as fans purchased shares as holiday gifts.

Shares of stock were purchased by citizens from all 50 states, in addition to fans in Guam and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Over half (or roughly 64,300) of the new shares during the 1997-98 offering were bought by Wisconsin residents, followed by inhabitants of Illinois (9,600), Minnesota (4,300), California (3,700), Florida (2,900), Michigan (2,800), Texas (2,500) and Ohio (2,000).

Today, an annual meeting of shareholders is held in July. The event returned to Lambeau Field in 2006 after several thousand people were turned away from the 2005 meeting at the nearby Resch Center. As a means of running the corporation, a board of directors is elected by the stockholders. The board of directors in turn elect a seven-member Executive Committee (officers) of the corporation, consisting of a president, vice president, treasurer, secretary and three members-at-large. The president is the only officer who receives compensation. The balance of the committee is sitting gratis.

Shares of stock cannot be resold, except back to the team for a fraction of the original price. Limited transfer of shares (i.e., to heirs and relatives) is permissible.

Based on the original 'Articles of Incorporation for the (then) Green Bay Football Corporation' put into place in 1923, if the Packers franchise was sold, after the payment of all expenses, any remaining funds would go to the Sullivan-Wallen Post of the American Legion in order to build "a proper soldiers' memorial." This stipulation was enacted to ensure that the club remained in Green Bay and that there could never be any financial enhancement for the shareholder. The beneficiary was changed from the Sullivan-Wallen Post to the Green Bay Packers Foundation on the basis of a shareholder vote at the November 1997 meeting.

NOTABLE PACKERS FINANCIAL FIGURES, 1919-58

- $16 Amount each player received after first season, 1919. Players divided up profits after last game, some of which came from George Calhoun's hat, passed along the sidelines like a church offering.
- $500 Sum given to Curly Lambeau by Frank Peck, his boss at Indian Packing Company, for team's first uniforms.
- $250 Amount NFL charged Lambeau before 1922 season for re-entry; league forfeited franchise after Lambeau used illegal college players in 1921 game vs. Chicago Supremes. Using $50 of own money, he got the rest from friend Don Murphy. After joining Lambeau on drive to Canton league meetings, Murphy sold his car (Marmon Roadster), gave Lambeau needed funds, then purchased tickets home. In exchange, Murphy got to play briefly in 1922 non-league opener...George Halas, despite rivalry, was instrumental in persuading league to allow Packers back...Following Green Bay reinstatement, using Packers as example, the NFL asked each club for $1,000 to guard against using college players.
- $2,500 Deficit new owner Lambeau faced after rain-ravaged 1922 season. No games were ever rained out, but weather took its toll on home attendance. Following season, with help of A.B. Turnbull, Packers became publicly owned corporation, and new team leadership raised additional $1,000 in team's first stock offering.
- $5,000 Verdict awarded to fan who fell from stands at City Stadium in 1934 and sued team. Packers' public-liability mutual insurance company was already going bankrupt, so team forced to pay $2,500 to company's creditors. Fan's fall sent Packers into receivership.
- $15,000 New capital generated by Lee Joannes' 1935 stock drive, the second in team history.
 - $300 Don Hutson's weekly game check as rookie in 1935, one year before first college draft. In midst of Great Depression, city of Green Bay had only two banks. Both banks had to write Hutson a weekly check, each for $150.
 - $1,149 Share each player received for winning 1936 championship, after Boston Redskins owner George Preston Marshall moved the game to the Polo Grounds in New York.
- $6,000 Amount Lee Joannes, president of Packers Corporation, loaned team to bail it out of receivership (settling the fan's dam- age judgment). Joannes held the Packers in his personal possession as security. According to Forbes in January 2005, the Packers are worth $756 million, up from $392 million in 2001.
- $10,000 Amount team used to purchase Liberty war bonds, with profits from 1941 NFL playoff loss, 33-14 to Bears, one week after Pearl Harbor.
- $25,000 Price paid by Lambeau to purchase Rockwood Lodge, on shores of the bay north of city, for team's new training facility.

 Move drew heavy criticism from Executive Committee.
- $75,000 Amount paid by insurance company to Packers after Rockwood Lodge burned to ground in January 1950, shortly after Lambeau departed for Chicago Cardinals.
- $118,000 Funds created by third Packers stock drive, in 1950.
- $75,000 Price CBS paid Packers to televise 11 games each year from 1956-58. Teams in larger markets got much more money.

 Thanks to foundation laid by Commissioner Bert Bell and U.S. Congress, league in 1961 season instituted current policy of league-wide TV package, allowing Packers equal share, despite small market size.

DID YOU KNOW...

In 1952, the National Football League established a system for numbering players, with a vague exemption for "nationally known players." A year later, such players as Otto Graham (60 to 14) changed their jerseys to conform to the system. According to the mandate, quarterbacks and kickers were numbered 1-19, running and defensive backs 20-49, centers and linebackers 50-59, defensive linemen, quards and tackles 60-79 and receivers 80-89. In March 2004, NFL owners voted to allow receivers to wear 10-19.

blue stripes

1935-36: Team introduced green, and changed jerseys during season; began with plain dark green jersey with gold numbers and green pants, then shifted to green-vested shirts with bright gold sleeves (from neck to wrist), numbers and pants, and tall, plain green socks.

Throwback jersey worn in 1994, NFL's 75th anniversary; modeled after late '30s uniform, satinchested with cloth arms, gold pants, and two gold stripes on high navy socks; Packers also wore similar white uniforms (not necessarilly only on road), with bright gold numbers and faded gold shoulders; in the late '40s, the team still used this design.

1939⊳ During World War II, the team used three alternate jerseys (these two, and another white design), complementing the trademark blue uniform made famous by the incomparable Don Hutson (pictured in lower left column). The Packers wore white at home several times until the league signed major television contracts in the late 1950s.

1950: "We are the Green Bay Packers," said new coach Gene Ronzani, who solidified green into the color scheme. Old gold shirts with green numerals, green pants with bright gold stripe, gold socks with green stripes. Still used leather helmet 1953: Brighter green shirts with same striping and thicker gold numbers; team continued to vary its combinations. The Packers also had available a white jersey, saving it mostly for late-season West Coast trips.

1951-52⊳

1954-57: Navy-blue jersey, with new three-stripe design in dirty mustard gold on sleeves, socks and helmets, and matching gold pants. For 1956 opener vs. Detroit, Packers break out green jersey with white pants and white helmets, but never wear again until '58. "TV numbers" on shoulder appear in '56 for first time. Team used its older green jerseys and gold pants (from the early '50s) in several road games. In 1957, Packers began consistently wearing white on road, for television.

1958: New coach Scooter McLean brings back same green uniforms used in 1956 opener (white pants, white helmet).

The Packers will wear a third jersey and uniform in 2010, originally unveiled to the public at Fan Fest in March 2010. The design serves as a re-creation of the team's uniform from 1929, the year of Green Bay's first world championship

1929 marked the first of three consecutive titles, as the Packers recorded a 34-5-2 cumulative record in official league games from 1929-31. The jersey is navy blue with the number on the front inside a gold circle. The circle and number are enlarged a bit from their 1929 size to comply with NFL regulations regarding jersey numbers. An enlarged number is also on the back, with a nameplate above the number, another modification that wasn't present in 1929. The helmet is a solid brown color without a logo to best simulate the leather helmets worn during the era. The uniform pants are a tan color

NFL teams are allowed to have a third jersey that they can wear for up to three games per season (no more than two home games) over a five-year period. The re-creation of a historical jersey was a coordinated effort between the administration and the football operations headed by General Manager Ted Thompson. Working through the league, the team started the process roughly one year in advance of the announcement, wanting to focus on a historical jersey that had not been previously used in "throwback" games.

In 1994, the team wore 1937 uniforms as part of the NFL's 75th anniversary season. In their 2001 Thanksgiving game in Detroit, the Packers wore replicas of their 1939

The third jerseys, as well as the accompanying sideline apparel that the coaches and support staff will wear during the game, are available to fans in the Packers Pro Shop.

1959-60: New head coach Vince Lombardi revamps uniforms; basic design and colors (including dark forest green) are still in place Lombardi scheme did not include helmet logo, today; early and called for three-striped design on socks; all players were asked to wear same style cleats. In 1959 road games only, socks above striping were white (tops of socks have been green for all games since '60).

1961-65: Few changes, other than the team's first and only helmet logo, which made its debut in 1961; by 1965, most players were wearing five stripes on their socks.

1969: The Packers, with the rest of the league, wore a commemorative logo on top of their left shoulder, signifying the league's 50th anniversary.

1970: Conforming with league mandate, the Packers and the rest of the newly merged NFL applied names to the backs of jerseys.

1974: Majority of players began wearing white shoes.

1975: Three stripes (green-white-green) on pants grew noticeably wider, by more than an inch.

1980: Helmet facemask changed from gray to green.

1981: Socks lost gold and white striping; shifted to plain, solid green.

New head coach Forrest Gregg made the most changes to the uniform since Lombardi in 1959; team added logo to float on each sleeve's striping, uniform numbers to rest on each hip, and altered pants striping to include gold. "TV numbers" moved from arm to shoulder and a gold and white collar-enhanced neckline.

1988: The G remained on the sleeve, but the pants lost the uniform number. The team added a single gold ring to its socks.

1989: Pre-1984 striping (green-white-green) returned to pants; G logo disappeared from sleeves.

1991: Small NFL shield added to V of neck.

1992: Solid green socks returned.

1993: Packers displayed logo marking team's 75th anniversary, on upper left chest.

Team for first time since 1958 played as a unit with only three stripes on sleeve (shifting down from five stripes); NFL shield added to lower left thigh.

2002: "NFL Equipment" insignia replaced the NFL shield on the jersey neck and pants thigh. 2003: "Rebirth of a Legend" patch worn on chest for first game in rededicated Lambeau Field. all home games.

ALL-TIME PRACTICE SQUAD, 1989-2009

The NFL in 1989 created a five-player developmental squad. In 1990, the league changed the name to practice squad. Players can leave a practice squad for another team only if they join a 53-man roster of another NFL team. At the 2004 annual meeting, NFL owners decided to expand the squad from five to eight players. The 253 players who've spent time on Green Bay's developmental/practice squad:

TEAM SONG

The 2006 season marked the 75th anniversary of the team's official song, 'Go! You Packers Go!'

Originally composed by Eric Karll in 1931, the song still is played before every game at Lambeau Field, after introductions and before the national anthem.

Few people know that the famous modern-day chant, "Go, Pack, Go," shouted by fans in unison at home games, orignated from Karli's composition. Karli's work came on the heels of Green Bay's three consecutive NFL championships (1929-31).

Capturing the spirit of the day, and the passion of fans in his home state, Karll enjoyed a successful composing career. He flourished on the vaudeville circuit, becoming a renowned and highly regarded lyricist and musical producer. A pioneer in the early days of radio, Karll also originated a nationally syndicated show, Down at Herman's.

During World War I, he produced a musical entitled Welcome Home, Sweet Home, to entertain troops of the 32nd Division. He also drafted political music. One of his jingles, Welcome Mr. Roosevelt, was used on the campaign trail to inspire voters to re-elect Franklin Delano Roosevelt to a second term.

Born in 1888 in Reedsburg, Wis., Karll passed away in 1973.

But his legacy lives on his music, especially before every game at Lambeau Field. The song's lyrics:

Hail, hail, the gang's all here to yell for you and keep you going in your winning ways

Hail, hail, the gang's all here to tell you, too, that, win or lose, we'll always sing your praises Go, you Packers, go and get 'em Go, you fighting fools, upset 'em Smash their line with all your might A touchdown, Packers, fight! Fight! Fight!

Fight on, you blue and gold, to glory Win the game, the same old story

> Fight, you Packers, fight and bring the bacon home to old Green Bay

GO! YOU PACKERS GO!
(GREEN BAY PACKERS' SONG)

HALLOWED GROUND

One of the National Football League's most revered stadiums, Lambeau Field this year is hosting its 54th season of football

A year-round destination venue to be enjoyed by Packers fans in a variety of ways on an everyday basis, it underwent a dramatic facelift that added a host of new amenities and attractions. The conclusion of the redevelopment project was marked by a rededication game, Sept. 7, 2003, against longtime divisional rival Minnesota.

Featuring the only true "retro" look in the entire league, the glorious tradition and history of the Packers is carried forward in the "like-new" Lambeau carried forward in the "like-new" Lami Field with its heart — the original seating bowl — saved. The same hallowed ground where many of the NFL's greatest moments have transpired continues to exist, a canvas where current players can paint their own memories in future years.

At the same time, the structure has been transformed from a football stadium that fans could use only 10 days during the season to a Packers cultural center that can be enjoyed throughout the year. Within the five-story Lambeau Field Atrium, located on the stadium's east side, is the 25,000-square-foot Packers Hall of Fame, corporate meeting and event facilities for 25 to 1,200 people, five different eating options highlighted by a one-of-a-kind brew pub (Curly's Pub) with interactive areas, and a larger Packers Pro Shop (see page 585-587 for a full listing of the Atrium dining, entertainment and retail options).

Just outside the Atrium in the Robert E. Harlan Plaza. named in honor of the former team CEO (1989-2007), are bronze statues of team founder Curly Lambeau and legendary coach Vince Lombardi. Sculpted by Julie Rotblatt-Amrany (Lombardi) and Omri Amrany (Lambeau) of Fine Art Studio of Rotblatt-Amrany in Highland Park, III., at a cost of more than $400,000, each statue is 14 feet tall, atop three feet of steps and a four-foot base. Nearby the statues are several park benches - making the plaza area a great place to sit and soak up the majesty of Lambeau Field.

On game days, fans benefit from many of the same 21st-century amenities typically found in the chiral but storile found in the shiny but sterile, newer facilities that have sprouted up across the country in recent years — everything from wider concourses (including a new, upper concourse) to enhanced concession areas to modernized and increased restroom facilities (particularly for female fans), to a club level for suite and club seat patrons.

Two new scoreboards also highlighted the project. Developed by Daktronics, Inc., of Brookings, S.D., the boards — one each in the north and south end zones — measure 41 feet high and 162 feet wide. Both feature full-color LED video displays of 27 feet high by 48 feet wide, in addition to scoring, statistical and general information panels.

The 32-month, $295 million redevelopment of Lambeau was completed on time — and on budget — with the Packers remaining in Green Bay to play all of their games throughout the process. Put into motion by a county-wide referendum that approved a half-cent sales tax increase on Sept. 12, 2000, the project was financed jointly by the city of Green Bay, county taxpayers, the Packers and the NFL.

The Packers' football facilities — a vital element in attracting players in today's ultra-competitive NFL — also were enhanced greatly by the stadium's redevelopment, debuting in time for the 2002 season. The centerpiece of these quarters is a breathtaking, 64-by-120 foot, footballshaped locker room with 64 stately wooden lockers. Another 25 lockers can be found in an adjoining, auxiliary locker room, to be utilized during training camp.

The new football facilities also feature a much larger training room with all of the latest therapy pools as well as a permanent X-ray machine, a new weight room, individual position meeting rooms with theatre-style seating, a 150-plus-seat team auditorium, a basketball court with a parquet wood floor, a racquetball court, a team dining room and a players' lounge.

Not forgetting the Packers' rich tradition and history at Lambeau Field, then-GM/ Head Coach Mike Sherman requested three slabs of concrete that were located in the team's former field tunnel at the north end - which were walked over by many of the greatest players in club history — to be moved to the new tunnel in the southeast corner; the players began using it during the 2002 season. A nearby plaque recognizes the presence of the concrete from the old tunnel.

In July 2002, all of the team's administrative and football-operations offices also relocated to within the Lambeau Field Atrium on the stadium's east side.

Other benefits realized through the redevelopment project include a modern system of field lights that is more than eight times brighter than the previous stadium lights, and a new visiting team locker room. Also, a larger, more comfortable and modern press box that can seat in excess of 250 media members for a playoff game — and positioned along the sidelines — debuted in 2002. In 2003, the press box was renamed "The Lee Remmel Press Box" in honor of the former newspaper sportswriter, Packers public relations director and team historian. Remmel retired in 2007 after more than 60 years of close association with the organization.

Opened in 1957, Lambeau Field had seen numerous smaller-scale changes through the years, including seven prior seating expansions and the addition of suites. But, as new stadiums rose throughout the NFL in the 1990s, Lambeau Field became outdated. As a publicly owned team, the Packers must generate a significant amount of income from their home to remain competitive. Challenges with capacity, as well as the need for updated suites plus more club seats, restrooms and concessions, made redevelopment a necessity.

Faced with these challenges, the organization went to work in October 1999, assembling a plan to protect 80 years of Packers history and ensure the club's continued viability. After several feasibility studies and overwhelming support for renovation, as opposed to building a new stadium, the redevelopment plan was dubbed the proper course of action. Unveiled in January 2000, the plan ultimately won voter approval that September with the hard work of people committed to preserving pro sports' most unique franchise.

"Our fans overwhelmingly asked us to save Lambeau Field," then-president and CEO Bob Harlan said. "This plan accomplishes that while giving the Packers an economic base to build for the future in Green Bay. We want this to be the No. 1 destination in Wisconsin. We're going to build a stadium that the rest of the National Football League wished it had."

Included in the redeveloped stadium are more than 11,600 additional seats, including roughly 6,000 more bowl seats, to increase Lambeau's capacity to 73,120. Over 4,000 of the new seats were available for use during the 2002 season with construction ongoing

AMBEAU FIELD UPGRADES

- ►Increase in stadium capacity from 60,890 in 2001 to 72,928 presently
- ▶The Packers are making available 4,000 tickets per game to Brown County residents 18 and over who do not hold season tickets; the program began in 2003.
- ▶The team was able to further reduce its season-ticket waiting list, which still contains more than 83,000 people; roughly 3,500 names have come off since 2001.
- ▶166 state-of-the-art private boxes featuring increased square footage and high-end custom finishes.
- ►Club seating increased from 1,920 indoor seats to approximately 3,000 indoor and 3,000 outdoor seats.
- ►An exclusive club level can be accessed by private box and club seat holders on game day. Available to the general public during the year for functions.
- ► Concession points of sale doubled (to almost 300). ▶Dramatic increase in women's restroom facilities (180 to 556); men's restrooms increased from 436 to 708.
- ▶ Disabled seating increased from 56 to 733
- ► An upper concourse was added and existing concourses were widened.

The block of new seats helped the Packers to remove almost 1,500 names from their season-ticket waiting list - which still has more than 83,000 names on it between both ticket packages. Additionally, Brown County residents without season tickets have a chance to purchase the remaining 4,000 new bowl tickets on a gameby-game basis; in 2010, 10,000 residents were randomly selected from a list and were able to purchase four tickets. Disabled-accessible seats also increased dramatically through the development project, rising from 56 to 733.

The main concourse — previously so narrow in some places that it had become a safety problem — also was expanded significantly. And, a new, upper concourse, complete with concession stands and restrooms and which increases the ease with which fans can move through the facility, fully debuted in 2003 with the project's completion after partial use in 2002.

Concession stands and restrooms have been greatly expanded as well, lessening the time fans are out of their seats. Concession points of sale increased to 281 on the main and upper concourses alone, up from 186. Availability of women's restrooms, far below meeting the needs of female fans in the old stadium, increased from 180 to 556. Men's restrooms now are at 708, up from 436.

The centerpiece of the redeveloped stadium is the Lambeau Field Atrium, a 366,000-square-foot, fiveplus-story structure on the east side. MillerCoors, through a sponsorship deal announced in July 2002 that extends through the 2012 NFL season, is a partner with the Packers in the Atrium and is the sponsor of the area's main entrance gate. 80 feet high.

Revenue generated from the Packers Pro Shop, Packers Hall of Fame, Curly's Pub, the Atrium eateries, the Legends Club and special events, as well as other Atrium businesses, is essential to the Packers' long-term survival. In just the first year, with only the new Pro Shop open and several gate sponsorships sold, the Packers' NFL revenue ranking for the fiscal year 2002-03 jumped to 10th, up from 20th the prior year. The strong financial performance continued during the ensuing fiscal years as all elements of the redeveloped stadium are now online; the club's NFL revenue ranking has continued to be near the top of the second quartile, allowing the team to continue delivering on its promise to the community and its fans — turning profitability into the preservation of the franchise and the stadium. The redevelopment's economic impact on the area has been positive as well; roughly 60 percent of the Packers' special events department's bookings come from outside Brown County, bringing in additional business to the Green Bay area. The Atrium already has events booked out to 2013.

Two annual offseason football-related events have become popular attractions: Packers Draft Party and Packers Fan Fest. The former saw nearly 2,000 fans take

On the community front, the Atrium hosts four regular events each year. 'Spooktacular Fun,' a Halloween event that features interactive and entertaining activities including the 'Haunted Concourse,' music, magic, miming, clowns and jugglers, takes place in October. In November, the Packers serve a Thanksgiving meal to more than 800 people. March sees the Atrium welcome 'Project LEAP!' (Lambeau's Exercise and Activity Playground) - a day focused on getting kids out of the house to enjoy nonstrenuous physical activity. And 'Shindig at 1265,' a family event with activities, takes place in May. More than 15,000 residents enjoy the Atrium during these days.

The project's voter-approved financing came in the form of a half-cent sales tax in Brown County - where the Packers make their estimated $144 million annual economic impact — that supports over $160 million in bonding. The state of Wisconsin approved funding of an additional $9.1 million for stadium infrastructure improvements. The Packers, the city and the NFL contributed $125.9 million from a one-time seat user fee ($1,400 for seven-game 'Green Package' ticket holders, $600 for three-game 'Gold Package' ticket holders, in 2001), proceeds from the 1997-98 stock sale and an NFL loan. And, the club pledged to cover any project cost overruns in consideration of its authority to direct the design of the building and stadium construction.

The Packers' contribution to the project ranked as the fifth highest in NFL history. Tommy Thompson, Wisconsin governor at the time, signed into law enabling legislation May 13, 2000, in a ceremony held on the playing field. Later, on Jan. 3, 2001, the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Stadium District Board approved a new Lambeau Field lease agreement between the district, the Packers and the city of Green Bay; the lease's primary term runs for 30 after years the opening of the redeveloped stadium in 2003. ranks as one of the most recognized and envied locales in all of sports, a fact recognized in 1999 when Sports Illustrated named it the eighth-best facility in the world to watch sports - and the lone NFL stadium to make the magazine's "Top 20" list. Additionally, SI.com in 2007 and 2008 rated Lambeau Field as the No. 1 stadium experience in the NFL, as did ESPN The Magazine in 2009.

Even after the recent changes, Lambeau maintains its nostalgic and intimate feel with totally unobstructed sightlines. Permeated by history, tradition and mystique, the view from inside can be awe-inspiring.

referendum conducted April 3, 1956.

Located in southwest Green Bay, surrounded on three sides by the village of Ashwaubenon, Lambeau Field originally was built on farmland, purchased for $73,305. The stadium's original architect, Somerville Inc., favored the current site because it was sloped, making it perfect to build a bowl.

Lambeau Field, now in its 54th NFL season, is the longest continuously occupied stadium in the league — 10 years more than the next-closest venue, Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego at 44 years. In pro sports as a whole, only the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park (99 seasons) and the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field (97 seasons) have longer active homefield tenures

Including the redevelopment, eight seating additions — all paid for by the Green Bay Packers, Inc. — have increased Lambeau's capacity from its original 32,150 to 38,669 in 1961, to 42,327 in 1963, to 50,852 in 1965 and to 56,263 in 1970. Construction of 21 initial suites in 1985 moved capacity to 56,926, and a 1990 addition of 36 boxes and 1,920 theatre-style club seats changed the number to 59,543. The seventh seating addition, a $4.7 million project in 1995, put 90 more suites in the previously open north end zone, for the first time giving the stadium the feel of a complete bowl and upping capacity to 60,890.

Ultimately, the eighth addition bumped stadium seating capacity to 73,128. During the 2002 campaign, with work ongoing, capacity fluctuated between 65,290 and 66,110 as the season progressed.

In 2007, the Packers installed an entirely new playing surface, including a completely new drainage and heating system, bringing the latest technology in field management to the famous stadium. Chief to the new system is DD GrassMaster, a natural-grass surface reinforced with man-made fibers. All existing levels of the field were removed and the new system began with a clay sub-grade level, compacted and graded (with a .6 percent slope), including drain tile, irrigation pipe and thermostat wiring for the heating system. The second level consists of 51/2 inches of pea gravel. On top of the gravel layer is 30-plus miles of ¾-inch tubing for the heating system which can maintain a root-zone temperature of 55-plus degrees to keep the ground from freezing during the season's latter months. Level three consists of 12 inches of root-zone sand and Kentucky bluegrass turf. DD GrassMaster's synthetic fibers are stitched into the surface, providing strength and stability to the field. Fibers extend approximately seven inches below the surface, are exposed approximately one inch above the surface, and are spaced every three-quarters of an inch. Approximately 20 million individual stitches make up the process. The slope equates to a crown of about 5½ inches on the new surface.

Also prominent within the stadium are the names of the 21 Packers players and coaches elected to the Pro

THE LAMBEAU BOWL

One of Lambeau's special characteristics is its classic seating bowl, now exclusive to Green Bay. The bowl design, common in many traditional college football stadiums, remains virtually untouched following a $295-million stadium renovation. Did you know...

- ► The original architectural firm, Somerville Inc., favored the Lambeau construction site because it sloped, perfect for building a bowl.
- ► The bowl's outstanding sightlines are generally credited to Dick Gustafson, who worked closely with John Somerville during the design phase.
- ► Some of Gustafson's inspiration came from Michigan Stadium in Ann Arbor, where he went to college.
- ▶ Despite seating more than 62,713 (including an additional 6,601 from the recent renovation), the bowl still offers the
- NFL's highest percentage of great seats. Somerville credits that intimacy to the fact that the stadium was the first in the world designed exclusively for pro football.
- ► The original stadium district instructed Somerville to design a facility that could easily expand, and allow for offseason construction projects to be completed by August.
- ► The first significant project came just one year after the stadium's opening campaign. Workers replaced the original wooden bleachers with aluminum benches before the 1958 season.

Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The Packers' 12 NFL Championship seasons (southeast corner) and five retired jersey numbers (north end zone) are on the facade as well. In December 2006, the facade's northeast corner became home to the name of Ron Wolf, the former Packers general manager (1991-2001). Bob Harlan, then CEO, had the name installed, in a new tradition, separate from the Pro Football Hall of Famers, so that Wolf could be recognized in a way that is befitting of his enormous legacy with the organization.

Lambeau Field is among the NFL's toughest places to play. Green Bay holds an 107-37 (.743) regular-season record at Lambeau since 1992, plus a 8-3 mark in the playoffs, for an overall record of 115-40 (.741). Even more imposing, the Packers have won 107 of their last 143 games in Green Bay (including the eight postseason victories), since Oct. 10, 1993.

In the midst of nearly four full seasons at home without a defeat — prior to a 1998 Monday night loss to Minnesota, their last setback at Lambeau had come in the 1995 season opener — the Packers established the NFL's second-longest home winning streak (25). Only the Miami Dolphins (1971-74) have won more consecutive regular-season home games (27).

Over the past two decades, prior to the start of the redevelopment project, the Packers organization itself had spent more than $50 million on improvements to the stadium, the previous club administration building and training facilities, including construction of the original indoor practice structure in 1982 and its replacement, the Don Hutson Center, in 1994 at a cost of nearly $4.7 million. Recent improvements include DD GrassMaster surfaces on practice fields, Clarke Hinkle Field (2006) and Ray Nitschke Field (2009). Nitschke Field also has a new seating facility for fans attending training-camp practices.

Lambeau Field now is owned by the city of Green Bay and the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Football Stadium District; retirement of the city's original $960,000 debt was celebrated at a mortgage-burning ceremony in May of 1978

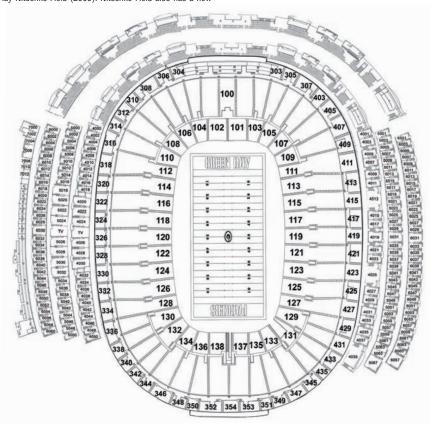

Sold out on a season-ticket basis since 1960 (285 consecutive games at the start of 2010, including playoffs) Lambeau was not the Packers' only regular-season home until 1995. The team maintained two separate ticket packages after moving all games to Green Bay, eliminating four annual dates at Milwaukee County Stadium.

'Gold' ticket holders (made up primarily of former Milwaukee season patrons) have a three-game package consisting of the annual Midwest Shrine preseason contest plus the second and fifth regular-season home games each year.

'Green' season customers (made up of original Green Bay ticket holders) have a seven-game package consisting of the annual Bishop's Charities preseason game and the remaining six regular-season contests.

THE SANDLOT YEARS

Inevitably, procedures at Packers games have come a long way since 1919-20, when the team subsisted on the contents of George Calhoun's hat. At that time, there were no ushers, cheerleaders, band or public address system, which hadn't vet been invented. There weren't even any seats, and admission was free.

From 1919-56, the Packers played their Green Bay games including their first league contest - at virtually the same address. Their first home games were at Hagemeister Park, a vacant lot marked with a football gridiron, adjacent to East High.

There were no gates because there wasn't a fence. Spectators just dropped off the Walnut Street trolley and walked to the sideline, or drove their own cars and parked about 10 yards behind the ropes stretched around the playing field.

If they felt like it, they either sat in their automobiles or on top of them, but most preferred to get out and follow up and down the field. By moving as play progressed, one always had a "50-yard line" location and was handy for any donnybrook that might require a little help. In fact, when things got exciting, the crowd sometimes spilled right onto the field, surrounded the scrimmage in a big circle and virtually took part in every play. Teams didn't huddle in those days, or the fans would have been in that, too.

When the half ended, teams grabbed blankets and adjourned to opposite end zones where they relaxed and talked over the tactics of the next half. The crowd formed a ring around the players, a practice encouraged since it made a handy wind break. Fans weren't bashful about joining the discussions either, sometimes with surprising results. At least one early game was pulled out of the fire by a spectator's halftime suggestion.

In 1920, the city built a section of stands a small bleacher that held about 200 giving the Packers their first justification for charging admission. The next year, a portable canvas fence was erected around the perimeter and a regular admission charge inaugurated.

BELLEVUE

When Hagemeister was dug up in 1923 to make way for a new East High School, the Packers shifted to the new baseball grounds at the end of Main Street, Bellevue Park (left). Crowds of 4,000-5,000 stormed the fences to boo the hated Chicago Bears. Green Bay was 9-2-1 in 12 league games at Bellevue from 1923-24. Eight of the nine Packer wins were shutouts, and the team won its last seven at the stadium, including a 5-0 home slate in '24. The lone tie was a scoreless affair in 1923

CITY STADIUM

Bellevue obviously was inadequate and too far out, lacking about every amenity needed for football. Agitation to build a new stadium somewhere near the original site culminated in the erection of City Stadium, behind the new high school.

The new facility was barely completed in time for the 1925 opening, but it was an immediate success (the Bears opener drew a record crowd of 5,389). It was a typical small-town park of its day (pictured at bottom), with wooden fences and stands on both sides between the 30-yard lines. Seating capacity was gradually increased until it seated 15,000 by 1934, with the end zones still uncovered. With the filling in of the area around the end lines, the ultimate capacity of just over 25,000 was reached (inset at left, middle photo).

After World War II, City Stadium gradually faded from its once proud position as one of the favored fields in the National Football League, to an inadequate and obsolete installation. As pro crowds increased, it was impossible to expand the stadium any further. With limited capacity, the Packers found it increasingly difficult to schedule top opponents at home. On Nov. 18, 1956, the Packers lost their final game at the stadium, to the 49ers. A new City Stadium, on Green Bay's west side, opened the following year (renamed Lambeau Field in 1965).

MILWAUKEE

The decision to play games in Milwaukee (including State Fair Park, above inset; and County Stadium, above right) played a key role in the Packers' survival. It allowed the team to tap a larger market and thwart any efforts to establish another competing pro football team there. The Packers played games in Milwaukee for 62 straight years (1933-94) until opting - mostly for financial reasons - to move all games to Green Bay beginning with the 1995 season.

LAMBEAU FIELD ATRIUM

Key to making Lambeau Field a year-round destination venue is the 366,000-square-foot Lambeau Field Atrium, more than five stories high on the east side of the stadium.

Included within the Lambeau Field Atrium are a number of dining, entertainment and retail options for Packers fans of all ages. Free wireless Internet access is available at the Atrium, too, for guests who want to bring along their laptop computers and log on to the Internet while visiting a restaurant or taking part in a corporate event or meeting.

PACKERS HALL OF FAME — Located one level below the main Lambeau Field Atrium floor, the Packers Hall of Fame is over 25,000 square feet of Packers artifacts and celebration of Green and Gold glory. A arthacts and celebration of order rebuilt office of legendary coach Vince Lombardi and lockers of all 21 Packers in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, including Reggie White, are among the highlights of this unique space. A moving, 12-minute movie about the Packers, produced for the team by NFL Films, starts the Hall of Fame experience, which does not end until the visitor reaches the plaques of all 144 members of the Packers Hall of Fame and a display of the team's three Super Bowl trophies. A must-stop for fans, the Hall welcomed more than 85,000 visitors during the 2009-10 fiscal year.

Fans can sit behind Vince Lombardi's desk as they walk through history in the Packers Hall of Fame, the anchor of the Lambeau Field Atrium.

stadium tours allow fans to experience the Packers' history-rich facility first hand and see several behind-the-scenes areas. Outstanding photo opportunities avail themselves throughout each tour. Tickets for the one-hour tours are sold on a first-come, first-served basis for each day's available tours. A popular attraction, nearly 80,000 people took the stadium tour during the 2009-10 fiscal year.

Public access to the inside of Lambeau Field is available only through a tour. The stadium tour hotline is 920/569-7513, and schedules are online at www.lambeaufield.com.

The NFL's most popular stadium tour also appears on itineraries of most fans; many of them schedule Lambeau Field and Packers training camp as their family's summer vacation.

Included on the tour is a stop at Paul Hornung's 1956 Heisman Trophy.

CURLY'S PUB — The focal point of the entire Atrium complex is Curly's Pub. Offering a little bit of everything for everyone, this restaurant, sports bar and interactive area serves up a menu like no other. Home-style favorites, creatively prepared and served at a very reasonable price, make this the place to come for the entire family. Watch any sporting event on the 138 monitors throughout Curly's. Play pool, darts and Madden football, or get more into the action with Curly's Game Zone with its custom football interactive games, including a section for kids. Or simply sit back and watch all of the action — either on the Packers' practice fields or down in the Atrium.

ATRIUM EATERIES — Four locally based eateries located within the Lambeau Field Atrium will be open roughly 100 days per year for special events and on gamedays. They are:

FESTIVAL FOODS BOOMERANG CAFÉ—Subs, sandwiches and wraps are on the menu. Add a cup of homemade soup or one of many deli salads for a complete meal. The food is so good, it will have you coming back for more.

FESTIVAL FOODS TITLETOWN GRILL — Serving Festival Foods' own Festy Burgers and Dogs in addition to their signature barbecue beef sandwich, this eatery features the best in traditional Titletown fare.

GOIN' DEEP PIZZA — This Italian eatery offers individual fresh-baked pizzas and creative pasta dishes.

MEAT PACKING COMPANY — A restaurant concept developed exclusively for Lambeau Field, overstuffed sandwiches, giant bratwursts and delicious desserts are featured on the menu.

SPECIAL EVENTS — Lambeau Field, through the Atrium floor, Legends Club, Miller Lite End Zone, Lee Remmel Press Box and Club 1919, is capable of handling every type of special event. From the many fine points that an elaborate corporate meeting requires to the extensive details of a wedding reception, the Special Events department (920/569-7515) can coordinate any function with catering provided by nationally known and award-winning Levy Restaurants. The Lambeau Field Atrium hosted nearly 500 events — including several wedding receptions — during the 2009-10 fiscal year, welcoming approximately 61,000 guests to the facility. Roughly 60 percent of the department's bookings come from outside Brown County.

Lambeau Field wedding receptions are common requests fielded by the Packers' special events department.

PACKERS PRO SHOP — Owned and operated by the Packers, the two-story Packers Pro Shop is nirvana for the Packers fan of any age, with over 2,000 individual items in stock. A unique place to simply visit, the Pro Shop has a refurbished 1957 Packers Chevy pickup on display, along with authentic helmets from all 32 NFL teams and framed, authentic jerseys from some of the team's Hall of Famers, among other things. The Packers Pro Shop is open year-round from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. weekdays, 9-6 on Saturdays and 10-5 on Sundays, with special hours for training camp, gamedays and holidays.

In addition to the dining, entertainment, retail and special-event options, the Lambeau Field Atrium hosts a number of football-themed events, as well as community gatherings and activities each year.

PACKERS FAN FEST — A two-day celebration of Packers football for the whole family, the unique event allows fans the chance to get up close and personal with their favorite Packers players, past and present, as well as coaching staff and front office personnel. More than 3,000 fans pack the Atrium to take in question-and-answer sessions, autograph and photo opportunities, football-related activities, a special kids' area and family fun. Among the highlights of the event is a tour through the Packers locker room, a destination that does not appear on the regular Lambeau Field Stadium Tour.

LAMBEAU FIELD ATRIUM

More than 600 fans packed Curly's Pub in the Lambeau Field Atrium to take in the first night of the 2010 NFL Draft. Live coverage of the draft is on more than 100 monitors and the Packers' flagship radio station, Newsradio 620 WTMJ, is on hand to provide programming as well. Appearances by Packers President/ CEO Mark Murphy, General Manager Ted Thompson, Head Coach Mike McCarthy and Packers players, as well as autograph sessions and door prizes, highlight the night as Packers fans get together to watch the draft, celebrate their team and get ready for the upcoming season.

COMMUNITY EVENTS — An obvious destination for football-related events and generally taking in Packers lore, the Lambeau Field Atrium also hosts a number of community events each year that draw thousands of people. Project LEAP! (Lambeau's Exercise and Activity Playground), a March event, focuses on getting kids out of the house to enjoy non-strenuous physical activity. Shindig at 1265, which takes place in May, is a family event that features exciting activities for all ages. Spooktacular Fun, held in October, is a Halloween event that features interactive and entertaining activities, including sing-along music, magic, miming, clowns and jugglers. Each November, the Packers, in conjunction with area parishes, serve a Thanksgiving meal to more than 800 people. New in 2006 was Festival of Lights, a November holiday-themed event that included a visit from Santa Claus, cookie decorating, choirs and a 40-foot tree with 10,000 lights. In addition to those regular events, other gatherings are held from time to time, including a community send-off for Green Bay's 127th National Guard Unit in 2005 and 2009.

FROZEN TUNDRA HOCKEY CLASSIC

Lambeau Field and the Atrium took on a hockey flavor the weekend of Feb. 10-12, 2006, as the team hosted the Frozen Tundra Hockey Classic,' featuring the Wisconsin Badgers vs. the Ohio State Buckeyes. Among the weekend's highlights were a community skate (more than 3,000 participants took part, including guests from 18 different states), picture-taking with the Stanley Cup and Vince Lombardi Trophies, an autograph session with the Badgers hockey team, and youth hockey sessions. The action culminated with a 4-2 Badgers victory in front of 40,890 fans. The attendance marked the fourth-largest hockey crowd of all time. An economic boost to Northeastern Wisconsin, more than 1,300 hotel rooms were booked and the event brought in nearly $3 million to the local economy.

LZ LAMBEAU — Lambeau Field served as a "Welcome Home" weekend for Wisconsin's Vietnam Veterans, Vietnam era veterans and their families, May 20-22, 2010. Over the three days, 70,000 people took in speakers, exhibits, music and premiere segments from Wisconsin Public Television's Wisconsin Vietnam War Stories documentary. Other events during the weekend included The Moving Wall. The Packers partnered with the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs, the Wisconsin Historical Society, Wisconsin Public Television and veterans organizations statewide.

COMMON OPPONENTS WITHIN DIVISION

At the NFL Spring Meeting on May 22, 2001, in Rosemont, III., NFL owners unanimously approved realignment, coinciding with the Houston Texans' 2002 debut. The 32-team league calls for a harmonic scheduling rotation, in comparison with awkward formulas used in previous seasons. Each team within a division now plays 14 common opponents, as follows:

- ▶ Each team plays home and away against its three division opponents (six games).
- Each team plays the four teams from another division within its conference on a rotating three-year cycle (four games).
- Each team plays the four teams from a division in the other conference on a rotating four-year cycle (four games).
- Each team plays a pair of intraconference games based on the prior year's standings (two games); i.e., first-place teams in a division will play against the first-place teams from another division within the same conference, etc. (two games).

^{*}The NFL will again utilize "flexible scheduling" in 2010.

Flexible scheduling moves will be announced at least 12 days before games in Weeks 11-16. In Week 17, the flexible scheduling move will be announced at least six days before the game. Flexible scheduling will ensure quality matchups on Sunday night in those weeks and give "surprise" teams a chance to play their way on to prime time.

NFL CALENDAR, 2010-11

- July 6 Claiming period of 24 hours begins in waiver system.

 Mid-July Supplemental Draft (if needed)
- July 15
 Any club designating a Franchise Player shall have until 3 p.m., CDT to sign the player to a multi-year contract or extension. After July 15 the player may sign only a one-year Player Contract with his Prior Club, and such Player Contract may not be extended until after the club's last regular-season game.
- Mid-July Preseason training camps open. Clubs are not permitted to open official preseason camp for rookies earlier than July 5. Veteran players cannot be required to report earlier than 15 days prior to club's first preseason game or July 15, whichever is later. The July 15 date is not applicable to clubs playing five preseason games. Except for quarterbacks and "injured" players, veterans cannot participate in any organized football activity for 10 days prior to mandatory reporting date.
- July 22 Signing period ends at 3 p.m. CDT for Unrestricted Free Agents to whom a June 1 tender was made by Old Club, and for Transition Players with outstanding tenders. After this date and through 3 p.m. CST, on the Tuesday after the 10th regular season weekend, Old Club has exclusive negotiating rights to these players.
- July 29 Annual Packers Shareholders Meeting; Lambeau Field, Green Bay, Wis.
- Aug. 6-8 Hall of Fame Weekend, Canton, Ohio.
- Aug. 10 Deadline for players under contract to report in order to earn a season of free-agency credit.
- Aug. 12-16 First full preseason weekend.
- Aug. 13 If a Drafted Rookie has not signed with his club by this date, he may not be traded to any other club in 2010.
- Aug. 14-18 Clubs have until five days prior to their game on the second preseason weekend to provide written notice to certain unsigned players and the NFLPA of their intent to place them on the Exempt List if they fail to report no later than one day prior to that weekend's game. Any player who fails to report prior to the deadline will be ineligible to play or receive compensation for at least three games (preseason or regular season) from the time that he reports.

Aug. 19-23 Second Preseason Weekend. Aug. 26-29 Third Preseason Weekend.

2010 Training Camp Roster Reductions

Aug. 31 To 75 players, by 3 p.m. CDT
Sept. 4 To 53 players, by 5 p.m. CDT
Sept. 5 Practice Squad established, beginning at 11 a.m. CDT

- Aug. 31 Roster cutdown to maximum of 75 players on Active List by 3 n m CDT
- Sept. 1 All tryouts on this date and for the remainder of the season must be reported to the league office.
- Sept. 2-3 Fourth Preseason Weekend.
- Sept. 4 Roster cutdown to maximum of 53 players on Active/ Inactive List by 5 p.m. CDT. Clubs may dress minimum of 42 and maximum of 45 players and Third Quarterback for each regular-season and postseason game.
- Sept. 4 Simultaneously with the cutdown to 53, clubs that have players in the categories of Active/Physically Unable to Perform or Active/Non-Football Injury or Illness must take one of the following options: place player on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform, or Reserve/Non-Football Injury or Illness, whichever is applicable; ask waivers; terminate; trade; or continue to count him on Active Isi.
- Sept. 5 Claiming period for players placed on waivers at the final roster reduction will expire at 11 a.m. CDT.
- Sept. 5

 Beginning at 11 a.m. CDT, clubs may establish a Practice Squad of eight players by signing free agents who do not have an accrued season of free-agency credit or who were on the 45-player Active List for less than nine regular-season games during their only Accrued Season(s). A player cannot participate on the Practice Squad for more than three seasons.
- Sept. 8 All clubs are required to file a personnel (injury) report with their conference information manager by 3 p.m.

- CDT (or as soon as possible after the completion of practice), on this date and every Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday thereafter prior to a regular-season game. An update must also be reported if there is any change in a player's condition after Friday.
- Sept. 9-13 91st Regular Season opens.
- Sept. 9-13 Beginning on these dates, vested veterans terminated from the Active List or Inactive List (and from Reserve/Injured if the player is placed on Reserve/Injured after the beginning of the regular season) are entitled to receive, after the end of the regular-season schedule, Termination Pay pursuant to the terms of the CBA.
- Sept. 28 Priority on multiple waiver claims is now based on the current season's standing.
- Oct. 19 All trading ends at 3 p.m. CDT.
- Oct. 19 Beginning on the day after the conclusion of the sixth regular-season weekend and continuing through the day after the conclusion of the ninth regular-season weekend, clubs are permitted to begin practicing players on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform and Reserve/Non-Football Injury or Illness for a period not to exceed 21 days. Players may be activated during the 21-day practice period or until 3 p.m. CDT on the day after the conclusion of the 21-day period.
- Oct. 20 Players with at least four previous pension-credited seasons are subject to the waiver system for the remainder of the regular season and postseason.
- Nov. 16 Signing period ends at 3 p.m. CST for Franchise Players who are eligible to receive Offer Sheets.
- Nov. 16 Deadline at 3 p.m. CST for clubs to sign their unsigned Franchise and Transition Players, including Franchise Players who were eligible to receive Offer Sheets until this date. If still unsigned after this date, such players are prohibited from playing in NFL in 2010.
- Nov. 16 Deadline at 3 p.m. CST for clubs to sign their Unrestricted Free Agents to whom June 1 tender was made. If still unsigned after this date, such players are prohibited from playing in NFL in 2010.
- Nov. 16 Deadline at 3 p.m. CST for clubs to sign their Restricted Free Agents to whom June 1 tender was made. If such players remain unsigned, they are prohibited from playing in NFL in 2010.
- Nov. 16 Deadline at 3 p.m. CST for clubs to sign Drafted players. If such players remain unsigned, they are prohibited from playing in NFL in 2010.
- Dec. 3 Deadline for reinstatement of players in Reserve List categories of Retired, Did Not Report, and Exclusive Rights, and of players who were placed on Reserve/Left Squad in a previous season.
- Dec. 31 Deadline for waiver requests in 2010, except for "special waiver requests" which have a 10-day claiming period, with termination or assignment delayed until after the Super Bowl.
- Jan. 3 Clubs may begin signing free agent players for the 2011 season.
- Jan. 8-9 AFC and NFC Wild Card Playoff Games
- Jan. 15-16 AFC and NFC Divisional Playoff Games
- Jan. 23 AFC and NFC Championship Games

PACKERS RADIO NETWORK

Wayne Larrivee and Larry McCarren enter their 12th season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network in 2010. Though both are veteran broadcasters, the two were paired for the first time in 1999 to bring the color and excitement of Green Bay Packers football to fans throughout Wisconsin, Upper Michigan and three more-distant states.

arrivee, who grew up as a fan of the Packers in his native Lee, Mass., enters his 33rd consecutive year broadcasting NFL games, having joined Green Bay's broadcast team after 14 seasons as the radio voice of the Chicago Bears (1985-98) on WGN and WMAQ Radio in Chicago. Earlier, he had done play-by-play of Kansas City Chiefs games for seven years (1978-84) on KCMO Radio in Kansas City. Known for his thorough preparation and his moderated, yet enthusiastic, call of the action, Larrivee's more-recent credits also include play-by-play for Big Ten Conference football and basketball for ESPN Regional and Big Ten Network, co-host of the nationally syndicated Pro Football Weekly radio program the past 20 years, and Chicago Cubs baseball. He also served as playby-play announcer of Chicago Bulls basketball on WGN-TV from 1991-2008 and for NCAA basketball on Westwood One/CBS Sports Radio.

Highly decorated, the 55-year-old Larrivee was named Illinois 'Sportscaster of the Year' in 1997 and is a seventime winner of the Silver Dome Award, presented by the Illinois Broadcasters Association, for best radio football play-by-play. He is also a four-time winner of a Midwest Emmy for Bulls basketball play-by-play.

A 1977 graduate of Emerson College in Boston, he was awarded the school's Alumni Achievement Award in June 2005. Larrivee also has done play-by-play of University of Iowa football, Quad Cities (Iowa) Angels minor league baseball, University of Missouri basketball and Kansas City Kings basketball.

cCarren first joined the team's broadcasts in 1995, working his first four seasons with Jim Inwin and Max McGee. Inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame in 1992, he also is a favorite among television viewers in northeast Wisconsin. Sports director at WFRV-TV in Green Bay since 1988, he additionally served previously as co-host of Inside 1265, the official television program of the Green Bay Packers. He has four times been voted Wisconsin 'Sportscaster of the Year' (1994, 1996, 2002, 2007) by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

An iron man at center for the Packers for 12 seasons (1973-84), McCarren played in 162 consecutive games — the fourth-longest streak in team history — helping him earn the nickname 'Rock.' He was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1982 and '83. Earlier, he had been a co-captain at the University of Illinois as both a junior and senior. McCarren, 58, originally is from Park Forest, Ill.

adio station WTMJ, which has been broadcasting the team's games since November 1929, continues its long-standing role as the flagship station of the Packers Radio Network. That designation continues into this century as the two parties announced an extension to their radio broadcast rights agreement in 2002.

The Packers Radio Network is made up of 53 stations in five states.

GREEN BAY PACKERS BROADCAST PARTNERS

The Green Bay Packers, Green Bay's WFRV-TV Channel 5, the CBS station that is part of the Viacom Television Stations Group, and Milwaukee's WTMJ-TV enter Year 8 of a comprehensive broadcasting partnership that runs through the 2011 season, providing year-round Packers programming, in addition to preseason games, to fans throughout Wisconsin and the Midwest

Regarded as an NFL model for year-round brand extension, the partnership produces the most comprehensive and varied team programming in the club's 81-year broadcasting history.

The agreement also provides for outdoor billboard advertising and other media supporting Lambeau Field as a year-round destination venue for family entertainment, dining and Packers football excitement.

The Lambeau Field Atrium is the site of the Atrium Broadcast Center, a television studio that serves as a hub for regular on-site programming by WFRV-TV and WTMJ-TV, including news, sports and/or weather, throughout the year.

The broadcasting package includes:

- ► Televising, by CBS Sports and WFRV-TV in conjunction with Milwaukee's WTMJ-TV, Packers preseason games over a 10-station network throughout the state of Wisconsin, Upper Michigan, Northeastern Minnesota and the Quad Cities in Iowa, with CBS network production, personnel and the latest network-quality technology.
- ▶ A top-notch broadcast team that includes CBS's Kevin Harlan calling the play-by-play with fellow CBS broadcaster Rich Gannon providing the analysis. WTMJ's Jessie Garcia serves as the sideline reporter and WFRV's Larry McCarren joins the crew for pregame segments.
- ► An informative half-hour show prior to each preseason game.
- ► A half-hour preview show during training camp.
- ▶ A Packers Inside Lambeau show Thursday nights during the season, originating from Curly's Pub in the Lambeau Field Atrium, that includes player guests.

PRESEASON BROADCAST TEAM

KEVIN HARLAN Play-by-play announcer

Has called regular-season games for CBS Sports since 1998 after four years with FOX (1994-97) and is regarded as one of the finest at his trade in the country. Provides play-by-play for Monday Night Football games on Westwood One. A veteran broadcaster, also "voices" NCAA Tournament basketball games for CBS, as well as NBA games for TNT. Owns a unique perspective on Packers football, having been raised in Green Bay.

RICH GANNON Color analyst

The 18-year NFL veteran and former league MVP enters his fourth year in the Packers' preseason television booth. He officially retired from football in 2005 and teamed with Harlan for CBS Sports NFL broadcasts.

LARRY McCARREN

Pre-game analyst

Enjoyed a 12-year career at center in Green Bay (1973-84) and is a member of the Packers Hall of Fame. Is well known to Packers fans from his role as analyst on the Packers Radio Network, a position he's held since 1995. He also serves as co-host of The Mike McCarthy Show and previously co-hosted Inside 1265, the official television program of the Packers.

JESSIE GARCIA

Sideline reporter

A Wisconsin native and 16-year veteran of WTMJ, is familiar to Packers fans in the state through her outstanding coverage of the team. She co-hosts The Mike McCarthy Show with McCarren, and previously co-hosted Inside 1265, the official television program of the club. Prior to her tenure at WTMJ, she worked at WISC-TV in Madison, Wis. (1992-93).

As well as a first-rate on-air broadcast lineup, the partnership boasts an excellent production team. CBS's Ross Schneiderman, a seven-time Emmy Award winner, serves as producer, and Suzanne Smith, a three-time Emmy Award-winning producer and director for CBS, works as director for the game telecasts.

In addition to WFRV-TV and WTMJ-TV, the games are televised over WKOW/ABC, Madison, Wis.; WAOW/ABC,

WKUW/ABC, Madison, Wis.; WAOW/ABC, Wausau/Rhinelander, Wis.; WXOW/ABC, La Crosse, Wis.; WQOW/ABC, Eau Claire; WYOW/ABC, Eagle River, Wis.; WJMN/CBS, Marquette, Mich.; KQDS-TV/FOX, Duluth, Minn.; and KGCW/CW, Quad Cities in Iowa

Ancillary benefits afforded by the agreement are special programs about the Lambeau Field Atrium and the Packers Hall of Fame, plus the promotion of Lambeau Field and Brown County tourism on a regional basis through CBS/Liberty-owned TV stations in Chicago, Detroit and Minneapolis, in addition to Green Bay.

The partnership also provides the Packers an opportunity to salute Wisconsin's high school athletes through supporting messages during broadcasts of the WIAA basketball tournaments and other prep events.

WAIVERS

The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other clubs in the League. During the procedure, the 31 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so-thus the term "waiver." Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of won-and-lost standing. The claiming period is 24 hours from the first business day after the Super Bowl through the last business day prior to June 1. From June 1 through the last business day prior to July 4, the claiming period is three days. From the first business day after July 4 through the conclusion of the regular season, the claiming period is 24 hours. If a player passes through waivers unclaimed, he becomes a free agent. All waivers are no recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from the beginning of the waiver system each year through the trading deadline (October 19, 2010), any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit is not subject to the waiver system if the club desires to release him. After the trading deadline, such players are subject to the waiver system.

ACTIVE/INACTIVE LIST

The Active/Inactive List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract who are eligible for preseason, regular-season, and postseason games. Teams are permitted to open training camp with no more than 80 players under contract and thereafter must meet two mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener. Teams will be permitted an Active List of 45 players and an Inactive List of eight players for each regular-season and postseason game. Provided that a club has two quarterbacks on its 45-player Active List, a third quarterback from its Inactive List is permitted to dress for the game, but if he enters the game during the first three quarters, the other two quarterbacks are thereafter prohibited from playing. Teams also are permitted to establish Practice Squads of up to eight players who are eligible to participate in practice, but these players remain free agents and are eligible to sign with any other team in the league.

Aug. 31	Roster reduction to 75 players
Sept. 4	Roster reduction to 53 players
Sept. 5 Practice Squ	and established, up to 8 players

In addition to the squad limits described above, the overall roster limit of 80 players remains in effect throughout the regular season and postseason. The overall limit is applicable to players on a team's Active, Inactive, and certain Exempt Lists, players on the Practice Squad, and players on the Reserve List as Injured, Physically Unable to Perform, Non-Football Illness/Injury, and Suspended by Club.

RESERVE LIST

The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service, or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Players on Reserve/Injured are not eligible to practice or return to the Active/Inactive List in the same season that they are placed on Reserve. Players in the category of Reserve/Retired, Reserve/Did Not Report, Reserve/Exclusive Rights, and players who were placed in the category of Reserve/Left Squad in a previous season may not be reinstated during the period from 30 days before the end of the regular season through the postseason.

TRADES

Unrestricted trading between the AFC and NFC is allowed in 2010 through October 19, after which trading will end until 2011.

NFL TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

The following procedures will be used to break standings ties for postseason playoffs and to determine regular-season schedules (NOTE tie games count as one-half win and one-half loss for both clubs).

TO BREAK A TIE WITHIN A DIVISION If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with the best won-lost-tied percentage, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined:

TWO CLUBS

- Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
- 3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
- 5. Strength of victory
- 6. Strength of schedule.
- Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
- Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
- 9. Best net points in common games.
- 10. Best net points in all games.
- 11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
- 12 Coin toss

THREE OR MORE CLUBS

NOTE: If two clubs remain tied after a third club is eliminated during any step, tie-breaker reverts to Step 1 of the two-club format.

- Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs).
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
- 3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
- 5. Strength of victory
- 6. Strength of schedule.
- Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
- Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
- 9. Best net points in common games.
- 10. Best net points in all games.
- 11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
- 12. Coin toss.

TO BREAK A TIE FOR THE WILD CARD TEAM

If it is necessary to break ties to determine the two Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken:

- If all the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tie-breaker.
- B. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps:

TWO CLUBS

- 1. Head-to-head, if applicable.
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in the games played within the conference.
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
- 4. Strength of victory.
- 5. Strength of schedule.
- Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
- Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
- 8. Best net points in conference games.
- 9. Best net points in all games.
- 10. Best net touchdowns in all games.
- 11. Coin toss.

THREE OR MORE CLUBS

- Apply division tie-breaker to eliminate all but highestranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step
 The original seeding within a division upon application of the division tie-breaker remains the same for all subsequent applications of the procedure that are necessary to identify the Wild Card participants.
- Head-to-head sweep (apply only if one club has defeated each of the others or one club has lost to each of the others).
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
- Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
- Strength of victory.
- 6. Strength of schedule.
- Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
- Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
- Best net points in conference games.
- 10. Best net points in all games.
- 11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
- 12 Coin toss

When the first Wild Card team has been identified, the procedure is repeated to name the second Wild Card (i.e., eliminate all but the highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step 2). In situations where three teams from the same division are involved in the procedure, the original seeding of the teams remains the same for subsequent applications of the tie-breaker if the top-ranked team in that division qualifies for a Wild Card berth.

OTHER TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

- 1. Only one club advances to the playoffs in any tie breaking step. Remaining tied clubs revert to the first step of the applicable division or Wild Card tie-breakers. As an example, if two clubs remain tied in any tie-breaker step after all other clubs have been eliminated, the procedure reverts to Step 1 of the two-club format to determine the winner. When one club wins the tie-breaker, all other clubs revert to Step 1 of the applicable two-club or three-club format.
- In comparing records against common opponents among tied teams, the best won-lost-tied percentage is the deciding factor since teams may have played an unequal number of games.
- To determine home-field priority among division titlists, apply Wild Card tie-breakers.
- To determine home-field priority for Wild Card qualifiers, apply division tie-breakers (if teams are from the same division) or Wild Card tie-breakers (if teams are from different divisions).

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES FOR SELECTION MEETING

- Clubs not participating in the playoffs shall select in the first through 20th positions in reverse standings order.
- The Super Bowl winner is last and Super Bowl loser is next-to-last.
- The losers of the Conference Championship games shall select 29th and 30th based on won-lost-tied percentage.
- 4. The losers of the Divisional playoff games shall select 25th through 28th based on won-lost-tied percentage.
- The losers of the Wild Card games shall select 21st through 24th based on won-lost-tied percentage.

If ties exist in any grouping except (2) above, such ties shall be broken by strength of schedule. If any ties cannot be broken by strength of schedule, the divisional or conference tie-breakers, if applicable, shall be applied. Any ties that still exist shall be broken by a coin flip.

NTS 2009 REVIEW

MEDIA INFORMATION & POLICIES

TED THOMPSON INTERVIEWS (PRESEASON)

▶ During training camp, General Manager Ted Thompson will be available weekly for group interviews in the Media Auditorium. These sessions are meant to meet the needs of electronic media, along with assisting print media. As needed, primary beat writers may continue to schedule one-on-one interviews at other times, over the telephone through Jeanne Bruette. All other requests should be directed to Jeff Blumb (920/569-7210.)

the open locker room period for player access.

▶ Please check with the P.R. staff in mid-July for a specific schedule of Thompson's press conferences.

MIKE McCARTHY PRESS CONFERENCES

- ► Head Coach Mike McCarthy will preview training camp in the Media Auditorium on Friday, July 30, at 4 p.m.
- ▶ During training camp, the coach generally will be available on the field once per day, following the first practice. On days with two practices, this press conference will take place following the morning session, at approximately 10:40 a.m. He also has agreed to make himself available for no more than five minutes following the evening practice. This brief evening session is not to be recorded for broadcast purposes. On days with one practice, McCarthy's press conference will take place following the 2 p.m. session, at approximately 4:30 p.m.

- ▶ During the regular season, the coach generally will be available in the Media Auditorium Monday (12:15 p.m.), Wednesday (1:25 p.m.), Thursday (1:15 p.m.), Friday (12:10 p.m.) and after home games.
- ► One-on-one interviews with McCarthy should be arranged through Jeff Blumb (920/569-7210).

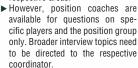

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

- ▶ During training camp, the team's locker room will open once per day for 30 minutes, following the first practice. On days with two practices, this availability will take place following the morning session, from approximately 10:50-11:20 a.m. On days with one practice, this availability will take place following the 2 p.m. session, from approximately 4:45-5:15 p.m. There will be no player availability following night practices.
- ▶ During the regular season, the locker room generally will be open on Monday (3-3:30 p.m.), Wednesday (1:40-2:25 p.m.), Thursday (1:40-2:25 p.m.), Friday (12:15-1 p.m.) and following games.
- ► At the conclusion of all games, the locker room will be opened following the NFL's standard "cooling off" period.
- ► Any requests to interview players other than at the aforementioned times should be directed to a member of the Packers' public relations department.

ASSISTANT COACH AVAILABILITY

All by request, through the P.R. department

- ▶ During training camp, all assistants generally will be available on the field for both print and electronic media upon request following the day's first practice, in-person, on Tuesdays. Coordinators only will be available on Thursdays under the same guidelines.
- ▶ During the regular season, assistants generally will be available in person on Mondays, Thursdays (offense and special teams) and Fridays (defense) in the hallway outside the locker room. On Mondays, this availability will be between 3-3:30 p.m. The availability will be soon after practice on Thursday (1:30 p.m.) and Friday (12:30 p.m.). ▶ Following games, coordinators will be available upon - request, provided the request is made through the P.R. department (preferably by the two-minute warning and no later than the time the locker room opens to media).
- Coordinators Joe Philbin (offense, pictured at top), Dom Capers (defense, middle) and Shawn Slocum (special teams, bottom) will continue to serve as primary spokesmen in their respective areas.

- ► Assistant coaches also are available for interviews on more personal subjects, such as Winston Moss on his NFL playing career.
- No assistant coach should be contacted directly by telephone (at his desk, home or on his cell phone), or by e-mail. All interviews must be arranged through the P.R. department.
- Sarah Quick (920/569-7213) serves as the primary contact for assistant coaches. In her absence, feel free to contact another member of the P.R. staff.

PRACTICE ACCESS & PHOTOGRAPHY GUIDELINES

- ▶ During training camp, practices are open in their entirety to credentialed media. However, photography may not be allowed for some periods at the direction of the coaching staff.
- ▶ During the regular season, Wednesday-Friday practices will be open to state media who regularly cover the team for designated periods during the first half of each session, similar to previous seasons. Also as in prior years, photo opportunities will be limited to the beginning portions of practice.
- ► Regular-season practices will begin at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday and Thursday, and at 10 a.m. Friday.
- ► The team reserves the right to limit photography to certain periods for competitive reasons. This restriction applies to both training camp and regular-season practices.

*All information is subject to change

All credential requests should be directed to Jeff Blumb, director of public relations. Requests may be sent via e-mail (c/o Sarah Quick; quicks@packers.com), FAX (920/569-7201) or U.S. mail (P.O. Box 10628, Green Bay, WI 54307-0628). Credentials will not be mailed, unless the requesting outlet provides a Federal Express or UPS number, and should be picked up in person at the Packers' public relations office, located on the third floor of the Lambeau Field Atrium. Credentials not obtained prior to game day will be left at Media Will Call on the west side of the stadium. The will call booth opens three hours prior to kickoff.

ONLINE CONTENT POLICY

According to the 2010 NFL non-game online content policy, accredited organizations may distribute online non-game audio and video content, including interviews, press conferences and team practices at NFL venues, acquired as a result of credentialed access ("Game Information") to games or club/league facilities provided that such distribution: is 90 seconds maximum per day (180 seconds in two-team markets - 90 seconds per team); may not be "archived" (i.e., made available for ondemand public access) for more than 24 hours; appears in an editorial context only (no sponsorship, merchandising or advertising integrated with or around the content); is not posted live, and is accompanied by links back to NFL.com and to the club website.

The 90-second limit does not include video/audio material that is comprised entirely of a credentialed media employee providing commentary or analysis ("Talking head" reporting), including pre- or post-game stand-up material shot on the field or other facility location.

While a game is in progress, any forms of accounts of the game must be sufficiently time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., score updates with detail given only in quarterly game updates, fewer than 10 photographs during the game) so that the Accredited Organization's game coverage cannot be used as a substitute for, or otherwise approximate, authorized play-by-play accounts.

The Packers have their own social media and online content policies for practice reporting, which will be communicated by the public relations staff for both training camp and the regular season. Members of the media are encouraged to contact the public relations staff with any questions.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS

Photo credentials will not be issued to freelance photographers unless on a specific assignment from an accredited organization. Credentials are not provided to "grips" due to on-field space limitations.

CONFERENCE CALLS

The Packers' public relations department will arrange a conference call with the head coach and a key player of the opposing team each week during the regular season. These conference calls will be made from the Media Workroom, and generally will be held on Wednesday.

TELEPHONES / INTERNET

Lambeau Field features complimentary wireless internet in the main press box. Please contact the public information department if you require assistance.

The general press room phone number is 920/569-7550. In the Lee Remmel Press Box at Lambeau Field, more than a dozen "co-op" phones are available to media throughout the box. If dedicated service is desired, please contact Don Raddatz of Northern Musicast seven to 10 days prior to the game at 920/739-8282 or by FAX at 920/739-4735. Instruments also may be obtained through Raddatz, upon request.

Dedicated internet service also may be ordered through Raddatz (920/739-8282) — on a game-by-game or full-season basis — for installation in either the Lee Remmel Press Box or in the downstairs Photo/Media Workrooms.

POOL REPORTERS

As assigned by the Professional Football Writers of America (PFWA), the Green Bay pool reporter for the 2010 season is Mike Vandermause of the Green Bay Press-Gazette. Tom Silverstein of the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel is the alternate.

2010 MEDIA WALKING DIRECTIONS, LAMBEAU FIELD

FROM PRESS BOX TO LOCKER ROOMS

- PACKERS LOCKER ROOM: Take press box elevator to Level M. Go right onto mezzanine, which you will follow around to the south end of the stadium until reaching Stair 0. Take stairs down to bottom (field level, marked LL). Go through several doors, then cross field tunnel to reach Media Auditorium (post-game press conference area), which is on your immediate right. To reach locker room, continue to and through double doors marked Authorized Personnel Only. Locker room entrance is the second door on your right
- ▶ VISITING TEAM LOCKER ROOM: Take press box elevator to Level M. Go right onto mezzanine, which you will follow around to the south end of the stadium until reaching Stair O. Take stairs down to Floor 1 and go through door at left. Curve right, make a quick left, then go straight 15 yards and through a set of two doors. Entrance to Visiting Team Interview Room (1C16) will be on your left, about 50 yards down. To reach Visiting Team Locker Room, continue same path down corridor.

FROM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT

► Take press box elevator to Level 1. Exit to left out of lobby to parking lot.

PRESS GATE & WILL CALL INFORMATION

- ▶ Media credentialed for the Press Box should enter the stadium on the west (Ridge Road) side at the Associated Bank Gate. Upon entering stadium, take the elevator at immediate right to the Lee Remmel Press Box (Level 7).
- Field photographers and other media credentialed for field access should enter the stadium on the south end at the Media Workroom entrance.
- Media Will Call is located on the west side of stadium, facing Ridge Road, just to the left of Credentialed Media entrance at the Associated Bank Gate.
- ▶ Ticket will call is on the northeast corner of the stadium, near the Packers Pro Shop, which faces Lombardi Avenue.

LATE PRESS BOX EXIT

► Take press box elevator to Level 1. Exit to left out of lobby to parking lot. Once outside, turn left again, walking toward media parking lot, on southwest corner of stadium property.

LATE PARKING LOT EXIT

▶ To reach Lombardi Avenue from media parking lot, use nearest lot exit, turning right onto Ridge Road toward Lombardi.
